

Dear Chief 96

Chapter 96: Stealing a Photo For Gong Jue

This deadly little demon...

Bai Lang coughed lightly. "You've led my niece astray and made her come to the bar to fool around. Of course, I have to take care of it!"

"Oh? I thought that the bar was just a place for gatherings. But I didn't know that Uncle Bai Lang came to the bar to fool around?"

Gu Qiqi emphasized the words "uncle" and "fooling around".

This meaningful expression made Bai Lang want to fly into a rage.

How depressing!

Why was it that every time they bickered, they couldn't beat this little demoness?

He wouldn't be able to win against her even if he tried to play tricks on her.

Gong Jue even ignored her when she snitched on him.

Were young ladies these days so capable?

How depressing!

Xiao Ning gently pulled on Gu Qiqi's lapel. "Qiqi, that's not what Uncle Bai Lang meant..."

Gu Qiqi glared at her in anger.

She was actually speaking up for this scum?!

Did Bai Lang brainwash you?

Sighing, she decided to protect her best friend's face and explained to Bai Lang, "I drank all the alcohol. It has nothing to do with Xiao Ning. Don't always be so full of yourself."

"You... drank it alone?" Bai Lang looked at the six empty Hennessy bottles on the stage and was simply dumbfounded.

Damn it. This little demon was more capable of stirring up trouble than he had imagined?

Did Gong Jue know that his woman would do such a thing?

Bai Lang raised one of his hands slightly and swiftly took a photo with his phone. It was a spectacular scene of Gu Qiqi standing in front of a long row of empty bottles.

After taking the photo, he secretly sent it out to Gong Jue. A cunning smile immediately appeared on his face. "In that case, I'll bring Xiao Ning back first."

"Uncle Bai Lang, let me play with my classmates again. Please!"

Little Master Xiao Ning, who was usually valiant, pouted and was about to cry.

It wasn't easy for her to meet Qiqi, so she still had a lot to say in her heart.

Bai Lang frowned. "Then come out with me first and call home."

He couldn't make the decision.

"Uncle Bai Lang..."

Pleading was useless.

Xiao Ning could only turn back and say to Gu Qiqi, "Qiqi, wait for me. I'll talk to Uncle Bai Lang for a while."

"Yes."

Gu Qiqi replied lightly.

But the doubts in her heart grew deeper.

Which family's uncle was so strict?

She even had to seek his approval before she could play with her classmates?

Was he really her biological uncle?

Also, that tone in the call just now was treating Xiao Ning like her own possession. It was very domineering and very cold.

Remembering that strange call, Gu Qiqi felt that something was wrong.

Bai Lang's lackadaisical behavior seemed to be slightly different from the domineering and forceful behavior on the phone.

While Gu Qiqi was deep in thought, Little Master Xiao Ning had already followed Bai Lang out like a timid little wife.

The private room finally became crowded once more.

"Damn! Was that Xiao Ning's uncle just now? What a handsome Young Master Bai!"

"He's the young master of the Bai family? That's a noble family in the Imperial Capital! Half of the medicine houses in the country belong to his Bai family! What an old cow! Xiao Ning was usually a female hooligan, but she didn't expect her background to be so formidable..."

"I remember now! Xiao Ning's mother's surname is Bai! That's right!"

"Tsk. Since Little Master Xiao Ning has such an awesome background and is so rich, let's let her foot the bill tonight!" Gu Xuexue seized the opportunity to deliberately instigate.

"Sure! Agreed!" Everyone chimed in.

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned cold.

These classmates even had the cheek to say that?

Xiao Ning wasn't around, so how could they cheat her like this?

Who made the rule that they had to treat them to a meal and a drink just because the other party was rich?

Shameless!

She picked up an empty wine bottle and knocked it on the table before she said coldly, "Gu Xuexue said just now that the loser has to foot the bill? Then, I'll have to trouble Young Master Yao to foot the bill first. If he gets drunk later and can't swipe his card, everyone will be unable to leave."

Once Gu Qiqi said this, everyone shut up and didn't dare to kick up a fuss.

Gu Xuexue was unconvinced. "Why are you so serious? That was just a joke. I already said that Xiao Ning has a rich uncle. Let her buy it then. We're classmates after all. It can't be that she can't even bear to treat us to a meal, right?"
