

Dear Chief 381

Chapter 381: Master Qi's Head Rub

"How terrifying! It turns out that the skin of a frog is as sticky as mucus! I can't get a grip on it!"

A female classmate tolerated the urge to vomit. Before she could throw the frog into the anesthetic bottle, she slipped and it slid to the ground. Then, she bent down and crawled under the table to look for it...

"D*mn it! I can't do it! Why is it still staring at me after being anesthetized? Is there not enough anesthetic?"

A male idol's hands trembled and the scissors nearly poked his own fingers. He didn't dare to cut open the frog's stomach.

Only now did he know how calm Gu Qiqi was when she slashed down.

In fact, even Bai Yingzhu's scissors skills couldn't be underestimated.

"I... I... I'm going to faint..."

The moment the other girl cut open her frog, blood spurted from her hand.

Her legs went soft on the spot and her eyes darkened.

Only at this moment did everyone remember how heaven-defying and incredible Gu Qiqi's three seconds were.

Goddess!

Back when they were dissecting the frog, those students who had misunderstood that Gu Qiqi didn't do anything after so long and thought she was clueless were ashamed. They apologized honestly and begged for forgiveness. They punished themselves by promising to help Gu Qiqi to clean the laboratory and do sanitary work throughout the entire university.

Gu Qiqi agreed lightly and didn't comment.

Yes, sometimes, a small punishment was needed to let people remember.

After class, Xiao Ning leaned over to Gu Qiqi's ear mysteriously and asked, "Beauty Qi, why didn't you just state a condition for Shen Ping first just now? Just let him treat Xiaobei's illness. If he can't be treated, it will just make him look incompetent. Then, you don't have to go back either. If he's lucky enough to be treated..."

Gu Qiqi looked up lightly and shook her head.

"Shen Ping is from the Shen family. He's in the same faction as Gu Xuexue and her daughter. If he really had the ability to treat him, Xiaobei's condition wouldn't have dragged it to this extent."

Although Gu Qiushan was heartless, if Xiaobei had a trace of hope to be treated, according to his character of favoring men over women, he would also treat Xiaobei first.

“Taking ten thousand steps back, even if Shen Ping has this ability, I don’t trust him either. His character—who takes advantage of the situation and despises the poor for the rich—can’t possibly have any professional spirit in medicine. If he did something to Xiaobei’s eye nerve during the operation, our losses won’t make up for it!”

“That’s true. I was too simple and naive just now.” Xiao Ning sighed. “Qiqi, you said that we’re the same age. Why do I feel that you’re much more mature than me? Furthermore, you’re especially calm!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She also wanted to be more innocent, but the world was too cruel. She couldn’t be more innocent.

After the afternoon class ended, the two of them walked towards the dormitory.

Yang Xiaolan rushed out of the pharmacy school and jogged over. “Qiqi, Young Master Xiao Ning, I want to treat you to dinner tonight.”

Xiao Ning looked embarrassed. “I... I promised my uncle that I would go home for dinner tonight...”

Gu Qiqi frowned. “Why does he care so much?”

Even Yang Xiaolan was surprised. “Ah, my father isn’t as strict as your uncle.”

Xiao Ning choked and coughed. “Ahem. He said... He said that he would supervise my studies.”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Are you sure that you’re really just going to study?

Seeing Xiao Ning’s guilty look, Gu Qiqi couldn’t bear to expose her. She only said, “Remember what I told you.”

Don’t get pregnant so easily! You definitely mustn’t!

Xiao Ning agreed vaguely and bade them farewell.

Yang Xiao Lan blinked her starry eyes. “Qiqi, will you come with me to eat?”

Gu Qiqi rubbed her head. “I still have something to do. Next time, okay?”

She couldn’t help but do something when that scumbag Bai bullied Xiao Ning like this!

Gu Qiqi’s eyes sank. She walked towards the Bai family’s Medical Hall outside the school.

Little did she know that Yang Xiaolan was standing rooted to the ground with a red face.

Plop!

Plop!

Her heart was beating so fast.

Why did she feel that her heart was beating faster when Qiqi touched her head just now?

There was also that gentle “okay...” She felt that Qiqi was so handsome and warm.

Chapter 382: What If She Were Bitten By A Dog Every Day?

In the Bai family.

In Bai Yeyuan's bedroom on the top floor.

The room had a masculine style. The big metal bed and furniture felt cold and domineering.

The black velvet curtains were tightly shut.

Xiao Ning bent over the bed and begged for mercy. "No... Let me go back to my room..."

Bai Yeyuan didn't stop his actions. He curled his lips into a wicked smile. "Little Lemon, I didn't expect you to love novelty. You want to return to your room to try it? Okay, I promise you."

As he spoke, he actually lifted Xiao Ning into the air as if he was carrying a baby to the bathroom.

As he spoke, he walked towards the door.

Xiao Ning's red face immediately turned pale.

He shook his head desperately. "No, no, no. I'm not going back anymore. I'll stay with you here..."

Her bedroom was a guest room that the Bai family had specially vacated. It was next to the little princess Bai Yingzhu.

If she was carried back in such a strange posture by Bai Yeyuan, not to mention bumping into someone from the Bai family, the entire embarrassing matter between her and Bai Yeyuan would be exposed.

Bai Yeyuan was so valiant and every move of his was so big. He would definitely alarm Bai Yingzhu.

If Bai Yingzhu discovered it...

She could completely foresee the devastating consequences.

She would be accused of seducing him and her mother would become the laughing stock of everyone in the Bai family. In particular, her mother might very well be expelled from the Bai family. Then, her father would be even more unscrupulous and look for another woman outside... Wasn't the reason why her father had restrained himself now because he was afraid of the Bai family's influence?

Thus, she couldn't let anyone discover the dirty things between her and Bai Yeyuan.

She had to tolerate it...

She would tolerate it until this man was tired of her... He would be tired of her, right?

After all, he was such a cold and heartless man.

How could he be interested in her all this while?

He was just having fun for a while. Didn't he say before that she was a toy?

Upon hearing Xiao Ning's pleading, Bai Yeyuan curved his lips in satisfaction. A scheming smile flashed across his eyes.

He returned to his usual lazy and cold tone. "So, you begged me to let you stay, but I didn't force you..."

Xiao Ning was speechless.

She could treat being bullied as being bitten by a dog.

But who told her that she would be bitten by a dog every day?

Just as Bai Yeyuan carried Xiao Ning and returned to the big metal bed once more...

Suddenly...

A low ringtone sounded.

Xiao Ning knew that Bai Yeyuan was a workaholic.

Even when he was doing that kind of thing, he rarely turned off his phone or silenced it.

Sometimes, he would even do evil deeds while taking calls without any morals.

It was as if he was using this to show off his incomparable strength and energy to her.

She breathed a sigh of relief.

She secretly prayed that this would be a very important work call. It would be best if it was an emergency banquet or something like that so that Bai Yeyuan could leave home quickly and leave her sight.

Otherwise, she really suspected that she wouldn't be able to attend school tomorrow morning because her legs were so weak that she couldn't walk.

Unfortunately, things didn't go according to her wishes.

Bai Yeyuan hung up the call directly. A trace of interest surfaced in his eyes. "I suddenly feel that hugging you like this... isn't bad either..."

Xiao Ning was so shocked that her heart nearly stopped beating!

This... This strange posture... wasn't bad?

No! Could it be that Bai Yeyuan was going to develop some new gameplay again?

Just as Bai Yeyuan gathered his strength and prepared to continue what happened just now, that life-saving phone rang once more.

Bai Yeyuan frowned.

There was only one possibility for someone to continue calling his hung up call. There was something that his subordinate couldn't solve in his business.

The interest in his eyes gradually faded. He carried Xiao Ning in one hand and picked up the call with the other. "What's the matter?"

"Reporting, reporting to Young Master. Our Bai clan Medical Hall's flagship store has been surrounded by a patient's family. They said that we sell poison..."

Chapter 383: Do You Want to Poison Us To Death?

Bai Yeyuan's expression turned cold and his tone became slightly angry. "Is this small matter worth you calling me?"

The Bai Medical Hall was an outstanding business organization. It was very normal for competitors to cause trouble every few days and slander them for selling fake medicine.

The public relations department in the pharmacy specialized in these matters.

But this time... It was different from the slanderous troublemakers and competitors in the past.

The pharmacy manager said with a long face, "Young Master, we've checked. This time, it isn't someone hired from the same profession. They're real customers. Furthermore, they're all our regular customers. There's the Young Madam of the Wang family who just got pregnant and the Old Master from the Zhao family who's been buying medicine in our shop for a long time due to an asthma illness. There's also the Xu family's Madam Xu who especially likes to buy expensive tonics from Meibai and Yangyan..."

All of them were loyal customers of the Medical Hall.

They were also real big and rich customers.

Indeed, when Bai Yeyuan heard this, his expression turned cold. The trace of evil feelings towards Xiao Ning in his eyes completely faded.

The fingers that were playing with Xiao Ning's long hair also stopped. "Tell me! What exactly happened?!"

"Young Master, please calm down. Let me explain..."

The pharmacy manager hurriedly cut to the chase and reported everything.

Today, they were supposed to be working as usual. But before they closed the shop, the regular customers came knocking on their door one by one. They said that they had bought Chinese medicine today and that when they boiled it at home, the soup would turn green. No one dared to drink it. All of them questioned the Medical Hall angrily if they wanted to poison them to death.

But all the pharmacists in the Medical Hall felt so wronged. They followed the prescription and grabbed the herbs to prepare the medicine. They didn't add anything.

But the patient didn't believe it. Sick people were already angry. In addition, these people's status wasn't ordinary either. When they bought fake medicine, they were especially angry. They immediately surrounded the Medical Hall to seek an explanation.

In fact, many media outlets have already heard the news and rushed over to exaggerate the story...

At this point, making amends, apologizing, changing medicine, and compensating were no longer useful. The angry customers swore to make the Medical Hall suffer the punishment of the Food and Drug Administration by suspending their permits and closing the business...

This seemed to be a small matter, but if it wasn't handled well, it would be a devastating blow to the Medical Hall.

"Was there anything else abnormal in the pharmacy today?" Bai Yeyuan asked in a low voice.

“They’re all quite normal. Apart from this green medicine soup...”

“Have any unfamiliar faces come to the store before?”

“No, they’re all regular customers. Oh, that’s right. Reporting to Young Master, there was a Grandma Ye who came today not to buy medicine but to sell medicine. That was Second Young Master’s guest. She sold Second Young Master the Hundred-Year Ambergris several times. This time, she sold Ambergris too. It has nothing to do with the herbs in the poison soup...”

Upon hearing this, Bai Yeyuan’s sharp gaze narrowed.

“I’ll go personally.” He said coldly, “Ask Bai Lang to rush to the pharmacy in three minutes to comfort the guest first. Ask Bai Mori to come along too.”

After hanging up the call, the coldness on his face had not subsided yet.

He pinched Xiao Ning’s small chin and said faintly, “Good girl, wait for me at home.”

After speaking, he casually pulled the bedsheets over and covered the girl’s pantsless lower half that was shivering from the cold...

The man’s cold expression and mocking words made Xiao Ning shiver uncontrollably.

But fortunately, he was going out and she could catch her breath...

She was really grateful to that person who called him.

==

At the cafe opposite the flagship store in the National Medical Hall.

Gu Qiqi finished a glass of cappuccino. When she looked up, she saw Bai Lang’s hopeless look as if he had just been pulled out of a warm nest. He ran towards the door of the Medical Hall at lightning speed.

The Medical Hall was already in a mess. Old people, children, noblewomen, bodyguards, reporters... Those who were watching the commotion and those who were maintaining order were in a frenzy.

Bai Lang rubbed his forehead in anxiety and smoothed his hair. He revealed his handsome smile that everyone loved. “Everyone, please let me show you—Ow!”

Before he could finish speaking, a basin of medicinal dregs landed on his head.

Bai Lang’s face turned green...

His hairstyle was ruined!

Chapter 384: Innocent Poison

Gu Qiqi watched as Bai Lang was entangled by the angry patients and couldn’t escape.

She pressed a dollar bill under her coffee cup, turned around, and left leisurely.

Yes, the scumbag was trapped here to solve a patient crisis. Little Lemon could at least sleep well tonight.

The only pity was that her identity as “Grandma Ye” couldn’t be used in the future anymore. The Bai family would have probably issued a kill order to “Grandma Ye” in the underground world.

After leaving the long golden corridor, she saw that it was still early.

Beside it was the legendary Dige Auction House. It was said that there were many high-end jade auction houses inside. There was also a specialized stone gambling den. It was countless times more luxurious than the previous jade trading company.

She prepared to investigate.

Mu Liuchuan thought that taking a small engagement token would cause her trouble. He was really indulging in his wild imagination.

She would let him know what it meant to slap his own dog face.

==

At the Bai Medical Hall.

In the VIP room.

Bai Yeyuan was dressed in a black suit. He looked at the replay of the CCTV expressionlessly.

When the scene froze on “Grandma Ye”—although he clearly couldn’t see any strange actions from her, Bai Yeyuan’s eyes became colder.

“Pass down my orders. Get the brothers from the Night Division to put this woman on the wanted list with all their might!”

“Yes!”

The manager broke out in a cold sweat.

Previously, he had suspected that the Eldest Young Master’s lazy tone and suspicious moaning that he heard over the phone might have something to do with women.

At this moment, he didn’t have this thought at all.

How could there be a man who was still in love with a woman a second ago but was able to kill so decisively in the business world in the very next second?

He was too pragmatic.

“Brother! Help!”

Bai Lang rushed into the VIP room in a sorry state.

He had messy hair and was dressed in a white suit that was stained with medicine.

Bai Yeyuan swept a cold gaze over.

Bai Lang complained aggrievedly. “Brother, those people are too unreasonable. They actually dared to lay a hand on me, who is so handsome. Oh my! I really wanted to feel their pulse, but they said that my hand was poisonous... Damn it! I explained that our Bai family wouldn't poison the customers. Isn't that too illogical? In the end, guess what they said? They actually said that we sold more medicine to them after poisoning them...! They're really despicable and difficult to appease!"

These lowly and unruly people didn't listen to his explanation!

The women were little vixens like Gu Qiqi.

Eh, why did he think of that little demon at such a critical moment?

Bai Yeyuan squinted and suddenly said faintly, "Come here."

"Oh, Brother dotes on me the most!" Bai Lang bounced and sat down next to Bai Yeyuan.

Bai Yeyuan stretched out his finger and brushed it lightly across his hair.

Bai Lang stood up with a roar. "Brother! It's fine if you don't comfort me, but why did you pull my hair?"

Bai Yeyuan stared at the medicine residue on Bai Lang's hair and frowned. "It's frog bile."

"What?" Bai Lang was dumbfounded.

"Young Master said that there was frog bile powder mixed in the herbal dregs!" The pharmacy manager was enlightened.

But... something was wrong.

"Why? Why did you mix frog bile powder into our medicine? That thing isn't poisonous. Instead, it has the effect of cooling inflammation... What kind of hero would spend so much effort to add something harmless and non-toxic to our medicine?!" Bai Lang was driven mad.

Bai Yeyuan's eyes darkened.

Outside the door, Bai Mori pushed open the door and entered in her three-inch high heels. She spoke with certainty—

Chapter 385: Bai Mori's Scheme

Bai Mori's tone was very certain. "Because this is Chu Junmo's doing! He's best at vicious business wars, but he's pretending to be noble and virtuous. Using the frog bile will cause a bad effect for us, but it's not to the extent of really poisoning someone to death. He must be secretly laughing behind our backs at this moment!"

Thousands of miles away, Chu Junmo—who was on a business trip in Paris—inexplicably sneezed.

Bai Lang was stunned when he heard this. "Mori's analysis seems to be... Ahem... That makes sense..."

Bai Mori smiled confidently. "Brother, why don't you let Second Brother comfort the patients again? Tell them that we specially gave the frog bile to everyone in order to strengthen the medicine's effect. It's beneficial and not detrimental. I'm in charge of comforting the media."

Bai Yeyuan replied absent-mindedly, but his gaze was still locked onto the back view of Grandma Ye on the monitoring screen.

Chu Junmo's men?

He didn't think so.

If Chu Junmo had such a talent, would he have had to fight equally with him all these years?

Bai Lang was designated to handle the patients.

But Bai Mori wasn't in a hurry to leave yet. She suggested. "Brother, although we have explained this matter today, it's unavoidable that some customers will complain in private. I'm just afraid that once the news spread, people will lose confidence in the quality of our Medical Hall..."

"What do you want to say? Tell me." Bai Yeyuan's voice was lazy.

"Yes. Recently, a jewelry brand wanted to cooperate with us and open an exhibition counter in each branch of the Medical Hall. To us, it can be considered a diversified operation. It can also improve the quality of our pharmacy."

"Our Bai clan needs someone to raise our standards?" Bai Yeyuan's voice turned cold.

Bai Mori hurriedly explained. "Ahem, I didn't use the right words. I meant cooperation. Brother, that brand isn't ordinary. It's an old brand called Qing Yuxuan. It was customized by a handmade craftsman and the company sells pure handmade natural jade jewelry. The jewelry is designed in an ancient style in Qinhan. High-end customers will like it. Furthermore, it happens to be related to our natural herbs. It can help in promoting our natural, high-end, and noble shop style..."

Bai Yeyuan said, "Qing Yuxuan? Yang Iron Fist is willing to take out his private goods to sell at an exhibition? Isn't he said to only produce one piece of jewelry a year? Isn't he very arrogant?"

Bai Mori smiled mysteriously. "Yang Iron Fist can't take it anymore. Qing Yuxuan has already been acquired by Gu Enlong. The rights to his stockpiled works are in Gu Enlong's hands now. He can commercialize them in batches... Brother, this is a good opportunity! If we don't cooperate with Gu Enlong and he goes to the Chu clan, we'll miss out!"

Bai Yeyuan pinched the space between his eyebrows. Seeing that it was already late and that little thing at home was on his mind, he casually waved his hand. "You can handle this matter."

"Okay, Brother. Don't worry. I'll definitely let Qing Yuxuan increase our sales by more than ten percentage points!"

Bai Mori curved her lips happily.

When Gu Enlong found her, she felt that this was a heaven-sent opportunity.

Although Qing Yuxuan belonged to Gu Enlong in name, it was actually the eldest daughter of the Gu family, Gu Yuanyuan, who was in charge of business operations.

She only needed to add fuel to the fire so that Gu Yuanyuan could operate smoothly, stand out, and bring benefits to the Gu family. Then, Gu Qiqi's status in the Gu family would be ruthlessly suppressed and she would never be able to amount to anything.

How could a country girl who had been abandoned by her family enter the Gong family?

Furthermore, after Gu Yuanyuan's strength surged, she would definitely take the initiative to lay a hand on Gu Qiqi. All kinds of methods could be used to force Gu Qiqi to leave the Gu family in the Imperial Capital.

When the time came, she, Bai Mori, would just benefit from it without a trace.

How could Bai Yeyuan have expected her roundabout plans and thoughts of using someone else to kill someone else?!

He would only think that she was curious about the Medical Hall's business.

Chapter 386: Shameless

At the Stone Gambling Hall in Dige.

The lights were bright and the atmosphere was lively.

Gu Qiqi only flashed Gong Jue's black diamond card at the door before she successfully entered.

This was the first time that she had come to such a high-end gambling stone venue where the big-shots mixed together. Thus, she wasn't in a hurry to make a move. Instead, she calmed down and quietly observed the operating rules in the venue for a while to see how the other customers called for a price and competed.

Soon, she understood everything.

Dige's stone gambling rules had two kinds: bidding and choosing blindly.

The so-called bidding was like ordinary stone gambling dens. They placed all the jade and untrimmed quarry stones out and marked the base price. Everyone chose the untrimmed quarry stones that they liked. If no one competed, they could naturally take them away. If someone competed, the highest bidder would win.

The so-called blind selection was much more complicated.

A pile of mysterious untrimmed quarry stones of the same price was hidden in a black box. Guests were only allowed to touch them once and couldn't see them at all.

Then, they started the selection process.

They were sold at the same price, but the probability of choosing the good ones was simply different.

This was completely gambling based on luck!

However, it was precisely because of the unknown nature of the blind selection that everyone felt that it was more exciting. Many professionals had specially come for this.

It was especially suitable for two or more people to gamble!

Gu Qiqi thought for a while.

Her motive today was very clear. She wanted to find the raw material of a jade ring that could be made into the same token as Mu Liuchuan's engagement token.

Of course, there were many untrimmed quarry stones at the auction and the scope of selection was big.

At a glance, it was as big as half the banquet hall. There were hundreds of jade raw materials placed on the golden velvet table. It was breathtaking, let alone thousands.

If she chose from among them, the probability of finding the appropriate raw materials would be considerable.

She must find a piece of jade and slap Mu Liuchuan's face tenfold.

After making up her mind, Gu Qiqi slowly walked towards the bidding area.

At this moment.

In Room 38 on the second floor of the Imperial Gambling Hall.

Gu Yuanyuan smashed the teacup heavily in exasperation. "That d*mned girl Gu Qiqi actually rejected Uncle Shen Ping! How dare she! She didn't even return after he invited her. She's really shameless!"

Opposite her, Gu Xuexue was also extremely shocked in her heart, but she still worked hard to comfort Gu Yuanyuan. "Sister Yuanyuan, don't worry. I've already asked around long ago. That little b*tch Gu Qiqi dared to reject her uncle because she thought that she could enter the pharmaceutical school. It's a pity that her wishful thinking is going to fall through! Although the pharmaceutical school is scum, it's not that easy to enter. Who doesn't know the strange temper of Headmaster Chu Feng? When the time comes, the pharmaceutical school won't want her. She will become a traitor to the veterinary school and even humiliate the clinical medicine school in public. Gu Qiqi has offended all the major schools. Sister Yuanyuan, do you think that her life will be better in the future?"

Upon hearing Gu Xuexue's analysis, Gu Yuanyuan's anger finally subsided.

She raised her chin. "You can say that, but I'm unhappy to see her so arrogant now!"

Gu Xuexue smiled and said, "So, Sister Yuan Yuan, this is the reason why I asked you to invite Bai Yingzhu over today. The enemy of the enemy is our friend. Furthermore, Bai Yingzhu was tricked by that country bumpkin this morning. Her hatred is strong!"

Gu Yuanyuan was delighted. "So that's your intention!"

But then, her face fell again. "What's the use?! Didn't she lose enough face today? If she, Bai Yingzhu, could subdue that d*mned girl, I would be happy! But she even lost to that d*mned girl when it came to dissecting a frog. How embarrassing..."

"Don't worry, Sister Yuanyuan. The greater the hatred, the stronger the combat strength. You've forgotten that Bai Yingzhu isn't best at dissection, but..."

Chapter 387: Definitely Let Her Lose Everything Tonight

"Stone gambling! Bai Yingzhu is good at stone gambling!"

Gu Yuanyuan's heart skipped a beat.

Only then did she truly understand Gu Xuexue's intention of arranging a meeting at the stone gambling den today.

For example, she and Gu Xuexue were laymen who came to join in the fun. Bai Yingzhu was a real eldest daughter of a noble family. She often followed those big bosses of the Bai family to such luxurious venues.

It was said that when Bai Yingzhu was ten years old, she had personally unveiled a very valuable emerald.

She relied on that piece of emerald to gain the favor of the Bai family's old madam. For so many years, among the Bai family's grandchildren, only Bai Yingzhu doted on her.

She had simply made her a little princess!

In short, Bai Yingzhu still had some ability.

It was worth roping her in!

Gu Yuanyuan's mood immediately improved a lot.

However...

"No matter how powerful Bai Ying is, what's the use of that if the country bumpkin is not coming here?"

Her good mood immediately turned sour.

Gu Xuexue curved her lips and smiled. She pointed downstairs. "Sister Yuan Yuan, look. Who is that?"

Looking down from the French window in the elegant room on the second floor, she could see the situation in the auction house clearly.

At this moment, Gu Qiqi was standing outside the crowd. She seemed to be incompatible with the luxurious and boisterous atmosphere here.

In fact, from their perspective, she even felt a little lost.

"That country bumpkin!" Gu Yuanyuan glared with her round eyes. Her hatred was deep. "Hmph! She still thinks that this is an ordinary jade trading company? Is she fit to come here with that identity?"

"That's right. Look at how she looks like she hasn't seen the world. Coming here is simply making a fool of herself. Heh heh."

"Where did she get the money to play in such a place?" Gu Yuanyuan frowned. "Could she have followed Gong Jue here?"

Gu Xuexue shook her head and smiled. "With Master Jue's noble status, he's busy with important matters. Why would he accompany her here?"

"That's true." Gu Yuanyuan snorted. "Master Jue casually said something about the engagement to coax her but she took it seriously. How could the Gong family possibly want a country girl like her to enter their family?!"

“That’s right. So Sister Yuan, don’t worry. She’s single tonight. We won’t be afraid of cheating her at all.”

“What if she’s timid and doesn’t want to gamble?”

“She will definitely take the gamble. Because she boasted in front of Brother Liuchuan that she would return the exact marriage token to Brother Liuchuan. If she doesn’t take the gamble, can she create a piece of jade out of thin air?”

“You’re saying that she’s here to find jade for Mu Liuchuan tonight?”

“Yes!”

Gu Yuanyuan’s eyes lit up.

It was the bright light of a cat chasing a mouse or a mantis chasing a cicada!

Gu Qiqi, you’re dead meat tonight! I’ll let you lose until your pockets are empty!

At this moment, the door to the private room was pushed open.

Bai Yingzhu pouted. “Why did you ask me out? I’m very unhappy tonight...”

Gu Xuexue welcomed her with a smile. “Yingzhu, I’ve prepared a satisfying greeting gift for you...”

==

At the same time.

Room 0.

The door was also pushed open forcefully.

The man’s face was cold. His cold aura surged into the room with the wind and instantly lowered the temperature in the room by a few degrees.

“Your pharmacy owns a casino?” Gong Jue said unhappily.

Bai Lang welcomed him with a smile. “Master Jue, something happened to my pharmacy tonight. You have no idea how miserable I was when I was disciplined by my older brother. It was all thanks to the help of a few good brothers that I escaped unscathed. Heh heh, I’ll borrow your private room to entertain my good brothers. We just drink alcohol and gamble stones. We definitely won’t mess around in your private room. Look, I didn’t even call a woman over to serve me. We’re all real men...”

Gong Jue glanced coldly. Indeed, the few people in the private room were all rich young masters from high society.

These people had long wanted to build a relationship with Gong Jue.

Unfortunately, Gong Jue rarely attended any banquets.

They initially thought that they could bask in Bai Lang’s glory and drink alcohol in the private room that Master Jue used to sit in. They could also brag about it when they went out.

He didn’t expect that she would be so lucky tonight to bump into Master Jue’s real self!

Chapter 388: Heart Broken into Shards

He was here in the flesh!

What kind of concept was that?

This was equivalent to paying a visit to a temple and seeing the Bodhisattva speak.

How blissful!

All of them couldn't wait to squeeze over immediately to toast and exchange pleasantries. But they were frightened by Gong Jue's cold aura and didn't dare to act rashly.

"Master Jue, why don't we have a drink together?" Bai Lang suggested tentatively.

Gong Jue's gaze was cold. "I'm not free—"

Before he could finish speaking...

His gaze pierced through the French window and focused on a petite figure.

The man frowned slightly.

Then, he sat down at the master seat in front of the French window.

The rich and young masters from the noble families who wanted to toast him just now were all extremely surprised. Damn it. They finally had the chance to drink with Master Jue on the same stage. They felt that their worth had instantly soared by a few times.

Bai Lang's lips twitched.

Master Jue, aren't you busy?

Wasn't he too stubborn to change her mind so quickly?

Wasn't he supposed to be an arrogant and cold commander-in-chief who meant what he said?

However, this indirectly proved that Master Jue and he were really good brothers who had gone through life and death together... He gave him too much face.

How touching.

Bai Lang raised his glass in satisfaction and was about to clink glasses with Gong Jue to celebrate.

But she suddenly realized that Gong Jue's thoughts weren't on him at all.

That focused gaze seemed to only belong to a certain demoness...

Puzzled, Bai Lang followed Gong Jue's gaze.

Indeed, he saw Gu Qiqi's petite back view walking through a group of gamblers who were bidding. Her small hand occasionally touched a stone and occasionally knocked on a stone with an interested look.

Damn it!

He received ten thousand critical blows.

His fragile heart had already shattered into pieces.

Gong Jue actually didn't stay behind to support him and give him face. Gong Jue actually only stayed behind to sit by the window and watch the little demon conveniently.

How shocking!

==

At this moment, in the stone gambling den.

Gu Qiqi still didn't know that she had already become the center of several pairs of eyes.

She had already walked around the venue and carefully got a sense of every stone.

"Master Silver, the appraisal skill has been activated at the last minute. It consumes energy points very quickly. We don't have many color points in our inventory anymore. Have you found the stone you want?" The little dirty turtle reminded her dutifully.

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "There are two pieces of pure old glass jade. Unfortunately, there's no red jade in the middle."

Actually, she also knew that this jade wasn't that easy to find.

If it really didn't work, she would come a few more times in the future. She would be able to bump into it, right?

Just as she was about to give up and return home, she heard the little dirty turtle suddenly say in a sharp and urgent voice, "Master, Master. Look, there are a few new untrimmed quarry stones that have been released over there! Go and take a look again."

"Didn't you say that there weren't enough energy points?"

"Eh, Master Silver, your enemies might be gnashing their teeth and thinking about you again. There are so many negative emotions. But it's good for us since the points will keep rising, haha!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Should she thank them for hating her so much?

The last raw material that was taken out was shown on the golden velvet table.

It wasn't good in color and was relatively small in size, around the size of a man's fist.

Gu Qiqi's small fair hand had just touched one of them.

Behind her, a waiter stopped her. "I'm sorry, but this stone is for the guest in VIP Room 38 upstairs!"

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "Oh?"

She didn't even come down to look at the stone, but it was actually snatched away from afar?

There was even such a thing?

Chapter 389: The Man Who Binded Gu Qiqi

The waiter explained politely, "The private room of the VIP guest has the right to bid in advance. Also, you don't have to appear. We can just pass it on on behalf of the service."

Gu Qiqi immediately understood.

She asked lightly, "What if I offer a higher price?"

The waiter hesitated. "That... That depends on how much you want to offer. Guest 38 will offer 500,000 dollars for this uncut stone."

That small cornerstone cost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Even this seemingly student-like guest couldn't afford it, right? Was there a need to ask?

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi's next words were very calm. "Then, I'll fork out a million dollars."

The waiter staggered. Beauty, you can't play like this!

It was too savage to double it directly.

He hurriedly asked customer 38 for his opinion through the walkie-talkie.

In the end, the voice on the walkie-talkie became even more savage. "1.5 million!"

The waiter's legs went soft.

Usually, the increments at the venue were tens of thousands of dollars. Why were these two customers adding hundreds of thousands of dollars today? Could it be that... this uncut stone was very awesome?

It was just a cornerstone.

As her hands trembled, Gu Qiqi suddenly turned around and walked towards another untrimmed quarry stone. "I don't want it anymore. The person can bet 1.5 million for this stone."

She had yet to figure out the second untrimmed quarry stone.

Behind her, the waiter spoke again. "This... the guest in Number 38 also wants this!"

Gu Qiqi frowned.

One time could be said to be a coincidence, but two times would be a problem, right?

Did this guest from Number 38 have a feud with her since he always snatched the stones that she took a fancy to?

In private room 38 on the second floor, Bai Yingzhu casually signed a check for 1.5 million dollars and laughed coldly. "Trying to snatch a stone from me? I won't even use my strength. I'll use money to crush you to death!"

Gu Xuexue chimed in obsequiously. "That's right. She even dared to fight with our Bai family's little princess. That little wallet of hers is simply not enough. How embarrassing!"

Gu Yuanyuan's hand itched. "Yingzhu, why don't you use your strength? If you cheat her of her money on worthless stones, she'll lose millions of dollars..."

Gu Yuanyuan still remembered the hatred she had for Gu Qiqi after she cheated her at the jade trading company back then.

Since she didn't have the ability to take revenge, she relied on Bai Yingzhu's hand to take revenge.

Gu Xuexue hurriedly threw Gu Yuanyuan a look. "Sister Yuanyuan, Yingzhu knows her limits. We'll just watch."

No, he couldn't let Gu Qiqi get an advantage. She had to eliminate the glass jade stone first. Otherwise, if Gu Qiqi managed to get a suitable stone, she would force Brother Liuchuan to end the engagement. Then, Gu Qiqi would have a chance to be with Gong Jue.

Gu Yuanyuan naturally couldn't object in front of Bai Yingzhu and said awkwardly, "Okay. But... Eh? Who is that man?"

The three of them looked through the French window and saw a tall and skinny man in a coquettish pink suit walking towards Gu Qiqi.

"Oh, there's even someone who's a hero saving a beauty?" Gu Xuexue said sourly.

Bai Yingzhu squinted and suddenly laughed sarcastically. "Hero? More like a dog!"

Gu Yuanyuan also recognized him. "Not only is he a dog, but he's also a perverted dog! That Young Master Wang likes to play with young ladies the most. His reputation is very bad! Could it be that he has taken a fancy to that d*mned girl Gu Qiqi?"

A trace of ruthlessness flashed across Gu Xuexue's eyes. "That's great! Then, I'll let her lose her money and her body tonight!"

Downstairs.

Young Master Wang looked at Gu Qiqi's beautiful back with desire.

He had noticed this young lady long ago.

Her aura was so unique and different from those young ladies that he usually got his hands on.

Just by looking at her casually standing there, even the jade stones around her paled in comparison. It was as if she had an aura of light around her.

He secretly stared at her and realized that the stones that she had her eyes on had been snatched away repeatedly.

It was best to take advantage of this opportunity to snatch her heart!

He hurriedly ran down from the private room on the second floor to hunt for his target!

Chapter 390: Minced Meat for Five Dollars

Gu Qiqi was studying a gray raw stone.

Up till now, three stones had already been snatched away by that guest number 38.

Everything happened again and again.

This person actually snatched it three times?

Did he think that she was easy to bully?

Apart from the first stone being made of substantial material, the other two stones were filled with trash.

Yes, she did it on purpose.

She deliberately chose the worst stones and let that guest snatch it at a high price.

She didn't expect that Number 38 would still pursue her relentlessly. There was a problem...

Thus, when she caressed the fourth stone, she was considering a thought in her heart. Although she could continue to play Number 38 like this, what if she met a suitable raw stone? Would she let the other party snatch it away too?

If she competed with the other party, what would the other party's bottom line be?

One million? Ten million? Or even...

As he was thinking about this, a smooth voice traveled from behind him. "Beauty number 177, do you need my help? I guarantee that I'll help you kill that damned number 38 in an instant. Heh heh..."

Then, a coquettish pink shadow enveloped Gu Qiqi's side and blocked her line of sight.

Number 177 was Gu Qiqi's bidding number.

This coquettish man wanted to stand up for her?

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly. "There's no need."

Then, she threw that stone down and turned around to choose other untrimmed quarry stones.

Young Master Wang was stunned.

No girl had ever refused his "hero saving the beauty" move!

D*mn it. He had appeared in such a golden light just now, but this girl actually didn't have starry eyes. It was too illogical. This girl must be too greedy. She wouldn't commit unless success was certain.

After thinking for a while, he smiled.

He didn't leave and just followed Gu Qiqi around.

When Gu Qiqi chose a raw material again and wanted to compete, sure enough, Number 38 made a move again.

"One million dollars!" Bai Yingzhu decided through the walkie-talkie.

It was just a small cornerstone and she had thrown in a million dollars.

Gu Qiqi smiled lightly and put the stone down.

This was an ordinary jade. The other party had already suffered a loss of a million dollars.

She was about to walk away.

Suddenly, the coquettish man in a suit said, "One million and five dollars!"

The waiter staggered.

Although there was no rule limiting the increase in price during the auction, everyone tacitly agreed to increase the price by at least ten thousand dollars.

This young master actually added five dollars...

He really didn't know if he was a hero saving a beauty or if he was deliberately mocking her... Was he mocking this beauty number 177 that she was only worth increasing the price by five dollars?

Indeed, when the customers nearby heard this, they revealed meaningful smiles and whispered to each other.

"Young Master Wang has his eyes on his prey and is preparing to hunt, right?"

"That's right. He threw a piece of meat first and let that greedy woman take the bait!"

"He only offered a price of five dollars. Isn't that piece of meat too small? It would be strange if a girl was moved!"

"That's not necessarily true. Didn't you see that the girl was unfamiliar and we have never seen her before? She's probably just a university student. Furthermore, she's so poor that she didn't manage to take a photo after entering the venue. I reckon that her pockets are empty. It's a fake intention to gamble stones. Her real intention must be to hook up with a man, right?"

"Tsk tsk. Female university students nowadays sure don't love themselves..."

Everyone's imagination ran wild. In the end, they even classified Gu Qiqi as that kind of chicken who risked her student identity.

Young Master Wang dug out a check smugly and paid for it.

As if he was presenting a treasure, he moved closer to Gu Qiqi. "Beauty, this is for you!"

This action immediately made those who were watching the commotion unable to hold back their laughter.

"Look, we weren't wrong just now, right? This woman deliberately seduced men to spend money on her!"

"Young ladies nowadays look innocent on the surface. I wonder how terrible their insides are."

"That's right. She can be coaxed away for five dollars."

“Hey, that’s a million and five dollars. These chickens aren’t stupid!”

All of them looked at her with disdain.
