

Dear Chief 751

Chapter 751: Forceful Marriage!

Gong Qing's short stubble curled up in anger.

Hmph, what was so great about Gu Qiqi's "Christmas tree"?

It was just a serving of Egg Fried Rice!

However, the ingredients were not common carrots, vegetables, tomatoes, sausages, but broccoli, okra, yunnan ham, and strawberries!

Perhaps it was because Gu Qiqi had been fiddling with scalpels all year round, but her knife skills were quite impressive. The shape of every ingredient was neat and precise. There was a layer of green ingredients and a layer of red ingredients. They were arranged into an exquisite mini Christmas tree. Not only did it look beautiful, but it also tasted super stunning and fresh.

However, Gong Qing was unwilling to accept this!

What kind of ability was this?!

If she was capable, she could make a feast like the Manchu Han Imperial Feast.

Just as he cast his resentful gaze over, he was blocked by Gong Jue coldly. "Don't think about the Manchu Han Imperial Feast. My woman is not a chef! It's already your honor to let you try one or two dishes!"

"Bastard, how dare you speak to your father like that!" Gong Qing was furious.

Gong Jue smiled slyly. "It's not impossible to eat more... When I marry Qiqi, you might get what you want."

Gong Qing was speechless. Playing dirty! He was trying to force him to admit that the vixen was his daughter-in-law!

His will was firm, and he refused to admit it! Hmph!

At the side, the little packrat who was enjoying his meal suddenly stopped.

His heart was beating fast as he asked, "This dish... Was it... made by the fox?" Her little hand pointed in Gu Qiqi's direction in disbelief.

Gong Jue glanced at him coldly. "What fox? What her? Call her Auntie!"

The little packrat pouted his lips, and he looked like he was about to cry.

Why!

Wuwu, he almost wanted to praise his grandfather for saying that this dish tasted like a dish by his ideal mother.

However, in the blink of an eye, everyone told him such a cruel truth. Such delicious and motherly dishes were actually made by that female fox, Gu Qiqi.

He was really stunned!

Logically speaking, he did not want to eat this dish, but the little glutton in his heart was influencing him to eat it all!

Annoying. Why was that female fox so good at playing games and cooking? From the adults' conversation, it seemed that one of his great-grandfather's legs had been cured by the female fox. She was continuing to concoct medicine and was preparing to treat her great-grandfather's other leg so that he could completely stand up and walk.

Did she not do anything bad?

He felt defeated.

After the meal.

The little packrat went upstairs silently and hid in his room to make a call.

"Uncle Bai Lang..." He pursed his lips. "The female fox has moved to our house and is even cooking at our house. Even Grandpa can't do anything to her..."

Bai Lang, who was far away in Africa, was dumbfounded.

Damn, I've only been away for a few days, but the little demon has already entered the house. She was unwilling to stay in a small villa outside and went straight to the old house!

Was he really going to call her sister-in-law when he returned to the country?

He suppressed the surging emotions in his heart, took a deep breath, and quickly consoled the little packrat, "Baby Gong, you have to stabilize your position. You can take the opportunity to catch her little tail. For example, if she cooks poorly, or if her manners are rough..."

The little packrat blinked his eyes and said sincerely, "But her cooking is really delicious. Even though she's a little cold, she's still quite polite."

Bai Lang was speechless. Little boy, you've already been subdued, but you're still unwilling to admit it?

Okay.

It seemed like he could only do something about it!

Heaven can bear witness to this. He was only trying to extract Gong Jue and the little boy from the hands of this demoness. He was definitely not committing any atrocities!

"Little boy, listen to uncle. If you do this..."

Chapter 752: Not Going to School!

After Bai Lang explained with some guilt, he patted his chest. "Baby Gong, I guarantee that after you do this, you can chase the little demon out of the Gong family!"

"Really?"

“Really! I swear on my integrity! Oh no, I swear on my girlfriend!”

“Uncle Bai Lang, after you were dumped by your last girlfriend, and you seem to be single all the time. I heard from Daddy that your girlfriend is your hand, right?”

Gong Qing, this bastard, actually taught a child astray!

Bai Lang was going crazy. “You! Little brat, why do you keep telling the truth? How about this, if Uncle’s plan fails, you can curse Uncle for not being able to find his next girlfriend!”

“Yes!”

Bai Lang was speechless. The little packrat had agreed so readily. Why did his heart ache?

“But, Uncle Bai Lang, isn’t this too bad...” The little packrat hesitated.

“Think about your life in the future. Are you willing to be stuck in this...” Bai Lang asked.

The little packrat fell silent!

Bai Lang encouraged him again. “Do it well. If you do it well, you’ll also save Uncle!”

Wuwu, Africa was really too hot. He was about to dry up. The main thing was that there were no beauties to flirt with...

==

Just as Baby Gong and Bai Lang were discussing how to evict Gu Qiqi, Gu Qiqi was thinking about how to make things clear with Gong Jue.

She was caught off guard when he brought her to meet his parents and son. He seemed to be pushing her into the family... but she had not given him the final answer.

She was not fully prepared for the Gong family. Should she enter or not?

Gong Jue drove the car over personally and got out of the car. He opened the car door for her before walking around the front of the car to return to the driver’s seat.

He got into the car and leaned over.

The man’s tall and oppressive figure pressed down on her like a mountain.

Gu Qiqi’s breathing tightened.

However, Gong Jue only fastened her seatbelt. “You didn’t sleep well last night. Don’t go to school today. I’ll apply for leave for you, okay?”

Gu Qiqi did not stay in Gong Jue’s room last night. Instead, she stayed in the Gong family’s guest room next to the old man’s bedroom.

Gong Jue slept on the sofa in the Old Master’s bedroom. That way, he could still look after him in the middle of the night.

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "No, today is the preliminary round of the school tournament. I have to participate."

Gong Jue frowned. "Troublesome! I'll call the principal and ask for you to enter the finals directly! How can you delay your sleep for a lousy competition?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

This man was simple and rough. He was hopeless.

Just as Gong Jue was about to call her, Gu Qiqi speechlessly held his palm. "Don't. Perhaps in the eyes of others, studying is nothing, but to me... studying is a very serious matter. I don't want to take leave so easily. I finally managed to enter the pharmaceutical academy. I cherish it."

Her face was still fair and exquisite, but she had stayed up late and did not sleep well. There was a faint hint of green in her eyes, and she looked a little haggard.

Even so, Gong Jue's heart skipped a beat.

The dumb woman's seriousness was especially sexy.

He took a step back. "Then you have to go back to the dormitory to sleep at noon! Come back early tonight!"

Gu Qiqi nodded. "I'll try my best."

There was a competition this afternoon. If she was alone, it would be very easy. However, she had to prepare well before the competition because this was a team competition. She could not guarantee that she would have time to rest.

"Don't try your best, it's a must! I will do a sudden checkup, okay!"

Chapter 753: He's Not Human When He's Ruthless

After being challenged by Gu Qiqi, Gong Jue pursed his lips and his face tensed up.

There was silence in the car.

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips. This fellow was lecturing her like a little sidekick again.

She couldn't help but mutter, "If you have nothing to do, you can look for your brothers to play with. Can you not always control me?"

Gong Jue thought for a while. "Rather than playing with them, it's better to care about you."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. The truth is that you don't have any friends, right?

It seemed that other than Bai Lang, she did not see anyone else who could be considered a friend around him. He was really a pitiful lonely person.

But then again, even Bai Lang had not seen him for a long time.

“Where did Bai Lang go?” She asked.

Gong Jue glanced at her and said unhappily, “Are you very concerned about him?”

Gu Qiqi was speechless!

Could this stupid man not be jealous?

She had clearly realized that Xiao Ning’s uncle was actually Bai Yueyuan the last time. She realized that she had wronged Bai Lang and tricked him so many times. She felt a little guilty towards him and asked him about it.

How did it become... concern?

However, the more unhappy the stupid man was, the more she could not help but say a few more words.

“Yes, there’s nothing strange about being concerned about him. Besides, he has saved Xiao Bei before. He has been taking care of Xiao Bei in the robot competition. Thinking about it carefully, he’s not a bad man.”

Gong Jue was indeed furious. “Hmph, not bad, my foot! That bastard, I threw him to Africa! He’s not allowed to come back until he’s woken up!”

That brat, Bai Lang, had actually brought the little packrat to the cocktail party and tried to destroy his relationship.

Anyone who ruined his relationship with Gu Qiqi would be banned!

This was his principle.

Gu Qiqi thought about it. “I’m right. I’m saying that Bai Lang’s medical skills are not bad. It’s better for him to make a few of the medications that I prescribed for Grandpa this time. That way, I can save a lot of time to do other things. If only he was here.”

Other things?

Gong Jue’s heart skipped a beat.

For example... kissing, hugging, and sex...?

He nodded instantly. “Okay.”

Gu Qiqi was confused. “Huh? Okay?”

Gong Jue said, “I’ll ask Bai Lang to come back. He’ll be back tonight!”

Principles were nothing.

When the car drove close to the campus, Gong Jue received a call.

It seemed to be a call from Gong Sheng.

After putting down the phone, Gong Jue’s expression turned a little ugly.

Gu Qiqi's eyes lit up. She probed, "Did you help me find out about Yun Qiao? Did you encounter any difficulties?"

Gong Jue's thin lips said coldly, "Gong Sheng's men found out that I was investigating that woman and called to warn me. If I investigated her, he would also send someone to investigate you."

"What's there to investigate?" Gu Qiqi laughed. "Ask him to investigate as he wishes."

Gong Jue narrowed his eyes. "His words never mean what he says. Let me translate it for you clearly. His subtext is that if I interfere in his and that woman's matters, he will also interfere in our matters. Don't look at how Gong Sheng usually doesn't bat an eyelid. When he's ruthless, he's not human. The last time I went to look for him, I asked him to fish you out of prison. In the end, this scumbag even tricked me! If he didn't drag me along to chat, I would have turned the damn place that locked you up upside down!"

He was not human when he was ruthless...

Who said that about their own brother?

Gu Qiqi was surprised. It turned out that the President, who everyone loved and respected, was a gentle and elegant male god on television. However, he was actually so scheming and cold in private.

He was like a different person from Gong Jue's simple and rough ways.

Gu Qiqi thought for a while. "I'll investigate this myself. Don't show up. After all, you're biological brothers. I don't want you to have any conflict with Big Brother."

Gong Jue stopped the car and turned to look at her solemnly. His tone turned serious—

Chapter 754: What Woman Did You Have a Child with?

"Don't investigate anymore. Gong Sheng protects that woman very tightly. He sent people to specially follow her, afraid that her identity would be exposed. He's too treacherous. I don't want you to take the slightest risk and go against him," Gong Jue said sternly.

Gu Qiqi frowned. "But Yun Qiao is one of my two best friends. She left Qingcheng alone and disappeared. She's penniless and doesn't have a degree. I'm very worried about her."

More importantly, the ending of Yun Qiao's previous life was too miserable. She wanted to protect Yun Qiao and remind her not to make the same mistake again.

Gong Jue was infected by Gu Qiqi's tone. Stupid woman, she was worried about other people's troubles before she could even solve her own problems.

She was so kind that he wanted to bite her.

He said in a deep voice, "Did you just say that you met her face to face at the cafe?"

"Yes."

"Then have you ever thought about why the woman with Gong Sheng refused to acknowledge you if it's really Yun Qiao?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She had never thought about it from this angle.

Yes, although she was dressed as a man that day, Yun Qiao would definitely recognize her.

Although the waiter who brought the coffee that day had her head lowered the entire time, and they could not see her face, Gu Qiqi and Xiao Ning's faces were exposed.

If that waiter was Yun Qiao, why would she rather help them silently and be fired by the manager for an excuse than acknowledge them?

Why did Yun Qiao... not want to see them?

Gu Qiqi was a little depressed.

Gong Jue's voice softened. "But the good news is that since Gong Sheng's men are following her, her life is definitely not in danger. Although Gong Sheng is a little black-bellied, he will not kill her to silence her. We will remain calm for the time being. When he relaxes his guard, I will arrange for someone to investigate."

Gu Qiqi nodded.

This was the only way.

It was not easy to clarify the rumor about Gong Sheng. It was understandable that he was afraid of others investigating that woman's identity.

Yun Qiao had yet to debut and become a superstar, so there was still a possibility of changing her fate. She might not walk the same path as in her previous life and be kept by the same financier. She was too anxious.

They had already reached the school. She pushed the door open and prepared to get out of the car.

Gong Jue suddenly grabbed her slender arm and said in a deep voice, "Qiqi, I'm sorry."

Gu Qiqi thought that he was talking about Yun Qiao, so she waved her hand. "I understand. Big Brother has his worries. I won't hate him for threatening us. Just like you said, we'll wait for an opportunity to investigate."

"Qiqi, that's not what I'm talking about."

Gu Qiqi looked up and turned around in confusion.

She did not expect to meet Gong Jue's deep eyes.

Gong Jue pulled her arm gently and said again, "I'm sorry. I didn't tell you about Gong Ting in advance. I... was afraid that you would despise me."

A rare look of dejection appeared on Gong Jue's face as he explained further, "That was an absurd matter a few years ago. I was afraid that you wouldn't understand, so I didn't tell you the truth. I'm sorry, I hid the truth that I have a son. You can be angry at me however you want, but can you not sentence me to death immediately?"

Gu Qiqi opened her mouth in shock.

Due to the existence of the little packrat, Gong Jue lowered his head and apologized to her once again!

Actually, she was a little angry, but she did not want to completely deny him just because he had a son.

A few years ago... No matter what kind of woman he had a child with, why did that woman abandon the child? After all, those were not times she had participated in.

Chapter 755: The Little Boy's Background

To be honest, Gong Jue did not let her down.

Furthermore, she was the one who had misunderstood that the little packrat was his lover called Little Palm.

And he had said long ago that he would show her the "Little Palm" personally.

From the start, he had already planned to let her meet the little boy in Qingcheng City. He did not intend to keep it from her.

It could be seen that he was a very frank man.

However... it was impossible to say that there was no hesitation. In his past life, there was no her, but there was another woman and child. This was something that she could not think too deeply about. If she thought about it deeply, it seemed like there was a faint pain in her heart.

Huh? If she didn't care, why did it hurt?

Gu Qiqi lowered her eyes to hide the panic in her heart. She stammered, "We'll... we'll talk about it later. It's time for class. I have to go to class first..."

She was about to leave.

But Gong Jue pulled hard and pulled her onto his lap.

He held her hips with one hand and her chin with the other. He said in a hoarse voice, "Don't go! Qiqi, listen to me. I hope that before you make your final decision, I'll let you understand everything about me. Gong Ting's mother is..."

Gu Qiqi's heart was in her mouth!

Ever since she met Gong Jue, she seemed to be in this state frequently. From time to time, this man would give her a little accident that made her heart race.

Who was the little packrat's mother?

Was it Gong Jue's childhood sweetheart or was it a love affair?

Was that woman already no longer alive and became a red rose that Gong Jue would never forget in his heart? Or was it a white moonlight that had broken up with him?

Countless ridiculous scenes flashed across Gu Qiqi's mind.

However, in the very next second.

Gong Jue continued in a deep voice. "I've never seen Gong Ting's mother before."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Are you kidding me!

Gong Jue replied. "He's a test tube baby."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. She had been guessing for a long time but could not guess what was going on.

Gong Jue said, "You know that my body is special. It's impossible for me to get in touch with women, let alone... have sex with them."

Except you, of course.

At this point, Gong Jue kissed her lips gently without any desire.

Gong Jue said, "That year, I was in charge of a research project in the Northern Frost laboratory. I met General Tiandun of S Nation. I used ten thousand robots to defeat the hundred thousand troops that they ambushed. I recovered the land that was occupied and killed 80,000 of them. However, the price was that their spies and loyalists infiltrated the laboratory and destroyed our system's main computer. It triggered a fire. In order to save the system, I was seriously injured and almost died. When I was transported back to the Empire, they all felt that I wouldn't be able to live. They even prepared a coffin for me. They even chose a day and prepared to bury me."

Gu Qiqi's breathing tightened.

She knew that his profession was dangerous.

She had even experienced attacks and assassinations with him.

However, he had never known how cruel a true life and death battle was.

Generals died in a hundred battles, and strong men returned in ten years. How many scientists who guarded the empire went without returning? This was a cruelty that the citizens within the Peace Line could not feel.

Her small hands caressed his chest.

He should have many scars on his body, right?

Gong Jue's body tightened with her touch. It was not easy for him to continue speaking in a serious tone. "After my accident, I was unconscious the entire time. My parents were heartbroken that I did not get married and have children. They asked Gong Sheng to find someone to have a surrogate child with me. Gong Sheng thought that surrogacy was not suitable, and it was easy for a dispute to arise when the other party gave birth. He might not give the child to the Gong family to raise.. So, he bought a suitable egg on the black market and directly cultivated Gong Ting in the VIP laboratory of the Empire Medical University... using the latest test tube technology and artificial uterus."

Chapter 756: I'm a 24K Pure Man

After a pause, Gong Jue continued. "This matter is top secret. Only the Gong family knows."

In other words, even though Bai Lang and Bai Moli knew that Gong Jue had a son, they did not know who the mother of Gong Jue's son was.

Furthermore, they did not know that the little packrat was a test tube baby.

In other words, Gong Jue was willing to tell Gu Qiqi everything. This meant that he treated Gu Qiqi as a member of the Gong family from the bottom of his heart.

Even though Gu Qiqi had not agreed to marry him!

Gu Qiqi was shocked.

After holding it in for a long time, she stuttered, "You're... unconscious. How... how did they get... your..."

She really could not say those words.

Instead, Gong Jue blurted out openly, "You want to know how they took out men's things for me, right?"

In order to give birth to a healthy baby, it and a single egg could not be missing.

Gu Qiqi blushed and did not dare to look at him.

As a doctor, she should not be shy about such technical problems! However, when she faced him, she could not help but be shy.

Gong Jue chuckled. "I froze it in the cold room beforehand. Don't worry, no one touched my body at that time. Your man is still very pure."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

That was not what she meant!

She was purely curious about how it was done technically.

She was not worried that his body had been in contact with another woman.

Alright, she was a little worried.

Now that she knew the answer, her face turned even redder.

Gong Jue even had a son, but he didn't... do that with a woman?

No wonder he was like a monk who had not eaten meat for 800 years every time. He wished he could chop her into meat buns and eat her.

After Gong Jue finished speaking, he felt relieved.

"Qiqi, since I brought Gong Ting into this world, even though it was an accident, I can't deny that he's my blood. So, I can't avoid this fact. This is my stain. I'll wait for your answer."

He still had something to say.

That was, no matter what choice you made, I would not give up!

Even if you refuse, I will wait patiently until you agree.

Gu Qiqi was silent for a moment.

To be fair, even if he had a child, he would still be the best candidate to be snatched by all the women who were suitable for marriage in the empire.

This man's charm was not something that a son could destroy.

However, at this moment, this man who should have been righteous and arrogant was humbly begging for her forgiveness and begging her to give him a chance.

Gu Qiqi felt complicated!

He was so honest with her, but what about her?

Was she perfect?

The experience she had four years ago was nothing compared to the helplessness and heartache of his family when they helped him create a child because he almost sacrificed his life for the country.

Was her family worthy of being called family? Haha.

Four years ago, Gu Meifeng lied that Gu Qiqi's mother had given her a dream. She said that she was not living comfortably underground and had to perform a ritual to make Qiqi's mother rest in peace.

At that time, the sorcerers of Qingcheng Monastery needed 200,000 yuan to perform such a ritual.

Gu Qiushan said that the hospital was losing money and could not fork out the money, so he refused to do it.

She was extremely anxious!

Her heart ached at the thought of her late mother living uneasily underground.

However, she was still a junior high school student at that time. How could she gather such a huge sum of 200,000 yuan?

At this critical moment, Gu Meifeng "kindly" pointed out a "clear path" for her.

Chapter 757: Qiqi's Nightmare Four Years Ago

Back then, the black-hearted Gu Meifeng had given her a rotten idea when she was still in middle school.

Black market egg selling!

Gu Meifeng said—

“Qiqi, this is the fastest way to earn money. I’m familiar with the black market. I heard that they’re looking for a suitable egg recently. Their requirements are quite high. They said that they’ll pay 200,000 yuan after the matter is done. It’s just right to solve your urgent problem!”

Seeing that Gu Qiqi was hesitating, she said, “Qiqi, don’t worry. Actually, this kind of thing is nothing. What are eggs? Every girl has to naturally give birth to a few every month. Even if they don’t sell them, they will naturally abort them with their menstruation. How good would it be to exchange them for money for your mother? It will fulfill your filial piety!”

Then, she added lecherously, “It will definitely not hurt you! I guarantee that your life will not be affected in the future!”

How foolish and naive was she to believe Gu Meifeng’s lie back then?

Not to mention how harmful it was to her body to remove her eggs, how could selling eggs not affect her life?

Did she know who she was selling them to?

Why did people create offspring?

It could be the descendant of a murderer, or the descendant of a lunatic. It was even possible to use it for animals...

If that child survived and did not grow up in front of you, what kind of life would he encounter?

Would he be abandoned? Would he be disabled? Would he be homeless... and become a beggar?

You didn’t give birth to him personally, but he was still a child with your bloodline. When he encountered pain, wouldn’t you... feel pain?

Everything was too complicated and filled with variables.

Gu Meifeng would never say these things.

As a young and inexperienced girl, she would never have thought of this.

She was coaxed by Gu Meifeng and walked onto the operating table of the black market to sell her eggs!

On a dark night...

The cold table...

They had used drugs and anesthesia to mess up her memory...

Even if she were to reincarnate fourteen years later, she still felt cold and scary when she thought about it!

That was her nightmare for two lifetimes!

Even now, when she thought of it, she still felt a bone-piercing coldness. It was like a venomous snake that crawled into her sleeve from her fingertips and into her heart, ceaselessly nibbling her.

She sold her eggs.

She sold them for 200,000 yuan for a ritual for her mother.

However, it was not until she was killed by Gu Xuexue that she realized that Gu Meifeng had not used a single cent of the 200,000 yuan back then for the ritual.

Instead, she squandered it all on the two of them.

Gu Xuexue's proud voice was still ringing in her ears. "Idiot, do you know? Out of that 200,000 yuan, 100,000 yuan was used by mommy to buy the latest Chanel bag for me and the remaining 100,000 yuan was used by Mommy for beauty surgery. She tightened her skin, and did her nose, chin and chest... The whole package! As for that damn mother of yours, go drink the wind from the northwest, hahaha!"

Vicious!

Extremely vicious!

She tricked her into selling the eggs and used her hard-earned money on their desires.

They really deserved to die! It was not enough even if they died ten thousand times!

"Dumb woman, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?" Gong Jue's worried voice pulled Gu Qiqi back to reality.

She remained silent. Her face had lost its color and was a little pale. Beads of sweat formed on her forehead, and she had an indescribable grief and indignation.

It was no wonder Gong Jue was worried.

Gu Qiqi closed her eyes and said calmly, "I'm fine."

Gong Jue kissed her lips. "Don't be in a hurry to tell me the answer. It's harmful to think too much."

Actually, he was afraid of hearing Gu Qiqi's answer to the death sentence.

Gu Qiqi nodded and asked casually, "How old is Gong Ting?"

Gong Jue: "Three years and two months."

Gu Qiqi's heart skipped a beat!

Three years old?

Did something happen to Gong Jue four years ago? Was the little boy created in a test tube four years ago?

Chapter 758: Wanting to Tell Him Her Shameful Past

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

She had been cheated four years ago and sold her eggs on the black market. Gong Jue had almost been killed four years ago and had made the little packrat using a test tube!

These two events were too coincidental.

It was impossible to encounter such a coincidence, right?

What if her eggs were sold to Gong Jue?

The moment this thought formed in her mind, it was like a ferocious beast that shocked her heart.

Even her fingertips were trembling violently.

No, how could there be such a coincidence in the world?

She clearly remembered that they spent a long time retrieving her eggs. She had spent at least three to four hours in a coma.

Normally, a surgery like this could be completed in ten minutes or half an hour!

After getting off the counter, Gu Meifeng told her 'regretfully' that the buyer had paid 200,000 yuan and insisted on personally 'retrieving' the eggs... Therefore, her innocence had been 'exposed' by the buyer.

Thinking about it now, Gu Meifeng was so vicious. Perhaps those three to four hours were not for the egg but for Gu Meifeng to deliberately mislead her into letting her innocence be damaged and be bullied by the other party!

Her eggs were taken by a buyer.

At that time, Gong Jue was still unconscious and could not have arrived at the scene.

So the eggs he bought were not hers.

It did not take three seconds to reach this logical conclusion.

However, she remained silent for a full three minutes.

It was not that he had not thought of it before, but that was too ridiculous. How could there be such a ridiculous coincidence in life? It was impossible.

It was so dramatic that she was embarrassed to suggest this possibility to Gong Jue.

Once he proved that she was not that woman, how ashamed would she be? It was as if she was rushing to scam him.

"Qiqi, I'm sorry. My stain..." Gong Jue saw her in a daze and thought that she was unhappy when she heard about the little boy's age.

It was only four years ago. In such a short time, he had sent a portion of his body's essence to mate with another woman and even nurtured a test tube child. Would she feel that he was especially dirty and unforgivable?

Gu Qiqi took a deep breath and her expression darkened. "How can you say that such a cute child is a stain?"

Regardless of whose child the little packrat was, she did not hate that child.

She liked him at first glance.

Now that she knew that the little packrat was created in a test tube, she pitied him even more.

As for the little packrat's biological mother, that nameless woman who had faded into the background... she was probably just as pitiful as she was.

She could not hate him.

If having a test tube son was a stain for Gong Jue, then wasn't it a bigger stain for her to have sold her eggs back then!

Not to mention that she had been violated a second time on the operating table of Qingcheng Hospital!

When he heard Gu Qiqi speak up for the little packrat, Gong Jue held Gu Qiqi's waist and suddenly hugged her tightly. It was as if he wanted to completely knead her into his hard body as he muttered softly, "Qiqi, thank you for your tolerance..."

Gu Qiqi's heart ached even more!

She could ignore his accident four years ago.

That was because he was completely controlled by someone while unconscious.

However, the mistake she had made and the innocence she had lost because of Gu Meifeng was completely because of her own stupidity and naivety!

Her mistake was unforgivable and not worthy of asking Gong Jue for forgiveness...

A tear suddenly fell from the corner of her eye and fell on Gong Jue's chest.

"Gong Jue, I want to tell you..." She opened her mouth with difficulty, wanting to tell Gong Jue about her shameful past.

Chapter 759: Master and Mistress Kissed!

Before Gu Qiqi could continue, Gong Jue suddenly lowered his head and kissed her lips. "Don't be in a hurry to tell me the answer! Promise me that you'll think about it carefully!"

He was afraid. He had never been so afraid.

He was afraid that Gu Qiqi might say, "Your son is very cute, and I don't mind your past. It's a pity that you're not suitable for me." If that was the case, he would collapse.

He would rather wait for her to digest this fact.

When he persuaded the little packrat and the stubborn Gong Qing to let the entire family be his assistants, he would have a 100% chance of taking Gu Qiqi down!

At the thought of this, he even started to hope that Gu Qiqi's period would end later!

Some things were not so urgent.

Compared to obtaining her body, he was more anxious to get her heart. Of course, it was best to be one with her body and mind...

Gu Qiqi's confession was stopped by Gong Jue.

After a series of passionate kisses, Gong Jue even chased her out of the car. "Didn't you say that class is starting soon? Hurry up and go. It's very impolite to be late. Studies are the most important!"

He sounded especially serious and righteous.

He did not give Gu Qiqi any chance to speak.

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Who was the one who said that she could skip school and take leave just to sleep in!

Gong Jue, where's your integrity?

As she walked along the school path, Gu Qiqi felt that someone was looking at her.

Until she entered the classroom and received all the attention...

In the back seat, Qiu Qiu leaned over slyly. "Master, did you kiss Mistress this morning?"

Gu Qiqi blushed and covered her embarrassment. She said sternly, "What nonsense are you talking about!"

Could it be that she had been discovered kissing Gong Jue wildly in the car?

That's not right. Number 1 was very advanced. The car windows were tinted and could not be seen clearly. The people outside could not see what was going on inside at all.

Qiu Qiu smiled slyly. "But Master's lips are red and teeth are white, and then... the buttons on your shirt are crooked. Are you sure it wasn't done by Mistress? Master, you're so fierce!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She quickly looked down at the buttons.

As expected, the second one was buttoned to the third hole. It was a mess.

Damn Gong Jue, just kiss me obediently. Why must you touch me?

She bit her slightly swollen lips. "Stop gossiping. Let's go to class!"

Qiu Qiu chuckled and escaped to the back seat.

At the school gate.

Gong Jue sat in Number 1 for a while longer, reminiscing the kiss and the beautiful touch of his palm.

He was about to start the car and leave unwillingly.

Suddenly...

Number One said in a muffled mechanical voice, "Chief, the lie detector shows that you lied just now..."

Gong Jue was stunned.

Then, he was angry. "I just told the stupid woman my secret. When did I lie!"

This machine was questioning his character.

Should he let it be repaired at the factory!

Number One reported persistently, "Chief, it's not accurate to say that you're a pure man who has never been in contact with a woman."

"How is it not accurate!" Gong Jue exploded.

It was outrageous. The machine was starting to question his purity.

He will repair it at the factory!

He had to go back to the factory and repair it!

Number One continued to remind him fearlessly, "Chief, have you forgotten that this summer, at Qingcheng Hospital, you had an affair with a strange woman in the operating theater? After that, you haven't been able to find out about this person..."

Boom—! Gong Jue's mind exploded.

He had really forgotten about this.

Chapter 760: A Ghostlike Woman

That night, he was very angry at first.

However, the surveillance cameras that night seemed to have been cut off. No matter what, they could not find out what happened in the operating theater during that time.

That woman was like a ghost that appeared out of nowhere and disappeared.

Even the best video expert of the Gong Corporation could not find any recordings of that woman.

So he angrily investigated for a while and could only helplessly put this matter aside.

He even suspected that it was an illusion.

Just like how the little boy was obsessed with pursuing a 'beautiful lady' who did not exist. Could the woman on the operating table be an imaginary shadow as well?

After Gu Qiqi appeared, his interest in this illusion became weaker and weaker. As time passed, he stopped thinking about it.

After Gu Qiqi appeared, his interest in this illusion became weaker and weaker. As time passed, he stopped thinking about it.

Hence, Number One was telling the truth.

He did not tell Gu Qiqi the truth as it slipped his mind.

D*mn it!

He finally mustered up the courage to confess.

He actually missed out on a fact.

Would it be too late to explain later?

The main point was that he had yet to figure out if the woman on the operating table really existed. How was he going to explain it to Gu Qiqi?

Just say that he was secretly drugged by Bai Lang and raped a nonexistent woman?

Would Gu Qiqi think that he was a beast who was in love?

Gong Jue punched the steering wheel. "Why didn't you remind me just now!"

Number One felt wronged. "I'm afraid of scaring Miss Qiqi."

Gong Jue was speechless.

This reason was so perfect that he could not refute it.

In the classroom.

After the first lesson, it was break time.

Gu Qiqi received a call from Mu Tianyu.

"Lawyer, why do you have time to call me?" Gu Qiqi teased.

Mu Tianyu's current law firm's operations were getting better and better. He had just won a Newcomer Award from the National Lawyer Association, and the profits from the first month were also very impressive. He had already started to give Gu Qiqi, the major shareholder, dividends.

However, he did not call today to talk about the dividends.

"Qiqi, you asked me to help the Yang father and daughter fight the Qing Yuxuan infringement lawsuit. There's an update. The court has notified us that the trial will be held in the next few days. Although the industry is not optimistic about winning the intellectual property lawsuit, I am confident that I will win this time."

"That's great, Big Brother Tianyu. I told you that you would be the Empire's most powerful lawyer. A case that others can't handle will definitely be a surprise to others when you take it on."

"Qiqi, you're praising me too much. You're making me blush." Mu Tianyu was different from Mu Liuchuan. Even though he had become a businessman and a big lawyer, he still maintained a hint of innocence and shyness. “However, I suddenly couldn’t contact them these few days. There was no one at home, and my phone was switched off, so I could only come to find you. Will it delay your class?”

Gu Qiqi frowned.

Xiaolan had also not come to school for a few days. Did something happen to Xiaolan’s family? Yesterday, she had asked Qiu Qiu and Xiao Ning to check on her situation, but she had yet to ask how they were doing.

“No, I’m resting during class. Big Brother Tianyu, it’s the same if you tell me anything.”

“Alright, then I’ll keep it short. Before the trial, the other party’s lawyer found me and said that Gu Enlong did not want to go to court and planned to reconcile with the Yang family. He also offered a large sum of money to compensate the Yang family and hoped that the Yang family would be willing to accept it. I want to ask the Yang father and daughter if they are willing to accept this money or continue to fight the lawsuit to the end.”

Gu Qiqi’s eyes turned cold.

She knew that Gu Enlong, that cunning fellow, would definitely not do it obediently.

Now, he wanted to take another path.

She said in a low voice, “In your legal opinion, what’s the difference between the two methods?”
