

Dear Chief 991

Chapter 991: A Man Giving Boxers to A Man!

Gu Qiqi took the opportunity to continue stroking the large dog's fur. "Moreover, you contributed to being first. If you didn't help me settle Gu Meifeng and her daughter, I wouldn't have been able to participate in the competition so smoothly, right? Perhaps people will start accusing me of raping Gu Xuexue..."

Gong Jue was speechless.

His wife was good-looking, and whatever she said was right!

In particular, his wife had even admitted that half of the credit went to him. Why did that sound so comforting?

Gu Qiqi struck while the iron was hot. "But if we get rid of Bai Lang now, there will definitely be a fluctuation in Bai Lang's team. I still have the finals to fight. When that happens, the entire team will be useless. No matter how powerful I am, I won't be able to hold on alone. I still need the cooperation of the team. Keeping Bai Lang around can help me organize the team. I can get him to do some publicity, send people back and forth, serve tea, and do other menial tasks..."

Gong Jue corrected himself. "Then I won't be sent away for the time being. I'll keep him for observation!"

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

Oh yeah, it was a success!

Gong Jue drove with one hand and pulled the silk boxers over with the other to admire them for a long time.

Suddenly, his lips curved up in an evil smile. "Help me put it on when we get home. I want to try on some clothes!"

Gu Qiqi asked, "How... how will you try it?"

Trying on clothes?

This... these clearly weren't clothes.

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows. "I want you to try it yourself."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Extreme joy turned to sorrow!

The moment they returned to the hospital, Gong Jue grabbed Gu Qiqi impatiently. He closed the door tightly and began to "try on clothes".

His clothes had already been torn off. He was just waiting for Gu Qiqi to personally help him try on the transparent silk boxers...

However, Gong Jue sadly discovered that Gu Qiqi was still wearing a male outfit! A male outfit!

Watching helplessly as a grown man put on a pair of boxers for him... Gong Jue swore that this was definitely an extremely sour and hopeless experience.

Damn it, I'm about to wither!

Before Gu Qiqi could raise the boxers to his knees, Gong Jue had already snatched them away. "I'll try them myself!"

Gu Qiqi was filled with emotion.

This man's outfit had actually saved her from disaster! She hadn't expected this either.

At night.

Gu Qiqi concocted the medicine and gave it to the little packrat.

Patiently, she continued to hold the little packrat in her arms. Just like his mother, she coaxed the unconscious boy to drink the bitter Seven-Leaf Flower in small mouthfuls.

The process of feeding the medicine took two hours.

After feeding it, she placed the little packrat back on the bed. Gu Qiqi's arm, which the little packrat had used as a pillow, was already so numb that she couldn't move it at all.

Gong Jue rubbed her arm with heartache. "I'll carry him the next time."

Gu Qiqi didn't care that her arm was hurting at all. Instead, she stared nervously at the little packrat's thin face and frowned. "Why isn't it working..."

Gong Jue's heart ached again...

Stupid woman, can you be more careful!

You care so much about the boy that you don't even care about your health!

He advised gently, "As you said, the medicinal effect takes time. This seven-leafed flower needs to be taken in three days. How can it be effective on the first day? Let's wait a little longer... Let's go back and rest first, okay?"

Gu Qiqi bit her lip, still unwilling to leave. "I'll guard him. If he wakes up in the middle of the night and doesn't see anyone, he'll be afraid."

Gong Jue was speechless.

You haven't slept a wink in days. Last night, you spent half the night digging for medicine, and today, you had a major surgery. Don't you dare stay up late again!

Gong Jue's expression darkened. Without hesitation, he carried Gu Qiqi out of the operating theater...

When he passed by the door, he looked at Gong Qing. "You've been sleeping for the entire day. It's your turn to guard your grandson! My wife needs to rest!"

Gong Qing was speechless.

Did I owe you guys in my previous life?!

Chapter 992: His Lordship Has A Mistress!

However, seeing that Gu Qiqi had spared no effort to get her hands on the Seven-Leaf Flower, Gong Qing couldn't say anything else. He obediently went in to accompany his grandson.

"My darling darling grandson, Grandpa is here to accompany you! I hope that when you wake up, the first thing you will see will be Grandpa..."

That night, Gong Jue couldn't bear to harass Gu Qiqi anymore.

Although he yearned to do something inappropriate with those transparent boxers, when he thought about how Gu Qiqi hadn't rested for a few days, he ultimately endured his restless heart...

A certain chief woke up early in the morning and went out to train because he was not satisfied!

On a cold day, Gong Jue led his subordinates to run twenty rounds in the training field!

Everyone was about to vomit blood from running. Gong Jue was still in high spirits. "Twenty more rounds!"

Special Assistant Lu, who had luckily escaped with his life and went to prepare breakfast for Gu Qiqi, shook his head and sighed when he saw everyone's miserable state.

When he brought Gu Qiqi her breakfast, he couldn't help but size her up.

Oh, looks like Young Lady Qiqi and the Chief had an unfortunate night. Otherwise, the Chief wouldn't have gotten up early in the morning to train.

It was obvious that he was filled with rage...

Could it be that the Chief had taken a liking to Young Master Ye, so he was no longer interested in Young Lady Qiqi?

The more Special Assistant Lu thought about it, the more shocked he became!

Compared to Young Master Ye, he was more inclined to believe that Chief was with Young Lady Qiqi. Young Lady Qiqi was beautiful and had good medical skills. She treated her brother very well.

Most importantly, Young Lady Qiqi was a woman!

He didn't want to call a man Madam in the future.

After some thought, Special Assistant Lu couldn't help but beat around the bush. "Miss Qiqi, have you realized that there's something wrong with Chief recently?"

Gu Qiqi picked up the toast and picked up a piece of vegetables. "Yes, he's crazy every day."

“But he seems to be spending less time with you recently.”

“Yes, I asked him to spend more time with the boy!”

Special Assistant Lu was about to die of anxiety. Why couldn't Young Lady Qiqi understand his hint?

This woman couldn't be too careless. She had to keep a close eye on the man.

Special Assistant Lu couldn't help but say more bluntly, “Did you know that the Chief went to watch the first group of the World Medical Tournament yesterday? You clearly weren't there, Young Lady Qiqi!”

“Oh, I know!” Gu Qiqi smiled heartlessly.

He was there to see me, even though he was looking at me in a male outfit!

Special Assistant Lu looked helpless and heartbroken. “But Young Lady Qiqi, you don't know. Chief...”

His lordship had a mistress!

These words were about to fly out of his mouth, but they were interrupted by Gong Jue, who had just pushed the door open. “Special Assistant Lu, are you too free? Do you want to accompany Bai Lang to Africa to dig coal and serve malaria patients?”

Special Assistant Lu shuddered. “Chief, I remember that Number One hasn't been refueled yet. I'll go refuel now!”

Gu Qiqi hurriedly pulled Gong Jue back. “Can you not scare Special Assistant Lu? How is the little packrat? Did you go to see him?”

Shivering, he retreated. Special Assistant Lu couldn't help but feel indignant for Gu Qiqi.

Sigh, Young Lady Qiqi was so gentle and virtuous. She was clearly a stepmother, but she cared more about the little packrat than a biological mother.

If such a Young Lady Qiqi was let down by Master Jue, the heavens would not tolerate it!

He passed by the entrance of the operating theater and bumped into Gong Qing.

Gong Qing asked him, “Is that vixen participating in the competition tomorrow?”

Chapter 993: Chu Junmo Dotes On Her To The Extreme

Special Assistant Lu was stunned for a moment before he realized who the vixen was referring to.

Only then did he nod. “Yes. Young Lady Qiqi is going out for a meeting with the team today. She will participate in the second group competition tomorrow morning.”

Gong Qing snorted. “What a restless woman! Her child is already ill, yet she's still running around! She's indeed a stepmother. Hmph!”

Special Assistant Lu held back his laughter. Suddenly, he couldn't help but say softly, “Master, I've been with you for decades. There's something I'm not sure I should say.”

Gong Qing replied. “Tell me!”

Special Assistant Lu said, "Just agree to let Chief be with Young Lady Qiqi. Otherwise..."

Gong Qing said, "Otherwise what?"

Special Assistant Lu said, "Otherwise, if Chief brings back an even more terrifying and unexpected... person, we'll all be doomed!"

Special Assistant Lu was afraid that he would be caught by Gong Jue again. He gave a vague hint and quickly slipped away to refuel the car.

Gong Qing was speechless.

What the hell? Had Special Assistant Lu gone senile? He couldn't even speak clearly.

Could that brat Gong Jue bring back someone worse than that vixen?

Unless he brought back a man. Hmph!

Although Young Master Ye had won the championship, Gu Qiqi didn't let her guard down.

After all, the ghost doctor hired by the Shen family was not determined to win. Moreover, his strength was indeed inferior to hers.

In addition, the Shen family had never been professional. It was normal for them to lose.

However, the group stages of Group Two were not as easy.

She would use her true self to fight against Country S's expert, Luseff!

Luseff was a chauvanist. He was born to look down on women. Moreover, S Nation was sinister by nature. No one knew what kind of schemes they would pull off.

She had to be doubly careful.

Hence, early in the morning, she gathered her team back at school for a meeting.

Her team was sponsored by Chu Junmo. Therefore, other than Qiu Qiu, Bei Mingtian, and Xiao Lan, there were also some pharmacists from the Chu clan participating.

Gu Qiqi was surprised to learn that Chu Junmo had not been around for the past two days!

"Why would Brother Chu miss such an important competition?" She was a little puzzled.

Brother Chu clearly valued this competition greatly, and it was precisely because he valued it that he invited her to work with him.

But now, with the competition imminent, he had actually left?

The person from the Chu clan said very apologetically, "There's a problem with the business overseas. The day before yesterday, the president rushed over overnight. As the medicinal factory is deep in the mountains, the signal isn't good, and we can't contact him. However, before he left, the president said that when he wasn't around, he asked us to listen to you. Young Lady Qiqi, feel free to instruct us. We'll carry out your orders as if they were the president's! Also, if you need any funds or medicinal herbs, the entire Chu clan will do as you please!"

As soon as he said this, Qiu Qiu and the others were secretly speechless.

President Chu had actually given Qiqi so much power!

Would the entire Chu clan listen to Qiqi's instructions?

Then, if Gu Qiqi had any ill intentions—and of course, they believed that Qiqi wouldn't—what if something happened? If anything happened, wouldn't the Chu family suffer greatly?

However, Chu Junmo still gave such an outrageous order.

What did this mean?

This meant that in Chu Junmo's heart, Qiqi was someone he could trust and entrust to.

He doted on her to the extreme!!!

When Gu Qiqi heard Chu Junmo's words, warmth flashed through her heart.

Brother Chu?!

For some reason, he gave her the feeling that he was her family! He was so considerate!

He was always so gentle and unhurried. Even when he had to leave in a hurry, he was already fully prepared for her. What reason did she have not to compete well?

Even if it wasn't to defeat Luseff, she had to work hard just to let Brother Chu's company hold its head high and take first place internationally!

Chapter 994: Unexpected Change

Gu Qiqi led her team in a meeting for the entire day. She carefully studied the surgery project for the next day's competition and chose a relatively special surgery—Orthopedic Surgery.

Coincidentally, the Chu Pharmacy had recently received a new patient. It was a patient with a car accident and a fracture.

This was because the hospital had said that it could not be treated. Even if the bones were reattached, they would still be necrotic. They had requested for the family members to sign off on the amputation.

But his family couldn't bear to see his legs break at the age of 30.

He was the only capable worker in the entire family. His wife had just given birth to her second child and was still in confinement. His old mother had been paralyzed for many years.

If his legs were to be amputated, the entire family would have no source of income.

Their future would be filled with darkness.

The man's surname was Wang, and he was a delivery boy. He was called Fast Wang by the people in the neighborhood because of his good service.

If she couldn't save his leg, he would probably be known as Cripple Wang for the rest of his life.

Gu Qiqi had chosen this case after careful consideration.

In the World Medical Tournament, contestants from all over the world would rack their brains to find the most difficult and bizarre case to perform surgery on to highlight their godly skills.

For example, the ghost doctor hired by the Shen family to perform plastic surgery on such an ugly woman.

Including the lung cancer surgery she had chosen yesterday as Young Master Ye.

It could be said that people would do anything to attract attention!

This way, when the audience votes, there would be a high chance that the votes would be high!

This time, Gu Qiqi decided to do the opposite.

Strange surgeries were too far from human life.

Orthopedic surgery was very close to one's daily life. It was more down-to-earth.

To be honest, anyone could get injured after bumping into something.

Although bone reconnection surgery for a patient like him was difficult, the medicine to promote bone healing could be widely promoted. Moreover, she believed that the sales would be very good.

This would be very helpful to Chu Junmo's future pharmaceutical empire.

The people in the team also unanimously supported her decision. Everyone felt that as long as the surgery could be successfully completed, their case would definitely move the judges and ordinary people. It would be a low-key kind of stunning.

She never expected that...

The next day.

When they really arrived at the venue, something unexpected happened!

The venue was still the Empire's VIP laboratory!

The competition process was still the same as the first group.

However, most of the contestants from different countries were unfamiliar faces.

When the host announced the start of the competition.

Gu Qiqi and the others were already making preoperative preparations in the operating theater. They looked up and saw one of the nine squares on the large digital screen.

Everyone was stunned.

Qiu Qiu was the first to stamp his foot in anger. "F*ck, they plagiarized us! They plagiarized a dog! I hate plagiarized dogs the most in my life!"

Xiaolan's eyes were also filled with tears. "How can this be? How can they steal our thoughts?"

Bei Mingtian pondered for a moment. "Did someone leak the news? Is there a traitor among us?"

The people of the Chu clan immediately swore. "We are absolutely loyal to the president and Young Lady Qiqi. If we leak any information about yesterday's meeting, we will be struck by lightning and die a horrible death!"

Everyone's reaction was completely in line with their personalities.

Gu Qiqi stared at the screen for a few seconds and said slowly, "Don't swear a vicious oath. I believe you."

"But! Master, if we didn't have a spy, how would that hook-nosed man from S Nation know the contents of our surgery? He even plagiarized the exact same procedure!"

Qiu Qiu was furious.

Chapter 995: Fake Angel

How could she not be angry?

On the screen, in the operating room of Country S.

Luseff was feeling smug. He asked his assistant to put on disinfectant gloves for him.

In front of him, a young man in his thirties on laid on a flat operating table.

The coat and hat on the bed showed that he was a courier.

His legs had lost a lot of blood that was still fresh. It was as if he had just been knocked down not long ago. Before the anesthesia had even taken effect, he was already unconscious.

On the big screen, there was a line of words: "Luseff's Team: Osteosynthesis!"

This was almost identical to the content on Gu Qiqi's big screen. "Gu Qiqi's team: Osteosynthesis!"

In more than 50 countries, none of the medical skills displayed were repetitive. All of them had their own characteristics.

Only Luseff's had coincided with their surgery!

Wasn't this too much of a coincidence!

However, Luseff even curved his lips in disdain and gave the team an order through the microphone. "We are the best in the field of bone reconnection! Whoever wants to collide with us will only admit that they are unlucky!"

Damn!

How arrogant!

Qiu Qiu said indignantly, “Your S Nation is the one who f*cking barged in alone! What right do you have to say that we collided with you! We were clearly the ones who suggested it first! When we confirmed with the organizing committee yesterday, no one had even registered for bone reconnection!”

Xiaolan bit her lip. “They’re clearly the ones who are freeloading off our surgery project, but they’re saying that they’re the best in the world. They’re really too shameless! The Chinese medicine used for bone reconnection is all produced by the empire, okay? S Nation doesn’t even produce those medicinal herbs. How can they have the cheek to say that they’re the best in the world?!”

Bei Mingtian pondered for a moment. “Then it’s not our own people who leaked the information. Perhaps they bribed someone in the organizing committee. They did it on purpose, choosing the same topic as us on purpose. They wanted to humiliate us with this!”

The members of the Chu clan’s team were a little nervous. “Miss Qiqi, isn’t this Luseff very powerful? Usually, only powerful people can be so arrogant. Could it be that they’re certain that their bone reconnection technique will be better than ours?”

Gu Qiqi fell silent.

She didn’t know if the other party was better than them.

However, Bei Mingtian was right. Luseff had definitely done it on purpose!

He was deliberately trying to humiliate them!

By using the same surgery to PK with them on this world-class arena!

Let’s see whose bone reconnecting technique was the most beautiful! The most perfect! The most successful!

Also... the fastest!

This was truly the style of people from S Nation. They were competitive, aggressive, and extremely shameless!

She had heard of shameless people plagiarizing other people’s articles, their exam results, their paintings, their jewelry designs, and even their lives. But she had never heard of anyone plagiarizing surgery projects!

The little dirty turtle had already arrived at Luseff’s operating theater. After taking a stroll, it returned and reported into Gu Qiqi’s ear, “Master Silver, the people from S Nation are too cruel. I only found out after I went there. How can there be such a coincidence in this world? Do you know how that patient under Luseff came about?”

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes. “How did you get here?”

She already had a vague answer in her heart.

The little dirty turtle was speechless. “They actually heard that we were going to perform a bone grafting technique. Under the instructions of Mr. Luseff, they found a little hooligan early this morning and instructed him to drive a big truck to hit a delivery man who had just left the house to deliver a package. They especially hit his legs!! Now, the little hooligan who was driving has already left after receiving the money. The delivery man is still unconscious and can only be at the mercy of others. They actually have the cheek to announce to the public that Mr. Luseff is a kind person and will perform the bone grafting technique for free! He's a great philanthropist, an angel in white? Pft, I think he's a shameless black-hearted demon!"

Chapter 996: Questioned by the Patient's Family!

Indeed!

Gu Qiqi had long expected that things wouldn't be so coincidental and simple!

It was indeed premeditated!

Her eyes turned cold. "We invited them to the competition, but their consciences were eaten by dogs!"

The little dirty turtle gritted its teeth. "That's right! If I hadn't been in the preparation room of the operating theater and heard the whispers of Luseff's assistants, I wouldn't have thought that they would do something so despicable. Poor little delivery boy..."

Gu Qiqi's voice turned cold as she instructed everyone, "Cheer up! Don't be affected by the other party. The best deal with plagiarism is to make our surgery ten thousand times more beautiful than his! Perfect! More Successful! Moreover... it'll be completed faster!"

Gu Qiqi's words were like a tranquilizer and a stimulant, instantly calming down the angry crowd.

Their fighting spirit was reignited!

That's right. What was there to be afraid of? They could copy our surgery topic, but not our technology!

Even if they forcefully arranged a patient who looked exactly the same as them, it would still be impossible for them to perform the same amazing bone reconnection technique!

Everyone gave each other a high five to encourage each other!

They began disinfecting and preparing for surgery!

The wife of the delivery man, Wang Kuaidao, was also wearing a sterile gown. She was watching from indoors.

As she watched, she realized that the operation of Gu Qiqi's team was a little different from the foreigners on the screen who were also performing bone reconnection surgery.

"Doctor Gu, I think that foreigner gave the patient an injection..."

"Doctor Gu, I think that foreigner is applying something to the bone..."

"Doctor Gu, I think that foreigner is trying to fix the small bones first before dealing with the large ones..."

Fast Wang's wife was not a bad person. She was still in confinement and had yet to recover, but she still wanted to come and watch her husband's surgery.

But she was just too nervous.

Moreover, there were some inherent notions of favoring foreigners over locals.

She had a nagging feeling that the technology of foreigners was a little more advanced than that of local doctors in the empire.

Moreover, before she arrived, someone had told her that the best doctors in the world were all male doctors. How could a woman be better at surgery than a man?

She had been brainwashed. She felt that Gu Qiqi might not be as good as Luseff.

She only had one husband. If Gu Qiqi made a mistake during the surgery, her entire family would be ruined...

She couldn't help but nag. Qiu Qiu was getting annoyed. "Hey, do you believe that foreigner? Go look for him! Not everyone is lucky enough to get my master to operate on him!"

The woman blushed. She stumbled. "I... I didn't mean that... I... I believe you... I'm uneducated and poor. I know you're taking pity on us by being willing to operate on my husband. I... I just..."

"You're just too worried about him. I understand." Gu Qiqi was picking out a bone.

That slender and well-hidden bone had blocked Fast Wang's nerves.

Ordinary B-scans couldn't detect it, so most hospitals diagnosed that his nerves were dead, his bones would also die very quickly, and his leg could only be amputated.

But in reality, by finding this bone fragment, the surgery was already half successful.

After that, she would focus on repairing his nerves, then carefully reattach his bones.

In a soft voice, she explained her steps to the woman.

"Look, I'll apply the special elderberry wood solution we've prepared on this bone. It'll speed up its healing process. Then, I'll leave a gap between the two bones so that they have room to grow and recover their periosteum. This way, when they recover in the future, they won't affect his normal life. You can do whatever you want without worrying about breaking any more bones..."

Chapter 997: The Real Angel in White

Gu Qiqi spoke to the woman patiently.

As the woman listened, she unknowingly stopped looking at the foreigner's surgery on the screen.

Moreover, she was especially focused, paying attention to Gu Qiqi's movements without blinking.

She had never known that such a complicated surgery could be explained in such simple words.

How could an uncultured low-class woman like her understand?

Elderberry wood...

The periosteum...

Grow back...

One by one, unfamiliar terms were explained by Gu Qiqi in an approachable manner. They no longer sounded like cold medical terms, but words that everyone could understand.

The woman was gradually touched. She had seen many doctors since she was young, including her husband, who had been to several hospitals after his accident.

However, every time they visited the doctor, the doctor seemed to be so busy as if he was trying to save the universe. In less than a minute, he sent them out.

It was always three sentences.

“What name?”

“Where are you feeling unwell?”

“Go pay for the medicine!”

Sometimes, she wanted to ask more questions like, “Doctor, is my illness serious?”, “What caused it?”, “What should I pay attention to?”, and “Is there any other way to cure it?”

However, before she could finish her sentence, she would be interrupted impatiently. “You won’t understand even if I tell you! There are still many people queuing up behind you. I don’t have the time to explain it to you. If you don’t believe me, I’ll find someone else to take a look! If you think that doctors in public hospitals don’t have enough time to treat patients, go hire a private family doctor if you have the money!”

Every time, she would be mercilessly silenced.

However, at this moment, this young Doctor Gu was so gentle and understanding.

In the face of her doubts, she didn’t get angry or mock her.

Instead, she patiently and calmly explained the key points of the surgery to her in a soft voice, comforting and encouraging her.

She had never seen such a gentle and kind doctor in her life!

Only at this moment did she understand that the words “angel in white” existed.

So there really were good doctors in the world! There were angels in white!

She silently made up her mind. If her husband were to recover from his illness and be discharged from the hospital, she would be a vegetarian for the rest of her life. She would pray for this good doctor, and would promote Doctor Gu’s magical medical skills and touching medical ethics wherever she went. She would no longer criticize the doctors in the hospital for being snobbish...

At the critical moment of the surgery, Gu Qiqi made a gesture, signaling Fast Wang’s wife to stop talking. She was going to start concentrating on the final bone reconnection!

“Crack!” A crisp sound rang out.

Gu Qiqi let go of her hands. "Alright, everyone, do some finishing touches. Apply the elderberry wood solution every minute until the patient wakes up from the anesthesia."

After giving instructions, Gu Qiqi walked up to Fast Wang's wife and said lightly, "Don't worry, I'll give you a complete husband. Just wait for the child's father to help you take care of the two babies!"

The woman instantly burst into tears. "Thank you, Doctor Gu. I know you've tried your best! Thank you! No matter what the outcome is, I'll be grateful to you for the rest of my life!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Oh, she hated it when girls cried.

Why did they want a hug and comfort?!

Fortunately, Xiaolan came to the rescue in time.

She took the sobbing patient's family member from her and pulled her aside to comfort her. "Your husband's surgery was very successful. Once the anesthesia wears off, he'll wake up. If he's lucky, he'll be able to move his feet gently on the spot... Don't cry... I've already said that our Doctor Gu is very powerful... Women aren't inferior to men..."

On the screen, Luseff's team had also finished their surgery.

Chapter 998: When Have We Been Afraid of Fighting?

When Luseff realized that Gu Qiqi and the others had completed it one minute faster than him, he was instantly enraged.

"Bam—!" Tossing off her disinfectant gloves, he cursed using classic S Nation slang.

That little girl was actually faster than him. This was definitely impossible!

When the organizing committee asked every participating team to summarize their surgery, he was also furious. He didn't even bother looking at them.

In the end, it was the assistant who reminded him, "Master, we can't lose in terms of aura! The results of the anesthesia for the surgery haven't come out yet, so it won't be the end. Perhaps they made a mistake in the anesthesia and he won't wake up..."

A glint flashed in Luseff's eyes. He gave a sinister smile, his sharp aquiline nose exceptionally evil. "Well said! I'll make sure he won't wake up..."

He snatched the microphone and spoke loudly to the audience, his voice filled with arrogance.

"Everyone, you've seen it for yourself! S Country is a major medical country. A small bone reconnection technique is nothing to us. The patient's legs are perfectly joined together. After being anesthetized, he will be able to walk on his own! This is because he has used the secret Dragon Bone Replenishment Ointment, which is passed down in S Country! I might as well announce here that for any pharmaceutical company that intends to work with S Country, I will give the exclusive rights to sell the Dragon Bone Replenishment Ointment! Of course, we must ask for a satisfactory price for the authorization fee! Those small companies that can only afford to pay tens of millions, don't come looking for us! If you do, you'll just be inviting ridicule!"

As soon as Luseff's words fell, the crowd burst into an uproar.

The Dragon Bone Replenishing Ointment was indeed rumored to be very magical.

However, the authorization fee of tens of millions was nothing to him? Wasn't this already too expensive?

The sale of medicine has always been very profitable. Yet, they still had to charge such an expensive licensing fee. The people of S Nation were truly profiteers!

Where was the slightest bit of a doctor's spirit?

In particular, everyone recalled that during the first round of the competition yesterday, Young Master Ye had announced to the public that his precious cure for lung cancer was completely free!

Compared to how calculative and greedy Luseff was today, the difference was like heaven and earth.

Everyone couldn't help but scoff.

Luseff didn't care what the audience thought. He looked at the judges again. "Dear judges, I'm sure everyone has seen the entire process of my surgery clearly. Every step was meticulously calculated, without a single mistake. I would like to remind everyone to take a look at Doctor Gu's team's surgery later..."

Qiu Qiu shuddered. "Master, that damn hook-nosed man took the initiative to start a fight!"

Gu Qiqi said calmly, "There are many people who want to fight with us. Have we ever been afraid?"

Qiu Qiu patted his chest. "That's right. When have we ever been afraid?"

However, he became worried. "Master, when I handed you the scalpel just now, my hand trembled. Don't tell me he won't let go and say that I'm not skilled enough?"

Gu Qiqi comforted him calmly. "No."

Qiu Qiu was still a little worried. He pricked up his ears to listen carefully to hear what the hook-nosed man was saying.

Indeed, he had been overthinking.

He wasn't worth targeting.

The hook-nosed man was clearly targeting Gu Qiqi!

"Judges, please take a closer look at Doctor Gu's operating methods. She doesn't follow the rules at all! In bone grafting surgery, if there's no Dragon Bone Replenishing Ointment, a specialty of S Country, then only elderberry wood wood serum can be used. Look at what she's using. The medicine is dark. I don't know what the hell it is, but I'm afraid elderberry wood serum is too expensive for her to bear to use. She can only use some firewood to fool the patient, right?!" Luseff's tone was sharp, and he went straight to the point.

Chapter 999: The Heavens Owe You, Doctor Gu!

The judges all frowned at Luseff's words.

Although the audience didn't quite understand, most of them understood what he meant when he said elderberry wood.

"Elderberry wood is really expensive. Nowadays, it's even rarer than sandalwood. Which team would be willing to use elderberry wood for surgery? They'll be making a loss."

"If they don't use elderberry wood and the bone can't be reattached, won't the surgery fail?"

"If they fail, they'll just say that the subsequent recovery wasn't good! Anyway, there's always a chance of failure during surgery. How would our patients know if it's because of the doctor or themselves?"

"Oh my, that's not fair. She's here to participate in the competition, yet she can't bear to use real medicine. Isn't she just waiting to be slapped in the face?"

"Real medicine is too expensive. Moreover, it's said that it takes decade-aged elderberry wood to be effective. You can't buy it with money..."

Everyone was discussing spiritedly. Seeing that they were all leaning towards one side, they began to support Luseff's accusation.

Qiu Qiu was extremely anxious. "Master, our elderberry wood is real! It's real! Do you want me to throw a branch at their faces?!"

Gu Qiqi remained as calm as ever. "There's no need. It's enough to slap their faces with the results."

While Luseff was acting arrogantly, Gu Qiqi remained silent.

Just as everyone thought that Gu Qiqi was bound to lose...

Suddenly, the anesthesiologist rang the bell. "Our patient has woken up."

He was Gu Qiqi's anesthetist!

The delivery man, Fast Wang, was awake!

The noisy discussion of the audience gradually subsided.

Everyone stared at the screen curiously.

The camera gradually zoomed in...

Fast Wang's face was pale, but he was in good spirits.

Holding onto his wife's hand, he slowly got up from the bed.

Gu Qiqi instructed carefully, "You can't get up abruptly after the anesthesia. Every movement has to be done in slow motion. You have to take several steps to get up. Take your time. Otherwise, you'll easily faint from hypoglycemia. You're 1.8 meters tall. You'll smash your wife flat."

Gu Qiqi's medical advice was professional and humorous. It made the audience laugh.

“Oh my, I’ve never seen such a humorous doctor!”

“That’s right, and she’s especially warm, okay? I even want to turn from Young Master Ye’s fan to Doctor Gu’s fan!”

“To be honest, I think Doctor Gu is so professional! When I was hospitalized the last time, no doctor reminded me that I had to get up slowly after being anesthetized. In my excitement, I took a few steps to the bathroom to pee. Then, in a fit of grief... my vision went dark and I fainted into the toilet bowl! Damn! This was the first time I’ve drunk toilet water in my life!”

“Hahaha! The heavens owe you Doctor Gu!”

The discussion of the crowd entered Luseff’s ears, causing him to be displeased.

Sticking his neck out, he spoke proudly again. “Some doctors like to put on a facade. They seem to care about the patient, but what’s the use? What truly measures a doctor’s worth is always his medical skills! No matter how pleasant it sounds, if he can’t treat the patient, it’s all nonsense! I don’t like to put on a facade. Hmph!”

As he spoke, he glanced at Gu Qiqi’s team with disdain. “I heard that this is the difference between a female doctor and a male doctor. Women are always vain and value appearances, while men rely on strength! This is why only men are truly famous doctors, while women are only fit to be assistants. It’s fine if they become nurses or cleaners!”

Luseff’s words caused an uproar!

Although the female audience was displeased, many of the male audience members nodded.

Chapter 1000: Looking Down On Women

Even the judges nodded in agreement.

That was because all the judges were male doctors!

Luseff’s words were truly heart-wrenching!

Yet, they were in line with the masses!

No male doctor would object to this conclusion.

Why bother? In any case, they were talking about a female doctor. The irony was that he was referring to a female doctor. It had nothing to do with their personal interests!

They yearned for women to be their assistants forever.

If a female doctor were to step all over them one day, their lives would not be easy.

They had heard that the male doctors in the VIP laboratory of the Imperial Medical University were all so pitiful. Their leader was a woman named Zhou Qing. She was simply a demoness. Tsk, tsk.

Even though Luseff was spouting nonsense, no judge had ordered him to shut up.

On the other hand, the men in Gu Qiqi’s team were all filled with righteous indignation.

Qiu Qiu rolled up his sleeves again, ready to fight.

The cold Bei Mingtian gritted his teeth and said, "He's not worthy of being a man!"

Chu Junmo's subordinate shook his head. "I don't agree with this view. Men and women shouldn't be compared like this. Doctor Gu is a heroine. We're convinced that she can lead us."

Everyone retorted against Luseff's nonsense passionately. On the other hand, Gu Qiqi remained calm.

Instead of getting angry, she smiled. "It seems that in this world, someone has to teach people a lesson about the relationship between women and men."

With that, she ignored Luseff and didn't explain anything to the audience. Instead, she turned around and asked the delivery man, Fast Wang, in a gentle voice, "How do you feel? Do you feel like you can walk? Don't be afraid. Be brave. Take a step forward!"

Fast Wang took a tentative step forward.

Although it was a little difficult, his legs could move!

He wasn't crippled. He was still Fast Wang, not a cripple!

Fast Wang's eyes were filled with tears. "Doctor Gu, don't listen to those people's nonsense. You're the woman I admire the most, no one else! Thank you for giving me a second life!"

Fast Wang's wife knelt on the ground in gratitude. "I'll be the first to fight to the death with anyone who dares to say that a female doctor isn't good! It's not like I haven't seen the faces of those male doctors from big hospitals. All of them said that my husband's case was hopeless and wanted to amputate his leg! In the end? Wasn't it a female doctor who saved my husband's legs! Those useless male doctors had the cheek to say that women doctors were inferior to them? How shameless!"

The words of the patient and the patient's family were like sharp blades that stabbed at the hearts of the judges and Luseff.

Just now, he had been shouting that Gu Qiqi couldn't treat the patient. He had said she used fake bone-attaching techniques and only knew how to sweet-talk. Now, her words had become a vicious slap to Luseff's face.

Gu Qiqi didn't say a word. She only used the results to show everyone what top-notch medical skills and strength meant!

Wasn't this slap to the face too satisfying? She didn't even need to stretch out her hand.

After a long moment of shock, Luseff's nose became even more crooked.

After a long while, he puffed up her cheeks and screamed in doubt, "Impossible! She doesn't even have an elderberry wood serum. How can she treat the patient? Even if she can, he won't be able to walk immediately. This is something only a great medicine master can do. She's just a young woman, an unknown female doctor. What can she do? There must be something wrong!"

Only then did Gu Qiqi raise her gaze. "Who said that we didn't have any elderberry wood? Qiu Qiu, show the judges the elderberry wood."
