

Dear Chief 611

Chapter 611: The War Between Men

Chu Junmo frowned slightly and looked at Gu Qiqi's departing figure with a complicated gaze.

In the end, he was still a step too late.

He didn't save her with his own hands.

Although he was relieved that she was safe and sound, he still felt disappointed.

Why was he always one step too late...

He really wanted to rush up immediately and ask if she was injured or frightened.

However, Gong Jue, that cunning big bad wolf, didn't retreat from the dense forest at all. Instead, he walked from the other side of the lake.

He didn't even give him a chance to see Qiqi!

He did it on purpose!

He knew that Gong Jue did it on purpose. So what?

Could it be that he could still reason with Gong Jue?

Wars between men had always been fought secretly!

Chu Junmo squinted. Qiqi, I won't be late next time.

==

In Number One.

Gong Jue carried Gu Qiqi and sat in the backseat. He was applying medicine to her fingertips.

Although it was a small rice-sized corrosive wound, Gong Jue seemed to be facing a formidable enemy. He disinfected it and applied medicine. In the end, he even wrapped Gu Qiqi's finger a few times with the softest twisted gauze.

Gu Qiqi's lips twitched. "There's no need to bandage it. This is very..."

She wanted to say that it was very troublesome.

She studied medicine and her fingers had to come into contact with medicine often. If she wrapped her finger up like a big dumpling, how was she going to prepare any medicine and hold a scalpel?

Forget about doing these, even flipping through books would be difficult.

Gong Jue frowned. "Wait a minute."

He removed the gauze and wrapped it again.

This time, he clumsily tied the gauze into a bow shape.

After he was done, he looked around arrogantly. "Yes, my skills are awesome, right?"

Didn't the stupid woman find it ugly? He heard that girls liked bows. This should be fine, right?

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Damn it! Who would wear an exaggerated white bow to school? Gong Jue, your aesthetic standards are too strange.

She sized Gong Jue up strangely. Was this man a little bit of a lolita fetish? Could it be that when he went on a business trip to pack his luggage, he would also ask his subordinates to tie the straps in the shape of a bow?

"Stupid woman, what's with that look in your eyes?" Gong Jue frowned.

"It's nothing." Gu Qiqi wanted to say something but hesitated. "I just feel that it's not easy for the subordinates who work with you."

It must be tough for them to follow such a strange Chief, right?

In the front row, Special Assistant Lu was tearing up. He thought to himself, Young Lady Qiqi, you're right. Chief is really worrisome. So, hurry up and take him in. You'll reduce a big problem for us.

Gong Jue didn't notice it at all. He still raised Gu Qiqi's small hands and admired them smugly. The more he looked at them, the more he liked Gu Qiqi's small hands. If she wasn't injured, he really wanted to bite them. "What's so difficult about following me? They just have to follow my instructions!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

I'm just afraid that your aesthetic standards are too much for them!

"Special Assistant Lu, drive faster!" Gong Jue's voice was slightly hoarse.

He couldn't wait to go home and get things on with his wife.

He couldn't nibble on her fingers but in other places...

The stupid woman had fallen into the water. He had to check her thoroughly!

Yes, that's it! Inspect her body! Hehe...

Gu Qiqi suddenly remembered something and disagreed with him. "Special Assistant Lu, please. Please stop for a while. I have an urgent matter."

Screech!

He braked immediately.

Gong Jue's face was as black as coal. "Special Assistant Lu, who exactly are you listening to?!"

Special Assistant Lu laughed dryly. "Master Jue, didn't you instruct me to satisfy all of Young Lady Qiqi's requests?"

Gong Jue was speechless.

Chapter 612: Becoming a Tyrant In A Second

Gu Qiqi got out of the car in a hurry. "I have something to do. I'll return to school first."

Gong Jue frowned even more tightly.

Looking at the beautiful curves outlined by Gu Qiqi's wet skirt, his Adam's apple tightened!

"You're not allowed to get out of the car!"

What would that look like? If she returned to school like this, wouldn't those male teachers and male students feast their eyes on that stupid woman?

More importantly, Chu Junmo might not give up and was still waiting in school.

No, he couldn't tolerate it anymore. Thinking about Chu Junmo's deep and passionate gaze when he looked at Gu Qiqi, he was furious.

Gu Qiqi glared fiercely at Gong Jue.

How did this stupid man become a tyrant in a second?

"I'm just going back to deliver something."

"I'll deliver it for you!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Ten minutes later.

Gong Jue sent Gu Qiqi's item back to the pharmaceutical school in one piece before returning to the car.

When he returned, he was holding a clean wool blanket in his hand. "Put it on!"

Gu Qiqi's clothes were wet. At first, she didn't feel anything. But after a long time, she indeed shivered a little.

She didn't expect that Gong Jue, this boorish guy, would actually be so caring at this moment and notice it.

Wrapped in a clean and warm wool blanket, she couldn't help but sigh lightly. Oh... How comfortable!

She would temporarily forgive Gong Jue's domineering behavior.

Little did she know that her unintentional sigh made Gong Jue's Adam's apple bob again and his entire body heat up.

He glared fiercely at Gu Qiqi. Stupid woman, I'll take care of you when we get home!

==

In the Mo Garden.

Mansion Number 0.

“Where’s Xiaobei?”

Gu Qiqi had escaped death and was especially concerned about Xiaobei.

At the thought of nearly being separated from Xiaobei, she felt a little afraid.

If she was gone, who would take care of Xiaobei? Who could cure Xiaobei’s eyes?

Gong Jue closed the door and locked it.

He loosened his tie.

His voice was slightly hoarse. “Bai Lang picked him up to participate in the International Young Robot Competition. He’s staying at the competition venue tonight and won’t be back.”

Gu Qiqi nodded in response.

For some reason, she felt that something was wrong.

Why didn’t she hear that Xiaobei was going to participate in a competition previously?

“Could Bai Lang have kidnapped Xiaobei?” This was what she was worried about. She didn’t notice at all that what she should be more worried about was that a certain big bad wolf was ready to hunt and eat meat.

“Hmph, if he dares, I’ll break his legs.”

Gong Jue’s voice became hoarse again. He stared at Gu Qiqi’s beautiful back as she removed the blanket. Her fair skin was like a deep and invisible whirlpool that seduced him until he couldn’t extricate himself.

How could Bai Lang kidnap Xiaobei?

This so-called robot competition was just an order that he had given to Bai Lang on the way back. He wanted Bai Lang to bring Xiaobei out to play before he reached home and not return for a day and night!

Last time, Bai Lang nearly lost Baby Gong and was itching to atone for his sins. This time, he would definitely be extremely alert and afraid of losing a single strand of Xiaobei’s hair. How could he have the guts to kidnap Xiaobei?

One day and one night...

He had already cleared the area and there was only him and Gu Qiqi at home. This was enough time for him to do something, right?

Gong Jue’s Adam’s apple bobbed again. He strode forward and walked behind Gu Qiqi.

Gu Qiqi walked towards the bathroom. “Then, I’m going to take a shower.”

Gong Jue spread his arms and missed...

The corners of her lips twitched.

The braver he was, the more he suffered!

He took a deep breath and curved his lips. "Let's shower together."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She raised her small face and looked at Gong Jue as if she was looking at a pervert. "Are you sick today?"

Gong Jue was speechless.

"If you're not sick, why are you taking a shower with a woman?"

Gong Jue said in a hoarse voice, "Yes, I'm sick. I'm very sick. I need you to treat my illness and reduce my fire."

As he spoke shamelessly, he pulled her small hand and pressed it against his manhood.

Gu Qiqi's palms burned and her face flushed red. "Gong Jue... Oh... What are you doing!"

Her lips were immediately blocked by him.

She couldn't refuse!

Chapter 613: Gong Jue, I Slept With Another Man Before

This suffocating kiss was filled with Gong Jue's domineeringness!

Gu Qiqi's back was pushed back slightly by him and her beautiful swan neck was raised.

"Gong Jue..."

The broken snort couldn't stop the man's unstoppable actions at all.

Gong Jue kissed her wildly all the way.

Oh!

He had long wanted to go home and sleep with his wife. It was just that Special Assistant Lu was too stupid and didn't understand his intentions. He drove so slowly and it was so hard to hold it in!

That guy deserved to be single for life!

Taking advantage of Gong Jue's satisfied sigh, Gu Qiqi pushed his sturdy chest. "Gong Jue, you said that you would give me time to consider. You can't go back on your word..."

"What else is there to consider, huh?"

"I..."

"You've already passed your entrance exam. Feng Yangchu from the pharmaceutical school personally admitted that you're first."

"I..."

“Xiaobei’s condition is stable now. He studies with the tutor every day and can start secondary school very soon.”

“I...”

“That so-called Lan Ting’s business is so good that it exploded. I heard that the infringement case has also been accepted! What else are you considering?!”

“I...”

Gong Jue’s question made Gu Qiqi unable to retreat. She was directly slammed against the bathroom wall.

Gong Jue was like a dangerous leopard. He squinted and raised her small chin.

It was as if he was going to swallow her whole in the very next second. “I’m already preparing to arrange for you to meet ‘Little Palm’ that you wanted to know. If you’re worried about this, I can announce your unique status in front of this person!”

Gu Qiqi’s pupils shrank!

Gong Jue wasn’t joking. Was he really willing to fall out with his little girlfriend for her?

This promise was too convincing and she found it difficult to refuse.

But...

Gazing at the man who was so close to her with burning eyes, Gu Qiqi finally mustered her courage. “Gong Jue, I might not be the kind of woman you think I am...”

Gong Jue interrupted her. “I don’t treat you as such a woman.”

He moved an inch closer to her and bent down slightly. The tip of his nose was facing hers and his breathing was filled with masculinity. “I said that I would marry you and treat you as my wife.”

Gu Qiqi opened her mouth. Her heart seemed to have been struck by something in an instant and she nearly surrendered.

“Gong Jue, I’m not talking about this. I’m saying that you might not know yet that I have many secrets...”

I’m not as innocent and harmless as you seem on the surface, and I’m not a stupid person who hasn’t experienced anything.

Gong Jue continued to interrupt her impolitely. “I knew that little secret of yours long ago. You’re poisonous. There’s poison in your blood. Those assassins today came for your blood.”

As he spoke, his thin lips brushed past her ear. His voice was low and hoarse. “It’s a pity that they don’t know that it’s not just your blood that is poisonous. Your body is simply covered in poison. It’s a pity that it’s useless against me...” How was it useless? It was simply super effective! He couldn’t forget it with just a bite.

Gong Jue’s voice was extremely charming.

His actions were filled with flames.

Gu Qiqi nearly abandoned her armor, but the last trace of rationality still made her say solemnly, "Gong Jue, I had another man before..."

Gong Jue bit her earlobe lightly. "You had an engagement with another man before. So what? In the end, you're still mine! You belong to me whether you're a person or a ghost!"

Gu Qiqi's heart skipped a beat. She completely admitted defeat and gave up resisting.

It was ten thousand times more difficult to explain her past to Gong Jue than she had imagined.

This stubborn man only chose to believe what he knew.

Chapter 614: An Unexpected Surprise!

"Gong Jue..."

"You're not allowed to talk! I don't care!" Gong Jue looked up. He was less than an inch away from her small face. Suddenly, he said domineeringly and seductively, "Your voice is pleasant to hear, but such a pleasant voice shouldn't be used to talk nonsense..."

Gu Qiqi blushed for some reason.

What a pleasant voice...

Gong Jue, can you speak more innocently?!

But there was something more outrageous.

Gong Jue gripped her small hand that was pushing him around and said, "Your small hand is exclusive to me too. Don't use it casually and waste your energy!"

This time, Gu Qiqi didn't blush.

She closed her eyes. When she opened them again, she took a deep breath and stared at Gong Jue with her big eyes. She was calm and honest. "Gong Jue, listen to me. I want to tell you that my period is over."

Once her voice fell.

There was silence in the bathroom for three seconds.

It was as if she could hear the strong beating of Gong Jue's heart in his chest.

Gu Qiqi gathered her courage and finished speaking. Only then did she realize that her face was gradually turning red.

If she said this, would Gong Jue think that she was inviting him to... do something impure?

No, no, no. She was just afraid that he would let her use her hand to do something crazy when he held her small hand just now, so she blurted out the truth in a daze.

But after speaking, she realized that she was tacitly agreeing and hinting that he could... Oh!

Perhaps, when Gong Jue said that he didn't care, the scales in her heart had already tilted towards him. Her emotions had already made a decision for her before her rationality!

She wasn't prepared to accept a man yet.

But Gong Jue didn't need her to prepare. He was already unstoppable and convinced her heart.

He was so close to taking her under his wing.

At this moment, Gong Jue stared at her without blinking.

He could hardly believe this news that made him ecstatic!

"Whoosh!"

She didn't know if it was him or her, but she accidentally touched the switch of the thermostat.

Warm and powerful hot water poured down from the sky. Like a storm that had been added to the temperature, it enveloped the two of them in a confused and warm mist.

Gong Jue's thoughts had nowhere to rest...

In an instant, he saw that there was something wrong with Gu Qiqi's expression.

Gong Jue paused.

His handsome eyebrows frowned slightly. "Not feeling well?"

Gu Qiqi bent down slightly and nodded uncomfortably.

It was a little...

Gong Jue turned off the showerhead.

Looking down, a trace of red spread between the two of them, making him secretly shocked!

Why was there so much blood?

She had only been suddenly drenched in hot water by the shower just now. Even if she had been scalded or frightened, she wouldn't have been so seriously injured, right?

There was also a lot of hot water on the floor. It was even more shocking when it was stained with blood. The entire bathroom was unbearable to look at.

Gong Jue immediately became nervous. He carried Gu Qiqi horizontally and walked out. "I'll take you to the hospital!"

Just as he thought that he had accidentally injured this delicate and stupid woman...

The blushing little woman in his arms whispered like a mosquito, "Don't go..."

"You're already like this, but you're still not going to see a doctor? What if you get an infection? What if you can't stop the bleeding?" Gong Jue frowned tightly, revealing endless nervousness.

Gu Qiqi's voice became even softer.

Her small face was nearly buried in Jue's arm as she whispered. "I... This is... That's what happens when people get a period..."

Who would go to the hospital to seek treatment? Wouldn't they be laughed at by the doctors and nurses for an entire year?

Chapter 615: The Bad-tempered Master Jue Is On His Period!

Ah, ah, ah. Why did her real period come at this critical moment?

When Gong Jue wanted her and she was hot-headed enough to ignore her rationality and agree to Gong Jue's request, it came!

Just a minute ago, she had seriously admitted that her period had already passed!

Gong Jue was silent for a full minute.

Holding her in his arms, he stood motionless at the bathroom door.

Only when Gu Qiqi sneezed did he wake up abruptly. He quickly pulled out two big clean and soft towels and wrapped Gu Qiqi tightly.

Then, she gnashed her teeth and said, "Period? Hmm? It came and left just like that, right?"

That stupid woman kept fooling him because he couldn't bring himself to research this problem, right?

Today's period was real. What about before?

Was it fake?

Gu Qiqi felt guilty. "I can explain..."

A certain man had already determined that she was a dishonorable person. He didn't listen to her explanation at all and called Bai Lang directly.

"How often does a period come? How many days will it last? Hurry up and answer me!"

Bai Lang was dumbfounded. "You're a man and you don't get periods. Why are you asking this question?"

"Cut the crap! Speak!"

"Ahem, ahem, ahem. Usually, women's periods come once a month, that's why it's called menstruation. As for the duration... It's usually three to seven days. If it's any longer, there's a problem and you have to see a doctor. Eh, you can't be asking on behalf of the little demon, right? As a doctor, I have to remind her responsibly that she can't exercise vigorously during her menstrual period in the future. It isn't good for a girl's health... Hey, hey, why did you hang up on me? Didn't I say the truth? Honest advice is truly unpleasant to hear..."

Bai Lang hung up the call gloomily.

Xiaobei pinched Brother Yun the robot and asked innocently, "Brother Bai, what happened to my brother-in-law?"

Bai Lang snorted. "Hmph! Your brother-in-law is on his period. His temper is bad and irritable!"

==

The next day.

On the way to school, Gu Qiqi couldn't forget how terrifying Gong Jue's expression was last night.

If she didn't have her period to protect her, she would probably be eaten up by him until nothing was left.

But it wasn't good to have her period now.

It would accidentally expose that she was lying to Gong Jue previously!

This stupid man had OCD and would start to check her panties sooner or later.

He probably didn't believe her anymore and was going to personally dictate when her period would come and end in the future. She was about to collapse.

When she reached school, she walked towards the veterinary school out of habit.

But she didn't expect Yang Xiaolan to chase after her while panting. "Qiqi, you're going the wrong way! Today is the pharmaceutical school's welcoming ceremony for new students! Hurry up and follow me!"

Gu Qiqi facepalmed. "I'm sorry, but my brain isn't functioning well during my period."

She nearly forgot that Gong Jue had already told her yesterday that Feng Yangchu had agreed to let her enter the pharmaceutical school.

She had finally taken a big step forward towards the goal she was longing for.

She had finally entered the pharmaceutical school!

She was another step closer to the Medicine Manual.

She was closer to bringing Xiaobei's eyes to the light again!

Yang Xiaolan held Gu Qiqi's hand. They had endless things to talk about along the way as they walked towards the pharmaceutical school.

Speaking of Lan Ting's recent operations, Yang Xiaolan smiled happily. "Qiqi, the jade that Young Master Ye obtained is too good. Once it's listed, it's all gone!"

"That's good. If you need anything more, just ask him to get them again."

Yang Xiaolan's small face flushed slightly. "Qiqi, Young Master Ye is so awesome..."

"Him? Ahem, ahem, ahem..." It was Gu Qiqi's turn to feel a little hot. She was still a little embarrassed to be praised in person.

The two of them chatted and laughed along the way as they walked to the pharmaceutical school building.

Yang Xiaolan's expression suddenly changed. She rushed to the bulletin board on the first floor and caressed the promotional poster that she had personally drawn with trembling hands. That was the poster to celebrate Gu Qiqi winning first place. She had drawn it overnight.

However, at this moment, Gu Qiqi's results had been crossed out with a red pen. Two holes directly pierced through Gu Qiqi's eyes!

Chapter 616: Ruining Gu Qiqi's Reputation

Who was so hateful and vicious to actually poke the poster of Qiqi winning first place into such a mess?

Even Yang Xiaolan, who was usually gentle and soft-spoken, couldn't take it anymore. She clenched her fists. "This is too much! I... I want to call the police! I want them to test for fingerprints! Let's see who did it!"

Gu Qiqi squinted. Through the window, she swept a glance at the classroom on the first floor and curved her lips. "It's too troublesome to call the police. Isn't the troublemaker inside?"

"Ah? Who actually has the cheek to cause trouble?" Yang Xiaolan looked over in disbelief.

Indeed, a group of students surrounded the pharmaceutical school teacher and students in front of the classroom podium.

The leader was Liu Guanghui from the clinical medicine school who had a feud with them!

In fact, even the seriously injured Han Bingyue—who was wrapped tightly in bandages—was pushed into the classroom in a wheelchair!

Liu Guanghui placed his hands on his hips and clamored, "I'm going to seek justice for my Little Junior Sister today! On what basis is that b*tch Gu Qiqi first in the entrance exam? Clearly, my Little Junior Sister was the first to find the herbs. She even suffered serious injuries to protect the herbs! I didn't expect that not only is your pharmaceutical school trash, but even your teachers are trash. You actually voided my Little Junior Sister's results!"

Back then, he had bullied the freshmen from the pharmaceutical school to help him move the human bone specimens. In the end, Gu Qiqi bumped into him and taught him a ruthless lesson. He had always held a grudge against her.

He asked his uncle, the head of the discipline office's Director Zhao, to expel Gu Qiqi. In the end, not only was Gu Qiqi fine, but her uncle inexplicably lost his job.

He had been depressed for a long time!

He had finally waited for this good opportunity. He could use Han Bingyue's exam results to make a fuss!

He was the chairman of the Student Union of the clinical medicine school. Using his position, he led a group of people from the Student Union and picked Han Bingyue up from the hospital in a grandiose manner to cause trouble in the pharmaceutical school.

As soon as he entered, he poked Gu Qiqi's eyes in the poster.

Soon after, he brought Han Bingyue out and forced the pharmaceutical school to change her results!

Anyway, this trash school in the pharmaceutical school was filled with a group of cowardly teachers and students. He believed that it would be strange if Gu Qiqi's reputation didn't get ruined today.

"Today, your pharmaceutical school has to change my Little Junior Sister's results or drag Gu Qiqi down from first place. If you don't give me an explanation, I definitely won't let this go. Hmph!"

Liu Guanghui had a fierce look on his face. He didn't look like a student but like a scoundrel.

That lecturer was originally here to lecture, but he was caught off guard by this commotion. Let alone lecture, even if he explained anything, no one would be able to listen. "The matter of the results isn't my business. Go and find the school..."

However, the people from the clinical medicine school came fiercely. His voice was quickly drowned out.

The students from the pharmaceutical school wanted to say something but were frightened by those fierce fellows from the clinical medicine school.

They were really afraid because in the eyes of these top students from the clinical medicine school, they were complete trash. They didn't even have the courage to argue.

Just as Liu Guanghui and the rest occupied the classroom and caused chaos in the pharmaceutical school...

A clear and calm voice drifted in from outside the door. "You want an explanation, right? Okay, I'll tell you why Han Bingyue's results are invalid."

Liu Guanghui's pupils shrank!

Gu Qiqi!

That d*mned bookworm!

Even Han Bingyue—who was in a wheelchair—widened her eyes. Her tongue had been stung by the Wasp until it swelled into a ham sausage. She couldn't speak at all and could only express her anger with muffled words.

Gu Qiqi strode into the classroom with a nut in her hand. "Han Bingyue, these are the herbs that you found?"

Chapter 617: You're Not A Dog. Why Are You In A Rush To Bark?

Liu Guanghui replied on Han Bingyue's behalf. He looked smug and said, "Of course! Little Junior Sister found the nutmeg first. In the end, although she was kidnapped by bad people, she handed it to Head Feng immediately!"

The other students either hadn't found the herbs yet, or they had been frightened by the terrifying atmosphere of being attacked by assassins and threw their herbs away halfway through. They were sadly eliminated.

"I'm asking about Han Bingyue. You're not Han Bingyue's dog. Why are you in a hurry to bark?" Gu Qiqi glanced at Liu Guanghui lightly and laughed sarcastically.

Liu Guanghui retorted. "You!"

Could this bookworm's mouth be any more vicious?!

Gu Qiqi took a step forward and waved the nutmeg in front of Han Bingyue's eyes. "Look carefully. Are you sure that these are the examination herbs that you want to hand to the pharmaceutical school?"

Han Bingyue squinted her swollen eyes and looked around to confirm that this was indeed nutmeg.

Which kitchen didn't have some nutmeg?

It was because nutmeg was everywhere in the Empire that she could find it so quickly and smoothly.

Han Bingyue nodded.

"It turns out that Han Bingyue's exam question was so simple! I thought that the top student's question would be very difficult."

"Who doesn't know about nutmeg?"

"What's the use of being able to find nutmeg? Is it worth mentioning?"

Some people from the pharmaceutical school had already begun to whisper.

Liu Guanghui roared fiercely, "It's also a kind of ability to draw such a simple question! Hmph, you trash!"

They had to admit that Liu Guanghui's words made sense.

Since Han Bingyue's question was simple and she had found the herbs and answered the question correctly, why was her result invalid?

Everyone looked at Gu Qiqi in confusion.

Gu Qiqi's lips curved into a cold smile. "This herb looks like nutmeg but it's called black cardamom. However, Han Bingyue, your exam question was not to look for black cardamom but nutmeg! Don't tell me that you don't even know what black cardamom is?"

Gu Qiqi's question stunned the students in the classroom for a moment.

It wasn't just the freshmen from the pharmaceutical school. Even the so-called top students from the clinical medicine school were scratching their heads.

Nutmeg?

Black cardamom?

Weren't they the same?

Could there be a difference?

Wasn't the herb that Gu Qiqi was holding in front of her nutmeg? It could be ground into powder, made into condiments, and could be used in medicine. Was this a common spice that every family in the Empire had in the kitchen?

"What... What is nutmeg then?" Even Liu Guanghui was a little stumped.

"Everyone, lend him a book called "Herbology: A Hundred Herbs" to nourish him so this trash won't be so self-righteous all day long." Gu Qiqi said impolitely.

That d*mned bookworm actually said that he was trash!

Liu Guanghui still wanted to retort.

Beside him, a classmate from the clinical medicine school received the pharmaceutical school textbook and poked Liu Guanghui weakly. "Senior Brother, look. On page 370, it says that nutmeg and black cardamom aren't the same thing... The difference is very big..."

Liu Guanghui couldn't wait to tear that textbook into pieces!

D*mn it!

Why would Han Bingyue make such a mistake?

Wasn't this asking him to slap his own face?

He stiffened his neck and rolled his eyes. He didn't admit what he had said just now and opened his eyes to quibble. "Who said that Han Bingyue found black cardamom? We saw wrongly just now! What Han Bingyue found was nutmeg! What you're holding is black cardamom!"

Gu Qiqi laughed sarcastically. "Please prepare a better draft when you lie next time. Don't you know that the exam results will be saved? Do you want to go to the pharmaceutical school's archive room and check out what exactly Han Bingyue found? Liu Guanghui, don't you feel ashamed for going back on your word?"

Chapter 618: Don't You Know What Happened?

Han Bingyue, who was in a wheelchair, widened her eyes and stared intently at the black cardamom in Gu Qiqi's hand.

She never expected that the herb that she had gone through so much pain and endured serious injuries to get was actually wrong!

The reason why she agreed to let Liu Guanghui cause trouble today was naturally that she was certain that her results were perfect. She thought it was because that little b*tch Gu Qiqi caused trouble that her results were invalid.

But she never expected that this was the truth.

She actually lost to that little b*tch!

This blow was too great. Her already weak body couldn't hold on anymore in the wheelchair. She was like a soft worm that was distorted and dispirited in the wheelchair.

Seeing that there was no hope for Han Bingyue to turn the tables around and that Han Bingyue's appearance was really not suitable to act as a weak and pitiful little white flower, Liu Guanghui could only gnash his teeth and start another scene. "Gu Qiqi, stop pretending to be innocent with me! You're trying to show that you're very capable, right? How are you any better than Han Bingyue? Where did your first place come from? Which old man spent money to buy it for you? I heard that your exam question was millettia root, right? There's no millettia root in the Imperial Capital at all. Where did you find it from? Also, you fell into the lake during the exam, right? After you fell into the lake, you didn't return to the examination venue to hand in your exam result, right? Where did your results come from?! You even said that the pharmaceutical school didn't help you cheat? This is a rubbish examination in a trash school!!"

Liu Guanghui questioned her.

The freshmen from the pharmaceutical school fell silent again.

They didn't go to the examination venue. The news of how the killer was subdued was also sealed. No one knew that Gong Jue saved Gu Qiqi.

Everyone had only heard rumors that Gu Qiqi had encountered an attack at the lake.

After being reprimanded by Liu Guanghui, an ordinary person's first reaction was to agree indeed that Qiqi had fallen into the water and definitely didn't have the time to hand in the exam paper. Furthermore, if she fell into the water, she definitely wouldn't be able to protect the herbs in her hands. Furthermore, there was indeed no millettia root in the Imperial Capital.

If Gu Qiqi drew this difficult question, it would definitely be impossible to complete it.

So, someone really bribed the director to help Gu Qiqi cheat?

If that was the case, then this exam... was indeed a joke.

Amidst the silence, Liu Guanghui became even more pleased. "I wasn't wrong, right? Gu Qiqi doesn't deserve to be first at all. Why are you making a champion poster for a trash student like her? How embarrassing!"

Xiaolan was so angry that she trembled. She wanted to go forward and reason with him, but Gu Qiqi gently pulled her back.

Faced with such accusations, the best way to make her case was evidence and any other reasoning was useless.

That day, she had retreated with Qiu Qiu in a hurry. The millettia root hadn't grown yet, and she didn't have evidence in her hands.

How was she going to counter his accusation...

At this moment, a loud and clear voice traveled from outside the classroom. "Who said that my master isn't fit to be number one? Who said that my master can't find millettia root? I will f*cking whip his face with the millettia root!"

Qiu Qiu really brandished a thick and fresh vine and rushed into the classroom.

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Oh, this disciple wasn't bad. He really looked like he was slapping someone's face.

"Master!" Once Qiu Qiu entered, he stood beside Gu Qiqi excitedly.

"Yes." Gu Qiqi replied lightly.

The students' eyes widened...

Liu Guanghui laughed. "You're saying that this broken vine is a millettia root..."

Halfway through his laughter, he couldn't laugh anymore.

Damn it! What he was holding in his palm was really millettia root.

It was fresh and hadn't been picked for more than a day. It wasn't the dried millettia root that was sliced in prescription medicine. As long as one was a student from a medical school, he would be able to recognize it!

"Hmph, it's fortunate that I kept one when my master handed in her result. Otherwise, I really wouldn't have been able to stop this smelly mouth of yours." Qiu Qiu made a face at Liu Guanghui and glared at Han Bingyue in disdain. "Miss Han, it's fine if Liu Guanghui comes to the venue and speaks nonsense. But why do you have the face to slander my master?! I'm sure you knew what exactly happened at that time!"

Chapter 619: The Dirtiest Rumor About Gu Qiqi

Han Bingyue's swollen face flushed red even though it was wrapped in gauze!

Millettia Root!

Gu Qiqi actually picked millettia root and turned the impossible question into a reality.

Then, wouldn't it be a complete joke if she came to seek an explanation today?!

She wanted to escape secretly in the wheelchair.

However, how could Qiu Qiu give her this chance?

“Han Bingyue, have you forgotten how you snitched on the assassins in the dense forest and came up with a rotten idea? You were the one who got the assassins to shoot our classmates one by one to force Gu Qiqi out. Have you forgotten? You came up with such a heartless and vicious plan. Do you still expect the pharmaceutical school to accept you? It would be considered a light punishment to void your results!”

As he spoke, Qiu Qiu swept a meaningful glance at the students from the clinical medicine school. “You’re a type of cancer that the pharmaceutical school doesn’t want. You should really try to find your conscience. Don’t let it poison you to death one day!”

Among the people that Liu Guanghui brought to cause trouble, there were older students, freshmen, and no lack of people who participated in the pharmaceutical school entrance exam.

Upon hearing that there was such a terrifying secret in the dense forest back then, all of them had lingering fears!

Everyone looked at Han Bingyue with strange and fearful gazes.

In the past, everyone only felt that Han Bingyue was a little arrogant. After all, she was the second place in the college entrance examinations and they had given in to her. Only now did they know that the viciousness of her thoughts was actually many times higher than her results.

These were her classmates. How could she scheme against them with a killer?!

They suddenly started to regret it. Why did their brains burn today? Why did they come to cause trouble with Liu Guanghui and Han Bingyue?

Gu Qiqi’s results were real.

Han Bingyue’s vicious plan was also real.

How could they still have the cheek to continue making a fuss...

All of them collapsed and didn’t dare to clamor anymore.

Only Liu Guanghui didn’t give up. He pointed at the millettia root in Qiu Qiu’s hand. “You bought it... Definitely bought it... You bought it from the pharmacy!”

“Pfft! Is there something wrong with your brain? Does your pharmacy sell millettia root? Why don’t you buy one for me? If you can buy it in the Imperial Capital’s pharmacy, I’ll call you Grandpa Liu!” Qiu Qiu placed his chubby hands on his waist and he looked as if he was 1.8 meters taller than Liu Ganghui.

Liu Guanghui gnashed his teeth.

He knew that it was impossible to buy it, so how would he dare to agree?

Feeling anxious, he blurted out, “Anyway, Gu Qiqi doesn’t deserve to be first! According to what I know, Head Feng Yangchu from the pharmaceutical school has always looked down on her! Otherwise, he wouldn’t have organized a repeat exam! Why hasn’t Gu Qiqi been able to enter a trash school like the pharmaceutical school all this while? This time, for the first time, isn’t it because there’s an old man who takes care of her behind the scenes and offers benefits so that she could join the school? You still have the cheek to talk about us? Don't you have any idea in your heart?"

Liu Guanghui's accusations from before had been retorted by Gu Qiqi and Qiu Qiu.

Only this rumor about her being taken care of by an old man could not be clarified.

Rumors about Gu Qiqi being a kept woman had been spreading secretly since the first day she entered school.

Of course, this was all thanks to Gu Xuexue. She spared no effort in defaming Gu Qiqi behind the scenes.

Every time Gu Qiqi won, every time Gu Qiqi revealed her shocking talent in front of everyone, this rumor would quietly rise behind her back.

The words "she's an old man's kept woman" could erase all her hard work in an instant.

This was the greatest contempt of a woman.

This was the dirtiest rumor.

It swept away a woman's hard work and talent by simply associating it with a man's protection!

Chapter 620: No Harm Without Comparison

Everyone had more or less heard of this rumor before.

The students from the clinical medicine school who initially looked ashamed felt much better after hearing Liu Guanghui's words.

After all, it was embarrassing to lose to a talented woman!

If they lost to a woman who relied on an old man to support her... Heh heh, that wouldn't be their fault.

Humans liked to find excuses for their failures.

These students were naturally no exception!

Everyone looked at Gu Qiqi with disdain and ridicule without any fear.

Although he didn't say anything, it was as if he was using a silent stone to smash that shameless b*tch and gain his own moral high ground and sense of superiority.

Qiu Qiu was so angry that it rolled up its sleeves and was about to hit someone.

Yang Xiaolan was so angry that her eyes were filled with tears. "How can you? How can you slander Qiqi like this... She's not that kind of person at all! You're slandering her! You'll get your retribution!"

Gu Qiqi, who was at the center of the storm of public opinion, remained standing quietly. There was no anger or fear on her face. In fact, a trace of ridicule appeared on her face. "Old man?"

Oh, there was a stupid man behind her. But what would that stupid man think if he knew that someone called him old?

“Gu Qiqi, stop pretending. Hmph! Feng Yangchu probably knew long ago that you were such a person. I think that you, the so-called first place, will be removed by the pharmaceutical school very soon!” Liu Guanghui’s arrogance surged.

He had long seen that guy Qiu Qiu run to the director’s office to seek help.

However, Feng Yangchu didn’t come at all. Qiu Qiu ran back alone.

What did this mean?

This meant that Feng Yangchu didn’t want to get involved in this mess at all. In fact, Feng Yangchu wasn’t satisfied with Gu Qiqi at all!

Perhaps, Feng Yangchu would be even happier when they caused a fuss. It would be a good opportunity to kick Gu Qiqi out.

Liu Guanghui wasn’t lying. He had heard from the principal’s secretary that when Feng Yangchu found out that Gu Qiqi had signed up for the exam back then, he had thrown a big tantrum at the principal.

Liu Guanghui was extremely pleased.

Although his carefully prepared cases had been defeated, this trump card was really useful. Indeed, the best way to destroy a woman was to destroy her reputation. Heh heh, this suggestion that junior Gu Xuexue gave him was really awesome.

It was a pity that Gu Xuexue had slept with another man. Otherwise, he could have...

Liu Guanghui was feeling smug when an old and powerful voice entered his ears.

“Who said that the pharmaceutical school wants to remove Gu Qiqi’s first place? Are you the director or am I the director? Hmph!”

Everyone was shocked.

Director Feng was here!

Gosh, the Dean Feng who never left his office easily and didn’t like to show his face actually came personally.

Everyone made way for him.

Fengyang Chu pulled a long face and strode into the classroom with his hands behind his back.

He first glanced at Gu Qiqi expressionlessly.

Then, he glared fiercely at Liu Guanghui!

Without comparison, there would be no harm. Just as everyone felt that Feng Yangchu was quite cold towards Gu Qiqi, when they saw Feng Yangchu’s fierce gaze at Liu Guanghui, everyone immediately felt that Feng Yangchu was simply too gentle towards Gu Qiqi.

Liu Guanghui choked and squeezed out a smile.. “Dean Feng, I know that you’re especially upright and noble. You definitely won’t accept a female student like Gu Qiqi who relied on men to climb up the ranks to enter the pharmaceutical school, right?”
