

Dear Chief 941

Chapter 941: Disguise For Life

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but look at the small body on the operating table.

He was so weak and skinny that he didn't look like that energetic little boy anymore.

A strong heartache filled her chest.

She closed her eyes. When she opened them again, they were filled with determination!

Who said that doctors couldn't operate on their own children?

With the conviction of her having to succeed for her child to wake up, she had to do her best to save the boy. Apart from her, no one else in this era had the skill of allowing blood to flow from his acupuncture points.

Thus, she had to do well.

She took a deep breath and her hands stopped trembling.

The silver needle was lifted and then it landed!

Gu Qiqi's hand gestures were neat and beautiful. She pierced through the little boy's vital acupoints and pulled the needles out one by one.

Beads of blood appeared.

She carefully used cotton to absorb the blood.

After estimating that the blood was about enough, she quickly stopped the bleeding and instructed, "Is the O-type blood in the blood bank ready?"

"It's ready, Doctor Gu."

"Start the blood transfusion for the patient. Remember to control the speed and observe his heart rate."

"Okay, Doctor Gu!"

Beside her, a few famous pediatricians from the Empire had become her assistants at this moment. They listened to her orders completely and respectfully addressed her as Doctor Gu.

All of them didn't complain.

They had personally witnessed how sharp and talented Gu Qiqi was when it came to dealing with the unconscious little boy.

They also knew that they weren't qualified to participate in the World Medical Competition. This little girl brought an entire team to PK with an international expert.

Although there were hierarchies in the workplace, talent could easily overcome all hierarchies!

Under Gu Qiqi's supervision, the boy successfully bled and received a blood transfusion.

His pale face gradually regained a faint blush.

“Doctor Gu, do you want to use a ‘nasogastric tube’?” A doctor asked softly.

Gu Qiqi muttered to herself for a while. “I’ll try natural feeding first.”

It was a nasogastric tube. As the poisoned unconscious patient didn’t have any reflexes to swallow, the only way to feed him medicine was to rely on the tube.

As the name suggested, it was by using a tube to extend from his nose into his stomach.

Then, the medicine or liquid food would be poured in through this tube.

This method was simple, but the side effects were obvious.

For example, the simplest — choking. After all, that was a tube. It was visibly thick. How could the boy not feel uncomfortable when it entered his nose?

A more serious injury would be to the nasal mucous membrane and the gastric mucous membrane if the tube was stabbed all the way in. It was difficult for the membranes to not be damaged.

An even more serious injury would be inflammation and even suffocation...

Considering the number of side effects, Gu Qiqi did not want to feed the boy the medicine through the tube unless she had no choice.

She raised her arm. “Bring me a mask, a medicine bowl, and a soft silicone spoon.”

Everyone knew that the medicine bowl and soft spoon were for the convenience of feeding the boy.

What was the mask for?

But soon, everyone understood. It turned out that Gu Qiqi had considered the little boy’s safety meticulously.

She had to have close contact with the boy when she fed him medicine. Gu Qiqi was afraid that her breath would land on the boy’s face and cause him to inhale bacteria.

The operating theater observation window.

Gong Qing secretly watched this scene.

Songsong sighed. “Qiqi is so considerate. I think she treats the boy well!”

Gong Qing snorted stubbornly. “Who knows if it’s fake!”

Although his tone was very sharp and unkind, he couldn’t help but take a few more looks into the room. Yes, if that vixen was pretending, then she could continue to pretend like this. If she treated the boy well and pretended for a lifetime, he would concede to her!

Chapter 942: Recognizing Sister!

Gu Qiqi was wearing a big mask. She leaned against the bed and hugged the boy gently.

In her arms, the little boy could tilt his head to facilitate the flow of the medicine into his mouth.

Gu Qiqi held a small soft spoon and scooped a small mouthful of medicine before gently feeding it into the corner of the boy's mouth.

Unfortunately, the boy had no intention of swallowing it.

The medicine spilled all over her.

She didn't find it dirty or give up. Instead, she patiently scooped a small mouthful of medicine again.

Now that she had experience, the medicine used was even less than before.

As she pried open the boy's lips, she coaxed him gently in his ear, "Little boy, be good..."

She wanted to sing a children's song to the boy, but she suddenly realized that she had no experience in coaxing children.

Helpless, she could only signal to Gong Jue, "Hurry up! Sing a few lines for the boy to let him relax. Perhaps he can cooperate with us to drink the medicine."

Gong Jue's face stiffened.

The doctors and nurses around him rubbed their noses and couldn't help but laugh.

They had never seen the cold Chief sing a children's song before!

Let alone singing a children's song, they had never heard Master Jue sing a normal song before.

Master Jue's cold and fierce aura seemed to be very disconnected from singing.

For a moment, everyone was curious about what Gong Jue would do.

Gong Jue's Adam's apple bobbed. "He's unconscious. How can he hear the singing?"

"Then, you don't understand. He can hear you. Otherwise, why do doctors always encourage family members to talk more to comatose people? Alright, hurry up." Gu Qiqi was slightly angry.

Everyone thought to themselves that Doctor Gu was dead meat for daring to argue with Master Jue like this!

However, in the very next second, everyone's jaws dropped.

Gong Jue replied gloomily, "Okay."

Then, he really opened his mouth and sang a children's song. "Sleep, sleep, my darling..."

His words were perfect as he sang the children's song like a military song!

Gu Qiqi's lips twitched. "I didn't ask you to sing this kind of song. Your rhythm is too standard. Can you be more emotional and warm?"

"Yes." Gong Jue cleared his throat and changed to another song. "Little darling, sleep quickly. I'll be by your side in your dream. I'll laugh with you and sleep with you. You have me to lean on..."

Everyone couldn't hold back their laughter anymore.

Three black lines appeared on Gu Qiqi's forehead. "Gong Jue, we're trying to wake the boy up, not coax him to sleep. Can you stop singing songs to make people sleep?"

Gong Jue was quite hurt. He thought that he sang well.

Weren't all children's songs used to coax children to sleep?

However, since his wife had spoken, he should change to another song!

What should he change it to?

Gong Jue had an idea. "Pull the carrot. Pull the carrot. Little girl, come quickly. Come and help us pull the carrot..."

How was it? This carrot pulling song was very rhythmic, emotional, and warm. The main point was that it wouldn't make people sleep!

It satisfied the requirements, right?

Gu Qiqi was completely speechless!

Alright, it turned out that the Chief wasn't good at coaxing children either!

Gong Jue pointed at the boy's lips smugly. "He drank it! Look, he drank it... Isn't my song very effective?!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Could you not be so childish as to seek praise, Chief?

The boy felt as if he had fallen into a dark well. He kept walking, but he couldn't get out.

He fumbled around and wanted to call for help, but he couldn't make a sound.

He tilted his head and listened. Suddenly, he heard a commotion. It seemed to be the voice of the vixen. "Little boy, you can do it. Persevere... Drink more..."

When he tried to hear it again, it was gone.

He tried his best to widen his eyes and consciously swallow his saliva.

Vixen, what did you make me drink?

Chapter 943: Recognizing Sister! (2)

The boy muttered in a daze, "Vixen, where are you?"

Vixen...

A light suddenly appeared in front of him.

A face seemed to have appeared indistinctly at the well.

A pair of big black grape-like eyes were agile yet showed concern. The remaining half of her face was covered by a big white mask.

The boy was stunned.

That face belonged to Sister!

He recognized her!

Yes, big eyes, a big mask, and a pleasant voice...

All of these combined made him feel as if he had returned to the night when he first met Sister.

In the corridor of Qing Cheng Hospital, she had so coolly treated his bowel angina.

She was clearly cold, but he felt that her heart was very gentle!

Such a similar scene actually appeared in front of him.

Sister, was Sister going to save him again?

He was focused on Sister, but for some reason, an unpleasant voice suddenly sounded in his heart. Where was the vixen?

If Sister saved him, did that vixen encounter some danger?

He had always missed his Sister, but at this moment, he actually missed the vixen a little!

That hateful stepmother—that vixen!

The boy had a splitting headache. He vaguely felt that he had let down his Sister. After all, he loved her so much, but another woman had unknowingly moved into his heart.

In fact, his worry and concern for the vixen became stronger and stronger. This made him feel so guilty!

He felt that he was impure.

But... vixen, where are you? I miss you so much...

Beads of sweat formed on the forehead of the conflicted boy. His vision darkened once more...

==

Gu Qiqi stared nervously at the boy's reaction.

The medicine was all fed to him. The boy even opened his eyes and his lips moved for a short while.

However, just as everyone was celebrating, the little boy suddenly started sweating profusely and fell unconscious once more.

His small eyebrows were tightly knitted. She didn't know what sad things he had encountered in his dream, but he looked so conflicted and sad.

Gu Qiqi's heart ached.

She couldn't help but reach out and gently smooth his eyebrows.

Perhaps she was as disappointed as she was hopeful.

She had created too many miracles on the operating table. One minute of surgery, three minutes of surgery. At most, it would take ten to twenty minutes for her to conduct an especially complicated emergency operation.

Thus, everyone also thought that her medicine would take effect in a minute today.

However, the truth was that the little boy's illness was much more complicated. He had been poisoned and he also had a psychological burden. It wasn't that easy to wake the little boy up.

Although he had undergone acupuncture and drunk medicine, he was still asleep.

Gu Qiqi could clearly feel everyone's disappointment.

Let alone everyone, even she was very disappointed in herself. She had been tormented for half a day and didn't make any progress. How could she not be disappointed?

Her hand gently touched the boy's eyebrows, but her own eyebrows unconsciously knitted tightly together.

Gong Jue stood a step away and stared at the scene of Gu Qiqi comforting the boy.

This scene was so heartbreaking and beautiful. His nose stung and he nearly cried.

However, he was a man after all. He couldn't be sad. He took a deep breath and caressed Gu Qiqi's long hair. "Don't worry. Let's take it one step at a time."

Chapter 944: Seven Leaf Flower!

The man's rich and calm voice was like the best comforting agent. It gradually calmed Gu Qiqi's mood.

She placed the boy back onto the bed. After thinking for a while, she found the crux of the problem. "There should be another medicine..."

"What medicine?" Everyone was curious.

Honestly speaking, the prescription that Gu Qiqi had written was already shocking. If not for the fact that the little boy's symptoms were too complicated, they could completely confirm that it was definitely a godly prescription to treat an overdose of anesthesia.

If a big pharmaceutical factory produced this medicine now, it would definitely sell out and earn a lot.

But Gu Qiqi said that she was still lacking an ingredient. They couldn't think of anything no matter how hard they thought.

"Seven Leaf Flower." Gu Qiqi replied lightly.

"Seven Leaf Flower? Isn't that the medicine for cancer?" Everyone looked at each other.

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "It has a calming effect. It's especially effective for young children's seizures. Apart from the anesthetic overdose, the little boy should also be experiencing a nervous system disorder caused by excessive shock. Due to the disorder and numbness, the treatment is difficult."

Everyone sighed in admiration after Gu Qiqi's analysis.

It turned out that the difference between a genius and a mediocre person was so big.

It seemed to be such a simple line of logic, but they never expected it.

“Our pharmacy has a Seven Leaf Flower. I’ll go and get it!” A doctor volunteered.

A few minutes later, the herbs were placed in front of Gu Qiqi.

However, she shook her head. “This isn’t the Seven Leaf Flower. This is the Strong Herb.”

“Isn’t the Seven Leaf Flower the Strong Herb?” Everyone was puzzled.

“Of course, you can’t understand it simply. This is Yunnan’s Strong Herb, and the Seven Leaf Flower is a wild Strong Herb. The two are both Strong Herbs, but the effectiveness is different.” Gu Qiqi pointed out the differences in the herbs. Everyone sighed when they heard this.

“Doctor Gu, it seems that what I’ve seen in my life are all Strong Herbs, not Seven Leaf Flowers. This Seven Leaf Flower is really too difficult to find.” The doctors sighed.

Gu Qiqi looked at Gong Jue. “Let me go out to collect herbs again.”

There must be a Seven Leaf Flower near the Medicine Manual.

Since the Seven Leaf Flower was a necessary medicinal herb in this prescription, it should definitely appear near the Medicine Manual.

But... Why didn’t she see it yesterday?

After thinking about this question, she asked for leave from Gong Jue.

Gong Jue said, “I’ll go with you.”

After the sneak attack by the criminals in the afternoon, he was even a little worried about Gu Qiqi’s safety now. He could only feel at ease if he protected her personally.

“No, you stay behind to accompany the boy. What if he wakes up?” Gu Qiqi shook her head lightly.

Gong Jue frowned slightly. He glanced at the small boy lying quietly on the hospital bed and then at Gu Qiqi. It turned out that when a person faced a difficult problem of two choices, it was so difficult to choose.

“Listen to me. You stay behind. I’ll go and collect the herbs.” Gu Qiqi said, “If you’re worried, ask Special Assistant Lu to accompany me.”

“Didn’t you say that your tutor doesn’t allow others to enter the forest?”

“Uh... He’ll wait for me outside the forest.”

“That’s no different from having no one to protect you! No!” Gong Jue’s face darkened.

Gu Qiqi was at her wits’ end. She could only use her coquettish charms. “No, I’m familiar with the place. I guarantee that I’ll be back very soon. If I don’t return after some time, I’ll let you take care of me, okay?”

Gong Jue's eyes darkened and he said in a low voice, "You said that?"

"Yes, I mean what I say!"

The doctors were long stunned by these two people who publicly flirted.

They never expected that the cold Chief would actually act coquettishly!

However, what was even more unexpected was that the great Chief would go back on his word.

Just as Gu Qiqi and Special Assistant Lu drove to Imperial Medical University...

Special Assistant Lu stayed outside the dense forest to keep watch while Gu Qiqi entered the dense forest alone.

Behind her, the sound of powerful leather boots suddenly sounded out.

These five simple words made Gu Qiqi feel emotional.

Stupid man!

He was getting better at flirting!

It would be a lie to say that she wasn't touched.

But...

"What about that boy? If bad people take advantage of him..." Gu Qiqi's small heart tightened.

Gong Jue said, "Let that old man Gong Qing be responsible. Isn't he energetic? Find something for him to do so that he won't always be so free to suspect about this and that."

Gu Qiqi laughed.

This reason was superb.

Alright, the boy had that suspicious biological grandfather to take care of him. She didn't have to worry about his safety.

The two of them walked deeper into the dense forest hand in hand.

The leaves creaked under his leather boots, breaking the silence of the night. But there was a different kind of harmony.

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips. She was used to being alone. Even her good friends rarely accompanied her by her side. But at this moment, a man overcame thousands of obstacles and wanted to accompany her. She admitted that this feeling of being doted on was so good that it was explosive.

She said softly, "But Feng Yangchu made me swear that I would not bring outsiders into the area where the Medicine Manual is. Otherwise, there will be bad luck and punishment."

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows and said proudly, "Am I an outsider?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

The little dirty turtle sniggered. That's right, that's right. Master Jue is our Master Qi's family! Hahaha...

Gong Jue wrapped his long arm around Gu Qiqi and hugged her in his coat to warm her up.

He hugged her and walked forward to prevent her from aggravating her injured leg. "I'm your future husband. I'll become one with you sooner or later. What's mine is yours. What's yours is mine. Even the heavens can't deny this! Who said that I'm an outsider? I'll kill him!"

His rough and domineering style was the same as always.

Gu Qiqi's lips curved slightly and she didn't retort anymore.

When a man was ambitious enough to protect her, that man would be handsome, proud, adorable, and responsible. It was really difficult to reject him.

The two of them walked intimately to the Medicine Manual.

Gu Qiqi was glad that Gong Jue was here. The light from the flashlight that she brought was too weak. The better flashlight that Gong Jue carried with him was still stronger.

Once it was turned on, everything within a few dozen meters was lit.

Gu Qiqi found the medicinal cluster that was used to collect herbs for the little boy. After rummaging through it carefully, she discovered that there were a few herbs that had been bitten by worms near the licorice.

After observing the herb's bare roots for a while, she was certain that this was the Seven Leaf Flower!

No wonder she didn't notice it previously. It was actually... eaten by worms!

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

At the same time, she couldn't help but sigh at the power of the Medicine Manual.

After the clinical trial, she had only discovered that there was one missing ingredient after giving the little boy the medicine. This Medicine Manual had already prescribed the best medicine for the most complicated illness.

If it weren't for the fact that the Seven Leaf Flower had been accidentally eaten by the worms, this complete prescription would really be shocking.

She had found the reason, but there was also a problem.

The little boy was in danger and Gu Qiqi needed the Seven Leaf Flower to save his life.

Even if there was a seed, she could cultivate it.

But the Seven Leaf Flower was already extinct in the Empire. Where was she going to find the seed now?

Gong Jue's heart ached when he saw Gu Qiqi's disappointed face. He said in a low voice, "Leave this to me. I'll use all my strength to find it. Don't worry. It's too late. Go back and rest first."

She said that she wasn't worried yet she couldn't sleep the entire night.

After tossing and turning in bed, she decided to go to the black market to take a look the next day.

It was said that in the black market of the Dige Stone Gambling Hall, other than jewelry and jade, there were many unknown things. As long as she could afford it, she didn't have to worry about not being able to buy it.

Chapter 945: I Want to Accompany You

Gu Qiqi turned around in astonishment. "You... Why are you here?"

Under the night sky, Gong Jue's tall figure seemed even more sturdy and cold. The cold moonlight shone on him, adding an alluring aura to him.

He said lightly, "I want to accompany you."

I want to accompany you.

These five simple words made Gu Qiqi feel emotional.

Stupid man!

He was getting better at flirting!

It would be a lie to say that she wasn't touched.

She said that she wasn't worried yet she couldn't sleep the entire night.

After tossing and turning in bed, she decided to go to the black market to take a look the next day.

It was said that in the black market of the Dige Stone Gambling Hall, other than jewelry and jade, there were many unknown things. As long as she could afford it, she didn't have to worry about not being able to buy it.

Chapter 946: Ten Thousand People Captivated, Young Master Ye Is Here

Gu Qiqi had thought it through. Even if she had to spend all the money that she had worked so hard to earn during this period of time, she had to find the seed of the Seven Leaf Flower!

When she woke up in the morning with dark eye circles, Gu Qiqi received a call from Qiu Qiu. He said that the International Medical Competition's organizing committee would hold a grand welcome cocktail party at night. The venue was at the presidential palace and he asked her if she was coming.

Gu Qiqi was worrying about not having a reason to slip out and agreed immediately.

In the evening, Qiu Qiu came to fetch her. Gong Jue swept a glance at this little fatty who didn't have any strength from afar and graciously allowed her to go.

Halfway through, Gu Qiqi suddenly ordered Qiu Qiu to make a turn. "Go to Dige!"

"Ah? Master, the cocktail party will start in half an hour. You're..."

"Cut the crap and listen to my instructions!"

"Oh, I understand!"

Dige.

When Gu Qiqi came out of the washroom, she was already dressed in a handsome man's outfit!

"Young Master Ye! Young Master Ye hasn't been here for a long time!"

"I wonder if Young Master Ye will take out ten thousand dollars generously to shock the entire venue?"

"I don't care. I just want to see his face. I can choose not to take Young Master Ye's money!"

"Tsk. You speak as if Young Master Ye will spend money for you. We've admired him for so long, but we've never heard of him having feelings for any woman before?"

"Why did I hear rumors that Master Jue is pursuing Young Master Ye..."

"That can't be! Are the two male idols in my heart going to give us women a way out?! I don't care! I'm going to confess to Young Master Ye tonight..."

A group of rich young ladies was facing Gu Qiqi's stunning beauty. Their hormones surged and they were just short of pouncing on her.

In a corner of the hall, Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue's eyes lit up as they stared intently at Gu Qiqi.

Gu Meifeng said, "This gigolo is that Young Master Ye you're talking about? The one who's very rich and has good medical skills?"

Gu Xuexue bit her lips shyly. “Mommy really doesn’t know how to appreciate him. Young Master Ye clearly has an outstanding temperament and a luxurious face. His every move brings with it a noble aura that keeps people away. His background is also very mysterious. I heard that only people with very strong family backgrounds can be like him and not reveal any information about themselves. Countless young ladies from rich families in the Imperial Capital want to marry him!”

She was a little engrossed just by looking at his back.

Thus, she understood the thoughts of those young girls who were in love.

Although she had already done that with Mu Liuchuan and was prepared to marry into the Mu family, it couldn’t stop her from fantasizing about abandoning Mu Liuchuan and marrying Young Master Ye...

Although Mu Liuchuan was also considered a young talent, when compared to Young Master Ye, they were really worlds apart.

Gu Meifeng was an experienced person after all. She snorted coldly. “Hmph! I wonder if he’s a moron!”

Gu Xuexue shook her head. “Mommy, I saw him take out tens of millions to hundreds of millions of dollars just to gamble with my own eyes. Also, I heard that Yang Iron Fist’s cancer was originally going to kill him. In the end, Young Master Ye was the one who casually treated it when he was passing by.”

Gu Meifeng squinted. “If he really has some ability, we must persuade him to cooperate with our Song clan’s pharmaceutical factory tonight to participate in the World Medical Competition and win a big award. Then, our Shen clan will be saved!”

Gu Xuexue nodded fiercely. “Yes, yes. Mommy, this Young Master Ye loves jade as much as his life. Let’s steal that piece of black jade from Grandpa’s family and give it to him today. He will definitely be happy with us. Even if he doesn’t like it, I... I have another way...”

Gu Xuexue lowered her head shyly and thought to herself, I can still use my charms!

After knocking Young Master Ye out and dragging him into the guest room upstairs... After the matter was done, she would sprinkle a few drops of chicken blood on the bed sheets and say that this was her precious first time. Would she still be afraid that Young Master Ye wouldn’t dote on her and listen to her?

Gu Xuexue was determined. She looked at Gu Qiqi’s back as if she was looking at a prey!

Chapter 947: All Men Like That Flesh

Gu Qiqi still didn’t know that once she entered Dige, she was targeted by Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue.

She was in a hurry to buy a Seven Leaf Flower in the black market.

Thus, she didn’t go to the VIP room where she often went to gamble. Instead, she directly found Manager Dige in the hall on the first floor and instructed him to release a piece of news on the black market, telling everyone that she would give a good reward to anyone who helped her to buy a Seven Leaf Flower.

She didn’t care about the cost!

As long as it was available, she would buy it!

Manager Dige was also convinced by this little tycoon. He agreed to find it for her immediately. “Young Master Ye, then wait for my news. Why don’t you buy some stones along the way?”

Gu Qiqi casually glanced at the untrimmed quarry stones in the hall.

Oh, she hadn’t been here for a while. Why did Dige’s quality of stones drop so much?

At a glance, there weren’t many valuable untrimmed quarry stones. They were either black or brick material. What was there to buy?

Gu Qiqi took a glass of champagne and said lightly, “I’m not interested in stones tonight. It’s fine as long as I can admire a beauty. Hurry up and do what I’ve instructed you to do.”

Beside her, the group of rich young ladies who had been coveting Gu Qiqi’s looks nearly knelt down after hearing Gu Qiqi’s satisfying answer...

“Ah, ah, ah! Young Master Ye said that he came to see me tonight!”

“Pfft, he was clearly looking at me! He clearly smiled at me and clinked glasses with me in the air!”

“Get lost. Young Master Ye likes my type, okay? Your two flat-chested women don’t have any good qualities at all. It’s uncomfortable to touch!”

“You, you, don’t you just have a little more meat? Young Master Ye isn’t such a superficial person!”

“Heh heh, men are all superficial. There’s no man who doesn’t like that bit of meat!”

Just as everyone was arguing, Gu Xuexue and Gu Meifeng had already secretly approached Gu Qiqi with wine glasses in their hands!

The two of them had always been action-oriented!

Instead of drooling over Young Master Ye there, it was better to be shameless and go straight for him.

Gu Meifeng arranged her hair. Dressed with the charm of a middle-aged woman, she swayed her waist and slowly walked to Gu Qiqi. “Young Master Ye, how have you been?”

Gu Qiqi was sipping her champagne. From time to time, her gaze would land on the girls opposite her. Unexpectedly, Gu Meifeng’s annoying voice sounded out and she nearly spat out the alcohol!

Hey, hey, hey. Gu Meifeng, you’re already so old. Why are you pretending to be a delicate young married woman?

How have you been?

I just insulted you at Grandpa’s birthday banquet a few days ago, right?

She looked up and was about to mock her when she saw that Gu Meifeng’s face was amiable. Behind her was Gu Xuexue, who looked even more charming. She replied shyly as if she was looking at her sweetheart...

Gu Qiqi immediately reacted.

Damn it. She had forgotten that she was dressed as a man now.

These two scumbags were actually charmed by her male outfit? Although this proved that her disguise was really successful, why did she feel disgusted just thinking about it?

If those rich young ladies were considered her fans, then these two people in front of her were anti-fans, right?

Gu Qiqi's expression was slightly cold. Her entire body exuded coldness that kept people away. "I'm sorry, but I don't know you. Please don't disturb me."

Gu Meifeng's face turned ugly when she heard the ridicule behind her.

But she had a favor to ask of this Young Master Ye.

If this Young Master Ye was really as the rumors said, had the ability to earn money, and had stunning medical expertise, then as long as she convinced him to cooperate, a lot of money would fall from the sky.

Who would go against money?

Chapter 948: Gu Xuexue Seduces Young Master Ye

Thinking about this, Gu Meifeng's skin immediately thickened and she became braver. She smiled and revealed her wrinkles. "Young Master Ye is really a noble person who forgets things. Director Shen Ping from the Empire Medical University is my biological older brother. He often mentioned that Young Master Ye's medical expertise is peerless and that he's an outstanding talent in the medical world. I was also present at the previous famous medical gathering..."

Gu Meifeng was purely talking nonsense.

She had only heard from Gu Xuexue that Young Master Ye's medical expertise was good. Thus, she naturally thought that Young Master Ye must have attended a gathering organized by Shen Ping before.

Anyway, she had seen many of such noble people. She only needed to come into contact with them a little...

She initially thought that by mentioning the famous Director Shen Ping, she would be able to gain Young Master Ye's favor. But who knew that...

The other party only listened coldly and said expressionlessly, "Who is Shen Ping? I don't know him!"

Gu Meifeng was speechless.

In the Empire, Shen Ping was a famous medical professor after all. Before anything happened to the Shen family, they also owned a very famous pharmaceutical company that made a lot of money, okay?

This Young Master Ye actually said that he didn't know Director Shen Ping. Wasn't he too arrogant?

Gu Qiqi glanced at Gu Meifeng coolly and curved her thin lips. "If there's nothing else, don't get in my way!"

That gaze and that tone were as disdainful as they could be!

Gu Meifeng choked again.

Gu Qiqi was clearly bullying Gu Meifeng and looking down on her!

Gu Meifeng really couldn't take it anymore. Gritting her teeth, she was about to lose all her face.

She was about to turn around and leave.

Gu Xuexue pulled her back and whispered, "Mommy, you can't give up halfway. Let me try..."

Gu Meifeng knew that her daughter didn't have other abilities, but she still had some ability to act coquettishly towards men.

Otherwise, Mu Liuchuan wouldn't have been coaxed by her daughter and wouldn't propose marriage.

She thought for a while. Among the few projects that she had invested in with all her assets, Gu Qiushan's villa had now been burned down by a fire. The land had also been retrieved by Qing Cheng. Not a single brick was left. Qing Yuxuan had already gone completely bankrupt and couldn't get back a single cent. The Shen family was in danger. If they couldn't revive from the dead, the money that they had invested would instantly turn into foam.

If she couldn't save the Shen family, she would really become poor!

Just thinking about the feeling of poverty made her feel afraid.

Since she was already at her wits' end, she should let Gu Xuexue try again to see if Gu Xuexue could conquer Young Master Ye.

Thus, Gu Meifeng forced herself to be positive and thickened her skin. "Young Master Ye, this is my daughter, our Gu family's eldest daughter, Gu Xuexue..."

Gu Qiqi was disgusted by this introduction.

Gu Meifeng was really thinking about Gu Xuexue's identity of being the Gu family's eldest daughter all the time!

Since that was the case... Gu Qiqi would disgust her too.

Gu Qiqi pretended not to understand. "Oh? Your surname is Gu. Your daughter's surname is also Gu. Is she the eldest daughter of the Gu family? Could it be that you and your older brother gave birth to your daughter? You guys don't allow your family's benefits to be shared with outsiders, so you're staying in the Gu family as a daughter as well?"

Gu Qiqi emphasized the words "as a daughter".

Upon hearing this, Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue's faces turned pale.

The people behind them were even discussing among themselves. Oh, wasn't this the meaning of 'incest'? A child who had been involved with her own older brother also had the cheek to call herself the Eldest Young Lady? Could it be that the Gu family had gone crazy?

Young Master Ye was really ruthless to expose the truth in public!

They didn't know if this Young Master was usually so vicious with his words or if he didn't like them?

Of course, Gu Xuexue wasn't willing to give up just because of one sentence of humiliation.

She was indeed the most thick-skinned person in the world. Even after being scolded as a child of incest, she still smiled and curried favor with Gu Qiqi.

Chapter 949: Give It to the Man I Like

"Young Master Ye, you sure know how to joke. Actually, the truth is that my mother was too kind. She met a poor person and her fate was unlucky. That's why she brought me back to the Gu family."

Gu Xuexue smiled and was a little sad. In a few words, she described the situation as if she was aggrieved and wanted herself and Gu Meifeng to be pitied.

Gu Meifeng was kind?

Gu Meifeng's fate was unlucky and pitiful?

Gu Qiqi nearly laughed out loud.

Back then, you two scumbags clearly coaxed Gu Qiushan in Qing Cheng. They came and went as they pleased and squandered his money extravagantly. They even rode on Xiaobei and Gu Qiqi to lord over us. Don't live too comfortably!

What unlucky fate?! What injustice?!

With a trace of sarcasm, she looked at Gu Xuexue lightly to see what else she could say.

Indeed.

Gu Xuexue changed the topic and suddenly said, "Fortunately, my grandfather dotes on me a lot and has always treated me as the eldest daughter of the Gu family. Recently, he even gave me a family heirloom and said that..."

A trace of a child's shyness suddenly surfaced on Gu Xuexue's face. Her eyes were filled with hopefulness as she secretly stole a glance at "Young Master Ye" and said gently, "Grandpa said that this family heirloom can be treated as a love token to be given to a man I like. Young Master Ye, after meeting you today, I feel that I'm especially fated with you. If you don't mind, this treasure can be given to you as a greeting gift!"

Seeing that Gu Qiqi didn't comment, she added hurriedly, "Young Master Ye, you mustn't feel burdened. I just think that we're fated. I don't have the intention to make you take responsibility for me. You can do whatever you want!"

Gu Qiqi nearly vomited!

Gosh, there was probably no woman in this world who was more shameless than Gu Xuexue, right?

She had already seduced a man to this extent and was only short of peeling off her clothes to seek humiliation. She was even using a piece of cloth to cover her embarrassment and saying something about not wanting him to be responsible. Wasn't she disgusting?

It turned out that Gu Xuexue used this face to seduce men!

Gu Qiqi remembered Mu Liuchuan, who had been seduced by Gu Xuexue. She couldn't help but laugh bitterly in her heart.

Indeed, men were blind. They could actually enjoy such a disgusting move.

For this kind of woman, he had pushed himself into a pit of fire in his previous life!

Behind them, a group of rich ladies muttered indignantly,

"What? Isn't she just the Gu family's recognized daughter? Her surname isn't really Gu. On what basis can she seduce our Young Master Ye?"

"That's right. She even said that it was a family heirloom. Why don't I believe it? Is Old Master Gu stupid? If he didn't give the real eldest daughters, Gu Qiqi and Gu Yuanyuan, a family heirloom, would he give it to a fake daughter?"

"That's enough. She actually used jade stones to curry favor with our Young Master Ye. Does she think that our Young Master Ye hasn't seen good jade stones before? Hmph! When I return home, I'll bring a pile over to kill her instantly!"

"She even said that she doesn't want Young Master Ye to be responsible. Pfft, our Young Master Ye can't even be bothered with her!"

Everyone despised Gu Xuexue's shamelessness and were indignant.

Gu Xuexue was thick-skinned. As if she didn't hear them, she carefully took out an exquisite antique box from her handbag.

Once it was opened, the smell of ink filled the air!

In the middle of the box was a beautiful jade the size of an egg. Its shape was nothing special. It was very simple and round.

However, the color was very unique!

Black.

Black and dark!

This was a real precious black jade.

Gu Qiqi's pupils shrank!

She knew best how much Old Master Gu cared about this piece of black jade.

Chapter 950: I'll Pity You and Help You

In her previous life, this piece of jade disappeared without a trace. The Old Master even fell ill because of this.

Back then, Old Madam and Gu Meifeng insisted that she had stolen it. They even searched her body in public for it, causing her to nearly cry in public.

In the end, Old Master said that this matter should end there and not be investigated anymore. That was why she didn't suffer greater humiliation.

But she could tell that the Old Master would be depressed in the future. Without this black jade, half of the Old Master's soul seemed to have been lost.

In the end, he fell ill.

Later on, when he made the will, he met her once and died in the study room.

On the other hand, Old Madam and Gu Meifeng said that she was the one who caused her grandfather's death... They wanted her to carry the crime of causing her grandfather's death and operate on the Gu family for the rest of her life to atone for her sins...

Remembering the series of misfortunes that this piece of black jade brought about in her previous life, Gu Qiqi's heart pained like there was a knife in it.

It turned out that this black jade was stolen by Gu Meifeng and the rest in her previous life!

It would happen again in this lifetime!

Gu Qiqi stared at this piece of jade with a complicated expression.

Anyway, she definitely wouldn't believe that her grandfather could personally give the jade to this pair of prodigal descendants.

They must have stolen it!

These two shameless b*tches!

In Gu Xuexue's eyes, Gu Qiqi's focused gaze made her think that he was interested in this jade.

She couldn't help but feel a little pleased and said coquettishly, "Young Master Ye is a person who knows jade. This beautiful jade suits Young Master perfectly. I don't have any other intentions. I just feel that you and this jade are fated. Young Master, please don't mind and accept it..."

She still wanted to say, "Take the jade. Let's be friends."

"I accept it!" Gu Qiqi interrupted her coldly. Suddenly, she spat out three words without the slightest hesitation.

He snatched over the box with the black jade.

Gu Xuexue was stunned. Then, she was overjoyed and secretly threw Gu Meifeng a look. Mommy, look! I succeeded! Young Master Ye really likes this!

If he accepted my jade, he would acknowledge me as a friend. In the future, wouldn't it be easier to talk to him when I need to beg him to do something...

Gu Qiqi put the jade into her bag.

It would be a waste not to accept it.

Grandpa's family heirloom was so expensive. Previously, those two women had already sinisterly smashed an antique vase and made Grandpa sad for a while. Now, they had stolen Grandpa's jade. They were trying to push Grandpa to his death and make him fall into despair.

She definitely couldn't sit idly.

Seeing Gu Qiqi accept the gift, Gu Xuexue's expression relaxed a lot and she said with a smile, "Young Master Ye, we're all friends. Then, there's no need to beat around the bush about some things. Actually, Mommy and I have an invitation that we want you to consider..."

Gu Xuexue started to persuade her.

Who would have thought?

Gu Qiqi interrupted her. "Who's your friend?"

Gu Xuexue was stunned. "This... If you don't despise my jade, doesn't that mean that you treat me as a friend?"

"I didn't say such a thing! It's just a lousy jade and you want to build a relationship with me? I took your jade because I pity you and want to give you some face. Did you take it the wrong way?" Gu Qiqi said coldly.

There was no warmth in her tone.

Gu Meifeng and Gu Xuexue nearly vomited blood on the spot!

Young Master Ye actually said that such a valuable jade was lousy jade.

She actually said that accepting the jade was giving them charity and pity!

Gu Meifeng really wanted to snatch the jade back.

It was fine if she didn't succeed today. If she sold the jade to the pawn shop, she should be able to get back at most tens of millions of dollars to play with. It was better than tolerating this man.
