

Dear Chief 641

Chapter 641: What Was So Awesome About A Wandering Woman Without Education?

The female customers by the window in the cafe were furious.

“That scheming b*tch actually deliberately threw herself into the arms of the handsome men to take advantage of them! I haven’t pounced on my male idols yet, but she’s actually so shameless!”

Yun Qiao felt like her back was pierced by the vicious gazes of the women.

However, Yun Qiao was finally relieved to wet Gu Qiqi and Xiao Ning’s clothes with her own hands.

Since their clothes were wet, they naturally had to change them. Then, they wouldn’t be in the mood to drink the cups of coffee anymore. The greasy old man wouldn’t have the chance to spike them anymore.

Her task was complete. She covered her face in case her close friends recognized her and pretended to be afraid of getting into trouble. She didn’t even have time to grab her coffee cup before she turned and jogged back to the kitchen counter.

Her boss pulled her back with an angry look on her face.

She apologized profusely. “I’m sorry, I’m sorry. I took—”

After coming to the capital, she apologized too many times.

Almost every day and at every job, even if it was not her fault, she had to apologize to the guests non-stop.

Although she was once a proud person, she had no choice now. She was living under someone else’s roof and was inferior to others. Apart from keeping a low profile and using apologies as her mantra, she didn’t have the capital to say anything else.

She was about to continue saying that she would compensate her with her salary.

Bam!

The angry manager slapped her. “Get lost! You useless person! You can’t do anything. Hurry up and get lost! Don’t even think about getting your salary!”

She had messed up and CEO Liu’s face was so dark. She had to give him an explanation.

Firing this Qiao person was the best explanation.

Yun Qiao gnashed his teeth.

She couldn’t continue pestering the manager.

Qiqi and Little Lemon had already walked over. It seemed that they were going to the washroom.

She had to avoid them.

After taking a deep look at the manager, Yun Qiao untied the apron around her waist and gently placed it on the table. “Okay, I’ll leave.”

The moment she decided to help Qiqi and Xiao Ning, she was prepared to be fired.

Although she knew how difficult it was for a young girl with no education, no family background, and who was alone in the Capital to find a proper job, she didn't feel reluctant.

Compared to the safety of her friends, this job was nothing.

As Yun Qiao spoke, she turned around and left without any hesitation.

The leader was stunned.

Yun Qiao's tone and actions were clearly very gentle, but she inexplicably felt that there was an oppressive aura that made her unable to breathe!

It was as if her schemes had been seen through by Yun Qiao long ago. In fact, Yun Qiao's last deep look even had a hint of warning!

D*mn it. She was just an uneducated tramp. What was so awesome about her?

Pfft. Didn't this tramp always lack money? She would even pick up a cent that had fallen to the ground. Now, she was ok with not wanting her salary?

Hmph, she must be pretending. She was sure that she would come back tomorrow and beg her for her salary of five dollars!

When the time came, she would humiliate her ruthlessly!

Gu Qiqi looked at Yun Qiao's departing back and felt that it was somewhat familiar.

Although that woman's back was bent, she couldn't stand upright, and her hair blocked her face, she was still very familiar!

Why did she feel that it resembled...

"Qiqi, were you talking about this man just now?" Xiao Ning lowered her voice.

Gu Qiqi's thoughts were pulled back. She glanced at CEO Liu, who thought that he was huddled in a corner on the sofa and hadn't been discovered. She laughed lightly. "Yes."

The coffee that the waiter had spilled just now was definitely not an accident.

After the waiter left, she found the number "eight" on the table written using the spilled coffee.

Chapter 642: The CEO Had Just Bathed

CEO Liu was sitting at table eight!

Gu Qiqi could smell the hallucinogen in that cup of coffee!

The waiter was definitely reminding them out of kindness.

Indeed, this greasy old man hadn't given up yet...

Gu Qiqi squinted. "Let's go to the washroom to change first. We'll deal with him when we return later!"

“Okay!” Little Master Xiao Ning rubbed her fists.

When Gu Qiqi turned around and looked at the door again, that familiar figure had already disappeared.

“Why do I feel that that girl just now looks a little like Yun Qiao?” she muttered.

Xiao Ning laughed at her. “Have you gone crazy from thinking about Yun Qiao? How can Yun Qiao be here?”

In the female washroom.

Gu Qiqi removed her makeup and changed back into female clothing.

Xiao Ning didn’t bring any clothes with her to change into, and the wet spot was too embarrassing. It happened to be the area where her legs reached her navel... Fortunately, the washroom in this five-star hotel had a hairdryer. She took it off and slowly dried it.

“I’ll wait for you outside.” Gu Qiqi walked out of the female washroom.

Soon.

CEO Liu jogged into the men’s washroom.

A second later.

The men in the washroom covered their noses and ran out.

“Why is this person so smelly? Could it be that he pulled his pants?”

“Definitely. Didn’t you see him fart straight after entering?”

“Eh? Isn’t that CEO Liu? It’s that man who likes to play with little boys. Have you heard of him? He probably can’t hold back his defecation... right?”

For a moment, everyone guessed.

In the washroom, President Liu was defecating and vomiting. He collapsed on the toilet and was in so much pain. It was as if he had lost half his life.

He had really gone for wool and come home shorn!

Gu Qiqi didn’t drink his medicine, but he didn’t know what he had eaten and drank that had ruined his stomach.

He was indignant!

The little dirty turtle returned with a sly smile to claim credit. “Master Silver, I followed your instructions and added medicine to his cup. It’s equivalent to drinking a pot of coffee!”

Gu Qiqi smiled lightly. “Yes. An eye for an eye.”

As she spoke, a man suddenly rushed out from the crowd that was watching the commotion.

Caught off guard, he bumped into the female washroom.

Gu Qiqi moved aside and remembered that Xiao Ning was still in the female washroom. How could she let this pervert in?

Then, she stretched out her hand and pulled that man's wrist back.

The man turned around and revealed a sinister smile. "Gu Qiqi, go to hell..."

A sharp scalpel suddenly appeared in his palm!

Gu Qiqi's pupils shrank!

It came so unexpectedly that everyone was caught off guard!

She recognized that man's distorted and hateful face!

==

At the same time, in the presidential suite upstairs.

The doorbell rang three times.

The subordinate reported respectfully outside the door in a low voice, "President, there's a commotion downstairs. Someone has attacked with a knife. Your schedule today has been leaked. We suspect that a S Nation spy has sneaked in. Do you think our people should take action..."

Gong Sheng walked out of the bathroom in a black bathrobe.

His face was 90% similar to Gong Jue's, but it exuded a determined aura.

The man's face was as deep as a pool. It was as if he wouldn't change his expression even if Mount Tai collapsed in front of him. He wouldn't be moved even if the world was overturned. That calmness belonged to the leader of this country alone!

No one could tell the slightest emotion from his face!

He was such a superior who didn't allow anyone to spy on him. He also wouldn't easily reveal any emotions! It was the opposite of Gong Jue's simple and crude attitude. He was too deep and unpredictable. No one could think of seeing through his emotions.

He had just taken a cold shower and still had a splitting headache.

He turned to look at the king's bed in the room. The girl who had accidentally been with him for hours had already left...

Only that small stain of dazzling red blood on the bed sheets was especially charming like peach blossoms after the first rain.

Business was important and he had no time to care about anything else.

Gong Sheng said coldly, "Seal the scene and arrest him!"

Chapter 643: Blood On Her Face!

Gong Sheng gave the order and his subordinate immediately informed the guards to take action.

However, when they arrived at the scene, they were stunned by what they saw!

How was this an assassination from a S Nation spy? It was impossible. That man only had brute force, but his skills were terrible.

He raised a dissection knife and stabbed it at a young girl who was filled with valiance. However, she twisted his wrist in a very agile manner. With a cracking sound, his wrist was fractured!

His pig-like scream was painful to hear!

How could she be a spy from S Nation? He couldn't even beat a little girl with such weak skills, okay?

But he was ordered to come and arrest him. The guard-chief could only shout, "Stop! Put down the knife! Bring him back for interrogation!"

In the men's washroom, CEO Liu, who was about to collapse, supported himself against the door frame. When he came out and saw this scene, he was so frightened that half of his pants fell off. He stammered, "Brother... Brother-in-law?"

Wasn't the person who held the knife his sister-in-law's husband, Chief Zhao from the original discipline office at the Empire Medical University?

He heard that he had been expelled from school recently and had been rejected everywhere he was looking for a job. He was very down and out.

Even his sister-in-law despised this Zhao person for not having money to take home and insisted on a divorce.

Why was this Zhao guy using a knife to attack a female student?

That girl...

When CEO Liu saw Gu Qiqi's profile, he was shocked!

Ordinary people might not be able to tell Gu Qiqi's male and female clothing, including CEO Liu previously. But he had just met Young Master Ye whom he had been thinking about a few minutes ago. When he turned around and looked at Gu Qiqi's female clothing, he was shocked!

It turned out that that Young Master Ye just now... was a woman?

No, wait. Was Young Master Ye cross-dressing as a male or female?

CEO Liu was in a daze. His heart beat faster and faster.

Be it male or female, this person was simply a seductive demon.

Even though he had vomited and was half-dead just now, when he looked at Gu Qiqi's outstanding beauty at this moment, he couldn't help but have evil thoughts again.

This was a chance! A chance to perform and get the heart of a beauty!

Taking advantage of the chaos, he secretly moved behind Gu Qiqi and assumed a posture of a hero saving a beauty. “Brother-in-law, quickly put down the knife and let go of this little beauty. I know her. She’s my—Ah!”

He had the heart to save a beauty, but the beauty was cold to him.

Gu Qiqi’s eyes were cold. She turned around and kicked CEO Liu’s heart ruthlessly.

CEO Liu, who had already been emptied by alcohol and sex and had vomited and had diarrhea just now, was left with a weak shell. Like a fat kite with a broken string, he was kicked to the ground and his head knocked against the marble floor. He immediately fainted.

Everyone couldn’t help but cover their noses and look at CEO Liu in disdain. He really overestimated himself. The beauty was skilled. Why would she need a d*mned fatty like you to save her?

Just as Gu Qiqi was about to deal with CEO Liu...

Director Zhao, who had his wrist twisted, suddenly moved.

His eyes were turbid and unfocused. It was as if he had been hypnotized. He kept mumbling, “Kill Gu Qiqi... Kill Gu Qiqi... Gu Qiqi ruined my life. I want to kill Gu Qiqi...”

His wrist was already crippled and the knife in his hand was useless.

His head slammed into Gu Qiqi!

The little dirty turtle cried out in fear, “Master, be careful!”

Gu Qiqi dodged it quickly. Director Zhao bumped into her shoulder and she narrowly avoided it.

She frowned.

The clothes on her arm had been cut open... There was actually a blade hidden in the hat on Director Zhao’s head!

This was unexpected.

This was definitely not an attack that ordinary people could think of.

“Tell me, who let you come here?!” Gu Qiqi said in a low voice.

However, Director Zhao couldn’t speak anymore.

The sharp blade cut open Gu Qiqi’s arm. Although it was a long and slender wound, blood vessels split open and a small amount of blood spurted out!

Blood spurted straight onto Director Zhao’s face.

Chapter 644: Her Poisonous Blood Was Exposed!

The moment the blood spurted onto Director Zhao’s face, the man’s expression froze.

His face was filled with small and dense wounds. Once her blood splashed on his face, the wounds quickly absorbed the blood and his entire person revealed a strange expression!

Her eyes bulged and he laughed dryly.

Thump!

He fell to the ground!

What was different from CEO Liu's fainting was that once Director Zhao fell to the ground, his face immediately turned ashen like a corpse.

The guard captain never expected that in a flash, before they could catch anyone, the criminals had already fallen one after another.

He stretched out her hand and checked Director Zhao's breathing. It had actually stopped!

This person was really dead.

Attacking someone with a knife was a very serious crime to begin with. He deserved to die. Gu Qiqi who was attacked was completely in self-defense.

But the problem was...

Gu Qiqi only twisted his wrist and didn't retaliate fatally.

How did this man die?

Before he died, he even knocked his head against Gu Qiqi desperately. It was unknown what sharp object was hidden in his hat that cut through Gu Qiqi's skin.

Gu Qiqi was injured, but he was only stained with Gu Qiqi's blood...

The guard captain and the surrounding crowd simultaneously stared at Gu Qiqi with complicated expressions...

A group of reporters suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

Some people took photos wildly with their cameras. Some people raised microphones and held small booklets as they asked loudly,

"Miss, what feud do you have with the deceased? Why did you insist on killing him?"

"Miss, I saw that you deliberately smeared the blood on the deceased just now. Is it because your blood is special and can injure people?"

"Please tell us. Was the deceased poisoned by your blood?"

"Are you from the Empire? What's so special about your blood?"

"What schemes do you have against the Empire? I heard that Mr. President invited foreign guests to the Empire State Building today. Do you have any intentions..."

These reporters' questions became sharper.

Initially, the surrounding people only suspected Gu Qiqi's blood a little. After being guided by this, everyone looked at Gu Qiqi with fear in their eyes.

Could this woman be a monster? She could kill with her blood?

She was a biological weapon modified by another country?

Are you here to assassinate our President?

Or was she here to cause trouble for civilians like them?

Fear was like an infectious disease. Once it flared up, it was difficult to control!

The crowd became restless. They pushed and squeezed as they shouted chaotically with the reporters.

“Catch this woman!”

“She’s a monster!”

“She’s poisonous!”

“Kill her!”

The guard captain didn’t expect that the situation would suddenly turn around like this.

Initially, he thought that the criminal wasn’t a foreign spy, nor was he here to sneak an attack on the president. Furthermore, he died on the spot. Then, he could take it as an ordinary case and send him to the police station. He didn’t expect that the real danger was this little girl who had been attacked!

It was difficult to control the crazy crowd. He dug out his walkie-talkie and cautiously and quickly summoned reinforcements. “Requesting support. Requesting support. Everyone gather on the first floor! Seal the hotel! Transfer the experts from the news office to deal with the media!”

Regardless of whether the reporters were holding onto the truth or not, this girl had already caused the citizens to panic. He had to arrest this girl.

Otherwise, if it caused a more serious conflict or rumor, he wouldn’t be able to explain it to the President!

After all, the President had just taken office. The stability of the situation was the most important thing.

The presidential guards’ mobility was super strong. They weren’t inferior to Gong Jue’s Iron Blood Thirteen Cavalry.

In an instant, the crowd was separated. Those clamoring reporters were “invited” into a suite. A professional news expert was executing the gag order.

Gu Qiqi had to be separately dealt with.

The guard captain walked to her personally. “Miss, you have to come with me.”

Chapter 645: What Scary Things Would They Do To Qiqi?

Gu Qiqi noticed the tone of this man in uniform when he spoke to her. He didn’t say “Please come with me to investigate the situation”, but “You have to come with me.”

An unquestionable order!

On what basis?

She said coldly, "I don't know you. Move!"

The guard captain was stunned.

He had been by the President's side for many years and was long used to giving orders to the outside world. No one had dared to resist when he was executing a mission.

This little girl looked so young but was actually so arrogant. She was quite bold!

The corners of his lips twitched. He said, "It's fine if you don't know me. There's someone you know here... Bring her here!" He waved his hand.

"Qiqi! You gave me a fright! What happened? Was it because we made a mistake just now and entered the men's washroom to change our clothes? Or was it because I used the hair dryer for too long and it used too much electricity that they wanted to fine me? What a bunch of petty people..."

Xiao Ning was still mumbling innocently. Behind her, two strong men in uniform were controlling her.

Gu Qiqi facepalmed and glared fiercely at the guard captain.

It turned out that he was using Xiao Ning to threaten her!

"Come with me. I promise to let your friend go."

"Deal!"

Gu Qiqi squinted.

Did they think that they could do whatever they wanted after taking her away? Oh, these people might have underestimated her destructive power.

Perhaps, she would make these people regret taking her away.

Xiao Ning watched as Gu Qiqi left with a group of men and left her where she was. No matter how innocent she was, she still felt that something was wrong.

"Hey, Qiqi, you... Wait for me..."

Just as she was about to leave, she was stopped by an expert who walked out from a suite behind her.

"Miss, may I know if you were at the crime scene just now?"

Xiao Ning was dumbfounded.

The expert said, "I'm sorry, but you have to come in and sign a confidentiality agreement. This is related to national secrets. You have to promise not to mention anything that happened just now to anyone..."

For some reason, Xiao Ning was pulled into the room and signed a non-disclosure agreement. She was also educated psychologically for at least half an hour before she was allowed to leave.

After walking out of the hotel in a daze, she finally understood why those people wanted to take Gu Qiqi away.

It turned out that such a big crime had happened outside the washroom just now!

These people came from the country's highest institution, the presidential palace!

They had to silence everyone present.

They suspected that Gu Qiqi was a poisonous weapon sent by the enemy!

Before everything was investigated, no one was allowed to accept any media interviews or leak any information about today's matter to the public. Otherwise, they would be severely punished by the country.

They might even sue her for leaking national secrets or even sentence her to death.

What a serious matter!

More importantly, Qiqi was implicated and taken away!

Xiao Ning shivered.

How terrifying. What would they do to Qiqi?

All kinds of torture tools flashed across her mind...

"Wuwuwuwu, no! Don't let Qiqi be bullied... Wuwuwu, Qiqi was protecting me just now so that they wouldn't take me away too. That's why she followed them obediently..." Xiao Ning finally reacted completely and was even more annoyed.

Ring...

In the bag in her hand, Gu Qiqi's phone rang.

Xiao Ning stopped whimpering and looked up.

Man with erectile dysfunction?

The words on the caller ID were so strange.

She picked up the call.

The man's low and domineering voice was filled with strength. "Stupid woman, where are you? I've already arranged a meeting with the person you want to see. You don't have class on Friday afternoon. Ugly wife, follow me to meet your in-laws..."

Chapter 646: Gu Qiqi Lying Beside His Brother

Ugly wife! Meeting her in-laws!

Xiao Ning nearly froze.

When did Qiqi hide a wild man in her phone?

How far had they progressed?!

A series of shocks made Xiao Ning almost speechless.

Her throat was dry. After a while, she asked timidly, "No..."

On the other end of the call, Gong Jue's face darkened when he heard this unfamiliar woman's voice and those shocking words.

"Who are you?"

The man's cold question made Xiao Ning shiver for some reason and she hung up the call.

What a terrifying man...

He was actually more terrifying than her uncle.

Qiqi even told her to take note of her safety with her uncle. Why did she feel that this unfamiliar man in Qiqi's phone was more terrifying?

Xiao Ning looked at the caller ID that kept ringing on her phone again. Her palm seemed to have been scalded and she simply turned it off!

With a long face, she no longer hesitated. This time, she used her phone to call Bai Yeyuan. "Little Uncle, I beg you to help me save Qiqi. Qiqi was taken away by the presidential people... Help me save her. I promise you anything..."

"Promise me everything?" Bai Yeyuan raised a meaningful smile.

After hanging up the call, he thought for a while.

Gu Qiqi?

Wasn't she the other female student that Gong Jue went to save when Bai Mori was kidnapped and fell into the river previously?

Also, that female student whom Gong Jue personally went to Lan Ting to support when Qing Yuxuan's cocktail party was ruined previously...

There was even that time when he hurriedly brushed past Gong Jue outside the principal's office at the Empire Medical University. Gong Jue also personally appeared for a certain "disobedient child"...

In a flash, all the pieces of clues combined together. Bai Yeyuan's heart lit up. He curled his lips and called Gong Jue. "Master Jue, I'll sell you a piece of news that you'll definitely be interested in..."

If Xiao Ning knew that she had aggrievedly agreed to any of Bai Yeyuan's requests but in the end, he still made a call to Gong Jue, she would probably feel like vomiting blood and dying.

The trap was deep! It wasn't easy to be a white rabbit!

==

Half an hour ago.

Bai Mori, who had sneaked out of the ward, hid in a blind spot outside the Empire State Building and watched as Director Zhao's corpse was carried out.

The development of the matter was somewhat different from what she had expected.

She knew that Xiao Ning would meet Gu Qiqi today. Gong Sheng happened to be holding a banquet at the Empire State Building as well. After the banquet, Gong Sheng would take an afternoon nap in the presidential suite as usual and handle official business at the same time.

According to her plan, she first used her conversation with Gong Sheng's personal doctor to apply a powerful hallucinogen on Gong Sheng's teacup. Then, she found the downtrodden Director Zhao and hypnotized him forcefully!

Director Zhao hated Gu Qiqi to begin with. He would definitely fight Gu Qiqi to the death in the hotel!

As long as Director Zhao followed her hypnotic guidance and used his head to hit any part of Gu Qiqi's body, cut open Gu Qiqi's blood vessels, and died under Gu Qiqi's blood on the spot, her plan would be more than half successful!

The reporters that she had arranged would definitely publicize the scandal of Gu Qiqi being a biological weapon to the world.

The Gong family would definitely not accept a monster as a daughter-in-law!

This was only the first step.

There was also something that would cause Gu Qiqi to be consigned to eternal damnation...

She had long calculated that the people around Gong Sheng would definitely suggest capturing Gu Qiqi, this vicious person, and bring her to Gong Sheng for interrogation.

As for Gong Sheng...

Heh heh!

He would eat Gu Qiqi until nothing was left!

When Gong Jue arrived and saw Gu Qiqi lying on his good brother's bed... That scene must be super exciting!

Chapter 647: Once This Man Was Ignited...

Bai Mori had been lying low for the past few days and pretending to be dead in the hospital to lower the vigilance of Gong Jue and the rest. She had been waiting for such a good opportunity to take her shot!

When she saw Director Zhao's corpse being carried out, she knew that the first step was already a success.

Once the matter of Gu Qiqi's blood being poisoned was revealed, there would be no place left in the Empire for her.

Furthermore, once the news reached S Nation, that ruthless General Teuton would definitely send an even more powerful killer to take Gu Qiqi's blood!

Bai Mori was feeling good both physically and mentally as she waited for the ultimate blow of the second step.

But she didn't expect to see Gong Sheng walk out surrounded by a group of followers!

Her heart skipped a beat!

No way!

Gong Sheng looked quite strong. Furthermore, it was said that he had never had a woman by his side during his time as the Vice-President. There weren't even any rumors about him, and no one had seen him enter a romantic place before.

Logically speaking, once such a clean man was ignited, he would be very terrifying and fierce...

How could his flame be extinguished in just a few minutes?

Could it be that Gu Qiqi was too capable and made Gong Sheng surrender immediately?

That wasn't right either. According to the medicine's effect, a few hours were needed before it subsided.

Bai Mori couldn't help but adjust her glasses. She took a few steps forward and tried to find out more about the situation up close.

The man's cold words entered her ears. "Bring her to interrogate and detain her! Make sure she confesses which country..."

Bai Mori was delighted.

It seemed that Gu Qiqi was still caught!

That meant that Gong Sheng had really done it with Gu Qiqi...

She quickly took a photo of Gong Sheng's car.

The flashbulb clicked. Gong Sheng's guard captain looked back warily.

Bai Mori quickly hid her phone and walked over confidently to greet him. "Captain Zhou, what a coincidence!"

Captain Zhou recognized Bai Mori and nodded politely. After escorting Gong Sheng's car away, he said, "I heard that Miss Bai is sick. Why did you come out today?"

"My old master loves to eat snacks from the Empire State Building. His appetite wasn't good today, so I specially came over to bring some for him."

"Miss Bai, your filial piety is commendable."

"You're being too kins... Eh, who did they catch?"

"A felon who just killed someone. It's best if you don't come into contact with such a person, Miss Bai, in case you get into trouble."

"Yes."

Bai Mori smiled and pretended that nothing had happened. Holding an exquisite handbag, she saw Gu Qiqi, who had been escorted out.

The moment they brushed past each other, Bai Mori's lips moved slightly. "Country bumpkin, Gong Jue won't save you this time. Heh heh..."

Gu Qiqi turned her head and glanced coldly at Bai Mori.

Not many people knew about her blood poisoning. Bai Mori was one of them!

No wonder what happened today was so strange. It was probably related to this vicious woman!

Bai Mori thought that these words could ruthlessly attack Gu Qiqi.

But she never expected that...

Gu Qiqi's red lips parted slightly and she said coldly, "It doesn't matter if Gong Jue saves me or not. Anyway, under any circumstances, it's impossible for him to save you..."

Bai Mori choked. A wave of anger surged and she nearly fainted on the spot.

Gu Qiqi's mouth was too vicious!

She deliberately poked at her where it hurt.

On the lakeside of Number Eight teaching building at the Empire Medical University, Gong Jue watched as she was held hostage in mid-air by a killer. She even fell into the water in a sorry state. He didn't have the intention to save her at all. Instead, he was wholeheartedly focused on saving Gu Qiqi...

She really hated it. Her gaze was fixed on Gu Qiqi's exquisite and fair face. She couldn't wait to poke a few holes in that face.

Captain Zhou shouted from behind, "Miss Bai, stay away from the prisoner! It's dangerous!"

Bai Mori staggered and left angrily in her high heels.

Chapter 648: Gong Jue's Head Was Green

Bai Mori walked to the hotel entrance. Only then did she secretly turn back and quickly take a photo of Gu Qiqi's profile.

Yes, she had all the photos of Gong Sheng and Gu Qiqi. It was just nice that she could find an expert to photoshop them into a flawless photo. It would look like the scene of Gong Sheng and Gu Qiqi getting into the car together...

Later, she would think of a way to check the surveillance photos at the door of the presidential suite and confirm the scene of Gu Qiqi walking into the sacred room.

Even if Gong Jue didn't catch the adulterer on the spot, she would still give Gong Jue a rather shocking photo! Heh heh!

Would the fake photo be exposed?

Of course not! Which man could calmly verify the authenticity of the photo after being cuckolded?

Furthermore, the pictures that she would create were a mix of reality and lies!

Yes, if it was possible, she could find someone to be a voice dub and make some noise to extinguish his soul... She could guarantee that when Gong Jue heard this, his head would turn green and he would instantly want to kill someone!

Haha!

==

At the presidential palace.

In the dungeon.

Gu Qiqi was locked in a prison. The steel door was locked.

The entire cell was air-tight and pitch-black. When a prisoner was locked in, he was like a piece of cake that had been stuffed into a box and was at the mercy of others.

In the dead silence.

The little dirty turtle suddenly said in pleasant surprise, "Master Silver, the color points are rising! Is someone hating you to the bone again?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Should she be happy to have so many enemies and everyone wanted her to die?

The little dirty turtle spun around happily. "Master Silver, actually, it's not all contributed by bad people. You and Master Jue have been kissing frequently recently. Please work hard to continue maintaining it, because we can activate new skill points soon!"

"Oh? Can you activate a new skill?" Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. As she had been gambling stones a lot recently, she had consumed a lot of energy points. She initially thought that it would be a long time before she could accumulate 100,000 energy points.

However, after being reminded by the little dirty turtle... She also suddenly realized that she had been quite close to Gong Jue recently... This situation changed for the better. She didn't expect that there would be more.

So, when Gong Jue's wolf-like sexual episode happened next, should she try her best to cooperate and let him kiss her longer?

She blushed.

Pfft! Gu Qiqi, you have no morals! You've learned bad things!

The little dirty turtle was still happily introducing the new skill to her. "Master Silver, are we going to do something new this time or upgrade our old skills? The new ones include cooking, hypnotizing, and fortune-telling..."

"What about the old ones?"

“We can increase our martial strength by another level or activate other martial arts skills. There are also many small skills that can be activated regarding your medical expertise...”

“Activate my medical expertise!” Gu Qiqi didn’t hesitate at all.

Although the previous skills were very attractive, she didn’t forget her original intention.

Since she was reborn, her greatest wish was to improve her medical expertise and treat Xiaobei.

Last time, she only used her skills to identify poisons. It was really not enough.

She wondered if the upgrade of color points this time would give her a shocking skill?

The little dirty turtle agreed and worked hard to help her convert energy points. “996,997,998...”

In the darkness, the two of them enjoyed a rare moment of silence.

After a long time.

Bam!

The piercing and scorching ceiling lights were turned on.

The strong light made Gu Qiqi’s eyes feel very uncomfortable. She squinted. When she opened them again, she realized that this was the usual method of interrogating criminals.

Strong light! High heat!

The motive was to disturb her mind and force out the answer that the other party wanted.

Chapter 649: Gained A Strange Skill

Indeed, in the very next second, a stern questioning voice traveled from the top of the enclosed steel wall. “Tell me, are you someone sent by S Nation? What’s with the blood on your body? Are you human or an anomaly?”

Ah, she was suspected of being a monster.

Gu Qiqi laughed instead of getting angry. “Your skills are so brilliant. Won’t you know if I’m a human or a ghost if you throw me onto the autopsy table for testing?”

“How presumptuous! We gave you a chance to confess. If you don’t cherish it, then don’t blame us for being impolite!”

“Oh, will you be polite to me if I tell you the truth? Yes, I want to drink mulberry juice. Do you have it?”

The interrogator was trembling with anger. This was the first time he had seen such a bold prisoner who actually dared to bargain!

There must be something wrong with this woman!

“Before the question is answered to our satisfaction, don’t even think about drinking a mouthful of water!” Mulberry juice? Dream on!

Gu Qiqi said, "It's fine if you don't give it to me."

She simply closed her eyes to rest and couldn't be bothered with that voice.

The interrogator's mouth was dry. Gu Qiqi didn't respond at all.

He turned on the CCTV and couldn't help but jump. Damn it! This d*mned woman was actually asleep! She was asleep!

This was the first time he had seen such an arrogant and fearless prisoner.

Could it be that she was really an inhuman monster?

He heard that General Teuton from S Nation was very abnormal. He specialized in studying genetic medicine, various poisonous substances, and robots. It was said that he would peel the skin of young and beautiful girls, dry them, and wrap them around robots to transform them into maids. It was also said that he mixed humans with other species and made some strange poisonous people...

Which category was this "woman"?

Gritting his teeth, he asked his superior for instructions. "The female prisoner is very stubborn. She needs a severe punishment and her blood will be drawn for a blood test..."

Every word of his report entered the ears of Gu Qiqi, who had excellent hearing now.

The little dirty turtle exploded. "You actually dare to draw my master's blood? Ignorant human, do you know that my master can cut your throat with one slice?"

Gu Qiqi was very calm. "Activate new medical expertise!"

"Yes, Master!"

The little dirty turtle grinded its fists and wiped its claws. It gnashed its teeth and thought that it would definitely reveal a new medical expertise that would shock the world this time.

For example, those that could cut someone's throat from thousands of miles away... Hmph!

As the colored spots gathered together, the little dirty turtle muttered something. A faint golden glow gradually surged around Gu Qiqi.

Suddenly, her head hurt!

The excruciating pain lasted longer than the last time. Beads of sweat formed on Gu Qiqi's forehead.

After a while, she regained her consciousness!

When she opened her eyes again, they were unusually clear and powerful.

"What did I get?" Gu Qiqi asked in a low voice.

The little dirty turtle's tail twitched and it wailed. "Master Silver, another strange skill..."

Why couldn't it give its master some awesome mainstream skills? What a dirty system!

"Just say it."

“Cultivation?”

“Yes! It’s considered an intersection between medicine and pharmaceutical science. Master Silver, do you remember planting millettia root in the dense forest?”

“I remember.”

“Back then, we spent a long time pouring water and desperately spending energy points. The millettia root only grew to a certain size. This cultivation skill can shorten that process to a second.”

“Oh? How do I shorten it?” Gu Qiqi became interested.

“It’s about what you want to plant. For example, if you want to plant grass, you can casually sprinkle some seeds on the ground and they will turn into a green grassland in a second. But the problem is that we don’t plan on planting grass and herbs. This skill isn’t useful...”

Could it be used to plant green grass for Master Jue?

Chapter 650: New Skill, Awesome Flash!

The little dirty turtle really despised this skill! It wasn’t practical nor flashy. It wasn’t worthy of its genius Master.

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi raised her chin in satisfaction and curved her lips. “Who said that it’s useless? I think it’s very good.”

“Huh?” The little dirty turtle thought that it had heard wrongly.

Gu Qiqi smiled and didn’t say anything. She directly took out a purple fir seed.

The little dirty turtle was so shocked that its chin was about to fall off. “Master Silver, you aren’t going to try planting purple fir trees here, right?”

“Yes.” Gu Qiqi nodded lightly.

The little dirty turtle was speechless. Although its new skill was mediocre, its master’s thoughts were awesome!

But Master, I think that planting trees can be done slowly. Why don’t we take the time to study how to deal with those bastards who want to continue interrogating us... It’s more urgent.

A second later.

Seeing the terrifying effect of the purple fir that Gu Qiqi had planted, the little dirty turtle felt that its life had been in vain.

It turned out that skill points could be used like this! Its owner was too heaven-defying!

At the Gong family's old residence.

The video analysis expert was analyzing the surveillance footage from that night of the cocktail party frame by frame.

The duration was long and the characteristics of the person he was looking for weren't very clear. He only knew that it was a beautiful woman with big eyes. It was really difficult to find her.

The boy didn't feel tired at all. He stared intently at the CCTV screen.

Gong Jue watched the CCTV with him patiently.

Ever since this child came to his world, he rarely had the time to do something with him.

Although he was busy, he didn't know how to interact with children.

Simply speaking, he didn't have the patience.

But that night, when he and the boy chatted sincerely about Gu Qiqi and his big sister's status in each other's hearts and reached an initial consensus, his heart suddenly slowed down.

Perhaps he should do his duty as a father well and try to get closer to the boy. Perhaps this way, the boy would be able to accept the identity of that stupid woman as his wife more quickly...

Perhaps sensing Gong Jue's change in mood, the boy leaned closer to him and revealed a rare sense of dependence.

As the father and son approached each other, Gong Jue's phone rang.

Bai Yeyuan's voice traveled over faintly. "Master Jue, I'll sell you some news that you'll definitely be interested in..."

Gong Jue listened to Bai Yeyuan's call with a cold expression.

When he hung up the call, he was completely frozen!

At the same time, he was furious.

He had only been away from her for a day, but the secret of Gu Qiqi's blood had actually been exposed. She had even been arrested as a monster!

Did those stupid people want to know how the word "death" was written?!

In the presidential office.

Gong Sheng's secretary was so anxious that he was sweating profusely. He wanted to stop him but didn't dare to stop Gong Jue. "Master Jue, the President is in the middle of an important meeting. Can... Can you wait for a few minutes..."

"I can't wait a second!" Gong Jue pushed him away coldly and strode into the meeting room door. He walked straight towards the man in the master seat!

The eyes of the ministers in the row nearly fell out.

A bold person risked his life and muttered, "Master Jue, this is against the rules..."

Gong Jue glared at him coldly with murderous intent. "I make the rules!"

On the master seat, Gong Sheng frowned. "Nonsense! What urgent matter do you have to discuss? Let's talk after the meeting?"

Gong Jue's gaze was sharp. "I'm sorry, Mr. President. What I want to talk to you about now is an extremely urgent family matter!"

"Family matter?"

"Where did you hide your sister-in-law?!"
