

Dear Chief 541

Chapter 541: Expert in Peerless Beauty Jade

Was such an expensive Hetian jade actually poisonous?

But it was impossible to tell from the outside!!!

Everyone was shocked and looked at Gu Qiqi anxiously, hoping that she could elaborate.

Bai Yingzhu, who was chatting passionately with the diplomat's wife, ran over when she heard this. She frowned.

"What poison? Gu Qiqi, don't talk nonsense! Our jade jewelry has all been tested by professional organizations. The appraisal certificate is written in black and white. Not only does it guarantee that it's real Hetian, but it's also completely safe and non-toxic. Gu Qiqi, you're slandering our business reputation. We're going to take you to court! I'll look for my lawyer. Just wait for the lawyer's letter! Hmph!"

Bai Yingzhu was righteous. She took out an appraisal certificate from the designer Yang Xiaoqing and showed it to everyone.

Indeed, that appraisal certificate was written clearly.

The rich ladies who had seen it were relieved.

"Since there's no poison, then quickly settle the bill for me. I'm definitely going to take this Golden Hairpin!"

"Give me my order for my bracelet first!"

"And my ring..."

The scene became lively again.

Gu Qiqi's faint statement immediately lowered the temperature to the freezing point just after it was recovered with great difficulty!

She took that appraisal certificate and said neither fast nor slow, "Did you take a closer look at where the Hetian jade's place of manufacture is?"

"Isn't Hetian jade made from Hetian? Is there a need to look?" A noblewoman snorted. But when she looked at the appraisal certificate, she shut up.

The certificate actually didn't say "Hetian".

It was the northern mountain range!

Hetian Jade from the northern mountain range? This was weird!

It was also because the line of words describing the production area was too small. It wasn't even font size 5. Ordinary people wouldn't notice it at all.

Bai Yingzhu glared fiercely at Yang Xiaoqing. What happened? Where was the Hetian Jade from? How did you get it in? You spent so much money and even got the production location wrong?

Yang Xiaoqing had something on his mind and didn't dare to say it out loud.

She couldn't help but criticize him.

The jade stones produced by Hetian were too expensive and the output was small. With the small amount of funds that Qing Yuxuan gave him, he couldn't even buy a finger's worth of untrimmed quarry stones.

He could only play tricks and import a batch of goods from the northern mountain range. Apart from the price, he earned hundreds of thousands of dollars as the excess money entered his own pocket.

Of course, he definitely didn't dare to say these complicated things.

He coughed lightly and replied in a righteous manner with the attitude of a professional. "This Young Lady Qiqi might really not know about jade. The so-called Hetian Jade isn't only produced by Hetian. It's also found in the northern mountain range. Furthermore, because it's covered in ice and snow all year round, the Hetian Jade in the northern mountain range is even more exquisite, white, and transparent. Everyone can see how perfect the quality of this series of jewelry today is. There isn't even a speck of residue or a dark patch. It's completely peerlessly beautiful jade that's like mutton fat. Honestly speaking, the Hetian Jade in the northern mountain range is just underrated. It's countless times more valuable than the Hetian Jade produced by Hetian. Only real jade experts understand! Congratulations, noble guests. From today onwards, you will also become experts who possess such peerlessly beautiful jade!"

Yang Xiaoqing had already been heavily promoted by Bai Yingzhu and Gu Yuanyuan as the latest and most professional jade sculptor.

At this moment, the words of such a professional naturally carried more weight than Gu Qiqi's words!

He secretly glared at Gu Qiqi. Hmph! Where did this fake rich daughter come from? She actually dared to fight with him?

Did he know that he could even scheme against the Yang family?

Would he be afraid of a young lady?

Chapter 542: A Time Bomb

Gu Qiqi looked at Yang Xiaoqing coldly.

Honestly speaking, Yang Xiaoqing was quite good-looking. He had the look of a young man that was most popular nowadays. He was a little feminine and had the aura of an artistic youth. Otherwise, he wouldn't have made Iron Fist Yang lose his vigilance and think that he really loved this profession and was someone he could entrust his business to.

Not only did his good appearance fool Iron Fist Yang, but it also made these old noblewomen believe in his professional ability and easily develop a desire to protect him.

Indeed, as soon as Yang Xiaoqing finished speaking, someone chimed in.

In particular, Mu Liuchuan's mother—that Mrs. Mu who loved to stand out the most—was simply Yang Xiaoqing's die-hard fan. She was the first to applaud and cheer. "Xiaoqing is indeed the most powerful jade sculptor in our Empire. I support you! I like to wear the jade that you designed. The last time, I spent 500,000 dollars to buy a tourmaline necklace. Now, someone on the market wants to buy my second-hand one million dollars! It's much faster returns than the property price rising. To be honest, it's faster returns than the earnings of my husband's company. Others have eyes but can't see. Then, they deserve to miss this peerless treasure! Hey, hey, Mrs. Liu, Mrs. Wang. If you don't want your golden hairpin and jade bracelets, then give them all to me! I want them!"

With Mrs. Mu's encouragement, the other madams hurriedly gripped the treasures in their hands tightly.

What a joke! This was a limited edition!

It didn't matter if it was made in Hetian or the northern mountain range, as long as it was authentic Hetian jade.

More importantly, as long as it was personally designed by Yang Xiaoqing, it would be valuable.

Just as Mrs. Mu said, Yang Xiaoqing was the most popular jade sculptor in the Empire. Not only were his designs beautiful jewelry, but they were also the most profitable investment.

In the future, when they are sold, their value would increase by several times...

Everyone became excited again and they continued to snatch the jewelry.

Gu Qiqi's indifferent words once again poured cold water on everyone's hearts!

"That's right. Not only is this peerless treasure profitable, but it's also fatal. If you want to live a short life, buy earlier and buy more. Everyone can do as you please."

Gu Qiqi said it so confidently that everyone hesitated again!

Bai Yingzhu and Gu Xuexue were already so angry that they were about to explode on the spot. They shouted for the security officers. "Hurry up and drag this crazy woman out!"

At this point, they no longer wanted to let Gu Qiqi stay and envy their upper-class lifestyle.

They realized that Gu Qiqi was simply a time bomb.

They weren't the ones annoying Gu Qiqi. Instead, Gu Qiqi was condemning them.

But Gu Qiqi's sharp gaze swept across the room and immediately made the few security guards who had gathered around stop in their tracks. No one dared to go forward and cause trouble.

Gu Qiqi said lightly, “Why? Are you afraid that I’ll expose your fake Hetian jade that is poisonous? Actually, I don’t have to say anything at all. As long as everyone checks the big news from last year about the manufacturing line in the northern mountain range, everything will be clear, right?”

What big news was there in the northern mountain range last year?

The rich madams looked at each other.

They weren’t too concerned about the current news.

The rich madams didn’t know, but the reporters who were surrounding her to take photos and interview her immediately understood. Immediately, their expressions changed and they retreated a few steps at the same time. They instinctively distanced themselves from the Hetian jade jewelry.

Logically speaking, they shouldn’t have ruined Qing Yuxuan’s show since they were invited over. But when they thought of the Hetian jade’s terrifying background, their natural instinct as reporters to expose the truth and their trained professional ethics took hold of them. They couldn’t remain silent anymore.

“Miss Xue Xue, Miss Yingzhu, we have to solemnly tell the public about the origins of this Hetian Jade—”

Chapter 543: One of the Most Scary Toxins in the World

Gu Xuexue and Bai Yingzhu immediately became nervous!

If it was just some rumors spread by Gu Qiqi, there was nothing to be afraid of. At most, they would let the security guards beat them up and say that it was a country girl’s nonsense.

But the reporters actually interfered!

That would be troublesome.

The two of them were like ants on a hot pan. For a moment, they didn’t know how to stop the reporters’ sharp mouths.

Unfortunately, Bai Yeyuan and Bai Lang—the two gods who held the fort—weren’t around!

At this moment, Gu Xuexue and Bai Yingzhu deeply realized that doing business wasn’t that easy. They were still inexperienced!

Faced with doubts from all directions, it was impossible to stop those words without some ability.

That reporter continued in one breath without hesitation. “If this piece of Hetian jade was produced from the Hetian Ridge, it would be fine. But it can’t be produced from the northern mountain range! Last winter, the Empire Investigation Team discovered a buried radioactive material in the northern mountain range that nearly covered half of the northern mountain range. Thus, the food and water supply in the northern mountain range were severely damaged. Now, everyone in the northern mountain range has to rely on external food supplies. Do you know why? It’s because those radioactive substances will cause permanent radiation sequelae in the body. The cancer-causing rate, deformity, and death rates are very high! Since this Hetian jade is produced from the northern mountain range, then there's a high chance that it contains radioactive substances! Thus, I think that Young Lady Qiqi is right. If you want to live a short life, you have to wear more."

When the rich madams heard this, their faces immediately turned pale!

It turned out that what Gu Qiqi said was true. This Hetian jade was really poisonous.

The jade even had the most terrifying radioactive toxin!

All of them couldn't wait to throw the jewelry in their hands out immediately as if they had been burnt.

It was all their fault for not caring about current news at all. The northern mountain range was so far away. Who would worry about that kind of poor and remote place?

No! Qing Yuxuan should be blamed. Why did they sell toxic jewelry?

They were all implicated!

All of them looked angry.

Gu Xuexue was still trying to salvage the situation. "Esteemed guests, don't panic first. Although there are radioactive substances in the northern mountain range, the reporters said just now that it's not 100%. Perhaps our Hetian Jade originated from another small half of the land without any pollution."

Bai Yingzhu even grabbed the appraisal certificate and swore. "That's right. We're doing an authoritative body examination here. If there's poison, the appraisal certificate will definitely label it. Since it's not written, then it's safe! Everyone, please believe in our Qing Yuxuan's quality. Don't let someone with ulterior motives cause trouble and besmirch our Qing Yuxuan!"

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows coldly and didn't give Gu Xuexue and Bai Yingzhu a chance to turn the tables at all. "That appraisal certificate only detects heavy metal toxins and not radioactive substances. Of course, it looks beautiful and harmless. Just because it's not marked doesn't mean that it doesn't exist!"

Bai Ying was so anxious that her face flushed red.

Gu Xuexue was speechless.

Amidst the awkward silence, Mrs. Mu, the die-hard fan, spoke.

She didn't believe that there was a problem with Qing Yuxuan's quality even if she was beaten to death. After all, her family had stored a lot of goods that were worth millions.

If Qing Yuxuan became worthless, wouldn't her jewelry be wasted? Let alone selling them to earn money, no one would dare to want it even if she gave it away for free.

Thus, she spared no effort in protecting Qing Yuxuan. "You can't say that. Although it doesn't mean that there's no radioactive material without a proper label, it doesn't mean that there is either. No matter what you say, it has to be measured. Gu Qiqi, it's useless no matter what you say here! Everyone, don't believe her!"

"Sure. Let's do a live test then.." Gu Qiqi was direct.

Chapter 544: Slapping Her Faces On The Spot Was Awesome!

Mrs. Mu was stunned. Her lips parted, but she couldn't say a word.

She spoke for a long time and was certain that Gu Qiqi was speechless. After all, detecting radioactive substances wasn't just talk. Only very professional organizations could do it.

Live examination?

Why did this girl say it so easily?

She was so angry that she was stunned for a long time before she managed to react. "What ability do you have to test it on the spot?"

Gu Xuexue even went along with it. "Gu Qiqi, you're dreaming! Who do you think you are? A judge?"

Bai Yingzhu continued to shout in a frenzy, "Security! Security, are you all dead? Hurry up and throw this country bumpkin out!"

The capable security guards had all been taken away by Bai Lang to find the boy. The remaining cowards looked at Gu Qiqi with fear in their eyes. How could they dare to touch Gu Qiqi?

No matter how crazy Bai Ying was, she pretended not to understand and only stood far away.

Gu Qiqi stood calmly in the hall. Her fingertip pointed at the jewelry that the noblewomen were holding. "It's not difficult to detect. There's no need for a professional organization. Our bodies are the most sensitive natural detection machines."

"What do you mean?" Mrs. Mu asked sharply.

"It's very simple. Put on the jewelry that you like and stay in a place with a higher temperature for a minute. You'll be able to clearly feel it. There's no need for me to say another word."

"Why do you have to go to a place with a high temperature?"

"The skin isn't that sensitive in low temperatures."

"Okay, I'll try!" Madam Wang was the first to wear the bracelet that she had her eyes on.

Her wrist was too thick to wear it.

Mrs. Liu hurriedly snatched it over and said, "I'll try it for you!"

Mrs. Liu's slender wrist was wrapped around that warm and bright jade bracelet.

Beautiful! This jade was really beautiful!

In addition, Yang Xiaoqing plagiarized the designs of Iron Fist Yang, making the already beautiful jade even more beautiful.

Mrs. Liu couldn't bear to put it down after putting it on.

Someone brought a table lamp and shone the heat of the lightbulb on Mrs. Liu's hand.

One second...

Two seconds...

Ten seconds...

Time ticked by.

The warm light made Tian Yu look even more beautiful.

Even Mrs. Liu's wrist appeared slender and fair under the glow of the beautiful jade.

She liked it very much. "If you're afraid of death, sell this to me. I'm not afraid of death... Besides, there's nothing uncomfortable about this. Even if there's some radioactive material, it can be ignored. I think..."

When the needle pointed at an entire minute.

Suddenly, Mrs. Liu's wrist shrank.

"Hiss..."

She couldn't help but cry out in pain.

Everyone looked at her nervously. "What's wrong? Do you feel anything?"

Just as Mrs. Liu was about to say something, her wrist suddenly trembled. "Ah!" She couldn't be bothered to answer everyone's words at all. She desperately used her other hand to remove the jade bracelet on her wrist.

She hated it as much as she loved it just now!

That jade bracelet that she had sworn to snatch from Madam Wang was thrown away by her and shattered into two halves on the ground.

Gu Xuexue snatched it up with heartache and said in embarrassment, "Mrs. Liu, the price of this jade bracelet is 888,000... Look..."

"You still have the cheek to mention money to me? Gu Xuexue, is this your Qing Yuxuan jewelry?"

Mrs. Liu took a deep breath and screamed. "I haven't gotten you to compensate me for my medical fees and mental damages! If anything happens to my wrist from the radiation from this lousy bracelet, I'm not done with you! You evil businessmen!"

After speaking, Mrs. Liu slapped Gu Xuexue ruthlessly.

Chapter 545: Pain in the Ears Was The Strongest

Everyone was shocked!

They all looked at Mrs. Liu's wrist.

A minute ago, Mrs. Liu's slender and fair wrist was actually covered in rashes. They were swollen and gave people goosebumps.

Her skin was so smooth and red. It must be itchy and painful, right?

Everyone's heart ached. They empathize with her and thought of how this rash could have also appeared on their bodies. If Mrs. Liu hadn't tried the bracelet herself, they might be the ones who had been exposed to the radiation at this moment.

Everyone surrounded Mrs. Liu to comfort her and criticized Gu Xuexue. No one felt sorry for the swollen slap mark on Gu Xuexue's face.

Gu Xuexue felt extremely aggrieved. "Mrs. Liu, this... This is definitely a misunderstanding. Can I get a doctor to take a look at you now?"

"Why are you looking for a doctor? Could it be that you think that I'm blackmailing you? Fortunately, everyone saw with their own eyes just now that something happened to my wrist because I was wearing your bracelet! You can't escape the blame!"

The other rich madams chimed in. "It seems that there's something wrong with Qing Yuxuan's batch of goods... Perhaps there's something wrong with the previous ones too... Oh my, I want to refund the jewelry I bought in the past!"

"Yes, refund! Refund!"

Everyone responded.

Gu Xuexue was anxious. She couldn't be bothered about the pain on her face anymore and hurriedly looked to Qing Yuxuan's loyal fan, Mrs. Mu. "Mrs. Mu, help us prove it! Don't you like these earrings? Why don't you try them on? If there's nothing wrong, I... I'll buy them for you!"

Mrs. Mu was also greedy.

Upon hearing that she could pick up a pair of earrings for nothing...

She immediately beamed. "Okay, okay, I'll try it!"

As that pair of jade earrings was heavier, they were made into the shape of an ear clip. A big and thin droplet-shaped piece of Hetian Jade covered her earlobe. It especially suited her face and especially made her face look skinny and small.

She had to admit that the design of this earring was really exquisite. It was especially suitable for middle-aged rich women.

Unfortunately, this wasn't an original work. Yang Xiaoqing had plagiarized it from Iron Fist Yang!

Mrs. Mu wore it happily and said arrogantly to Gu Qiqi, "How is it? I was fine after coming into contact with such a big piece of Hetian Jade. This proves that Qing Yuxuan's jade is very good! Some people might have weak constitutions and are prone to allergies due to illnesses. That's why they have such a reaction, right?"

Mrs. Mu's indirect scolding made Mrs. Liu furious.

Sadly, it wasn't appropriate to quarrel with her face-to-face due to her status.

Just as she was fuming, Gu Qiqi took a step forward and smiled. "You forgot to increase the temperature, Mrs. Mu. It's not too late to come to a conclusion after you increase the temperature for a minute."

Mrs. Liu was energetic again. She immediately stuffed the table lamp into Mrs. Mu's hand. "Don't be too confident in your skin! If you have the ability, try it yourself."

Mrs. Mu snorted twice. She grabbed a table lamp and shone it on her ears. Her tone was very smug. "I'll do it. Hmph!"

One second...

Two seconds...

Ten seconds...

This time, 30 seconds hadn't passed.

Mrs. Mu was like a male duck whose neck had been cut. She screamed and pulled off her earring.

As she had pulled too quickly, her earlobe had even been cut and was dripping with blood.

"Ow, ow, ow, ow!"

She cried out non-stop. Her eyes turned red and immediately became bloodshot.

Gu Qiqi looked over coldly and thought to herself, "The nerve pain in your ear is more sensitive. It would be strange if it didn't hurt to death!"

Chapter 546: Refund Everything! Pay the Price!

Seeing how miserable Mrs. Mu was screaming, everyone was half curious and half gloating. Indeed, Mrs. Mu's ears were even more serious than Mrs. Liu's wrist.

Not only were there red rashes, but even her ear holes had signs of deformity...

This... The consequences were too serious!

Wearing such jewelry in less than half a minute in high temperature was like skin being corroded by chemicals. Who would dare to wear it in the future?

The reporters were even more amazed as they surrounded Mrs. Mu to interview her.

"Mrs. Mu, how exactly do you feel now? Did your ears become like this because you wore earrings?"

"Mrs. Mu, as Qing Yuxuan's last supporter, you still insist that Qing Yuxuan's jewelry is especially good and valuable. Do you want to continue buying his collection?"

"Mrs. Mu, do you agree with Young Lady Qiqi's conclusion? Do you think that this jewelry is poisonous?"

This time, even Mrs. Mu's arrogance was completely extinguished. She no longer dared to say that the jade was fine to the reporters, much less argue with Gu Qiqi.

On the contrary, she threw the earrings on the table fiercely and gnashed her teeth at Gu Xuexue. "I want a refund too!"

The last customer stood completely opposite Qing Yuxuan.

This gala was about to become an unavoidable disaster.

Yang Xiaoqing struggled desperately and shouted loudly, "Sisters, madams, this experiment can't be trusted! Someone must have done something to the jade! As a jade sculptor, I've personally carved so much Hetian jade jewelry, but I've never seen my skin ulcerate and I've never gotten cancer! Everyone, you can come with me to the hospital to check my body and see if I'm healthy! I beg you not to believe Gu Qiqi, that country bumpkin! Even more so, don't believe that those so-called reporters were bribed by that country bumpkin! They're all lying! They're defaming our Qingyu Xuan!"

Yang Xiaoqing was so agitated and angry.

However, everyone was indifferent.

Everyone had eyes and believed the truth that they had seen with their own eyes.

Mrs. Liu even walked forward and patted Yang Xiaoqing's shoulder. She sighed and said, "Young man, I advise you to change your mind early. You don't have cancer from festering skin now, but that doesn't mean that the poison from the radiation hasn't invaded your body. There's still a long time ahead..."

Yang Xiaoqing shivered and didn't know how to reply to this "concern."

The diplomat's wife said coldly and ruthlessly, "That might not be the case. Designer Yang, the reason why you swore that you were fine might be that the truth of the matter is that these jewelry weren't made by you at all!"

What?

The so-called handmade and original jade jewelry was expensive because of the unique design. They were personally carved by a jade sculptor and not cut and made by mechanical assembly lines.

But now, she was telling them that this wasn't made by the so-called jade sculptor at all!

Wasn't this commercial fraud?

Madam diplomat's words immediately eradicated everyone's last reservations.

Everyone was indignant and requested Qing Yuxuan to refund the goods! Compensation! They even wanted to sue this shop in court.

Bai Yingzhu and Gu Xuexue tried their best to defend themselves from everyone's questioning. In the end, they could only escape to the second floor in a sorry state under the protection of the security guards.

As for Yang Xiaoqing, he had nowhere to retreat to. He was forced to the corner of the wall by the noblewomen to be questioned. That fresh-faced young man's face was nearly wrinkled into a sausage at this moment!

Gu Qiqi stood slightly outside the crowd.

She looked at this outcome in satisfaction.

What she wanted to ruin was never just this cocktail party. She wanted the entire Qingyu Xuan to pay the price! She wanted Yang Xiaoqing's reputation to be ruined! She wanted Gu Enlong and his daughter behind the scenes to atone for their dirty deeds!

Chapter 547: Master, Could You Be More Scheming?

Yang Xiaoqing, the famous and popular new jade sculptor, was forced into a corner by the noblewomen and scolded badly.

There were also people who didn't relieve their hatred and directly used sharp high heels to poke him a few times.

Their hearts were shattered from being deceived and tricked.

As for the beautiful jade jewelry in the exhibition hall, they were thrown to the ground and shattered.

"This kind of poisonous thing should become trash! Trash! When I think about how I nearly wore it on my neck, wrist, and earlobe all day and night, and even to sleep with me, my heart aches! I regret it!" Madam Wang shouted frantically.

"I'll put an order in the circle that no one is allowed to visit Qing Yuxuan in the future!" Mrs. Liu gnashed her teeth. Her wrist still hurt faintly.

"When we get home later, I'll talk to my husband and ask him to find someone to check the background of this shop. He actually dared to sell poison to us? Does Gu Enlong not want to live anymore?" The diplomat's wife said coldly.

Another person sighed. "Why would the Bai family cooperate with such a person? I have to ask Second Young Master Bai properly. Is he blind? Even the jewelry shop that the Bai family cooperated with cheated customers. I really don't know where to buy jewelry to feel at ease! Tsk!"

As for why they didn't want to ask Young Master Bai... Forget it. It was better to come into contact with that kind of cold man less.

Everyone was hitting and smashing things, leaving behind nothing but a mess. Seeing that everyone had vented their anger enough, Gu Qiqi walked out leisurely and said unhurriedly, "Actually, there are quite a few shops with a conscience. It's just that they're more low-key and don't do shows, so they're unknown. But at least, they aren't as anxious for quick results as the current Qing Yuxuan. They earn money from dishonesty at the cost of harming the health of their customers..."

The reporters saw that Gu Qiqi had endured so much pressure just now. Under the circumstances where everyone didn't trust her, she actually bravely insisted on suggesting a live test. The test method was also so simple and effective. They all had a good impression of her.

A reporter couldn't help but step forward and ask her, "Young Lady Qiqi, can you introduce us to a shop with a conscience that you mentioned?"

Gu Qiqi deliberately kept him in suspense. After a moment of silence, she said, “Uh... Isn’t it bad to advertise another store here...”

The little dirty turtle couldn’t help but laugh secretly. Master, Master, you ruined the place and pretended to be kind. Isn’t that not good? Hahaha...

Upon hearing that there was a jade jewelry shop with a conscience, Mrs. Liu, who had been scammed by the poisonous jewelry just now, was the first to support her. “What’s wrong? Young Lady Qiqi, don’t hide anything good! I believe in your explanation just because you helped us see the truth just now !”

Madam Wang and the Madam Diplomat also nodded. “Young Lady Qiqi, you don’t have to have any worries. So what if it’s an advertisement? Which law states that we’re not allowed to advertise? Their Qingyu Xuan sells trash, so why can’t we buy real goods?”

The reporters supported her even more. “Come, come, come. Let’s do an advertisement for free! After all, even if there’s a piece of negative news, it has to be positive news to balance it out!”

Under everyone’s unanimous urging, Gu Qiqi’s beautiful eyes flickered. Her slender and fair hand pointed outside. “Then, follow me. I’ll introduce you to that new shop that I’ve tried before.”

As she walked, she even sighed “regretfully”. “Sigh, I initially didn’t want this low-key shop to be known by too many people because they would snatch my new products. How troublesome...”

Everyone was successfully amused by Gu Qiqi!

The little dirty turtle rolled around in laughter. Master, could you be more scheming?

Chapter 548: He Was Different Tonight

Following Gu Qiqi’s footsteps, they walked all the way from the Medical Hall to the Chu clan’s flagship store. The noblewomen were shocked!

“Young Lady Qiqi, we want to see a jade jewelry shop...”

“Young Lady Qiqi, we don’t want to buy medicine today...”

“Young Lady Qiqi, I... Ah! Lan Ting? The name sounds good. What’s this bracelet made of? It’s pale gold and so beautiful!”

Once they entered the Chu clan’s entrance, everyone was attracted to the simple and imposing jewelry exhibition booth that was set up by Lan Ting.

Although the style was very simple, it was exquisite and they had never seen it before.

The noblewomen became curious and couldn’t be bothered to ask anymore. They picked it up to admire.

The Chu clan staff were all dumbfounded.

A few minutes ago, they were still mocking and ridiculing Yang Xiaolan. They said that the Lan Ting that she was guarding was a trash brand and that her lousy business had implicated their Chu clan.

But now...

These grand groups of noblewomen usually made them happy for half a day when one or two of them came. They couldn't wait to kneel and curry favor with them.

At this moment, so many people actually came!

Furthermore, there was a big group of reporters. As a pharmacy without any gossip news, they usually couldn't invite them.

This inconspicuous Lan Ting was going to become famous.

The staff from the Chu clan couldn't wait to swallow their words. They were extremely regretful that they had eyes but couldn't recognize what was valuable just now and said so many bad things about Yang Xiaolan and Lan Ting.

Yang Xiaolan, who was standing in front of the Lan Ting counter, couldn't hide the excitement in her eyes.

Qiqi did it! Qiqi really did it!

The quiet Lan Ting became filled with guests in an instant!

She knew that Qiqi would definitely be able to.

She looked at Qiqi and her face flushed red. She hurriedly greeted the guest.

Mrs. Liu played with a light golden jade bracelet and asked Gu Qiqi, "I've never seen such jade before. What type of jade is this?"

Gu Qiqi said slowly, "This is quartzose jade. The production is very small and it's only produced in the Loulan Kingdom."

"Gosh, the Loulan Kingdom! No wonder!" Mrs. Liu exclaimed. "That's the Demon City in the Loulan Kingdom, right? Many people can't return from there. They actually managed to bring back jade and untrimmed quarry stones from there. It's simply a narrow escape. No wonder I've never seen it before!"

Gu Qiqi thought to herself, That's right. I guessed this golden jade with great difficulty last time when I was gambling stones! Boss Dige's intestines were about to turn green from regret.

Mrs. Liu couldn't bear to part with this golden jade and immediately wanted to foot the bill.

Just as she was about to pay, a tall and sky-blue figure strode over with long legs and said gentlemanly, "As I'm in charge of Lan Ting, I'm giving you 20% off as you're our first customer."

"CEO Chu!"

The noblewomen couldn't help but exclaim.

Gosh, Chu Junmo, who never appeared to socialize, actually rushed over to stand on Lan Ting's side to support the situation!

It seemed that this Lan Ting was indeed capable.

Chu Junmo chatted lightly with the noblewomen before walking towards Gu Qiqi. He stood side by side with her and said to her in a low and magnetic voice, "Young Lady Qiqi, you've worked hard."

Gu Qiqi stuck out her tongue. "It's fine. It's really tough for you to come specially."

She was impressed by Chu Junmo tonight.

She thought that he would forever be that high and mighty big chairman who was above the rest of the world. He would forever be like a legitimate immortal who was separated from the world.

She didn't expect that he would actually lower himself to come personally for such a small counter to snatch business from someone.

Such a man suddenly felt more real.

Chu Junmo stared at her and his lips curved slightly. "You're implying that... I shouldn't have come?"

Gu Qiqi coughed a few times.

Why didn't she realize that CEO Chu was as childish as three year old Gong Jue?

"I... That's not what I meant. I just... Okay, to be honest, I didn't expect you to come. After all, you're so busy, and the matter with Lan Ting is too small." Gu Qiqi realized that it was very difficult to hide any emotions under the man's burning and firm gaze.

Chu Junmo's smile disappeared slightly. His expression and tone became more serious.

Chapter 549: Reporting to Master Jue, Your Little Fairy Is Seducing A Man

"Young Lady Qiqi, your matter has never been a small matter. You can occupy my time anytime."

Gu Qiqi opened her mouth. For a moment, she actually didn't know how to answer!

The big chairman's words were too warm!

Why wasn't the big chairman cold today?

Could it be that she had shown an extraordinary talent in earning money today and made the big chairman finally not regret working with her to create Lan Ting?

Gu Qiqi was enlightened. "Okay! I must work harder to earn more money... I won't let down the precious time and energy that you've given me!"

Chu Junmo's lips twitched. Little girl, could you be any slower?

The little dirty turtle muttered to itself and didn't dare to let Gu Qiqi hear it. Oh, I'm so anxious for you. Master, can't you see it? He's holding a hot water bag, a heat pack, and even an electric blanket to warm you... What other reason can there be? He wants to find a chance to have a child with you...

Sigh, it seemed that CEO Chu and Master Jue's flirting skills were equally matched. It was just that Master Qi's EQ was a little low.

So, which team should the turtle stand on?

At this moment, Bai Yingzhu and Gu Xuexue felt as if they were sitting on pins and needles.

"I'll find Uncle Bai Lang to uphold justice! You, go and observe what tricks that b*tch is playing" Bai Yingzhu ordered.

Gu Xuexue nodded. She was also very curious. Why did Gu Qiqi bring them to their competitor?

Did she think that those rich madams would accept Lan Ting just because she trampled on Qing Yuxuan until it was worthless? How could that worthless trash brand compare to Qing Yuxuan?

Wearing a cloak, she sneaked into the Chu clan's pharmacy. When she squeezed in, she saw that Mrs. Liu had bought a bracelet for 880,000 dollars.

The other rich madams were also looking around excitedly.

The more Gu Xuexue looked at it, the angrier she became. She had never seen those jade jewelry before. They must be made from lousy material, right?

She really couldn't accept being crushed by this kind of trash!

Gu Xuexue couldn't help but pull down her cloak on an impulse. "These jade are all trash. Aren't you afraid that there's radioactive material too?!"

Gu Qiqi laughed sarcastically. "Just because you don't know this jade doesn't mean that it can erase its noble bloodline. Today, I'll help you explain for free. This is the Loulan Ancient Kingdom's golden jade. It's the cleanest place in the Empire that was buried deep in the ancient kingdom for a thousand years. Where did the pollution come from? Furthermore, this isn't trash either. This golden jade has quite a powerful effect! It can be used in medicine to nourish the body!"

The rich madams were interested when they heard this. "Can this jade be used as medicine?"

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Using jade as medicine is the trademark of Lan Ting. For example, this golden jade contains the components of mica. It's sweet and warm and can enter the lungs, spleen, and bladder meridians. It can remove evil auras, contribute to the five viscera, enhance the yin essence, brighten eyes, and solve difficult labor... The benefits are endless. Mrs. Liu, those red rashes on your wrist can be cured on your fair skin when you wear this golden jade bracelet."

Mrs. Liu was wild with joy. The others exclaimed repeatedly.

Using jade as medicine was too novel! It was just what they needed

More than half of the people immediately decided to buy jade bracelets.

Yang Xiaolan recorded the sales until her hands went soft.

Using jade as medicine... Using jade as medicine... How did this shop think of such a ruthless setting?

Seeing Gu Qiqi speaking confidently, Chu Junmo couldn't help but curve his lips again and reveal a rare smile.

This girl could always surprise people.

He couldn't help but pat Gu Qiqi's shoulder lightly and celebrate this moment's victory with her. Qing Yuxuan's face was slapped by her.

Not far away, Bai Lang, who had rushed over breathlessly, was also stunned by this scene.

D*mn it! It was actually the little demon causing trouble again!

After he reacted, he quickly took a photo of Gu Qiqi and Chu Junmo in the same frame and sent it to Gong Jue. "Your little vixen is seducing men again! Aren't you going to interfere?"

Chapter 550: Brother, If You're Good, Go On!

When Bai Yingzhu found Bai Lang, he was squatting bitterly in front of the huge French window and begging the boy to come home.

"Baby Gong, I beg you. It's cold here and the wind is strong. If you catch a cold, your father will kill me!"

The boy was indifferent.

"Baby Gong, I'm sorry. I went to the washroom for a long time just now and didn't come to accompany you in time. Don't be angry, okay?"

The boy ignored him.

"Baby Gong, that little vixen who's pestering your father is already here! Don't you want to take a look? I'll take you there!" Bai Lang used his trump card.

However, the boy remained silent.

He leaned against the railing alone and stared intently at the bustling customers outside the French window and the long golden corridor.

Those innocent and big eyes were watery and reflected a cold and lonely starlight.

Bai Lang was really going crazy.

What was the boy looking for? It was fine if he ignored him, but he couldn't even be bothered to see Gong Jue's little vixen anymore?

This was really illogical! Didn't he say that he would let the little demon completely give up becoming a stepmother today?

Just as Bai Lang was scratching his ears and scratching his cheeks, unable to think of a way to persuade the boy to move, Bai Yeyuan walked over coldly from behind in a black suit.

His black leather shoes stopped in front of the boy. He bent one knee slightly and barely lowered his height to a height where he could talk to the boy. But his voice was still cold as he asked, "You've already found him. Why isn't he coming back?"

Bai Lang had a bitter expression on his face. "I don't know! A child's thoughts are freaking harder to guess than a woman's! If there's really no other way, I can only invite his father over..."

Bai Yeyuan glared at Bai Lang coldly. "You brought Gong Jue's son out to play and want to find Gong Jue when you can't clear up his mess. Do you have the cheek to do that?"

Bai Lang choked.

Although this was the truth, he had no choice.

The boy was too stubborn. Let alone Bai Lang, even ten bulls wouldn't be able to move him.

"Why don't you do it if you're capable, my dear brother?" Bai Lang said bravely. Bai Yeyuan was a cold and sinister ten-thousand-year-old bachelor. What patience could a man like him have for children when he was even impatient with women? That would be ridiculous! He would definitely be inferior to him.

What shocked Bai Lang was that Bai Yeyuan stared at the boy and said simply but patiently, "I have a way to help you. It's better to take action than to waste time here."

In that instant, the boy moved abruptly.

His big eyes locked onto Bai Yeyuan. "Uncle Yeyuan, I've already searched the entire golden diamond corridor. There's no sign of Little Sister..."

"I'll give you the surveillance video of the entire golden diamond corridor tonight. Go home and take a look."

"Okay!" The boy stood up immediately. He was in high spirits. "I want to go home!"

The cold expression on Bai Yeyuan's face melted a little. He patted the boy's shoulder and said, "Be good and come with me."

The boy didn't hesitate for a second. He strode forward with his short legs and took the initiative to leave with Bai Yeyuan.

He was leaving just like that!

Bai Lang was speechless.

Damn it! Wasn't he supposed to be single for ten thousand years?

He actually knew how to coax children better than him!

Looking at Bai Yeyuan's natural and effective method of coaxing children, Bai Lang thought tragically that perhaps his older brother would have a child earlier than him in the future!

Furthermore, he might even become a slave to his child in the future!

There was no brotherly love at all.

Bai Lang's heart shattered into pieces. Behind him, Bai Yingzhu happened to rush over. With mucus and tears streaming down her face, she cried about everything that had just happened in Qingyu Xuan. She said that Gu Qiqi and Chu Junmo had hooked up and schemed against them!

Bai Lang frowned. "I didn't hear that the little demon knew Chu Junmo... That's strange..."

However, when he saw Chu Junmo and Gu Qiqi standing side by side in the pavilion and looking as if they were familiar with each other, Bai Lang was stunned!

This little demon actually went to flirt with Chu Junmo after flirting with Gong Jue!

Was she going to go to heaven and become the reaper of the Empire's handsome men?
