

Death Guns 1431

1431 Chapter 1431

"I'm not done yet!"

However, Alex just looked into her eyes with that evil smile on his face and declared. Even though her vagina was incredibly sensitive right now, he continued his pounding, forcing Silveria to moan again.

*Pah!* *Pah!* *Pah!*

"AaannnHhh!! ANnnanHH! Alexander! Stop please- AnnAnnhH!"

Even after cumming just now, Silveria was forced to experience countless minor orgasms. The pleasure she felt continued to break new records, pushing her mind into states she had never been pushed to.

And Alex didn't stop there, he continued to drill his dick into her pussy, ramming her down and hitting her weak points again and again.

"Oh! Dear creatorrrrrrr!"

She had another, Alex followed and deposited everything inside. He seemed far from satisfied. A truly incubus, a sex demon indeed.

He let her rest for a few minutes before starting to caress her body.

"I'm still not down yet?" He declared before putting his head between Silveria's thighs and started eating her pussy. The stimulation was too much for an already sensitive Silveria.

*Squirt*

"AAnnAAnnANnnnnNnHH!!"

Silveria moaned out loud as Alex bit her clitoris.

The love juices that had barely stopped gushing out of her pussy, flooded out again, and again, Alex's face, which hadn't even dried off from the previous session, bathed in her juices.

This time, Silveria's thighs were unusually strong, so Alex couldn't even move his face to get away.

His face was showered with Silveria's juices for another minute, and only then, did the grip around Silveria's thighs weaken and Alex was allowed to move again.

"Haaahhh... Haahhhh... Haahh..."

Silveria, who came a few times within just a few minutes gasped for breath.

She knew her body would be sensitive, but this...

This was ridiculous.

Alex's random action sent her to the cloud line and turned her entire body into a mess.

Her body... it was just too much...

She could feel her legs twitching... and Alex hadn't even started yet...

"Silveria~"

Silveria then heard a sound, She opened her eyes and saw Alex rising from below, and that playful smile as he observed her entire body, sent shivers down her spine,

"Are you seeing what you have done?" Alex questioned as he pointed at his face.

Silveria noticed how his face was dripping wet with her juices,

She would have apologized, however, the scene in front of her was so erotic that she completely forgot about it.

"You should be punished for what you have done, shouldn't you?"

Alex questioned with a playful smile on his face.

He moved his head near Silveria's breasts, he wanted to remove that bra, play with her body, give her body a chance to recover, and at the same time, 'punish' her by not doing any strong action.

However,

"Alex..."

Suddenly, Silveria called out.

"What is it, my sweetheart?" Alex looked into Silveria's eyes and questioned with a gentle, but demonic smile on his face.

"D-Don't play with me anymore..."

Silveria muttered in a weak voice.

"Huh?"

Alex chuckled.

"Haahh... Haahh... Haahhh..."

Alex noticed Silveria's expression.

She was extremely turned on... to the point her breathing was erratic, her eyes seemed hazy, and her face was flushed red,

"I want it..."

She muttered.

"Your dick... I want it..."

Silveria spoke not only that, but she even moved her weak hands to 'open up' her entrance, practically begging Alex to put it in.

Seeing this scene, Alex's little brother, which was already half erect shot up in an instant. This simulation was just too much.

Alex aligned his dick with her pussy but didn't penetrate her immediately, he played around with it.

In an instant, he pushed his entire dick inside Silveria's pussy.

"AAAnAaannnnNnnNhhhhhHH!!"

Silveria moaned out loud.

Jolts and jolts of pleasure assaulted her body, she felt like she was about to pass out, but then,

"UuuuGghhhhhhhhhhh!!"

She heard a groan.

She opened her eyes and noticed Alex's eyes opened wide in shock.

"Alex...?"

Silveria called out weakly, confused.

He looked into her eyes and smiled weakly.

"A-Are you ready?" He questioned.

Her brain stopped working.

Her mind was a mess right now, she didn't have any strength right now, for now, all she wanted was for him to move and ravage her as roughly as he could. Therefore, she just nodded her head and closed her eyes, giving her body to Alex.

Alex, on the other hand, could feel his entire body trembling.

'W-What is this feeling right now!?'

He wondered in his mind, it was not their first round but somehow this time it was different.

The moment Alex pushed his dick inside Silveria's pussy again, jolts of mind-numbing pleasure were sent into his body, the pleasure he felt was so good he could barely keep a straight face and was forced to groan out loud.

And it didn't just end here, her pussy continued to suck him as if it wanted to devour him. It was as if it had a mind of its own.

Alex's hips were weakened, in just one thrust, he had lost all his power, however, seeing Silveria lying weakly under him with her eyes closed, expecting him to do all the work, he decided not to embarrass himself.

He took a deep breath, and then, under Silveria's pussy's strong resistance, he moved his hips back, pulling his dick out, and then thrusting it again.

"UuugggGghhhh!!"

That mind-numbing pleasure.

Alex felt it again.

His legs started trembling since he had moved once, Silveria's pussy sucked him even more strongly than before, Alex wanted nothing more than to just stay in this position, not doing anything, however, he couldn't act weak here, he glanced at Silveria again, and,

*Pah!*

He thrust again.

"Ugh!!!"

*Pah!*

"Ugh!!"

And again.

*Pah!*

For some unknown reason, right now Silveria's pussy seemed magical, each time he thrusts his dick inside, it sucked his dick even more strongly than before, the pleasure he felt increased, and after a few thrusts, the pleasure reached its peak.

"UuuuUuggggGGhhhhh!!!"

It reached the point where Alex couldn't control himself anymore and he came.

'Wow! I came quickly but I like it.'

Alex was not ashamed for not lasting long this time because it felt too good. He was getting tired, and after another round, they fell asleep unaware that the synchronization rate had increased drastically which caused what followed.

1432 Chapter 1432

After their steamy sex marathon, both fell asleep on the bed in each other arms unaware of the change their action was about to bring. An unprecedented change, something not even the Supreme beings have foreseen but only one woman because she planted this seed deep in the past.

In the middle of his sweet dreams, Alex was forcibly dragged somewhere, in a vast plain, and before him was a shimmering gold portal.

"Weird, I thought I was sleeping just now but why I was brought here?" He was confused but this confusion was short-lived because Alex knew he wouldn't get the answer by dumbly standing here, therefore he took a step forward.

As Alex passed through the shimmering gold portal he was immediately met by a vibrant world. The air was thick with smoke, obstructing his vision beyond a few meters. He could feel watched even though he couldn't see anything watching him.

Because of these horrible conditions, he got the feeling that he was constantly in danger. This world was no walk in the park, but it was a danger he could handle.

Far off to the right, Alex saw countless colors of beings literally and figuratively beyond his world. Despite looking friendly and docile, he made sure they didn't get any closer. There are hairy creatures, crawling creatures, and what he thought might be tiny creatures of some sort.

Alex shook his head and tried flying but unfortunately failed to do so, not only his senses were obscured he couldn't fly as well, making things more thorny.

"Sigh! Let's walk, this will be considered as doing some exercise." He decided to walk even after testing his spatial skills and as a result, he couldn't move through space as well.

Alex hadn't even walked fifty meters before his surrounding was warped as if he got forcibly teleported somewhere. He didn't have the time to check his surroundings before they appeared.

A rainbow shock-wave in the air and a growth of nature all around mark the coming of an angel.

As if conjured from thin air, a hallowed being with completely white eyes stands in front of him. They stare at Alex for a moment, he feels overwhelming power and prestige from them but he is not affected because he meets stronger beings.

Two massive, cotton-like wings curve around the angel. Their plump body moved with strength and conviction and was clad in white armor. They carry a weapon of bright energy, it's surrounded by a pulsing energy, likely a protective barrier.

Alex looked up at their face once more and confirmed that they were indeed angels. The halo above their head suddenly disappeared, before heading off in a rush. They left a trail behind as if to indicate to him to follow them and he was indeed what he did. Much to his shock he could fly after the angel's appearance.

Soon they arrived before a majestic castle floating in the air. The angels stood outside like guardians and indicated that Alex must go in alone.

He looked at them briefly before moving into the white floating castle. As soon as he stepped in the hall he was immediately sent into the throne hall.

Slender braziers hanging from each of the ten onyx columns light up the entire throne hall and their light wraps the hall in a warm radiance. The unadorned stones on the domed ceiling dance in the flickering light while statuettes and marble icons look down upon the mosaic floor of this extravagant hall.

A beryl rug runs down from the throne and marks the closest spot people can stand when they address the royal highness while guidon banners with embellished sigils decorate the walls.

Between each banner hangs a small luster, they've all been lit and in turn illuminate the artistic portrayals of royalty long gone below them.

Extensive, stained glass windows of intricate mosaics are neighbored by curtains colored the same beryl as the banners. The curtains have been adorned with impressive needlework and jewels.

A magnificent throne of molten steel sits beneath an almost entirely close baldachin (canopy) and is adjoined by six equally impressive seats for the royal highness' family members

The throne is covered in byzantine emblems and fixed on each of the broad ears is a carved demon wing. The fluffy pillows are a light beryl and these too have been adorned with ornate tassels.

Alex didn't have the time to enjoy the beautiful throne hall because of the beautiful creature sitting on the throne.

And her beauty was life-reaping, soul-rending, and as unearthly as physically possible. As if an immortal fairy of the highest order had descended upon the mortal plains, she blessed the eyes of many men. Her features were immaculate, from trimmed brows to red lips; nothing felt ordinary, nothing felt imperfect—especially those sky-blue phoenix eyes of hers, a perfect bust of ample size, shape, and curvature, and all accompanied by a slender and alluring waist. She was the ideal woman in the eyes of many, in talent, strength, and beauty.

Her stylish dress flows from top to bottom and has a sweetheart neckline, which delicately reveals the ornate dress worn below it. The delectable, buttoned-up fabric of her dress covers her stomach where the continuous flow is broken up by a thin rope belt worn fairly high around her waist.

Below the rope belt, the dress opens up to the right and reveals the dress below. The front of the top dress easily reaches the ground in the front, the back continues to flow a fair length behind her and ends in a broad curve.

Her sleeves are purposely too long and very wide, their flow is broken up at the shoulder where they change color and where they're divided by long, elegant bands, These are the same fabric and color used to outline the sleeves of the dress.

In her stylish robe, she did not wear a smile, yet she didn't come off as cold or dislikeable. Instead, she gave off a feeling of superiority and ease, as if looking upwards at a supreme leader.

Suddenly, the ice-cold beauty on the throne opened her mouth and said some shocking sentence.

"Welcome, son-in-law from the future!"

Then she smiled.

Suddenly, the ice-cold beauty on the throne opened her mouth and said some shocking sentence.

"Welcome, son-in-law from the future!"

Then she smiled, her smile was breathtaking, capable of causing any man to willingly offer his life because he desired to see more of her smile.

Without Alex would have loved to enjoy this beautiful woman's smile, the most beautiful woman he had ever encountered but he couldn't because of the sentence she uttered a few seconds ago.

Any pressure he faced vanished when he heard those words, his brain short-circuited.

The woman on the throne didn't say anything and calmly observed Alex like a mother. It seemed she was giving him time to proceed with what she said.

It didn't take long for Alex to come back to his senses and he was able to connect the dots.

"You are Silveria's and Nyx's mother." He said calmly as possible but inwardly he was shaken.

"Not bad. Your reaction and thinking speed is quick." Silveria's mother smiled and with her smile, it was like the world had been rejuvenated.

"Come sit beside me!" She ordered and Alex flew and sat her.

"Greetings mother-in-law from the past!" Alex politely greeted her.

She nodded before stating.

"I like you more than the previous one. This is our second meeting I guess. The first time it was too short."

Alex's memory was blurry but he had the feeling that he had seen this woman before in one of his weird dreams. Still, he didn't have the time to dwell on his memories because Silveria's mother added.

"You can call me mother!"

"I understand, mother." Alex had no trouble calling her mother.

The girl's mother smiled before snapping her fingers and the scenery changed and they reappeared inside a garden.

A scruffy patch of moss-covered grass is accompanied by luscious hedges and flower bushes. A pagoda stands to the left of the garden, completely covered in climbing flowers. The flowers and plants are fighting for their place in the garden, thankfully helped by human hands; they're growing in all sorts and sizes.

The hedges and flower bushes reach 1.2m/4ft high, but this is thanks to great care and a lot of effort. A couple of messages carved on stones are spread around the garden, directing visitors around in a natural way. Grass, roots, and vines are trying to reclaim every part of the garden, always searching for new places to grow and expand.

The pagoda can be admired even from every side of the garden. The flowers and plants shouldn't be ignored, and the hedges and flower bushes do attract some attention, but nothing beats the majesty of the pagoda.

Inside this pagoda, Alex and his mother-in-law sat.

"What are your thoughts on my daughters?" She suddenly asked and Alex's response was immediate.

"They are both equally important to me. I can't live without them because they're the reason I'm here. I'll be eternally grateful for arriving in my life. I'll do my utmost to protect them."

There was no falsehood in his declaration, he genuinely displayed how he felt.

Clap! Clap!! I think you should take a look at paΠdasnovel.com

Upon hearing his reply, the corners of his mother-in-law's mouth lifted into a smile. She extended her hands and clapped twice, and soon after, a ghost-like figure in a maid's outfit drifted toward them and served them tea.

Alex's mind was refreshed, almost as if he was standing in an evergreen park surrounded by nothing but flowers but before he could enjoy this natural sensation, his mother-in-law cut right to the chase.

"Did you know that both Nemesis, I mean Silveria and Nyx are twins?"

Alex wore a shocked expression on his face as he had never considered this. He always believed they were both sisters with Nyx being the oldest.

"Fufufu! I like your current expression. Nyx and Silveria are twins with Nyx being the oldest. You already know our background so I won't go into the details. We don't have much time anyway."

Alex nodded and patiently waited for her to continue.

"Have you never thought it's weird? They're twins and Nyx is the most powerful, she is the embodiment of death, she can kill anything, and she is the deadliest weapon to ever exist since the creation."

Alex nodded as he shared the same feeling as his mother-in-law but he had the feeling that there was more to follow.

"If Nyx was that powerful it was natural for Silveria to be equally powerful as well but the only thing she can do is to cancel magic. While this is extremely powerful it's lacking compared to her sister don't you think?"

At this question, Alex unconsciously nodded. Put like that it is indeed true, Silveria should have been more powerful.

"Did you know the seven deadly sins?" His mother-in-law suddenly raised this question.

"Yes, the seven deadly sins are the following: Lust, envy, anger, greed, gluttony, pride, and sloth," Alex answered. As someone from Earth, it was natural for him to know about the seven deadly sins. As an otaku and an avid reader, it would have been weird if he didn't know.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump!

For some reason Alex's heart started beating crazily, as if he was about to learn of some shocking truth and his premonition couldn't be more spot on.

"She is born twin with Nyx.

Nyx is the ultimate weapon, the ultimate end Naturally her sister must be equally powerful no?

People mistakenly thought Silveria's only purpose was to cancel magic, but it was far from that, She was the ruler of sins, and her ultimate form was the seven deadly Sins.

Silveria's true nature is being master of all weapons."

BOOM!

It was as if a supernova explosion had happened inside Alex's brain making his body tremble violently. In an instant a lot of think passed through his mind, it was like countless pieces of a puzzle coming together to form a complete puzzle.

In the beginning, he was disappointed not to be able to use his Gift, he sought an alternative but no matter which weapon he used he couldn't handle it because of the terrible headache that would follow, he arrived at the conclusion that any weapon besides guns couldn't work. Fortunately, he could use military knives.

Today after learning the truth he understood why that happened in the past. As the master of all weapons, Silveria couldn't be content with a normal weapon if not something she created. This realization hit Alex and he smiled because he thought of something, his heart started pounding again.

His mother-in-law could see the excitement inside his heterochromia eyes, his eyes that reminded her of her daughters. She was shocked to see them bestowing this lad their eyes. Something they hadn't done with their previous master. Although outstanding, the man lacked something crucial which is love, he had only one thought to get revenge on his friend. It was probably why he failed to unleash Silveria's true form as he was too focused on revenge. Only someone like Alex true to his desire could achieve what he achieved.

"I'm glad that you have started to realize where I'm going but first of all, I must thank you because you achieved something your predecessor couldn't. The condition to activate Silveria's ultimate and true form is to love her, to show her love, to unlock her heart and love her. She is not aware of her ultimate form. Nyx must have felt something but I'm sure she couldn't predict this. Everything that happened from your meeting to tonight's copulation led to the final result. In terms of the game, it would be like your actions leading to you finding an Easter egg, a powerful Easter egg that could greatly change the outcome of the game. Thank you Silveria's ultimate form is about to be unleashed."

Alex was overwhelmed with emotions, he felt embarrassed when his mother-in-law mentioned the word copulation. Although tonight's action occurred because of the bewitching dance, the truth is that the dance skipped forward to what would have eventually happened. Both have feelings for each other and it would eventually result in them getting together, it simply happened faster.

"It is good that you know about the seven deadly sins but can you tell me about the strongest of them?"

A sudden question was raised breaking Alex from his formulating thoughts.

: Mother In-Law From The Past And Silveria's True Form

Alex was overwhelmed with emotions, he felt embarrassed when his mother-in-law mentioned the word copulation. Although tonight's action occurred because of the bewitching dance, the truth is that the dance skipped forward to what would have eventually happened. Both have feelings for each other and it would eventually result in them getting together, it simply happened faster.

"It is good that you know about the seven deadly sins but can you tell me about the strongest of them?"

A sudden question was raised breaking Alex from his formulating thoughts. He didn't immediately answer this question as he was pondering. It took a few minutes to go through his memories and find the correct answer.

"Back in my hometown, it is on Earth, of the seven deadly sins, theologians and philosophers reserve a special place for pride.

Lust, envy, anger, greed, gluttony, and sloth are all bad, the sages say, but pride is the deadliest of all, the root of all evil, and the beginning of sin."

His mother-in-law nodded pleased with Alex's answer.

"Indeed, it's exactly as you said. I'll add a bit of information before concluding."

Alex patiently waited for her to continue.

"The seven deadly sins each has their color:

Red-Wrath/Anger

Orange-Gluttony

Yellow-Avarice/Greed

Green-Envy

Light Blue-Sloth

Blue-Lust/Lechery

Violet/Purple-Vanity/Pride!"

"As I have mentioned earlier, Silveria's ultimate form is the seven deadly sins. Each sin has its corresponding weapon form and each represents the pinnacle of its form. You'll have complete mastery over each weapon. Each sin comes with its corresponding element and you can use the said element freely with the weapon."

Alex's eyes kept growing bigger and bigger due to the shock he felt. Like any avid reader he had dreamed of reincarnating and using both magic and weapons such as sword, spear, and so on but his dream was shattered because when he unlocked his Gift, he couldn't use any other weapons besides his guns but now he could use more weapons, how can he not be happy after learning this? He was happy beyond words and he didn't hide it but his thoughts were still logical, it was why he raised the next question.

"I'm certain that to unlock each sin a certain power must be required and it is not mana, right?"

Alex still hoped it would be mana that was required to unlock each sin.

His mother-in-law could be more pleased upon hearing this question.

"You are, a certain amount of SE is required to unlock each sin." She answered calmly and Alex's eyes widened because previously he thought SE's only purpose was to enable him to use the Silveria's form and to unleash that special domain but now this belief was shattered.

'No wonder, SE kept growing, it's ultimately for this purpose.'

"The most fitting name for this skill will be Spiritual Force and a certain amount of Spiritual Force will be needed for unlocking each sin. The more powerful a sin is the more Spiritual Force will be needed. Not only it will require Spiritual Force to unlock the sins, but to use each weapon's special skills it will require more Spiritual Force."

"I see. Do you know each corresponding sin's weapon?" An eager Alex could not help but raise this question.

His mother-in-law smiled but didn't immediately explain.

"I do but let's first take a look at your current status."

She flicked her fingers and Alex's status was forcibly summoned.

Looking at his status window Alex realized something and a terrifying chill swept through his entire body. His spine was cold, and his scalp felt like it was going to explode. This woman although a silver consciousness left behind to appear to give an explanation when certain conditions are met was strong, to the point Alex felt like an ant before her. If a silver consciousness was this strong then how was the real thing?

Alex shivered upon realizing this, he shivered not only because of his former mother-in-law's strength but also because he now understood that the enemy was too strong, so strong to be able to eliminate this woman. He had to work harder to protect himself and his loved ones.

Alex secretly clenched his fists before looking at his status window, he noticed a few changes such as his SE increasing together with his intelligence stat, he even acquired a new title. His synchronization rate with Silveria increased as well.

When Alex's expression was undergoing countless changes after what she did, she noticed and nodded pleased upon seeing his resolute eyes. It was a test, to show him not to be conceited with the little strength he gained, he was far from being strong before the real deal was but a mere ant that could be squashed at any moment.

He has to strive to improve and faster than that is. With him unlocking Silveria's Ultimate Form, it could be said that from now on he would be walking on the path of the strongest and become a player.

"I'm running out of time so I will give you a summary of each sin. You'll have to discover everything yourself later with Silveria's help."

"As mentioned earlier Silveria's Ultimate Form can enable her to turn into seven different forms called the Seven Deadly Sins:

Lust: A spear capable of controlling your enemy's blood after injuring them.

Gluttony: Gauntlets, they are powerful, capable of absorbing some of your enemy's attacks to give you stamina and faster recovery if you are injured. It has a hidden feature. You can absorb your enemy's energy and power. Anything can be absorbed. Gluttony knows no bounds and shall devour everything.

Greed: A Dark Gold flying shuttle that is composed of many shard blades. Not only you can fly with it, but you can use it as both a means to attack and defend. Have the power of telekinesis with this sin. Your greed for life and blood shall be endless.

Sloth: Light blue Sniper rifle. Laziness is the best way to end your enemy.

Wrath: Red Long Sword, the enemy shall feel your wrath through your sword.

Envy: it is an immaculate bow that can shoot homing arrows that explode with magical power on impact, your arrows shall never fail to find their target and shower your enemies with love, the feeling of embracing Death will never be so sweet under your arrows. The limit of the bow is that it is very draining on its users' magical reserves.

Pride: Two Guns, one is dark purple while the other is silver. The strongest sin as well as the strongest weapon will rule the battlefield."

1435 Chapter 1435

Alex has to strive to improve and faster than that is. With him unlocking Silveria's Ultimate Form, it could be said that from now on he would be walking on the path of the strongest and become a player.

Alex's eyes widened before his heartbeat quickened.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump!

His breathing was rough but he reacted quickly controlled his emotions and continued to listen.

"Let me further explain to you, to give you an in-depth explanation."

"Lust: Spear

Sin Technique: Sanguis

Sanguis allows you to control the blood of another, taking over their body and moving them to your will.

Gluttony: Gauntlets

Sin Technique: King of Beast

This Sin technique transforms Gluttony's user into a massive beast with devastating power. While the beast is extremely powerful, it has an insatiable hunger. If the user doesn't have the mental capabilities to control this transformation, the beast will rampage, consuming everything in its wake.

Greed: Heaven Soaring Shuttle

Sin Technique: Verto

Verto has the power to turn whatever the blades cut into gold, killing them in the process. Whatever is cut begins to transform into gold, emanating from the wound.

Sloth: Light Blue Sniper rifle

Sin Technique: Somnus Aeternam

Sloth emits a sound at a specific frequency that causes opponents to slowly become more and more lethargic until they eventually fall into a coma or die.

Wrath: Red Longsword

Sin Technique: Ira

Ira allows the user to completely engulf themselves in the Flames of Wrath, greatly increasing their physical and magical power. If the user of this technique isn't careful, they will burn away from anger.

Envy: An immaculate bow.

Sin Technique: Vanagloria

Vanagloria allows the user to shoot a single arrow that continuously self-multiplies into thousands of arrows, causing an endless rain of arrows to befall the battlefield.

Pride: Two guns.

Pride, being the seventh Weapon of Sin, is typically considered the strongest of the seven weapons.

Sin Technique: Superbia

Pride's Sin Technique, Superbia, allows the user to summon a giant made of glistening energy. A giant copy of yourself, its strength is 10 levels higher than the user."

Alex's mother-in-law took a rest to first moisten her throat before continuing.

"That is all I can say as for the rest you'll experience it together with her, to learn more about this ability. I can assure you if you learn to use it coupled with Nyx you'll be invincible on the battlefield as long as your level is high enough. You can win the war we failed to win. Please do your best to survive and protect them." She earnestly declared and Alex's eyes were resolute as he affirmed.

"I will."

"Good, good. I forgot to tell you that each sin has corresponding elements.

Red-Wrath/Anger: Fire

Orange-Gluttony: Dark

Yellow-Avarice/Greed: Earth

Green-Envy: Wind

Light Blue-Sloth: Ice

Blue-Lust/Lechery: Water

Violet/Purple-Vanity/Pride: Lightning!"

"I hope you will take good care of my daughter and train harder, quickly increase your level, and focus on increasing your intelligence stat to increase your Spiritual Force (SE). This will let you unlock the sins to use various weapons. It's possible to use two sins at the same time as you become stronger. The first point is to increase your Spiritual Force to unlock your first sin. I don't know what sin you'll unlock because it will be a sin corresponding to your immediate need and desire."

Suddenly, she started disappearing much to Alex's shock.

"Fight, struggle, and survive. Explore the strongest ruins (dungeons) to find resources to grow your strength and allies. The ancients left countless treasures there, there is one in this place as well, I'll send you there, take you closer before your final confrontation against the powerful enemy inside the ruin. Ruins no dungeons as you call them nowadays hold great secrets and finding the right one can be life-changing and help you greatly. I'll gift you something."

She extended one of her fingers, by now half of her body was gone.

From the extended finger, a small golden ball flew out before penetrating his head, Alex immediately experienced an intense headache followed by a cool sensation as if he had taken a cool bath.

Everything happened too quickly. He understood that he had just acquired something valuable, and one of his statuses, his Spiritual Force (SE) had increased.

Alex opened his eyes and just as he wanted to thank his mother-in-law but unfortunately except for her head, everything else disappeared.

"Tell my daughters I love them and wish for their happiness. Tell them I'm sorry for not being a good mother, Hopefully, they will not follow in my footsteps and please protect them and make them happy."

Those were her last words before completely disappearing and Alex was sent back.

1436 Chapter 1436

The country of Cedoria is a vast country with a population of 1 million people.

Bordered by large mountains to the North, a huge ocean to the South, large hills to the East, and highlands to the West, the country of Cedoria mainly lives off baking, trade, and alchemy.

Cedoria itself is mainly covered in uninhabitable mountains and has a rainy climate, which has led to a dispersed population, despite the number of people, which means most of them live in small villages.

The country's landscape is friendly; mellow rivers, small, hidden ponds, and astonishing aquatic wildlife are just a sliver of the hidden treasures Cedoria has to offer, which is why the country is a cherished destination among foreigners.

The people of Cedoria are rude towards foreigners and tend to welcome them with apathy. They feel foreigners could thwart the country's well-being.

Cedoria has resolute laws and law enforcement, which is expected in their circumstances. The people are agitated due to recent wars, caused by horrible leadership.

Cedoria is known for possessing the strongest underground dungeon housing countless and powerful aquatic monsters. This country is visited by adventurers seeking thrill and riches. Most of the country's economy comes from the adventurers but this doesn't make them more likeable.

Somewhere, in Cedoria, near the ocean was a group of adolescents playing under the moonlight enjoying the night sky, watching a constellation.

Made up of nineteen stars, the constellation called Gavia roughly resembles the shape of a horn. It can be seen most prominently high in the Northwestern sky just before the spring equinox.

In an ancient society, this constellation was seen as the representation of the god of the stars, which is how it received the name still used today.

In astrology, this constellation bears the sign of the archer, those born under it are believed to be generous.

They're supposed to be a good match with those born under the constellations resembling a wing, rat, and tortoise. But they don't match well with those born under the shell, flower, and tree constellations.

The youngsters enjoyed watching this constellation while drinking and chatting happily, they abruptly stopped whatever they were doing because what happened next.

At this moment, there was a shooting star, a star fell, forming a beautiful arc and ended its course in the middle of the ocean, right above the underground dungeon.

Those who saw this made a wish unaware of the real identity of this star, it was not a shooting star but an egg instead, a giant black egg and it would bring an unprecedented catastrophe.

.....

Huge braziers attached to each of the eight onyx columns light up every part of the throne hall and engulf everything in a flickering radiance. The gems of the many artworks on the slanted ceiling dance in the flickering light while marble icons and sculptures look down upon the mahogany floor of this regal hall.

An alabaster rug runs from the throne down the center and loops back from both left and right while square dag banners with emblazoned corners cover parts of the walls. Between each banner stands a large candlestick, a few of them have been lit and in turn illuminate the statues of the leaders below them.

Modest windows are neighbored by curtains colored the same alabaster as the banners. The curtains have been adorned with fancy tassels and jewels.

An imposing throne of brass sits atop a tall elevated platform and is adjoined by seven similar, but smaller seats.

The throne is covered in nothing but labyrinthine emblems and fixed on each of the ornate legs is an elegant face. The fluffy pillows are a light alabaster and these too have been adorned with embellished sigils.

At the moment all those seats are occupied.

Lord Thanos sat on the main throne. Surrounding him were the elders of the organization. The most powerful fighters of the organization.

"Have you sent that thing in place?" Lord Thanos asked the 5th Elder in charge of research.

Blonde, wavy hair slightly revealed a round, tense face. Dancing violet eyes, set lightly within their sockets. This is the face of the 5th Elder, a powerful man whose strength was equal to his cruelty, it is a madman whose hobby is to make various experiments, he was the one who initiated the project Valkyrya from which Zero and Incursio were born from, the same goes for Alice.

"Yes, the egg has been sent. This thing is the strongest thing we have created so far, its strength must not be underestimated, it will greatly help us in the incoming fight. Those fools have no idea what is about to befall them. Chaos shall reign supreme!"

"Chaos shall reign supreme!"

"Chaos shall reign supreme!"

Every single one of them chanted this slogan and their eyes were burning with desire for slaughter and destruction.

"We have to continue with the other plans. Few skirmishes here and there to draw their attention until that thing grows powerful." Someone suddenly said it was the first elder, the most powerful member besides Bahamut and Lord Thanos.

Red, shaggy hair tight in a ponytail revealed a thin, worried face. Bright green eyes set narrowly within their sockets.

Fallen Debry left a mark reaching from just under the left eye, running towards the left side of his lips and ending on his left nostril leaving a heartbreaking memory of his unfortunate upbringing.

Lord Thanos observed the first elder for a moment before looking elsewhere.

"What Haijen said is right but must as well focus on the complete recovery of our master."

Both elders nodded before one of them raised a question, it was something the other elders had been curious about.

"What are we doing about the boy?" The one who raised this question was a woman. The 3rd elder.

Red, straight hair slightly revealed a long, menacing face. Darting gray eyes were concealed within their sockets.

A scar stretching from just under the right eye, running towards the right side of her lips and ending on her chin leaves a tormenting memory of her fortunate destiny.

This is the face of Nafareath Stagrunner, the 3rd elder, a Wind elf who switched sides after being reborn. She now embraces Chaos and wants to see the world set ablaze.

Every single soul present knew whom Nafareath was referring to, it was Alexander Kael Touch, the only variable in their great plan. For some unknown reason he was valued too highly by the higher-ups if weren't because of this, they would have gotten rid of him a long time ago. None of those present liked him.

"Don't worry, he is just a pitiful chess piece. He would die inside the Infinity Maze because he would be facing the clone of our master Bahamut. Even if he were to survive by some fluke there's nothing he could do, the outcome has been decided. All he can do is to struggle unable to cause any problems. Let's focus on the matters before us."

Lord Thanos was the one who uttered these words and the others nodded. Every single one of them believes that Alex cannot change anything, he is but a mere chess piece unable to affect the bigger picture, a slightly bigger ant, nothing else.

1437 Chapter 1437

The following morning Alex woke up to find Silveria staring straight into his half-opened eyes. She seemed to have woken earlier than him and was observing him.

"Good morning my beautiful goddess!"

"Humph! Good morning, we agreed to forget about what happened and-"

Silveria couldn't continue with her sentence because Alex sealed her lips with his own.

"Mmmh!"

The kiss lasted a few seconds before Alex stopped with Silveria glaring at him.

"There is no way I'll follow some words said to have you give in. You're mine, I'll make you mine. Why will I destroy all my efforts? I want you, it is not a mistake so never again say that. Please give me a chance."

Silveria was lost for word upon hearing Alex's declaration. Her heartbeat quickened and she couldn't look at him in the eyes. Although, she said those words she didn't mean them because deep down she wanted to be loved, she is a woman after all. Alex not giving up on her made her extremely happy, not that she would show it, still the first step had been taken.

"Hmph! Do what you want I'll be-" She couldn't finish her sentence again because Alex caught her hand and said.

"Don't go, I want you! Let's do some morning workout." Alex declared with a straight face, Silveria wanted to rebuke him but found her lips sealed again and Alex's naughty hands roaming all over her body, She soon fell weakly back on the bed.

Alex didn't attack her, he proposed some nice idea to spice things up a bit.

Silveria in heat absentmindedly nodded, giving her approval and soon they started. Alex called this little game 'the ice game'. He first tied her arms and legs against the poles of the bed, then he summoned an ice cube and was using it to play around her body until arriving at her pussy.

"Aannnhh~~"

Silveria moaned loudly.

"A-Alex!"

She called out, Alex, however, continued with his plays and didn't reply,

The tingling feeling that Silveria was feeling between her legs heightened due to the sudden stimuli.

It was cold, wherever the ice cube went and touched sent a weird, numbing sensation into her body, and since Alex was continuously moving it on her crotch area, the expectation of where it would go next made Silveria even more uncomfortable.

Of course, Alex's other hand, which was working on her nipple didn't stop either. Silveria was being attacked from 3 points at the same time.

Alex, however, wasn't playing a fair game, to begin with.

It had been more than a minute after he moved the ice cube to her crotch area, however, he still hadn't moved it to her lower lips, making Silveria more and more uncomfortable and desperate.

"M-Move..."

Unable to endure the torture Silveria weakly muttered.

"..."

But again, Alex didn't answer. It wouldn't be fun otherwise.

This silent treatment, Silveria didn't know how she felt about this.

She tried to twist her body in strange angles, trying to cope with the tingling feeling she was feeling in between her legs, but no matter what she did, her legs, which were tied to the two poles of the bed made it impossible for her to use her thighs to alleviate that tingling.

Her nipples were hardened to impossible levels because of the ice cubes, and her crotch area, which usually emitted a lot of heat was now being cooled out as Alex continued to circle the ice cube there, her lower lips were itching badly, and the same was true was her clit, which was currently swollen and was emitting more and more heat, expecting to be calmed down by the ice.

Silveria's entire body was currently an absolute mess and was so sensitive that a single slick on her clit would make her orgasm.

She was so close yet it still felt far.

Her mind was filled with different emotions.

Suddenly, Silveria's body reacted.

"Annnh~"

Something touched her lower lips.

However, this 'something' was not the ice cube she was expecting it to be, on the contrary, it was something hot.

Something long, thick, and hot.

Silveria didn't have to think,

She remembered this feeling well.

She knew what this something was.

"Aannnnhhhh~"

Suddenly, Alex started sliding his cock on Silveria's lower lips, her sensitive body couldn't take it and her walls started trembling, craving for more.

She felt a jolt running throughout her body as her walls loosened a little.

She just experienced a minor orgasm.

And Alex hasn't even entered her cave yet.

She couldn't believe it.

Just how sensitive has her body become...?

She questioned inwardly.

"Should I continue?"

Suddenly, Alex questioned and as if trying to compel her to answer, he completely stopped moving.

"..."

As soon as he did, that tingling feeling returned, this time, a lot stronger than before, and as if to make his intention clear, he moved his dick away from her opening and started rubbing it on her thigh.

This little act of his teased her body even further, it made his intentions of not doing anything else until she said something clear, and the tingling feeling she was feeling between her legs heightened even further, making it unbearable.

Silveria was completely helpless.

If only she could break through these ropes and force this man to shove his cock inside her.

"Hmmm? Why haven't I heard the answer yet?"

Alex questioned with a playful smirk on the corner of his mouth.

He moved the ice cubes away from her hardened nipples and started moving them on her thighs, near her inner thighs.

Immediately, Silveria's body started trembling.

This was just too much.

This cold and hot feeling.

These two opposites... it was messing with her body so masterfully that even she couldn't believe it.

"Y-Yes, continue..."

In the end, Alex forced the answer out of her mouth. However, he wasn't satisfied.

"Is that a request?"

He questioned, stopping in his actions which makes things unbearable.

Silveria quickly realized what he wanted.

She gritted her teeth, however, the itch was getting more and more unbearable,

She didn't have an option.

She had to give in.

"P-Please, c-continue."

Her body trembled as she said those words, strange thoughts filled her mind.

She was practically begging for it, how humiliating, how unsightly, unbecoming of her status.

Silveria's pride as a senior.

It was currently being shattered. She was being forced into submission by a man a hundred thousand years her junior.

But...

She didn't hate this feeling of submission, she kind welcomed it.

It was a complex feeling that Silveria wished to sort out, however,

"Aaaaannhhhhh~"

Alex smiled and finally entered her body.

That torturous tingling messed her body.

The moment Alex filled her up, it all just... disappeared. A big jolt of mind-numbing pleasure coursed through her body.

For a moment, she felt like her soul just left her body and she nearly passed out.

A very familiar feeling.

A very... very familiar feeling...

*Squirt*

Alex's cock was showered again.

Yes, she came.

Silveria's walls cramped around his dick, trying such it in and keep it in there forever, after the intense night session they had yesterday, Silveria's walls had started taking his rod's shape, therefore, Alex's entire cock was currently being kissed by Silveria's walls,

The feeling was just too heavenly.

However, on the other hand, Alex's legs were weakening...

He had to use everything he had to stay awake.

This feeling was just too good.

"Haah... Haahh... Haahhh..."

He then heard Silveria's breathing heavily.

Seeing this scene, an evil smile appeared on his face and,

He moved.

"Annh~"

Silveria moaned.

Alex's smile widened and without any mercy,

He thrust his hip with all his strength.

"Aaannhh!!"

And Silveria moaned out loud.

Alex, however, wasn't done yet.

He grabbed another ice cube and then, he started rubbing it on Silveria's swollen and heated clit, sending jolts of pleasure into her body.

Silveria was so out of breath that she couldn't even moan and Alex didn't give her any chance to recover either.

Along with him rubbing the ice cube on her clit, he continued his merciless thrusts as well, under this lethal attack, she nearly lost her mind.

*Pah!* *Pah!* *Pah!!!*

"Annh! Annnh! AnAnhh!"

Her eyes rolled over, her back arched up and her tongue lolled out.

One would have a mental scar if they saw Silveria's expression, the contrast between the normal Silveria whose noble aura overpowered anyone, and this...

It was just unbelievable.

"AaannnnNnNnHhHH~~"

Silveria's sensitive body experienced another orgasm.

So she moaned in pleasure again.

*Squirt*

This was a hell of an orgasm.

Her walls tightened around Alex's cock, and the pleasure he was feeling spiked again, his little brother, which was already very sensitive because of how lovingly Silveria's walls sucked it, couldn't take it anymore and,

"Ugh!!"

It released its milk inside Silveria's body.

Their juices mixed, and a funny smell spread all over the tent, however, none of the two cared about it.

Alex didn't mind this smell as he was too familiar with it.

As for Silveria, well she was too tired, she didn't have the strength to do anything, much to react to the current situation.

"Hah... Haahh... Haa..."

Alex suddenly thrust his hip forward with all his strength.

"Aaannhh!!"

And Silveria moaned out loud.

Alex, however, wasn't done yet.

He grabbed another ice cube and then, he started rubbing it on Silveria's swollen and heated clit, sending jolts of pleasure into her body.

Silveria was so out of breath that she couldn't even moan and Alex didn't give her any chance to recover either.

Along with him rubbing the ice cube on her clit, he continued his merciless thrusts as well, under this lethal attack, she nearly lost her mind.

*Pah!* *Pah!* *Pah!!!*

"Annh! Annnh! AnAnhh!"

Her eyes rolled over, her back arched up and her tongue lolled out.

One would have a mental scar if they saw Silveria's expression, the contrast between the normal Silveria whose noble aura overpowered anyone, and this...

"AaannnnNnNnHhHH~~"

Silveria's sensitive body experienced another orgasm.

So she moaned in pleasure again.

*Squirt*

This was a hell of an orgasm.

Her walls tightened around Alex's cock, and the pleasure he was feeling spiked again, his little brother, which was already very sensitive because of how lovingly Silveria's walls sucked it, couldn't take it anymore and,

Alex didn't mind this smell as he was too familiar with it.

As for Silveria, well she was too tired, she didn't have the strength to do anything, much to react to the current situation.

"Hah... Haahh... Haa..."

Alex has been pounding her for the last 25 minutes without stopping.

In these 25 minutes, she climaxed 3 times.

And she wasn't even counting the minor orgasms yet.

Her body was pushed to the limit, it became so sensitive that even a small movement was enough to send a jolt of pleasure that numbed her brain for a moment.

Countless times, she wanted to close her legs, wishing that he would stop and let her rest for a while... however, she was entirely helpless simply because her legs were tied in a position where Alex could enter her whenever and how much ever he wanted and couldn't resist him at all.

It was as if she was just an object he could use to relieve himself.

She... once known as the Nemesis of magic in the universe deteriorated to a mere object.

And what's worse?

She couldn't hate it at all!

With her vision block, her body senses were even stronger, especially the sense of touch.

Alex's touch was like a drug to her body.

No matter how much she gets it, she craves it more and more.

And now she gave her entire body to Alex for him to do as he pleases.

It was as if her body would accept anything and everything Alex did to it.

Suddenly, something fell on Silveria's body and she was lost in thoughts.

She didn't have to think, the heat emanating from this 'something' was too familiar, it was Alex after all.

Yes, currently, he was lying on top of her.

His chest touching her breasts, Silveria could feel that his elbows were right beside her head, she could feel his breath, meaning his face was right in front of hers. Alex still hadn't moved his cock out of her vagina, and honestly, Silveria didn't hate this feeling.

However, currently, she was more anxious about what he was trying to do, this man's libido and imagination when it comes to stuff like this was endless, as if he was born as a Sex God.

"It was amazing, Sil."

Alex spoke in a gentle tone as he kissed Silveria's lips.

The kiss wasn't perverted, however, Silveria could feel Alex's growing love behind that kiss. She immediately remembered a quote about love she read somewhere. 'Love is sweet, yet more as fresh fruit than candy or confectionery. Love is colorful, yet more as summer blooms than the neon lights of frenetic city streets. Love is steady and forgiving, yet more as the wise mother than the servant in chains. Love hears and speaks with the wisdom of the heart, with a sense of the soul of the other. In love we have our "forever home" and it gives us the ability to fly so freely, joyfully returning when each heart calls for the other's touch.'

Without a doubt, Silveria seemed to have found her "forever home", this feeling she did not hate.

Meanwhile, unaware of what his girl was thinking about Alex opened his mouth.

"How about you' Sil? Did you enjoy it? I tried something new today, I prepared it, especially for you. You have been occupying my mind all this while, after all."

He spoke in a gentle tone.

"So? How was it?"

He reiterated his question.

Silveria turned silent.

Alex chuckled, with a cheeky grin on his face, he questioned,

"Do you not like it? You should have said that if that was the case... why were you silent all this while? I would have stopped if you told me to, you know?"

Wait a minute, let me untie you-"

Just as Alex was about to move,

"You... you don't have to..."

Silveria replied.

She was now thankful that her vision was taken away because currently, there was no way she could look into his eyes.

'This annoying bastard. I'll make sure to pay him back all this humiliation.'

She cursed inside her head.

'Not even allowing me to lie to myself... you fucking jerk...'

"I-I d-did not hate it..."

She stuttered.

"So you liked it?"

Alex questioned as the corner of his rose a little.

"I-I said I did not hate it, you bastard!"

Silveria retorted.

Alex chuckled and kissed Silveria again.

She didn't resist.

Rather, these small kisses.

They felt calming.

Silveria's heartbeat calmed down as well.

It was as if she achieved some sort of inner peace while being showered with Alex's kisses.

Once Alex was sure she had calmed down, he stopped and with an evil smile on his face,

"Do you want me to continue?"

"Eh? There's more?"

Silveria was surprised.

"Hehehehe! You don't have to answer me, the way your walls twitched already gave me an answer."

Alex chuckled.

"I-It's not like that."

Silveria tried to defend herself, however,

"So you want to end it here?" Alex wouldn't give in, he immediately fired a question at her.

"..."

Silveria didn't reply.

Alex's smile widened, and he finally moved his hips, taking his cock out of Silveria's cave, along with his dick, Silveria's and his juices came out as well.

"Tsk Tsk, would you look at this mess."

Alex commented as if this mess had nothing to do with him.

"We need to clean this up, don't we?"

As he said those words, a bucket of water appeared in his hand, and,

*Splash*

He splashed the water all over her body.

Silveria's entire body and the bed were soaked in water.

Of course, Alex wasn't done yet.

*Splash*

He poured another bucket of water on himself.

*Splash*

Then he splashed it on Silveria, then on himself, then on her again, and then himself and he continued for a while.

A few minutes later, the entire room was wet...

"Haahhh... Haahhh... Haahh..."

Silveria breathed heavily.

Lying on a wet bed with a wet body was uncomfortable.

Not to mention some of her hairs that were stuck on her face and since her limbs were tied, she couldn't move them away. Her blindfold was now stuck on her eyes and it was getting itchy near her ears.

That wasn't it, her body was sensitive after 3 continuous orgasms, so even the chill despite possessing a strong and perfect constitution.

That strange, tingling feeling started again.

Silveria twisted her body at different angles again, and just like before, nothing worked.

"You seem uncomfortable."

Suddenly, Alex, who was wiping his body leisurely glanced at her and commented.

Then after wiping his entire body, he walked toward Silveria's head and smiled playfully,

"Now then, shall I start wiping your body as well?"

Alex smiled playfully while walking towards Silveria.

Naturally, because of the blindfold she couldn't see, however, her ears were still working perfectly.

She knew that this man was standing right beside her, Alex didn't waste any time either, first, he fixed her hair, he then gently wiped her face with a loving smile on his face, and once he was done with that,

His smile turned perverted.

His hand quickly moved towards her shapely breast, with one hand, he groped it to his heart's content, playing with the erect nipple, enjoying the softness by kneading it continuously, and with the other hand, he started wiping it.

He was enjoying this process.

Silveria's breasts were firm even if they aren't big, Alex wished nothing more than to kiss that erect pink nipple... lick it with his tongue, suck on it as gently as he could, bite it... and more and more and more...

However, he had to hold himself back.

Not right now.

He had to wipe her entire body, after all.

He was a gentleman after all.

Alex smiled playfully while walking towards Silveria.

Naturally, because of the blindfold she couldn't see, however, her ears were still working perfectly.

She knew that this man was standing right beside her, Alex didn't waste any time either, first, he fixed her hair, he then gently wiped her face with a loving smile on his face, and once he was done with that,

His smile turned perverted.

His hand quickly moved towards her shapely breast, with one hand, he groped it to his heart's content, playing with the erect nipple, enjoying the softness by kneading it continuously, and with the other hand, he started wiping it.

He was enjoying this process.

Silveria's breasts were firm even if they aren't big, Alex wished nothing more than to kiss that erect pink nipple... lick it with his tongue, suck on it as gently as he could, bite it... and more and more and more...

However, he had to hold himself back.

Not right now.

He had to wipe her entire body, after all.

He was a gentleman after all. He continued with his task.

Alex took his time in 'wiping' Silveria's breast. Once he was done with the right one, he slowly moved to the left one.

His movements were gentle, it was as if Silveria was a gentle object that would break the moment he used more strength.

Alex quickly started playing with her other nipple.

Silveria's body was cold.

Whether it was due to ice or water, he didn't know, however, he was enjoying this.

Soon, he was finally done with the left breast as well, however, just as he was about to move, he paused.

Something shocking happened.

On the other side, while Alex was playing with her breasts, Silveria, whose eyes were closed, was trying her best to fight against that tingling feeling that was haunting her.

Alex playing with her breasts didn't help either.

Rather, it only added fuel to the fire since her mind started imagining how Alex would wipe her lower lips.

Soon, however, Silveria felt something warm near her face.

Right now, Alex was wiping her right breast, from his position, this warm thing should be that thing.

Silveria's expression changed because she quickly realized what this warm thing was.

For it to be so close to her face.

Silveria didn't know how to react at all and immediately the silver-haired beauty's face turned red.

Meanwhile, Alex continued to wipe her breasts, from his movements, it was clear that he didn't realize what was happening.

The more time passed, the more curious Silveria became. The curiosity about that thing had become unbearable especially when the heat emanating from it directly hit her face.

Different thoughts filled her mind.

This... this thing right in front of her.

She wanted to look at it but unfortunately, she could only feel its heat. She could have used her sharp sense to see it even without opening her eyes but it wouldn't have been fun and more importantly Alex forbade her from using it.

And for some reason, this heat attracted her.

This thing was responsible for everything happening to her body...

Now that it was right in front of her. Silveria was having a hard time holding herself back.

In the end, curiosity got the best of her, and Silveria finally decided to do something she never thought she would do.

She opened her mouth with her tongue moved out of her mouth she extended it and then.

She licked Alex's balls.

"!!!"

Immediately Alex's expression changed.

Even in their intense sessions since yesterday, he didn't ask Silveria to give him a blowjob, for some reason, he felt that she wouldn't like it.

But now when Silveria was the one who initiated it, it was truly unexpected and unexpected as it may be Alex still Alex.

All he did was bend his knees a little, moving his balls closer to Silveria's tongue.

He was as shameless as ever.

No way he would ever give up on something like this.

A jolt of pleasure assaulted his body as Silveria started licking his balls continuously.

Alex's little brother trembled in joy.

He stopped playing with Silveria's breasts, all his attention was grabbed by her tongue.

Soon, he started moving his dick. More and more jolts of pleasure assaulted his body and his legs started getting weak.

In the end, he failed to control himself, he stood up and placed his dick right on top of her face with the head right in front of her mouth.

Silveria's face turned a shade redder.

She understood what this perverted bastard wanted.

The strong scent of his dick assaulted her nose, her body started moving on its own and her mouth opened up.

After a moment of hesitation, Silveria lifted her head and after kissing the head, she gobbled it up.

"Ugh!"

Alex groaned in pleasure.

Hearing that groan, Silveria's expression changed as well.

She quickly realized that Alex was abnormally sensitive for some reason, not wanting to lose this chance, she started moving, however, with her limbs tied up, her movements were limited.

Alex understood it as well, therefore, he quickly grabbed Silveria's head and then, she started moving his hips.

"Ugghhhh~"

Silveria's mouth was warm and unbearably pleasurable.

She wanted to make sure Alex moans as much as she did and did everything in her power to make it possible,

Using her tongue, curling it around his cock, sucking it more intensely as Alex moved deeper in her mouth, no one could tell that it was her first time doing something like that.

The pleasure Alex was feeling was so good that he was having a hard time standing up.

Within just 5 minutes, his dick started twitching, and then,

"Uggghhhhhhhhh!!!"

He filled Silveria's mouth with his hot white cum.

"!!!"

Silveria's eyes under the blindfold widened in surprise.

Her first reaction was to spit this thing out of her mouth, however, just when she was about to do it, she paused, and then,

*Gulp*

She forced herself to gulp it down for some unknown reason, she felt like it was the most normal thing to do.

Alex did not miss that.

A smile appeared on his face, then,

He untied Silveria and removed her blindfold.

"Huh?"

She frowned unable to comprehend his intentions.

"Plans changed."

Alex muttered.

Silveria tilted her head in confusion.

Alex, however, didn't say anything, he jumped on top of her, forcefully grabbed her hands, and placed them above her head,

"I don't need ropes now."

As he said those words, A wave of water formed above the bed, and then splashed on them.

"I need more~"

Saying that, Alex entered Silveria's holy cave again and,

"AAaAnnnNnnHhhhhh~~"

She moaned again.

The two wet bodies rolled over the top of each other on the top of the wet bed, creating a scene so steamy that was so alluring that even the impotent would feel an itch.

The two of them were then lost in their world, a world full of love and pleasure and,

A long morning followed where they went wild, satisfying their wildest desires. Their bodies as well as their tongues, clashed several creating a beautiful chorus that could make even a Saint have a weird thought.

•••••

Five hours later, the couple had stopped and was now dressed.

Alex was explaining to Silveria what he went through.

She also felt the change inside her body, she seemed to have evolved. She had become more powerful, and full of energy, she even entertained the idea that with her current strength, she might not lose against her big sister.

"Show me your current status." Silveria requested and Alex immediately displayed his status window.

Alex was smiling, extremely happy because his Spiritual Force (SE) had increased exponentially.

"Your mother told me to tell you both she was sorry and love you all." Alex conveyed the last words left behind by his mother-in-law.

Nyx appeared and happened to have heard those words, while her expression was still the same expressionless she could feel she was greatly shaken.

Meanwhile, Silveria simply lowered her head without uttering a single word.

After what seemed to have been an eternity Silveria finally opened her mouth, she sat with her eyes looking into the horizon as she mumbled.

"She was the best mother I ever saw, always meeting the emotional needs of her child before speaking about the situation with logic, confirming their emotional reality before seeking to expand their perspective to the needs and views of others. She was a reliable and safe place for them to anchor their hearts, and to feel that their souls were nurtured and valued. She was the strongest and softest person I ever met, one who realized that true power is lifting others. That's love though, eh? The power of love. Rather than suppressing and controlling it's elevating and educating. She might have thought she was a bad mother for not protecting us, forcing this fate upon us both my sister and I know she did her best, but it couldn't be helped. She was a good mother there was no doubt about it. I love her and we forever will."

"Me too!" Nyx said taking her sister's hands as if to console her. Alex simply stood there not disturbing them. This was their moment, he could only observe silently while secretly vowing to protect these girls who suffered untold hardships. Someday in the future, he would listen to their story but for now, he would do everything in his power to protect them, to make them enjoy life, to slowly heal their past injuries thus opening themselves to him and the other family members.

A moment later the girls were back on their feet with Silveria coughing to hide her embarrassment.

"Cough! Let's start I want to see the first sin you'll unlock."

Nyx nodded, curious as well. Alex nodded in turn and suddenly emptied his head, something inside broke and he felt a certain connection toward the unknown, he had a certain desire at the moment, and as if answering this desire it happened.

More than half of his Spiritual Force was consumed.

Bang!

There was an explosion inside both their minds and the first sin was unlocked. The Sin of Greed has been unlocked.

The Heaven Soaring Shuttle greeted the world for the first time and the moment it did Alex instantly understood what he gained. If this was a superpower setting then Alex have unlocked the telekinesis power, the power to control things at will and from a distance. A pretty useful ability that can be used to do unlimited things.

Nyx nodded upon seeing the Heaven Soaring Shuttle. She decided to go back and do some research while letting the couple test on this sin.

『Let's do some testing master.』 Silveria sent her voice into Alex's head. She was truly excited.

"Hmm!" Alex nodded. This Sin was exactly what he needed at the moment.

•••••

During the night.

In the forest around 20 km away from Alex's previous location, the night wind blew and a black flowing light pierced the sky.

"Feels good"

Alex was in midair and was standing on a shuttle-shaped object. It was a silverish earth color and stripe-shaped with two pointed ends. The middle was slightly wider and thicker. Its length was 85 cm and its two pointed edges were extremely sharp. The wide center was 30 cm wide. The entire object was a bit thin and had very densely packed markings all over it.

Whoosh!

Whoosh~

While he rapidly flew, the horrifying currents in the air went along the packed markings, forming streams of air. The streams of air formed by the countless markings oddly merged. They went along Alex's body, forming a 'streamlined shield' visible to the naked eye. This was a shield completely made out of air.

Normally when flying, the faster you go, the more air resistance you encounter.

But the Heaven Soaring Shuttle that Alex is riding on creates currents of air that form a perfectly streamlined shield, causing the resistance to lower to a startling point.

Whoosh!

Like a flash of black lightning, he flew above the forest with no worries at all. No flying monster bothered him.

A few minutes later, Alex stopped flying and started mumbling.

"According to the results of my tests just now"

"My maximum sprinting speed is around 750 m/s"

"If I don't use any spiritual force and only rely on my two legs, I can sprint at 570 m/s"

"And if I fly on my own using my mana, my speed is around 800m/s even with my current realm."

"If I fly on the Heaven Soaring Shuttle, my speed reaches an astonishing 1,500 m/s"

『It is pretty much exactly at you said.』 Silveria who also did her calculation confirmed.

"That is great. The reason why not many like to fly in the sky after reaching the Grandmaster's Realm is simply because flying all time can be exhausting, not only for your one's stamina, one's mana will quickly decrease and for those with a small mana pool they don't like to fly but will rather rely on a movement skill, this is low-cost inducing and more powerful. As for moving through space, it is more mana costly. With this Sin I can move around faster and more efficiently, more importantly, it is cooler moving this way." Alex flashed a smile at the end of his sentence prompting Silveria in the Heaven Soaring Shuttle form to roll her eyes at her master and man.

After arriving at this conclusion and messing around for a while, Alex did another few tests before finally stopping, having achieved his first goal, finally, it was time for the second one.

"Now to test its attack power"

He descended and then landed on the ground. The flying shuttle hovered in front of him. With a thought,

Whoosh!

Six blades of shards detached themselves from the Heaven Soaring Shuttle. Each of these blade shards was curved and extremely thin.

"According to Silveria, each of these blade shards is quite powerful is extremely suitable for me to use. Oh yeah, she also said that the entire soaring shuttle can disassemble with a thought."

Immediately Alex tried doing so. Suddenly there was a whooshing sound...

Whoosh!

And the Heaven Soaring Shuttle instantly spread out into pieces.

The densely packed thin and small blade pieces hovered in midair.

365 blade pieces in total.

The entire soaring shuttle seemed to have been made of them.

As if the current sin, the Sin of Greed's Heaven Soaring Shuttle was forged via special means using these 365 blade pieces.

This is surely going to be fun.
