

Dear Chief 841

Chapter 841 Awesome, Using Medical Skills to Win The Plagiarism Case (3)

Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue couldn't help but exchange looks.

"That country bumpkin Gu Qiqi is really inexperienced. She actually dared to quarrel with the number one lawyer in the Empire. Is she tired of living?"

"Very good. Let her argue foolishly. The more Wang Yongxin hates her, the more beneficial it is for us. This way, Wang Yongxin will spare no effort to defend us!"

"Mommy, tell me, why would Gu Qiqi appear on the witness stand? The Yang family can't even find evidence regarding the Yang family's matter. What does she know?"

"Heh heh, she's courting death! She thinks that coming here to stand out will be beneficial, or she thinks that she can scare us. Childish!"

"Yes, it must be a childish illness. She must have been too successful in her love life recently. She thought that she had really curried favor with the Gong family and Master Jue. She was so smug that her tail was about to reach the sky. She actually dared to argue with a lawyer in court... She's really courting death!"

Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue discussed quietly. Little did she know that after Gu Qiqi casually bickered with Wang Yongxin, she lowered her eyes to look at the trial procedures and the case file information. That seriousness she had did not show the slightest bit of laziness from laughing at her enemy just now. The process of the Empire Court's review of intellectual property cases like Xiaolan's family wasn't complicated. There were four main segments. According to the order, one was for the parties involved to make a statement, two was for the court to raise the evidence, three was for the witnesses to testify, and finally, the judge will declare the verdict.

The most important part in the middle was the examination and cross-examination. This was a debate about crucial evidence.

Boom!

A dignified mallet sounded.

The lawyers from both sides were in position!

Mu Tianyu nodded at Gu Qiqi on the stage.

Gu Qiqi gave him an encouraging look. "Brother Tianyu, you can do it!"

Xiao Ning also rushed over while panting.

She wasn't as reserved as Gu Qiqi.

Please, Brother Tianyu was her fiancé. She smiled mischievously and made a heart-shaped gesture. She placed it on her chest and pushed it out.

Mu Tianyu's refined and handsome face flushed red!

Gu Qiqi looked at Xiao Ning and then at Mu Tianyu. One of these two people was talented and the other was good-looking. They were very compatible. Of course, the premise was that no third party interfered!

She couldn't help but whisper, "What's your uncle's attitude towards your engagement?" Xiao Ning was smiling happily. Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi mentioned Bai Yeyuan. Her small face immediately paled. "Little Uncle... He... He said that he won't interfere with my marriage..."

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi frowned even more tightly. That bastard Bai Yeyuan! He actually took Little Lemon's innocence and made her marry someone else? What was the difference between this and a toy?

"Little Lemon, you..." Gu Qiqi was about to persuade Xiao Ning to get rid of Bai Yeyuan as soon as possible.

n as

However, Gong Jue's careless golden sentence suddenly rang in her ears, "Since your friend has been hiding this relationship from her, there must be a reason for it. It's inappropriate for others to make random comments. If she really wants to tell you one day, it's not too late to help her then!"

Sigh, what Gong Jue said made sense!

But despite the logic, she really couldn't stand it anymore. Bai Yeyuan was bullying Xiao Ning like this.

Seeing Gu Qiqi's unpredictable expression, Xiao Ning couldn't help but say carefully, "I... That hand gesture just now didn't have any other meaning. It was to say to Brother Tianyu, I believe you! This is really a very pure encouragement. My uncle won't be angry even if he knows!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Look at your timid look. Bai Yeyuan really has you under his thumb.

Be careful, Little Lemon!

Don't let him eat you until there's only a layer of sour lemony skin left!

Chapter 842 Awesome, Using Medical Skills to Win The Plagiarism Case (4)

While Gu Qiqi and Xiao Ning were talking in a low voice, the lawyers from both sides had already made the preliminary statements of the case on behalf of the parties involved.

Next, it was time to testify in court!

According to the rules of the law, whoever made the claim had to provide the evidence for the civil case.

The Yang father and daughter claimed that Yang Xiaoqing plagiarized their jade jewelry design drafts and smuggled a large batch of jade jewelry. Naturally, they had to bring up the evidence of the other party plagiarizing and stealing! Wasn't that very unfair? Their things had been stolen and they still had to spend so much effort to prove that the other party was a thief. The law sometimes seemed to be protecting ordinary people from being falsely accused, but in fact, it also provided the perfect excuse for a thief to shirk responsibility!

Fortunately, Mu Tianyu was really super professional and super responsible.

Such a difficult plagiarism case had almost no evidence that could be presented. However, the evidence was dug up by Mu Tianyu and he hired a special professional international jade carving master from overseas to validate the designs.

By comparing Yang Iron Fist's carving technique with Yang Xiaoqing's so-called "work", it proved that Yang Xiaoqing's "work" style was identical to Yang Iron Fist's.

It was even possible that it was the same person's work!

This expert evidence was quite important!

If it could be accepted by the judge, then Yang Xiaoqing's plagiarism would be a done deal.

Yang Xiaolan was so touched that she was about to cry. No matter how famous this young lawyer was, he would definitely do his best for her family's case.

Xiao Ning was even more fascinated. Brother Tianyu was really handsome. How about she stop being a vet after graduation and ask Brother Tianyu for a job? She could be his secretary at his law firm.

Only Gu Qiqi was relatively calm. After all, she was already very immune to handsome men like Gong Jue.

However, seeing Mu Tianyu's unrestrained and handsome testimony in court with her own eyes, she still couldn't help but nod in satisfaction.

Gu Meifeng and Yang Xiaoqing's lawyer, Wang Yongxin, was not to be trifled with. When it was his turn to cross-examine the evidence, he raised three questions in a row!

Firstly, foreign experts might not be familiar with the Empire's jade carving methods.

Secondly, even if the jade carving methods were identical, they couldn't confirm that they had been plagiarism because Yang Xiaoqing was Iron Fist Yang's disciple to begin with. The disciple's creative methods were the same as his master's. This was simply normal. At most, this could mean that Iron Fist Yang wasn't a bad master and had taught his disciple some real ability. However, if his master was jealous of his disciple earning money because of this and slandered his disciple for plagiarizing, then that would show that the master was lacking in morals.

Before he said the third point, he glanced viciously at Gu Qiqi on the witness stand and said coldly, "The Yang family's witness has a suspicious background. Even a little girl who's still studying in university can sit on the witness stand. It can be seen that the Yang family's evidence is very unreliable! We don't know if that so-called foreign expert witness is a fake!"

The first and second points struck the nail on the head.

This last point was simply heartbreaking!

As expected, as soon as Wang Yongxin finished speaking, the judge nodded.

It was as if she was glad that she did not listen to Mu Tianyu's defense and evidence too early.

The situation was instantly unfavorable for Xiao Lan and Qi Qi!!!

Wang Yongxin could not help but feel even more proud of himself. He directly refuted the so-called “original evidence” that Yang Xiaoqing had prepared and requested the judge to sentence Xiao Lan and her daughter to a false accusation. He also requested for them to pay 80 million yuan for defamation!

Chapter 843 Gu Qiqi’s Top Secret Weapon! How Handsome!

Wang Yongxin glanced at Gu Qiqi coldly. “Your Honor, I still want to sue this little girl. She’s looking down on the court by sitting on the witness stand!”

Seeing that Wang Yongxin was momentarily smug and had finally revealed all his trump cards, he even shamelessly tried to sue her.

Gu Qiqi slowly curved her lips and smiled. Heh heh, this vulgar guy who couldn’t hold his anger back was nothing more than the so-called number one lawyer in the Empire!

She immediately threw a glance at Mu Tianyu on the stage. Mu Tianyu understood tacitly and said, “Your Honor, I request to add evidence!”

Wang Yongxin was stunned.

Then, he frowned. “No!”

The other party actually had new evidence? Was it a recording or a video? Could it be a trump card? Could it be that Yang Xiaoqing had left something behind after stealing back then?

Damn it.

He was actually careless just now and thought that he was definitely going to win. That was why he was so smug and showed all the evidence that he had to clear Yang Xiaoqing’s name.

This way, if the other party had new evidence, he wouldn’t have more evidence to refute him.

The judge said, “Lawyer Wang, objection overruled. I agree with the addition of evidence.”

Hmph, this Wang Yongxin was too arrogant. He actually dared to object to something that only a judge had the right to make a decision.

Who did he think he was?!

Seeing that the judge’s attitude had also changed subtly, Gu Qiqi slowly stood up. “Your Honor, I’m the new witness.”

The judge asked, “Are you very familiar with the Yang family?”

“Not really, so there’s no benefit or harm. I can guarantee fair and just evidence.” “Okay. What’s your new evidence? Evidence or physical evidence?” The gavel knocked again.

“It’s a test report.” Gu Qiqi took her time and handed over a piece of paper!

Wang Yongxin glanced at it in disdain.

Heh heh, she had never heard of plagiarism before, right?

The judge took a look and his gaze immediately changed.

His hands were almost trembling, and his voice was slightly excited. "How did you come up with this 'bacteria distribution map'? Is it recognized by the International Medical Association?"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "Yes, the seal behind is the confirmation of the International Medical Association. It can be used as evidence in court."

"This evidence... is too perfect..." The judge could not help but sigh.

As a judge, before making the judgment, he could not make prophetic conclusions or praise or belittlement.

However, Gu Qiqi's new evidence was too shocking. This was the first time it appeared in the entire Empire, and he could not help but be shocked.

The judge and Gu Qiqi's conversation about the evidence stunned everyone present.

Wang Yongxin could not help but ask, "Your Honor, please release the evidence for everyone to examine!"

Three seconds later.

Upon seeing that appraisal certificate, Wang Yongxin broke out in a cold sweat. "How is that possible?! This requires a type of medical skill. How can it be evidence?!"

That's right. Bacterial identification was a medical skill! Everyone had dozens of different bacteria in their hands.

The bacteria contained in everyone's body were different.

Therefore, items that different people had touched could be tested for completely different bacteria.

Gu Qiqi visited ten rich women and borrowed 50 jade jewelry that they had bought from Yang Xiaoqing. Through the cracks in the jewelry, she successfully retrieved the exact same bacterial group as the one in Iron Fist Yang's hand! But it was completely different from the bacterial group in Yang Xiaoqing's hand.

What did this mean?

This meant that the jewelry had been carved by Yang Iron Fist's hand. It was an original work of Yang Iron Fist.

Yang Xiaoqing was just a thief!

She stood calmly and introduced this very fresh evidence method to everyone. She received thunderous applause from the judges and the jury.

How cool!

She was too cool! This new evidence had refreshed their worldview!

They initially thought that medical expertise was used in forensic anatomy in court and didn't expect that medical expertise had such a handsome use!

Chapter 844 Cowardly!

The thunderous applause didn't stop for a long time.

The judge and the jury looked at Gu Qiqi, the witness, in admiration.

Using the bacteria left behind by the original creator on the jade jewelry to confirm the original creator of the jade work... This evidence was really superb!

It would probably create a miracle in the history of the Empire's law.

Only Gu Meifeng, Yang Xiaoqing, and Wang Yongxin had ashen expressions. They looked extremely ugly!

She was just a medical student, but she actually had such cutting-edge and professional testimony skills. Why didn't they believe it?!

Wang Yongxin said in a low voice indignantly, "Hmph! Perhaps this cunning woman did something to the evidence! She can certainly add bacteria later on!"

Oh, this possibility existed in theory...

However, Gu Qiqi casually took out another certification.

"The entire process of my deposition was accompanied by the Empire's certification team which bore witness to the process. There was no chance to add anything that shouldn't be there."

Heh heh, did he think that she wasn't prepared?

This evidence is slapping your face and making you speechless!

Indeed, Wang Yongxin was defeated.

Gu Qiqi curved her lips lightly. "If there are still doubts, I don't mind being the witness. I can use the jade jewelry in Yang Xiaoqing's warehouse and casually change one to see if there's the bacteria on Yang Xiaoqing's hand or the bacteria on Yang Iron Fist's hand!"

Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue still shouted recklessly, "Let her be the witness!"

Yang Xiaoqing was already terrified.

No one knew better than him how those jade jewelry came to be!

He had directly moved it out from Iron Fist Yang's warehouse!

Among the jewelry that he sold, 100% were Yang Iron Fist's works. Later on, the jewelry that he produced according to Yang Iron Fist's blueprint was far from being as good as Yang Iron Fist's original work.

As long as any one was tested, he would definitely be exposed!

“No, there’s no need to go through so much trouble. I’m willing to reconcile...” Yang Xiaoqing lacked confidence. “I... I’m not in good health either. I don’t want to fight this lawsuit anymore. Ahem, ahem, ahem. It hurts whenever I cough. I... I’ll apply for a recess...”

Gu Qiqi looked at Xiaolan.

Yang Xiaolan clenched her fists. “We don’t agree to a reconciliation!”

Gu Qiqi nodded in agreement. “The plagiarist has to pay the price. Yang Xiaoqing, why didn’t you ask if your conscience hurt when you stole your master’s work? Also, when you gave Iron Fist Yang poisonous flowers, why didn’t you think about whether it would hurt if he had cancer?”

Yang Xiaoqing’s pupils shrank! What?

Gu Qiqi actually knew that he was the one who caused Iron Fist Yang to have cancer?

How did Gu Qiqi know about such a secret?

Thinking that this woman’s medical expertise was outstanding and she could actually use her medical expertise to testify in court, then it shouldn’t be a problem to solve a case with her medical expertise.

He panicked even more. He stood up from the plaintiff’s seat and actually wanted to escape from the court.

If Gu Qiqi, this cunning woman, caught hold of his other weaknesses, not only would he lose the lawsuit, but he might also be sent to jail!

If Iron Fist Yang died from illness, wouldn’t he commit murder?

Yang Xiaoqing’s abnormal situation made the judge on the stage very unhappy. “Plaintiff, you’re not allowed to leave your seat by yourself! Go back to your seat and be quiet!”

However, Yang Xiaoqing seemed to have gone crazy and escaped outside without a care. Even when the staff came to stop him, he still refused to stop.

In fact, he even bit them.

In the end, the staff controlled him and pressed him onto the plaintiff’s seat.

Gu Qiqi turned around and looked at him. The faint coldness in her eyes seemed to be silently saying,

Chapter 845 A Daughter Was Just A Compensation Good

“Heh heh, I won’t let you have a good end. Wait for your death!”

The bone-chilling coldness that Gu Qiqi’s silent gaze revealed pierced Yang Xiaoqing’s back!

He knew very well that he had plagiarized and harmed people. He lied continuously and earned countless dollars. There was always a fear in the depths of his heart. He was afraid of being exposed.

That was why he was even more aggressive. He bit the Yang father and daughter and followed Gu Meifeng and the rest to scold Gu Qiqi for being poor.

However, Gu Qiqi's evidence in court today had already exposed his crimes step by step. The weakness in his heart gradually revealed itself.

At this moment, Gu Qiqi's cold and sharp gaze was like the last straw that finally crushed him completely!

He suddenly collapsed and shouted, "I'm not guilty! I'm not guilty! Who asked Iron Fist Yang to not hand Qing Yuxuan to me after so long? A daughter is a good-for-nothing. Doesn't he understand? She can't even give birth to a son. If he doesn't hand the Yang family's assets to me, will he just give them to his future son-in-law easily?! I helped him strengthen Qing Yuxuan. He should thank me!"

Yang Xiaoqing's nonsense made the judge frown fiercely. "Disruption to Court Proceedings. Drag him away!" On the way to being dragged out, Yang Xiaoqing struggled forcefully. Suddenly, his lungs seemed to be unable to breathe. He roared twice, rolled his eyes, and actually fainted.

Yang Xiaolan's eyes were already filled with tears as she resisted the urge to cry.

Yes, weren't they bullying her for not having a brother?

She was her father's only daughter. She wasn't that kind of genius girl, nor was she domineering. In everyone's eyes, she was that kind of "good-for-nothing daughter", right? Thus, Yang Xiaoqing had evil intentions!

If she was more capable, why would she be bullied?

Gu Qiqi gently caressed her shoulder. "Xiaolan, don't listen to his crazy words and belittle yourself. There's still a long way to go in life. Who knows that you won't shock everyone in the future? You should operate Lan Ting well and use your strength to prove to everyone that their criticism is nonsense!"

Xiaolan nodded with tears in her eyes!

In the following trial, the situation suddenly reversed.

The new evidence that Gu Qiqi raised was accepted by the judge.

Wang Yongxin had no way of refuting this. One of the plaintiffs even left in court in a frenzy. The plaintiff's team could be said to be steadily losing ground.

At the final verdict, Gu Qiqi and Xiaolan's team won the lawsuit without any suspense!

Xiaolan was so excited that she called Yang Iron Fist on the spot to tell them the good news. Who knew that there was also a joyous occasion on Yang Iron Fist's end? "Xiao Lan, ask Qiqi to tell Young Master Ye that his medical skills are too amazing. I did a full-body checkup today. The doctor said that the tumor in my lungs is already shrinking, and the tumor in my brain is completely gone! From a medical point of view, this is simply a miraculous recovery of cancer..." "Dad!" Xiaolan burst into tears.

"Silly child, why are you crying? I feel that I'm especially strong now. I should be able to return to the working world again. I'll work for another twenty years. Heh heh, perhaps I still have the strength to take care of your grandchildren!"

Xiaolan hugged Gu Qiqi and sobbed.

Gu Qiqi patted her back lightly. Sigh, it seemed that it would take a long time for Xiaolan to grow into a manly woman...

But it was also good. Who said that women had to be as strong as iron to continue living? Sometimes, perhaps she could use softness to overcome hardness. For example, once Xiaolan cried, her originally hard-hearted heart would completely soften. She really hoped that she could grow ten hands and coax her younger sister in all aspects!

Chapter 846 I'll Let You Die On Your Knees!

Gu Qiqi and the rest held the victory lawsuit and were about to walk out of the court.

They received a third piece of good news!

A forensic doctor rushed in and reported to the judge, "Your Honor, that plaintiff Yang Xiaoqing just now has been sent for emergency treatment and we discovered that he's already in the late stages of the black lung disease. Should we send him to the hospital?"

The judge said in a businesslike manner, "He lost the civil lawsuit. It's a small matter to compensate him. Now, he's even suspected of stealing Yang Iron Fist's property. It's worth hundreds of millions. It's enough for him to be sentenced to a serious jail sentence and spend his life in jail! Why send him to a hospital? Just send him to jail and let the prison doctor take a look at him!"

The forensic doctor replied. "Yes!"

When Yang Xiaolan heard that the court would still sentence Yang Xiaoqing, she was so excited that she gripped Gu Qiqi's sleeves tightly. "Qiqi, is there really retribution in this world? Yang Xiaoqing has done all kinds of evil deeds. Now that he has lost the lawsuit, he has to compensate and go to jail. He even fell sick... In the past, I didn't believe that evil would have retribution, but today, I am starting to believe..."

Gu Qiqi blinked her big eyes. "You can continue to believe it!"

Even if the heavens didn't punish the evil people who provoked us in this world, we could still do it ourselves.

Xiao Ning asked curiously, "Qiqi, what's black lung disease?"

Gu Qiqi tapped her forehead. "Medical student, work harder! Black lung disease is caused by excessive inhalation of dirty dust, resulting in pulmonary fibrosis."

Xiao Ning stuck out her tongue. "I'm a vet. It's normal that I don't understand human diseases. Hehe. Is this lung disease serious?" Gu Qiqi squinted and said lightly, "In the beginning, it's just chest pain, coughs, and weakness all over the body. After it becomes serious, he will gradually lose his ability to work. He can't even lie flat. Even when he sleeps, he has to kneel to maintain his breathing. In the end, he will also die from lung failure, breathing difficulties, and kneeling. It's said that its condition is so miserable that it's unbearable to look at. Do you think it's serious?"

Xiao Ning's eyes widened. "Wow-die on his knees! This way of dying is good. It's too suitable for a person like Yang Xiaoqing! He deserves to be in jail for the rest of his life! Why is the heavens so perceptive? In the future, I want to worship the heavens, the earth, and the ancestors!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

The little dirty turtle curled its lips. My master clearly had the foresight to plan a strategy. After knowing that Yang Iron Fist's lung cancer was caused by Yang Xiaoqing long ago, she asked me to inject a large amount of scrap jade powder onto Yang Xiaoqing while he was asleep... Hmph, without anyone knowing, I'll let his rotten heart and lungs be stained with dust!

If he didn't have black lung disease, who would?

On the side, Yang Xiaolan's eyes were already filled with tears. Yang Xiaoqing would eventually die on his knees... This outcome was really satisfying. It was too satisfying.

It completely exceeded her expectations.

She sniffed and looked at Gu Qiqi gratefully.

Although she didn't say anything, silence was better than words at this moment. If she hadn't met Qiqi, perhaps in this lifetime, her Yang family wouldn't be able to seek justice.

No, let alone seek justice. She was afraid that her father would die in the hospital because of lung cancer.

No, no. Dad couldn't wait to enter the hospital at all. If he had made a fuss at home with those loan sharks earlier, he might have been beaten to death by the sticks.

Furthermore, he would be dragged to the lowest courtesan house in the city by those lowly men to do terrible deeds...

Qiqi, I, Xiaolan, will treat you well in this lifetime. I definitely won't betray you!

Xiaolan made up her mind with tears in her eyes.

"Alright, we won the lawsuit. Everyone, be happy. I'll treat everyone to a meal!" Mu Tianyu, who had been smiling silently at the side, finally found an opportunity to speak.

Xiaolan replied. "I should treat everyone..."

Gu Qiqi said, "Don't stand on ceremony with Brother Tianyu!"

Xiao Ning: "That's right, that's right. He's a boy. He should treat us!"

Mu Tianyu smiled gently. "Little Lemon is right. I'm a boy. It's my honor to treat the ladies to a meal. Furthermore, my fiancée is among them." As he spoke, his eyes were filled with faint affection as he looked at Xiao Ning.

Chapter 847 He Was Clean And She Was Dirty

Once Mu Tianyu said the words fiancée, Xiao Ning's small face flushed red.

"Brother Tianyu!"

"Enough, enough. It's my fault, my little fiancée. I shouldn't have said this in public..."

“Brother Tianyu, you’re still talking!”

“Oh! Let’s not talk about it anymore!” Mu Tianyu rubbed his forehead somewhat clumsily. He wasn’t good at pleasing girls yet.

However, he had always taken Xiao Ning’s engagement seriously. He wanted to work hard in his career. When Xiao Ning graduated, he would marry her.

He had long recognized her in his heart!

Gu Qiqi wanted to let the two of them bond properly and let Xiao Ning get rid of Bai Yeyuan as soon as possible. Then, she pulled up Xiaolan’s hand. “Xiaolan, the finals of the school tournament are tomorrow. I nearly forgot that we have to go back for training!”

“Ah? What training...” The innocent Xiaolan was dumbfounded.

Only when she saw Gu Qiqi blinking at her desperately did she realize what was going on and cough.

“Oh, yes, yes, yes. We’re going to the training camp. Ah, we can’t join the gathering anymore. Lawyer Mu, you and Xiao Ning can eat first today. You two must be happy. I’ll invite everyone together another day!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Why was Xiaolan-this child-saying things so clearly?

Indeed.

Xiao Ning’s small face was about to turn red.

Qiqi! Xiaolan!

You’re betraying your good sister!

They actually wanted me to stay with Brother Tianyu for a meal alone! This was awkward.

In a small pub next to the court.

Mu Tianyu ordered a table of Qing Cheng countryside specialty dishes. “Little Lemon, I haven’t eaten with you in a long time. Tell me, are you happy in university? Do you want to go home? What are your plans after graduating? Oh, this dish, Oyster Root, is the signature dish of this restaurant’s chef. It has the style of our Qing Cheng. It’s very fragrant. Try it...”

Seeing Mu Tianyu’s concerned face, gentle concern, and a table of authentic home-cooked food, Xiao Ning’s nose stung.

This was the correct way for boys to date girls, right?

Her shady times with Bai Yeyuan was simply embarrassing compared to the bright Brother Tianyu.

Thinking of Bai Yeyuan, Xiao Ning immediately felt that for some reason, she felt inferior in front of a pure and beautiful boy like Mu Tianyu, an elite lawyer with a limitless future.

He was still very clean, but she was already dirty.

A trace of mist surfaced in her eyes. No matter how delicious the food was, she had no appetite when it was placed in front of her.

“Did I not order well? Little Lemon, why aren’t you eating a bite?”

“No, no! The food was delicious. I... I’m not hungry yet.” Xiao Ning sniffed and avoided him. “Brother Tianyu, you’re really awesome. Just now, in the court, you defeated the Empire’s number one lawyer. I saw that his face was ashen when he left the stage...”

Mu Tianyu touched his tie shyly. “Actually, it’s all Qiqi’s credit. Her evidence is the deciding factor. I just did the routine that a lawyer can do...”

“No! You have to know that no lawyer was willing to take on the Yang family’s case. You’re especially righteous. You’ve never looked down on their family’s downfall. You’re not afraid that they can’t pay the lawyer fees.”

Mu Tianyu was even more embarrassed. He was about to explain further that Gu Qiqi was his major shareholder, so it was only right that he did not charge anything.

Xiao Ning’s phone rang suddenly. Xiao Ning glanced at the phone screen and her face turned pale.

Chapter 848 The Price Of Lying Was...

“Brother Tianyu, I’m sorry. I’ll go out and answer the call.” Xiao Ning didn’t want Bai Yeyuan to hear from the phone that she was eating with Brother Tianyu!

“Little Lemon, what are you doing?” Indeed, the man’s lazy and evil voice traveled over the phone lightly.

Her small body shivered and she replied as if she was treading on thin ice. “I... I just accompanied Qiqi and the rest to the court to listen to a lawsuit. Yes, I think it can be considered social practice...”

“You’re a veterinarian. It’s not like you’re going to be a forensic doctor. Why are you going to the court to practice? Hurry up and go home obediently. Don’t make me wait long.” Bai Yeyuan sounded like he believed her words.

Xiao Ning breathed a sigh of relief and asked timidly, “Yes, that... Can I have a meal with Qiqi?”

She couldn’t leave Mu Tianyu alone to eat. That would be too rude.

What’s more, Mu Tianyu had ordered a table full of dishes for her, but she hadn’t eaten a single bite.

Bai Yeyuan was about to say “come back early” when...

On the computer opposite his desk, Gong Jue was discussing a project with him. Halfway through his conversation, he suddenly stopped.

On the screen, Gong Jue was a little arrogant. He typed a sentence in a flaunting manner. “Let’s not talk anymore. My wife is home. I want to video call my wife! Let’s talk another day!”

Damn it. This was a big deal worth more than a billion dollars. It involved an important basic construction project on the independent island in Northern Europe. More than ten minutes ago, Gong Jue was extremely serious. He insisted on holding a video conference with him from afar to confirm the specific details.

He finally had the time to ask Xiao Ning where she was, but who knew that he couldn't talk about Gong Jue anymore!

Was Gong Jue crazy to give up a business worth more than a billion dollars for his wife's video call?

Bai Yeyuan mocked speechlessly and said, "Master Jue, the night is short, and the sun rises high. From now on, the king will not go to court early. You have to take care of your body and protect your empire..."

Who knew that Gong Jue had already gone offline a second ago!

He did not have the time to reply to his teasing!

Damn it. Did he have to be so eager?

Your wife is only going home, not overseas to find you!

Bai Yeyuan looked at the screen where Gong Jue had disappeared as if he was looking at an idiot and shook his head. He would never do such a foolish thing in his life.

He pulled back his thoughts and was about to answer Xiao Ning's request.

Suddenly!

Something flashed across his mind.

Gong Jue said that when his wife returned home, the two of them would have a video call. Wasn't Gong Jue's woman Gu Qiqi?

But Xiao Ning said just now that she wanted to eat with Gu Qiqi?

According to Gong Jue's clingy nature, the video call with Gu Qiqi wouldn't end in a few hours. Who was Xiao Ning going to eat with?

Bai Yeyuan's eyes darkened. Facing the receiver, her voice immediately turned colder. "Little Lemon, which wild man are you eating with? Hmm? You know the price of lying... If you lie once, you have to be fooled by me on the balcony for the entire night..."

Xiao Ning's lips turned pale and her legs started to sway. "Wuwuwu, I... I'm not lying. I... I'm not eating anymore. I'm going back now..."

In the Mo Garden.

Mansion Number 0!

As soon as Gu Qiqi returned home, she turned on the video call. Yes, she had to call Gong Jue quickly before the sky turned dark.

Otherwise, if she made a call in the middle of the night, that evil guy Gong Jue would definitely think of some strange and evil idea to torment her again.

Unfortunately, man proposes god disposes.

Gu Qiqi would never be able to guess a certain man's limit...

The video camera turned on.

She saw mist and the sound of running water.

After a while, the sound of running water stopped!

The man's magnetic and alluring voice traveled over. "Woman, are you satisfied with what you see?"

Gu Qiqi was about to freeze in front of the screen.

What... What did she see? Oh my god!

Her Eyes!

This was definitely an assault to the eyes!

Chapter 849 Master Jue Was "Exposed"!

Gu Qiqi was dumbfounded in front of the screen.

On the mini notebook screen, Gong Jue had just taken a shower and was only wearing a towel.

The man's charming lines were obvious.

The tips of his hair were even dripping with water. There was a faint layer of mist on the screen. Instead, it added a sense of mystery to his sturdy figure.

Some strong hormones started to surge!

Gu Qiqi covered her face and bit her lips as she said in annoyance, "Gong Jue! You're a hooligan! Why are you doing a live-stream when you're taking a shower?!"

The man's tone on the screen was innocent but there was a trace of a wicked smile. "You were clearly the one who took the initiative to call."

Gu Qiqi said, "I... I didn't know that you were taking a shower. Since you're taking a shower, why did you accept it? Can't you wait until you're dressed before accepting it?"

Gong Jue said, "I'm afraid that you'll be anxious."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Damn it! He spoke as if she was unable to endure the thirst!

She stomped her feet. "I'm hanging up!"

Gong Jue smiled coquettishly. "There's no need. I'm wearing a towel."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Damn it. He was wearing a towel, but it was draped over his shoulders.

His body was still exposed!

Especially when a certain arrogant little Gong Jue was standing up straight in front of her!

After Gong Jue teased her enough, he was in a good mood. He pulled out a bathrobe and wrapped it around his waist. "Will this do?"

Gu Qiqi opened her eyes a little and rolled her eyes at him speechlessly. "Weren't you having a meeting overseas? Why are you free to take a shower in the middle of the day?"

Gong Jue's eyes flickered. "Yes... I'm mysophobic."

Of course, he couldn't say that he didn't go overseas for work at all. Instead, he wanted to create the most dreamlike and romantic wedding place in history for her. He wanted to infiltrate the independent island in Northern Europe and personally supervise the construction to create a surprise for her.

He had stayed up late to supervise the construction work last night and didn't sleep for the entire night. He had been working for 24 hours straight. Now that he had showered, he still had to continue supervising the work later.

Gu Qiqi accepted the mysophobia reason.

She knew that this man liked to take a shower. When she first met him, he showered all day long. He took a shower when he touched her. He even took a shower when he kissed her. It made her think that she had some germs on her.

"Let me tell you a piece of good news. Lan Ting won the lawsuit!" Gu Qiqi relaxed and couldn't help but share her joy with him.

Gong Jue squinted and enjoyed her excited look.

At this moment, she was different from her usual coldness. She was completely innocent and adorable like a little girl who had cleared a game.

It was really not enough!

"Does it feel good?" he asked.

"Yes, it's indeed a little satisfying to uphold justice for the heavens. I can't stand those smelly men who bully girls and even occupy their nests. I can't wait to crush them one by one."

As Gu Qiqi spoke, Yang Xiaoqing appeared in her mind. Of course, there was also Mu Liuchuan, President Liu, Gu Enlong... and others who had black hearts. As Gong Jue listened, his gaze deepened. "Do you want to feel even better?"

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "How so?"

Gong Jue said, "Tell me who you're unhappy with in the future. I'll crush him for you!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Forget it! She could just crush them to death. They would die before they even felt the pain. At the thought that if Gong Jue were to deal with Yang Xiaoqing, he would probably be ambushed while walking on the road. He would directly put a black sack over Yang Xiaoqing and drag him into the forest to beat him to death with sticks before throwing him to feed the dogs... Such a simple and violent method!

Gu Qiqi curled her lips. She still felt that it would be better for her to make a move and let Yang Xiaoqing spend the rest of his life in jail. Then, she would taint his lungs with dust and make him suffer a fate worse than death every day. In the end, it would be more satisfying for him to kneel down to die.

Chapter 850 Give Her A Little Surprise

However, Gong Jue's domineering declaration warmed her heart.

Her tone couldn't help but soften a little. "Have you eaten? When will the work over there end?"

She felt that he had been gone for a long time!

Although it had only been a few days!

Gong Jue laughed lightly. "Do you miss me?"

The man's charming look seemed to pass through the screen. Gu Qiqi's small face flushed red in a split second. "...I don't have the time! I still have to prepare for the school tournament. I'm very busy with my studies, okay?" "Why isn't that lousy competition over yet?" Gong Jue frowned.

Thinking about how Gu Qiqi had slept in the study room many times at night in order to revise her homework, he was very unhappy.

He was considering whether he should order the Empire Medical University to cancel this lousy competition in the future.

Gu Qiqi was speechless as she said lightly, "How is this a lousy competition? This is the competition with the highest standards for the Empire's medical students. My team has already entered the finals. If I can win first place this time, I'll have the right to read the Medicine Manual and find a way to treat Xiaobei's illness. So, I must win!"

"What are we competing in the finals?" Seeing that she took this competition so seriously, Gong Jue became more patient and chatted with her.

"Yes... It's an operation for a real person!"

"Nonsense. Did water enter the brain of your university's principal? He wants a group of students to go to the operating table?"

"Not really. After all, we're not the chief surgeons. We're just doing auxiliary work. The preliminary round uses replicas, and it's not that formal, so the finals test our cooperative skills in actual practice."

"But you can't treat human life as child's play!"

Gu Qiqi didn't expect Gong Jue to be so stubborn. This sense of justice was actually a little naive and handsome.

She chuckled. "With the chief surgeon controlling the entire scene, there won't be a big problem. Before the surgery, the chief surgeon will explain in detail what everyone has to do. There will be judges monitoring the entire process. Once there are any signs of mistakes in the operation, they will be immediately chased out of the operating theater. The results will be invalid, the team will be kicked out of the competition and then the professional medical team will continue to complete the surgery. Hmm... It's said that the patient is a criminal with a death sentence or life imprisonment." Gong Jue's expression improved a little. "That's more like it. Did the chief surgeon decide by drawing lots? Do you want me to teach you a few drawing skills so that you can draw the most powerful chief surgeon?"

Clearly, the chief surgeon was very important in this competition.

If the contestant followed a good-for-nothing, then it was almost foreseeable that the results of this competition would definitely be invalid. If the chief surgeon was very capable, then even if they worked as a support, the outcome would still be very outstanding!

Gu Qiqi shook her head lightly. "No. We will have to invite a doctor over ourselves. This is also a segment to test the school's strength."

"Invite the doctor yourself? Who did you invite? From the pharmaceutical school?"

"Oh..." Gu Qiqi sighed lightly. "The pharmaceutical school has always had a poor reputation. Apart from Head Feng Yangchu, there's no other capable great doctor. Sadly, Head Feng is a judge and can't participate in the surgery, so..." "I'll help..." Before Gong Jue could finish speaking... Gu Qiqi continued, "But I've already contacted Professor Zhou. She agreed to be our chief surgeon!" "Which Professor Zhou?"

"It's Professor Zhou Qing from the medical laboratory that you helped me arrange for my internship during the summer vacation."

"It's her?" Gong Jue stopped talking about helping her invite someone.

Before the big surprise he prepared, he decided to give her a small surprise.
