

Dear Chief 441

Chapter 441: The Side Effect Was Too Scary

Gu Qiqi swallowed her saliva.

She felt that her mind wasn't listening to her anymore!

Why was she slowly approaching him uncontrollably?!

Gong Jue's deep eyes were about to close in on her.

She pinched herself hard to calm down.

"Oh, it actually doesn't hurt... Stay awake! Stay awake!" Gu Qiqi muttered softly.

Gong Jue's breathing suddenly became heavy.

He said, "Stupid woman, you did well today."

Gu Qiqi was stunned..

Being hugged by him like this, she thought that he would take advantage of her.

She didn't expect that he would only praise her.

Her performance wasn't bad?

Was he referring to her beating someone up? Or cheating someone? Or attacking someone?

"It's very good that you remembered to call me when it's important." Gong Jue's lips curved slightly. He was clearly in a good mood.

"Cough, cough, cough..."

Was such a small matter worthy of praise?

Did she hear wrongly?

Gu Qiqi hurriedly continued to pinch herself a few more times.

She had to wake herself up.

But why didn't it hurt? Furthermore, it was useless...

"Remember to maintain this behavior next time. Call me immediately if anything happens. Hmm?" Gong Jue's voice was hoarse. Furthermore, he seemed to be holding back something.

"Ok."

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips and agreed.

She started to feel confused. Her thoughts couldn't be controlled and her beautiful eyes shone.

In Gong Jue's eyes, it was simply a supreme delicacy.

"Are there any troubles today that haven't been solved? Hmm?"

The man's Adam's apple bobbed. His big palm moved to the back of her head and pulled her small face closer.

"No more..."

Gu Qiqi held her breath and continued to pinch herself ruthlessly!

Only the missed opportunity to sign up for the pharmaceutical school had troubled her for a while.

However, she had already thought of a solution in the afternoon.

She instructed the little turtle to climb into the pharmacy office and take out a form. After filling it up, it threw it into the principal's office and mixed it into the pile of registration forms.

This wasn't a difficult task.

Instead, the most troublesome thing now was that the stupid man was too close to her and was looking at her too deeply...

She was so worried that she wouldn't be able to control herself and throw herself on him again like the last time in the washroom!

She pinched herself again!

Hey, wake up.

"Stupid woman, you're pinching my leg..." Gong Jue couldn't tolerate it anymore and finally spoke.

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Ah, this side effect was too terrifying.

Had she already been charmed by Gong Jue to the point where she couldn't tell north from south and couldn't figure out who she was?

No wonder she kept pinching him. She was getting more and more confused.

Her gaze was locked on Gong Jue's lips.

"I... I think it's time for me to go to class!"

Gu Qiqi said these words with her last bit of rationality.

But in contrast, she seemed to be slowly approaching him...

Gong Jue didn't say anything.

The air seemed to freeze abruptly and time stopped.

In the very next second.

He clasped the back of her neck and bent down to kiss her!

The way that this stupid woman wanted to kiss him but didn't dare to was too attractive!

He still felt that it would be more satisfying for him to do it himself.

In the room.

His clothes rustled.

Boom!

Gu Qiqi was pressed onto the table.

Her small heart skipped a beat.

This place wasn't... appropriate, right?!

Gong Jue was unaware.

Boom!

He knocked the table and a pot of natal lily was knocked over and fell to the ground.

Chapter 442: She Started Flirting!

When the flower pot flipped over, Gong Jue finally stopped.

Releasing her lips, he took a deep breath and glanced at the natal lily on the ground.

"Two top-notch assassins from S Nation are dressing up as gardeners and planting flowers at the Empire Medical University..."

Thinking of Special Assistant Lu's report just now, the desire in Gong Jue's eyes immediately subsided.

He should have minimized his contact with her, especially in public.

But when he heard that she had been put in a difficult position by the school just now, he couldn't help but come.

He couldn't control it!

But for her safety, he should still maintain a distance.

At least, he couldn't let anything happen to her before he found out the true intentions of those assassins in S Nation.

He also couldn't let the killers target her!

Thinking about this, Gong Jue stood up abruptly.

He pulled her up as well.

Looking at the girl's pink lips, he couldn't help but pull them over and kiss them ruthlessly again before releasing them as if nothing had happened.

“Go to class!”

He loosened the buttons on his suit and abstained himself.

Gu Qiqi’s small face flushed red. She was somewhat puzzled by his indifferent attitude.

Looking at him loosening the buttons, she couldn’t help but swallow her saliva.

Why was that stupid man flirting with her again?

Why was he unbuttoning in front of her?

Wasn’t it contradictory to ask her to attend class?

The little dirty turtle didn’t miss the opportunity to instigate her. “Master Silver, this is a rare opportunity. There are still 16 more times... Why don’t we take advantage of today to finish him off in one fell swoop? As the saying goes, flowers at home aren’t as fragrant as wildflowers. That... The flowers in the office are also more fragrant... Ahem, ahem, ahem, ahem...”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Finish him off completely?

No!

She rejected it in her heart, but her small hand stretched out.

However, Gong Jue looked at her small hand that was stretched out. He actually took a deep breath, turned around, and strode away towards the bathroom in the room!

In order to hide the resurgent and uncontrollable emotions in his eyes, Gong Jue could only face her from behind.

“Go to class! Don’t let your imagination run wild!”

After saying these words, he slammed the bathroom door shut without looking back.

Soon, the sound of running water could be heard from inside.

Gu Qiqi’s small hand stopped in mid-air in embarrassment. She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

So, she was taking the initiative to flirt and was rejected?!

Did Gong Jue know what she was thinking about?

Gu Qiqi covered her small face. When she left the office building, her heart was still beating rapidly.

In addition, the little dirty turtle had been mumbling about how regretful it was that she had missed such a great opportunity to pay back the points she owed.

She felt a little lost.

As she walked, she nearly bumped into someone on the quiet school path.

“I’m sorry...” She politely avoided the pedestrians.

But that person moved and stopped in front of her again.

Gu Qiqi stopped in her tracks.

Her gaze landed on that person clearly.

It was a woman.

She was wearing a pair of white sheepskin short boots with symmetrical calves and a white silk skirt embroidered with jasmine petals.

She was holding a few books in her hands.

Her light brown curly hair gave her a gentle look. With a smile on her face, she looked knowledgeable and elegant.

Gu Qiqi squinted.

She had seen this woman before!

Back then, she had received a phone call in Qing Cheng. Later on, when she was ambushed by the people from S Nation and in a car accident, this woman appeared in her ward in a white coat and was even talking and laughing with Gong Jue.

Most importantly, when she questioned Gong Jue about why he was late for his grandfather's birthday banquet back then, Gong Jue said that it was because of this woman!

She hadn't settled this score yet.

"Hello, Classmate Gu Qiqi. We meet again. Do you remember me?" Bai Mori put on a gentle and harmless smile and greeted her naturally.

Chapter 443: The White Lotus Was Sowing Discord

She remembered!

How could she not remember!

Gu Qiqi swept her gaze lightly across Bai Mori's exquisite makeup.

Although she didn't know this woman's name yet, she had long remembered this woman's voice and appearance.

That arrogant way she said "Jue" and that passionate look on her face showed that she knew Gong Jue first. In fact, she was an old lover of many years.

At this moment, this woman deliberately "bumped into" her on the school road. What was her motive?

Seeing that Gu Qiqi's expression was cold and she was silent, Bai Mori didn't mind.

Instead, she introduced herself as if they were close. "We met at the hospital the last time. You were injured back then. I came to treat you. I'm Jue's..."

"I'm sorry, but I'm very busy." Gu Qiqi interrupted her coldly. She had no interest in chatting with Bai Mori at all.

Upon hearing that "Jue", she felt disgusted.

After being rejected, Bai Mori's face stiffened.

But soon, she smiled again.

Heh heh, did this country girl just come out of the discipline office?

Bai Yingzhu and the rest should have tortured this girl ruthlessly, right?

Seeing that this girl's expression was so ugly, she guessed that Yingzhu and the rest had succeeded.

This girl was either expelled or forced to leave.

In short, this country girl's future was definitely ruined.

If she couldn't even attend school, what development could she have when she went out in the future?

It was definitely impossible for her to stand side by side with Gong Jue. The Gong family wouldn't accept such a daughter-in-law either.

As for the high society circles, such a woman without any family background, ability, and education couldn't be squeezed into their circle even if she cracked her head!

Bai Mori couldn't help but laugh out loud.

She really applauded herself for using someone else to do her dirty work.

This was how true IQ was used. It wasn't like she was in a hurry to go up and fight with her love rival.

Feeling smug, she couldn't help but give Gu Qiqi a taste of her own medicine.

"Oh, you should be very busy with the withdrawal procedures. I understand. By the way, I heard that you were chased out of the clinical medicine school previously. Do you know why?"

Withdrawal procedures?

Gu Qiqi frowned.

How did this woman know that she had been slandered just now and was nearly expelled?

What was her relationship with Bai Yingzhu?

As this thought flashed across her mind when she heard her say that she was chased out by the clinical medicine school.

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned cold!

Bai Mori laughed lightly and continued speaking. "I reckon that you don't know the real reason. After all, if Jue doesn't want you to know, you will never know."

Oh?

It had something to do with that stupid man?

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows and looked over coldly.

Bai Mori realized that she had attracted Gu Qiqi's attention and couldn't help but feel a little pleased.

He continued to smile and said, "I'm afraid that you still don't know that Jue's parents hate female doctors the most in this lifetime. So, if you study to become a doctor at the Empire Medical University, you definitely won't be able to enter the Gong family's door in this lifetime. Speaking of which, I have to thank Jue. He still dotes on you quite a lot. In order to pave the way for you, he personally ordered your profession to be changed so that the clinical medicine school could kick you out."

Thank you?

Heh heh, this must be heartbreaking.

Gu Qiqi looked at Bai Mori coldly.

She pursed his lips tightly and didn't say a word.

Bai Mori thought that Gu Qiqi had gone crazy from anger because of this "truth". Thus, she couldn't say anything and became more and more like a victor. "Sigh, this is what's wrong with Jue. He's more domineering and dictatorial. Didn't he think that if you were kicked out of the clinical medicine school, your professional life would be ruined..."

Before she could finish pretending to be sorry...

Gu Qiqi opened her red lips and said coolly—

Chapter 444: Anger the White Lotus To Death

Gu Qiqi said coolly, "Who said that he did it?"

Bai Mori was surprised and her tone was slightly exaggerated. "Why? Don't you know yet? Of course, only Jue has the ability to kick someone out. How would others have the ability to command Professor Shen Ping from the clinical medicine school?"

In order to drive a wedge between Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi, she was going to give it her all.

She didn't hesitate to twist the truth and lie casually.

Anyway, a girl with Gu Qiqi's character definitely wouldn't confront Gong Jue, right?

Getting angry and then ignoring Gong Jue was probably the way she would deal with this.

Gong Jue hated women who threw tantrums the most. He would definitely ignore her back.

In the end, these two people would become estranged!

Heh heh, Bai Mori was simply familiar with this trick.

This was the correct way to crush a love rival.

Without bloodshed!

It would be strange if she didn't vomit to death!

Unfortunately...

In the very next second.

A trace of a mocking smile appeared on Gu Qiqi's face. "You're wrong. Gong Jue knows very well what I want. He respects me a lot and never interferes with any of my decisions, much less change my profession. Oh, but it might be different for unrelated people. He's quite domineering and heartless to others."

Bai Mori was stunned.

She almost thought that she had heard wrongly.

Shouldn't Gu Qiqi leave in a huff?

She actually said that Gong Jue respected her a lot and didn't force her to change her profession?

D*mn it. Where did this country girl get such confidence from?

She even mocked her for being an "outsider"!

She nearly vomited to death!

Clenching her fists, Bai Mori nearly couldn't maintain her elegant appearance. She gnashed her teeth and said, "Gu Qiqi, you're still too young. You don't understand. How can a man disobey his own parents? His parents don't like doctors. Of course, he won't marry a doctor. You're just wasting time on him..."

Gu Qiqi interrupted her with a mocking smile. "Didn't you say just now that I've already been expelled? Anyway, I can't become a doctor anymore. Yes, I can go to the Gong family to be a wife. How comfortable is that?"

Her calm and collected look simply made her look like a righteous wife.

Bai Mori was speechless.

How could this woman be so thick-skinned?! She just went along with it.

She was really about to explode from anger.

It was fine if Gu Qiqi didn't fall for it and didn't believe her sowing discord, but she actually turned the tables!

She really wanted to vomit to death!

Thinking about the image of Gu Qiqi comfortably becoming the Gong family's young mistress, she felt that her entire self wasn't good anymore. She had failed!

But...

In the end, Gu Qiqi still patted her shoulder and added intentionally. "Compared to believing an outsider's words, I still believe Gong Jue more. I believe him. From the start, I never suspected that he changed my profession. Let alone you, even if Shen Ping came personally, I wouldn't be swayed."

An outsider!

An outsider!

An outsider!

Bai Mori was stabbed by Gu Qiqi. After many stabs, her blood reservoir was nearly empty.

On what basis was this d*mned country girl so confident?

On what basis could she exclude her from Gong Jue's world and become an outsider?

She was clearly the woman next to Jue!

She was most compatible with Jue!

After Gu Qiqi finished speaking, she smiled lightly and left.

Bai Mori was left looking extremely depressed.

She initially planned to let Gu Qiqi have a good taste of Gong Jue betraying her.

In the end, she was the one who was being fed dog food.

But did Gu Qiqi really trust Gong Jue that much?

Chapter 445: Actually Meeting Gong Jue!

Bai Mori's heart tightened.

Had Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue's relationship developed into such a close relationship? Did they have such unconditional trust?

It had to be known that even a couple who had been together for many years would find it difficult to choose to believe each other immediately when they heard unpredictable rumors.

How could Gu Qiqi be so confident that Gong Jue didn't change her profession for her?

Was she too careless and... too late?

She suddenly felt a little anxious.

She quickly made a call. "Yingzhu, I heard that you went to the discipline office in the afternoon to report Gu Qiqi?"

She hoped to hear the expected answer so that she could feel at ease.

But what she didn't expect was...

A series of weak sobs traveled over the phone. "Auntie, that little b*tch Xiao Ning actually invited Little Uncle over. Wuwuwuwu, I was scolded by Little Uncle like a dog..."

Bai Mori wasn't interested in Xiao Ning.

That was just Bai Shaoyao's daughter.

As an adopted daughter, Bai Shaoyao didn't have any status in the Bai family at all. Her daughter was naturally an outsider.

Only Bai Yeyuan treated her like a treasure.

However, she couldn't say if it was a real relationship or something else!

She didn't care about Xiao Ning's life and death and asked directly, "Where's Gu Qiqi? Was Gu Qiqi expelled?"

Bai Yingzhu cried even more fiercely. "How could that be? We're too unlucky. I heard that Head Zhao was suddenly stripped of his position by the higher-ups. Then, Gu Qiqi's matter was left unsettled!"

What?!

Bai Mori's fingers trembled.

She nearly grabbed her phone.

She actually didn't drop out!

No wonder that country girl was so arrogant and reckless just now!

It turned out that she had defeated Bai Yingzhu and was feeling smug.

D*mn it!

To think that she thought that she was beating a defeated dog. She didn't expect that she was just giving her an itch to scratch. It didn't hurt at all.

Bai Yingzhu was still applying medicine to her face as she cried. "Wuwuwu! Auntie, why can't I beat her? They were clearly the ones who bullied me, gave me pig food, and even poked me with poisonous needles. Why are they living well in the end? I want them to suffer..."

That's right.

Why was Gu Qiqi living arrogantly?

Bai Mori had to suffer.

That definitely didn't make sense!

"Auntie will stand up for you. Wait for me."

Bai Mori's eyes turned cold and she hung up the call.

Very well.

Very good!

It was good that Gu Qiqi didn't drop out of school.

As long as this country girl stayed at Imperial Medical University for a day, she wouldn't have to worry about not having a chance to make a move.

The Empire Medical University was her territory. Did this girl still want to fight with her?

Hmph!

A sinister sneer surfaced in her eyes. Bai Mori turned around and prepared to leave.

Unexpectedly, she looked up and saw a pair of deep and cold eyes.

"Jue? You... Why are you here?"

Bai Mori looked as if she had seen a ghost.

No, she said something bad about him behind his back. In the end, she looked up and realized that he was staring at her silently from above.

She had that guilt and fear of being caught!

Gong Jue's expression was faint. One couldn't tell if he was happy or angry from his voice. "I'm here to do something."

Bai Mori bit her lips and said with a trembling voice, "Jue, when... did you come?"

If Gong Jue had heard her conversation with Gu Qiqi just now, she would definitely die!

She didn't know how long Gong Jue had been listening or what part he had heard.

After a moment of silence, Gong Jue said coldly, "I just arrived."

These words immediately calmed Bai Mori.

That was great!

Gong Jue shouldn't have heard anything... right?

She probed, "Oh, that... I even bumped into Young Lady Qiqi just now. Yes, she didn't seem to have gone far. Do you want to look for her..."

Before she could finish speaking...

Gong Jue interrupted her coldly.

Chapter 446: The Scheming Master Jue Touched The Lotus Personally!

Gong Jue's cold voice said coolly, "Bring me some more of the medicine that you studied last time. I want to try the medicine again."

His gaze was cold. He didn't even look at Gu Qiqi's departure.

"Really?"

Bai Mori had always boasted about being calm.

She couldn't calm down at this moment.

Her fingers were entangled together in excitement. She was as helpless as a young girl who was in love.

How could she not be excited?

Gong Jue actually ignored Gu Qiqi and didn't care if Gu Qiqi had come or where she went at all.

But he was concerned about the antimicrobial medicine that she had studied for him!

Of course, she had to be excited!

She had worried for nothing just now. It turned out that Gong Jue didn't care about Gu Qiqi at all.

Gong Jue had always cared about her.

So what if Gu Qiqi trusted Gong Jue extremely?

Gong Jue didn't want such trust, okay?

Gu Qiqi was just a girl. She couldn't help Gong Jue at all.

She was different.

She was the most outstanding graduate of the Empire Medical University, the youngest doctoral tutor, and the most awesome genetic medicine expert.

Only she could develop the best antimicrobial medicine for Gong Jue so that he could completely cure his illness of not being able to touch women.

Of course, Gong Jue thought highly of her.

Bai Mori was so excited that she hesitated for a moment on the spot.

Only then did she return to normal. "There's more. It's just that... I wasted a lot of doses last time and it wasn't enough. I'll prepare it as soon as possible and send it over to you. Can I?"

As she spoke, she felt inexplicably happy.

As long as Gong Jue's illness wasn't cured, her existence was irreplaceable!

Gong Jue was going to rely on her medicine!

This time, she had to add that medicine to her reliance so that Gong Jue couldn't leave her completely...

Thus, she couldn't give the medicine to Gong Jue immediately.

Heh heh, he was a man after all. It was always better to leave him hanging.

He wouldn't cherish her if she was too easy to obtain.

Bai Mori reasoned with herself and tried her best to restore her usual elegant and gentle image.

Upon hearing her answer, Gong Jue didn't say anything and only nodded coldly.

"Then, I'll contact you after I'm done with my research."

"Yes."

He replied lightly and left.

Bai Mori was left alone on the school road, unable to contain her joy.

Gong Jue walked for a while.

Special Assistant Lu couldn't help but mutter softly, "Master Jue, didn't you say that you wouldn't take Miss Bai's medicine anymore? Also, she was clearly unfriendly to Young Lady Qiqi just now... Why did you still..."

He even chatted with her and asked her about medicine but didn't chase after Young Lady Qiqi?

Didn't he see Young Lady Qiqi's lonely back as she walked towards the classroom alone?

How pitiful.

Gong Jue's expression didn't change and he didn't stop walking.

But he said in a low voice in annoyance, "Three o'clock direction. Right behind the flower rack. Two nails."

What?

Why was the Chief speaking in professional directional terms?

Special Assistant Lu was stunned. He suddenly glanced in the direction of three o'clock.

Two burly men dressed as gardeners were watering the flowers in seriousness.

This time.

Special Assistant Lu immediately understood!

How could it be that the Chief had a good impression of Bai Mori? How was it that he wanted to talk to Bai Mori, much less take her medicine?

He had clearly discovered that the two assassins from S Nation—Fu Mao and Ring A—were monitoring him.

Thus, he pretended to not be interested in Young Lady Qiqi and instead chatted happily with Bai Mori.

The more he spoke to Bai Mori, the more interested those two assassins would be in Bai Mori. They wouldn't notice Young Lady Qiqi at all!

D*mn it. Chief was too scheming.

Chapter 447: Bai Yeyuan's Impudent Kiss

Special Assistant Lu sighed with admiration.

Not only did Master Jue use Bai Mori as a shield to help Young Lady Qiqi resolve the danger of the enemies in S Nation, he also managed to help Young Lady Qiqi eliminate that white lotus!

After being targeted by a top-notch killer in S Nation, Bai Mori's life in the future wouldn't be good.

He had seen people torture their love rivals, but he had never seen Master Jue destroy his love rivals for his own woman like this. Young Lady Qiqi didn't have to worry at all.

This series of actions was awesome!

==

In the veterinary school classroom, the class had just ended and she was taking a break.

When Gu Qiqi pushed open the door and entered, everyone surrounded her.

"Qiqi, are you okay?"

"Qiqi, someone from the clinical medicine school came to spread rumors just now and was chased away by us!"

"Qiqi, are you really going to the pharmaceutical school? Do you not want us anymore?"

Everyone started chattering.

Little Master Xiao Ning squeezed out from the crowd. "Everyone, stop disturbing with Qiqi. Let's talk about these things in the future!"

She pulled Gu Qiqi to the last row of the classroom and whispered into her ear, "Qiqi, I heard that that person with the surname Zhao was actually fired. You're too awesome! You managed to get rid of Head Fengji. You're great. I refused to admit anything no matter how much I was threatened and had to use my wits to fight with Bai Yingzhu."

"Your uncle came?"

"Ahem, ahem. How did you know?"

"The traces are too obvious."

Gu Qiqi pulled on her collar in annoyance and helped her cover up an especially obvious bruised hickey.

Clearly, that had just been imprinted and was still fresh.

Xiao Ning's small face flushed red.

Damn it!

If she hadn't obediently accepted Bai Yueyuan's presumptuous kiss, would she still have the life to return to class?

She would have long been dragged home by that terrifying man and locked up in that small black room!

She couldn't lose big because of a small matter.

"Ahem, ahem, ahem. It was because I bumped into something..." Xiao Ning avoided her. "Qiqi, you missed the entrance exam registration for the pharmaceutical school. What should we do? Are you really going to be in the veterinary school?"

"I've already signed up."

"Ah? It's only been a while since we last met. You've settled everything. You're too heaven-defying."

"Oh, not everything is settled. I have a piece of jade here that I want to polish into a jade ring. I don't know where I can find a reliable master to help me..."

She had gambled on stone gambling at the Dige Auction House. It wasn't easy to make that old glass raw stone with red jade into a jade ring that was identical to the Mu family's engagement token.

If it was an unreliable jade master, the raw stone might be destroyed instead of being made into something identical.

If the person was greedy, he might even steal the jade stone.

She had to look for this candidate slowly and examine him carefully.

But she didn't want to wait a second longer.

That disgusting guy Mu Liuchuan would come out to find her from time to time.

Just like today, he actually had the cheek to use his status as a relative to force her to admit her mistake to Director Zhao.

She really wanted to throw the jade in his face!

Xiao Ning was worried when she heard this. "Jade Master? Oh, I don't know this well. I'll go and ask around..."

"I know!"

An adorable voice suddenly traveled from behind her.

Yang Xiaolan smiled shyly and bounced in front of the two of them.

"Qiqi, let me handle it. Our Yang family has been craftsmen for generations. My father is an old craftsman. He knows how to polish jade. I guarantee that you will be satisfied." Yang Xiao Lan said confidently.

In order to let Gu Qiqi believe her, she even raised her wrist to show Gu Qiqi the jade bracelet around her hand.

Chapter 448: The Hardest Entrance Examination in History!

It was an extremely ordinary ice jade bracelet.

Although the texture wasn't expensive, because of the jade sculptor's marvelous work, it actually polished until it had the luster of a glass type!

What was more shocking was that...

That jade bracelet actually used an extremely high-level and complicated internal carving technique. On the inside of the bracelet, an exquisite word “Yang” was carved.

This was awesome.

The entire jade bracelet immediately became a unique and expensive treasure.

“Xiaolan, I couldn’t tell that your family is filled with crouching tigers and hidden dragons?” Little Master Xiao Ning exclaimed.

Yang Xiao Lan pursed her lips shyly. “No, my family... is just an ordinary family with ordinary skills. I hope Qiqi won’t mind...”

She was a little uneasy, and was afraid that Qiqi wouldn’t trust her.

But what she didn’t expect was...

Gu Qiqi agreed readily. “Then, I’ll leave it to your father. He can name a price for the handicraft fees. Don’t give me a discount just because we’re friends.”

She directly handed that ten-million-dollar glass type jade to Yang Xiaolan with Mu Liuchuan’s engagement token. She didn’t even blink.

Yang Xiaolan opened her mouth.

She wanted to say something but couldn’t.

Qiqi actually trusted her so much!

She... She thought that Qiqi was only on good terms with Xiao Ning and pitied her. She thought she didn’t treat her as a friend yet.

She didn’t expect that the words “friend” would come out of Qiqi’s mouth so naturally.

It was filled with sincerity!

She was so touched!

She, Yang Xiaolan, also had such a good friend!

And it was even Qiqi whom she admired the most...

After being stunned for a while, she sniffed and tears welled up in her eyes. “Friends don’t talk about money. Qiqi, wait for my news! I’ll definitely get Dad to make the exact same one for you. I guarantee it!”

After speaking, without waiting for Gu Qiqi’s reply, she left in a flash of embarrassment!

However, five seconds later.

She ran back again, panting.

Her small face flushed red as she rubbed her hair in embarrassment. "Qiqi, I nearly forgot. I came to tell you just now. I saw the school's notice. You're actually on the list of students taking the entrance examinations. You're number 40. The examination time is next Friday. I heard the internal news from our school. This time, our Fengyang Principal Chu will be the one to set the questions. It might be quite difficult..."

"What's there to be afraid of? Our Beauty Qi is invincible! Haha!" Little Master Xiao Ning disagreed.

Gu Qiqi's expression became more serious. "Head Chu Feng will set the questions personally? Is there any direction?"

Yang Xiaolan bit her lips. "He was once the most glorious great pharmacist in the Empire. I think that the questions he came up with must be something that we wouldn't have expected..."

"D*mn it! That's awesome! Then should I steal the exam paper for you?" Little Master Xiao Ning rubbed her fists.

Gu Qiqi facepalmed. "You better not cause trouble. It's just an exam. Why would I be afraid? There's no need to play tricks."

Xiao Ning stuck out her tongue. "That's right. If my Qiqi can't get into the exam, others won't be able to either. My Qiqi is a real top student!"

Although Xiao Ning was confident...

But Yang Xiaolan was still a little worried for Gu Qiqi.

What she couldn't bear to say was...

The pharmaceutical school examinations had been especially difficult these few years.

How difficult was it?

No one qualified!

Thus, it didn't mean that she would definitely be able to get in just by defeating others.

Furthermore, in the past, the questions were set by an ordinary teacher. This year, they were personally set by Principal Feng Yang. That meant they would be countless times more difficult. It was probably going to be the most difficult exam in history.

She really suspected that the pharmaceutical school didn't want to recruit anyone at all.

It was only to increase their reputation as a trash school by a small amount to maintain their pride that was about to collapse.

She took the jade home worriedly and was filled with endless worry for Gu Qiqi...

Chapter 449: Food for Brainless People

Time flew.

In a flash.

A week passed.

On Friday, the pharmaceutical school's annual special entrance exam officially began!

The usually cold and cheerless pharmacy became more vibrant.

The 40 examinees, their classmates, friends, and parents waited outside the school in a lively manner.

Although the pharmaceutical school had declined, the Grand Apothecary Feng Yangchu's name was still there. There were still a few of his personal disciples in the school who were teachers.

These students who came to take the exam were hoping to have a chance to enter their names and become Fengyang Chu's direct disciple.

Of course, there were also people who had different twisted mentalities...

For example, at this moment, a cold-looking girl dressed in black squeezed through the crowd with a stack of books in her arms. She exuded a cold and arrogant aura.

There was a trace of disdain on the corners of her eyes as she scanned the 39 people in front of her coldly.

Her phone rang.

She was in an extremely arrogant posture as she answered her phone. She raised her chin and said, "What is it? Tell me."

Gu Xuexue's attentive voice traveled over.

"Bingyue, have you reached the examination room? I brought along the soap, peach gelatin stew and bird's nest that my mother personally prepared for you to try. They're the most nutritious and delicious. They nourish the face and the brain. Where are you? Why don't I see you? I'll send them over for you to eat..."

Han Bingyue snorted coldly. "Tonics? That's for brainless people to eat. Do I need tonics?!"

After speaking, he hung up the call.

He didn't give Gu Xuexue face at all.

Gu Xuexue choked until her face turned green.

She secretly stood on the grass outside the examination room and threw that bowl of bird's nest into the rubbish bin gloomily.

Han Bingyue! Who do you think you are?!

If it weren't for the fact that I had to deal with Gu Qiqi and wanted to make her unable to enter the pharmaceutical school, I wouldn't lower my voice to you.

Soon, Gu Yuanyuan's call came in.

"Junior Sister Bingyue, you can do it! Your results are the best in our clinical medicine school this year. You must crush that group of scumbags and let them know that their exam is just a joke! Let the people from the pharmaceutical school never be able to raise their heads in front of our clinical medicine school!”

Han Bingyue laughed coldly. “Senior Sister, you should do such a noble thing instead!”

She had only wanted to crush that bookworm Gu Qiqi from the start.

She wasn’t interested in standing up for the school at all!

Gu Yuanyuan hung up the call in embarrassment. She gnashed her teeth secretly. “Hmph! So what if you study well? No matter how awesome you are, you’re still one year lower than me. You’re my junior sister!”

Han Bingyue was about to switch off her phone.

The last call came in.

“Junior Sister Bingyue, it’s me.” Liu Guanghui’s voice was a little hoarse. He was in dire straits.

He had been so unlucky these few days.

In order to stand up for him, his uncle—Director Zhao—failed to expel Gu Qiqi and was instead expelled by the school.

His aunt complained about him. In the end, that rich father of his nearly beat him to death.

He had been beaten up all these days!

Before Gu Qiqi’s injuries healed, there were new injuries.

His brothers mocked him ruthlessly.

His dignity as a boy had been fed to the dogs.

He hated Gu Qiqi to the core.

Thus, on the contrary, he felt especially close to the top student, Han Bingyue, who had come to compete with Gu Qiqi for the admission quota.

Because they had a common enemy!

“Junior Sister Bingyue, let me tell you. That Gu Qiqi is very cunning. But she has a weakness which is that she easily develops sympathy for the weak who are being bullied... Back then, because of this, she nearly didn’t manage to sign up. During the exam, if you have the chance, you can use this to...”

Chapter 450: Weren’t Women All Weaklings?

Liu Guanghui could be said to have spent a lot of effort teaching her.

Who would have thought?

Han Bingyue retorted. “Only people without strength walk down the crooked path! I, Han Bingyue, can kill someone by just raising my hand. Why should I waste my time studying that nonsense?!”

What the!

This arrogant woman!

Liu Guanghui paced around the floor in a frenzy.

Had something changed? Why were all the women he had met recently no longer weaklings but felt like they were queens?

Weren't women all weaklings?!

Han Bingyue was very annoyed after making three calls.

She took out the battery from her phone and strode forward.

She didn't queue up either.

She walked to the front of the queue and stood in first place.

The students who were originally standing in front didn't dare to open their mouths and reprimand her for cutting the line and making her take the back row.

It was because her black clothes and dark face were too iconic.

Everyone knew who she was.

Even the surrounding students couldn't help but discuss among themselves.

"Hey, isn't that the top student, Han Bingyue?"

"That's right, that's right. She's Han Bingyue. She was a top student all the way from preschool to the college entrance exam. She was always first. She scored full marks and was as relaxed as eating candy!"

"That's not right. Isn't Han Bingyue a top student from the clinical medicine school? Why is she here to join in the fun and take the pharmaceutical examination? Is she... is she going to change her profession? This is too incredible!"

"You don't understand, right? The top student is here to compete! There are many top students from other schools in this exam today. The top clinical medicine student is here to make them concede and show them who's the boss in this year's Imperial Medical University!"

Upon hearing this, Han Bingyue's expressionless face finally revealed a mocking smile.

That's right.

She was here to cause trouble today.

She had never considered entering the pharmaceutical school at all.

She was here to take the exam just to let that bookworm Gu Qiqi see that she was outstanding in every field!

Gu Qiqi couldn't be compared to her at all.

Once she was admitted, she would give up this admission slot.

Heh heh, it would be better if Gu Qiqi—who couldn't get into the exam—glared at her in anger.

That's right. She was here to snatch Gu Qiqi's opportunity on purpose and deliberately cause a scene.

Who asked Gu Qiqi to dare to be disrespectful to her in the dormitory that day?!

She thought confidently.

Suddenly, an unpleasant voice traveled from behind her.

A small but firm voice gently retorted everyone.

"You're wrong! That Han Bingyue isn't number one. The number one is our Gu Qiqi! Our Gu Qiqi got into the Imperial Medical University with full marks for the National Science Examination. She's number one! She just condemns clinical medicine school! She only came to take the exam because she really likes our pharmaceutical school! Unlike some people who are putting on a show and have evil intentions!"

Yang Xiaolan exclaimed excitedly in the crowd.

She was usually so gentle and timid. But at this moment, she was standing up for Gu Qiqi and speaking up for her. She was so righteous and fearless.

When everyone heard this, they seemed to have gradually remembered that such a thing existed. They nodded one after another. "That's right, that Classmate Gu Qiqi is also a magical legend. I heard that back then, Shen Ping invited her back. He even said that she could dissect a frog in three seconds..."

Han Bingyue was about to explode from anger!

She glared fiercely at Yang Xiao Lan.

She curled her fingers and clenched them into fists in her black sleeves.

She was first!

She was first!

Gu Qiqi was a useless bookworm who only knew how to answer the college entrance exam papers mechanically.

Today's extremely difficult special admission exam would test the difference between a bookworm and a real top student!
