

Dear Chief 861

Chapter 861 Snatching A Man And Snatching A Place In The World

In fact, it wasn't just Bai Mori who couldn't do it. There weren't many people in the entire Empire who could.

Only Professor Zhou Qing had successfully performed an amniotic fluid embolism operation many years ago, but that pregnant woman's symptoms were only a very slight difficulty in breathing. It wasn't as serious and dangerous as this female prisoner's cardiac arrest today.

Even so, Professor Zhou Qing became one of the most famous doctors in the Empire because of that successful operation back then. She was also qualified to manage the highest-end VIP medical laboratory.

Bai Mori didn't dare to imagine how bright Gu Qiqi's future would be with the medical talent that she had shown today!

In an instant, she felt as if her entire body had fallen into an ice cellar. Her entire vision was dark and cold!

She was secretly shocked. This country bumpkin actually hid such a terrifying strength. If she amazed everyone one day, where would she, Bai Mori, be in this Empire's medical world?

Wasn't the original title of the "most outstanding young female doctor in the Empire" going to be snatched away by this country bumpkin Gu Qiqi?!

Damn it!

Apart from snatching her man, this country bumpkin actually snatched her status in the professional medical world!

Bai Mori felt that her entire territory had been taken over. The jealousy and anger in her heart couldn't be suppressed!

She followed Gu Qiqi's departing back with vicious eyes.

An evil voice kept echoing in her ears. Destroy her. Destroy her. You're the most outstanding and most beautiful woman in this world...

Everyone in the auditorium was excited.

In particular, the students from the pharmaceutical school collectively stood up from their seats. In their hands, they held the big red banner that they had long prepared — "Goddess Qiqi, Senior Brother Mingtian, you have won a hundred battles and raised the prestige of our school!" Everyone pulled up the banner and waved it in the air, shouting excitedly!

"We won! We won!" "Goddess Qiqi and Senior Brother Mingtian are so brave. They led our pharmaceutical school to win first place!"

"The pharmaceutical school created history. First! First!"

The loud cheers made Shen Ping's face swell like a pig's liver. "What first place? Our judges haven't announced the results yet!" He said indignantly and sarcastically, "Our clinical medicine school also completed the surgery in 28 minutes. The emergency situation was also saved. We should clearly be tied for first place!"

Beside him, Feng Yangchu raised his eyebrows coldly and glanced at him in disdain. "You still want your pride? You're already so old. Aren't you afraid of being struck by lightning for lying?"

Shen Ping was speechless.

Damn it. Why was the usually taciturn Old Feng biting him like a crazy old man today?

For more than ten years, the pharmaceutical school had always been in the last place. Old Feng wasn't that nervous or bothered. Did old Feng take the wrong medicine today? Why was he not concerned about whether Gu Qiqi could get first?!

Feng Yangchu said, "The screen clearly shows that it was our pharmaceutical school's Gu Qiqi who cleaned up the mess for you! Do you have someone who knows how to perform amniotic fluid embolism? If you have the ability, come and compete with us for first place again. Hmph!"

Feng Yangchu's cold snort was really arrogant and disdainful!

Shen Ping was speechless.

el

The principal hurriedly took the opportunity to announce the results. "The results of the competition are very clear now. The pharmaceutical school team is undoubtedly the champion! The first place! Yes, the veterinary school also completed the dog testicle operation... They are in second place! In the end, because of an emergency during the operation, the clinical medicine school was unable to save their patient. With the help of the pharmaceutical school team, they barely completed the entire process of a cesarean section. The pregnant woman was safe, so... they're in the eighth place!" There were only eight schools that entered the finals.

The eighth place. In other words, wasn't it the last place? Haha!

Chapter 862 The "Big Shot" Is Here!

The audience mocked them.

It turned out that the once awesome clinical medicine school also had a day when it became the last place.

Those who had bet that Gu Qiqi would win previously laughed happily.

Those who bet with Bai Yingzhu that Gu Qiqi would lose couldn't wait to bang their heads against the chair and die. Why did they believe that idiot Bai Yingzhu's instigations?

On the central stage, the representatives went on stage in order to receive the award.

When Gu Qiqi's team went up the stage and walked towards the first place spot, they passed by Liu Guanghui, who was in last place.

Liu Guanghui couldn't help but spit in jealousy and hatred. "So what if you're first? You're still in a trash school!"

Gu Qiqi glanced at him coldly. He broke out in cold sweat and couldn't help but shiver.

Qiu Qiu made a face and retorted, "That's right. If we're trash, then wouldn't a loser like you be inferior to trash? Hahahaha!"

Bei Mingtian spat out a few words coldly. "What's worse than trash?"

Xiaolan chimed in. "They're smelly bugs lying under the trash!"

Qiu Qiu stomped on them again. "Haha, how interesting. These days, smelly bugs are so confident. They keep chattering non-stop to show their presence!"

Liu Guanghui's face turned purple from anger.

However, he was inferior and was suppressed by Gu Qiqi's team. He could only swallow his anger.

As they spoke, Gu Qiqi led the team and walked to the center of the podium!

The entire venue applauded!

Previously, Gu Qiqi had always deliberately hid her presence and didn't want to be too ostentatious. Thus, when she appeared before the competition, Professor Zhou Qing was more famous than her.

However, Professor Zhou Qing didn't participate in the award ceremony.

Thus, Gu Qiqi's cold and calm aura could no longer be concealed.

If she stood in the crowd, she would be recognized in a second.

Her gaze swept across the entire venue indifferently. Wherever her gaze landed, everyone immediately forgot their words and everyone consciously quietened down.

She was a goddess!

Who wouldn't worship her? Who would dare to speak loudly?

From the thunderous applause to the silence of the entire venue, it actually took less than three seconds!

The principal was extremely satisfied. Oh my, Classmate Qiqi is so charismatic. These brats. He used a loudspeaker to shout for silence, but they didn't care. Now, Classmate Qiqi's gaze shocked the entire venue. It was too easy and effortless.

He announced with a smile, "Let me tell everyone exciting news! This year's school tournament is extraordinary. We invited a 'big shot' to give us an award! Everyone, guess who it is?"

The principal's fat face was a little exaggerated. When he spoke, he danced around with exaggerated actions. Immediately, everyone's curiosity was piqued.

Who was it?

Who was going to give the award?

Were there any big shots in the Empire's medical world who didn't come today?

However, their curiosity didn't last for a few seconds as everyone's gazes returned to Gu Qiqi.

No matter what big shot came to give the award, they weren't as attractive as our Goddess Qiqi!

On the stage, Qiu Qiu curled his lips. "Tsk. What big shot? He's probably just one of those old men in the cabinet, right? What's so good about those old men!"

However, the very next second, The sound of leather boots knocking loudly on the marble floor resonated.

The man's noble and arrogant figure appeared in everyone's vision. He strode forward with his long legs and his imposing aura. He walked along the steps to the middle of the podium and walked towards the location of Gu Qiqi's team.

Chapter 863 Stupid Woman, Did You Miss Me?

The people below the stage were shocked!

The female students couldn't help but scream secretly.

"D*mn it! The big shot is actually a handsome man!! Even his back view is so handsome!"

"Who's that man? A celebrity?"

"How can a celebrity have such a strong aura? It's the President, right?"

"No, the President doesn't have that cold murderous aura!"

"Ah, ah, ah, ah! Anyway, he's so handsome! I want to take a photo of his back as my phone lockscreen. I'll lick the screen every day!" Amidst everyone's exclamations, the principal finally revealed the mystery with a smile. "Let's invite our Empire's Gong Corporation's Chief, Gong Yue, to award the pharmaceutical school the first prize!"

"Whoosh!"

Exclamations exploded again.

It was Gong Yue!

They were actually lucky to see that legendary living King of Hell with their own eyes!

He was indeed an incomparably noble figure!

Everyone's gazes couldn't help but lock onto Gong Yue, as he approached Gu Qiqi step by step!

Gu Qiqi's astonishment was definitely no less than anyone present.

She watched Gong Yue walk towards her in a daze.

A charming smile appeared on the man's cold face as he focused his attention on her. His thin lips moved slightly as if he was using his lips to say to her, "Stupid woman, have you missed me?! Hmm?"

Gu Qiqi licked her lips. "Don't you... have a big mission overseas?"

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows.

Mission?

Oh... Preparing the world's most awesome wedding was also a big task. There was nothing wrong with that!

He squinted coldly. "Yes. But I heard that you're in the finals today. I came back to take a look!"

Gu Qiqi said, "But this is a school. Isn't it too sensational for you to appear like this? Also, is it appropriate for you to leave halfway through your work?"

Gong Jue said, "What's wrong with that? What's wrong with me giving an award to my wife?!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Gong Jue said, "Besides, I don't want to see anyone else giving you an award!"

Gu Qiqi asked, "Why?"

Gong Jue said, "Because I heard that there's a handshake segment at the award ceremony! Only I can pinch my wife's small hand myself!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Who would deliberately pinch the contestant's hand at the award ceremony? Gong Jue, your thoughts are too strange. The two of them communicated silently.

Gong Jue's gaze swept across Gu Qiqi's slender hand and he directly received the trophy and medal from the assistant.

He really pinched her small hand and handed it to her!

Gu Qiqi's small face flushed red.

Hey, hey, hey. Stupid man. This is a school. There are my classmates and teachers around me. It's not good for you to be taking advantage of me so openly, right?

However, how could Qiu Qiu and the rest have the time to notice this detail? They were all annoyed. They actually thought that the big shot was an old man just now. They really lacked imagination.

The female students below the stage felt that Gong Jue was especially gentlemanly and gentle. He actually took the initiative to hold Gu Qiqi's hand and help her steady that heavy trophy. How loving!

How was Chief Gong Jue a living King of Hell? He was simply a warm and caring guy!

Applause rose and fell as they were offered to both Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue.

"Oh my god. Chief is too handsome and warm. I... I can't control myself anymore! All the buttons on my clothes are screaming. Master Jue, tear me off! Hurry up and tear me off!"

"What are you screaming for? Every pore of mine is screaming, okay? Ahhh, let Master Jue push me down!"

Everyone was envious of Gu Qiqi for being able to come into contact with Gong Jue so closely.

Only Bai Yingzhu and Gu Xuexue remained silent with ashen faces. Their jealous eyes were about to drop to the floor.

Chapter 864 Gong Jue Abandoned You

“That b*tch Gu Qiqi actually tried to seduce Master Jue after seducing Brother Chu! Who does she think she is? All the good men in the world want to go near her?!”

Bai Yingzhu admired Chu Junmo wholeheartedly. When she saw this scene, her heart ached even more.

Exasperated, she wanted to throw something to vent her anger, but she realized that she had already thrown it all away just now.

She could only grab Gu Xuexue’s hand and pinch it to vent her anger.

Gu Xuexue snorted in pain. She didn’t dare to resist this little princess, but she was also very unhappy in her heart. What did Gu Qiqi do to actually let Gong Jue present the award personally to her?

No, she didn’t believe that Gong Jue was here for Gu Qiqi.

This must be a coincidence!

It must be because the Empire Medical University had personally invited the principal to increase the prestige of this school tournament to invite a big shot like Gong Jue.

Gong Jue was the Gong Corporation’s Chief, and the Gong Corporation was the biggest developer of cutting-edge instruments in the medical world. Although it was unprecedented that Gong Jue would be presenting the award, it made sense after thinking about it!

Yes, that must be it. This matter definitely had nothing to do with Gu Qiqi!

Thinking about this, she felt much better.

However, the very next second, seeing that the atmosphere was so passionate, the principal felt that he had really won the lottery today. With Gong Jue coming to the ceremony, it was simply an honor!

He couldn’t help but continue to announce, “Next, let’s invite Chief Gong to give the second prize...”

Before he could finish speaking...

Gong Jue suddenly took a step closer to Gu Qiqi.

The man’s cold and charming face was about to touch Gu Qiqi’s exquisite and fair face. Then, he stretched out his long and slender fingers and removed Gu Qiqi’s earpiece. He said coldly into the microphone, “I’ll only give the award to the champions!”

Only the champions would be given the award.

These words reverberated like thunder in everyone’s ears.

After a moment of astonishment, the audience responded with thunderous applause.

How domineering!

How arrogant!

He was indeed the Chief of the Empire in their hearts.

He was definitely worthy of the best.

Even if it was an award, he had to give it to the most outstanding student. There was nothing wrong with that!

These same words shattered Gu Xuexue's remaining wishful thinking.

Gong Jue simply used his actions to directly say that he was here for Gu Qiqi. He came here to give her an award.

Gu Xuexue wanted to lie to herself that Gong Jue didn't care about Gu Qiqi or dote on her. She couldn't lie anymore.

She gnashed her teeth and thought to herself that it seemed like it was time for her mother to speed up the preparations and announce that ugly incident four years ago!

Gu Qiqi, you b*tch! The more you show off your affection for Gong Jue now, the more miserable your death will be!

When Gong Jue finds out that your body has already been played with by another man and that you even sold your eggs to give birth to someone else's child, he will definitely hate you!

He will give up on you!

Gu Xuexue thought sinisterly.

Suddenly, another series of deafening cheers exploded beside her.

"Wow, wow, wow. Chief is awesome! Brilliant! Sharp!"

"Chief actually gave us such an awesome opportunity!"

"The pharmaceutical school is great this time. They can actually walk out of the Empire and become famous in the world!"

Gu Xuexue was distracted just now and didn't know what had happened. She hurriedly asked the classmate beside her, "What awesome opportunity?"

That classmate's eyes were filled with envy. He couldn't hide it at all. "It's about the matter that

Master Jue announced in public just now. Isn't the World Medical Competition going to be held in the Imperial Capital this year? Famous doctors from all over the world will gather and compete with their medical expertise. Originally, our students weren't qualified to participate in such a high-end world-class competition. Just now, Master Jue actually said that he came in a hurry and didn't bring any congratulatory gifts for the champion. So, he will give the champion, Gu Qiqi, a chance to participate in this world-class competition!”

Chapter 865 Torturing All Singles In The World

What?!

“Such an awesome opportunity and he actually let Gu Qiqi participate!” Bai Yingzhu exploded when she heard this. “Even my aunt didn’t have the chance to attend the gathering. Who does Gu Qiqi think she is?! There must be some hidden rules and an inside story! I don’t believe that she has this bullshit luck!”

Gu Xuexue felt as if she had been struck by lightning. She never expected that Gu Qiqi would be given an award by Gong Jue personally. In the blink of an eye, she was struck by a huge chance at happiness.

To be able to participate in such an awesome gathering, even if she went there just for a walk without competing, it was still quite awesome.

It was a rather strong mark on a doctor’s resume.

Gu Xuexue was so jealous that she nearly went crazy!

She could only desperately fantasize that after her mother announced that matter, Gu Qiqi’s reputation would be swept to the ground and she would fall to the bottom. All these awesome resources would be crushed in an instant like a mirage.

Backstage, Bai Mori witnessed the entire process of Gong Jue’s appearance. Of course, she also heard the words “gift to Gu Qiqi to participate in the World Medical Competition”.

Her exquisite and elegant face immediately fell a lot.

It was just like a woman who relied on plastic surgery to maintain her beauty for a long time. Once the plastic was removed, the speed of aging and defeat would be shockingly fast.

But she didn’t have the face to go out and be seen by Gong Jue. She had to speak gently to win Gong Jue’s heart back. She was even more afraid of being arrested and thrown into jail by Gong Jue.

She made a prompt decision. While the receptionists were cheering, she put on her sunglasses, wrapped her coat tightly around herself, and secretly walked out the back door...

Just as she walked out the back door, in front of her, Special Assistant Lu was already waiting at the door with his men to stop her.

“Professor Bai, where are you escaping to? Don’t tell me that you’ve forgotten that you’re still a prisoner? Sneaking out of jail will lengthen your sentence...” “I’m sorry, so it’s Special Assistant Lu. Please be magnanimous and let me off this once...” Bai Mori put on a harmless and gentle smile and tried to move past Special Assistant Lu.

But Special Assistant Lu’s face was cold and heartless. “Cut the crap! Are you going to get into the car yourself, or should I knock you out and kick you in?” Bai Mori bit her lips and got into the car without a word.

She followed him all the way back to the jail.

She was thrown back into that dirty cell that couldn't see the light of day.

She had only enjoyed the lively fame and fortune outside for less than half a day...

She took a deep breath and her eyes suddenly turned ruthless. She looked at the cell next door. That killer under General Teuton of S Nation...

She used to reject working with him.

But now... perhaps it was time to find an ally.

"Come over here. I have something to say to you!" Bai Mori put on the airs of a big missy.

The other party had been rejected by her once before. At this moment, he didn't even look at her. "Me? Hmph, do I not want my pride?"

Bai Mori was speechless and helpless. She could only move over herself. Through the crack in the railing between the two of their cells, she spat out lightly. "I have valuable information here. Does your S Nation know that Gong Jue has a son?"

In the Bai family house, Bai Lang was drinking red wine on the sofa as he watched the live broadcast of the finals of the Imperial Medical University competition.

When he saw that Gong Jue had actually appeared at the scene, the wine bottle in his hand fell to the ground uncontrollably and shattered.

"D*mn it. Master Jue, you're awesome! You're showing off your affection to the little demon on television? You're going to torture all the single people in the world!"

However, his indignant mood only lasted for a second.

Bai Lang was immersed in his own young man's heart. Little Jue, your taste in people is too poor. One day, I'll bring Young Master Ye to you to see what it means to be a fairy descending to the mortal world!

Hmph! When Young Master Ye and I show off our affection in the future, I'll show you!

At the same time, on the podium,

Gu Qiqi suddenly sneezed. "Achoo!"

Gong Jue immediately became nervous. "Did you catch a cold from the air-conditioning in the operating room?"

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "I don't have such a weak body. Someone's probably thinking about me behind my back..."

Chapter 866 What The Hell Was Mistress?

Someone was thinking of his stupid woman?

Gong Jue's deep eyes immediately squinted dangerously. "Who wants you? Who would dare to have designs on my woman?!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She only sneezed for no reason and guessed casually

Why was this man like a particularly territorial male animal that would bare its teeth and explode in anger when it smelled the scent of its own kind?!

However...

Gu Qiqi would soon know that it was still gentle for him to bare his teeth and flare up...

After Gong Jue awarded Gu Qiqi the first prize and announced that Gu Qiqi's team was qualified to participate in the World Medical Competition, he prepared to pull Gu Qiqi away.

He nearly forgot that this was an award ceremony venue.

The second, third, and eighth place were completely ignored, but the thousands of eyes below the stage were still staring at them.

Gu Qiqi saw that something was wrong and was about to go astray. She quickly reminded him. "Chief, are you going to bring us to shake hands and congratulate the pharmaceutical school fans below the stage?"

Gong Jue was stunned.

Just as he was about to say "what has it got to do with me", he met Gu Qiqi's pleading gaze. Only then did Gong Jue realize that he couldn't take Gu Qiqi away alone in front of everyone.

"How troublesome!"

He muttered.

He was the dignified chief of the corporation, but he actually couldn't hold hands with his woman publicly. He was really unhappy.

Seeing that his expression had wavered, Gu Qiqi hurriedly turned around and called for Beiming Tian, Qiu Qiu, and Xiaolan.

Xiaolan followed behind them obediently.

Qiu Qiu rubbed his forehead and muttered softly, "Why do I feel that Master Jue is a little abnormal?"

Bei Mingtian asked warily, "What's abnormal?"

Qiu Qiu shook his head. "Perhaps it's my imagination. Why do I keep feeling that Master Jue is flirting with Master? That gaze of his has never left Master before. It's as if he's speaking using his lips? I don't know what he's saying..."

Bei Mingtian was silent. His heart inexplicably skipped a beat and he felt a little upset.

It was like when someone suddenly forced their way into the art museum and said that he had taken a fancy to a painting and wanted to buy it to admire it alone so he would not be able to see it!

Qiu Qiu continued to mutter to himself, “Anyway, Mistress is a very good and warm person. I must protect Master for Mistress and not let Master’s mind be disturbed by these romantic situations outside!”

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

What the hell was Mistress?!

As he spoke, Gong Jue brought Gu Qiqi’s team to the area where the pharmaceutical school students were.

The fervent cheers nearly overturned the roof of the auditorium.

The female students from the pharmaceutical school were like little she-wolves. Their eyes shone with bright light as they wanted to hold hands with this noble and domineering big goat in front of them.

Gong Jue looked at the female students who were like a wolf pack and frowned coldly.

Shake hands?

When he examined the robot team, the engineers didn’t ask for a handshake like this.

All of them were disciplined and lined up neatly. The angles of their hands were uniform.

He didn’t even need to really shake hands. He only made a gesture and rushed past the team.

Why were the students in this school so chaotic?

Women were so troublesome!

Female students were especially troublesome!

Gu Qiqi looked at Gong Jue’s cold expression and the disdain in his eyes that he couldn’t hide. Her lips twitched. Stupid man, can you at least give me some face in front of my classmates? What’s with that disdainful gaze of yours?

She reminded him softly, “Just shake some hands for a while...”

In the end!

Gong Jue’s gaze was like a knife as he snorted coldly.

Chapter 867 Little Female Wolf Who Protects Her Food

“I don’t shake a woman’s hand!”

Gong Jue’s cold snort made Gu Qiqi suddenly realize how big a mistake she had made just now.

Gong Jue couldn’t touch women!

In an instant, cold sweat formed on her back.

Gosh, she was so careless. There were so many people in the auditorium. There were at least a few thousand people. More than half of the female students were there.

Gong Jue shouldn't have appeared in such a noisy and dangerous environment.

Putting everything else aside, what if some crazy female classmate rushed out and forcefully shook Gong Jue's hand, triggering his allergies in public...

The consequences would be unimaginable! D*mn it. She had only cared about bickering with Gong Jue and had actually forgotten such an important matter.

Fortunately, Gong Jue took such a big risk to give her an award. Feeling annoyed and touched, Gu Qiqi sniffed. Without thinking... Suddenly... After a while, her small body flashed and she blocked everyone in front of Gong Jue. She raised her voice and said, "Students from the pharmaceutical school, please be quiet! Chief is busy with his schedule. Please stop moving! Don't move!"

Gu Qiqi's voice was cold and firm.

Her voice naturally carried a trace of deterrence that made the female students stop in their tracks.

Although they were indignant... they didn't dare to disobey Qiqi's words! Qiqi was the goddess who turned the tide and freed their pharmaceutical school from the reputation of a trash school. Just as everyone withdrew their hands aggrievedly and bit their lips resentfully to return to their seats...

Gong Jue suddenly stood up and pulled Gu Qiqi's small body behind him. "It's fine. I can do it."

The way that this stupid woman stepped forward and protected him was simply too adorable!

She was simply a little female wolf who protected her food. It made people want to bite her ruthlessly!

Since she could stop those women for him, he also wanted to do something for her that he usually wasn't willing to do.

Those girls were at least a cheer squad for Qiqi. They shouted themselves hoarse and kept clapping and shouting. He had seen all of this.

Of course, he had to thank his woman's fans!

Gu Qiqi was extremely nervous.

At this moment, she was about to risk everything. She risked being discovered by everyone that she had a deep relationship with Gong Jue and wanted to pull Gong Jue away in public, leave the auditorium, and escape from those girls...

However, Gong Jue's long and slender arm had already stretched out first.

His big hand shook the nearest girl's hand like a gentleman and left immediately.

Gu Qiqi's heart was in her mouth!

After taking a closer look, she realized that Gong Jue had unknowingly put on specialized gloves.

Whoosh!

How dangerous! Gu Qiqi breathed a sigh of relief. Gong Jue glanced at her from the corner of his eye as if he was saying, "Am I that stupid? Would I not be prepared to shake hands with these unrelated women? Do you think that anyone can touch my skin?"

Gu Qiqi's lips twitched.

It seemed that her worries were unnecessary.

That's true. Since Gong Jue had a chronic illness that prevented him from coming into contact with women, of course, he would be more vigilant on ordinary days. She relaxed and even had the mood to snicker at Gong Jue's stiff and awkward words of comfort.

"Study hard and win glory for the country!"

The man's face was cold. He said these words to every person who shook his hand in a businesslike manner.

However, those girls were very infatuated when they heard this. They didn't think that this was a perfunctory answer at all. Instead, all of them blushed and became even more infatuated with Gong Jue.

Gu Qiqi looked embarrassed.

Why didn't she realize that these female students usually had no morals?! She regretted introducing this man to them!

Chapter 868 The Jealousy Is Here

Gong Jue wore specialized gloves. He patiently and quickly greeted a few pharmaceutical school students standing in the first row.

Faced with the female students swarming towards the back row, he looked straight ahead and said lightly, "I won't be shaking your hands anymore. Let me give you some practical rewards. After the competition ends, I'll treat everyone to a meal at Phoenix Tower."

Phoenix Tower!

The most exclusive restaurant in Imperial Medical University was never open to students.

They were only open to receive important people or distinguished foreign guests.

It was said that the chefs there were all Michelin chefs. The dishes they made were all at the national banquet level.

Everyone was usually envious. Unfortunately, that kind of place required people with status to be qualified to enter. Even if they had money, they weren't qualified to enter.

But the Chief actually said that he wanted to invite the people from their pharmaceutical school to eat at the Phoenix Tower.

Chief, you're so cool!

Everyone was immersed in the joy of being treated to a high-end restaurant by the Chief.

They had completely forgotten that this scheming man's arrangement was to refuse a handshake!

But Gu Qiqi saw through him in a second. She gave him a spurious smile and teased him. "Who was it that said just now that it's fine and he could do it? Tsk, you've only shaken a few hands and you're already playing tricks to avoid labor?"

Gong Jue's expression didn't change. "I initially planned to be resilient for a while. But their hands aren't as soft as yours. My hands are panicking from the impact and I'm very annoyed!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

This was the most strange reason in the world!

However, no matter what, Gong Jue didn't continue to shake hands with the female classmates. A trace of sweetness slowly flashed across her heart.

The passionate scene at the pharmaceutical school made the other schools envious.

Let alone the other teams waiting for the award ceremony on stage. Not only was a random teacher giving them an award, but when it was Liu Guanghui's team's turn to receive the last place consolation prize, that teacher was already impatient.

She casually stuffed the trophy onto Liu Guanghui's hands and muttered, "I have to participate in the Phoenix Tower's gathering quickly. I can't miss such a good opportunity." She couldn't even be bothered to take a photo with him and simply ended the award ceremony. She couldn't wait to grow wings and fly to the pharmaceutical school's crowd below the stage in a second.

Liu Guanghui was furious. He glared at Gu Qiqi below the stage with hatred!

Gu Qiqi and her classmates from the pharmaceutical school had already gone to Phoenix Tower to celebrate under Gong Jue's lead!

At the entrance of Phoenix Tower,

Gong Jue suddenly stopped in his tracks and scanned the area behind him. "Who was holding that banner in the arena just now?"

Everyone was stunned and their hearts beat rapidly.

There must be something profound about the Chief's question!

Everyone thought hard about the banner...

Was it that banner saying "Goddess Qiqi, Senior Brother Mingtian... Will definitely win"?

Could it be that the Chief admired this banner very much and felt that it was especially meaningful?

Immediately, the two boys who were in charge of holding the banner quickly raised their arms high.

Gong Jue remained calm and said lightly, "Who is Mingtian?"

Bei Mingtian stood up. "Me."

Gong Jue squinted. "Your performance wasn't bad. I'll reward you separately later." Reward?

The two male students who had raised the banner were looking forward to it. Bei Mingtian had an ominous premonition.

What was so good about that banner? It was just an ordinary banner with his and Qiqi's names printed on it. Could it be because of this name...

Indeed.

Chapter 869 Men Are Really Unreasonable

When Special Assistant Lu brought Bei Mingtian and the other two boys to a quiet private room and left everyone...

The three of them looked at the food on the table and were disheartened.

Chief, where was the reward?

Was this big pot of extremely spicy chopped chili, red chili, and green chili boiled beef to spice them to death so that he could inherit their banner?

Just as Gong Jue was unhappy that the banner had Bei Mingtian's name and deliberately detained Beiming Tian and the two boys who had raised the banner to eat all kinds of spicy food alone...

In the main hall of Phoenix Tower, everyone looked at the delicious food on the table and were already itching to eat.

Everyone had finally escaped the infamy of a trash school. For a moment, they raised their glasses to celebrate. Soon, they were a little drunk.

Gong Jue had already left silently with Gu Qiqi.

It was already dark.

The two of them walked hand in hand along the quiet school path.

The tall trees on both sides of the school road were like huge umbrellas supporting them. The trees supported a quiet and uninvited world of their own.

They didn't say anything, but they seemed to be able to hear each other's heartbeat. One beat! One beat!

They passed by a dense purple fir tree.

Gong Jue's arm tightened. Caught off guard, he grabbed Gu Qiqi by the waist and pressed her against a purple fir tree.

The man lowered his head and stared at her.

The charming aura between an innocent girl and a delicate woman made his breathing stop.

His gaze became even more intense as if he wanted to see through her heart. He was like a big animal in the forest enjoying the moment of admiring his food before eating. Gu Qiqi stopped breathing. Her fingers gripped his lapel tightly!

"Gong Jue... You!" Could it be that he was going to mess around? "Shut up!" Gong Jue squinted. In the very next second!

"Stupid woman, don't clench your teeth!"

He ordered unhappily. Gu Qiqi's breathing became chaotic and she was a little speechless.

He was the one who wanted her to shut up, and he was the one who wanted her to open her mouth.

What exactly was he trying to do?

How would she know that Gong Jue's longing for her these few days had been unbearable the moment he saw her!

At this moment.

Ring

Her phone rang abruptly and shattered the silence of the night sky. The two of them suddenly woke up. Gu Qiqi even gathered her clothes shyly. Her big black grape-like eyes looked around uneasily. Fortunately, no one was passing by.

She turned her head away uneasily and used the phone to hide the shyness on her face.

"Hey, Brother Chu... What's the matter? Oh..."

Gu Qiqi had just said the words "Brother Chu" when she was frozen by Gong Jue's cold and terrifying gaze.

"Qiqi, congratulations. I saw the live-stream. Your surgery was stunning!... Is the signal there bad? Hello?"

Gu Qiqi struggled to break free from Gong Jue's terrifyingly cold gaze. "Oh, Brother Chu, I'm still busy here. Let's talk when we have time..."

Chu Junmo said, "Okay. Actually, it's nothing urgent. I just heard that you have a slot to participate in the World Medical Competition just now. I wanted to tell you that I'm one of the sponsors. See you at the competition venue in the future. If you need any help, look for me when the time comes..."

Before Gu Qiqi could thank him, her phone was snatched away by Gong Jue and the call was cut off!

Chapter 870 Let Chu Junmo's Shop Close Down!

What was more ruthless was that before Gong Jue hung up Chu Junmo's call, he had to say coldly to the receiver,

"Young Master Chu, please pay attention to your personal health. It's immoral to disturb other people's serious business at night."

After speaking, he cut off the call without the slightest hesitation!

He didn't care how Chu Junmo would understand these words!

Gu Qiqi was about to go crazy.

“Gong Jue! Who’s engaging with you about serious business?! Can you speak more elegantly?”

The man brushed his long and slender fingers across her red cherry lips meaningfully. “How is this serious matter not elegant? The person who isn’t elegant is clearly a brat with the surname Chu. It’s not a good thing to call a woman in the middle of the night. I’m just teaching him how to be a person! Besides, didn’t I do something serious with you just now? Have you forgotten? I don’t mind reminiscing with you...”

After speaking, before Gu Qiqi could react, his well-defined and handsome face bent down again.

“Ah!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

D*mn it. Couldn’t this man be gentler?

However, following Gong Jue’s actions, Gu Qiqi couldn’t help but gradually tighten her grip on his shirt.

Feeling the little woman’s arm stiffen... Gong Jue’s vanity was unprecedentedly satisfied.

Hmph! This stupid woman still didn’t admit that his skills were good?!

Gong Jue couldn’t help but laugh wickedly.

Gu Qiqi shivered and thought of something.

Hey, hey, hey. This is a public place, not your house.

Gong Jue, you’re too bold!

Her small hand tried to push him away, but how could a man’s large figure be so easily moved?

Even though she had activated her martial strength, she still felt as if her small hand was hitting an iron wall. Instead, it was hurting her own fists. Damn it!

Then, he turned cold!

D*mn it. Gong Jue actually pulled on her small pants.

She didn’t want to cooperate with him.

Amidst her hurried and panicked breathing, the piercing ringtone saved her once more.

Ring!

Gong Jue was in a good mood. After being disrupted like this, his entire face darkened and the veins on his forehead faintly surfaced. “Damn it! Is that Chu guy tired of living?! I’ll get his pharmacy to close down and send him to Africa to dig for herbs!”

Go to Africa to dig for herbs... Gong Jue, you’re really awesome!

Gu Qiqi facepalmed speechlessly. She agilely grabbed her phone and avoided Gong Jue's urge to smash it into pieces. She waved the phone screen in front of him. "Hey, look carefully, okay? What Brother Chu? It's clearly Director Feng's call!" Gong Jue frowned tightly. "You're not allowed to answer that old man's call either! Why aren't you resting at home in the middle of the night at such an old age? Why are you making random calls? Do you think that you've lived for too long?! You're not allowed to answer!"

How hateful. All of them always called and harassed them at the critical moment.

All of them should go to Africa to receive an education!

Gu Qiqi took a deep breath. "Who was the one who said that he wanted to educate Chu Junmo on his personal upbringing when he picked up the call just now? Now, you don't even let me answer the call of an elder. Is this called being cultured?"

Gong Jue was speechless.

Damn it! I finally understand what it means to shoot myself in the foot!

Gu Qiqi secretly smiled after succeeding and hurriedly took the opportunity to answer the call. "Director Feng, are you looking for me?" Fengyang Chu snorted and reprimanded her. "Why did you take so long to answer the call? Are you so arrogant after getting first place? You don't even take an elder's call seriously?"
