

Dear Chief 421

Chapter 421: Qiqi, Could You Be More Handsome?

She was responsible for her own choices.

This was one of the traits of an adult.

Thus, Gu Qiqi didn't blame them. Instead, she smiled calmly. "It's fine. Let's go. We can't miss our lunch too!"

Everyone was speechless. Big Sister Qiqi, you sure are magnanimous!

How would lunch be compared to missing out on the registration?

Yang Xiao Lan was speechless. The humorous Qiqi, the tolerant Qiqi, the calm Qiqi. Could she be any more handsome?

==

In the office building of the Clinical Medical School.

In Bai Mori's exclusive office.

She made a cup of coffee for each of the three panicked girls.

She sat opposite them gently and elegantly and comforted them in a soft voice. "Don't worry. I've already given you the latest anti-HIV antibody medicine just now. As long as you return and rest well, you'll definitely be fine."

Upon hearing this, Bai Yingzhu, Gu Yuanyuan, and Gu Xuexue felt relieved. Their pale faces finally warmed up.

"Sister Mori, thank you!"

"Sister Mori, you're too awesome. With just a needle hole and a few drops of blood, you can detect the virus and the medicine for treatment. This way, we don't have to go to the hospital anymore."

"Sister, no wonder they said that you're the young professor with the highest chance of getting the title of National Healer!"

Upon hearing the pleasant praise, Bai Mori smiled elegantly. Without a trace, she diverted the topic.

"Why did you encounter that kind of criminal last night?"

The three of them looked at each other in embarrassment.

In the end, Bai Yingzhu confessed honestly. "We went for stone gambling..."

She summarized the story of their stone gambling.

As the bet with Gu Qiqi was too embarrassing, she decided to skip it.

However, Bai Mori seemed to have foreseen this. Her eyes carried a few hints of gentleness and sharpness as she asked, "Just stone gambling? Then, did you meet anyone more unexpected in the stone gambling den? I mean, did you have a conflict with anyone?"

Bai Yingzhu's expression changed slightly.

Gu Xuexue rolled her eyes and frowned.

Gu Yuanyuan couldn't hold it in anymore. "That's right. Sister Molly, how did you know? We met Gu Qiqi. You don't know how much of a b*stard she was. She ruthlessly tricked us..."

Halfway through her words, she noticed Bai Yingzhu's expression and hurriedly shut up.

Bai Mori raised her eyebrows slightly and didn't continue asking.

Instead, she said meaningfully, "Usually, patients with HIV won't come out and attack normal people. Of course, unless someone gives them benefits and specifically lets them do so. Alright, you guys have to be more careful in the future. Don't easily offend despicable people."

The words "don't offend despicable people" made the three's hearts skip a beat.

Actually, Bai Mori didn't say anything explicitly.

However, one couldn't help but suspect something.

Gu Yuanyuan was the first to say hatefully, "It must be Gu Qiqi! She bribed someone to cause harm to us! I was doing well in the Imperial Capital. I was safe and sound for twenty years. Why is it that when she came, I was constantly unlucky! Those two people last night must have been hired by her! Xue Xue, don't you think so?"

Gu Xuexue's eyes flickered as she nodded and sighed. "It's a pity that we don't have evidence..."

Gu Yuanyuan said, "What evidence do you need? She's the only person in the entire stone gambling den who opposed us. Once we stepped out, we were harmed. Who else could it be but her? Yingzhu, what do you think?"

Bai Yingzhu gnashed her teeth and remained silent.

A few minutes ago, she had wavered for a moment in the dining room.

After hearing Xiao Ning's powerful words, she saw that the "pig food" that Gu Qiqi gave her wasn't really hard to swallow.

She was also a little envious of the people around Gu Qiqi. She was envious of Gu Qiqi's arrogance and respect for her enemies.

She also made up her mind that if she didn't get infected by the HIV illness this time, she was going to work hard in clinical medicine and kill Gu Qiqi instantly.

But...

When she found out that the HIV that she had been afraid of for the entire morning was actually very likely caused by Gu Qiqi...

Chapter 422: Bai Mori's Hidden Scheme

Bai Ying couldn't remain calm anymore!

That country bumpkin Gu Qiqi was actually a two-faced b*tch!

She pretended to be magnanimous in front of her and didn't personally come out to humiliate her at the dining hall. She didn't even let her really eat pig food.

But she played tricks behind her back!

Furthermore, it was such a sinister method!

She wanted her to have AIDS?

Wasn't this going to ruin her life?

How despicable!

Just as Gu Yuanyuan had analyzed, she was the little princess of the Bai family. Usually, everyone gave in to her. She didn't have the chance to offend anyone at all. Last night, she only gambled on stones. Furthermore, she faced Gu Qiqi the entire time.

Only Gu Qiqi had a conflict with her! A feud!

Thus, those two burly men could only have been hired by Gu Qiqi! Definitely!

The more Bai Ying thought about it, the angrier she became.

She was so angry that she was about to explode!

Damn it! Gu Qiqi wanted to kill her, but she still wanted to turn over a new leaf? She was simply stupid.

She was determined to fight Gu Qiqi to the death!

Gu Yuanyuan said, "Yingzhu, what should we do? Let's go and reason with Gu Qiqi! Or I can go home and tell my grandparents to take care of that country bumpkin!"

Bai Yingzhu said fiercely, "She's not a child! Why complain to her grandparents?! There are many ways to mess with her, right?"

Did she really think that her title as a little princess was just for show?

Gu Xuexue hurriedly took the opportunity to say, "Yingzhu, I thought of an idea... Let's use what you ate in the cafeteria just now..."

Gu Yuanyuan glanced at her phone and her eyes lit up. "Ah, something big happened in our clinical medicine school! CEO Liu's son, Liu Guanghui, was hit! Also, do you know who hit him? Hahaha, the heavens are really helping us... We'll use this matter... Like this..."

The three of them chatted.

After a while, Bai Ying decided. "Let's do it!"

==

At this moment.

In the office.

Bai Mori wiped the smile off her face.

Her entire face immediately turned cold.

She instructed the assistant expressionlessly. "Destroy the results that were given to the three girls just now!"

The assistant replied. "Yes!"

She was very puzzled. Professor Bai was so strange today. Those three girls clearly weren't infected with the virus. Why did she lie to them about being infected?

She even told them to take medicine to treat their illnesses...

Others might not know about that medicine, but as an assistant, she knew that it was simply an empty capsule. There was no powder inside!

That was fake medicine!

Bai Mori glanced at the assistant's puzzled back.

A cold voice rang out. "I'm just trying to scare those insensible children so that they won't dare to walk around in the middle of the night in the future! How can they not study at such a young age? It's simply a waste of their lives!"

The assistant's back stiffened.

Sigh, Professor Bai was still the best.

She was beautiful and kind!

"Yes, I'll get it done immediately. Don't worry, Professor Bai. I'm very tight-lipped. I definitely won't talk nonsense." The assistant went to work in a flash.

Only then did Bai Mori stop looking so serious and squinted.

Of course, she knew that the needle holes in Bai Yingzhu's arm couldn't have been done by Gu Qiqi.

In fact, this needle mark was made by the most advanced type of blood extraction needle in the world. It wasn't a simple injection needle mark.

The latest research in S Nation had not been published yet.

She deliberately led them to think about Gu Qiqi because she wanted them to hate her so these few fellows would volunteer to work hard for her to target Gu Qiqi and deal with her.

Chapter 423: He Would Seek Revenge for the Smallest Grievance

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

It was beneath her status to attack Gu Qiqi with her noble identity.

But Bai Yingzhu and the rest were different.

They were classmates and a group of children. It was too normal for them to fight and frame each other.

And she would benefit from this without bloodshed!

Bai Mori curved her lips.

She was like a military adviser who didn't appear but could mobilize the troops and was confident of victory.

However, there was another important problem.

S Nation was famous for studying various neurotoxin weapons.

Could it be that... they caught the three of them for experiments?

That was also impossible.

Because being captured by S Nation meant that they would never return.

But the three of them had returned unscathed. They had only lost a small amount of blood.

Did their blood have any special uses? She had to find out.

Why not call Bai Lang and get him to check the CCTV for her?

==

At the veterinary school.

In the classroom.

The students dispersed and rested on their desks for lunch.

Gu Qiqi was sitting in her seat and flipping through some history materials from the pharmaceutical school.

Although the pharmaceutical school was in such a miserable state now, was called a trash school by people, and even the best students in the pharmaceutical school were ordered around and bullied recklessly by the students in the clinical medicine school, it was once the most glorious school in the Empire Medical University.

Traditional Chinese Medicine was once a world-renowned field.

Practitioners were all considered champions at the World Medical Conference.

However...

Everything had changed completely eighteen years ago...

An accident ruined the reputation of the pharmaceutical school overnight. Their golden signboard collapsed with a bang.

In fact, it was almost eliminated from the Empire Medical University...

After that, it couldn't recover from the setback. It survived and endured the reputation of a trash school until now.

Students with better family backgrounds would definitely not enter the pharmaceutical school.

Gu Qiqi looked at that pile of information and was in a daze.

Why was the pharmaceutical school suddenly reduced to a trash school?

What happened back then?

Why couldn't she find any relevant information on the Internet...

Gu Qiqi was calmly investigating the information. Beside her, Little Master Xiao Ning couldn't remain calm anymore.

"Qiqi, you actually missed the registration for the exam! Wuwuwu! What should we do? Those ancient staff from the pharmacy definitely won't agree to help you fill in the registration form. It's said that Headmaster Feng Yang, has a very antisocial character. He won't even give face to anyone. The pharmaceutical school is his small world. He has the final say!... No, that's not right. The registration list will be summarized for the school. Why don't we go and beg the Headmaster to add you to it?"

"There's no need."

Xiao Ning scratched her head for a long time before Gu Qiqi spat out these words.

She was extremely depressed. "Beauty Qi, can you be more careful? Although I really want you to stay in the veterinary school with me, but... I know that you're going to the pharmaceutical school to learn skills and treat Xiaobei's illness... It's too much of a waste for you to stay in the veterinary school!"

"No."

"Ah? Have you decided to become a veterinarian?" Little Master Xiao Ning was shocked.

"No."

"Master Qi, can you say it clearly at once? I'm going to have a heart attack from fright!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Wasn't she clear enough?

Uh... It seemed that she had unconsciously copied the way this man with erectile dysfunction spoke. No wonder Xiao Ning wasn't used to it.

"Actually, I meant that I'm prepared to..." Gu Qiqi was about to explain to her.

Suddenly, Xiao Ning's eyes widened. She pointed at the phone screen and said, "Qiqi, look at the school forum.. You, you, you actually beat up that guy Liu Guanghui?! I heard from the seniors that he's a very petty person. You have to be careful of him taking revenge for the smallest grievance..."

Chapter 424: Who Made You Cry?

Gu Qiqi supported her forehead. "Is it that exaggerated? Isn't he just a third-year student? How can he take revenge?"

Xiao Ning shook her head fiercely. “He’s Shen Ping’s favorite disciple. His family is also old money and rich. He also...”

Xiao Ning hadn’t finished explaining Liu Guanghui’s glorious history to Gu Qiqi.

“Who’s Gu Qiqi? Come out for a while!”

Outside the door, a few student representatives in student union uniforms pushed open the classroom door with a bang and ordered arrogantly.

“It’s me. What’s the matter?”

Gu Qiqi frowned.

“Follow us to the discipline office!”

Once the words “discipline office!” were out, the students in the classroom revealed looks of fear.

If the heads of the various colleges were said to specialize in the management of studies and academic research, then the discipline office was a department that specialized in punishing students!

Due to the strict management of the Empire Medical University, the school’s discipline office had much more authority than the student disciplinary department in ordinary universities.

The discipline office could punish those who violated the school rules directly.

Even the director of the discipline room was directly appointed by the higher-ups. The principal didn’t have the authority to appoint him.

“Qiqi, don’t go...” Upon hearing that she was looking for someone in the discipline office.” Xiao Ning instinctively stood in front of Gu Qiqi.

“Haha, this isn’t up to you to decide! If you don’t go, you’ll be expelled directly, understand?” Those student council representatives pulled a long face.

Cowardly behaviour wasn’t her style.

“But...” Xiao Ning stomped her feet.” But Director Zhao from the discipline room is Liu Guanghui’s little uncle! ”

Liu Guanghui must be trying to take revenge.

Gu Qiqi had already walked out the door and didn’t hear Xiao Ning’s reminder.

Xiao Ning was at a loss for words.

She didn’t know who to seek help from.

She opened her contacts and wanted to find someone to discuss this with.

If only Yun Qiao was here... Wuwuwu!

Yun Qiao was the most loyal. He would definitely work with her to think of a way to get Qiqi back.

But Yun Qiao seemed to have disappeared into thin air and couldn't be found at all.

She checked her short contact list.

In the end, her gaze landed on that man's name: Little Uncle.

Xiao Ning's fingertips trembled. Should she seek help from Uncle...

But Uncle would definitely negotiate the terms, right?

And it must be that kind of condition that involved no morals at all.

Xiao Ning's small face flushed red for a moment.

Then, she became determined.

Forget it. For Qiqi, she was going all out!

Closing her eyes, she bravely dialed Bai Yeyuan's number even though it was akin to breaking her own wrist.

"Little Lemon?" The man's magnetic and cold voice traveled from the phone. There was a trace of surprise on his face. He seemed to be a little caught off guard. This was the first time that the girl had taken the initiative to call him.

"Little Uncle, can I beg you to come to school..."

Upon hearing the girl's sobs, Bai Yeyuan raised his eyebrows. It was rare that he didn't negotiate terms immediately. "Why are you crying? Who made you cry?!"

A trace of anger traveled over the phone in an imposing manner!

Xiao Ning was stunned.

Was Uncle angry?

Why... Why?

Did she say something that she shouldn't have said just now?

No, she didn't.

She was crying because she was anxious for Qiqi.

Oh right, Uncle didn't like women to cry.

She seemed to have committed a taboo.

Her mind was in a mess. Xiao Ning hurriedly rubbed her eyes and explained. "Little Uncle, she's my classmate..."

Before she could finish explaining...

The classroom door was suddenly pushed open again!

The Student Union representatives returned.

“Xiao Ning! Come with us too!”

“Ah?”

“What are you shouting for? Don’t you know what you’ve done? Hurry up and come with us to accept the punishment!”

Chapter 425: Stupid Woman, Do You Want to Go To Heaven?

“Punishment?”

Xiao Ning was dumbfounded.

She didn’t hit Liu Guanghui, right?

However, if she had the chance to accompany Qiqi to face those fierce fellows in the discipline room, she would go even if she died.

Without hesitation, Xiao Ning stood up and walked out.

“I’ll go with you!”

Her phone landed on the table.

She even forgot to switch off the call.

On the other end of the call, Bai Yeyuan heard a series of distant footsteps. His face gradually turned cold.

“Meeting adjourned! If you can’t produce a sales plan to increase the profit by 20% tonight, then just hand me your resignation letter directly!”

After saying these words, he got up and left the company’s high-level meeting room.

He instructed his secretary, “Prepare the car to go to Imperial Medical University.”

The upper echelons at the meeting looked at each other. Their eyes were filled with fear.

What happened to the big boss? He suddenly started torturing people!

Furthermore, the big boss had always been a workaholic and was the most dedicated professional.

Just now, because of a woman’s call, he actually abandoned them, left an important company operational sales decision meeting, and walked out!

He left!

==

In the principal’s office.

The old principal personally brewed tea and handed it to the man who was on the chairman’s seat.

“Master Jue, since when were you free to come for an inspection? The matter that you instructed me to do previously has already been settled. Don’t worry. That brat Shen Ping won’t dare to disobey me. He immediately apologized to that child personally and invited her back to the clinical medicine school... But I heard that she won’t be returning herself...”

The old principal reported carefully.

He was afraid that his words wouldn’t be appropriate enough and he would make this big shot unhappy.

He was about to retire. He didn’t want to lose his retirement income because of the King of Hell’s anger.

Gong Jue sat coldly in the chairman’s seat like a statue of a god.

Not returning?

Stupid woman. Didn’t she really want to become a doctor and be at an operating table?

He had ignored the ban on her family and created an opportunity for her yet she didn’t return. He even made people beg her to return. Did she want to go to heaven?

Seeing Gong Jue’s frown, the old principal observed his expression and hurriedly said, “Why don’t I invite her again personally...”

Gong Jue pulled a long face. “Cut the crap. Give your monitoring authoritative rights to Special Assistant Lu first.”

He had more important things to do today.

The more important thing than professionalism was the safety of his stupid woman.

Last night, he received a tip that the people from S Nation actually didn’t fear death and sneaked into the Imperial Capital again!

He got Special Assistant Lu to keep an eye on those people. But he didn’t expect that those people wouldn’t assassinate him as usual. Instead... they drew the blood of women.

What kind of messy research was that group of perverts from S Nation doing again? Or were they using this as a cover to steal the Gong Clan Corporation’s research secrets again?

He heard that those two people had already infiltrated the Empire Medical University today.

He was very worried about Gu Qiqi, so he came over personally to oversee the process.

Of course, the principal didn’t know such a high-level secret.

He only complied and quickly fulfilled Gong Jue’s instructions.

After a while.

Special Assistant Lu came over and reported in a low voice. “Master Jue, we’ve found the people. They’re two top-notch assassins under General Teuton in S Nation. Their code names are Fu Mao and Ring A. Those two people have disguised themselves as gardeners and are wandering around the potted green plants in the student dorms and office buildings while watering the flowers...”

Special Assistant Lu's heart collapsed when he said these words.

These two fellows were famous international assassins after all. They were top-notch experts.

They were actually watering the flowers...

Watering the flowers!

"Master Jue, I'll bring someone to get rid of them, right?"

Special Assistant Lu volunteered.

But he didn't expect that...

Gong Jue actually raised his hand and rejected him.

"No. Let them live!"

Chapter 426: Leading By The Nose

"Let... let them live?!"

Special Assistant Lu thought that he had heard him wrongly!

Chief had always been decisive in killing. He definitely wouldn't show the slightest bit of mercy when he used high-tech methods to lower the enemy's morale.

This was the only way to protect the absolute safety of the Empire and its citizens.

But now, he actually wasn't going to kill them?

In the very next second, Gong Jue's instructions finally clarified his doubts.

"Watch him closely. Find out their motive and lead them by the nose."

"Yes!"

Special Assistant Lu complied and left.

D*mn it. Chief was indeed wise!

How sinister!

If he killed those two people now, the real motive behind S Nation sending people to infiltrate the Empire was unclear.

They didn't cause any damage or assassinate anyone. Could they really be here to water the plants?

Furthermore, these two people were only the second and third ranks on the killer list. They weren't even the first people in S Nation.

If he killed them rashly, wouldn't it be impossible to guard against that most powerful person from that b*stard faction?

If the enemy was in the dark and they were in the light, they would be alerted!

The more Special Assistant Lu thought about it, the more he felt that Gong Jue's order was superb.

Lead them by the nose...

Pfft. Also, Chief's sense of humor has improved recently.

Was it because of Young Lady Qiqi?

The old principal didn't understand what they were saying. He could only pretend to be deaf and mute. He brewed tea obediently and was busy pouring tea for Gong Jue.

"As for Classmate Qiqi's university degree problem..." The old principal probed.

Before he could finish speaking...

Gong Jue's mobile phone rang.

"Inviting parents over? Yes, I'll be there soon."

Gong Jue spoke briefly.

He stood up coldly.

"The discipline office."

"Ah?" The old principal nearly didn't react. He was stunned for a moment before he hurriedly pointed the way. "It's just a little further from my office. Let me bring you there. Master Jue? Are you going to inspect the school's discipline team while you're at it? It's been a long time since the headquarters sent someone to do an examination. But don't worry. Our school's discipline team has always been top-notch! Director Zhao from the discipline room is also very responsible. The students are of high calibre and well-mannered. There have been no problems with our discipline recently..."

The old principal couldn't help but start bragging again.

Gong Jue glanced at him sideways and said meaningfully, "Really?"

For some reason, the old principal's heart skipped a beat.

D*mn it. Could it be that something happened again? And he still didn't know?

Could he still retire well?

==

In the discipline office.

Director Zhao locked Gu Qiqi and Xiao Ning in two separate rooms.

This was an interrogation technique. They asked separately in case they colluded with each other.

In the room that Gu Qiqi was in.

Director Zhao personally presided over the matter.

This man was fat and bloated and who knew what he usually drank. The buttons on his suit were about to burst from his stomach.

But at this moment, he had a stern and righteous look on his face. “Gu Qiqi, you still refuse to admit that you instructed Xiao Ning to ruthlessly humiliate Classmate Bai Yingzhu emotionally and physically?”

“Firstly, I didn’t instruct anyone. Secondly, Xiao Ning didn’t do anything either. What do you want me to admit?” Gu Qiqi was very calm.

Even if Director Zhao looked fierce, her expression didn’t change.

The student representatives who were in charge of recording the scene couldn’t help but praise Gu Qiqi as a strong person!

After entering their discipline room, there were quite a few male students who were frightened to the point of weeping bitter tears.

This freshman girl was really brave!

The steel ruler in Director Zhao’s hand landed heavily on the table with a loud bang.

It was as if he couldn’t help but throw it at Gu Qiqi’s face in the very next second and shatter that stubborn and calm face.

He was about to run out of patience.. He gnashed his teeth. “Then, the violent treatment that you did to Liu Guanghui—emotionally, physically and financially—has been recorded? You still refuse to admit it?”

Chapter 427: I’m Her Relative!

Gu Qiqi replied neither fast nor slow.

“Then, you have to arrest Liu Guanghui first and get him to admit that what he did to the freshmen from the pharmacy was ‘violent treatment.’ As long as he admits it, I’ll admit it.”

“You! You eloquent brat! I’m asking you, so why are you talking about Liu Guanghui?! You can compete with him? Who are you?”

“Oh? Then, who is Classmate Liu Guanghui? What’s his background? Who is his father? There’s actually someone protecting him like this?”

Director Zhao knew that he had misspoken and changed his words. “Gu Qiqi, you don’t have to be stubborn with me here! Don’t you know that Xiao Ning has already confessed?!”

Gu Qiqi looked up lightly. “Are you sure?”

The little dirty turtle muttered, “Our Little Master Xiao Ning isn’t stupid. She won’t fall for your trap! Hmph!”

Director Zhao was about to go crazy.

He realized that Gu Qiqi was too calm. No matter how much intimidation, bribery, or intimidation Gu Qiqi received, she didn’t fall for his tricks. She remained calm and collected throughout.

If this continued, how was he going to stand up for his glorious nephew?

It seemed that...

He was going to use his ultimate move!

Director Zhao's expression turned cold. "Gu Qiqi, call your parents over! You have no regard for the law and have broken many school rules. Get your parents to bring you back. You don't have to go to school anymore!"

Hmph! It was useless to talk nonsense with her. He would just convict her of a serious violation of the school rules and get her expelled!

A girl from the countryside like her definitely had a poor family. Furthermore, they definitely favored men over women. She probably didn't have any status in the family at all.

He had seen too much!

If the school kicked her out, her parents wouldn't dare to say anything. They would even beat her up.

Director Zhao was counting his chickens before they hatched.

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi said directly, "Sorry, no parents!"

Director Zhao was speechless.

Gu Qiqi said, "I'm my own parent. If you want to fire my child, please give me a reason that can persuade me. Without evidence, I won't admit such slander."

Director Zhao couldn't hold it back anymore. He brandished his ruler and exclaimed loudly. "Bai Yingzhu and Liu Guanghui—these two living people—are the evidence! I've already gotten someone to bring them to examine their injuries! You have to compensate for both mental and physical damages! Gu Qiqi, don't think that you can get away with it just because you're stubborn! You can't get past me!"

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "Then, we'll talk about it when the so-called evidence comes."

Bai Yingzhu didn't really eat pig food. Liu Guanghui only received a few slaps. That was the price for bullying Yang Xiao Lan.

They even checked his injuries?

How laughable!

"Okay! Then, I'll lock you up in confinement! I'll let you stay here without eating or drinking until the results are out. Hmph!" Director Zhao was fuming with anger.

Just as he finished speaking...

Suddenly...

The door to the discipline office was hurriedly pushed open.

"I'm Gu Qiqi's... relative. I'm sorry I'm late."

The refined and handsome young man was very polite. He nodded and greeted Director Zhao.

Director Zhao's dark face immediately relaxed a little. "Young Master Mu, why did you return to your alma mater today? You're this girl's relative? When did such an insensible country relative appear in your family? Are you serious?!"

Gu Qiqi was wondering who was pretending to be her parent.

Her father was in jail and her mother died young.

Where did this parent come from?!

Upon hearing the words "Young Master Mu," her eyes turned cold.

Upon hearing the words "country relatives," it was even more humiliating!

Mu Liuchuan, who allowed you to say that you're my relative?

I feel disgusted whenever I'm connected to you, okay?

Chapter 428: You're Not Worthy!

Mu Liuchuan didn't feel that there was anything wrong at all.

He was like the most common capable youth in society. His every move was appropriate and generous.

First, she shook hands with Director Zhao very familiarly and reasoned with him sincerely. "Headmaster, I'm really sorry. I initially came to visit you specially. I didn't expect to meet Qiqi here. Qiqi indeed has a deep relationship with me. She made a mistake and violated the school rules. I can't sit idle and remain indifferent..."

"You really know her? And you have a deep relationship with her?" Director Zhao frowned.

The Mu family was a noble family with status in the Imperial Capital. This country girl actually knew the eldest young master of the Mu family?

What the heck!

"Yes, she's my future—"

Before Mu Liuchuan could say the word "wife", he was abruptly interrupted.

"I'm sorry, but I don't know you!"

Gu Qiqi looked at him coldly. Her gaze was so cold that it was as if she was looking at a stranger.

Mu Liuchuan's eyes stung.

He remembered that a few days ago, Gu Qiqi was taken away by a man's luxury car and he couldn't even catch up to her.

Was she so cold to her because of that rich and powerful old man?

How good would it be if she could be a tenth as gentle as Xuexue?

“Qiqi... Don’t mess around. You might not know the authority of the discipline office yet. Director Zhao is the highest authority in charge of student discipline. Even the principal can’t change his words. Hurry up and admit your mistake to Director Zhao. I’ll help you convince him to be especially generous and not expel you...”

Mu Liuchuan spoke beautifully and gave Director Zhao face. Director Zhao felt very comfortable listening to him.

Although he had decided to punish Gu Qiqi ruthlessly today, the evidence wasn’t that sufficient after all.

If Gu Qiqi was willing to lower her head and admit her mistake, he could also consider giving the Mu family’s young master face and teach her a small lesson first.

Anyway, it would be easy to catch her mistakes in the future under his watch.

When Young Master Mu wasn’t paying attention, it wouldn’t be difficult to get her expelled.

Director Zhao made up his mind and was about to accept Gu Qiqi’s apology.

To his surprise, the girl’s cold reply traveled to his ears. “What did I do wrong? Why don’t I know?”

Damn it! What an ungrateful thing!

He actually refused to give her face. Then, he shouldn’t blame him for being ruthless.

Seeing Director Zhao’s expression darken, Mu Liuchuan frowned.

Qiqi was just too stubborn.

She didn’t know how to be flexible at all.

This was the Imperial Capital. How could it compare to a rural place like Qing Cheng?

She had to adapt to people’s personalities...

What was the big deal about admitting her mistake? Wasn’t studying more important? Wasn’t she bent on going to Imperial Medical University?

If she didn’t lower her head to Head Zhao, does that mean she didn’t want to study anymore?

Mu Liuchuan simply couldn’t understand.

However, when he met Gu Qiqi’s cold eyes, the purity and persistence in them made him feel inferior for a moment.

Those were a pair of eyes that had not been corrupted by the world yet. They also had faith and dignity.

Unlike him, who had long tasted servitude and loss of principles for business.

Mu Liuchuan gnashed his teeth and turned his head away. He said to Director Zhao, “I’ve really caused you trouble. I’ve also roughly understood what happened just now. It was indeed Qiqi’s fault for hitting someone. Qiqi is shy. She’s young and insensible. Let me apologize on her behalf!”

As she spoke, he was about to bow and apologize to Director Zhao.

Director Zhao was surprised.

He never expected Mu Liuchuan to do this for Gu Qiqi.

In the very next second.

A small fair hand blocked Mu Liuchuan so that he couldn't bow at all.

"Who allowed you to make a decision for me? You're not worthy!"

Chapter 429: He Couldn't Believe It

This time.

Gu Qiqi only used 30% of her strength.

She easily stopped a man like Mu Liuchuan.

It made his body stiffen and he couldn't even bow down.

She was really angry.

Mu Liuchuan was such a moron!

What a mess!

What did he mean by apologizing on her behalf?

It looked like a sincere apology, but it was actually a slap to her face!

What did he know about the situation? Did he know that Bai Yingzhu and Liu Guanghui reaped what they sowed?

He said that she was wrong from the start.

Let alone being her fiancé, such a man wasn't even qualified to be her friend, okay?

He didn't even trust her. He just kept quiet and didn't differentiate right from wrong!

Mu Liuchuan looked at Gu Qiqi's small hand in astonishment. He was puzzled. When did this girl have such great strength and such a strong aura?

He actually couldn't handle it.

After calming himself down, he advised, "Qiqi, don't be stubborn... I made the decision for you because of you..."

"There's no need!" Gu Qiqi replied coldly.

This so-called "good" was honey smeared with poison.

Did he think that she wanted it?

"But we should share honor and humiliation. I'm your future—"

"Shut up! I have nothing to with you at all."

Gu Qiqi really wanted to throw out the jade that she had bought to end the engagement in his face now.

Unfortunately, the jade was still uncut and hadn't been polished well.

Otherwise, she would definitely smash that scumbag's face!

"Qiqi, even if you don't admit that I'm your... But in the current situation, the school needs a relative to appear. You can't handle such a big matter alone. Let me do something for you and help you solve this matter, okay? I can't watch you suffer punishment!"

"Relative What kind of relative are you?" Gu Qiqi laughed coldly.

She took out her phone and made a call.

She initially didn't want to trouble Gong Jue with such a thing.

But at this moment, it was better to let Gong Jue pretend to be her parent and call the school to authorize her to handle her own matters than to listen to a hypocrite like Mu Liuchuan repeatedly apologizing for her here.

The man's voice was short and powerful over the phone.

He only asked her where she was.

She hung up quickly.

Gu Qiqi thought that perhaps he was too busy. Perhaps, she really didn't call at the right time.

"Qiqi, who did you call?" Mu Liuchuan asked suspiciously.

"My relative."

"You... Where did this relative come from? Don't casually look for someone from outside. Those old men in society can't be trusted..." Mu Liuchuan spoke with difficulty. In an instant, the blurry profile of the man who drove the luxury car that night flashed across his mind.

Qiqi had actually fallen to the extent of letting her financier pretend to be a parent.

He really couldn't ignore it anymore.

"You don't have to ask who I'm looking for." Gu Qiqi said coldly.

Seeing that the two of them had different opinions, Director Zhao finally understood that Gu Qiqi didn't take them seriously at all. From the looks of it, she was going to fight to the end.

He couldn't be bothered about Mu Liuchuan anymore and said seriously. "Young Master Mu, since she doesn't need you at all, I think you shouldn't try to persuade her. Let's do things according to the rules. If we make a mistake, we should be punished. I'll give you some face and won't expel her. Let her be sensible and drop out automatically!"

Self withdrawal from school?

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned colder.

This awful person surnamed Zhao was casually trying to ruin the results of her hard work.

She had worked so hard to change her application form, take the examinations live, and change her profession... But in the end, she couldn't even outtalk this so-called discipline master?

Chapter 430: Choked to Death by Little Master Xiao Ning

In the room next door.

The person in charge of interrogating Xiao Ning was the student union chairman, Zhang Fan.

He was also Director Zhao's trusted subordinate.

Zhang Fan saw that Xiao Ning was a delicate girl and didn't take her seriously at first.

He thought to herself that she would confess everything like a weakling in less than three minutes.

Hehe!

Thus, he was half afraid and half frightened. He slammed the table and roared again while preaching about principles.

He stuffed a letter of apology in front of Xiao Ning. "Sign it!"

Xiao Ning took a look and pretended to read it out in amusement, "I, Xiao Ning, was instructed by Gu Qiqi to treat Bai Yingying with violence... Oh? Little Master, why didn't I know when I was instructed to do so? And I treated her violently? Did I hit her, scold her, or did I sleep with her?"

Zhang Fan was nearly choked to death by Xiao Ning's "Little Master."

He choked again when she asked if she slept with her.

Damn it! Did he waste his breath to say those words just now?

This new student was actually an old and stubborn person?

Since he couldn't threaten her, he could only trick her to admit it. "Xiao Ning, sign the document obediently and push all the blame onto Gu Qiqi. I can make the decision to convict you of no crime and you won't have to accept the school rules' punishment. Otherwise, you know that students who are caught by our disciplinary office will end up... At best, they will be punished. At worst, they will be expelled! Don't tell me that you want to drop out of school after just one day of class?"

"Wow, I'm so afraid." Xiao Ning stuck out her tongue.

She didn't look afraid at all.

Zhang Fan gnashed his teeth. "You aren't afraid of me, right? Then, I'll call your parents over!"

Xiao Ning said smugly, "Sure. My parents are in Qing Cheng. Please buy a plane ticket for them to come back to the Imperial Capital."

Zhang Fan was speechless.

D*mn it. He had kicked an iron plate.

This d*mned girl.

He was so angry that he was at a loss for words.

A plan formed in his heart.

He pretended to look down at his phone and said confidently, "On Chief Zhao's end, Gu Qiqi has already admitted her mistake and even said that she colluded with you. Why are you still being loyal to her? She would have sold you off long ago!"

Xiao Ning blinked. "Sure, sure. I'm happy to be sold by my Beauty Qi! I'll even help her count the money if she sells me!"

Zhang Fan was speechless.

There was no way to communicate anymore!

He couldn't continue questioning her!

Could he just punch her until she admitted her mistake?

Just as this thought surfaced...

There was a crisp sound of joints cracking...

Little Master Xiao Ning was exercising her wrist joints and looked at him with a spurious smile...

As a grown man, Zhang Fan was covered in cold sweat from her observation.

Damn it. This girl didn't seem to be easy to provoke. She was clearly experienced and wasn't that delicate girl on the surface!

Zhang Fan couldn't deal with it anymore.

Bai Yingzhu, who was hiding in the inner room, lifted the curtains and rushed out. "Senior Brother Zhang, why are you still reasoning with such a person? You can sign the document directly as proof. I'll help you testify and confirm her crime! Hmph! We have the CCTV tape as evidence. What are we afraid of?!"

Seeing that Bai Yingzhu had finally revealed herself...

Xiao Ning put away her joking expression and her eyes became somewhat cold. "Bai Yingzhu, to think that I thought you had the heart to repent. I also saw that you were willing to live up to the gamble and admit your defeat. I respected that you were a girl who dared to take responsibility for your actions. This was why I changed the pig food that I prepared for you to curry rice at the last minute. I wanted to let you learn your lesson and stop doing those stupid things. I didn't expect that I really fed the pig with good intentions! You actually turned the tables on me! I really regret not kicking you into the dung pit to let you eat your fill when you were sweeping the pigpen the other day!"
