

Dear Chief 701

Chapter 701: Personally Exposing The Bitch's Lies (1)

Gu Xuexue saw that everyone was defending her and no one believed Gu Qiqi's words. She could not help but feel proud.

She was proud of herself, but she was afraid that she would expose herself if this matter continued. She quickly stopped and said obediently, "Sister Xinli, I believe that Qiqi doesn't mean to slander me. She's just too nervous about this school tournament. She might not want to give up that spot, so..."

She hesitated as if Gu Qiqi was bullying her on purpose and she looked very aggrieved.

Slander?

Gu Qiqi sneered. "Aren't you talking about evidence? The evidence is right in front of you."

Gu Xuexue shivered again.

Xu Xinli helped her up kindly. "Don't be afraid, Little Junior Sister. With me around, she won't dare to do anything to you."

As she spoke, she looked up at Gu Qiqi and said, "What evidence? If you can't produce any strong evidence today, not only will I definitely snatch the spot in this school tournament, you still have to apologize to my little junior sister and my boyfriend!"

Gu Qiqi laughed sarcastically. "You better not be too confident in your best friend and boyfriend. Otherwise, you'll be slapped in the face."

Xu Xinli's expression froze.

Gu Xuexue forced herself to calm down and comfort herself that it would not happen. Gu Qiqi was just bluffing. She would not have any evidence.

When she and Qin Zhiming did that, they went to a very well-hidden hotel to get a room. Two days ago, she and Mu Liuchuan were exposed. Qin Zhiming even pulled her home for a crazy night and gave her a gift to comfort her...

It was impossible for Gu Qiqi to know all this!

In the very next second.

Gu Qiqi suddenly took a step forward and grabbed her wrist, pulling her sleeve up!

Before Gu Xuexue could react, Gu Qiqi had already grabbed the golden watch on her wrist and waved it in front of everyone. "This is evidence. Irrefutable evidence of adultery!"

Gu Xuexue's face turned pale!

This was a gift from Qin Zhiming! She had deliberately kept a low profile and hid it in her sleeve because she did not want to be discovered.

Xu Xinli's eyes froze for a moment as she muttered, "No, this isn't true..."

However, the solid evidence in front of her could not lie.

Other people might not know about this Patek Philippe watch, but she knew very well that it was the one Qin Zhimin was wearing!

It was the same design!

How did it... end up on Gu Xuexue's wrist?

Gu Xuexue saw Xu Xinli's hesitant gaze and thought that it was bad. She did not care how Gu Qiqi knew her secret and quickly defended herself. "Sister Xinli, I... I bought this myself..."

"You bought it yourself? A few hundred thousand yuan Patek Philippe?" Xu Xinli frowned.

Of course not!

This watch was specially given to her by Qin Zhimi to comfort her that night.

Back then, when Gu Qiqi was doing a live broadcast of the retest in Qingcheng, she wore a Patek Philippe watch in front of the camera and was very stunning.

Until now, it was still unforgettable for Gu Xuexue.

Hence, when she saw that Qin Zhiming was wearing a watch similar to hers, she wanted to take it for herself and crush Gu Qiqi.

However, if she knew that Gu Qiqi's Patek Philippe was given to her by Gong Jue and was worth more than ten million yuan, she might vomit blood and die.

The same brand also had tiers to differentiate between dust and stars!

At this moment, Gu Xuexue naturally could not admit the truth.. She gritted her teeth and continued to fabricate a story. "Yes, it was my mother who rewarded me for getting into the Empire Medical University..."

Chapter 702: Personally Exposing The Bitch's Lies (1)

One lie required countless lies to cover it up. Fortunately, lying was Gu Xuexue's strength. Soon, she found a flawless excuse for herself.

Xu Xinli was a little unhappy.

Gu Xuexue usually dressed so plainly and ordinarily, but now, the reward she received for a university entrance examination was hundreds of thousands of yuan. Was Gu Xuexue's family background too good? Or was Gu Xuexue pretending to be too shabby?

However, this small unhappiness was still tolerable.

As long as Gu Xuexue and Qin Zhiming did not have an improper relationship, she could still forgive this junior sister of hers for hiding her wealth harmlessly.

Just as Xu Xinli was about to let Gu Xuexue go.

Gu Qiqi spoke again.

Haha, how could she let go of the opportunity to expose the bitch's true colors so easily?

She twisted Gu Xuexue's wrist forcefully and removed the Patek Philippe watch.

Then, she turned the dial and showed the back of his wristwatch to everyone.

"Gu Xuexue, I'll give you one last chance. Are you sure you bought this watch?"

Gu Xuexue's heart skipped a beat.

What was Gu Qiqi up to? Why did she have a bad feeling about this?

However, since the lie had been made up, how could she dare to admit that it was given by Qin Zhiming?

Wouldn't her senior tear her apart?

Gu Xuexue replied. "I, of course I'm sure! I personally went to the Patek Philippe counter to pick this..."

Gu Qiqi said, "There's no Patek Philippe counter in the capital. This watch is only sold in Italy."

Gu Xuexue protested. "I... I went to Italy during the summer vacation!"

Gu Qiqi said, "Oh? Then are you free to fly to Italy and pick a male watch to wear?"

Gu Xuexue said, "Yes, I like men's watches! Qiqi, why do you have to make things difficult for me? Is it wrong for me to wear my own watch? I feel helpless that I'm wearing the same watch as Senior Brother."

Gu Xuexue's unreasonable response made the dirty little turtle almost vomit.

Hey, hey, hey. A disgusting woman like you shouldn't insult a difficult thing like cross-dressing, okay?

Master Silver, why don't you quickly destroy her?

Oh, of course it was waiting for the most exciting attack.

Gu Qiqi forced Gu Xuexue to confirm that she had bought this watch herself. Suddenly, she smiled faintly. "Gu Xuexue, why is Qin Zhiming's name engraved on the watch you bought yourself?"

Her words completely destroyed Gu Xuexue's last line of defense!

With such big gossip, everyone rushed over. They had long forgotten about the fight for the spot in the school tournament. They were all curious to see if Qin Zhiming's name was engraved on the back of the watch.

Indeed!

Gu Qiqi was right.

The words carved neatly on the back of the Patek Philippe watch were none other than the dazzling words “Qin Zhiming”!

The room fell into a strange silence.

No one raised any questions. No one even defended Gu Xuexue.

This evidence was too obvious. It was a slap in the face!

Whatever Gu Xuexue had just said about personally flying to Italy to buy the watch was a huge joke.

There was a moment of silence.

Suddenly...

Bam!

There was a crisp sound.

Xu Xinli waved her hand and slapped Gu Xuexue hard.

“Bitch, so it’s you who seduced my man! Tell me, other than this watch, what else did you steal from him? You... Did you seduce him into sleeping with you?!”

Chapter 703: Destroying What the Bitch Cares About

“Senior Sister, listen to my explanation! No, it’s not me. I didn’t seduce Senior Brother. I just had a crush on him. Yes, I had a crush on him, that’s why I secretly carved his name on the back of the dial...” Gu Xuexue was dumbfounded from the beating and explained incoherently.

However, Xu Xinli’s temper was a little explosive. She was not a fool. “You have a crush on him? Haha, forget it, Gu Xuexue. You said that this is a new watch bought during the summer vacation. Why is there wear and tear on the watch that takes months to get flaws? You said that it’s a name carved because you have a crush on him? Then, other than having a crush on him, do you still have a crush on his mother? Do you still have to carve his mother’s birthday?”

On the back of the watch, other than Qin Zhiming’s name, there was a string of numbers.

That was Mother Qin’s birthday and Qin Zhiming’s own birthday to commemorate the deep bond between mother and son!

Other people might not know, but Gu Xuexue, who had not been with Qin Zhiming for long, would never know. Only a childhood friend like Xu Xinli would know the true meaning of this string of numbers.

Unfortunately, she had once thought that such a deep understanding was a especially romantic trait as it was like holding hands and growing old with him. Now, it was extremely ironic that it was used to catch adultery!

How ironic!

How sad!

So... angry!

After Xu Xinli asked her questions, she slapped Gu Xuexue's face without any pity.

Gu Xuexue was beaten until she could not retaliate at all. She did not even dare to dodge.

Her lie, a lie that she thought was flawless, was actually exposed with one poke!

Gu Qiqi...

Yes, it was all Gu Qiqi's fault!

Gu Xuexue looked up, but she was shocked by the smile in Gu Qiqi's eyes.

It was so scary. Why did she have the feeling that Gu Qiqi had completely seen through her?

Xu Xinli was tired from hitting her and stopped angrily. "Get lost! Don't let me see you again!"

Gu Xuexue cried. "Senior Xinli, give me another chance. I can explain to you..."

Xu Xinli said, "Your qualifications to participate in the school tournament are completely revoked!"

Gu Xuexue was shocked. "No! Senior, please..."

She was still hoping to shine in the school tournament and return to the Gu family to boast before convincing her grandfather to change his will and give her the Gu family's inheritance!

Xu Xinli said, "Also, from today onwards, no one from the Forensic Medical School is allowed to get close to Gu Xuexue. No one is allowed to help this bitch! Otherwise, it will be equivalent to going against me, Xu Xinli!"

Gu Xuexue collapsed to the ground.

Xu Xinli gave three orders in a row. Every word pierced her heart. They were all things she cared about.

Xu Xinli's status in the Forensic Medical School was equivalent to Gu Yuanyuan and Li Guanghui's status in the Clinical Medicine School.

If she was banned by Xu Xinli, her future would be even more miserable!

She still tried to beg, but she was chased out by her classmates from the Forensic Medical School.

The people from the Pharmaceutical school thought differently. This was their Pharmaceutical school. They should be the ones chasing people away! Although the slut deserves to be kicked out, it's so strange for you to look like the masters.

Actress!

Gu Xuexue was chased away. Xu Xinli took a deep breath and quickly withdrew from her anger and heartbreak.

She looked up at Gu Qiqi.. "Don't think that I'll let your Pharmaceutical School off just because you're making an issue out of your relationship with her! Hmph, although Gu Xuexue deserves to die and doesn't deserve to participate in the competition, you still have to give me all the spots you deserve!"

Seeing that you've done well in exposing Gu Xuexue, I don't want much this year. I only want two spots from you!"

Chapter 704: Gu Qiqi, You're Too Arrogant!

As she spoke, someone immediately brought over a piece of paper and a pen. On it was an agreement to voluntarily give up the qualifications for the competition, and it was waiting for all the new students from the Pharmaceutical school to sign it.

The people from the Forensic Medical School said arrogantly, "Anyway, if we give it to you, you're all useless and it'll be a waste!"

The new students from the Pharmaceutical School were furious. "Stop looking down on us! Aren't you all useless too? Why was even the student president fooled by a scumbag? And that scumbag was also from your Forensic Medical School! Oh right, even the mistress was from your school. You guys are really... elites!"

Xu Xinli's face turned pale from the sarcasm.

Just as everyone was arguing, Gu Qiqi said calmly, "If you want to snatch the spots, what's the use of talking? Show us your real ability! If you can really prove that you're more awesome in the medical field and that we're useless, then we'll hand over the two spots. If you can't prove it..."

"Hehe, are we afraid of you? You want to compete in advance, right? If I can't win against you, I'll give you my spot!" Xu Xinli said bluntly.

That was what Gu Qiqi was waiting for.

Her lips curled. "Both of them."

It was a small matter to make a deal.

"Two then!" Xu Xinli gritted her teeth and agreed. "Let's have a match. Whoever loses will give up two spots!"

"Deal!"

The people from the Pharmaceutical school were elated.

Only other colleges had come to bully them. No one had ever dared to retaliate before.

However, ever since Gu Qiqi came, the situation changed little by little.

Gu Qiqi would dare to go against those arrogant schools!

How domineering!

They loved it!

They admired her so much!

However...

After calming down, everyone could not help but be worried. The other party was a senior from the Forensic Medical School, and not a new star student like Han Bingyue.

Could Gu Qiqi really defeat this Senior Sister?

“What are we competing on?” The question that everyone was most concerned about was about.

Xu Xinli was straightforward. “You’re my Little Junior Sister. You suggest something!”

If she mentioned corpse examination, wouldn’t Gu Qiqi and the rest lose without competing?

This victory was not glorious.

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes. Just based on Xu Xinli’s open-mindedness, her ruthlessness when she faced Gu Xuexue just now, and her confidence in leaving that heartless man behind after a second, she could not really hate Xu Xinli.

Perhaps this was an opportunity for her to use this forensic medicine senior sister...

After all, Xu Xinli would be one of the best in the forensic medicine field in the future.

If she wanted someone to be convinced by her, what should she do?

Gu Qiqi squinted.

Of course, it had to be something she was most proud of!

Without thinking, she said calmly, “How about dissecting corpses.”

“What?!!!”

Everyone present, regardless of whether they were students from the Forensic Medical School and Pharmaceutical School, gasped in disbelief.

This... Gu Qiqi, aren’t you too arrogant?

You’re competing with a top student from the Forensic Medical School in dissection?

This was just trying to show off!

==

On the Imperial Medical University campus.

Gong Qing and Songsong were standing outside the school.

Songsong was a little helpless. “Hubby, Dad already drank the medicine that Miss Qiqi sent over this morning and applied the ointment that Miss Qiqi personally prescribed. He said that he felt relaxed, and it was obvious that Miss Qiqi’s medicine was effective. What else are you worried about? You insisted on coming to Feng Yangchu to verify if the medicine was poisonous. Now that Feng Yangchu has said that this medicine is very good, and that the person who prescribed the medicine must be an expert in the medical world. Why are you still hesitating?”

“Hmph, what expert? She’s clearly a fake!” Gong Qing snorted and suddenly pointed at a small figure in the classroom. “One look and I can tell that she’s ignorant, incompetent, and causing trouble everywhere! Otherwise, why would so many people surround her and attack her?!”

In the classroom, Gu Qiqi stood proudly in the middle of everyone.. Coupled with everyone’s surprised gazes, she looked like she was indeed being troubled by everyone.

Chapter 705: Let’s See How You Try To Seek Death

In Gong Qing’s eyes, Gu Qiqi was wrong whether she spoke or not. She was wrong whether she stood or sat down.

In short, he was certain that this woman who had suddenly entered his son’s life had ulterior motives!

It was Songsong who said something fair. “That’s not right, Hubby. Why do I hear all the students in the classroom shouting for Qiqi to work hard and destroy the Forensic Medical School? They seem to be very supportive of her. It sounds like she’s the best student representative in the Pharmaceutical school.”

The corners of Gong Qing’s lips twitched and his old face turned slightly red. “You, you heard wrong!”

Songsong was speechless at this stubborn old man. She tugged at his sleeve and said softly, “Hubby, look, they’re out! I think they’re going to the anatomy laboratory for a competition. Let’s go take a look, okay?”

“Who wants to see the dissection of a corpse? Hmph, I’m not going!”

“Well, didn’t you say that she’s ignorant and incompetent? Perhaps when she goes to the anatomy room, you’ll... find evidence that she’s really ignorant and incompetent? Then you can use the evidence to make your son give up.” Songsong held back her smile and persuaded him seriously.

“Yes, then go!” A certain arrogant old man abandoned his principles in a second.

In an anatomy laboratory at the Medical University.

The anatomy laboratory was usually not open to the public. As Xu Xinli was the president of the student union, and her father had sponsored the school with this anatomy laboratory, the laboratory was easily opened to the students on her request.

The students from the Forensic Medical School and Pharmaceutical School entered one after another. Soon, the huge laboratory was filled with people.

At this moment, someone shouted from outside the door, “Make way, make way. I want to go in to find my master!”

Qiu Qiu waved his fat hands and squeezed through the crowd. He squeezed his way to Gu Qiqi. “Master! I’m late! I heard that someone wants to challenge you. I came to see how the person is courting death. Hehe!”

Gu Qiqi smiled helplessly.

Xu Xinli's expression darkened. "Shut up, Qiu Qiu!"

Qiu Qiu made a face. "I only listen to Master's words! Hmph, I'll only close it if Master tells me to!"

He was simply a super fanboy and loyal dog.

Hearing this, Xu Xinli's heart ached again.

Damn it, even one of Gu Qiqi's disciples was more loyal than the man she had known since childhood.

If she did not defeat Gu Qiqi today, it would be hard to vent her anger.

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows at Qiu Qiu. "Where's Xiaolan?"

"Master, Xiaolan seems to have something on at home these two days. She took leave!"

"Yes. Then do you want to participate in the school tournament?"

"Of... Of course I want to! Those who can participate in the school tournament are all awesome influential figures. Master, I even dream of being glorious. When I return, I want my mother, who is so vain, to be happy! But... I'm a loser. How can I have the ability to participate..." Qiu Qiu scratched his head.

Gu Qiqi smiled slightly. "Master will earn a spot for you. Including Xiaolan, the two of you will participate with me."

"Really? That's great! Let's go see the world with Master!"

The people from the Forensic Medical School darkened. Why was this master and disciple so confident that they could win?

Come on, today's competition was their forensic medical school's specialty, dissecting corpses!

Gu Qiqi was just a new student. She had never even seen a corpse before, right?!

Why was she being so arrogant?

Xu Xinli said angrily, "Are you ready? If you are, let's start!"

"I'm fine." Gu Qiqi looked up calmly. "Is it a system dissection or a local one?"

Xu Xinli was stunned when she heard Gu Qiqi's words.

She did not expect a young freshman to know that human anatomy was divided into system anatomy and local anatomy!

Chapter 706: Confidence

After Xu Xinli was shocked, she quickly calmed down.

Gu Qiqi's words were indeed professional, but so what?

Any anatomical textbook would clearly state this classification. One could even find it on Baidu.

However, a real dissection had to be carried out with a knife.

Being a bookworm was useless!

Once she went onto the anatomy table, her strength would be revealed!

“System’s anatomy is difficult. Don’t let others say that our Forensic Medical School is bullying you! Or should we just perform a local anatomy and cut off fingers and noses?” Xu Xinli instructed her junior brothers. “Pick one out from the corpse pool! Wash the formalin. That smell is too disgusting!”

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi announced directly, “There’s no need to give in to us. We’ll just do a system dissection. It’s a loss even if we lose an organ.”

Her faint declaration shocked everyone in the Forensic Medical School.

Oh my god, even though they had studied in the Forensic Medical School for two to three years, they could not guarantee that their system dissection would be complete and correct.

There were so many internal organs in the human body. Sometimes, even the gallbladder could not be found, okay? Also, the uterus and bladder would be confusing...

Was Gu Qiqi pretending to know or was she bluffing?

She actually dared to boast like this. Wouldn’t she be slapping herself in the face if she lost later?

Xu Xinli did not care about her at all. “Since you don’t need us to be lenient, then we’ll won’t go easy on you! System dissection! Carry the newly arrived corpses over!”

Originally, the parts that Forensic Medical School students used for regional anatomy were all treated in the corpse pool. The corpses that had been soaked in medicine for at least half a year had their blood frozen and their muscle tissues stiff, making it easier to dissect.

However, the corpse for system anatomy dissection had to be fresh. If it was fresh and not treated, the difficulty of dissection was more than ten times greater.

Even an experienced professor might be sprayed with blood during the process.

When everyone heard Xu Xinli’s instructions, they could not help but mock Gu Qiqi in their hearts. She was bound to lose this time.

How dare a useless person from the pharmaceutical school dissect a fresh corpse and find all the organs? This was simply a fantasy.

Some of the junior brothers from the forensic medical school carried the corpses specimen up. Another person brought the scalpels over.

Gu Qiqi looked at the scalpel in her hand. It was old and serrated. It would be difficult to even cut pork, let alone dissect a corpse.

But she didn’t say anything.

On the other hand, Xu Xinli reprimanded the student. “What are you doing? Don’t do such sneaky things! Bring the latest scalpels! Don’t let others say that our competition is unfair!”

The student shyly replaced the old knife in Gu Qiqi's hand.

The new one was naturally much sharper.

Everyone could not help but praise her secretly. Sister Xinli was really fair. She refused to take advantage of such a small detail. Her character was really good!

Gu Qiqi did not think much of it. She knew that Xu Xinli might not be a bad person, but it was not necessarily fair for her to change the knife in public.

She was confident that Gu Qiqi would lose anyway. Even if she exchanged the best knife for her, it would not hurt her and it would not change the outcome.

Then, if she did not cheat, wouldn't it appear that her victory was more admirable?

"The countdown begins! The dissection must end within an hour!"

"An hour?" Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows.

"Why? Not enough? I'm sorry, forensic anatomy dissection is just that cruel. No one will have the time to wait for you to dissect the corpse for an entire day!" Xu Xinli said proudly.

But in the next second...

Gu Qiqi smiled faintly.

Chapter 707: Real Star Student

Gu Qiqi smiled faintly and said calmly, "Why use an hour? Everyone's time is precious. Cut it short."

Everyone was shocked!

Gu Qiqi, can you not be so arrogant?

Xu Xinli frowned. "How long do you think it will take?"

In fact, if she moved faster, half an hour was also possible. She had created a record of a little more than half an hour in the Internal Skills Examination of the academy, and no one had broken it until now.

However, she was in good condition that day. She might not be able to guarantee that she would be done in half an hour today.

Gu Qiqi was exaggerating. Not to mention half an hour, even if she could completely slice open a stomach in an hour, it would be praise-worthy!

However, Gu Qiqi spoke again, making everyone's eyes roll.

"Well, considering your situation, why don't you make time shorter? Ten minutes will do."

Shorter?!

Ten minutes?!

Gu Qiqi, are you joking?

How could she complete the system dissection in ten minutes!!!

Xu Xinli's expression was extremely ugly. "Do you know how to perform anatomy dissection or not? If you don't know how to admit defeat, forget it. Don't joke around with anatomy dissection! Ten minutes is not enough to complete a complete system anatomy dissection. This is disrespectful to corpses and anatomy lessons!"

Gu Qiqi shrugged. "It's okay. I have no objections if you insist on using an hour."

Xu Xinli was speechless.

Why did she feel like an expert was patronizing an apprentice? She was saying she would wait for her if she was slow...

Soon, the juniors took out their watches and announced the start of the countdown.

Xu Xinli was indeed a top student in the Forensic Medical School. The moment the stopwatch started, she seemed to have changed into a different person. She was instantly energetic and focused.

She held the scalpel in her hand and could not bear to waste a second. She quickly drew a line on the abdomen of the corpse and measured the depth and position. After observing carefully, she made her move and slowly cut open the abdomen.

She really looked like a genius!

Even the new students of the pharmaceutical school could not help but look over in admiration. This was the first time they had seen a real corpse dissection in their lives. They watched as the belly was cut open, revealing the yellow fat layer. While everyone admired Xu Xinli, they could not help but feel nauseous!

How disgusting!

Especially when it reached the lower abdomen, a small amount of blood shot from the abdominal cavity onto Xu Xinli's face. Xu Xinli wiped it off without batting an eyelid and continued the dissection...

Even those who did not vomit could not help but retch.

The job of a forensic doctor was really not something an ordinary person could do.

Although everyone felt disgusted, they admired Xu Xinli even more.

This was the true demeanor of a professional!

Compared to Xu Xinli, Gu Qiqi was not as professional at this moment.

She was not anxious at all.

She did not race against time to start the dissection.

Instead, she muttered something.

Those who were close heard a sentence or two. “Be good. My movements are very gentle. It won’t hurt...”

Everyone felt disgusted. “Gu Qiqi, do you know how to dissect? What are you doing!”

Qiu Qiu protected Gu Qiqi and retorted, “What are you blabbering about? My master is respecting the dead. Who is like your Forensic Medical School You’re so rough. My master is pitying... the dead!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. My dear disciple, this description isn’t too appropriate. Don’t use it again.

Gu Qiqi stood in front of the corpse for five minutes and muttered softly.

Just as everyone was getting impatient, she finally moved.

She held the scalpel and raised her hand.

Everyone felt a silver arc flash across their eyes—

Chapter 708: Gong Qing Does Not Admit Defeat

The silver arc in Gu Qiqi’s hand flashed in the air and sliced the corpse on the autopsy table. In an instant, it actually cut deeply through the skin of the corpse from the neck to the lower abdomen!

Too fast!

Too neat!

In the blink of an eye, the corpse had been cut open!

Not a single drop of blood was shed!

The incision was smooth and complete. As the cut surface was too perfect, the skin was neat and tidy. It was not as scary as the yellow fat floating out of Xu Xinli’s corpse.

The Forensic Medical School students were stunned.

Even the most awesome professor in their school did not perform such an awesome dissection on a corpse.

It was an eye-opener in their lives!

Outside the window.

Gong Qing and Songsong had just arrived and coincidentally saw Gu Qiqi’s movements.

Gong Qing opened his mouth slightly. Time seemed to have frozen. He had lived for decades and seen many impressive doctors, but never had anyone been as calm, natural, and perfect as this girl in front of a corpse.

Even if he had to kill someone with a knife, he could not guarantee that he could be as efficient as Gu Qiqi!

Songsong was a painter, so she had a better sense of beauty than others. Gu Qiqi's hand gesture cut through the air elegantly, making her sigh in surprise. "I didn't know that doctors can be so handsome and beautiful. I really misunderstood doctors in the past. Hubby, now you have to admit that this girl is a little capable, right?"

Gong Qing refused to admit defeat. "Hmph, I'm not afraid that the vixen is brainless, but I'm afraid that the vixen still has some ability to fool people. Isn't it just a cut to open the abdomen? Practice makes perfect, and a butcher can cut meat very well. She might not understand the following professional medical steps!"

However, it was as if Gu Qiqi heard Gong Qing's complaint.

Next, every second was a ruthless slap to Gong Qing's face!

After she cut the abdomen, she wore transparent gloves. When she exerted a little force with her hands, the entire chest and abdomen were opened.

She methodically peeled off the organs of various tissues at the speed of light...

Before the bystanders could see if she was touching the heart or the stomach, she had already taken it out neatly.

It was even more shocking when the skin was separated. The scalpel combined with the surgical forceps caused everything to peel off!

The students from the Forensic Medical School and Pharmaceutical School tensed up!

F*ck, I must not provoke Gu Qiqi in the future. She can skin me alive with just one slash...!

Before they could finish sighing, they saw that Gu Qiqi had already put down the scalpel, taken off her gloves, washed her hands, and crossed her arms. "That's it. Is it OK?"

OK?

Damn it, everyone was about to be KO-ed by her!

The boy in charge of the timer looked at his watch in a daze. "Eight minutes..."

Gu Qiqi completed the entire system dissection in eight minutes.

Qiu Qiu raised his nose and interrupted the other party. "What eight minutes? It's clearly three minutes! My master was chatting with the corpse for the first five minutes..."

Gu Qiqi held her forehead. "Mind your words, Qiu Qiu. I wasn't chatting with it. I was expressing basic respect to the cadaver."

All medical students had to deal with cadavers.

This was the anatomy target they had come into contact with during their studies.

It was the deceased who used their bodies to fulfill their medical dreams by letting them be dissected, allowing medical students to advance their skills and benefit the living.

Therefore, these anatomical subjects were affectionately called cadavers.

Chapter 709: Perfect Suppression By A Goddess

Gu Qiqi did not know if the medical students in this life had the tradition of respecting cadavers.

However, from Gu Yuanyuan, Bai Yinglu, Han Bingyue, and even Xu Xinli, it seemed like they did not have this tradition.

Xu Xinli was so anxious to cut the corpse just now that she did not pray for a second.

In her previous life, when everyone in the nurse's academy who she was in helped the doctors tidy up the corpses' remains and brew the formalin medicine for the first time, they would collectively pray. "To thank the selfless contributions of the cadavers, we solemnly promise that we will treat them seriously with the most rigorous scientific attitude and the most gentle and selfless methods..."

Who said that nurses were inferior to doctors?

At least in her previous life, she had been a nurse for ten years. In terms of professionalism, as well as her attitude towards the patient and the deceased, she was definitely professional!

The forensic medical students in front of her did not seem to have received such a professional and respectful education...

Gu Qiqi's expression could not help but darken slightly. Although she was lecturing Qiu Qiu, it was more like a warning to everyone. "If a medical student does not maintain the most basic respect for a cadaver before the dissection, then his professional life will not last long as he has already taken one wrong step at the start! There is a god watching you. Every slash of yours has the attention of its soul."

Everyone was shocked!

If Gu Qiqi had said this before the dissection, no one would have cared about her.

But now, the almost perfect dissection process was in front of them.

Her speed was heaven-defying, and the system anatomy was heaven-defyingly complete. Even all the tissues and organs were placed neatly on the anatomy table. All the incisions perfectly avoided the large blood vessels or were dealt with properly. There was no bloodiness or discomfort.

For the first time in their lives, they thought that anatomy could be like art. It was so beautiful and stunning!

It turned out that they would vomit after seeing the organs that were dissected. It was not that they were too cowardly, but the anatomists' methods were too backward!

With such heaven-defying skills in front of them, they would nod their heads even if Gu Qiqi farted.

Amazing!

In the face of absolute skill, no one was unconvinced!

From this moment on, Gu Qiqi's lecture about respecting cadavers spread throughout the entire Empire Medical University...

Many years later, new medical students recited Gu Qiqi's prayer to the cadavers word for word.

At this moment, Xu Xinli was still fighting with the fat tissue from the abdominal incision.

The rotten yellow subcutaneous fat severely hindered her progress, and even peeling off the skin was difficult.

She had already seen Gu Qiqi's perfect autopsy results and knew that she would definitely lose.

However, she did not stop. Instead, she continued to sweat and complete it.

Forty minutes later.

Xu Xinli finally completed the dissection.

She put down the scalpel. "I lost."

Gu Qiqi applauded. "Not bad. Even if you lose, you have to persist in completing it until the last step. I respect you."

There was silence everywhere.

Xu Xinli smiled weakly.

This praise made her heart ache!

However, she still had her pride. She did not give up halfway.

Although it had been a while, she had completed it...

However, when she looked at Gu Qiqi's dissection table again, she lost all her strength. The last bit of pride she had disappeared instantly.

The anatomical corpse in front of Gu Qiqi was clearly cut open and dissected into various organs. They were then taken out and arranged on the autopsy table.

However, at this moment, they actually returned to their original positions at lightning speed.

Moreover, Gu Qiqi quickly sutured the incision on the corpse's abdomen.

The needle technique and the suturing method were breathtaking!

In other words, those who did not know could not tell that the corpse had been dissected.

This was no ordinary crush.

It was a perfect suppression by a goddess!

Chapter 710: Shattering the Rumors of Being a Kept Woman!

Xu Xinli was completely convinced.

Without hesitation, she admitted it straightforwardly. "A loss is a loss. Gu Qiqi, you win! I'll give my and Gu Xuexue's spots to your pharmaceutical school! I mean what I say!"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "As someone who admits your loss humbly, you're very admirable."

The students of the Pharmaceutical School were all energetic and proud.

Hmph, Qiqi had revealed her stunning anatomical skills today. Let's see who still dares to call their pharmaceutical school useless in the future.

Under the leadership of Qiu Qiu, the students of the Pharmaceutical school erupted in cheers.

"Goddess Qiqi! Goddess Qiqi!"

"The Pharmaceutical school will win! The Pharmaceutical school will win!"

"The Goddess safeguards the school, her power spreads in all directions!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Why was this slogan so shocking?

She was not the two stone lions at the entrance of the academy! How was she safeguarding the school?!

Gu Qiqi gestured for everyone to keep quiet.

She said calmly, "You still have a lot to learn. If you don't want to be useless, start practicing anatomy from today onwards. Don't think that pharmaceutical school doesn't need to understand anatomy. The ancient pharmaceutical master Hua Tuo is also an expert in anatomy!"

Everyone lowered their heads shyly.

Yes, they were a little too smug just now.

Although Qiqi was powerful, they were still cowardly and useless.

"Qiqi, why don't you teach us?"

"That's right, that's right. I can't even understand what the teacher is saying in class. It seems like our pharmaceutical school doesn't even have this class on system anatomy..."

"Qiqi, you'll take me in as your disciple too, right?"

"Master, please accept my bow!"

They watched as the students of the Pharmaceutical school tried to cozy up to her.

Qiu Qiu could no longer sit still!

Hey, hey, hey. That's my master, okay? Can you guys go somewhere else?

Qiu Qiu was about to cry.

Fortunately, Gu Qiqi said calmly the next second, "We're all classmates. Don't call me master or anything. You have your own strengths and weaknesses. Let's spar and learn from each other."

“Qiqi, you have a good personality!”

“Qiqi, you’re so easygoing. I think what they’re saying about you dealing with many men is nonsense. How can a real genius like you have the time to fool around with men?”

“Yes, yes, if anyone says such things in the future, we’ll collectively slap their mouths! Let’s see who still dares to have cheap mouths!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Uh, she had unintentionally gained a group of cute guards.

It was good that Gu Xuexue and the rest had spread too many rumors about her in school. So much so that everyone felt that she was being kept by an old man.

She was happy that her classmates were willing to help her clear up the rumors.

Outside the window.

The more Songsong looked at Gu Qiqi, the more she liked her. “She has her strengths and weaknesses. Hubby, did you hear that? This child is really talented, humble and kind. There aren’t many young people like her now who are capable and low-key!”

Gong Qing pursed his lips. “Low profile my foot! Why was she showing off her knife skills there just now? Low profile means she should stay at home obediently!”

Songsong said, “...Hubby, wasn’t she forced to compete? By the way, Hubby, I think this child’s character is really believable. Didn’t you hear those classmates? The rumors about her being kept by an old man aren’t true.”

Gong Qing replied. “Hmph, she’s not kept by an old man because she seduced our son!”

Songsong was speechless. Sigh, it was really hard to convince a man to be less stubborn.

He had already seen how powerful Qiqi was with his own eyes, but the stupid man was still stubborn.
