Chapter 1465: In the Illusionary Battlefield*

ooo

"Tch! I understood it was my loss. What is your order?" Ego asked while glaring at Alex, the latter shrugged his shoulders before announcing.

"Go back I will tell you later."

Ego almost exploded with rage as he felt like he was getting played like a fool by Alex. He could only swallow his rage and bid his time, he couldn't ask recklessly.

With a puff, he disappeared leaving Alex to click his tongue in annoyance.

"Tch! Pretty enduring aren't we? Let's see how much you can endure before imploding, showing your true colors and I shall get rid of you." manhua

Alex was not afraid of Ego imploding but he was more scared of him enduring, not falling for his tricks, someone like that would be difficult to deal with. Well, he had a lot of plans to make him show his true colors but not now he must stop his training and continue onward, he must close the Infinity Maze's chapter to go see his loved ones which he missed dearly.

"Let's go!"

"Or not, Silveria come out and let's have some fun." Alex changed his decision to leave as he got an idea at the last minute. It would be a waste not to enjoy a date in this beautiful world.

Silveria reluctantly appeared, she seemed to have foreseen this outcome and did not try changing her man's decision.

It was how they ended up enjoying a date in the Illusionary Battlefield, a world she had created to train her future master. It was fun nonetheless, Silveria understood that no matter where she was, it would be fun as long as she was with the one she loved. Like the saying goes when you are in love everything will appear colorful to you. Silveria couldn't deny this.

One thing led to another and of course, the date ended up physical.

Somewhere in the Illusionary Battlefield, in a room.

Alex gasped sharply when the sensation of Silveria's hot mouth wrapped around his testicles and sent jolts of pleasure throughout his entire body. Her wet tongue traced a circle around them, eliciting grunts that came from him every time she touched that area. She gave his scrotum a quick lick and then ran her tongue along its length. It tickled and teased him, making Alex twitch slightly and letting out a deep groan.

Silveria must've noticed Alex's growing arousal and was getting impatient. So she sucked on his sack balls again, but this time with slightly less suction. Then she moved both hands onto Alex's thighs and pushed them apart while still keeping her eyes locked onto his like a prey before her prey.

The view was exquisite, Alex couldn't take his eyes off of it, watching how she sucked his cock with her mouth. He felt his manhood throb and grow inside her mouth, begging to be released.

Alex decided to not stay idle and he reached down and began massaging the flesh of her breast. Silveria didn't seem to mind, she liked it when Alex played with her nipples in such a manner.

"Please... Alex..." She moaned. Her pleading eyes worked as Alex's hips started bucking and he pulled back slightly so that the tip of his cock wasn't completely enveloped by Silveria's hot mouth. And once more, she used the hand on his thigh to pull him forward slightly, giving Alex some much-needed relief from her incredible blowjob skills. Her blowjob skill seemed to have incredibly increased almost making her look like a professional. Women can be fast learners when it comes to sexual matters Alex thought but didn't have the time to dwell on the matter.

Suddenly, his legs buckled almost instantly, they had been tensed up so tight. So Silveria quickly slid between them and lay beside him before climbing on top. She wrapped herself around Alex's body while looking straight into his eyes.

Her face was flushed red from pleasure and desire and he knew that it would take just a little bit longer than usual before they were done here. Alex also realized that there was no rush or need to finish things up fast.

Silveria moaned as she felt the head of his dick enter her.

Alex placed both of his hands under her shoulders to steady her as he began to push in and out. At first, she let out soft cries as her insides stretched to accommodate the size of his erection. But then he began picking up speed and it became harder for her to keep pace with him. With each thrust, Alex's cock forced its way deeper into her cunt until finally, it was all the way inside. It was warm and wet and slippery inside, and Alex could feel his balls bumping against her ass.

"Aannnhhh... Yes--- It's so good..." Silveria looked at him nervously, her eyes filled with a mixture of lust and anxiety.

"Do you want more?" Alex asked playfully.

Her expression told him that she did, but she was too nervous about asking it.

Alex stopped moving and kissed her lips passionately. He held his tongue firmly between her lips and she couldn't help but moan into between the kiss. Then, when he pulled back, he did not immediately put pressure back into making love with her. Instead, Alex reached down with one hand while still keeping the other wrapped around Silveria's delicate white neck. Then he slowly brought his hand up while massaging the outside of her breasts as gently as he could, with much care like how a mother gently takes care of her newborn.

The momentary pause in activity made Silveria shake slightly. The touch of Alex's fingers, his dexterous fingers with the fast fingers title made her tits bounce in rhythm with her heartbeat. She began grinding herself against Alex in an attempt to get him to resume what they were doing.

But all it got me was a wicked grin. He wouldn't give in so easily.

She started making small whimpering noises as she rubbed herself against Alex's erection and he felt like he was the Pleasure God sending these pleasuring sensations straight to her brain.

Alex took hold of both of her wrists and pushed them above her head, forcing the rest of her body down onto his completely. Now there wasn't even any movement between them, which only added to how incredible this felt for both of them.

Then Alex began kissing along her collarbone as his other hand ran across her stomach and eventually rested over her lower belly button. As soon as it landed, Silveria let out a long moan and arched her back a bit so that more skin was exposed. Her mouth opened wide and a string of drool connected from it all the way to Alex's chest.

As Alex's cock reached its peak, he decided to give her the ultimate pleasure. He flipped their position and spread her legs. Then Alex rubbed his twitching cock in front of her entrance and pushed just the tip between her slippery folds. With his hands still gripping her waist, Alex started moving it in and out of her. It didn't take much effort before he was able to push his entire length into her. He kept thrusting into Silveria's hot snatch as fast as possible while kissing along her jawline and down her neck.

The sensation was exquisite and as Silveria continued to moan with every thrust, she pulled her head back far enough to stare deep into Alex's heterochromia eyes with a lusty expression on her face.

"Alexander..." She mumbled breathlessly with a mix of fear and desire.

"You're going to make me cum..."

Her words sent shivers through Alex's body, making his cock twitch inside her tight pussy. He moved faster, wanting this moment to last forever, but not knowing how long he would be allowed to do so. He could tell that she wanted more from this session than he originally thought, almost as if she'd been looking forward to this. And when she felt that familiar wave coming, she bit her lower lip in an attempt to stifle the sound that threatened to escape from her mouth. But she couldn't hold it in any longer, it slipped past her lips and escaped like a high-pitched whimper.

"Ohhhhhh!"

Her arms flailed about helplessly before they went limp. As for Alex? Well, Alex's grip had tightened around her shoulders so tightly that it looked like his hands were going to leave bruises if he wasn't careful.

lightsNovel From Silveria's orgasm took over and his own came soon after. Alex threw his head back and moaned into their kiss as he filled Silveria's cunt with his hot semen. He didn't pull out, instead letting Alex member stay buried deep within her until the end.

They both stayed like this as if to enjoy the afterglow of their union.

Outside the moonlight illuminated the world as if blessing the couple's union. It was breathtakingly beautiful. The couple stayed like this a little longer before going to take a bath.

It was a time to go back but real this time.
