

Dear Chief 591

Chapter 591: Crawling Like a Dog

Han Bingyue raised her head with difficulty and breathed on the water surface. She let out a hoarse and muffled voice. "Gu Qiqi, you vicious woman. I hate you..."

However, as soon as these words left her mouth, a murderous intent suddenly rose behind her!

The cold metal directly pressed against the back of her swollen neck and instantly scraped her skin.

The man spoke in standard Chinese and interrogated fiercely, "Gu Qiqi? You know Gu Qiqi? Who is she? Where is she? Point her out to me!"

A foreigner!

Furthermore, it was a foreigner with very strong physical strength!

Han Bingyue was shocked to feel that the gun pressing against her neck seemed to be able to pierce through her skull at any moment. In her shock, the sting wounds on her face didn't seem to hurt as much anymore.

Her voice trembled. "You... Who do you want me to point at?"

"Gu! Qi! Qi!"

Han Bingyue finally heard it clearly.

At this moment, hope suddenly rose in her fear.

This terrifying man was looking for Gu Qiqi!

This was great! She could let this man take revenge for what she couldn't!

"Okay... I... I'll point it out to you. She, she's right in front. I'll bring you there..." Han Bingyue was in a hurry to reveal her location, but her legs had been stung and swollen. She had even rolled into the stream just now. How would she have the strength to walk now?

That man snorted impatiently and kicked her onto the shore. He tied her up with a rope and urged her like a dog. "Where is she? Hurry up!"

It was clearly not a long journey, but Han Bingyue crawled with incomparable difficulty!

But even if she had to crawl like a dog, she had to let Gu Qiqi get her retribution!

==

Imperial Medical University.

The eighth teaching building.

The usually bustling teaching building was empty today.

There was a notice for class suspension in the hall on the first floor. It said that the classroom lighting was being repaired.

But the medical laboratory on the top floor was brightly lit. Even in the middle of the day, the curtains were drawn and surgical lights were switched on.

Bai Mori changed into a white coat that accentuated her figure. She looked at herself in the mirror for a long time and even practiced the smile on her face a few times.

“Jue, you’re here?”

“Heh heh, Jue. Was the journey tough?”

“Jue, you must be very busy. Will our date today take up too much of your time?”

“Jue... I... I like you so much...”

“Jue, do you like my figure? Do you get... hard after looking at me?”

“I love you, Jue...”

Bai Mori muttered to herself. Her gaze became more and more passionate. If someone came in at this moment, they would definitely think that she was very sick!

But she didn’t think so herself. She was 100% confident that under the illumination of the laboratory’s surgical lights, her skin was fairer and more beautiful than usual. She was even more attractive as a female.

Thus, when Gong Jue suggested testing the medicine in the Imperial Medical University laboratory, she agreed without hesitation.

If Gong Jue saw her professional and flirtatious side, he definitely wouldn’t reject her coldly like he did at home the last time.

Didn’t they say that serious women were the most beautiful?

Bai Mori loosened the two buttons on her shirt in satisfaction. Her white coat was also tied loosely like a bathrobe, adding to her charm.

Ding-Dong!

The doorbell rang.

Bai Mori was surprised. She hurriedly messed up her hair in the mirror again. Amidst her meticulous neatness, she tried to create an unintentional mess.

Licking her lips, she walked towards the door.

Gong Jue definitely had her in his heart. Otherwise, why did he even come so early for a date?

“Jue!”

As soon as she pulled open the door, her smile froze on her face.

Two men dressed as gardeners squeezed through the door valiantly. Where was Gong Jue?

Chapter 592: Because You’re Gong Jue’s Woman!

Bai Mori realized that something was wrong and wanted to retreat in and close the door.

However, with her speed, how could she be faster than those two trained top-notch assassins?

Two strong men each held one of her arms and kicked the door shut!

The curtains were tightly drawn in the laboratory.

Bai Mori was tied to a chair. She watched as the other party held a thick syringe and prepared to inject her with it!

Only now did she start to regret it a little. At the entrance of the convenience store just now, she shouldn't have sent away the Bai family's bodyguards in order to provoke Gu Qiqi.

"What are you doing?! If you want money, our Bai family has money! If you want sex... Just say the word and I'll give it to you!" Bai Mori gnashed her teeth and tried to negotiate.

She didn't know what was in that needle. As she was an experienced doctor, countless terrifying pharmaceutical ingredients flashed across her mind.

After being injected, there would be a terrifying sequela.

She would die an ugly death.

"Hmph! We don't want your smelly money! We don't want you, ugly freak! We want your blood!" The killer Fu Mao was somewhat arrogant.

"Blood? What can my blood do?"

"Your blood is very useful. It can kill people, it can..." Fu Mao was talking non-stop when he was ruthlessly interrupted by Ring A's gaze. "I say, why am I telling you so much?! Sit obediently and let us extract your blood! We can even reward you with an intact corpse!"

Bai Mori was shocked.

From the other party's words, he wasn't giving her medicine but extracting her blood?

Furthermore, it was so savage!

Was her blood that important?

As the eldest daughter of the Bai family, she had been very proficient in medicine since she was young. Why didn't she know what was special about her blood?

Wait a minute. It seemed that Bai Yingzhu had her blood drawn previously as well?

Could it be that her Bai family's blood was very special?

Countless ideas flashed across her mind in an instant. Bai Mori said again, "Two big brothers, we can discuss things nicely. Actually, I won't hide it from you. There are a few young girls in our Bai family, especially my niece Bai Yingzhu. She's young and beautiful and very healthy. If you're interested in the blood of the Bai woman, why don't I bring you to her? I guarantee that I'll be at your mercy. You also said that I don't match your aesthetic standards. Furthermore, I'm not young anymore. My blood is already old..."

Bai Mori kept pushing her hatred towards Bai Yingzhu.

At this juncture, who else could she sell if not her own niece?

If Xiao Ning's surname was Bai, she would be the first to sell Xiao Ning!

However, these flattering words didn't move the killers at all.

One of the assassins named Fu Mao laughed coldly and said, "Who cares about your Bai family's woman? Our boss is looking for Gong Jue's woman!"

"Shut up. You're not allowed to talk to her anymore. It's more important to get to work quickly! Let's hurry back to the country after drawing her blood! Haven't you forgotten that the sea route isn't safe anymore? If we can't take this woman away, we have to take all her blood away!" Ring A said sternly.

"Oh! Okay! We'll draw her blood until she's dead, right?"

"Yes, until it's drained!"

The thick syringe pierced into Bai Mori's vein. It hurt so much that her eyebrows twitched.

Blood trickled down...

The man's words kept echoing in her ears. "We're looking for Gong Jue's woman..."

When she first heard this, she was still secretly delighted. Someone actually saw through her secret relationship with Gong Jue.

But then, a strong question arose. Why did they think that she was Gong Jue's woman?

How did these foreign assassins know that since Gong Jue didn't publicly declare his intentions. How did they know she was secretly praying for him every night and was willing to lower herself to pursue him?

Was there something wrong?

Chapter 593: Her Scream

As more and more blood was drawn, Bai Mori felt a little dizzy.

Bai Mori felt a little dizzy.

She felt that life was slowly draining from her body.

No, she couldn't die. She wasn't married to Gong Jue yet. She couldn't let that little b*tch Gu Qiqi off so easily!

Unfortunately, she was powerless and was completely under the control of others. Those vicious methods that she usually used were completely useless in front of an absolutely crushing force.

Just as she was about to lose consciousness...

"Boom!"

There was a loud sound!

The sniper bullet pierced through the glass window of the laboratory and went straight into the heart of one of the assassins.

This sudden attack shocked Fu Mao, who was drawing blood. In order to avoid the bullet, he quickly rolled on the ground. Even Bai Mori fell heavily to the ground and let out a painful groan.

What was worse was that the thick syringe in his hand was still drawing Bai Mori's blood.

With this fall, the needle bounced out of her blood vessels.

Blood immediately spurting out like a small fountain.

Bai Mori screamed in pain!

The needle hole was torn horizontally. It was definitely painful.

However, she couldn't be bothered about the pain. Her eyes desperately looked out through the cracks in the curtains. Who was here? Who was here to save her? Was it Gong Jue?!

Intense sounds of explosions could be heard.

Fu Mao and Ring A were forced to retreat.

They had no choice but to grab Bai Mori and hide in the washroom.

In the cramped washroom, Bai Mori finally heard the loudspeaker from outside.

"People from S Nation, you have already been completely surrounded. If you don't surrender, We'll kill you!"

That cold and heartless voice belonged to Special Assistant Lu!

Bai Mori's face immediately turned pale.

Killing them without mercy!

She was still being kidnapped as a hostage inside. It was impossible for Special Assistant Lu and the rest not to know that she was actually going to be killed without discussion.

They weren't giving her a way out.

Fu Mao and Ring A looked at each other. "Damn it! We were actually tricked by Gong Jue's people! This is a trap!"

Then, the two of them looked at Bai Mori angrily. Each of them slapped her left and right ruthlessly!

"Shameless woman! You actually colluded with Gong Jue's men to dig a pit for us to jump into! You're not his woman at all!"

"Tell me, you're a spy sent by Gong Jue, right? Everything that happened today was carefully planned by you. You deliberately tricked us into this building to be trapped, right?"

If Bai Mori was really Gong Jue's woman, how could Gong Jue bear to use her as bait?!

Even the two assassins with slow EQ had reacted. At this moment, how could Bai Mori not realize it?

Her mind exploded.

The glass heart that had been secretly intoxicated in her imagination shattered to the ground.

Bai Mori finally understood.

Everything that happened today was a show.

It was a scene directed by Gong Jue to cause a misunderstanding among the S Nation assassins!

No, not just today.

Recently, the originally cold Gong Jue had “bumped into” her many times. He even called her from time to time. Today, he even asked to meet her directly.

This was too abnormal and strange.

She had been immersed in happiness previously and couldn't extricate herself. Now that she understood what happened, she was extremely afraid.

Why did Gong Jue have to go through so much trouble to make people misunderstand that she was his woman?

Was it just to lure the S Nation assassins out and surround them?

No, it definitely wasn't that simple.

Gong Jue definitely would not carry out a difficult siege on the school campus using his direct military force for a simple reason.

Suddenly, Bai Mori remembered that the motive of these two assassins was to extract all her blood...

Chapter 594: The Woman Who Had Gong Jue's Heart

Thus, Gong Jue was trying to protect the person who should have been targeted by the killer and not have her blood drawn, right?!

In a flash, Bai Mori completely understood.

Gong Jue was actually so cold and ruthless. He was using her to protect Gu Qiqi!

Gu Qiqi's blood must have some special use for it to be targeted by these assassins. Gong Jue deliberately used her as a cover to confuse the enemy!

Unfortunately, she had always thought that Gong Jue's attitude towards her had changed and he had become gentler.

Little did she know that Gong Jue was actually so ruthless to her!

Hatred surged in Bai Mori's heart like a tsunami.

Good. Very good.

Gong Jue, you're great!

Since you're so protective of that country bumpkin bookworm, I'll let her die in front of you alive, drain her blood, and make sure she has an incomparably ugly death!

An evil smile appeared on Bai Mori's lips as she said sinisterly, "Since the two of you have been forced into the washroom, why don't we make a deal? I'll help you escape, and you can help me kill people!"

"Don't play tricks! You're on the same side as Gong Jue. You're framing us together. Don't think that we'll believe you!" The two killers were indifferent.

"Heh heh, what if I tell you who Gong Jue's real woman is? Haven't you always wanted to find that woman's blood?"

"Really? Who is it?" Fu Mao couldn't help but ask.

Ring A was more mature and cautious. "Don't think that we will believe the words of a woman like you!"

"You'll know if you believe me or not after you send someone out to try it, right?" Bai Mori's lips curved into a cold smile. "Her name is Gu Qiqi, and she has captured Gong Jue's heart. She's in the dense forest by the lake now!"

"There are so many guns outside. How are we going to get out?!"

"Heh heh, this is the laboratory that I designed. Of course, I created a way out." Bai Mori opened the toilet lid. It was smelly, but it was an escape route!

"After you enter this toilet pipe, it will become wider and wider until it leads to the man-made lake outside. If you follow the stream from the lake into the dense forest, you will definitely be able to find her." Bai Mori had never even told Special Assistant Lu this secret. Now, in order to settle scores with Gu Qiqi, she was going all out!

"Lead the way!"

"No, you have to leave someone behind to stall the attention of the soldiers outside with me. Otherwise, I can't guarantee that you can get out successfully!"

Bai Mori's words sounded real.

Fu Mao discussed with Ring A for a few seconds and decided to believe Bai Mori once.

Fu Mao followed the sewers and managed to arrive at the man-made lake.

Furthermore, once he swam into the small stream in the forest, he bumped into Han Bingyue, who had been stung horribly by the Bumblebees.

Seeing that Han Bingyue's body had been sprinkled with the medicinal powder that attracted the Bumblebee and was being tortured to an incomparably miserable state, and hearing Han Bingyue say the words "Gu Qiqi" while gnashing her teeth, Fu Mao knew that he had come to the right place this time!

Bai Mori was right. Gong Jue's woman was someone else. Furthermore, she seemed to be quite shameless and awe-inspiring!

But so what? He had never failed a mission or an assassination before.

This time, he would definitely be able to capture Gong Jue's woman easily!

Deep in the forest.

Gu Qiqi was still lying on the tree leisurely and eating fruits.

That boy fulfilled his promise honestly and ran back and forth to help Gu Qiqi do some physical work such as bringing back water, watering the sprout and so on.

Gu Qiqi helped him drive away the bees and he avoided disaster. At this moment, he was completely won over by Gu Qiqi.

What impressed him even more was the Millettia Root that Gu Qiqi had planted.

It actually germinated and grew leaves!

Chapter 595: Master, You're So Handsome

What Gu Qiqi did was simply a magical legend!

The boy was full of admiration for Gu Qiqi. "Classmate Qiqi, I'm not interested in the pharmaceutical school anymore. Can I take you as my master?"

Gu Qiqi was eating sour berries and nearly spat them on his face. She hadn't entered school yet, but someone actually wanted to be her cheap disciple!

"Really, really. Master Qiqi, don't laugh. Actually, my motive for coming to the pharmaceutical school is different from theirs. They all want to take a great pharmacist as their master so that they can show off when they go out. But I really want to learn skills! No matter who my master is, as long as she can teach me skills, I'm willing to follow her! Master Qiqi, please accept my plea..."

As he spoke, that guy actually knelt down obediently under the tree and prepared to give Gu Qiqi an apprenticeship gift!

Gu Qiqi held her forehead. With a wave of her fair hand, a string of delicious sour berries struck the boy's knee. He cried out in pain and didn't kneel down. Instead, he fell to the ground.

He got up in a sorry state and pouted aggrievedly. "Master Qiqi, are you despising me for being ugly... I can undergo plastic surgery..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

"Really! Actually, my family runs..." The boy was still trying to persuade Gu Qiqi.

Gu Qiqi waved her hand. "What's your name?"

"Reporting to Master, I'm called Qiu Qiu!" the boy said proudly.

Gu Qiqi was speechless. "Qiu? Like a ball?" [1. The Hanyu Pinyin of the word ball is qiu in Chinese.]

The boy nodded fiercely. "Master, you're so awesome and knowledgeable. My name is made of obscure words. Very few people know them! Master, you're so handsome!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. You said it yourself. Am I stupid if I still don't know?

This was the first time in her life that she had been praised like this.

As the two of them spoke, the Millettia Root grew a lot longer. Just as it was about to grow into a vine and climb onto the purple fir tree, two boys walked over. One of the boys was the boy who had secretly played tricks on Qiu Qiu previously and tricked him into falling into the stream to destroy the two stalks of Japanese cornel that he had picked previously.

That boy ran over aggressively and nearly stepped on the thriving chicken blood vines. He shouted shrilly, "Senior Brother, Qiu Qiu is here! Look, the Japanese cornel in his hand was snatched from me! Senior Brother, can you uphold justice for me?!"

Most of the questions in this exam were different, but this boy's and Qiu Qiu's question was coincidentally the same! They both had to pick Japanese cornel.

"Hey, why are you slandering me? I was clearly the one who picked this!" Qiu Qiu hugged his Japanese cornel and was furious. "Senior Brother Xiao Bei, don't believe his nonsense."

Bei Mingtian was a second-year student from the pharmaceutical school. He was one of the senior brothers in charge of helping the invigilator maintain order in this entrance exam.

"You say you picked it yourself? There isn't even a spot of mud on your finger. Who are you trying to fool? Look at my hand. Only then do you know what it means to pick herbs! Don't even think of lying to your senior brother! Hurry up and return the herb to me!"

That boy raised his pair of dirty hands that had mud stained on his fingernails smugly and waved them in front of Beiming Tian. He looked like a male version of a white lotus.

Qiu Qiu hugged the medicinal herb and pouted aggrievedly. He couldn't help but retreat towards Gu Qiqi's tree. "I... I didn't pluck it. My master picked it and gave it to me. It has nothing to do with you, okay?!"

"Where did you get this master from?! Heh heh, you haven't even gotten into the pharmaceutical school yet. What are you bragging about? Don't think that I don't know that you only scored 60 points in the first two tests, right? Even if you scored full marks this time, you won't be able to enter the pharmaceutical school. Why do you have to steal my achievements and flatter yourself? I scored 80 points for the first two tests. If I have this chance this time, I will definitely be able to be Senior Brother Bei's junior brother. Wake up a little and don't block my way!"

Chapter 596: My Master Will Beat You Up!

That male version of the white lotus argued with conviction. In the end, he actually sounded a little threatening.

Qiu Qiu was anxious and stuttered as she spoke. "I... I'm walking my own path. Why am I blocking your path? If you want to go to the pharmaceutical school, you can go and collect herbs yourself..."

This time, he was mocked by the male white lotus. "Look at your bear-like appearance. You're the same as that living widow's mother of yours. No wonder your father looks for women outside every day and even gave birth to a cheap younger sister for you. With your character, all the assets will belong to your younger sister in the future. Why are you still so arrogant?"

"You!" Qiu Qiu was scolded and couldn't tolerate it anymore. The veins on its forehead bulged. He mustered his courage and stepped forward to push that male white lotus.

In the end, the male white lotus was taller and stronger than him. He actually pushed him to the ground and even turned around to complain to his senior brother. "Senior Brother, he snatched my Japanese cornel but he's so self-righteous and even hit me first! Tell the teacher to directly disqualify him from the exam, okay?"

Bei Mingtian's attitude was cold. "It's not right to hit someone. It's also not right to scold someone."

Just as Gu Qiqi felt that this senior brother had some brains...

Bei Mingtian said, "Hand over the herb if you still want to be qualified for the exam."

D*mn it! In the end, this senior brother was still a moron. On what basis was he asking someone to hand over his herb? Was his brain damaged from listening to that white lotus's side of the story?

"Senior Brother Xiao Bei is wise!" The man smiled like a flower.

Senior Brother Xiao Bei...

Just as his lips were twitching, he saw that the white lotus man under the tree had already snatched the herbs from his palm. "Give it to me! If you don't let go, I'll kick you! You ugly son of a b*tch!"

"Who dares to touch my disciple?"

A cold sound descended from the sky.

Before the male white lotus could see anything clearly, he felt a sharp pain on his head and his scalp went numb. A furry thing bounced on his head and crawled towards his neck. He was so frightened that he covered his head and ran like a rat. "Ow, ow, ow... Ghost..."

"There's no ghost. It's just a squirrel." Bei Mingtian frowned. He grabbed a small squirrel that was jumping up and down on the male white lotus's back and gently placed it on the grass.

When he looked up again, he saw a girl dressed in purple slowly descending from the towering purple cloud fir tree. She had a cold look on her face and her eyes were fierce. A thin chain around her neck was a life-like small orange crystal turtle. She had an indescribably unique and arrogant aura. She was beautiful and handsome.

Bei Mingtian couldn't help but be swayed.

He felt that the strange flowers and grass in the entire forest paled in comparison in an instant.

Before he could react, she saw Gu Qiqi open her red lips lightly and say in disdain, "Who said that we have to dirty our hands when picking Japanese cornel? We have tools, okay?"

She kicked the pickaxe on the ground.

Qiu Qiu was filled with gratitude and excitedly watched Gu Qiqi stand up for him and explain things for him. He sighed with emotion as his master was finally willing to recognize him as a disciple. It was great to have a master who could clear his injustice...

Gu Qiqi said arrogantly again, "Furthermore, the exam rules didn't say that we weren't allowed to snatch it. So what if we snatched it? This means that we have the ability to snatch it! If you have the ability, you can snatch it back too! Come and snatch it?"

D*mn it. Master, you tricked me!

But the more he looked at his master's domineering look which resembled a female bandit, the more he admired her.

That's right, that's right. We have the ability to snatch it. If they're capable, then come and snatch it too. Hmph!

Chapter 597: Huge Change!

For the first time in its life, he felt domineering and honorable like a bandit. It felt ten thousand times better than being a rich young master.

With Gu Qiqi supporting him, her back straightened a little.

Bei Mingtian frowned. "Nonsense! You guys simply don't resemble good students at all."

"May I ask Senior Brother Xiao Bei what a good student should look like?" Gu Qiqi held a stalk of sour berries in her hand and waved it in front of Bei Mingtian. Actually, when she said the words "Senior Brother Xiao Bei", her stomach hurt from laughing. She didn't know if Gu Xiao Bei's ears would heat up too.

She squinted like a little bad fox. "Could it be that the good student that you think should be standing there and letting others bully him without retaliating or retorting? I'm sorry, but I'm not that kind of good student!"

"You guys! Don't you know that Senior Brother Bei is Head Feng's only disciple! A disciple that he personally took care of? You actually dare to talk to Senior Brother Bei like this? You can forget about entering the pharmaceutical school in this lifetime!" The male white lotus incited angrily.

"Is that so? Originally, I didn't have my mind set on entering the pharmaceutical school but now that you mention it, I'm definitely going to be admitted. Isn't that right, my only disciple, Qiu Qiu?" Gu Qiqi said with a spurious smile.

She even dared to tease Feng Yangchu. Why would he be afraid of such a stupid senior brother? What a joke! Heh heh!

Qiu Qiu immediately nodded fiercely. "Yes, Master. I'll go wherever you go. Isn't it just the pharmaceutical school? I'll go with you, Master!"

Upon hearing that the Qiu Qiu and Gu Qiqi actually shamelessly called each other master and disciple, as if they were mocking him for being Dean Feng's last disciple, Beiming Tian's face turned as black as the bottom of a pot. "Outrageous! You have no respect for your elders. You're simply—"

Before she could finish reprimanding him...

Huge changes happened!

A gunshot rang out from afar, startling the birds in the forest!

Gu Qiqi's reaction was very fast. She directly picked up Qiu Qiu's collar and pressed him down. "Get down!"

The bullet brushed past Gu Qiqi's ear and struck the wrist of the male white lotus. The male white lotus screamed.

Why were there gunshots in the forest?

Gu Qiqi was alert. She pulled Qiu Qiu and quickly ran deeper into the dense forest.

"Master, the Millettia Root..."

"Forget about the Millettia Root. Do you want to die?"

Qiu Qiu made up his mind. He even gave up his Japanese cornel and ran with Gu Qiqi.

"Be good. I'll pick a truck full of them for you later."

Qiu Qiu was speechless. Master, I'm so touched that my face is filled with excitement.

Deep in the forest was a cluster of especially lush wild brambles that were filled with thorns.

Gu Qiqi pulled Qiu Qiu along.

"Do you dare to jump?"

"I dare!"

Gritting his teeth, Qiu Qiu followed Gu Qiqi and jumped into the middle of the wild brambles. He was surprised to discover that the place Gu Qiqi had chosen was really good. It looked like it was surrounded by brambles, but there was a small piece of flat ground in the middle. More importantly, there was a big stone that could temporarily hide them behind the light so that they wouldn't be discovered.

Quite a number of spikes had scraped his clothing and his legs, but he didn't even grunt.

Gu Qiqi gave him a thumbs-up and nodded in praise.

Thump!

Bei Mingtian actually arrived with the male white lotus.

The already narrow hiding space immediately became crowded.

Gu Qiqi frowned.

Bei Mingtian looked terrible. "He was shot again in the heart."

Gu Qiqi frowned even more.

Was Senior Brother Xiao Bei stupid? It was already a life and death moment, yet he still cared about the life and death of others? He clearly knew that his heart had been struck, so why did he still bring such a burden when he escaped?

Chapter 598: She Was A Female Fox! A Female Bandit!

Bei Mingtian was also exasperated and expected better for him. "If he wasn't greedy just now and wanted to pick up Qiu Qiu's herb, he wouldn't have run a little slower and be shot by the bandit again."

At this moment, he finally understood that the male white lotus was most likely lying when he said that Qiu Qiu snatched his Japanese cornel.

Qiu Qiu wasn't as greedy as the male white lotus!

Bei Mingtian bit his lips and seemed to have made a great decision. He said with difficulty, "I know that he's wrong, but it's a human life after all. If you have a way, can you help him? A gunshot wound... I don't know how to deal with it."

Qiu Qiu curled his lips. "Do you remember my master's prowess now?"

Gu Qiqi looked at Bei Mingtian lightly. "Why do you think that I have a solution? I'm just a student. Furthermore, I'm a student that your pharmaceutical school doesn't want. Yes, I'm also that kind of bad student that you're talking about..."

"I'm sorry." Bei Mingtian lowered his eyes. "I judged people by their looks."

"Hey, hey, hey. My master is clearly as beautiful as a flower. If you judge a book by its cover, you should think that my master is a fairy from the nine heavens who has descended to the mortal world, okay?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

As the three of them spoke, the male lotus snorted in pain. A large amount of blood seeped out from the gunshot wound on his chest. "Save me... Wuwuwu... Please save me... Stop the bleeding. I don't want to die..."

Beiming Tian said in a low voice, "If we don't help him, he'll attract the bandits if he keeps shouting like this."

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows.

Oh, that's true.

However, there were many ways to shut people up...

She instructed the Qiu Qiu. "Little Pickaxe."

Qiu Qiu was very clever and understood tacitly. “Okay, I understand, Master!”

After speaking, he picked up the small pickaxe and knocked it lightly on the back of the male lotus’ head.

The male lotus shut up—He fainted!

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

He shouldn’t have begged this female fox! She was a female bandit! He wasn’t wrong at all!

After the male lotus shut up, only then did Gu Qiqi leisurely dig around the thorny bushes.

They didn’t know what kind of herb she had picked. It looked withered and yellow. She casually crushed it and applied it on the male lotus. The wound on his heart actually stopped bleeding immediately.

Beiming Tian watched this scene in wonder.

But Qiu Qiu was already used to it. “I already said that my master is powerful and awesome!”

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

Qiu Qiu continued to stab him with a smile. “So do you think my master is a good student or a bad student now?”

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

Damn it! Your master is a demon! Evil!

Bei Mingtian boasted that he was a medical genius. He had studied under Feng Yangchu for more than a year and had seen many big scenes. But he had never seen such a magical woman like Gu Qiqi.

With her talent, let alone taking Feng Yangchu as her master, she should have the capability to stand on the podium in the pharmaceutical school.

Why was she so determined to enter the pharmaceutical school?

Could it be that it was really as the rumors said? Was she really going to look for that Hua Tuo classic medicinal book—Medicine Manual—that Head Feng had hidden?

Muffled sounds rang out once more.

Footsteps were getting closer and closer!

The three of them immediately fell silent and looked outside the brambles warily.

They saw a tall foreigner dressed in discordant gardener’s clothes. He was holding a dog in his hand... No, it wasn’t a dog. It was a student whose face was so swollen that it couldn’t be distinguished. She had a rope around her neck and was pointing the way. She looked like a dog.

“You said that that female student just now was Gu Qiqi?” Killer Fu Mao said coldly.

Han Bingyue was dragged to the ground and knelt for a long time. She was already half dead. “It’s... It’s her! I can recognize her even if she turns to ashes.”

“She’s Gong Jue’s woman?” Fu Mao interrogated.

Chapter 599: The Most Vicious Strategy in History

Gong Jue?

Han Bingyue thought to herself, Who cares if Gu Qiqi is Gong Jue's woman? She only cares about currying favor with that savage killer. It's fine as long as he kills Gu Qiqi quickly.

As long as Gu Qiqi died, Han Bingyue would still be the top student at the Empire Military Medical University.

"Yes! She is! She's Gong Jue's woman!" Han Bingyue screamed hoarsely and desperately replied.

Amidst the brambles, Bei Mingtian glanced at Gu Qiqi with a complicated look in his eyes.

After this girl amazed him with her genius medical expertise, she once again amazed him with her private life. She was actually... involved with the Empire's Chief Gong Jue?

Gu Qiqi's expression remained unchanged. However, the way she looked at Han Bingyue and the killer became colder.

It turned out that he was really here for her.

Was he going to kill Gong Jue's woman?

Okay... He can try!

She held a small stone in her hand and slowly applied a layer of powder.

Whoosh!

It struck that killer's back directly.

"Who is that?!" The killer raised his gun and searched around warily.

Apart from a pile of thorny bushes, no one was found.

However, a few seconds later, a group of Wasps swarmed over!

Han Bingyue had just been stung until she became a pig's head by the bees. Seeing that the bees were coming again, she was so frightened that her soul left her body. She covered her head and escaped.

But she still had a dog leash around her neck. After crawling for a few steps, her neck turned blue and her face turned purple. In an instant, her entire body was covered by bees again!

The killer Fu Mao frowned. He dug out a small bottle from his pocket and scattered it out.

The bees flew around for a while before they suddenly retreated in fear.

Behind the big stone in the brambles, Gu Qiqi was surprised. This killer wasn't simple. He actually had the antidote for bees...

It seemed that the country that the foreign assassins worked for had awesome medical expertise.

Was such a country really going to capture her only because she was Gong Jue's woman? Or did it have another motive?

A bad premonition arose in Gu Qiqi's heart.

She had many secrets.

One of them was her poisonous blood...

If people found out...

She pursed her lips and her eyes darkened.

Since that foreigner wasn't afraid of bumblebees, there was no need to throw out the snake medicine and insect medicine in her hand.

Then, what should she do?

As Gu Qiqi was thinking about this, the other party had already initiated a more sinister method!

"Hmph, that Gu Qiqi definitely didn't run far. She's in this forest!" The killer Fu Mao's gaze swept around like a torch.

Han Bingyue bit her two sausage lips and suggested, "Why don't we burn this forest down! She will definitely die without a corpse!"

Qiu Qiu, who was hiding among the brambles, shivered. Damn it. Classmate Han Bingyue, you're too vicious. You actually want to burn my master to death. Whose side are you even on?

Gu Qiqi was very calm. Yes, this idea was very Han Bingyue. She would kill someone else so she could continue to live an ignoble life.

Unfortunately, this suggestion was rejected by the killer immediately. "Moron! I want to catch her alive! Only if she's alive can I draw..."

Before he could finish speaking, Han Bingyue quickly came up with another plan while trembling in fear. "I still have a way to definitely make Gu Qiqi appear!"

"Tell me quickly!"

"Announce over the walkie-talkie that if Gu Qiqi doesn't come out, you'll kill everyone that you see! If she keeps hiding and doesn't come out, you'll kill everyone!"

"Hmph! What if Gu Qiqi is very cold-blooded? What if she still doesn't come out even after I've killed everyone?"

Han Bingyue's swollen face distorted into a smile. "No, even if she hides and doesn't come out, it's useless. In order to save their lives, the students will definitely find Gu Qiqi for you!"

The killer's eyes lit up. "Not bad. This is a good idea!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Chapter 600: Damned Demoness

This time, even the cold Beiming Tian was shaken.

D*mn it. That Han Bingyue was too vicious. She actually used such a sinister move to deal with her own schoolmate!

Why would such an examinee apply for the pharmaceutical school? It was simply the pharmaceutical school's humiliation.

He gnashed his teeth and glared at the unrecognizable Han Bingyue. He only felt that this woman's heart was even uglier than her face!

He finally began to belatedly admit that a girl with a beautiful face, a vicious mouth, and a good heart like Gu Qiqi was simply a kind-hearted fairy descending to the mortal world.

However...

He suddenly realized that there were two gazes staring at him.

"Why are the two of you looking at me?" He lowered his voice and glared back at Gu Qiqi and the Barrier.

He realized that Gu Qiqi's eyes were very cold.

As for Qiu Qiu, he had already raised the small pickaxe and was facing the back of his head...

"You suspect that I'll be a snitch?" Beiming Tian held his forehead and said calmly word by word, "I, Beiming Tian, would never do despicable things like snitching, okay?!"

D*mn it. This evil fox woman actually suspected his character.

Gu Qiqi squinted and said lightly, "You wouldn't dare to snitch on us even if you had ten thousand guts. I'm annoyed that you're in the way. My disciple and I are going to retreat later. Don't drag us down."

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

He was now being despised by a weak woman and her stupid disciple for not having done anything! They wanted to knock him out to prevent him from being a burden?

He wanted to take back his judgment just now.

This woman was definitely not a fairy descending to the mortal world. She was a freaking demoness! What a hateful demoness!

As the three of them stared at each other, the walkie-talkie that had inexplicably lost its signal just now suddenly made a clear sound.

"All students, pay attention. All students, pay attention. If you discover Gu Qiqi's whereabouts, you have to report it immediately! Otherwise, I'll kill every person I see until I find Gu Qiqi!"

The terrifying order traveled from the walkie-talkie to the ears of every student in the forest.

Naturally, it reached Feng Yangchu's ears as well. "What happened? Who is in the dense forest? They actually disrupted our examination!"

The invigilator was already frightened silly. “Head... Headmaster, it’s no longer as simple as an exam now. You... Look at the eighth teaching building...”

Fengyang Chu looked up.

Not far away from the dense forest, the top floor of the nearest teaching building was surrounded by bodyguards. Everyone was holding a KL156 in their hands and aimed at the medical laboratory.

Two people were hanging from the window of the medical laboratory!

A man!

A woman!

The man held the woman’s head with a KL156.

That woman was one of the youngest and most promising female professors at Imperial Medical University—Bai Mori!

Feng Yangchu understood. Bai Mori had been kidnapped, and the bodyguards were here to save Bai Mori? The two sides were in a stalemate. No one could make the first move.

But what had this got to do with his students?

Why did the criminal sneak into the dense forest and specifically want to kill Gu Qiqi?

At this moment, he suddenly felt a little regretful.

He regretted making a simple exam so complicated because of his selfishness and a moment of anger.

If he had let Gu Qiqi pass after the first round of the exam, would this accident not have happened today?

His heart suddenly tightened.

Only at this moment did he realize how nervous he was about that girl who made him gnash his teeth in anger and how much he wanted to admit her to the school.

The medical prowess that she had shown in the few examinations had actually conquered his heart long ago. It was just that he had been hesitating to make up his mind due to his pride and the conflict about her private life.

Regret!

He was extremely regretful!
