

Dear Chief 581

Chapter 581: Spending Money Like Dirt and Earning Money Easily

The little dirty turtle suddenly coughed a few times. "That... Perhaps it's because the color points automatically recognized the voice of the man closest to you and provided you with a disguise..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Damn it! They were certainly close enough! They had only kissed in the morning.

After hurriedly abandoning that little fangirl from just now, Gu Qiqi swiped her VIP card and entered the stone gambling hall.

As she was a "man", she wasn't as eye-catching this time. She looked at all the stones in the venue, but no one came up to cause trouble.

But she kept feeling that many women were paying attention to her.

After looking at the stones and having ideas in her heart, she simply opened a VIP room and avoided these wolf-like gazes.

Room 7.

Gu Qiqi identified the numbers of jade raw materials one after another and made a bet.

In less than three minutes, she spent 45 million dollars!

Just as the waiter secretly despised this prodigal...

In front, the professional stone cutter cut open the uncut stones that Gu Qiqi had chosen one by one.

As the dazzling jade stones revealed their true appearances, the surrounding gamblers on the first floor exploded into an earth-shattering uproar.

"Qinghai Soft Jade!"

"Henan Dushan Jade!"

"Huaiyang Ink Jade!"

Cold and rare names were revealed one after another. The crowd was about to explode.

"Who's so powerful? He won every stone and they're all awesome breeds..."

"This brother has made a killing. A capital of 40 to 50 million dollars is doubled. His net worth can exceed 100 million in one night. I really want to get to know this brother!"

"Which master is this from the Imperial Capital? Why haven't I heard of him before?"

"Won't we know when we visit Room 7?"

A group of men couldn't wait to find Gu Qiqi to call her their brother.

Unknowingly, there were a few young girls and young wives following behind them. They also wanted to see the truth and satisfy their imaginations of a handsome man with high IQ who spent money like dirt and was also good at earning money.

Unfortunately...

When they hurriedly reached the second floor...

Room 7 was empty.

There was only one cup of Pu'er left on the table.

Seeing this, those women couldn't wait to grab their glasses and finish that half cup of tea. They would treat it as indirect kissing that mysterious handsome number 7.

Gu Qiqi brought a big bag of spoils and hummed a tune as she knocked on the Yang family's door.

"Is this jade enough for you?"

She didn't alter the jade raw materials and handed them all to Yang Xiaolan.

After waiting for a while, Yang Xiaolan didn't reach out to take them.

The moment Yang Xiaolan saw Gu Qiqi, her mind exploded.

She was speechless at the door. She only felt that her lips were numb and her mind couldn't work anymore. Her heart seemed to have been soaked in the world's richest alcohol and was about to go crazy.

She used to think that Gu Qiqi was the only girl in this world who could move her heart. Thus, she was so ashamed that she couldn't raise her head every night. She didn't even dare to face Qiqi.

But she never expected that there would really be a boy who could move her heart one day!

This boy seemed to be tailor-made for her by God!

That unruly and handsome look in his every move was exactly the same as Qiqi, but he was also a man!

This was great. She was finally a normal girl and could have a boy she liked. Should she be braver?

Gu Qiqi stood by the door and looked at Yang Xiaolan with a strange gaze. She thought to herself, Oh no!

In order to avoid the women in the auction house just now, she slipped away too quickly and actually forgot to remove her makeup...

What should she do?

She could only go with the flow.

Gu Qiqi coughed lightly. "That, I'm Qiqi's friend. She asked me to buy these stones. Alright, my mission is completed. Goodbye!"

"Wait, sir. Please wait—"

“You’re welcome! Goodbye!”

Gu Qiqi escaped as fast as lightning!

Chapter 582: A Way to Protect Her Innocence

At the Gu family’s residence in the Imperial Capital.

Old Madam Gu smashed the teacup in her hand abruptly in exasperation. “Xuexue, look at what you did! You’ve humiliated me! Do you want your grandfather to use the family law again so that you can remember your mistake?!”

Gu Xuexue was lying on the ground with Mu Liuchuan’s jacket wrapped around her. She was panting from crying and couldn’t speak.

The news reporters’ reports were so detailed and sharp. She couldn’t explain anything at this moment.

On the other hand, Gu Meifeng was still twisting the truth. “Mom, the child was also frightened when she encountered such a thing, okay? This must have been done by that b*tch Gu Qiqi. She was afraid that Gong Jue would take a fancy to our Xuexue and deliberately made Mu Liuchuan break my Xuexue’s pure body... That b*tch is too vicious! Gu Qiqi should be the one punished by family law!”

Gu Meifeng was half right. However, her pure body... How could she say these words without feeling embarrassed?

The old lady looked angry. “Of course, I know that that d*mned girl is vicious. The problem is that Mu Liuchuan is still engaged to that d*mned girl. Xuexue is seducing her brother-in-law like this! How can I face others after my reputation has been ruined? How am I going to survive in the circle? Today, everyone called to comfort my family’s misfortune and said that my descendants are a mess!”

“Mom, you still don’t know. That b*tch Gu Qiqi has secretly broken off the engagement! The engagement token shattered on the spot! Mu Liuchuan hasn’t been Xuexue’s husband-in-law for a long time. The reporters deliberately smeared our Xuexue!”

“What? The engagement was broken off? Why didn’t she report it to me?” The old lady felt as if she had been struck by lightning.

“Since when did she care about you?!” Gu Meifeng snorted. She deliberately led the conversation to Gu Qiqi.

Indeed, the old lady’s face darkened. “That unfilial d*mned girl deliberately went against me! These reporters must have colluded with her to make us suffer in silence! There’s nothing we can do! Damn it!”

Gu Meifeng took the opportunity to help Gu Xuexue up. Her eyes rolled. “Mom, it’s not impossible to solve this matter.”

“What solution? Tell me quickly!”

“Mom, once this kind of news is out, the Mu family’s reputation will also be affected. Why don’t we use this news to negotiate with the Mu family and let them change the engagement to Xuexue? Anyway, the two children have slept together. Isn't announcing the engagement directly slapping the little b*tch and those reporters' faces? Clearly, the little b*tch failed to seduce Brother-in-law and instead framed her younger sister!!"

Old Madam Gu's face lit up. "Hurry up and contact the Mu family!"

"Mom, should we tell Dad first?"

"Why are you talking nonsense with him about the Inner Residence? I'll make the decision. Hurry up and strike while the iron is hot. It's more important to protect Xuexue's innocence." The old madam was impatient.

Gu Xuexue was still indignant. She sobbed and tugged at the corner of Gu Meifeng's shirt. "Mom, I don't want to. I don't want to marry Mu Liuchuan. How can he compare to Gong Jue?"

"Silly! The news today is overwhelming. Do you think that the Gong family still wants you? The only solution now is to catch the Mu family first. Furthermore, the Mu family isn't bad either. Their family business has already gone overseas. They have plenty of money and Mu Liuchuan is the eldest son. If you marry him, you will be the mistress of the household. How practical! Gong Jue is the second son in the Gong family. Whatever benefits there are, it will definitely be snatched away by the Gong family's eldest young master. Furthermore, the position of the Gong Corporation's leader isn't something that can be held forever. Perhaps, if the Gong family's eldest young master takes it away, what else does he have? Silly daughter, you have to wake up and look at the long term goal!"

Chapter 583: I've Been Testing It For A Long Time

Gu Xuexue was convinced by Gu Meifeng's words.

But when she thought of Gong Jue's handsome looks that made people unable to close their legs, Mu Liuchuan was really boring compared to him. Even the bed exercise last night was only filled with recklessness and didn't have any taste at all.

She was really indignant...

"Mom, I still can't let go of Gong Jue. Wuwuwu... I want Gong Jue. I want to be with him..."

Gu Meifeng frowned and whispered into her ear again, "You were no longer a virgin when you were in Qing Cheng. How are you going to climb into Gong Jue's bed? Last night, Mu Liuchuan was drunk. He definitely didn't remember if you were a virgin or not. You insisted that it was your first time with him. He must be extremely guilty and will cherish you. The Mu family is a new noble family. This is a rare opportunity. Do you understand?"

Gu Xuexue's heart skipped a beat.

That's right. Which man would be so stupid to fall into the same trap?

Only Mu Liuchuan could admit the mess they made last night.

This opportunity was indeed rare!

Gu Meifeng struck while the iron was hot. "I know that you can't let go of Gong Jue, but remember, sometimes, men prefer mature and charming young married women. When you get married, find an opportunity to approach him again. Perhaps, you have a better chance of winning... Also, men are more generous to their lovers than to their wives... If you serve him well, you won't miss out on the benefits..."

Gu Xuexue asked in a pleasant surprise, "Really?"

"Of course!" Gu Meifeng looked as if she had already verified it herself.

"Are you two done talking?! How are you going to solve this matter?!" Old Madam Gu was already impatient.

"Marry her off! Our Xuexue agrees to marry Mu Liuchuan! I'll call the Mu family first."

Upon receiving the old lady's approval, Gu Meifeng immediately called Mrs. Mu.

Poor Gu Meifeng still didn't know at this moment that the Mu family's business had already been severely destroyed. In particular, the business that Mu Liuchuan was proud of—which had expanded overseas—had completely failed. The Mu family was already in imminent danger!

He wasn't a new noble at all!

When Mrs. Mu received the call, she was in a bad mood. Upon hearing that the Gu family had the intention to marry Gu Xuexue over, her shrewd little eyes flickered and she immediately agreed.

Only an idiot would disagree. She was currently worrying about not having an ally to help Liuchuan.

That country girl Gu Qiqi was ignorant but Gu Qiqi could be used.

Thus, Gu Meifeng and Mrs. Mu each had their own ulterior motives. They hit it off immediately and decided on this marriage over the phone.

She was about to report the good news to the Old Madam.

Suddenly, the living room door was pushed open fiercely. Gu Yuanyuan stumbled in her hospital gown. "Grandma, you have to stand up for me. Wuwuwuwu, Gu Qiqi let the dog bite me. Look at the injuries on my body..."

Old Madam Gu hugged her with heartache. "Quick, let Grandma see. You're now the executive director of Qing Yuxuan after all. How can you go out to discuss business when your body has been bitten like this? That d*mned girl is too vicious!"

Gu Yuanyuan cried even more pitifully. "Grandma, our Qing Yuxuan was also ruined by that b * tch! Wuwuwuwu..."

Gu Meifeng couldn't stand the fact that Gu Yuanyuan had stolen the limelight from her Xuexue. She curled her lips and said, "I've seen the news about Qing Yuxuan and Lan Ting too. It's not a big deal. There's plenty of ways to handle a small company that just started. Let your father cut off its supply and not let any jade wholesaler supply it. In less than seven days, it will close down!"

Without supply, what would Lan Ting use to carve jewelry?

The patience of customers was limited.. If you didn't have a new product on the market in a day or two, they would abandon you in a few days.

Chapter 584: Gu Qiqi Didn't Even Scream

Gu Meifeng's rotten idea finally made Gu Yuanyuan smile through her tears. "Okay, I'll talk to Father now! Hmph, I want the entire Imperial Capital—no, the entire Empire's jade supplier to not do business with Lan Ting and so they will starve to death!"

The Old Madam naturally agreed as well. "That d*mned girl who's secretly helping outsiders actually blocked our path to wealth! The Shen family was already in danger to begin with. Your father finally acquired Qing Yuxuan, this money tree, after much difficulty, but she actually ruined it so viciously. Then, don't blame us for not showing any mercy!"

As she spoke, she still felt that her hatred couldn't be appeased. "Meifeng, call that d*mned girl back. I want to reprimand her in person!"

Unfortunately, Gu Qiqi didn't answer Gu Meifeng's call at all.

Old Madam Gu was exasperated. "She's rebelling!"

"Mom, don't be angry. She can hide for a while but not forever. I heard that Dad's student will organize a birthday banquet for him in a few days. That d*mned girl will definitely curry favor with him. When the time comes, we'll do this..."

Gu Meifeng bent down and whispered into the old lady's ear with a sinister smile.

Gu Meifeng and the rest spent a lot of effort to ban Lan Ting's supply.

Unfortunately, Lan Ting was still doing well. No one knew where they got the mysterious jade raw materials from, but all kinds of supreme-grade jade emerged endlessly. The new stunning and outstanding designs were even better. Soon, they attracted a group of die-hard fans of high society.

Seeing that Lan Ting was proceeding on the right track step by step, Mu Tianyu also handed the case of Yang Xiaoqing plagiarizing Iron Fist Yang in court. Everything was developing in a smooth direction. Gu Qiqi gradually placed her thoughts on the last stage of the pharmaceutical school entrance exam.

The pharmaceutical school placed the exam on Friday.

The legendary Black Friday!

Everyone said that Director Feng Yangchu deliberately didn't let everyone pass the exam so he chose such an unlucky day.

There was news before the exam that the exam this time would be herb-picking in the wild. It was very likely that she would go to the Maple Leaf Valley in the faraway mountains to dig for ginseng and ganoderma.

Everyone was prepared. They wore specialized cross-country suits and camouflaged clothing. They brought some small shovels, hooks, knives, ropes, and so on. There were even some people with good family backgrounds who secretly sent some servants to drive a car in advance to Maple Leaf Valley to take care of them.

Their motive was to help them find the medicine at the critical moment.

When everyone set off with the pharmaceutical school team and walked three rounds around the Imperial Capital City, they returned to the back door of the Imperial Military Medical University and alighted from the lake by the back door. When they arrived at the dense forest by the lake, they were all dumbfounded.

“Teacher, aren’t we going to the wild to take the exam in a remote place that no one has set foot in?”

“This is it. Isn’t it remote enough?” The invigilator carried out a pile of exam papers without a change in expression.

“But this dense forest is by the school...”

“Have you been here since you entered school?”

“No... No.” It was said that people had died in this dense forest and poisonous snakes had appeared. It was sinister. Who would dare to come?

“That’s great. There are more herbs in this forest than you can imagine. Why do you have to spend so much effort in the wild? It’s your privilege to pick herbs in school.” The invigilator handed out the exam papers one by one.

Everyone was wailing in their hearts just now. The servants who had been sent to hide in Maple Leaf Valley in advance were useless. The wilderness maps that they had spent so much effort to prepare were also useless.

In the end, once she received the paper, they wailed even more miserably.

“Oh, why is everyone’s herb different?”

“Is the school not giving us a way out? Sigh...”

They initially thought that there was still a chance of survival if they followed the top student. They would dig whichever herb the top student dug out. At most, they would knock the top student out and snatch it over.

But this cunning Feng Qingyang actually made everyone pick different herbs.

Seeing everyone screaming in pain, the invigilator snorted coldly in disdain. “What are you shouting for? Look at Classmate Qiqi. She has chosen the most difficult medicinal herb and hasn’t even cried out yet!”

What herb did Gu Qiqi choose? Was it really difficult?

Chapter 585: The Hardest Question in History

Everyone craned their necks to look. They were all extremely curious.

When they saw the name of the herbs on the paper in Gu Qiqi’s hand, everyone clicked their tongues.

“Milletia Root...”

Millettia Root wasn't a particularly rare medicinal herb.

But the problem was that the Millettia Root grew in the extreme south and the extreme north.

The Imperial Capital wasn't an extremely cold and hot place. Why would there be Millettia Root here?

Everyone couldn't help but look at Gu Qiqi with sympathy. Then, they remembered how Fengyang Chu didn't like Gu Qiqi and kept nitpicking her during the last exam.

A guess surfaced in everyone's hearts. Director Chu Feng was deliberately making things difficult for Gu Qiqi so that she couldn't get into the school, right?

Hahaha, that's great!

One less competitor was one less competitor.

In particular, Gu Qiqi was a strong opponent who had scored 100 for the first two subjects!

Among the crowd, Han Bingyue sounded extremely pleased when she laughed coldly.

Gu Qiqi, the heavens want you dead! Your luck has come to an end! Let's see how you're going to find Millettia Root in this small and dilapidated forest.

She looked down at the paper in her hand. The herb on it were simply too easy: nutmeg.

Wasn't it just nutmeg? As long as it was a well-off family in the Imperial Capital, they would have such a medicinal herb as a spice. Who wouldn't know it?!

She could find it even with her eyes closed. It was simply giving her free marks!

Han Bingyue looked up and looked at Gu Qiqi smugly, hoping to see a lost or dejected expression on Gu Qiqi's face.

However, to her surprise, Gu Qiqi's expression was very calm. There was no trace of panic.

Han Bingyue was indignant. She took a step forward and deliberately provoked Gu Qiqi. "Bookworm, you're definitely going to lose..."

Gu Qiqi treated her as air and ignored her completely. She turned around and applied to the invigilator. "Can I leave for five minutes to get a tool?"

"This..." The invigilator initially wanted to say no, but when he saw that Gu Qiqi's question was simply impossible to complete, he couldn't help but feel compassion. "Go on, come back quickly."

"No, on what basis should she be allowed to get a tool when the exam has started?!"

"We all brought our own tools. Who asked her not to bring her tools!"

"Teacher, we can't let her go. What if she didn't take the tools but cheated by buying herbs!"

The group of people led by Han Bingyue objected firmly and stopped her.

They were really afraid that Gu Qiqi would turn the tables around.

The invigilator's face sank. "If you have the ability, I'll let you leave for five minutes too. I'll let you find Gu Qiqi's herb. How about that?"

Everyone shut up obediently.

What a joke. Five minutes? It wasn't even enough to rush back to the dormitory, right? It was even more impossible to walk out of the school gate and cheat to buy herbs.

They weren't stupid. They wouldn't change their herb with Gu Qiqi.

They were going to find their own dandelions, purslane, and wolfberry leaves... How relaxing was that?

After getting permission, Gu Qiqi walked quickly to the nearest teaching building. There was a convenience store on the first floor. There was what she wanted inside.

Behind her, the invigilator saw that everyone was taking the time to enter the dense forest and raised his voice. "One hour at most. You have to come out in an hour. Otherwise, the results will be invalid!"

After everyone had left, he secretly dug out his phone with a perverted look and made a call. "CEO Chu, don't worry. I've taken care of Gu Qiqi and just gave her 5 minutes leave. I even withstood the pressure from the students to give her permission! However... I have to ask you to be mentally prepared. She might really score zero today. Because... because the topic that Director Feng gave her was Millettia Root... It's impossible for our Imperial Capital to have wild Millettia Root..."

On the other end of the call, Chu Junmo said something that made the invigilator so frightened that his phone was about to fall to the ground. "What? You plan to come over now?! Sigh, sigh, CEO Chu. It's useless for you to come over. What? You have to bring Millettia Root over! No, no, no. Director Feng will kill me... This is against the rules... Ahem, ahem, ahem, ahem. Why don't you come secretly so that no one will notice..."

Halfway through his words, his phone was suddenly snatched away.

Chapter 586: Do You Know That Jue Is With Me?

The invigilator shivered. When he saw who was behind him, he was about to cry. "Director... Director Feng! You... Why are you here?"

Fengyang Chu looked angry. "If I don't come, will someone cheat?"

"No, no, no! Dean, I refused strictly just now! Our pharmaceutical school's exam is absolutely strict. Cheating is definitely not allowed!" The invigilator looked righteous.

Fengyang Chu snorted coldly. "Get lost! I'll supervise the exam myself! If anyone dares to let an outsider deliver any herbs, I'll directly disqualify her for the exam!"

Hmph! To think that he would give that girl one last chance.

He didn't expect that that girl would rely on men to win again.

He hated students who didn't walk the right path the most!

Gu Qiqi only had five minutes and sprinted over.

Once she entered the convenience store, she went straight to the small corner where gardening products were sold.

She picked a small pickaxe and asked the little dirty turtle, "This is what you're talking about? Are you sure?"

"Yes, yes. Master, as long as it can dig a pit, it's fine!"

"You won't let me dig a pit in that dense forest and plant a Millettia Root on the spot, right?"

"That's right, Master!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. The exam was only an hour long. Do you want me to do magic?

"Heh heh, Master Silver, with your current strength, forget about planting grass, even planting a small forest isn't a problem!"

One person and one pet were mumbling as they paid and walked out.

Suddenly...

A white figure walked past the entrance of the convenience store and stopped elegantly. He called out, "Classmate Qiqi?"

Upon hearing that voice, Gu Qiqi didn't want to respond.

Unfortunately, the corridor at the door was narrow. She had to at least open her mouth to send the person away. "Please make way. Thank you!"

"Classmate Qiqi, don't you remember me?" Bai Mori didn't give way.

Dressed in a white coat, she looked very capable and professional. It was a pity that the words that came out of her mouth sounded childish. "I'm Jue's..."

Halfway through her words, she stopped on purpose. It was as if she was creating an atmosphere that would cause one to guess and misunderstand. She looked at Gu Qiqi with a smile.

Gu Qiqi's gaze met hers calmly. She was neither servile nor overbearing. One couldn't tell any additional emotions from her. "Do I need to remember who you are? Are we related?"

This feeling of being ignored immediately made Bai Mori's stern look seem a little ridiculous.

Bai Mori gnashed her teeth secretly. Damn it. This country bumpkin was actually still so arrogant!

Didn't she know that she had been very intimate with Jue these few days?

Bai Mori really couldn't stand Gu Qiqi's calm look. She deliberately wanted to disgust Gu Qiqi. "Heh heh, Classmate Qiqi really knows how to joke. It's fine if you're not interested in me, but I think that you must be interested in Jue. He shouldn't have much time to be with you these few days, right?"

Gu Qiqi remained calm and collected as she let Bai Mori continue.

If she didn't let the enemy say enough, how would he know how many trump cards the other party had?

Indeed, when she saw Gu Qiqi remain silent, Bai Mori thought that she was nervous, jealous, and afraid. Her smile became even more brilliant. "You still don't know, right? Jue has been with me these few days. Previously, when I was injured and unconscious, Jue guarded me throughout the night to take care of me. I've been recuperating in the hospital. He comes over to visit me every day to relieve my boredom... Tell me, Jue is so loyal. I'm actually a little troubled..."

Bai Mori called him "Jue" so intimately!

However, Gu Qiqi's light words immediately extinguished her arrogance!

She only heard Gu Qiqi's indifferent voice.

Chapter 587: It's Not Your Turn to Trouble Her!

Bai Mori was waiting for Gu Qiqi to hear that Gong Jue was accompanying her. She would be so jealous that she would lose her rationality.

But she didn't expect Gu Qiqi to say indifferently, "He was still on my bed last night and even gave me an early morning kiss this morning. This man doesn't have any other shortcomings except that he's too clingy. If there's anything to be troubled about, it's me who's more troubled. It doesn't seem to be your turn to be troubled, right?"

Her direct answer was sweet yet vicious and Bai Mori was speechless!

Her face stiffened for a moment and she refused to believe it.

How could this woman possibly sleep on the same bed as Gong Jue so intimately?

What secrets did this woman have that actually made Gong Jue not allergic?!

She refused to believe it!

However, Gu Qiqi had already pushed her away in disdain and walked out of the shop.

Bai Mori had a stomach full of words to sow discord, but she could only swallow them back down.

She clenched her fists in hatred. Her exquisite and beautiful fingernails dug out traces on her palm as she roared silently in her heart,

"Gu Qiqi, what are you so smug about?! Hmph! Jue asked me to meet him in school today. You still don't know, right? In a while, I'll invite him to the dining room for lunch. At that time, I'll let the entire school see that this man belongs to me, Bai Mori! You, Gu Qiqi, can forget about touching him! Otherwise, you'll be a shameless vixen!"

In the distance, on the school's highest watchtower.

Special Assistant Lu and his men were separately monitoring the whereabouts of the two assassins from S Nation and Bai Mori.

He maintained a secret connection with Gong Jue, who was participating in a meeting in the presidential palace. "Master Jue, everything is ready. Bai Mori has already rushed to the eighth teaching building by the lake in the dense forest in the school and is waiting for you to meet her. The S Nation killers Fu Mao and Ring A should appear soon!"

"Yes. Do it quickly and make sure that the students are safe."

"Yes, Master Jue! The eighth teaching building has already found an excuse to reschedule class in advance and is empty. Bai Mori went to the laboratory on the top floor. It's empty inside. She will prepare the medicine for you there. It's estimated to take at least half an hour. It's enough for you to come over after the meeting."

"Who said that I would come over?"

"Ahem, ahem, ahem. That's right, that's right. I forgot. Master Jue, you're just fooling Bai Mori. You won't really go to the appointment. You can just come and verify the results when the time comes. We guarantee that we'll capture those two assassins alive. Then, we'll let Bai Mori... Eh? Why did Bai Mori ditch the Bai family's bodyguards and go to the convenience store herself? This is too dangerous. Another gunshot will take her life! Master Jue, speaking of which, I think it's very strange that more than half of the Bai family's bodyguards have left in the past two days. Why do I feel that the Bai family doesn't care about her?"

"Up to her." Gong Jue's tone was slightly cold.

Special Assistant Lu licked his lips and thought to himself, "Master Jue, you're so heartless."

He continued to observe with the binoculars. Suddenly, Special Assistant Lu's eyes lit up. "Eh? Why does that girl who was talking to Bai Mori at the entrance of the convenience store look a little like Young Lady Qiqi..."

"What happened?" Gong Jue's tone became visibly nervous.

Compared to when she heard about Bai Mori's situation just now, that casual attitude was completely different.

Special Assistant Lu scratched his head. "Perhaps, I was wrong. Young Lady Qiqi should be taking the exam in Maple Leaf Valley with the examinees from the pharmaceutical school now..."

Gu Qiqi ran too quickly and soon left the scope that the binoculars could examine carefully.

"Watch them closely. Report to me immediately if anything happens!" Gong Jue frowned.

He felt a little uneasy.

It was just arresting two killers. What was there to worry about?

As for that woman, Bai Mori, if she waited obediently on the top floor, nothing would happen. If she didn't know her place and courted death, then her life wouldn't be good!

The secretary beside him called out to him carefully, "Master Jue, the president is asking if you have any objections to the Science and Technology Cooperation Research Project that Country W is preparing to sign with us..."

Gong Jue's thoughts were pulled back.

Chapter 588: She Was Sent by Heaven to Anger Him To Death!

In the dense forest by the lake at Imperial Medical University.

Fengyang Chu looked at the timer. "You're late! You're disqualified!"

Gu Qiqi raised her small face and said neither servile nor overbearingly, "The examiner allowed me to retrieve the tools. I wasn't late as I took 4 minutes and 59 seconds! Could it be that the famous pharmaceutical school still wants to slap its own face with the rules that it set?"

"You! You brat, you dare to talk back to me?" Feng Yangchu was so angry that his beard was sticking up.

Gu Qiqi smiled and blinked at him. "Or is Head Feng afraid that I'll get first?"

"Hmph! I'll change my surname if you can find Millettia Root!"

"Oh my, then aren't you going to change your name to Fierce Yangchu? Headmaster Fierce doesn't sound that good."

"You!"

Fengyang Chu was so angry that his beard curled up.

Was this girl sent by heaven to anger him?

But Gu Qiqi still wanted to stab him in the heart again. "Oh, that's right, Headmaster Fierce. Just now, I saw that you didn't have a high standard when you practised the Five Animal Mimicry. You might not have learned what I told you last time. I'll correct you when I have the time! I'm going to the exam first. Bye!"

Feng Yangchu was speechless.

Behind her, the invigilator was already laughing so hard that his stomach hurt, but because of the situation, he could only hold it in.

Wahahaha, hahaha. There was actually a student who dared to mock Head Feng for not learning something well. Oh, that's not right, Head Feng!

In the dense forest.

A group of students who had entered first had already begun searching for herbs.

They initially thought that this was an extremely simple question, especially the herbs that Feng Yangchu gave others. They were all very common. Logically speaking, it should be very easy to find.

However, all of this was just theory.

In fact, after entering the dense forest, everyone finally realized that the test of human nature was much more difficult and terrifying than an admission test!

The first boy who found his herb raised two stalks of cornelian and beamed with joy. "Wow, this exam is too simple. I only spent ten minutes to settle it, okay? I can even sell one for free! Take your time to find your herb. I'm going to hand in my exam paper... Ah!"

Before he could finish speaking, there was a scream.

For some reason, his feet slipped and he lost his balance. He fell into the muddy stream beside him.

The two stalks of Japanese cornel in his hands fell from his hands into the stream and rushed into the lake along with the water, making it difficult to find any traces of them.

That boy crawled up and said with a long face, "My utensils are gone! They're gone!"

Then, he looked at the bottom of his feet. A ball of slippery mushrooms had been stepped on by his shoes until they were flattened. No wonder he slipped.

"Damn it! Why are there mushrooms here?!"

Feeling dejected, that boy could only hang his wet clothes and continue to look for his herb.

Another boy beside him threw the mushrooms in his hands into the grass with a cold smile...

Hmph! On what basis do you deserve to be first?! I haven't found my herb yet!

Following that, someone had just found a herb but it was snatched away by someone else.

"This is my herbal medicine. You're not looking for Endive. Why are you taking this?!"

"How do you know that I'm not!"

There were also people who caused more damage.

"Why did you pluck all the leaves of the wolfberry tree?! My exam question is wolfberry leaves!"

"I'm happy to. I don't know what your questions are. Why do you care if I'm happy to play?!"

The most hateful thing was that someone deliberately scattered snake powder on the herbs that others needed...

When a classmate who didn't know the situation went to pluck the grass, he was bitten and fainted on the spot. He lost his qualification for the exam and was carried out!

Although the invigilator told everyone through the walkie-talkie that there was no poisonous snake inside and that classmate had fainted from fright, everyone was still in danger.

For a moment, the pharmaceutical knowledge examination became a test of defense and self-preservation...

When Gu Qiqi approached the dense forest, everyone was highly nervous!

Upon seeing her walk in, everyone became extremely vigilant.

Chapter 589: A Wicked Scheme to Tricking a Woman

“Why is she here?! Didn’t she give up her exam qualifications?”

“That’s not right. She said that she was going to get a tool. Could it be a tool to frame us?”

“Stay away from her! This girl is super sinister!”

Wherever Gu Qiqi went, everyone retreated.

Gu Qiqi was happy to have peace and quiet. She walked straight into the depths of the forest and only stopped when she couldn’t hear those chattering sounds.

She chose a tall purple fir tree and took out a small pickaxe to dig a pit.

Only then did she realize that digging a pit wasn’t that easy.

This dense forest ground was like hard gravel. There were many hard stones in the soil. That pickaxe was too small. After digging for a long time, only a small pit was dug.

But the little dirty turtle said that it had to dig at least a meter deep...

She looked around and waved at someone not far away. “You, come here!”

A boy who was drenched shivered. Damn it. Wasn’t this the especially evil country bookworm that everyone was talking about?

Just as he was about to run, Gu Qiqi had already leisurely arrived in front of him. “Why are you running? Come and work for me!”

“You... You can’t bully your classmates... I... I’ll tell the teacher!”

Gu Qiqi swept a glance at the boy’s miserable wet clothes and the incomplete leaves in his hand. She immediately understood a little and smiled wickedly. “Oh? Did you also tell the teacher that someone snatched your herbs on the walkie-talkie just now? In the end, the teacher didn’t even care about you?”

“I... I... That’s because the walkie-talkie was broken...” The boy muttered. He was unwilling to admit that he was so useless.

He was really depressed to the core. It was fine if he was framed by others, but the teacher didn’t believe him either. He even said that it was just a medicinal herb. Who would harm someone or push him into the water? Instead, he asked him not to complain and slander his classmates!

He didn’t want to complain either. The problem was that he couldn’t find any trace of Japanese cornel after searching for a long time. He was so anxious that he complained!

Gu Qiqi laughed lightly. “As a man, it’s more satisfying to slap someone’s face with your strength. What’s the use of complaining?!”

“I...” The boy looked up and lowered his head again. He wanted to too. The problem was that he wasn’t strong enough!

“You dig a pit for me. I’ll find some Japanese cornel for you!” Gu Qiqi raised the transaction without the slightest hesitation.

The boy’s eyes lit up. “Really?”

“Of course. But the pit has to be dug better. It has to be at least a meter deep!”

“No problem!”

The boy took the pickaxe and started working.

In less than two minutes, Gu Qiqi returned.

Holding a big handful of Japanese cornel in her hand, the boy’s eyes widened. “Where did you find it?”

Gu Qiqi said casually, “It’s in the grass over there.”

The boy was speechless. Why didn’t he see a single strand of it after going through it a few times just now?!

Thus, for the rest of the time, Gu Qiqi sat on the branch of a purple fir tree and ate wild and sour fruits leisurely as she instructed the boy to dig a hole.

The boy was sweating profusely and was so tired that he was about to collapse. Finally, he dug the pit according to Gu Qiqi’s request.

He really wanted to look up at the sky and sigh. Gu Qiqi was indeed sinister. She even made people dig a pit for her!

Just as Gu Qiqi continued to instruct the boy to bury the dried Millettia Root in her hand in the soil and get him to fetch water from the distant stream to water it...

In the distance, Han Bingyue, who had long found her herb, quietly approached them.

She stared at Gu Qiqi coldly and saw that Gu Qiqi was still filled with energy. She even had the leisure to sit on a tree and eat fruits so comfortably. On the other hand, she spent a long time trying to find nutmeg. In order to avoid the students who tried to frame her and destroy her herbs, she even accidentally cut open her fair wrist and was covered in dirt.

Thinking about her sorry state just now, she was extremely unhappy!

“Gu Qiqi, on what basis are we fighting and scheming against each other but you’re so relaxed here! Don’t even think about it!”

She turned around and stared at the honeycomb on a peach tree nearby. Her expression became even more sinister.

Chapter 590: The Pitiful Sting From A Bee!

Gu Qiqi instructed the boy to dig pits, plant herbs, and water the plants. The entire process was relaxed. How did she look like she was here to race against time for the exam? She looked like she was here for an outing.

Initially, the boy watched as a piece of dried vine was cut and buried. He felt that there was something wrong with Gu Qiqi's brain. In this critical hour, she actually wasted her energy planting a herb.

But when he carried the water over for the third time to water it, he actually discovered that green buds had begun to sprout on that piece of land!

In his shock, he nearly threw away the bucket that he had painstakingly found!

Gu Qiqi was too heaven-defying.

Did she have some abnormal talent in pharmaceuticals? Could it be that she had become a tree spirit?

The boy asked nervously, "Can I... leave now?"

Buzz...

A soft sound traveled from afar.

Gu Qiqi's ears twitched. She said lightly, "If you want to leave, then leave!"

She threw the Japanese cornel to him and quietly pinched a handful of powder in her palm before applying it to a small stone.

The boy had only run a few meters away happily when he wailed and ran back. "Classmate Qiqi! There's a Wasp! Roar... Quick, save me!"

Subconsciously, he had already treated Gu Qiqi as a trustworthy authority.

Even working with a little demon was better than being stung to death by a bumblebee.

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "Weren't you in a hurry to leave? Why did you return?"

The boy looked miserable. "No, no, no! I'm not leaving anymore! I'll dig a pit for you! Water it! I'll do whatever you want me to do. I guarantee that even if I can't enter the pharmaceutical school in the future, I'll be at your disposal. Hurry up and help me. Oh, I know Classmate Qiqi, you definitely have a way. Oh, it hurts, it hurts!"

A huge honeycomb was removed by Han Bingyue and quickly thrown near Gu Qiqi.

At this moment, the furious Bumblebees were attacking the nearest human in a frenzy.

They wouldn't stop until he was covered in bumps.

That boy became the first target to be attacked, and the next to be attacked might be Gu Qiqi.

Gu Qiqi sat on the purple fir tree. Without even looking back, her fingers moved slightly and she threw the small stone stained with powder back forcefully!

Han Bingyue, who was escaping, was struck by a stone and her body was stained with a lot of powder!

"Damn it. Does that country bumpkin have eyes on the back of his head too? She actually discovered it!" Han Bingyue complained and sped up to escape.

However, in less than ten seconds.

That buzzing sound actually turned around and attacked her!

The overwhelming number of bees enveloped Han Bingyue and stung her crazily.

The black clothes that she was wearing couldn't be seen anymore. All that was left was yellow...

"Ah! Ah!"

Miserable screams rang out.

Soon, Han Bingyue couldn't even scream anymore. She was bitten by the bees until she knelt on the ground and rolled around in pain.

She felt that she was going to be blind. A bumblebee actually crawled into her mouth and nose!

The skin in her nose was so thin that it hurt like a drill when it was pierced by a bee. What was worse was that a bee crawled into her pants and stung her all the way up her legs...

She rolled away desperately...

Finally, when she still had a breath left, she rolled to a nearby stream and sank into the stream desperately. Only then did she force the wasps away from her body.

The Wasps retreated one by one.

Han Bingyue's clothes and skin were finally revealed.

Her black clothes were filled with needle holes. Her face was so swollen that her facial features couldn't be seen.

Her nose was bleeding non-stop, and her mouth was like two pieces of sausage stuck together...
