

Dear Chief 68

Chapter 68: That Embarrassing Look

After Gu Qiqi received the confirmation from the little turtle,

He raised his eyebrows lightly. "Let's continue then."

Gu Xuexue's face stiffened. "I've already won!"

Gu Qiqi casually lifted Gong Jue's black diamond card and knocked it against the table. "It turns out that you can only afford half a kilogram. But I was planning to buy a lot more..."

That faint sneer was really asking for a beating.

Gu Xuexue was so angry that she froze. She took a deep breath. "You still want to compete?"

"You don't have the right to not participate. You have to volunteer."

"Get this straight. You're the one who can't afford it now!"

Gu Xuexue hadn't forgotten the disappointed and helpless expression on Gu Qiqi's face when she saw Gu Qiqi throw out 200,000 dollars just now.

Bookworm was pretending to be so arrogant now. She must be trying to scare her off on purpose so that she could collect the rest of the gel.

Hmph, no way!

Gu Xuexue stiffened her neck. "Let's continue then!"

In the very next second, Gu Qiqi shouted her price. "200,000."

Now that things had come to this, she really wanted to know how much private savings Gu Xuexue had, as well as the money that Gu Meifeng and Gu Qiushan gave her.

The Gu family had the money to splurge on Gu Xuexue but not the money to treat her younger brother's illness?

How chilling!

Upon hearing the starting price, Gu Xuexue's pupils dilated.

She was even more certain that Gu Qiqi didn't have money and was just pretending to be capable.

"Hmph, 500,000!"

"800,000!"

"One million!"

When Gu Xuexue shouted this number, her mind went blank for a moment.

But then, she realized that she had shouted too much out of impulse.

However, the nerd would definitely continue shouting, and then she would abruptly stop... Hahaha...

This wasn't a bad idea.

Unfortunately, Gu Qiqi stopped earlier than she expected.

"What a pity. It seems that I can only give it to you."

Gu Qiqi looked at her with a spurious smile.

That expression was really asking for a beating! It was asking for a beating!

When Gu Xuexue swiped the card, her heart wasn't bleeding. Instead, she was vomiting large mouthfuls of blood.

When she saw Gu Qiqi's irritating expression, the intense hatred in her heart made her blood boil. She blurted out on her own accord, "Let's compete again if you have the ability!"

On what basis did she have to spend so much money while Gu Qiqi didn't pluck a single strand of her hair?

"Okay." Gu Qiqi nodded calmly.

This time, the auction price quickly piled up to a million dollars.

When the price reached two million dollars...

Gu Xuexue initially intended to stop and let Gu Qiqi suffer. But when she saw Gu Qiqi's determined look, she couldn't help but start fighting with her again.

"2.5 million!"

Gu Xuexue was in a good mood after she shouted out this price.

But Gu Qiqi stopped again.

Damn it! She had been tricked again!

Gu Xuexue clenched her fists tightly. Her face was distorted.

"Miss Xue Xue, I don't think you can swipe your card anymore. The balance is zero..."

The card exploded!

The manager's reminder immediately shredded Gu Xuexue's thin skin into pieces!

There were sighs behind her.

Some people even recognized her.

"Oh my god! She seems to be Gu Meifeng's daughter!"

"Wasn't Gu Qiushan arrested? Her own elder uncle is in jail, but she still has the leisure to squander money here?"

“That’s over a million dollars. How stupid...”

Gu Xuexue felt terrible as if ants were biting her entire body as people gossiped about her.

Hatred! Frustration! Shame on her!

The negative emotions drowned her like seawater.

She slammed the counter hard. “Are you kidding me? Can you afford it?”

Gu Qiqi slowly curved her lips. “I’m sorry, but perhaps I can really afford it.”

She handed over the black diamond card to the manager. “2.5 million. Thank you!”

Actually, she wasn’t sure how much money was in that man’s card either.

Since she would return the favor anyway, why not give it a try?
