

Dear Chief 881

Chapter 881 The Family of Three Killed The Entire Scene!

Although the boy's tone was filled with disdain, he did not stop Gu Qiqi's slender and fair hand, which was rarely seen.

He would be furious even if Gong Jue touched his hair.

Let alone others!

But for some reason, Gu Qiqi's hand seemed to be especially magical. It rubbed his forehead comfortably.

Especially that faint fragrance... It carried an inexplicably familiar feeling.

It actually smelled super good!

After Gu Qiqi was done rubbing the little boy's head, she tapped his forehead and said, "Little fool, of course this is a divine weapon. Don't you know that you have to bring your own snacks to participate in such a gathering and share them with everyone to try? If we don't bring them, won't our faces be red when we eat someone else's food empty-handed later? Won't our hands be soft? Won't our hearts be ashamed?"

Gu Qiqi said in all seriousness.

Gong Jue was stunned.

The boy pouted his lips and lowered his eyes as he said, "Of course I don't know anything that I've never participated in!"

A trace of guilt flashed across Gong Jue's face.

He was too busy with military affairs and didn't have much time to accompany this child.

Furthermore, the boy had only been in kindergarten for half a year before he took a break from school. This was the first time in history that this gathering had been held.

Previously, he had even said over the phone that it was fine to just let Gu Qiqi come. He didn't know that he had to prepare clothes and snacks.

But what about Gu Qiqi?

Without a word, she had already prepared everything for the boy.

She was so meticulous and considerate. The problem was that this child wasn't her biological child, but she could be so attentive.

He was touched!

Gu Qiqi was already pulling the big and the small men as she ran forward quickly. "Hurry up. Why are you still standing there in a daze? You're going to be late!"

Gong Jue sniffed. He held the food box in one hand and hugged Gu Qiqi's small waist with the other.

He exerted force and practically hugged her halfway as he ran towards the classroom in big steps.

He completely disregarded Gu Qiqi's scream and covered her skirt in fear of being exposed. He also completely forgot that the little boy behind him was still running with difficulty with his short legs.

The boy was speechless.

Stepmother!

Father!

Wuwuwuwu...

In the middle school classroom, the classroom was decorated enthusiastically.

The gathering had officially begun. More than thirty parents and children sat on the ground and formed a circle.

This kindergarten was a prestigious kindergarten. The parents who attended were naturally rich and noble.

Once Gu Qiqi and the rest arrived, some people's eyes lit up. They looked at the parent-child clothing on them enviously. It was really beautiful. It was enough to kill the entire venue in seconds.

Of course, there were also people who saw that they were actually so daring and arrived later than them. They were immediately unhappy and looked over with unfriendly gazes. "You're late!"

In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, the boy's identity was not made public when he entered the garden. From the director to the teachers and the children's parents, no one knew that he was Gong Jue's son.

Thus, when he entered the classroom, Gong Jue naturally took out a pair of sunglasses and put them on to avoid being recognized.

The family of three came in arrogantly.

Those unhappy parents only spoke halfway before they were forced back.

Only a woman with red lips with heavy makeup snorted coldly. Her tone was harsh and sour. "Tsk. So, you're Gong Ting's parents. You don't even show your face once in a hundred years. You took leave after half a year and haven't even paid the tuition fees for the last semester. You think that your family owns the kindergarten and that you can come and go as you please? If you can't pay the tuition fees for the prestigious kindergarten, then don't come! Today, when you heard that we have an activity for free, you came to participate. Your family really likes to take advantage of us. You're so shameless!"

Gong Jue frowned and was about to speak.

Gu Qiqi stopped him and whispered, "Men shouldn't interfere in women's affairs." Then, she stepped forward and replied lightly.

Chapter 882 The Jealous Mommy Qiqi

Gu Qiqi replied lightly to that provocative red-lipped woman, "You're the class teacher?"

The red-lipped woman was stunned. "I'm not... But I'm the chairman of the family committee! All the parents have to listen to my arrangements! I'm also in charge of organizing today's activity. Of course, I have the right to criticize you for being late. Why? Are you dissatisfied?"

Gu Qiqi looked at this mean woman with pity.

She thought to herself that the greatest achievement this woman would have in this lifetime was probably the chairman of the parents' committee in kindergarten. The greatest authority she had in this lifetime was to maintain the order of the class. The biggest scene that she would organize was just a kindergarten gathering.

Thus, as long as such a person seized the opportunity, she would definitely make a fuss to disgust others and manifest her presence!

There was a trace of sympathy in her pity. Gu Qiqi laughed instead of getting angry. "Yes, it's our fault for being three minutes late. That's why we specially brought snacks to share with the children today to express our apologies. As for the class fees for the last semester, we naturally didn't pay it since Gong Ting didn't come to school. But if everyone minds, we'll fork out the funds for the activity today. We came today also because Little Ting missed the children. It's fine as long as the children have a good time."

Under Gu Qiqi's instructions, the little boy strode forward with his short legs and carried the small basket in all seriousness to distribute the sushi snacks to everyone.

He had to admit that the snacks that Gu Qiqi made were indeed delicious. Those sushi were different from what he usually ate in restaurants outside.

Some were made into the shape of rabbits, some were made into tiger heads, and some were made into Lego blocks. Even the pickled ginger and radishes were cut into a pinkish-white English rose by Gu Qiqi...

This little snack that looked, smelled, and tasted good made the children very excited when they saw it. Even the most picky children drooled. They still wanted it after eating it.

The little boy immediately became the envy of the children. Wow, it turned out that Gong Ting had such a capable mother. They were so envious.

The originally cold and arrogant boy revealed a rare trace of pride.

When the other parents saw that Gu Qiqi was so generous, by actually shouldering the funds for the event as soon as the competition started, and even bringing along such a sumptuous and exquisite dessert. Oh my, who would have the cheek to criticize such a good parent?

She should be the chairman of the family committee.

Unlike that red-lipped woman who only knew how to boss them around and order them to do work, but she never did it herself. Also, that terrible debt from the family committee. There were only two activities in a year, but she made every family fork out tens of thousands of dollars. They didn't know if it was to fill her private pockets.

In comparison, everyone was closer to Gu Qiqi. They stood up one after another and made way for Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue.

They actually gave the best seat to Gu Qiqi and the rest.

The red-lipped woman was furious. Her eyes burned red.

However, her son muttered as he ate, "Mommy, the food at Gong Ting's house is so delicious. I'm going to Gong Ting's house to eat!"

The woman with red lips was so angry that she slapped him. "Shut up!"

Gu Qiqi managed to resolve the tense atmosphere without even quarreling with the other party. She even managed to unite most of the parents present and make the entire class envious of the boy... Gong Jue was both surprised and proud!

He didn't expect his stupid woman to be so open outside!

He couldn't help but pinch her palm. "How did you do it? You're still a child yourself."

Chapter 883 I'll Support You!

Gu Qiqi glared at Gong Jue coquettishly. "I've been going for parent-teacher meetings for Xiaobei since I was young, okay?"

Back then, her mother died in an accident.

Not only was Xiaobei blind, but he also had a heart disease. In the beginning, he even attended a blind school for a period of time.

Gu Qiushan had always wanted to get rid of this sickly son. Of course, he couldn't be bothered to attend any parent-teacher meeting.

Thus, Gu Qiqi would be the one to attend such an occasion.

Although Gu Qiqi's character was actually a little cold and introverted, in order to let Xiaobei not be bullied in school, she knew how to make everyone happy at such an occasion when she was young so that her classmates would like Xiaobei and treat him better.

Back then, although he didn't have his parents to take care of him, Xiaobei was very happy to have Gu Qiqi as his backing.

Unfortunately, good times didn't last long. Soon, Gu Qiushan wouldn't let him go to school.

In her previous life, Xiaobei was thrown into a nursing home. Even until his death, he didn't step out of his cage to obtain freedom.

Thinking of those tragic scenes, Gu Qiqi's expression became slightly sorrowful.

Gong Jue sensitively captured the minute changes in her emotions. He exerted some force with his big palm and held her small hand in his palm.

He comforted her in a low voice. "Xiaobei's illness can definitely be treated. Taking ten thousand steps back, even if he can't be treated, we can still let him receive the best education and do whatever he wants. It's not even impossible to get married and have a child. Anyway, you don't have to worry. No matter what kind of accident happens, I'll raise Xiaobei with you for the rest of my life, okay?"

Gu Qiqi's back stiffened. A warm current rushed to her limbs and bones!

"I'll raise Xiaobei with you for the rest of our lives..."

Gong Jue's words ruthlessly struck the softest corner of her heart.

If Gong Jue only said "I'll take care of you!", she might not be so shocked.

At this moment, she opened her mouth but was unable to respond.

There were ten thousand voices clamoring in her heart. Agree to him! Hurry up and agree to him! Such a responsible man not only loves you but is also willing to love your younger brother. If you don't catch him quickly, are you still waiting for him to be used by others?

But at the same time, a soft voice gently pulled her heart back. He's so good, but you're hiding a lot of things from him. Can he forgive you after knowing the truth four years ago?

Gu Qiqi closed her eyes and said softly, "I don't want Xiaobei to become a burden to you..."

Gong Jue pulled a long face and said unhappily, "You don't even think that Gong Ting is a burden to me! Furthermore, Xiaobei is much less worrisome than that brat Gong Ting! Don't you know that Xiaobei is already at the top level when he competes in the robot competitions? He can even earn money to support himself. As his brother-in-law, I'm quite relieved!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She only knew that Xiaobei was born with talent in electronic machines. Recently, robots have also advanced a lot. However, she really wasn't sure how awesome they were.

The two of them chatted in a low voice. Unknowingly, Gong Jue's thin lips pressed against her ear. Her small body also tilted at an angle and leaned slightly against his shoulder.

In the eyes of the other parents, this scene was simply a display of affection.

Everyone couldn't help but whisper.

"Xiao Ting's parents sure have a good relationship. His child is almost four years old. Why does his father still look like he just fell in love..."

"That's right, that's right. I'm so envious. That blockhead of my husband can't wait to roar at me like a bull. I'm about to go deaf!"

"Come on, Mrs. Zhang. Your husband is still willing to talk to you. My husband is cold and violent towards me from the very start. He doesn't even care about me. He never participated in such school activities. He actually asked the secretary to help him. I'm so angry! Xiao Ting's parents take it so seriously. The two of them came together personally!"

"Sigh, Little Ting's mother is so lucky to have found such a good husband. He's handsome and dotes on her..."

Chapter 884 Only Listen to Your Wife

Gong Jue wanted Gu Qiqi to agree to raise Xiaobei with him. Before he could wait for an answer, the class teacher entered.

Gu Qiqi hurriedly made an excuse that the meeting was about to start to end this dangerous topic. She pulled Gong Jue to sit upright and didn't allow him to whisper.

The boy had also finished distributing the sushi. Having received the envy of a group of children, he returned happily.

However, when he saw Gu Qiqi looking at him with a spurious smile, he immediately restrained the joy on his face and deliberately put on a mature look. "Hmph, I'm helping you with your work to solve your problems. If I hadn't delivered it to their doorsteps, no one would have eaten all the things you made!"

Gu Qiqi laughed.

Tsk. How arrogant!

Did you not eat it?

Don't think that I didn't see you wolfing down a few pieces of sushi just now!

However, Gu Qiqi didn't bicker with him. Instead, she stretched out her hand and pulled him to sit between Gong Jue and her.

The boy initially did not want her to touch him and wanted to withdraw his hand.

But Gu Qiqi's hand seemed gentle but was actually quite strong. He couldn't refuse at all.

The boy sat comfortably between the two of them. For the first time in his life, it felt so strange to have a gathering that he could attend with his parents!

There was actually a little... warmth!

He sniffed. No, his grandfather said. One had to have principles. He couldn't be hit by a sugarcoated bullet. He couldn't be charmed by a vixen and become subservient like his father.

The class teacher walked into the circle of parents and started speaking.

"Hello, everyone. I thank everyone for taking the time to attend today's gathering despite your busy schedule. Some parents might think that kindergarten isn't a big deal, but I have to tell everyone that kindergarten has a very big impact on children's lives. Three to six years old is a sensitive period for children to grow up. Sometimes, what they show is the complete opposite of their hearts..." The class teacher was very professional and kept talking as soon as she came up.

Gong Jue became a little impatient.

Gu Qiqi listened very seriously.

It turned out that child psychology was so interesting. It seemed that she had to learn it well when she returned home. Yes, Xiaobei was a big child, the boy was a small child, and Gong Jue was a difficult big dog...

Perhaps it would be useful!

After the teacher explained the importance of caring for a three or four-year-old child for a while, he said to the red-lipped woman, "Little Hai's mother, you can host the next segment of the exchange of gifts."

It turned out that Little Hai's mother was the red-lipped woman who had been humiliated by Gu Qiqi previously. She was holding a grudge at this moment. Upon hearing this, she immediately went on stage and announced, "I specially held a meeting previously and asked everyone to bring some new and interesting toys over. Did everyone bring them?"

The people below the stage said, "Yes!"

Little Hai's mother glanced at Gu Qiqi and thought to herself, You never hold a parents' meeting or attend school. You definitely don't know about preparing a gift.

Later, I'll definitely make you lose face!

Thus, she deliberately said, "If you bring some food like sushi or something, that kind of inferior quality thing can only be considered a freebie but not a gift!"

Unexpectedly, a few children below the stage suddenly raised their hands. "Auntie, we don't want a gift. We still want to eat that sushi! Can you let Xiao Ting send some to us?"

Even her son, Little Hai, raised his hand weakly. "I don't want a gift either. I want to eat the flaming sushi just now..."

Chapter 885 Poisonous Dog Food!

These innocent words made Little Hai's mother's face burn with embarrassment.

Damn it!

Could that sushi be made of gold? Was it that delicious?

This group of d*mned children! They actually had such poor judgment and slapped her face on the spot.

Below the stage, Gu Qiqi saw that sushi was so popular and could only say apologetically, "I'm sorry, I didn't know that everyone liked it so much. I'll prepare double the amount next time. There's really no more this time. I'm sorry, I'm sorry!"

Upon hearing this, Little Hai's mother's face lit up.

Heh heh, were they done? No more?

How great! When you don't have a gift later, let's see if you still have the cheek to continue playing?

She continued to announce with a fake smile, "In order to test if everyone has followed what the class teacher said and really listened to our child carefully, for our activity today, we have to choose the worst parents and the best parents according to everyone's live performance. Of course, in the exchange segment, the best parents will definitely be the parents who prepare the most thoughtful gifts and have the most popular gifts."

As she spoke, her gaze swept across Gu Qiqi unintentionally and was filled with disdain. “And if anyone is empty-handed, I’m sorry, but that can only mean that you’re too lousy as parents. You didn’t even prepare a gift for the child’s activity. You’re not fit to be a parent at all! You have to stand up and receive everyone’s criticism. You also have to apologize to your child in public!”

What? There were so many scheming people attending a class gathering?

Gong Jue’s face darkened. He was very unhappy.

The other parents were also discussing among themselves. Be it accepting an education in public or apologizing to a child, both were very embarrassing.

Fortunately, they had done their homework and carefully selected especially expensive gifts.

At least, they wouldn’t lose in the exchange of gifts, right?

Everyone rubbed their fists and wiped their palms. They started to wonder who the “worst parents” would be.

The boy was a little nervous. “Daddy, we don’t seem to have prepared a gift...” Gong Jue frowned unhappily. “They’ve started giving gifts since they were young. What kind of bullsh*t style is this? Ignore them!”

Gu Qiqi pinched Gong Jue’s arm speechlessly. “Hey, it’s okay. It’s just an exchange of gifts, not a demonstration, okay? This is also a way for children to socialize. Why are you so cynical? This will make our child seem very unsociable.”

Upon hearing the words “our child”, Gong Jue immediately felt comfortable.

He immediately changed his words. “Okay. This method of education is good.”

The boy was speechless. Daddy, can you have some principles? Are you afraid that everyone won’t know that you’re subservient to her?

Gong Jue stood up. “I’ll buy some gifts now. Wait for me.”

When he stood up, everyone looked at him.

“Wow, Little Ting’s father is really tall and handsome!”

“Also, he especially listens to his wife. This is simply too cool, right?”

“That’s right! What’s so great about a man calling the shots outside? It’s only when he knows how to dote on his wife at home that he’s really capable!”

“Sigh, my heart is going to soar to find Little Ting’s Papa and kick that insensible old man at home...”

Seeing the group of female family heads starry-eyed, and then looking at Gu Qiqi’s blushing face, the boy wanted to cry but had no tears.

I was clearly here to test the vixen. Why did it become me eating dog food?! I refuse to be fed dog food!

Chapter 886 Driving A Fast Car in Kindergarten

Seeing that Gong Jue was really going to buy a gift, Gu Qiqi hurriedly stopped him. "Don't go. It's so embarrassing to only think of sharpening your gun at this moment. I've already prepared it for you."

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows.

It was already prepared?

Did this woman have such foresight?

Why did he feel that she was especially suitable to be a good mother at this moment?

Gong Jue sat back down with a deep gaze.

His thin lips couldn't help but approach Gu Qiqi's earlobe and he blew lightly. "It's not embarrassing to sharpen a gun at the last minute... Actually, I can also make you feel good at the last minute. I guarantee that I'll be ready for you at all times!"

What?

Was the last minute sharpening of a gun that she was talking about really the same "gun"?

Gu Qiqi's ears flushed red.

A big shot hooligan!

Is it really good for you to drive a fast car in kindergarten?

The boy still didn't understand what had happened. He only felt that the atmosphere between his father and the vixen was so good. Why was the vixen blushing so easily?

Did she do something to let him down?

He pouted. "Gu Qiqi, what is the gift that you prepared? Don't use that kind of thing that makes me lose face. I refuse to admit that kind of childish thing is from me!"

Gu Qiqi squinted. "You'll know when you open it yourself."

She dragged out a heavy box from behind her back and handed it to them.

When the boy opened it, his eyes widened!

It lit up!

How crazy!

The boy's big black grape-like eyes flickered. "This... This is Brother Xiaobei's..."

"What Brother Xiaobei? Your seniority isn't right. Call him Uncle." Gong Jue corrected him unhappily.

The boy was immersed in the shock brought by that big box of gifts. How could he care about the sinister trap in Gong Jue's words?

He only cared about exclaiming repeatedly. "This, this, this is Uncle Xiaobei's award-winning work in the last season of the robot designer competition. It's Brother Yun's Lego model! Only Uncle Xiaobei knows how to make it. There's no one in the world who can sell it! How did you get your hands on it?!"

Gu Qiqi smiled lightly. "Perhaps, because I'm his older sister, he'll listen to me."

This was the 30 mini robot models that Xiaobei and her had worked hard for the entire afternoon to assemble with Lego blocks!

She knew that the children would definitely be infatuated with this!

In order to let the girls like it too, she even modified it a little and specially designed half of the mini robots wearing small skirts.

Indeed, the little boy who had a look of disdain on his face just now and felt that it was impossible for Gu Qiqi to prepare a reliable gift gripped one of the mini robots tightly and didn't let go. He even muttered, "Gu Qiqi, did you prepare one for everyone? Did you include me?! I don't care. Anyway, I want to keep one. Even if it's not enough, I want to keep one!"

As he spoke, his small hand hid that mini robot behind his back as if he was afraid that someone would snatch it away.

Gu Qiqi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Where was the image of the cold and arrogant boy? Hmm? Did he fail?

However, this was the first time that she had seen the little guy finally reveal his childish and possessive nature at his age for the things he loved. Gu Qiqi felt that he was quite cute.

Children should be like this.

It might not be a good thing to pull a long face every day like that stubborn old man Gong Qing.

She suppressed her good child-like heart.

"Don't worry. There's enough. I've calculated that everyone will have one. Also, remember to give one to your class teacher."

Gu Qiqi instructed and instructed Gong Jue. "This box is too heavy. Don't tire the child. Help the child carry it and let him give it out."

Chapter 887 The Worst Parents!

Gu Qiqi gave the order.

Gong Jue carried the heavy gift box without a word and did as she said obediently.

He was simply the model of a filial husband!

The few female family heads beside her were envious again. They all wanted to give up on their stubborn, disobedient, and most importantly, ugly, greasy, and stupid man!

Little Hai's mother was holding her son's hand and happily organizing a gift exchange in the middle of the crowd.

Because her family had prepared a Transformer that was half a meter tall, it immediately obtained the favor of many children!

Many boys surrounded that big Transformer and raised their hands. "Mu Xiaohai, I'll exchange with you. I have a small remote control plane!"

"Mu Xiaohai, look at me, look at me, I'll exchange my military chess set with you!"

"Mu Xiaohai, you like the smartphone that my father gave me! I want your Transformer!"

"Mu Xiaohai, this is the latest Chanel bow necklace that my mama bought for me. Let me change with you, okay?"

Seeing that her son's gift was so popular, Little Hai's mother's big red lips curved up even more.

She couldn't help but pat her son's head. "Precious darling Hai, Mommy will definitely give you the title of Best Parents today so that you can become the most popular person in the class!"

Mu Xiaohai asked casually, "Then who are the worst parents?"

The woman with red lips snorted coldly and breathed out from her nose. "Who else could it be? That family can't afford the tuition fees and can't attend school. They even came to take advantage of me!"

Hmph! Only the male owner of that house was more handsome. That woman simply couldn't be looked at! Ugly! Fierce! Rude! Unreasonable!

That beautiful father was simply like a flower stuck in cow dung!

She looked at Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue, the "worst parents", in disdain. She initially thought that she would see the two of them empty-handed and be awkwardly excluded by others without gifts.

Unexpectedly...

Gu Qiqi sat comfortably on the spot.

The handsome Gong Jue personally held the boy's hand and was holding a big and exquisite gift box. On the way, he would give a small gift to a child.

Mu Xiaohai's mother was extremely jealous!

Her husband had never helped her take care of her son like this before!

Although she begged him to come to the gathering, he went somewhere to smoke early in the morning.

She didn't know what kind of lousy gift that was to be snatched away by the children like crazy.

Gong Jue had only given out half of the gifts with the boy when all the children couldn't help but surround them.

Even the children who had surrounded Mu Xiaohai and wanted to exchange with his Transformer were stunned. They ran towards Gong Jue and the boy.

"Xiao Ting, is that robot of yours the first in the robot competition last time?"

ever seei

“What a beautiful robot! I’ve never seen such a beautiful robot in my life! It’s even more beautiful than my barbie doll!”

“That’s right, that’s right. Compared to your robot, Mu Xiaohai’s Transformer is so weak!”

“Xiao Ting, my gift is for you!”

“I’ll give you my gift too!”

“Me too!”

The boy did not even have the time to reject them, much less say that everyone had a share. The children could not wait anymore. They stuffed the gifts in their hands into the arms of Gong Jue and the boy and waited anxiously for them to give the robots to them!

Chapter 888 Showing Her Face In Public

The robot that Gu Qiqi had prepared for the boy immediately became the most popular gift in the entire venue.

After Gong Jue brought the boy around, the last robot was snatched away.

Mu Xiaohai’s mother was about to explode in anger.

Two poor people could actually afford gifts?

They were actually very popular?

This was simply slapping her face in public.

Did they take her, the chairman of the committee, seriously?!

Mu Xiaohai, who was being ignored, looked at Gong Ting’s mini robot anxiously. He also wanted to ask for it, but in the end, he was pulled back by his mother. “You’re not allowed to go! We don’t want that worthless lousy thing!”

Mu Xiaohai cried out loud as he sat on the ground. As a little fatty, he sat down with a plop and collapsed his expensive Transformer. He didn’t have the time to care and only cared about howling. “I want, I want, I want that robot!”

Mu Xiaohai’s mother couldn’t stop him no matter how much she coaxed him. She stomped her feet in anger and stretched out a hand. She pointed at Gu Qiqi sternly. “Hurry up and get your son to take one out! Can’t you see that my child is crying? Why is your family so insensible?!”

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows and looked at the boy.

The little boy immediately hid the last robot with his hands. His small face regained its coldness. He couldn’t even be bothered to say a word to this unreasonable mother and son pair. The robots that Gu Qiqi had originally prepared were just right. Everyone had one. Even if the boy kept one for himself, it was enough.

Why was the last one gone?

She suddenly remembered that a delicate little girl had begged the boy to give her a pair just now. They formed a male robot and a female robot.

The boy gave it to her generously.

Yes, he knew how to dote on girls at such a young age. Gu Qiqi was determined to protect a gentleman like the boy.

Good men are raised from young!

“If you want it, I’ll give it to you? It’s voluntary to exchange gifts, understand?” Gu Qiqi squinted and retorted.

“But my child is crying! Can’t you see that he’s crying so sadly?” Mu Xiaohai’s mother said shrilly.

Gu Qiqi said lightly, “What has your child’s crying got to do with me? Who asked you not to have the ability to coax him?”

“You! If it weren’t for your lousy gift, would my child cry? You... You’re deliberately disturbing the order of our event!”

“Then, you’re admitting that you organized your own activities and don’t even have the ability to maintain order?” Gu Qiqi’s leisurely tone formed a stark contrast with Mu Xiaohai’s mother’s aggressive behavior.

“I... I... I announce that you’re not welcome in this activity. You poor parents aren’t fit to come to our prestigious kindergarten!”

Mu Xiaohai’s mother’s red fingernails were about to poke Gu Qiqi.

Suddenly...

A cold shout cut through the air.

“Which dog is pointing its claws at my woman? Are you tired of living?” Gong Jue was helping the boy put the 28 gifts that he had exchanged into a gift box and put it away in front of the teacher’s podium.

But when he turned around, there was actually a woman who didn’t know life from death pointing at Gu Qiqi.

He was furious and slapped that b*tch’s hand away.

Mu Xiaohai’s mother shivered.

It was just a slap from Gong Jue, but it actually hurt so much that it was as if her bones were about to shatter.

That man’s aura was unexpectedly strong and his hand was so hard!

Initially, she thought that he was a poor gigolo. After all, a real rich person should be as fat as her husband with big ears and a big stomach. She didn't expect that he was actually... from an underground society? He started shouting and killing as soon as he came up?

Chapter 889 Mrs. Gong, Your Husband...

Mu Xiaohai's mother shivered.

Under Gong Jue's cold aura, she didn't dare to breathe loudly and obediently hugged her son to the side.

She didn't dare to cause trouble for Gu Qiqi anymore.

Gu Qiqi held her forehead and pulled on Gong Jue's sleeve in slight annoyance. "Hey, stupid man. Be gentler with your words. Don't forget that this is a kindergarten. It won't be good to scare children."

Thus, if there was a problem that could be solved with money, she would spend money first!

If she could use her mouth, she would not take action first!

Gong Jue said, "That b*tch pointed at my woman. You still want me to be gentle? I can't!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. No one could surpass this simple and crude man.

Fortunately, the children were immersed in the excitement of the new toy and didn't care about the commotion caused by Mu Xiaohai and his mother at all.

The boy looked at Gu Qiqi thoughtfully.

Didn't they say that adults loved face the most?

Why didn't Gu Qiqi give this robot in his hand away just now?

Instead, she chose to argue with Mu Xiaohai's mother!

He wasn't soft-hearted towards the little girl who wanted the two robots at all. He just didn't want to give Mu Xiaohai a gift.

Back when he was in school for half a year, Mu Xiaohai relied on being taller and fatter than him to deliberately push him away, mock him, and even snatch his snacks!

But Gu Qiqi seemed to be different from other mothers.

She didn't always tell him to be humble and sensible. Even if he risked being criticized and scolded by other parents, she didn't force him to do anything he wasn't willing to do.

Was it good or bad to have such a stepmother?

After the exchange segment, the class teacher came over to announce the next activity. They were going to a five-star children's park nearby to play an outdoor parent-child game.

The class teacher said especially to Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi, "I hope that everyone can thank Little Ting's parents properly. This activity was originally meant for everyone to pool their funds and pay for it. However, Mr. Gong has already footed the bill in advance, so everyone can play as much as you want later. All the five-star activities in the park, including the highest-end dining area and the VIP rest area, will be open to us for free!”

“Wow! Thank you, tycoon!” The parents applauded.

The children didn’t know what it meant to foot the bill in advance, but when they heard that they could play with anything, they were so happy that they jumped up high.

Each and every one of them looked at Gong Ting with even more admiration and envy. Why do you have such a good pair of father and mother? The boy inexplicably felt that he was light-hearted. This kind of vanity and satisfaction that he had never felt before actually... made him feel quite comfortable.

Gu Qiqi was stunned and whispered to Gong Jue, “Why did you foot the bill? What a prodigal man!”

Gong Jue’s tone was calm. “Yes. Helping Madam fulfill her promise isn’t considered squandering.”

Gu Qiqi blinked her big and beautiful black grape-like eyes.

It took her a while to react. Damn it. When she first entered the house, she was bickering with Little Hai’s mother and casually said that she would take care of the expenses for today’s activity!

The problem was that she thought that everyone would drink tea and eat snacks together at the kindergarten gathering. At most, they would play a game at the entrance of the kindergarten and throw a handkerchief. Then, they would take a big photo together!

It didn’t cost much anyway.

She had no problem with it.

Who knew that the city people knew how to play?

They actually went to a five-star children’s park!

Alright, so the source of their squandering was herself...

Before leaving for the children’s amusement park, everyone went to the washroom. They fed the children water and communicated with the teachers.

Gu Qiqi was busy for the entire afternoon because of this sudden activity. She didn’t even have the time to go to the washroom and hurriedly took the opportunity to fill the bathtub.

When she returned, she realized that the two men—one big and one small—had disappeared.

A passionate parent came over to chat. “Mrs. Gong, your husband saw that the weather is cold outside and bought you hot cocoa!”

Chapter 890 You Shorty! I’ll Beat You to Death!

Gu Qiqi’s small face flushed red. But the mother thought that she was shy.

She still said enviously, “Mrs. Gong, you’re so lucky. A man dotes on you so much, and your son is extremely smart. He looks exactly like you and has completely inherited your and your husband’s superior genes...”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Gosh, were all parents in this kindergarten so eloquent?

The boy wasn't her biological son. How could she tell that they were identical?

Was she indirectly praising her for being good-looking and young?

"By the way, Mrs. Gong, can you teach us a few tricks? We saw how obedient your husband was after being disciplined by you. How exactly did you do it?"

"That's right, that's right. He looks like a very noble big boss too. Why is it that when you say one, he doesn't dare to say two? If you say east, he definitely won't go west! You're too awesome!"

"What exactly is your secret? Share it with me!"

Gu Qiqi felt an indescribable feeling in her heart. You guys haven't seen the moment when he becomes domineering and makes me unable to move.

This stupid man's big move of showing off their affection today caught her off guard.

How did she know what was wrong with him?

The awkward smile on Gu Qiqi's face was still there.

More and more mothers surrounded her.

The topic became more and more bold.

"Mrs. Gong, is your husband very strong at night? Do you have some secret tricks to satisfy him?"

"That's right, that's right. Mr. Gong's nose is so big and sharp. It's said that men with this kind of nose are super strong! Also, when Mr. Gong was giving out the gifts just now, I secretly took a look. His middle finger is also super long... Mrs. Gong, you must be so happy!"

"Mrs. Gong, is it because only you can satisfy him that he can't leave you? He listens to everything you say and is willing to follow you?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Gosh, what exactly was going on?

They could actually tell if a man was capable from his nose and middle finger?

As a professional doctor, she could responsibly tell them that this was unreliable!

Whether a man could do it or not, there was only one test criterion. That was to roll up his sleeves and do it.

Gu Qiqi was about to collapse from being pestered by the mothers. She finally found an excuse that she left her phone in the washroom and had to find it.

Only then did she escape from the strong encirclement and catch her breath.

She didn't dare to return to the classroom again and accept the questioning from the "masterminds".

She simply slipped out of the small field at the entrance of the kindergarten and waited for Gong Jue to buy hot cocoa.

The small field was filled with slides and flower beds. Gu Qiqi was about to sit by the flower beds and wait for Gong Jue.

Suddenly, a commotion behind the flower bed caught her attention.

"Gong Ting, give me the robot! I'll give you the Transformer!"

"I don't want to! You're so ugly!"

"I don't care. I must have your robot today!"

"What if I don't?"

"Hmph! Then, I'll snatch it! You short, skinny person! I'll beat you to death!"

"Ah!"

The more Gu Qiqi listened, the more she felt that something was wrong.

Why did it seem like the boy had a conflict with someone?

Especially that last scream. It made her heart tremble.

She stood up abruptly and ran behind the flower bed!

Behind the flower bed,

The little boy and Mu Xiaohai faced each other nervously.

Just now, his father went to buy a hot drink for the vixen. He didn't bring him along, and he didn't know where the vixen went too.

Not only was he surrounded by a group of little girls passionately in the classroom, but all of them even wanted to hold his hand as if they were close friends. He really felt so annoyed.

He had no choice but to come out for a walk. However, he bumped into Mu Xiaohai, who was here to cause trouble!

At this moment, in order to get his little robot, Mu Xiaohai actually made a savage move and pushed him back fiercely!

Behind them were hard stones from the flower beds!
