

Dear Chief 761

Chapter 761: Scam You to Death, Scam You To Death!

Mu Tianyu said, "To be honest, even if we win the lawsuit, there might not be much compensation. Furthermore, the other party will definitely cheat and transfer the assets. The compensation will be delayed for a few years until it's enforced. Therefore, if we value money, reconciliation is more worth it. If we value reputation, then we'll fight the lawsuit."

Gu Qiqi pondered for a moment and said coldly, "Qing Yuxuan used to be the Yang family's blood and sweat. Now that it has been snatched away, I believe that the Yang father and daughter are not doing this for that little bit of money. They are doing this to fight for their pride and snatch back their brand. They also want the person who plagiarized the Yang family's products to pay the price! Gu Enlong wants to use money to buy his reputation? Hehe, don't even think about it!"

Actually, the Orchid Pavilion was already very profitable now. The Yang Consortium would not lack money to spend in the future.

However, Yang Xiaoqing and Gu Enlong had joined forces to plagiarize Yang Iron Fist's work. This matter had to be judged in court before it could be confirmed and announced to the world!

Although she could not contact the Yang father and daughter for the time being, based on her understanding of them, she believed that they would definitely value their reputation more than that little bit of compensation!

"I understand." Mu Tianyu was also a smart person and understood immediately.

He was about to hang up and busy himself with the lawsuit.

Gu Qiqi suddenly stopped him. "Wait! Brother Tianyu, can I ask about something? In this situation, can we first apply to freeze the other party's assets?"

Mu Tianyu pondered for a moment and said with certainty, "Sure. There's sufficient evidence for an infringement case. We can apply to freeze the other party's assets in advance. However... freezing property is harmful to others but not to ourselves. It's not good for us either..."

Gu Qiqi smiled. "Of course there are benefits. Remember to freeze all of Gu Meifeng's assets because Qingyu Xuan also has her shares!"

Mu Tianyu agreed, but he was still confused.

After hanging up the phone, Gu Qiqi's expression turned cold.

Brother Tianyu was kind and upright, but unfortunately, she wasn't.

She was not kind to those evil people at all. Even if it was a move to harm others without benefiting herself, she did not mind using it.

Freezing Gu Enlong and Gu Meifeng's assets was equivalent to cutting off their left and right arms to prevent them from transferring their assets away.

When the lawsuit between Old Madam Gu and the Shen family ended and the Shen family needed a large sum of money to fill the hole, Gu Enlong and Gu Meifeng's frozen assets would appear on the account and they would have no choice but to invest!

Haha, Gu Meifeng, didn't you use 200,000 yuan to scam me in my previous life?

I'll make you lose everything in this life!

The morning classes passed quickly.

Although Gu Qiqi's pharmaceutical course was the foundation of pharmacy and was very boring, she studied very seriously.

In her previous life, most of her medical knowledge was obtained from practice.

As she had never attended university, her medical skills were all learned from doctors. Although she was better in certain aspects and could solve some difficult practical problems, her foundation was not stable.

At this moment, learning the most basic theories was especially important to her. It just happened to fill in some of the knowledge that she lacked.

During the boring theory class, everyone was sleepy. Gu Qiqi, on the other hand, was extremely energetic. She stared at every word the teacher said.

The teacher was extremely proud of her. When she returned to the office, she even boasted about her and praised Gu Qiqi.

On the other hand, when Fengyang Chu heard this, he blew his beard. "The school's competition is about to begin. Whether it's a mule or a horse, we'll drag them out for a walk! If we can make a name for ourselves, it won't be too late for you to brag!"

The teachers immediately fell silent.

Dean, what kind of joke is this? Which year's school tournament are we not in last place?

You're making things difficult for Qiqi.

No matter how outstanding she was, would she be able to turn the school around?

The teachers lowered their heads and remained silent.

Chapter 762: School hunk

After class, the classroom was lively.

As it was the preliminary round of the school tournament in the afternoon, everyone was very excited. Gu Qiqi and Qiu Qiu wanted to discuss their competition strategy, and the other students took the initiative to buy lunch for them in the canteen.

Before she could even take a bite of the hot rice, a cry of surprise came from the door. "Senior! Senior, why are you here personally! Wuwu, Senior is so handsome..."

The senior, Beiming Tian, was wearing a handsome white shirt and black pants. He looked like the cool and arrogant school hunk in a teen idol drama.

Everywhere he went, it was as if he had a halo.

At this moment, he brought two other seniors to look for Gu Qiqi. "The academy has arranged for me to lead the team for this competition, but I'm a very democratic person. It's better for everyone to discuss it together."

Ever since they parted in the forest by the lake, Beiming Tian had not seen Gu Qiqi for some time.

Now that they met, his heart was a bit complicated and indescribable!

In particular, after knowing that Gu Qiqi had already been accepted by Fengyang Chu as his last disciple, had become his only junior sister, and was qualified to represent him in the school tournament, Beiming Tian's mood was affected for a long time!

In other words, Gu Qiqi would have many chances to interact with him in the future!

He did not know if this was a good or bad thing for him!

Beiming Tian quickly glanced at Gu Qiqi.

He saw that the girl's fair face was a little tired, but she was still so dazzling. Her coolness and confidence could be recognized at a glance in the crowd.

He took a deep breath and continued, "Why don't we take advantage of the lunch break to discuss? I have a ready-made competition plan that can be used!"

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Okay."

On the other hand, Qiu Qiu curled his lips and muttered, "Why do I have to listen to you for everything? Is your plan definitely good? If your plan was good, how did you lose last year? Hmph, I think my master is more like a leader! Last time in the jungle, if my master didn't save you, you would have been KO-ed!"

He was not like those ordinary female students who could not judge a handsome man. He did not have any admiration for Beiming Tian now. He was Gu Qiqi's loyal fan!

Beiming Tian's expression changed.

As the top student of the pharmaceutical school, he had always been welcomed like a god.

However, ever since Gu Qiqi came, the situation seemed to have changed.

Even an ignorant junior brother was provoking him.

He even brought up his embarrassing incident in the forest.

He had wanted to be a hero and save the beauty back then, okay? Who would have thought that he would end up like a bear being saved by the beauty!

Just as Beiming Tian was about to say something, Gu Qiqi snatched the initiative. “Qiu Qiu, be more humble! This is a team competition, and the most important thing is cooperation. Regardless of whether everyone knows each other or not, and if there are any conflicts, we represent the pharmaceutical school. We are the pharmaceutical school that refuses to admit defeat, and we absolutely do not want to be the last place!”

Just a few simple words made Qiu Qiu shut his mouth in embarrassment. It also made the students in the classroom fall silent for a moment before they suddenly cheered!

“Yes, we don’t want to lose. We don’t want to be the last place trash anymore!”

Gu Qiqi had successfully ignited everyone’s fighting spirit, and even Beiming Tian felt inferior.

He suppressed the complicated feelings in his heart and glanced around. “Isn’t there another contestant?”

Gu Qiqi had snatched a total of two spots from the Medical University and distributed them to the Bone Marrow and Yang Xiaolan.

However, Yang Xiaolan had been on leave for the past few days and did not come to school.

Chapter 763: The Master Who Protects Is Awesome

Gu Qiqi asked Qiu Qiu, “How was Xiaolan’s house yesterday?”

Qiu Qiu shook his head. “Not good. The house is locked, and there’s no one there. The neighbor said that Xiao Lan’s father is hospitalized, but I don’t know which hospital it is. I was originally planning to go today, but there’s a competition today...”

“We’ll go as soon as the competition ends.” Gu Qiqi’s eyes darkened. She had a bad feeling.

Beiming Tian frowned. “If they can’t come, it’s better to replace them as soon as possible!”

This time, Gu Qiqi was no longer as gentle and friendly as before. Her expression suddenly became colder. “No, she can definitely make it to the finals!”

The two seniors who came with Beiming Tian opened their mouths in surprise.

This junior sister’s aura was really strong!

She actually dared to oppose Beiming Tian’s decision.

Beiming Tian looked like a cool and handsome school hunk, but he was actually a very stubborn person.

As expected, the next second, he said unhappily, “There’s no precedent for this. Which contestant will enter the finals without participating in the preliminary round? Besides... it’s still unknown if our school can enter the finals!”

Gu Qiqi replied calmly, “If there’s no precedent, we’ll create a precedent. Besides, we’ll definitely make it to the finals. There’s no doubt about that.”

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

Damn, he was going to be choked to death by this damn junior sister!

This damn woman looked better when she was gentle.

Beiming Tian rejected firmly. "I'm the captain. I call the shots."

Gu Qiqi was calm. "Yes, but as team members, we have the right to withdraw from the competition collectively."

Withdrawal!

F*ck, Gu Qiqi, you cunning and evil woman!!

A few minutes ago, she was clearly full of enthusiasm and had ignited everyone's fighting spirit with just a few words. Why did her expression change instantly at the mention of removing her team members?

She actually threatened him with a withdrawal!

He was also a man with principles, okay?

Beside him, a few freshmen urged nervously, "Senior, you must let Qiqi go on stage. She's the most awesome among the freshmen! If she doesn't go on stage, we'll definitely lose. We don't want to be useless forever. It's not easy for us to have a chance to counterattack..."

The veins on Beiming Tian's forehead popped.

After a while, he smiled. "Alright. Yang Xiaolan will come again in the finals."

Principles were nothing in front of this unreasonable woman. They were shattered in an instant.

Gu Qiqi was expressionless, as if this outcome was natural and not because of Beiming Tian's compromise.

On the other hand, Qiu Qiu was overjoyed.

Hehe, his protective master is the most beautiful and handsome in the universe!

After Gu Qiqi's show of strength, the other party's tone softened when they discussed the competition strategy.

Gu Qiqi did not stand on ceremony and pointed out the mistakes in the plan.

"The preliminary round tests emergency treatment. Although the person who is the chief surgeon is important, the person who cooperates can't be too weak. Especially if his drug identification skills are too bad and he gives the chief surgeon the wrong medicine... The surgery will be for nothing... I think I have said it in a more abstract way. How about this? You can understand how important the position of a 5v5 is when you fight against the King of Medicine. The final outcome of a messy positioning is being wiped out by the enemy..."

She made sense, and Beiming Tian and the rest had no choice but to redo the allocation of tasks.

The senior who wanted to show his face as the chief surgeon was depressingly sent to differentiate medicine, but he did not dare to say that Gu Qiqi's arrangement was wrong.

As they spoke, time passed unknowingly.

When they were almost done discussing it, Gu Qiqi's stomach hurt from hunger. When she was about to eat, she realized that the food was already cold.

Beiming Tian hesitated for a moment. Actually, he had not eaten either. Should he invite Gu Qiqi to eat together?

However, in this split second of hesitation, Qiu Qiu had already raised his hand. "Master, I'll heat it up for you!"

Chapter 764: Picture of Her Being Intimate With a Man

Gu Qiqi waved her hand. "No need. Hurry up and take a nap."

"But Master, your stomach will hurt if you eat cold food. Besides, it's not good for girls to eat cold food..."

Gu Qiqi said, "Hurry up and go to sleep. I don't want to see you dozing off in the arena."

Qiu Qiu was speechless. His master was taunting him!

At the side, Beiming Tian watched the two of them interact warmly, and an indescribable feeling surged in his heart.

He almost could not help but say to Gu Qiqi, "Why don't I treat you to a meal?"

However, the man's awkward reservedness made him hesitate.

Just as he saw that Gu Qiqi was about to eat cold food, a female student from the vet school ran in from outside the classroom. Her face was red. "Gu Qiqi, someone is looking for you!"

Gu Qiqi looked up. "Who's looking for me?"

"Oh, you'll know when you go to the school gate. His car is parked at the entrance. Hurry up, hurry up!"

Gu Qiqi frowned. Who could it be?

He came to the school to look for her in the afternoon? And he was driving?

There were only a few men she knew in the capital. Brother Tianyu? Impossible. They had just spoken. Chu Junmo? Impossible. He had business to discuss recently and had gone overseas. Bai Lang was in Africa and had only returned tonight after being pardoned. As for Bai Yiyuan, she was not familiar with him at all.

Who else could it be?

Could it be that jerk, Mu Liuchuan?

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned cold. She said coldly, "Tell him that I'm not free. I'm not going!"

The girl opened her mouth in surprise. No way?

That man was so hot and handsome that she could not close her legs. He was completely at the level of a domineering male god. How could Gu Qiqi refuse to meet him?

Oh my god!

The girl immediately shook her head and sighed. "No wonder that man said that if you refused to come out, he wouldn't mind spending a second to catch you personally! Do you want to go obediently or wait for him to carry you out? You can choose."

The girl's expression was exaggerated as she tried her best to imitate the man's cold and domineering tone. Unfortunately, she was not even close.

However, even though the similarity was one in ten thousand, it still made a lot of the girls in the class shiver.

God, how could there be such a simple, rough, and flirtatious boy?

Was he wooing Gu Qiqi?

If Qiqi was not going, they did not mind going on her behalf!

Let's go to the school gate to watch the domineering male god!

The restless gossip filled the air.

Gu Qiqi held her forehead helplessly and put down her chopsticks. "Alright, I'll go."

The moment the girl from the vet school said that, she knew who it was.

Other than that stuffy and stupid man, who else could say such childish things!

Seriously, didn't they just meet this morning? Why was he here again at noon after only a few hours?

As he watched Gu Qiqi leave, Beiming Tian almost reached out to invite her to eat with him, but he quickly retracted his hand.

How awkward.

He was almost rejected.

However, it was also depressing.

Perhaps he should have said a few seconds earlier. If they went out for dinner, the man waiting at the school gate would have to wait foolishly.

He could not help but ask Q', "Gu Qiqi has a boyfriend? Who is he?"

Qiu Qiu said with a smile, "Why? Are you interested in my master? I won't tell you, hehehe..."

Beiming Tian's Adam's apple rolled as he said coldly in exasperation, "Who's interested in her? It's only because of our team competition. I don't want her dating to affect her results! When she comes back, tell her that the academy forbids dating and ask her to pay attention to her actions!"

Qiu Qiu was speechless.

Tsk, he was indeed an abused dog!

As they were bickering, no one noticed that a new student was secretly fiddling with his phone under his desk and sending WeChat messages...

To: Gu Xuexue

Document: Picture+recording.

Chapter 765: Master Jue's Little Surprise

Soon, the student who secretly took photos and recordings received Gu Xuexue's reply.

"Not bad. Next time, remember to send me pictures and audio clips of Gu Qiqi. The price is negotiable!"

With that, she sent a 188 yuan red packet over.

The student quickly clicked on the word "open" on the red packet.

Wow, money really brings comfort!

He could earn more than a hundred yuan just by secretly taking a few photos of Gu Qiqi and recording a few sentences. This was really a good deal without any capital.

Even if she had to risk offending everyone in the Medicine Academy, she had to do it secretly!

Hmph, she was not interested in Gu Qiqi's poisonous words that encouraged everyone to work hard, participate in the school tournament, and get rid of useless students.

This useless school would not change anything. They were all a bunch of idiots.

==

At the same time.

In the senior year laboratory of the Forensic Medical School.

Gu Xuexue sat on Qin Zhiming's thigh and was so beautiful that she was bubbling. "Senior Brother Qin, I've got the photo and recording. I still need you to help me make them properly! I want Gu Qiqi to fail miserably this time!"

Qin Zhiming touched her leg and turned on the computer. He imported the photos and recordings and opened a professional software for editing audio and pictures.

She asked casually, "Who is Gu Qiqi? Is she worth you going through so much trouble to mess with her?"

A vicious glint flashed across Gu Xuexue's eyes. She pretended to be aggrieved and said, "Senior Brother, did you forget? She was the one who exposed you the last time. She deliberately told Senior Sister Xu Xinli about us and caused Sister Xinli to beat me up. She even canceled my participation rights today. Sob..."

"So it's that arrogant bitch..." Qin Zhiming's expression turned ugly. "Don't worry, I'll participate in the competition this afternoon and avenge you!"

Qin Zhiming was very unhappy when he thought about how Xu Xinli had interrogated him in public about whether he was unfaithful and betrayed her, causing him to lose face in the school, and even causing the marriage between the Qin and Xu families to be canceled.

What was wrong with men playing outside?

Don't all families have red flags? Why was she so serious!

Hmph, that honest woman Xu Xinli must have been led astray by that slut. He had to teach that insensible freshman a lesson.

"Senior Brother still dotes on me the most. Boohoo... But let's edit the pictures first. I'll send these to the man she wants to fawn on. I'll definitely make her lose face!"

"Okay. How?"

"Hmm, in that picture, you photoshop Gu Qiqi and Beiming Tian's heads closer. Yes, yes, make it seem like their two heads are facing each other and are about to kiss..."

"That's simple. What else?"

"There's also an audio recording. Remove the other voices and leave behind the sentence 'Brother Tianyu'. Can you soften the voice so that it sounds coquettish, seductive, and cheap..."

"Done!"

"Wow, Senior Brother, you're really awesome!"

"What's this? It's so simple. Senior Brother has something even more awesome. Do you want to try it?"

"How annoying. Senior Brother, this is a laboratory. Don't..."

"It's only exciting when you're facing a dead person's specimen in the laboratory!"

"Boohoo. Senior Brother, wait a moment. I'll send the edited message—!"

"You can post it while being at the front while your Senior Brother is at the back. It doesn't conflict with me!"

Amidst a series of wretched cries.

Gu Xuexue sent a message.

To: Gong Jue's father.

At this moment, at the school gate.

Gong Jue sat in the car and looked at his watch repeatedly. He glanced at the “small surprise” he had personally prepared and could no longer sit still.

Why isn't the stupid woman here yet? Is she waiting for me to carry her myself?

Chapter 766: Surprise and Shock

Gong Jue was about to look for her personally.

However, he did not expect that Gu Qiqi would reach out her hand to knock on the car window.

She could not help but lean back as the car door blocked her.

Gong Jue took a big step forward and his slender arms scooped up her small snake-like waist.

The two of them were at a 45-degree angle and stopped in midair for a moment.

Gong Jue chuckled and pulled her into his arms. “Dumb woman, are you surprised? Are you surprised?”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. She could not bear to look him in the eye! What kind of eye-piercing skill did this stupid man activate again?

The female students who passed by the school gate covered their mouths. They were stunned by Gong Jue's extremely handsome swift and powerful actions.

“Who is this man? He has a good figure and skills!”

“Is he driving such a handsome car to pick up his girlfriend?”

“That female student seems to be from the pharmaceutical school. Her name is Qi...”

Gu Qiqi held her forehead and pinched Gong Jue's palm. “What surprise? You almost scared me. Let's get in the car first!”

If she continued to be surrounded like this, she would probably make the headlines on the school forum tomorrow!

Gong Jue waved at the students passing by and zipped his mouth before closing the car door with a bang.

It isolated the cries of “Handsome!”

What a monster.

Gu Qiqi complained in her heart.

Gong Jue closed the car door, his lips still slightly curled up.

During the few times he came to the Empire Medical University, he could keep a low profile and try not to show his face.

However, as the day Gu Qiqi wanted to give him an answer approached, the cells in his body seemed to be especially restless. He could not help but want to do something to declare his ownership.

“You didn’t eat.” He stated without questioning.

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips. “Yes.”

Please, if you hadn’t suddenly summoned me, I would have finished my cold lunch box.

“I knew you would be disobedient!” Gong Jue pulled a long face and patted her little butt.

Then, he took out a basket from under his seat.

Gu Qiqi took it suspiciously.

A simple and rough man like Gong Jue would not do something as heartwarming and romantic as giving her lunch, right?

When she opened the basket.

She was stunned.

This time, it was really a double blow of surprise and shock!

In the basket, there were three thermal lunch boxes. One was a lunch box, one was a soup bowl, and one was a dessert box. When she opened them, there were three simple dishes: fragrant Egg Fried Rice, steaming hot winter melon meatball soup, and a bowl of plum stained mango.

It was very simple. It was so simple that ordinary people would think that such food was not worth sending over.

However, Gu Qiqi looked at the three exquisite thermos boxes with misty eyes.

She smelled home.

Many years after her mother passed away, after Gu Qiushan wanted to sell her off and break off their father-daughter relationship, and after she died tragically and was reborn, she had almost forgotten what home tasted like.

She thought that she would never have a home in this lifetime.

This man had used such an unbelievable method to instantly influence her heart, causing her to think about her past. A part of her heart that was missing was slowly filled up by him...

How annoying. Just as she decided to walk alone, a voice tempted her. “Hey, I have strong shoulders here. Come and lean on me...”

Gong Jue realized that Gu Qiqi was staring at the food without moving. She lowered her eyes and remained silent.

He panicked a little, but he pretended to be angry and said, "You don't like it? In order to cook for you, my hands are burning so badly!"

Chapter 767: Failed at Flirting

Gu Qiqi smiled helplessly.

That's right. This was Gong Jue's style.

She knew that Gong Jue had specially prepared light dishes for her because she had a competition in the afternoon and did not sleep well last night.

She was not stupid, how could she not tell!

This stupid man did not even know how to explain. His words were so unpleasant. He was really a demon who failed at flirting.

She smiled and ate the fried rice.

Oh, his culinary skills were not bad.

It was actually a seemingly ordinary Egg Fried Rice with pine mushrooms, fish roe, and fresh prawn balls. It was super delicious.

In the winter melon meatball soup, there were barley grains that were fair and moist. The meatball was actually a handmade beef tendon ball. After drinking a bowl of the soup, her stomach felt better.

When Gu Qiqi finished the dessert, she wiped her mouth. "Why don't you cook in the Mo Garden in the future? I think it's much better than what the servants make."

She was just joking.

Unexpectedly, Gong Jue looked at her deeply. "Alright. If you're willing to eat my cooking for the rest of your life, I won't oppose it!

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

F*ck! She had misjudged him just now. Who said that a stupid man did not know how to flirt?

She finally understood that this stupid man was using his skills to get girls and did not realize that he was flirting. It was just natural!

A critical hit made her lose 50% of her blood. She was on the verge of collapse.

No, she hadn't figured out how to come clean with him about that embarrassing past.

Besides, she had yet to take revenge and her brother's illness had not been cured. She was not mentally prepared to step in and enjoy a passionate relationship. That would make her feel guilty.

No, she had to protect her territory and escape quickly.

“Well, the competition starts at two in the afternoon. There’s still half an hour left. I have to go back and prepare.” Gu Qiqi put down her lunch box and was about to leave.

Gong Jue narrowed his deep eyes. “I’ve already called the principal and postponed the competition to three o’clock.”

What?

Gong Jue, is it really good for you to use your connections like this?

Gu Qiqi’s eyes darted around. “Yes, thank you! Then, I won’t waste time chatting. I’ll go back to the dormitory to sleep. Bye!”

Just as she was praising herself for her wit.

Gong Jue pressed a button on the steering wheel.

There was a slight sound in the car.

Then, the back of the seat in the front row stretched out and turned into a double bed!

What?

There was actually such a thing... Heaven really wanted me dead.

Gong Jue smirked. “Rest here to save time.”

Perhaps because she was too satisfied with lunch, Gu Qiqi was hugged by Gong Jue on the “car bed”. Gong Jue’s suit covered her, and within a minute, her eyelids started to flutter.

At the last second before she fell asleep, she could not help but look at Gong Jue.

The man’s eyes were the same as hers. They were both light green, and they made her heart ache.

Actually, he had been busy the entire night like her and did not sleep.

However, he did not rest and he personally cooked for her and sent her to school. He tried his best to accompany her for her lunch break.

She knew that he was using his own way to support her in the competition and fulfill her dream.

Gong Jue’s skills had already defeated her completely. There was only a little bit of blood left!

An hour later.

Gu Qiqi was woken up by her phone vibrating.

Gong Jue was unhappy and wanted to turn off this harassment call.

When Gu Qiqi saw the name “Xiaolan” on the caller ID, she immediately sobered up and answered the call. “Xiaolan, you’re finally here!”

Xiaolan choked on her sobs. “Qiqi, my father can’t take it anymore. He has a critical illness. The doctor said that he won’t be able to make it through tonight...”

Gu Qiqi's heart tightened. "I'll go see you guys!"

Xiaolan sobbed. "Qiqi, can you help me find a temporary boyfriend? My father was worried about me and said that I don't have a boyfriend. He will die with regrets..."

Upon hearing the word boyfriend, Gong Jue became alert. "Dumb woman, you can't go!"

Chapter 768: A Boyfriend as Gift

Gu Qiqi glared at Gong Jue speechlessly.

Xiaolan needed a boyfriend, not a girlfriend. Gong Jue, why are you so nervous?

She turned to the receiver. "Xiaolan, don't be anxious. Is Uncle's condition that serious?"

She knew that Yang Iron Fist's health was not good. The last time she went to the Yang family, Yang Iron Fist kept coughing and his legs were not very agile. Gu Qiqi did not need to check his pulse to guess that there was something wrong with his lungs and legs.

She prescribed medicine for Yang Iron Fist and reminded Xiaolan to urge him to go to the hospital for a diagnosis before discussing the next step.

Logically speaking, although those herbs could not cure him immediately, there should be no problem maintaining his current state.

How could it suddenly be so serious that a critical illness notice was about to be issued?

Yang Xiaolan sounded like she was about to cry. "Qiqi, he was fine after taking the medicine you prescribed. However, his condition suddenly worsened a few days ago. He couldn't even walk, breathing was difficult, and he couldn't eat. He lost ten kilograms. He had been busy designing Lan Ting's new jewelry and refused to waste time to go to the hospital for a checkup. In the end, he only went when he really couldn't take it anymore. The moment he went, he was found to have late-stage lung cancer, late-stage bone cancer, and the cancer cells had already spread to his esophagus... The doctor said that it can't be cured and he can only wait for death..."

Gu Qiqi frowned deeply. "How did this happen..."

Yang Iron Fist was really too hard working!

In order to take back his reputation and leave Xiaolan with the capital to live, he had overdrawn his life!

Even when he was in a critical condition, he only remembered his daughter's happiness.

He was really a good father who loved his daughter and protected her.

Yang Xiaolan sobbed. "Qiqi, he doesn't have any other wishes now. He just wants to see me have a boyfriend to take care of me for the rest of my life. I coaxed him before and said that I have one, but now he just wants to see what the boyfriend I'm talking about looks like... Sob... I... I've never even dated before. Where can I find a boyfriend for him to go in peace..."

Yang Iron Fist's love for his daughter and Yang Xiaolan's filial piety made Gu Qiqi's heart ache when she heard this. She felt terrible. "Alright, I'll help you think of a way. How about Qiu Qiu?"

Xiao Lan shook her head. "He can't fool my father. He's... a little chubby. Dad knows I don't like chubby boys..."

Gu Qiqi facepalmed.

She wished that she could immediately make Qiu Qiu lose 40kg.

But who else was there?

Beiming Tian was a good candidate, but that awkward and cocky fellow would definitely not agree.

Xiaolan suggested timidly, "Qiqi, can you ask your friend, Young Master Ye, to help?"

Young Master Ye?

Gu Qiqi did not react for a moment. "Which Young Master Ye?"

"It's... Young Master Ye who helped us buy jade raw materials previously."

Gu Qiqi immediately understood.

Cough cough cough. Young Master Ye... Wasn't it just her disguised as a man?

"Alright, I'll give you a boyfriend! Wait for me."

The moment she hung up, Gu Qiqi met the man's angry gaze. "What boyfriend? Huh?"

Gu Qiqi covered her face. "No, it's just that Xiaolan's father is critically ill. I have to go comfort them..."

"The way you comfort them is to let her father realize that his daughter likes women?"

"Cough, cough, cough. Of course not. I'll change into a man's outfit." Gu Qiqi did not plan to hide it from Gong Jue. "You saw me in a man's outfit the other day. However, I didn't put on any makeup at that time. If I put on makeup, I'll definitely look like a real man!"

Unexpectedly, Gong Jue's expression turned even uglier after hearing this explanation.

His wife is going to be someone else's husband?

Just thinking about it made him extremely unhappy!

He had seen Gu Qiqi in a male outfit before. Even though she did not put on any makeup at that time, she still looked handsome. He suspected that he was gay when he saw her.

No, both Gu Qiqi's male and female look could only belong to him!

He definitely could not let that Yang Xiaolan woman snatch her away!

Chapter 769: Secret Art of Rebirth

It was almost time for the competition. Gu Qiqi jumped out of the car. "Don't wait for me to eat tonight!"

She had to end the battle quickly. She still had to visit Uncle Yang and Xiaolan in the hospital. Her schedule was full today.

She thought that Gong Jue, that possessive fellow, would make things difficult for her.

She was even prepared to pounce on him if he objected. Yes, she would have kissed him.

Unexpectedly, Gong Jue replied calmly, "Okay."

He actually agreed!

Gu Qiqi was stunned for a moment before she decided to reward this man.

She curled her lips and pounced on him. Yes, she kissed him thrice!

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows and enjoyed a certain woman's initiative. His eyes darkened.

He quickly made a call. "Special Assistant Lu, call the best cancer specialist to give Yang Iron Fist an emergency consultation!"

More than ten minutes later.

Yang Iron Fist was transferred to the Empire's First Hospital.

An hour later.

All the top cancer specialists in the country were gathered.

Two hours later.

The news came—

Yang Tiezhu was diagnosed with lung cancer and bone cancer. There was even a little brain tumor, and they were all late-stage. The patient was too old, and was not suitable for radiotherapy. If the surgery was not done cleanly, it would cause complications.

All the doctors agreed that Yang Iron Fist could only wait for death.

Gong Jue sat in the car and his gaze deepened.

Yang Xiaolan was not lying. Yang Iron Fist was really about to die.

An old father's last wish was to see his daughter's boyfriend. Was he really going to stop Gu Qiqi from helping this old man fulfill his last wish?

However, Gu Qiqi was his woman!

How could she be someone else's girlfriend or boyfriend!

However, Yang Xiaolan had already told Yang Iron Fist that Young Master Ye was her boyfriend. This made it impossible for Gong Jue to find a man to replace him at the last minute!

At the thought that Yang Xiaolan was affectionately calling Gu Qiqi “darling”, Gong Jue felt uncomfortable.

What if Yang Iron Fist got excited and made Yang Xiao Lan and Qiqi swear to get married in front of him? F*ck, before he could marry his wife, she would be married to a woman first!

Just thinking about it made him feel his head spin!

Even the top experts of the Empire were helpless. There was really nothing they could do.

Unless...

Using that ancient secret technique...

Gong Jue gritted his teeth and made a call. “Mother, can you use the Secret Art of Rebirth again...”

In the Empire Medical University’s auditorium.

The annual school tournament began.

Although the starting time was inexplicably delayed by an hour, the entire competition process was still the same as previous years.

The representatives of all the colleges carried out the preliminary round and selected the top eight.

After the finals, the top three would be decided.

The school that was ranked first would be heavily supported by the Empire Medical University in terms of research, teaching, and funding for the next year.

The university would also engrave the results of the competition on the golden honor wall of the academy.

In the past decade, the wall of honor had been filled with the names of students from the clinical medicine school!

Therefore, every year, the school’s major research projects, funding, and overseas teaching metrics were all snatched away by the clinical medical school.

Schools like the Forensic Medical School could occasionally enter the top three and reap some benefits. As for schools like the Veterinary School and the Pharmaceutical School, they were always second to last.

They were really useless schools!

At this moment, on the platform, Beiming Tian was leading Gu Qiqi and the rest to the pharmaceutical academy’s representative team.

The students in the audience immediately burst into laughter!

“Tsk tsk, the trash academy actually snatched another spot this time! Do they think that they can win with more people? It’s just that they have another piece of trash!”

“It’s a waste of Beiming Tian’s good looks. It’s a pity that good looks can’t be used as talent! It can’t change the last place of a trash school!”

Chapter 770: You Can’t Slap Your Face With Your Mouth

The harsh mockery mixed with sarcastic applause crackled through the audience.

Beiming Tian’s expression darkened, and he clenched his fists tightly. His teeth creaked from clenching them, but he could not bring himself to lose his temper. Qiu Qiu did not care about that. He was so angry that he glared at the audience and opened his mouth to scold back.

Gu Qiqi, on the other hand, was calm and composed. She knocked on Qiu Qiu’s shoulder. “Disciple, remember this for your master. A slap to the face is not done with your mouth...”

Qiu Qiu immediately felt enlightened. He stopped cursing and swore. “I understand, Master! I want to use my strength to smack their faces. I must perform well in the competition later!”

Gu Qiqi smiled. “No, it’s more painful to hit a face with a brick.”

Qiu Qiu was speechless.

Master, Master, you are indeed a violent woman! I admire you!

After everyone took their seats and heard the principal give a dignified speech, the competition officially began.

The competition segment had already been announced to the various colleges three days in advance. Just like in the past years, it tested emergency treatment.

Don’t think that you can cheat or be too simple just because the question was revealed in advance.

In fact, there was something special about this first aid.

Naturally, there were very simple things like heat stroke emergency, alcohol poisoning emergency, gas poisoning emergency, falling from the sky, and broken bones...

However, there were also ones that were very difficult!

For example, first aid, sedation, hypnotherapy poisoning, cinnabar poisoning, electrocution, and emergency treatment for brain trauma after an accident. If a person was not careful, the patient would die.

The most difficult part was the emergency treatment for maternal eclampsia in the Gynecology Department. Not to mention the students, even a gynecologist might not be able to save the patient.

All the emergency treatment projects were written on a note. They were mixed up and placed in a lucky draw box for the various colleges to draw on the spot.

It all depended on one’s ability to pick the questions!

The first question drawn by the Clinical Medical School.

The one he drew was a standard “rabies emergency treatment”. Yes, it was relatively simple.

The person in charge of drawing the questions was Liu Guanghui. He was also the leader of the clinical medicine school. When he saw this question, he could not hide the smugness on his face.

Hehe, although Han Bingyue’s injuries were not healed and she could not go on stage, he had drawn such a simple question to start the competition today. This year’s clinical medicine school would definitely be the first!

The next question drawn by the vet school was more unlucky. The question drawn was “first aid for urethra damage”. Not only was it a little difficult, but it was also a little awkward.

The representative team of the veterinary school wailed and looked at Liu Guanghui resentfully. Oh, oh, it was clearly their vet school that was more suitable to treat rabies! God really favored the clinical medicine school and not their vet school!

Some people secretly looked at where Gu Qiqi was and muttered in frustration, “If only Qiqi was here. She would definitely be able to solve all the questions!” They still remembered the skill that Gu Qiqi used to dissect Gu Yuanyuan’s frog in the vet school!

Then, Qin Zhiming from the Forensic Medical School went on stage to draw a question.

He unfolded the note and smiled.

“First aid for pesticide poisoning!”

This was too simple.

Their Forensic Medical School had been in contact with all kinds of poisoned corpses.

Pesticide poisoning was one of the most common causes of death. It could be said that they were completely familiar with the solution to pesticide poisoning.

He blinked at Gu Xuexue who was below the stage and said silently, “Be good, babe.. I’ll take revenge for you. I’ll definitely kill that little bitch Gu Qiqi instantly!”
