

Dear Chief 501

Chapter 501: Don't Want Her to Be First

Gong Jue didn't comment and rubbed Gu Qiqi's long hair. He acted as if he would do whatever his woman said. He didn't plan to hide his indulgence.

Special Assistant Lu nearly cried in a second. Damn it. He was still the one who was careful yet he turned into a bad person.

These two people didn't have any grudges at all. They didn't care about people like Bai Mori, right?

How torturous!

Fortunately, he was single and had a glass heart. He even carefully considered them to avoid a misunderstanding!

However, Gu Qiqi's next words dealt another heavy blow to his single heart—

“Special Assistant Lu, don't scare people with dogs in the future. Although I like small animals a lot, there are really people who are afraid of dogs. It will leave psychological trauma in people...”

Special Assistant Lu was so shocked that his jaw nearly fell off.

How... How did Young Lady Qiqi know that he was the one who released the Great Lord to scare Chu Junmo?

As if she knew what he was surprised about, Gu Qiqi curved her lips lightly and reached out to pat Deputy Lu's collar. “Dog hair.”

Special Assistant Lu was petrified.

Master Qi, you have sharp eyes!

She could actually see through everything from the black dog hair on his clothes.

Seeing Gu Qiqi expose Special Assistant Lu's small actions, Gong Jue's attitude was indulgent.

However, he saw that Gu Qiqi actually reached out and touched Special Assistant Lu's collar.

Gong Jue's face darkened.

“Why are you flirting?!”

How outrageous! She actually flirted with his subordinate in front of him.

Gu Qiqi curled her lips.

She wasn't flirting. She was just telling Special Assistant Lu that she wasn't blind. She knew some things clearly.

Special Assistant Lu broke out in cold sweat and turned around to leave. “Chief, I... I'll get lost first!”

Master Qi, you're killing me!

I have to stay away from you in the future. Life is more important!

Gong Jue's face sank. He pinched Gu Qiqi's small chin and punished her cherry lips forcefully a few more times. Then, he put her down, closed the door, and left.

Under the moonlight, Gu Qiqi watched as Number One activated and left. She stood in front of the French window in the living room for a long time and didn't move.

Gong Jue didn't give her a long time. Could she solve these troublesome problems in front of her as soon as possible?

After thinking for a while, she called Yang Xiaolan. "Xiaolan, the Chu clan has already agreed to our cooperation. I have some jade stones here. I will bring them tomorrow morning so your father can use them as raw material..."

Monday.

Gu Qiqi had just arrived at school.

She immediately received bad news.

Little Master Xiao Ning pinched a notice in anger and rushed into the veterinary school classroom. She shouted at the top of her lungs, "They're too much of a bully! They're too outrageous! They deserve a beating!"

Gu Qiqi was flipping through the medicine book. Upon hearing this, she looked up and said lightly, "Who provoked you?"

"It's that group of bastards who applied for the pharmaceutical school!"

"What did they do to you?"

"They actually jointly wrote a report and said that the exam last Friday was unfair! They said that even the invigilator couldn't recognize Soft-leaved Honeysuckle and the Japanese Honeysuckle. Of course, they couldn't pass the exam. They asked for a repeat exam! That's fine, but they actually slandered you for colluding with the pharmaceutical school teachers and got full marks because you knew the answer in advance! Colluding, my ass! That pharmaceutical school teacher didn't even want to see you. Didn't he even mock you when you handed in the blank paper? Are these people blind? Or are they lying through their teeth? I'm so angry!"

Little Master Xiao Ning was furious.

Gu Qiqi remained silent.

After a while, she asked lightly, "So... the exam is invalid now and I have to take the exam again?"

"That's right! Do you know? This time, they requested for the principal to set the questions personally and even asked for an expert to set the questions from outside the school. Coupled with the questions that the pharmaceutical school's Director Feng Yangchu set himself, there will be a total of three questions. Only then was it considered fair. Hmph, fair my ass... They didn't have the ability to blame the school. It must be Han Bingyue's doing! Her motive was to not let you enter the pharmaceutical school! She didn't want you to be first!"

In the principal's office.

The old principal was speechless. He stared at Feng Yangchu.. "Brother Chu, I don't agree with the reexamination. Why are you doing this?"

Chapter 502: Suppress Her Too Much

Feng Yangchu's eyes lit up and he snorted coldly. "The students jointly wrote a letter. You dare to disrespect the public opinion?"

The principal said suspiciously, "Brother Chu, since when have you cared about other people's words?"

Fengyang Chu had always been a maverick. It would be strange if he was subdued by a few troublemakers. He kept feeling that Fengyang Chu did it on purpose.

But the problem was that there was someone behind that girl. Feng Yangchu, can you not cause trouble for me and not target that girl so that you won't end up like the discipline office director?

"Cut the crap. Anyway, you should arrange for them to take the exam again!" Feng Yangchu said these words and turned around to leave.

Hmph! That girl was actually lucky to be able to pass through the Soft-leaved Honeysuckle trap that he had deliberately set up.

He didn't trust her and deliberately wanted to trouble her again!

In the Bai clan's pharmacy.

Gu Xuexue, Gu Yuanyuan, and Bai Yingzhu sat in the VIP room for afternoon tea.

The three of them looked delighted.

Gu Xuexue vividly imitated Xiao Ning's angry expression for them. "That country bumpkin Gu Qiqi was pulled down from the first place by someone. Let's not talk about how depressed she was. I think Xiao Ning was going to hit the wall! Haha!"

Gu Yuanyuan rolled her eyes. "She deserves it! I've already told the people from our clinical medicine school about this re-examination. I'll definitely suppress her until she can't get up! That kind of trash deserves to get lost from our Empire Military Medical University!"

Bai Yingzhu was wearing nail polish, and the slap mark on her face had already faded a lot. She raised her chin and said in a coquettish voice, "Gu Xuexue, your mom's move isn't bad. Go and encourage those examinees who have fallen off the rankings to submit a report together so that we won't have to do anything and just watch the fun. Give us a dozen of such ideas in the future!"

Gu Xuexue smiled. "She also can't stand that country bumpkin always opposing us."

As she spoke, she praised her again. "Sister Yingzhu, your Bai family is so awesome. With your support, Sister Yuan's Qing Yuxuan's sales volume reached ten million dollars. It was said that she successfully attracted the international investment bank's big shot, Mr. Washington, to come personally to inspect in preparation for an investment. He even said that he wanted to incorporate Qing Yuxuan in overseas pharmacies... Mommy asked me to learn well from you!"

Of course, she wanted to interfere in such a profitable jade jewelry chain store.

Unexpectedly, Bai Yingzhu didn't comment.

Gu Yuanyuan rolled her eyes. "You? If you want to come in, then do the odd jobs. I'll arrange an internship for you at the front desk."

Gu Xuexue's face stiffened.

Although the three of them could face a common enemy like Gu Qiqi, Gu Xuexue would always be the one who was looked down upon in this small group of three.

Gu Xuexue clenched her fists and thought to herself, One day, after I use you to get rid of Gu Qiqi, I'll step on your heads too!

Don't worry, you two idiots! You'll suffer!

But there was still a perfect smile on her face. "Yes, Sister Yuan is right. I just came in to help. It's only right to start from the bottom..."

As she spoke, Bai Yingzhu lazily threw over a golden invitation card.

Gu Xuexue received it in pleasant surprise. "This is..."

"This is the VIP reception banquet that our Bai family has prepared for Qing Yuxuan at the end of the month. The venue is at the flagship store in Golden Diamond Corridor. When the time comes, you and your mother can come over and take a look."

Gu Xuexue's eyes lit up. "Thank you, Sister Yingzhu!" She didn't know if Gong Jue would attend when the time came. She had to dress up beautifully.

Gu Yuanyuan glanced at her impatiently. "When the time comes, the people attending will be the wives and young mistresses of famous families. Don't embarrass me!"

Gu Xuexue nodded fiercely. "I'll definitely prepare well."

In the veterinary school classroom.

Gu Qiqi finally received the call that she had been waiting for a long time. "Brother Tianyu, Bigshot Lawyer, have you helped me figure something out?"

Chapter 503: Looking for a Lawyer For Help

Mu Tianyu's clear and bright voice traveled over the phone. "I've found out something. It was Gu Enlong who acquired Qing Yuxuan. That loan shark from the Yang Consortium was also secretly operated by him to collude with Yang Xiaoqing."

Gu Qiqi's eyes darkened and turned cold. "Their motive?"

"The motive... was to completely destroy the Yang family. Yang Xiaoqing and Gu Enlong combined forces. Not only could they invade the Yang family's intellectual property rights, but they could also take over the Yang family's assets. This transaction is too worth it! The Yang family's old residence—which is worth a few million dollars—was bought by Gu Enlong at the lowly price of more than a hundred thousand dollars. Also, those hooligans who come to chase after debt and beat people up every day were also hired by Gu Enlong in the underworld."

"Why?" Gu Qiqi's voice turned cold.

"I've also checked the reason many times. It seems to be more than ten years ago when Gu Enlong was still young and still in society. He went around looking for connections to get Yang Iron Fist to make a piece of jewelry for him to curry favor with Old Master Gu. Yang Iron Fist has always treated customers equally, no matter how noble or lowly they are. Even if the president looked for him, he had to queue, let alone a hooligan like Gu Enlong. In the end, he definitely didn't agree to Gu Enlong's unreasonable request and invited him to line up according to the rules. Due to this, Gu Enlong bore a grudge and remembered it for more than ten years! This year, he finally found an opportunity to ruthlessly take advantage of Yang Iron Fist! Qiqi, you're so concerned about the Yang family's matter. Are you going to seek redress for them?"

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Yes. Not only is she helping Iron Fist Yang redress his injustice, but she's also teaching Gu Enlong and Gu Yuanyuan a lesson!"

Although she had long been prepared in her heart and felt that this matter couldn't be separated from the Gu family...

But when she really found the evidence, she still couldn't help but feel angry.

Gu Enlong!

Gu Enlong had always been close to Gu Meifeng. Back then, when her college entrance exam application was changed and her college entrance exam results were changed, Gu Enlong had secretly contributed a lot to Gu Meifeng's plan, right?

She didn't expect that Gu Enlong had already been a sinister person more than ten years ago. He actually bore a grudge for more than ten years because he couldn't cut the line for some jewelry and swore to destroy the Yang family.

What a scumbag!

"Brother Tianyu, can you take this case?"

"You're saying that we should get back the intellectual property rights for Iron Fist Yang and sue Yang Xiaoqing and Gu Enlong for plagiarism?"

"Yes."

“Honestly speaking, the probability of winning this case isn’t high. The difficulty of identifying intellectual property is an international problem, especially with such handicraft skills. It can be said that there’s no precedent in the history of the Empire’s law. Yang Xiaoqing and Gu Enlong must have found someone to specially study the loopholes in the law to act fearlessly... An ordinary lawyer definitely won’t take this case...”

“Brother Tianyu, haven’t you always wanted to become the best lawyer in the Empire? Won’t doing something that others can’t do give you the confidence to become a bigshot lawyer? Why? Do you only want to be a lawyer who earns big money now and look down on this small case?”

Mu Tianyu smiled. “Little girl, I really can’t out-talk you! How am I a lawyer who earns big money? If I didn’t have your millions of dollars in investment, I wouldn’t even have the funds to establish a law firm, so how could I be a bigshot lawyer then? I have to thank you. If you didn’t help me at the critical moment, I might have been scammed by a loan shark like Yang Iron Fist! Do you know that I didn’t check and didn’t know? Once I checked, I actually found out that the company that wanted to borrow money to invest in me previously was the same company as the loan shark company that Gu Enlong found! In other words, there was also someone behind the scenes who used similar methods as Gu Enlong to try to ruin me! I nearly fell into their trap!”

Gu Qiqi’s expression froze. “Someone tricked you behind your back? Who was it?”

She suddenly remembered Mu Tianyu’s outcome in her previous life.

He was young and clearly had a successful career, but he committed suicide because of a loan shark.

Could it be that... someone really did it on purpose?

Loan sharks were indeed a type of cancer!

Chapter 504: She Was Clearly Trash But She Had to Act Like A Top Student

Mu Tianyu shook his head. “If we continue investigating, there will be no clues. But now, I already have a vigilant heart. I believe that the other party won’t dare to act rashly. I just want to tell you, Qiqi. I can’t thank you enough. Why would I not take a fancy to this case? I didn’t become a lawyer just to earn money, but also for personal reasons. I don’t want others to say that I’m a profligate son and a useless second-generation heir, or that I rely on the Mu family for everything and have the intention to compete for the family assets with my older brother. Taking ten thousand steps back, you’re my big shareholder. You’re my boss. I’ll do whatever you want me to do for the case! Haha!”

Gu Qiqi was also amused by him. “Okay, then I’ll leave this case to you.”

“Give me some time to study it. Don’t worry, I’ll do my best.”

Gu Qiqi couldn’t help but sigh. Why was Mu Liuchuan such a hypocrite and snobbish child from the same family, but Mu Tianyu was so candid and upright...

Oh, she had nearly forgotten that Mu Liuchuan was an adopted son. He didn’t have the Mu family’s blood in him.

After Mu Tianyu hung up the call, he quickly transferred a sum of money to Gu Qiqi’s account.

She sent a text message. "Boss, please keep the dividends for this month well. I'll continue working hard..."

Gu Qiqi's lips twitched.

Perhaps no one in this world was able to hire a big lawyer to work for them like her. Not only did she not have to pay, but she even got the big lawyer to send her money instead.

She was probably the first person in this world!

Under Gu Qiqi's arrangements, Mu Tianyu was in charge of preparing for the infringement lawsuit. The Yang father and daughter were in charge of preparing handmade jewelry. Xiao Ning was in charge of connecting with the Chu clan's staff to set up a special counter space.

Soon, Lan Ting opened its first counter space in the flagship store of the Chu clan's pharmacy in the Imperial Capital in a low-key manner.

At the same time, the pharmaceutical school's special admission exam was held again!

On this day.

Gu Qiqi initially wanted to go to the examination room early.

In the end, because she went to the Orchid Pavilion patrol shop first, she was delayed for a while and rushed to the examination room.

When she reached the pharmaceutical school classroom, the examinees had already taken their seats.

She was still in the middle of the first row.

She threw all the gossip behind her to the back of her mind.

"Look at that Gu Qiqi. She's so arrogant. Does she think that she can be first again since she was first last time?"

"I heard all about it. She only recognized the Soft-leaved Honeysuckle last time because she used her connections to get the exam questions in advance. Otherwise, how could she be more awesome than the top student from the clinical medicine school, Han Bingyue?"

"Hmph! This time, three different heavyweights came up with the questions. The principal, Principal Feng Yangchu, and a mysterious expert. Let's see who else she can bribe!"

"Heh heh, let's wait for her to be slapped in the face. She's clearly trash, but she insists on pretending to be a top student. Isn't it embarrassing?"

No matter how much these people clamored, Gu Qiqi pretended not to hear them and closed her eyes to rest at her examination table.

Han Bingyue was still dressed in black as she sat in the last row.

Her gaze was dark as she stared intently at Gu Qiqi's slender back.

She had underestimated her enemy last time. This time, she definitely couldn't let Gu Qiqi stand out again!

She was already prepared...

Han Bingyue's gaze swept across the experimental equipment on Gu Qiqi's table and the corners of her lips curved sinisterly.

Soon.

The examiners gradually entered the venue.

The principal was the first to enter with a smile on his face.

After taking two steps, he turned around and called out, "CEO Chu, sit here. I'll introduce you to the students. This is the head of the Chu clan, CEO Chu Junmo! Today, we're very honored to invite him to participate in the proposition!"

A man in a sky-blue long gown walked over steadily with a calm expression.

The classroom, which had been filled with discussions just now, fell silent as the man walked in!

How cool!

He was too cool!

Chapter 505: Others Look At Handsome Men, But She Look At Old Man

The female students all looked at Chu Junmo with starry eyes.

It turned out that this was the mysterious expert that the principal had invited.

The principal really understood their teenage hearts. He actually gave them such a big benefit!

They had already been amazed by this big chairman when she caught a glimpse of him in the last exam. They didn't expect that she would actually be lucky enough to meet him again.

Chu Junmo's cold gaze swept across the entire venue. He ignored those admiring gazes and only locked onto Gu Qiqi.

He smiled lightly. Everything was unspoken.

Gu Qiqi felt a little guilty. She pursed her lips and forced a smile.

That day, she left Chu Jun's Mo family without saying goodbye. She was so embarrassed!

She was too embarrassed to contact Chu Junmo anymore.

Even all the preparations for the opening of the Lan Ting were done by Xiao Ning as she communicated with the Chu clan staff.

She felt that she might never know how to face Chu Junmo in this lifetime.

However, when Chu Junmo looked over just now, there was greeting, open-mindedness, and understanding. The only thing he didn't do was blame and question her!

Thinking back carefully, her emotions gradually calmed down.

This man really had a special aura like a legitimate immortal. He could calm people down and make them feel especially comfortable.

She pursed her lips and smiled lightly.

Not long after Chu Junmo sat down.

Chu Shanshan was late.

The old man was slovenly dressed in an old shirt that had been washed until it was white. He was dressed casually as if he had just finished his exercise. Beads of sweat were still hanging on his forehead as he casually sat down on the podium.

This was probably what it meant to be arrogant.

Anyway, no one in the entire Empire Military Medical University could control him. Even the principal didn't dare to control him.

Of course, such a slovenly old man couldn't attract the attention of the female students. Only one or two male students who wanted to have him as a master had their eyes lit up.

But at this moment, no one's eyes were as wide as Gu Qiqi's!

The moment Gu Qiqi saw Feng Yangchu, she was stunned. Wasn't this the old man who she had met by the lake in the dense forest on the day of school?

This old man was actually the famous Head of Fengyang Chu from the pharmaceutical school?!

How magical.

While the other female students were staring intently at Chu Junmo, this classically handsome man, Gu Qiqi was staring at Feng Yangchu, an old man.

As she stared, she realized that Feng Yangchu was also looking at her.

Furthermore, he even threw her an especially unhappy look!

Gosh, why did she keep feeling that Feng Yangchu's gaze was filled with hostility? No, it didn't seem to be hostility either... Instead, there was love and hatred mixed together.

How did she offend this god?

Gu Qiqi was dumbfounded. She suddenly felt that perhaps this re-examination wasn't just because someone was behind it. Could it be related to this great god?

With the three examiners present, the exam officially began.

The principal revealed the first question.

The principal laughed and said, "About my question..."

Everyone listened carefully.

Who would have thought?

In the very next second, the principal said, "Why did you sign up for the pharmaceutical school? What are you thinking?"

Everyone was drunk...

What kind of question was this?!

Fengyang Chu glared fiercely at the principal and snorted coldly. "Don't think about using such a stupid question to give someone a chance!"

The principal's lips twitched. "This question has a lot of depth, okay?"

Chu Junmo nodded as well. "This concerns the ethical and professional ambitions of medicine. It's appropriate to be asked in the entrance exam."

Seeing that the two examiners agreed, Feng Yangchu snorted coldly and no longer objected.

Chu Junmo's explanation reminded him. He wanted to see how Gu Qiqi would answer!

Why was that kind of woman who relied on men studying medicine?!

Chapter 506: The Unusual Master Qi

The principal's first question amused everyone.

This was simply 0 difficulty.

Anyone could say a few words.

Thus, according to the order of the exam numbers, everyone couldn't wait to give the answer.

The people in the front row took advantage of their seat number and spoke beautifully. They simply said that they were young men with ambitions, morals, morals, and pursuits.

The people behind them were in trouble.

If they repeated what they had said, that would be too unlucky. It was hard if they wanted to innovate... Even if they cracked their brains, there were only a few lines.

For the sake of their motherland, their medical career, for the sake of their youth... Oh, what else was there for?

Han Bingyue was placed at the back. When it came to her, there were no new words.

However, as soon as she stood up, she said, "I entered the pharmaceutical school to prove that I can be the undisputed number one in the field of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine!"

Arrogant! Arrogant!

It was simply shocking.

The principal was a good person. He said good things to everyone who finished speaking. He was no exception to Han Bingyue. "Good, good. Young girl, you have drive! You have a big goal!"

Chu Junmo's gaze only stopped on Gu Qiqi. He wasn't interested in such a declaration and didn't comment.

Fengyang Chu frowned in disgust. "Medical expertise isn't bragging. My pharmaceutical school isn't a place for you to be a hero and stand out."

Han Bingyue sat down in embarrassment.

This d*mned old man! What a strange old man!

Hmph! Do you think I want to be your disciple? I'm here to slap your faces and take care of Gu Qiqi.

She looked at Gu Qiqi's back view with hatred and directed all her displeasure at Gu Qiqi.

Hmph! So what if she was criticized by Head Feng?

At least, it attracted attention.

Anyway, it would definitely be better than that country girl Gu Qiqi! By the time Gu Qiqi speaks, there were already no lines to use.

Indeed, after everyone was done speaking.

Gu Qiqi, who was number 40, was the last to speak.

The principal asked happily, "Qiqi, what are you thinking?"

From the looks of it, he was just short of answering for Gu Qiqi himself.

What a joke. This was a girl whom Master Jue had personally come to school to support. She left a deep impression on him. He wasn't stupid. Of course, he had to treat her well.

But clearly, Gu Qiqi wasn't prepared to appreciate it.

She nodded lightly and stood up to answer. "I applied for the pharmaceutical school to study the Medicine Manual."

Once her voice fell.

Fengyang Chu's expression changed.

"Bastard! Your motive isn't pure!" He didn't hide the displeasure in his heart.

The principal hurriedly laughed. "Oh my, how can her love to study be impure?"

Chu Junmo also saved the situation without batting an eyelid. "A student who knows that the Medicine Manual exists in the world can be considered to be well-read and well-versed in the subject."

"Hmph! You're already eyeing my pharmaceutical school's defining treasure before entering school. I won't accept such a person!" Feng Yangchu was still unhappy.

Usually, after every student answered, no matter how the teachers commented, they would nod honestly and admit their faults. "I was wrong. My answer is still lacking. Please give me time to correct my opinion."

Gu Qiqi didn't follow any of these three lines.

She retorted lightly, "I don't think that wanting to study the Medicine Manual is a greedy and evil thought. Honestly speaking, my motive for studying the Medicine Manual is to treat my younger brother's blind eyes. This is my greatest motivation. This is why I want to study the Medicine Manual. I don't think there's anything wrong with this."

Gu Qiqi's rebuttal was simply unpredictable!

Chapter 507: Gu Qiqi, You're Dead Meat!

Gu Qiqi actually dared to contradict the examiner in the examination room.

Furthermore, that examiner was Feng Yangchu who would decide her fate!

Below the stage, the examinees all shook their heads and thought to themselves that this country bumpkin was dead meat!

Fengyang Chu was famous for his bad temper. How could he tolerate this country bumpkin's nonsense?

Han Bingyue rolled her eyes and muttered, "Moron! You're courting death!"

Just as everyone was waiting for Feng Yangchu to give the order to drive Gu Qiqi out of the examination room...

Unexpectedly, Fengyang Chu pulled a long face and said in an unhappy tone, "Hmph, if you want to read the Medicine Manual, you need to have the ability to understand it! Do you think that any random Tom, Dick or Harry can come to my pharmaceutical school to treat illnesses?"

Everyone looked at each other.

What?

Why did they smell a trace of arrogance in this bad temper?

Why did Feng Yangchu's cold words towards Gu Qiqi sound more and more like saying, "If you have the talent, then use stronger abilities to come at me."

Even Chu Junmo—who was sitting upright next to Feng Yangchu—couldn't help but smile lightly. "I give you full marks for this answer."

The principal laughed loudly. "Oh my, I'm too satisfied with Classmate Qiqi's answer! Medical practitioners have benevolent hearts. The simplest principle of studying medicine is to treat illnesses and save people. Furthermore, he's her closest relative. There's nothing wrong with that! I'll give her full marks too!"

Fengyang Chu snorted coldly. "Barely pass."

The audience gasped again.

Why wasn't it zero! Zero!

The principal laughed wickedly. "Remove the highest score and the lowest score. Classmate Qiqi gets full marks!"

Everyone convulsed once more.

D*mn it. There was such a thing? That works too? Principal, do you dare to be more biased and brazen?

Gu Qiqi passed the first question with full marks. The other students also scored around 90 points. The difference wasn't big.

Soon, the second question began.

Chu Junmo posed the question.

Handsome people received different degrees of welcome when they posed questions.

Previously, when the principal was speaking, everyone's gazes were lazy. But at this moment, Chu Junmo hadn't opened his mouth yet. All of them stared intently at him as if they were afraid of missing a slight movement of his.

Chu Junmo adjusted his sky-blue long gown and said with his thin lips, "Please tell me the name of the Chinese medicine that you know."

Everyone was delighted and thought to themselves that CEO Chu was also handsome. This question was too gentle!

Fengyang Chu snorted coldly. "No standards!"

But in the next second...

Chu Junmo added without a change in expression, "Each person has to mention 50 in one minute. You're not allowed to repeat them. One point will be deducted if you repeat them."

"Roar!"

The examinees wailed.

It wasn't difficult to say a few Chinese medicine names.

The difficult thing was to say 50 in one minute! If that happened, they wouldn't even have time to think.

What was more difficult was that he actually didn't allow them to be repeated!

Who said that this question was lousy? This was an extremely high-level question, okay?

Indeed, big chairmen were all evil.

Fengyang Chu finally became more amiable and snorted. "Yes. Although it's not good, it's not bad."

It was difficult. The more difficult it was, the better! Otherwise, it wouldn't be difficult for that little fox.

Han Bingyue, who was sitting in the back row, also laughed coldly. That's great! Gu Qiqi was in 40th place. When it was Gu Qiqi's turn, all the Chinese medicine would have been said. Let's see how ugly she would look when she was speechless!

Gu Qiqi, you're dead meat this time!

Chapter 508: Gu Qiqi Shocked Everyone

The first classmate started to say, "Ginseng, deer antler, angelica root, gelatin..."

She only managed to say ten types of Chinese medicine after one minute.

After that, everyone became more and more nervous as they spoke. They accidentally repeated the same medicine as the students in front.

Most of the examinees could only say about ten before they racked their brains and couldn't continue anymore.

When it was Han Bingyue's turn, she stood up confidently and opened her mouth. "Chinese yam, hawthorn, dates, tea, papaya, fungus, pigeon pea, costus..."

What a joke. She had memorized the Chinese medicine catalogs before.

Wasn't listing 50 types of Chinese medicine herbs easily done?

When she finished speaking in one breath, the entire venue fell silent for a second and couldn't help but applaud.

Awesome!

A top student was a top student!

Why didn't they know that hawthorn, papaya, and fungus were Chinese medicine?

Oh my, Han Bingyue could be considered to have shown her face in front of the great CEO Chu this time. The CEO must have seen her in a different light, right?

But Chu Junmo only commented indifferently in a cold voice without a trace of emotion. "You've repeated two. Chinese yam and costus. Two points deducted."

Although it was a little regretful that she scored 98 marks, it was already a crushing score compared to the other examinees' scores of more than ten or thirty-four points, okay?

Everyone felt that there was no need to take the last question anymore.

Han Bingyue had already said the most common Chinese medicine names that everyone were familiar with but had never said before.

The people behind could only collect the duck eggs pitifully.

Indeed, more than ten subsequent students scored zero.

They opened their mouths but couldn't say anything. They admitted defeat obediently.

Finally, it was the last examinee's turn, Gu Qiqi.

Everyone looked at her with slight ridicule and thought to themselves that the question from the principal just now could still be taken advantage of because of a loophole. Now, this question of the great CEO Chu tested real talent. If she didn't know any, then she didn't know any. No matter how much sweet-talking and emotional tricks she had, they were useless!

Especially when compared to Han Bingyue, this top student, what else could this country bumpkin say?

Everyone looked at her as if she was a joke.

Gu Qiqi got up slowly.

She looked a little embarrassed.

Everyone sniggered even more secretly... They were just short of mocking Gu Qiqi to get off the stage.

"One minute, the countdown begins!" The teacher in charge of the timer announced.

Gu Qiqi didn't start to race against time to announce the name of the Chinese medicine like the other students. Instead, she used her fair and slender fingers to tap her chin. She looked like she was in a difficult position. "Oh, should I say something simple and easy to understand, or... Forget it. Let's do something special!"

Everyone was speechless. Why is she continuing to pretend? She can't even say a word, right?

Gu Qiqi paused for a few seconds. Slowly, she seemed to have finally made up her mind.

Only then did she speak slowly. "Qing Dai, Jing Mo, Poison Hemlock, Cucurbitacins, Crystalline Mirabilite, Orange day-lily, Morning glory, Black Nightshade, Chinese buckthorn..."

She spoke at a moderate speed.

Those elegant and pleasant names drifted out with her clear and sweet voice like pearls falling onto a jade plate. Although her voice wasn't especially high, it was inexplicably shocking!

It was too beautiful.

It was too good.

How could there be such beautiful Chinese medicine names in this world? They were beautiful beyond words!

None of them knew!

Only half a minute had passed since Gu Qiqi finished speaking the 50 Chinese medicine names. But she didn't stop. She continued speaking smoothly!

50...

60...

100...!!!

The looks of disdain and ridicule from the examinees froze on their faces in embarrassment.

Gu Qiqi was so awesome!

Gu Qiqi was so terrifying!

Chapter 509: The Girl He Had His Eyes On Was Too Awesome

No one expected that the country nerd they thought was actually such a knowledgeable girl.

If they had suspected that Gu Qiqi had stolen the exam content in advance after the rumors of Gu Xuexue spreading rumors in the previous exam, then it was impossible for her to sneak into the mind of the great CEO Chu to steal the questions this time when the questions were set live, right?

Furthermore, even if she stole the questions, memorizing so many obscure Chinese medicine names and saying them on the spot was definitely a kind of ability, okay?

Gradually, everyone's gazes changed subtly.

Those who had started a commotion with Han Bingyue and looked down on Gu Qiqi gradually shut their mouths and admired her.

What a joke. If Han Bingyue was a top student, then Gu Qiqi was definitely a fighter among top students. She was the big sister among top students.

Han Bingyue had only said 50 special and common medicine names just now. She even said two wrong ones.

Gu Qiqi said a total of 100... unique names.

Every name was so beautiful!

How charming!

Compared to Han Bingyue's names, they were simply worlds apart.

On the podium.

The smile on Chu Junmo's lips deepened.

Indeed, the girl that he had his eyes on would never disappoint.

She was clearly so calm and low-key in her actions, but she was also so domineering and shocking.

Needless to say, the principal was grinning from ear to ear.

Our Classmate Qiqi is really hardworking. She had such a dazzling performance. He had to quickly instruct his secretary to record it and send it to the great Master Jue to take a look.

He had to bootlick Master Jue!

Although Fengyang Chu was sitting there quietly, he still had the unpleasant look of someone owing him eight million dollars.

However, his slightly bent shoulders and taut back still revealed his emotions. He was carefully listening to every medicine name Gu Qiqi said.

Every time he heard one, he didn't realize that he was nodding imperceptibly and raising his lips.

There weren't many children in this impetuous society who could understand the most basic knowledge now! How many students in this so-called Medical University would diligently and honestly memorize the names of Chinese medicine first? They might not even be bothered to check!

Seeing that everyone in the coaches' seats was satisfied with Gu Qiqi, Han Bingyue was filled with dissatisfaction!

She stood up and nitpicked. "Gu Qiqi, you always say Chinese medicine with two syllable names in Chinese. What kind of ability is that? Do you know that there are those with three syllable names in Chinese medicine?!"

She guessed that Gu Qiqi must have only memorized two words to pretend at the last minute.

Gu Qiqi didn't even turn around as she said lightly, "Helwingia japonica, Polypodiales, Follicular membrane of a hen's egg... What an impatient person!"

"Wow, it's so nice..." Everyone sighed.

They had never heard of such noble and oppressive medicine names in their lives! Their ears became intoxicated from listening.

Wait a minute. What the hell was an impatient person? Was there really a Chinese medicine called an impatient person? Qiqi, you're being naughty, right?

"What impatient person?! I think you're talking nonsense!" Han Bingyue also seized this loophole and refused to let go.

The old principal was anxious.

Why were there blind people bullying Classmate Qiqi again and picking on her everywhere? If this was recorded and the Bureau Chief saw it, wouldn't he wipe out their Empire Medical University?

How was he going to be a principal until he retired?

He was about to stand up and scold that insensible b*stard Han Bingyue.

Suddenly, Chu Junmo stretched out his long and slender hand and stopped him.

Chapter 510: Her Beautiful Counterattack!

Chu Junmo's cold gaze landed on her deeply. He gave the principal a meaningful look. Don't move. She will retaliate beautifully!

The principal scratched his head and refused to believe it.

What was this "shameful plant"? Was she sure that it was medicine? If even he didn't know, Gu Qiqi must have said something wrong and been caught red-handed, right?

But looking at Chu Junmo's confident expression, he wasn't too sure.

Who was Chu Junmo? He was the successor to the largest pharmacy in the history of the Empire. He had been immersed in Chinese medicine since he was young.

There was no medicine in this world that Chu Junmo didn't recognize.

Seeing that Chu Junmo was so confident in this girl and Feng Yangchu's focused gaze on Gu Qiqi... He would believe her for now.

Gu Qiqi sat calmly and replied to Han Bingyue's provocation lightly. "Oh, everyone should understand now why I didn't say the name of the medicine."

Everyone was curious. Why? We don't understand!

Gu Qiqi said, "Because even if I say it, someone won't understand it and won't recognize it."

Everyone was heartbroken!

Han Bingyue gnashed her teeth. "What's there to not understand? Do you think that only you understand?"

"Coincidentally, I know a little more than you." Gu Qiqi laughed sarcastically. "The shameful plant is another name for the rose balsam. It strengthens the spleen and liver meridians, and breaks the accumulation of bad blood. It's most effective for the illness of having a bone fishbone stuck in the throat. Next time, if your tongue hurts when you speak and you have fishbone stuck in your throat, remember to use this medicine to treat it."

It was actually the seed of the rose balsam!

This time, everyone was really shocked.

Han Bingyue's expression was as ugly as the ashes at the bottom of a pot. She felt as if she had slapped her own mouth.

But this wasn't the end.

How could Gu Qiqi let her off so easily?

Gu Qiqi said lightly, "The shameful plant is a little unconventional. It's fine if you don't know. But if you don't know some simple things, that would be too embarrassing..."

"Who said that I don't know! If you have the ability, you can recite the medicine with three syllabuses!" Han Bingyue couldn't hold it anymore and choked.

She boasted that she had memorized the medicine list and didn't believe that she would lose to Gu Qiqi.

It was all that plant's name for being so ambiguous. If it was another name, she would definitely recognize it at a glance.

A trace of mischief flashed across Gu Qiqi's eyes. "Oh. Then, you must know what medicine Beautiful Millettia Root and Rumex Patientia are, right?"

Beautiful Millettia Root?!

Rumex Patientia?!

Everyone was stunned.

Classmate Qiqi, are you sure that you're talking about medicine? Aren't you human?!

Han Bingyue's face immediately darkened!

What the hell was this? Why wasn't it in the book?! No!

On the podium, Feng Yangchu's eyes lit up and burned with interest.

This little fox was really too smart and cunning! Even the way she teased and mocked her opponent was quite similar to when he was young...

His mind immediately traveled back to decades ago when he was young and vigorous. He was also so righteous and secretly rubbed his feet on the floor. He used a remote medicine name to cheat his senior brother...

What a pity!

If this girl wasn't kept by a man and wasn't so self-loveless, he really wanted to summon her under his command immediately!

Fengyang Chu was in a dilemma.

On the other hand, Han Bingyue was still holding on stubbornly. "The two country bumpkins' names are obviously fabricated. Who are you kidding?"

Everyone agreed. That's right, that's right. Qiqi, you're too humorous. Even your lying is so interesting.

Chu Junmo was annoyed. Stupid examinees, I want to ask you if it hurts to slap your faces later?

The Old principal felt that he had attended a public class by Professor Qiqi today! Damn it, I'm not here to set questions to test people. I'm here to study new knowledge... So, what exactly is it? Qiqi, tell me quickly. I can't wait anymore.

Gu Qiqi curved her lips slightly and said—
