Chapter 461: The Unusual Dungeon 1

While Alex was speeding toward the dungeon, Lilith and Sakuya, who had sneaked into the dungeon, soon found themselves facing an unusual situation.

"What is this?" Sakuya frowned and looked around her; it was not the green scenery that made her say this but the feeling she got after appearing in this forest. She felt restrained as if something had been removed from her body; her body became unusual. She immediately checked her status but found nothing unusual thus, she frowned.

Lilith was also frowning; unlike Sakuya, she had understood the situation; the dungeon didn't reject them but instead restricted their strength. Their Rank might have stayed the same, but Lilith was sure that she could not exhibit her true strength because of this restriction. To test this theory, Lilith decided to do a test, and coincidentally a monster happened to come out at that moment.

Sakuya was the first to move, she arrived before the Orc and slashed at its head then something unusual happened, usually considering the monster strength and Sakuya strength, a difference of 5 Rank, Sakuya should have killed it; however, the Orc blocked Sakuya's sword, this shocked her and made her stop for an instant, and in a fight, an instant of hesitation could be fatal.

"Buih!"

The Orc emitted a war cry and tried to punch Sakuya in the stomach with its free arm; it was then Lilith's lightning came and clashed against the Orc's arm; due to the reduced strength, it did small damage, only slightly charring the monster's arm; however, it was more than enough for Sakuya who had momentarily lost focus to quickly regain it and moved, she reversed the grip of her Katana and thrust the sharp edge at the monster's neck where there was less muscle, she powered it with the Wind element turning the blade sharper, even though her strength hasn't been considerably restricted, this combo wasn't something the Orc could stop not when it was aimed at its weak point.

Sakuya's katana pierced through the monster's neck, blood spurted from the neck and tried to land on Sakuya; however, she had already moved out of the way, leaving the Orc fall to the ground with wide eyes and a large hole in its neck as if something had drilled through it.

"Seriously, what with this dungeon? It's only the first floor, and Orc already appeared, a Rank 5 to boot. The strangest thing is that my strength is restricted. You must know something, dear Lilly." Sakuya said and glared at her companion, who sighed and decided to tell her about the particularity of this dungeon.

"From what I heard, this dungeon can select who will enter it, and it can also restrain their strength, Rank 10 can't enter, do not ask why we were able to enter it, Sebastian had said that if it's me I can do and my companion would be able to enter it easily. When I asked him the reason for this, he simply smiled and said nothing." Lilith explained while looking dejected, talking about Sebastian must have awoken some unwanted memories. Sebastian was no more, remembering this must have deeply hurt her.

Knowing what she was thinking, Sakuya approached her friend and put her hand over her shoulder, and said, "Don't worry, he believes in you don't let him done. We are here to make sure of it."

Lilith smiled after hearing Sakuya's words, somehow she felt refreshed as if instead of losing something, she had gained something instead, new family members, this made her happy, Alex must have accepted her request because he was trying to use her, but she had the feeling that when you look past their business like a partnership, love was involved, it was not a love between man and woman but family love, she knew she could count on him if there was a problem and this made her happy. She must cherish this feeling; this bond mustn't be broken, she thought.

"If I'm not wrong, my strength has been reduced to Rank 7 or worst Rank 6, it would be hard to advance as we don't know how many floors there are." Sakuya said while inwardly sighing, thinking, 'If only our goddess remembered how many floors there are.'

It was because Alex shared some information with her, information about Lilith's identity and what they came to do here. For Lilith, she just wanted to deal serious damage to her brother because there was something he wanted here but was she didn't know was that this thing was something her previous self had sealed here, be recuperating it, she would be whole again, her current self isn't complete. Even her butler seemed to be aware of her identity; if not, he couldn't have suggested that she must acquire what was in the depth of this dungeon. Thinking about it, that Sebastian guy must have a deep background and an unusual identity for him to know Lilith's real identity and do everything he could for her to inherent back her power.

"Let's go," Sakuya said to the absentminded Lilith; the latter shook her head and followed Sakuya. If Sakuya's analysis wasn't wrong, then it meant that Sakuya's current Rank was 6 while Lilith would be Rank 7.

The two girls progressed forward; they advanced into the green forest before them and soon encountered another monster; however, this time, it was not an Orc but an Ogre, a Rank 7 Ogre.

Green light covered Sakuya's katana as she aimed at the monster's neck. Unfortunately, the Ogre was agile and dodged the blow. However, the Ogre was shocked that instead of being surprised, Sakuya smiled; it was then the Ogre remembered that the girl wasn't alone and wanted to escape. Still, it was already too late; lightning chains wrapped around its body before two dark beams robbed its sight, making the Ogre blind.

Even before the monster could scream, its head had been removed from its shoulders and danced in the sky as blood splashed the ground green ground red.. After killing the Ogre, the girls went deeper into the forest in search of the exit for the next level.

Chapter 462 - 449: The Unusual Dungeon 2; Time Decay

At the same time that the girls were searching for the exit for the next floor, Alex arrived at the location where the entrance of the dungeon was, and like the girls, before him, he used the Vanishing Bullet to conceal his presence before calmly walking toward the dungeon; however, just as he was about to pass the twelve guards something unusual happened, a red light was emitted and tried to cover Alex's body.

"Intruder!" Roared the twelve guards as they unsheathed their swords and looked around them; they received this device fifteen minutes ago; it was said that it could detect anything nearby even though this thing used high-level concealment. It was because of this thing that Alex's presence got revealed; even though they couldn't locate his exact location, the guards knew that there was someone there; thus, they unleashed all their attacks at one point, and strangely Alex happened to be there.

Alex sighed before using Time Stop on the men before simply walking away. By the time he left, the combined attacks of twelve men had crashed where he was, leaving a deep crater there. Unfortunately, the guards didn't see anything inside this crater; they concluded that the detection stone might have malfunctioned.

On the other hand, Alex, who successfully passed through the guards, arrived in a forest-like Lilith and Sakuya; however, unlike them, this forest was composed uniquely of dead trees, immediately following his arrival, the same restrictions was put on him, and a horde of monsters appeared and launched attacks on him.

Twelve Orcs attacked Alex from all sides, although his strength was reduced, Alex was able to dodge their attacks and counterattacked perfectly, blood splattered the ground as heads flew, the twelve Rank 5 Orcs couldn't last ten minutes against Alex as he harvested their lives as if he was the Grim Reaper.

Alex frowned after checking his status; somehow, he didn't gain anything after killing twelve Rank 5 Orcs.

Except for his two new techniques, Drifter and Time Decay, and an increase in Defense stat, Alex didn't gain anything; the increase in defense must have been due to his body strengthening.

The description of his new Special ability was the following.

{Time Decay: Special bullet that could accelerate the target age, making the target older. The more mana spent more damage would be dealt.

Basic Mana consumption: 500.}

"I see; no wonder my clone and I were almost disappeared after this bullet touched him. This a good bullet, with this I have gained another trump card." Alex mumbled, and Silveria, who was reading the description about Time Decay for the time, was surprised; not even her previous owner thought about something like this; therefore, she couldn't help but become curious as to how Alex came up with this ridiculous ability if Nyx was present she would have been shocked as well.

【Master, how did you manage to create this bullet?】 The curious Silveria asked this; Alex stopped and chuckled before answering.

"It's just come to me like that, to tell you the truth, my goal, in the beginning, wasn't that. First, it thought, what would happen if I combined Time Acceleration and Time Stop in one point? My real aim was that I wanted to create a bullet capable of stopping the flow of Mana or increase the amount of Mana inside my enemy body, making it explode, but the result was beyond my expectation; I never thought that something this ridiculous would be created instead of what I wished to create, I'm happy that I've created this dreadful ability."

【I see. It's a great ability I can't wait to see the damage it would do once inside your enemy.】 Silveria declared, and Alex smiled, he wanted to say that the opportunity to test his new ability had come sooner than anticipated, but he decided not to, as it was better to show her than saying it.

Alex dodged the huge ax flying toward him by leaning back; soon, he heard the roar of a monster running toward him.

"Roarrrr!"

This roar shook the dead trees; some weaker trees fell. At the same time, a huge monster jumped toward Alex and aimed his hand forward, somehow that ax that passed above Alex's head appeared inside the huge Ogre's hand, and he swung toward Alex, who was leaning towards the ground; Alex smiled before using Time Stop on the giant Ogre making him freeze while he followed with another attack, the silver gun was aimed at the Ogre who had its time stopped, and gray light burst out of the gun's muzzle, a gray bullet tore through the air and collided against the Ogre's head, knocking it back before Time resumed for the monster, unfortunately before the monster could enjoy it, misfortune struck.

The gray bullet that pierced through the monster's head started working; gray light covered the Ogre's head for a brief moment before, under Alex's astonished eyes, the Ogre's head turned into a skull along with its neck. The mighty Rank 8 Ogre died like that with its head and neck turned into bone as if it had aged hundred years. Alex gulped when he saw this before he started laughing.

"This is good than I have expected. Hehehe! I can't wait and test it on human's opponent to see the result." He said and looked at the fallen Ogre; Silveria stayed silent; she was shocked by the strength of Time Decay. With this ability and Alex's unknown ability, she believes that he could create a miracle, do something his predecessor couldn't do; thinking about such a possibility brought a smile to her face.. She wanted to be present when the legend was made.

Chapter 463 - 450: The Rematch 1

Meanwhile, while Alex and the girls were facing different situations in another location, another Incursio cursed as she cut down another monster.

Piled up in front of her were monsters' corpses; it wasn't one type of monster; instead, there were different types, Black Goblin, Orc, Lizardmen, and Ogre. All those dead monsters had one thing in common, their necks twisted into an unnatural angle, their heart crushed; it was ruthless; however, Incursio didn't care kept cursing.

"Shit! What with this dungeon? My strength is reduced apart from the bracelet sealing some of it. And to make matters worse, I'm separated from those bugs; they can't do well without me. Tch! And monsters keep attacking me nonstop; it's annoying." Incursio spat and calmly dodged another monster attack, this time it was Wind wolf; the Rank 7 wolf froze in the air, not understanding what was happening; before the Wind wolf could ponder why its body defied gravity, Incursio approached and put one of her fingers on its head and,

Boom!

The Wind wolf's head exploded; strangely, the brain's matter and blood didn't touch Incursio's body.

"Hah! I hope they are doing well." Incursio said as she glared at the incoming pack, the Wind wolves pack, twelve Wind wolves with glowed red eyes; they couldn't wait to tear apart this human girl.

As if she could read what they were thinking through their eyes, Incursio couldn't help but feel a little amused as the corners of her mouth perked up. She would have a bit of fun before joining the others.

At the same time, Sakuya and Lilith continued to search for the exit for the next floor; they walked deeper into the forest, encountered monster after monster; it was not easy, but they killed them without wasting too much energy.

Suddenly, Lilith stopped and glared in a certain direction, her killing intent soared, and Sakuya, who was walking beside her, noticed this.

"What's g-" Sakuya stopped as she understood why Lilith behaved like this; coming from the other side were two individuals; one wore a white mask with a creepy looking eye on it while the other wore a simple robe with the same eye on it.

For an unknown reason, Sakuya had a strange feeling when she saw the man with a mask, it was as if she knew him somewhere, but because of the mask hiding his face, it's hard to tell.

Lilith must know the man for her to react like this could mean the two have fought once.

"Princess, how are you since our last meeting?" The man with the white mask asked; he was first to open his mouth; his voice was strange, almost as he didn't wish for the other party to know his identity. Sakuya chuckled, finding the situation interesting; the man with a crooked back was completely ignored as he had never existed.

"I'm fine, Leonardo," Lilith responded with a smile; however, her killing intent didn't diminish in the slightest.

Sakuya was so shocked that her body stopped for a moment. It was understandable; she never knew that Leonardo had joined the dark side; she thought that maybe he went off somewhere to train and challenge Alex later, not that he would do something so ridiculous.

"Sigh! As I thought you did it." Leonardo said with a resigned voice; he removed his mask, letting Sakuya see his face; she only chuckled.

"How have you been?" Leonardo asked and finally looked at Sakuya for the first time since his arrival.

Sakuya shrugged her shoulders to say I'm fine. Leonardo wasn't shocked by this reaction as it was how Sakuya interacted with him; just as he wanted to say something, the figure of Lilith standing thirty meters blurred, and she arrived before him, she slashed at him.

"Sigh! You're too hasty." Leonardo said while calmly blocking the sword slash.

Kiin!

Sparks flew as the two moved around and clashed nonstop. At the same time, Third and Sakuya stared at each other before moving.

[Iai Giri!!!]

Sakuya didn't hold back and sent dozen of attacks at Third, who was coming toward her, and as she expected, Third was able to deal with her Iai Slash easily; however, Sakuya was prepared she unleashed her second attack.

[Wind Tornado]

Because her strength was reduced, the original Wind tornado couldn't exhibit its true strength; nevertheless, it was still dangerous as it destroyed trees and closed in; facing the incoming Wind tornado, Third stopped; his fists glowed before he emitted a cry.

"Hahhh!"

And punched the wind tornado, then something astonishing happened, the tornado was scattered.

Third felt a presence behind his back, and before he could turn around, Sakuya's voice reached his ears.

[Thirteen Patterns]

She moved her katana at incredible speed thirteen Gale slashes were sent; they covered Third's back instantly. Sakuya was sure that this attack would work. Unfortunately, she had miscalculated, Third had anticipated this, and like a mirage, he vanished; the area darkened as if night had arrived. Sakuya felt a creeping feeling assaulting her; she immediately closed her eyes, but it was already too late, her head shook, and she stood frozen on the spot. Third's special ability was a mental type. He would trick his opponent until ready to assault them mentally before finishing them when caught inside his little illusion.

At the moment Sakuya appeared in a traditional Japanese building, she knew this building pretty, with a shaking hand, she slid the door open and entered, a familiar scene greeted her sight, a man sat on a couch with his back facing her, the numerous scars and the Yakuza tattoo was a statement of the man's identity.

As if he noticed her arrival without turning around, the man said.

"Mio, you came back!"

Sakuya froze, and tears started falling; she knew pretty well that this was a dream and yet hearing this voice, seeing this back brought back too many emotions; some deeply buried emotions resurfaced.

'Even though it's just an illusion, please let me feel it, at least for a while.' Sakuya mumbled as she took a step forward and kneeled.

"I'm back, Father.." She said.

Chapter 464 - 451: The Rematch 2

While Sakuya was lost inside an illusion, Third slowly approached her and readied his weapon; it was a great sword; he aimed the tip at Sakuya's back like a spear. He slowly approached her; meanwhile, Lilith and Leonardo could be seen clashing while moving around.

Clangs! Clangs! Clangs!

Every time their sword clashed, it would create shriek sounds and send sparks flying into the air.

"Aren't you worried about your friend, princess?" Leonardo decided to tease Lilith; however, the latter didn't respond, this annoyed him, and he continued.

"From what I have heard nobody succeed in coming out after getting trapped in Third Hell's Nightmare, you should think about how to-"

"You talk too much." Lilith stopped Leonardo and said.

Leonardo became furious, black lightning appeared around his sword, and he slashed at Lilit; the sword's speed increased to an astonishing level.

Clangs!

Although Lilith managed to stop the sword, she was pushed back, and she received a light cut on her shoulder; the arm holding the sword became numb. Her eyes turned cold; she sent a quick glance in Sakuya's direction to check her situation; she was still frozen and showed no sign of waking up as Third had almost gotten closer to her; using an unknown method, Lilith became relieved as she understood that Sakuya would not lose. Hence, she decided to focus on her fight.

Lilith's movement didn't escape Leonardo's eyes; he chuckled; he was curious about what happened for the demon's princess to change so much and began to care for others. However, from her eyes, he knew he would never get the answer. He decided to pay her back that humiliation he suffered that day in that dungeon.

Sii! Sii!

Black lightning descended from the sky and surrounded Leonardo and formed some sort of armor around his body; his speed increased drastically. He disappeared to reappear behind Lilith, who showed no sign of moving. His sword moved at such speed that it was impossible to follow; however, just as the sword was about to arrive before Lilith's neck, it was stopped by a black scythe.

Leonardo was not surprised as he thought something like this might happen; therefore, he unleashed his real attack.

[Lightning Nova]

Leonardo's sword exploded in a lightning boom like a small supernova. The explosion engulfed Lilith and sent her flying. Leonardo didn't follow; he coldly stared at the flying Lilith and was about to open his mouth to activate his strongest technique gained after joining The Chaos's Eye (Purgatory); when Lilith who should be injured, spun around and smiled at him, instantly he knew he had screwed up.

"Shi-"

Lilith's following words stopped even his curse.

[Eternal Nightmare]

It was Leonardo's turn to be frozen like Sakuya; he appeared in a world he knew well, a world where the only people everybody talked about was Alexander.

"Ugh!"

Leonardo crouched down and held his head as a throbbing headache assaulted him; the scene changed to another one; in this one, Leonardo was inside a cell, and Alex arrogantly looked down on him; he cut off his arm and whispered, something into his ears.

"Ughgggggh!" The headache increased, and Leonardo started bashing his head against the ground. The scene changed again, into a distant future where Alex was the Sovereign and Leonardo just a lowly slave.

"Nooooooo! Ugh!" Leonardo bellowed and rolled on the ground, trying to stop the nightmare. Unfortunately, it didn't end, and soon outside, his real body started coughing blood.

Lilith safely landed before disappearing again; she thought she would give Sakuya some assistance before coming back to finish Leonardo as she knew he couldn't escape Eternal Nightmare so easily. However, just before she could reach her, the situation on the other side changed.

Sakuya, who hadn't moved for a moment, finally moved, she spun around faster than lightning, she was smiling, Third was shocked still he put strength into his arm and thrust his sword forward at such speed that normally it should have been impossible for Sakuya to react and yet she reacted, she moved one arm, only her right arm was caught the great sword tip between her finger. It was a godly move any Japanese swordsman would like to use, but it was a pretty impossible feat to realize, yet Sakuya easily accomplished this.

"What?" Third was so shocked that he blurted out, he knew how fast his sword was, to be able to easily catch it with only two fingers was something he doubted even Incursio or Zero could do, he shocked to the core, even more by Sakuya's following words.

"Thank you for letting me see my real father once again."

She summoned her katana with her free hand and swung.

[Yami Maho Jigen Giri]

Third's eyes widened, goosebumps rose all over his body, he knew he would die or worse be gravely injured if this sword reached him, therefore, he tried to cancel his Gift and jump back, however, somehow he couldn't move, this surprised him.

Lilith who was watching the fight knew why Third couldn't escape; from Sakuya's fingers which held the sword, small dark tentacles like a hand came out and wrapped around the sword; it must have been because of them that Third found it impossible to withdraw.

The world surrounding Third turned white, and a black light descended; this black light cut the white world in two and arrived before Third and,

Boom!

At the last moment an explosion occurred, Sakuya pursed her lips together, she was disappointed that even in the end, he still managed to get away. However, one of his arms was left behind and a large puddle of blood.

"Nex-"

Sakuya couldn't finish her words before falling headfirst on the ground, she was exhausted, mentally, and her mana was depleted.

Lilith sighed before appearing behind Leonardo, who by now was bleeding from his seven orifices.

"If it weren't for the fact that you still have some use, I would have killed you."

Lilith muttered as she recalled one of the memories she saw before leaving the Eternal Nightmare's world, a memory about the meeting between Leonardo and Alex.

Just as Lilith was about to cancel the Eternal Nightmare, an inhuman howl escaped from Leonardo's mouth.

"Growl!!!!"

Black light engulfed Leonardo's body and,

BOOM

An extremely eerie presence surged from his body outward like an explosive tempest and smashed Lilith's chest. Cracks appeared on the armor she wore, and she was sent flying dozen of meters back.

"Growl! I- Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh, I won't lose.!"

Leonardo, who was transforming into something Lilith couldn't quite describe bellowed, Lilith became scared by the eerie presence coming from Leonardo's body; suddenly, a shadow flashed next to him and gave him a chop in the head before taking him and disappeared, the only thing that was left after they departed was ground covered blood.

Lilith sighed and sat down to recuperate.

Chapter 465 - 452: The Rematch 3

In another location inside the Demon's Goddess Dungeon, two silhouettes appeared before one of them fell on the ground producing a thud sound. This person rolled on the ground and finally stopped on his back; his figure was bloody, his lips cracked, and blood flowed out. Even though the man was in an extremely sorry state, the unwillingness to accept what just happened couldn't be hidden, and this annoyed the second man who had crouched down, one of his arms was missing, it was gone from the elbow, the man showed no emotion as he cauterizes the wound with flame magic.

"I wonder if you are an idiot. That power isn't something a newcomer like you can control, and yet you try to activate. I thought you were smart, but I guess I was wrong. There's no shame in running away when the situation is not favorable. Before using this strength before make sure your compatibility rate has increased, and it will come after you complete a certain number of missions."

Third's warning made Leonardo gloomy; he couldn't speak at the moment, or else he would refute him, saying it doesn't matter, he must use that power to win. Third shook his head and gave up on him as he knew nothing he would say would make this man listen to his words. All that was left to do was to let him experience how dreadful that power he didn't yet have the grasp of was.

For now, he must recuperate before trying to figure how to regroup with Incursio. Third, didn't want to think about why and how Sakuya was unaffected by his mental skill; he must complete this mission to increase his synchronization rate to get stronger. Third shuddered when he recalled what happened to the former Third when she activated the Chaos's God blessing with fully grasping it, the result was horrible, her body deformed, she turned into a monster that tried to destroy everything, few members of the organization which happened to be near her at that moment were slaughtered, the massacre wouldn't have ended if Incursio had not appeared to stop the massacre, it was his first time seeing her fight, no it wasn't a fight, it was just a game, the small Incursio toyed with the transformed Third before killing her with just a punch and recuperated the fallen Third's Blessing. After the battle, rumors started to circulate, saying the reason behind Incursio's overwhelming strength was because she could use her blessing to the fullest; till this day, it remained unknown if this statement was true or not.

"Sigh! I need to complete this assignment to get that fruit to strengthen my body to be able to use our God blessing. But first, I must find out where we are." Third stood up and looked around; they were at the top of a snowy mountain; nothing could be seen from here apart from the endless cloud.

"Ah! What a troublesome dungeon. Only if the vampire duchess was here."

The fake dungeon sun was bright in his eyes as he said this; Third could only wish for vampire duchess to appear miraculously, or else they would waste too much time than anticipated.

...

Back on Alex's side.

Alex, who had just tested his Time Decay bullet, couldn't help but smile; this was a good ability. To know how it works, he must test its limit, and to do this; he needed monsters. Alex started humming as he walked deeper into the dead forest. However, just as he took his third step, he stopped because his Divine Sense caught a presence; this thing was running in his direction at fast speed.

[[Wait isn't it P-]]

Faster than Silveria could speak, the person running toward Alex appeared and abruptly stopped; her eyes widened so was Alex's eyes. The two silently stared at each other.

[[Well, I was trying to say, isn't it Priscilla? She is already here, though. As you Earthling used to say: Enemies are bound to meet on a narrow road. It's exactly what is currently happening.]]

Silveria said as she observed the vampire duchess through Alex's eyes.

The Vampire Duchess was the first to talk, with an exasperated sigh she said.

"You didn't die as expected, huh! You are even though than us vampires. However, this time I wouldn't make the same mistake twice."

Alex watched the small Priscilla speak, and his mouth couldn't help but twitch; he was fighting against a smile. Having noticed this, Priscilla shrugged her shoulders and explained.

"This is my true body, the one you saw was also my real body, but I only use it when going out, but because of what happened, I'm forced to come here using this body, how hateful."

From Priscilla's explanation, you could see that she didn't like this body. She couldn't be blamed; this body had the same height as Incursio, but unlike who had a womanly charm even with a small body, Priscilla didn't have it, it could only be described in one word: Childish and Priscilla truly hated it.

"Well, this body suits you more, the vampire loli." Alex mocked. Although Priscilla didn't understand what Loli meant, she knew it was an insult. However, she didn't move, she would have been a fool if such childish acts easily provoked her, but this didn't stop her from glaring at Alex.

At the same time, when Alex provoked the small vampire duchess, it was to distract her in order to use his Eye of Truth on her.

Chapter 466 - 453: The Rematch 4: A Bloody Fight

After seeing the small Vampire Duchess status, Alex couldn't help but swallow hard; while not all of her stats increased, some even decreased (LUK), her ATK, DEF, and AGI stats increased. Alex knew this wasn't going to be an easy fight. Also, there was something that bothered him, those question marks under her Gift. Knowing that he couldn't find the answer just by imagining, Alex decided to move.

Priscilla, who wasn't paying attention to Alex's eyes, finally noticed a trace of mana being used, and it was coming from his left eye; she immediately knew what this meant, and she couldn't help but pucker her brows and glared at the boy who dares to appraise her.

However, at the next moment, a chilliness erupted deep down in her heart without any warnings, instantly engulfing her entire body. Alex had flashed next to her and his knife sliced through the air coming straight toward her eyes. His speed had surpassed the one he had previously used during their last fight; still, she shouldn't be underestimated; she pushed back the feeling of chilliness and took a step back to avoid the incoming blade; however, just as the knife passed, a breath from her nose she noticed Alex's smile, the chilliness she had once pushed back resurfaced but more intensely.

Alex had expected this situation; therefore, the second knife in his hand vanished to be replaced by a silver gun, and an invisible burst out from the gun's muzzle and to penetrate Priscilla's body, even happened too fast. Although she was caught off guard, she tried to use her Ethereal form to escape the bullet. Still, suddenly her body movement slowed; unknowingly, Alex had activated his Time Acceleration on her. The invisible bullet struck the vampire in the stomach; her small body was bent backward before she was sent flying.

Bang! Crack!!!

The vampire duchess flew across dozen meters, destroying trees as her body kept flying before finally stopping.

Boom!

Red light burst out from her body, destroying everything around as she shot out from the pile of trees she was under.

What greeted her was an Aurora bullet; the white bullet exploded right before her and almost touched her; however, the red light surrounding her acted light a shield to stop the white light; the white tried to erode the red shield. Priscilla snorted.

[Shadow Shift]

Priscilla's body disappeared to reappear where Alex was; she frowned.

[Crimson Bullet]

A crimson bullet tore through the air and arrived before her; the vampire duchess snorted and tapped her heels twice, faster than the crimson bullet she chanted.

[Blood Arts Forbidden Art: Vlad's Shield]

A bloody mist exploded from her body to instantly form a blood-red cocoon before the crimson bullet could strike.

Kaboom!

A small crimson explosion occurred; it was like a nuke had struck, crimson cloud rose to the sky.

A huge crater appeared when the crimson cloud dissipated; Alex was shocked to see a blood-red cocoon unscathed.

'As I thought, the real Priscilla would be hard to deal with.' Alex sighed when his six senses flared up. He didn't get the time to move before a red light flashed next to him. Priscilla flitted across in a red burst of lightning, aiming straight at his neck with her sharp nails.

[Drifter]

At the last moment, Alex drifted to avoid the attack. However, he still received an injury; his left cheek was injured. Alex didn't have the time to ponder what had just happened before; like an enraged beast, Priscilla appeared before him again; her speed was so fast that all Alex saw was a crimson flash.

This time she didn't attack using her nails but instead used her sword; the sword sliced through the air; Alex had the impression that even space before him was sliced.

[Time Acceleration]

Due to how fast the sword was, Alex used Time Acceleration on it before tilting his head to the side; however, he was still injured; the sword covered in crimson light seemed to ignore time as it sliced through his right cheek like a knife through butter, blood-splattered Alex's shoulder as he leaned back into an impossible angle.

Priscilla, who was trying to follow up with another attack, was forced to switch to defensive posture as one of Alex's legs covered in green light arrived before her head.

Clangs!

Spark flew when Sleipnir clashed against her Gift, and a small wind tornado was generated that pushed her back.

BANG!

Unexpectedly, a gray bullet collided against Lilith's feet, and she was sent flying; intense pain assaulted her right leg, and she coughed blood. Even faced with such an unexpected situation, Priscilla was still one of the eight Dukes. As she was flying through the air, she momentarily forgot about the pain, and her scarlet eyes glinted in a mysterious yet mesmerizing flash.

Suddenly, the blood she had coughed coalesced into the shape of a blade that swooped down and slashed at them. Alex, everything happened too; Alex didn't have the time to dodge properly, green light covered his left arm, and he used to block the blood sword.

Crack!

A sickening sound was heard after the blood sword crashed against Alex's arm, his arm was broken, and he was sent flying. Ironically, the two happened to land on the ground simultaneously; they rolled on the ground, and Alex was the first to stand up. When Priscilla tried to get up, she failed, astonished; she looked down to see her right leg turned into only bone, which started cracking, chill assaulted her spine, and without hesitation, she swung her sword and cut off her leg.

Alex praised Priscilla's quick reaction; if she had not done that, she might be forced to cut it off starting from the thigh.

Suddenly, crimson light mixed with an eerie dark light burst out from Lilith and rippled outward, destroying everything as it moved forward.

Alex knew he must not get caught in this thing; just as he was about to Accel away, the eerie light moved faster. It slapped him flying, Alex vomited blood and rolled on the ground, when he looked in front of him he was shocked to see Priscilla flying, no the thing looked like her, extremely tall and busty woman, 2 meters tall, dragonified arms and legs, purple dragon scale, two long curved purple horns, the space around was twisting, no the whole forest was shaking. The black mist surrounding her body turned the surrounding dead trees into ashes.

〔Master, escape don't fight against this thing you can't win.〕 Silveria's voice ringed like an alarm bell, even without being told that Alex knew that this thing before him he couldn't win against it. He must escape, just as he was about to do it, something astonishing happened, black chains appeared all over the forest, from the ground, the sky and wrapped around the dragonified Priscilla, she tried to break free. Still, it was impossible, soon, a black magic circle appeared behind her, and she was dragged inside it and vanished.

"What the hell just happened?" Alex asked, but only silence answered him.

Chapter 467 - 454: The Unusual Dungeon 3

After the transformed Priscilla's sudden disappearance, Alex was surprised; at first, he couldn't understand why this happened, but once he calmly thought about it, he understood that it was the dungeon doing. Because the dungeon had limited everyone's strength after they entered it, however seeing someone bypass this restriction forced the dungeon to react and expulse this person out, so Alex expected.

"Ah!"

Alex sat cross-legged after he heaved a sigh.

"Sil, I know you know what happened to that vampire. What is that creepy, eerie dark light? It gave me a chill."

Silveria did not immediately answer; she came first sat shoulder to shoulder with her master, then she stared into the sky, her eyes were like satellite overlooking all the forest, she saw the destruction left from Alex and the vampire duchess fight; finally her eyes stopped at her the vampire duchess was, where she transformed before getting expulsed. Silveria sighed before opening her mouth.

"Of course, I know what that creepy light is. It's the power those from the Chaos race have. Somehow, she gained that power and tried to use it. She must have gained it from the sealed black dragon, the same one Artemia and others fought against and lost. The organization which name is unknown must be part of the Chaos race scheme, so, I wonder if you have not made a wrong choice."

At the end of her words, Silveria turned her head and stared at Alex; she was surprised to see him already staring at her; when their eyes locked, he smiled, it was a smile of absolute trust in himself, in his plans, and Alex confirmed it with his following words.

"Don't worry, it will be fine. Even before coming up with that plan, I have thought of all possibilities, and he and I have talked about this possibility z, and he told me it's going to be fine."

"I see. If you have so much confidence in him and your plans, then I'm relieved. We need to find the others quickly, it's unknown what kind of situation they might be in, so I suggest that you-

Silveria hadn't finished her words before Alex lay on his back and spat.

"Ah! I'm beat."

"Sigh! I suggest you should go after taking a rest." Silveria finished her previous words before following Alex's example.

"Sil, do you know what is it at the top?"

Alex asked; this question came to him just like that.

"No, I don't know, but I guess it will be boring," Silveria answered.

"I guess so. Still, I want to go there. Only by standing there will I be whole; it won't be easy, but eventually I will succeed with all of you, so please support me till the end." Alex said and watched the sun slowly retreat.

Silveria giggled, "You know, master, your words just now could be misinterpreted as a declaration. Are you perhaps courting me?"

"Hell, no." Alex immediately refuted this claim; it had never thought of making Silveria or Nyx, his women.

"Ouch! I'm hurt; you don't have to deny it so strongly; you should take into account maiden's heart." Silveria joked.

"You are not a maiden, just- wait, something did not feel right, can you feel it?" Alex stopped joking and said with a serious face.

At first, Silveria was confused, but it soon changed when she finally noticed a slight vibration passing through the ground, and soon it increased, the whole area started shaking like a floating island about to fall; and then there was a sudden burst of light that blinded the two before they were teleported away.

"Dammit, what an unusual dungeon. It doesn't want me to rest, shit." Alex swore as he was sent away.

When the two reappeared again, there was inside something that could be described as a graveyard; bones littered the ground as far as one's sight could see.

Just after their arrival, Silveria immediately warned Alex of this floor unusualness.

"Master, be careful something didn't feel right about this place." She had said.

Alex chuckled as he responded, "I know, this damnable dungeon, I wonder which level is it."

He looked around; his sixth sense kept ringing; he tried to see if he could catch sight of what causing this alarm with Divine Sense, but unfortunately, he didn't find anything except bone, bone, and bone; there was also sort of bones here, human bone, and all sorts of monster's bones with different shapes.

Suddenly, Alex's sixth sense reacted violently, and an intense chill assaulted his spine. He immediately jumped back, Silveria soon followed before an explosion occurred, and bones were sent flying in all directions.

From under this graveyard of bones, a gigantic shadow came; it was over forty meters entirely made of bone, a forty-something giant bone wolf with pale blue light in its sockets.

"Awoooooooooooooo!"

The giant bone wolf howled; its howl was so strong that all bones in front of him were blown away, and strangely they headed into Alex's direction.

Seeing so many bones shot toward him like bullets, Alex cursed before dodging by Accel-ing.

"Seriously, I'm starting to hate wolf; the wolf is the monster I have fought the most, almost as if I had bad karma with them. I don't remember being a vampire in my previous life, though." Alex said and dodged another bone fired at him; he finished his words with a joke touch. Immediately Silveria chided him.

"If you have the time to joke, then better quickly take care of this thing. It seems to get stronger by second in this graveyard full of bones."

Indeed, Silveria's words weren't wrong. When he looked closely, the bone wolf seemed to have gotten stronger, its aura had changed, and more importantly, the bone wolf had grown taller; it had gained a few centimeters.

Alex stretched his hand, and immediately Silveria understood as she disappeared into a silver light that landed in Alex's left arm, he immediately used Xerox and a second identical silver gun appeared inside his other hand as he started running toward the giant bone wolf, human and the Bone wolf was about to clash.

Chapter 468 - 455: Bad Luck 1

Alex could be seen running toward a monster twenty-five times his height; it was a funny scene.

Just as the two were about to clash, Alex jumped to his left and immediately unleashed one of his strongest skills.

[Crimson Bullet]

Crimson light burst out from the silver gun tore through the air arrived before the Bone wolf right wind leg. However, just as the crimson bullet was about to touch that leg, a sudden wall made of bones rose from the ground formed a perfect bones wall shield that took the damage and reflected it.

Kaboom!

"Shit!"

Alex swore as he was almost caught in his attack; he Accel-ed to reappear thirty meters away, his eyes turned wide for a moment as he noticed thirty small bones shot toward him, then he smirked and moved his right arm, bullets tore through the air like a Gatling gun.

Bang! Bang! Bang!!!!

In the span of twenty seconds, thirty bullets were fired and broke the incoming bone arrows. Without looking back, Alex fired a Phantom bullet at his back; the invisible bullet exploded as it collided with a bone spear big as a man's waist, which shot out from the ground. The explosion sent Alex flying in the air, twisting his body with such perfect accuracy that it passed above the Bone wolf who was running toward him; he immediately unleashed a Phantom bullet toward its head.

Bang!

Without surprise, the invisible bullet did almost no damage to the monster's head. Alex landed on the other side and rolled on the ground; due to his strength still being limited because of the dungeon's restriction, he couldn't fly, and most of his skills couldn't exhibit their full strength.

Alex didn't get the opportunity to use his Eye of Truth on the monster as it had already initiated its next attack.

Whoosh!

The giant body combined with the monster unbelievable speed generated a tremendous amount of wind and it created a humongous shockwave that sent ripple in Alex direction, a small tornado composed entirely of bones that would, without the slightest doubt, shred his body apart advanced into his direction at breakneck speed, at the same time Alex could feel that from his back many bone arrows were shot, in the front there was a bone tornado. At the back were bones arrows; the two were coming at astonishing speed, no matter what Alex seemed checkmated, at least it was what the Bone wolf thought; its blue soul coldly glared at Alex and was waiting for him to be torn to piece.

However, just as the two attacks were about to reach Alex, his figure disappeared to be replaced by a shocked Bone Wolf, soon swallowed by its attacks.

Boom!

An explosion occurred, and the graveyard shook; Alex had just used Shadow Shift, sweated as he used more Mana because of how big the monster was.

Suddenly, there was another explosion, but this time it was followed by a terrible roar that made the graveyard shake, Alex staggered, almost falling, and under his astonished eyes, all bones inside the graveyard flew in the air before going to where the Bone wolf was, those bones entered its body quickly expanding its height, turning its body shiny and silver in color, the final result was a fifteen meters tall Bone wolf standing before Alex with red eyes.

"Awooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo!" The bone wolf howled and disappeared; its speed rivaled that of Priscilla; in a second, it was already before Alex and swung its bone claw.

Although greatly shocked, Alex still reacted faster; he simultaneously combined Time Acceleration (used it on himself) and Drifter to avoid the claw; he was fast but not fast as the claw, the claw tried to tear through his chest as he was sent spiraling into the sky, however, thanks to Loki, his armor most of the damage have been killed yet he still broke two ribs.

Alex suppressed the groan which was about to escape from his mouth and immediately moved his left arm; a water bullet, one of his last special bullets, was fired and immediately bloomed into the form of a water shield that stopped the incoming tail.

Boom! Splash!

Alex's body was splashed with water as he rolled on the ground to succeed in dodging another attack coming at his head.

'Fuck! This thing is even faster, Priscilla, and its level is weaker.' Alex swore inwardly, he managed to barely see the monster's level, and he almost lost his head, Level 105.

Suddenly, the Bone wolf howled again, but this time, its howling was accompanied by a dark light covering its body; the body started shrinking, 45 meters, 40 meters.

Alex knew he must not let this monster complete its transformation as it would become harder to deal with with a small body. He immediately used his left eye, his green light momentarily turned crimson, and he used to search for a possible weakness in the monster's body. Soon he found a red crystal embedded in the middle of the monster's stomach; the only access to it would be by passing under the monster's belly. Alex's brain worked faster; the Bone wolf had now a height of 38 meters; Alex threw a silver knife under the monster's belly, and as expected with its limited intelligence, the monster chose to ignore it; Alex grinned, he shadow shifted his knife which had just passed the belly, it was exactly where he wished it to be.

[Crimson Bullet]

Alex roared, and the crimson bullet left the silver gun, and then something totally out of Alex's expectation happened; the situation was so ridiculous that Alex doubted his eyes; somehow, the bone wolf's back appeared in the air and was struck by the crimson bullet, the shockwave sent the monster's body flying high into the air with its legs raised high.

The situation was so ridiculous that Alex laughed; However, he didn't understand what happened in that short period for the monster to turn its body over; he was the one to miss out on any opportunity, he shadow shifted with a broken bone fragment in the air, the Bone wolf was shocked to see him appeared again before the monster could do anything Alex unleashed an Aurora bullet which struck the monster's belly creating enough gap for a Phantom bullet to finish the work by breaking the red crystal.

In the Bone wolf last moment, its eyes were filled with unwillingness as its bones body turned into ashes.. A tired Alex fell from the sky and landed on the ground creating a small crater; just as he wanted to rest for a moment, the dungeon moved.

Chapter 469 - 456: Bad Luck 2

Cracks!

The moment Alex heard this sound, he instantly knew that another trouble had come; he wondered which entity he offended for his luck to be this bad.

Kata! Kata!!!!

Alex jumped out of the crater he had created after his fall to see bone soldiers walking toward him; they tried to surround him. Alex quickly took a stamina potion and used it to replenish his stamina. He then summoned two guns cleared the bone soldiers faster than they could span; he was getting annoyed, so he let loose a bit; he went on a rampage and killed everything in his sight until there was another cracking sound. From the ground, a black skeleton rose; it was three meters tall, it wore damaged armor and a small scythe with a chain at the end.

The moment the black skeleton came out from the ground, he immediately launched an attack; the scythe sliced through the air as the chains stretched over thirty meters; Alex leaned to the side to let the scythe past his cheek.

Somehow, the Black skeleton twisted its arm, and the scythe which had passed Alex's head spun around and headed toward Alex's at breakneck speed.

Bang!

Alex fired a homing bullet at the scythe blade to deviate its trajectory toward the ground; it was a mistake as the moment it touched the ground, the scythe turned into countless black chains that restrained Alex's movement. He could feel an intense chill coming from those chains trying to erode his body.

Simultaneously, the Black skeleton tried to initiate another attack by raising its arm. However, he became frozen; Alex had used his right eye on the monster to freeze him momentarily, then he unleashed Time Decay on the Black skeleton. Previously he had thought it wouldn't have worked; it was why he didn't use it on an already dead thing; however, the moment the gray bullet touched the frozen Black skeleton head, it quickly turned into powder and crumbled.

A refreshing feeling engulfed his body, and all his fatigues were swept away; he was surprised to notice that he had leveled up; he couldn't believe it; it was only when he confirmed this through status check that he believed it.

Alex didn't have the time to celebrate at the unexpected leveled up because he thought he couldn't level inside this dungeon when another cracking sound was heard.

"Not again!" Alex shouted and looked around in search of another monster; fortunately, this time, no new monster appeared, only a small shimmering black portal; he smiled and strolled toward the black portal while thinking that his luck wasn't so bad after all.

In another location, two people who had terrible luck than Alex, these two people were Lilith and Sakuya.

Like Alex, they experienced the blinding light and were sent to another floor; unfortunately for them, this floor happened to be the same as the one Incursio was in; Lilith paled right after seeing Incursio levitate in the air surrounded by dead monsters.

"Oh, My My! What a nice surprise we have here." Incursio said with her mouth curved into a crescent shape, goosebumps rose all over Sakuya's body, her instinct told her not to hold back, and she didn't hold and immediately attacked, she unleashed her strongest attack.

[Yami Maho Jigen Giri]

Her katana hadn't even sliced through the air that Incursio appeared right before her; they were so close that just with a push, their heads would collide. Sakuya froze as an immense fear assaulted her body, making her unable to think.

"Woah! What a nice ability, a little bit of polishing, and it would be dangerous to counter." Incursio said as she stared into Sakuya's eyes, black eyes collided against white eyes; in those white eyes, Sakuya didn't see anything; it was as if she was even worth anything. Due to the momentarily stop, Incursio snatched her katana and used it to nail her again the mountain behind her.

The intense pain brought Sakuya's consciousness back. She felt a stab of pain from her pierced stomach; Sakuya bit her lips not to emit a single cry.

"Remarkable," Incursio complimented before,

"Ops!"

Her figure blurred, and she dodged Lilith's scythe, and like a ghost, she appeared behind Lilith and tried to punch her; however, Lilith had anticipated this, she blocked the blow with her scythe, so she had thought. Incursio chuckled before her knee crashed into Lilith's back from an unexpected angle. Lilith was sent flying like a ragdoll; with a speed that could only be described as teleportation, Incursio appeared before Lilith. Her pupils dilated as, at the same moment, she appeared before her and grabbed her head.

Bam!

She thrashed her face into the ground, bursting it with pieces of stone mixed with a bit of mud. Before Lilith could release a cry, she pulled her out and carried her into the sky; Sakuya could only watch everything helpless; somehow, her katana was replaced by another eerie black sword, she couldn't escape from it and could only watch Incursio tighten her grip on Lilith's neck as they fly higher.

Suddenly, Incursio stopped flying; she smiled, at the same time, a black portal appeared not too far from Sakuya's location.

Chapter 470 - [Bonus] 457: Another Time Ability User

After Alex passed through that black portal, he arrived at another location; it was inside a forest surrounded by high mountains. However, Alex could not enjoy the scenery before he frowned; his eyes caught sight of something that made his eyes turn cold, his killing intent soaring, which slightly distorted the surrounding space.

The figure of Alex distorted and seemed to have split into two. One went to deliver Sakuya while the other Accel-ed and threw something into the sky before shadow shifted with this thing. Only one person did all these things; Alex was so fast that one could have mistakenly thought he split in two.

Alex, who appeared not too far behind Incursio, didn't ask anything before firing a Time Decay bullet at the enemy.

Bang!

The gray bullet cut through the air at astonishing speed; considering everything that happened, Incursio should have been caught off guard; however, since the beginning, she saw everything; Alex's fast figure looked like a slow-motion movie she sat and was enjoying. She finally moved, faster than Alex could follow; she spun, and with a wide grin, she used Lilith like a meat shield.

Alex's expression sunk when he saw this; he hadn't expected this situation. However, his brain still worked faster; he moved his left arm faster than its own shadow and fired two homing bullets at the gray bullet that was about to reach Lilith's back.

The second bullet struck the first bullet increasing its speed to a level it barely succeeded in clashing against the gray bullet and deviating it from Lilith's back.

"Oh?"

Incursio showed a genuine surprise; she hadn't expected Alex to be so resourceful. However, it doesn't matter; she chuckled and threw Lilith toward the ground. Lilith's body was bent in an odd shape as she was about to collide against the ground; however, Sakuya, who Alex had previously freed, dragged her injured body and caught Lilith before the two rolled on the ground.

"How nice!"

Incursio complimented as though touched by such a strong camaraderie; suddenly, she chuckled because Alex, who had stayed silent until now, finally moved.

Alex accel-ed to reappear before Incursio, he unleashed Time Acceleration, his speed increased drastically while Incursio saw her speed reduced, Alex threw a deadly punch toward the small girl head, she looked like a fragile piece of jade; however, this fragile piece of jade suddenly extended her arm, Alex's Time Acceleration seemed not to affect her as she stopped his punch with such an ease that left Alex baffled.

"Time-related ability, I also have one." Incursio declared with a smile; her declaration shocked Alex. He doubted his eyes, not because someone else had the same ability as him, he was not so arrogant to believe he was the only one to possess such ability in this world as rare it might be, his surprise was because this girl before him seemed to possess a strength out of the authorized boundary, he wondered how could she bypass the dungeon's restrictions and exert such amount of strength which should be normally impossible, however, now wasn't the time to dwell on such matter, Alex immediately used his trump card, no he tried to use it when Incursio mumbled something and slashed at him with a white sword she had just summoned.

The white sword sliced through the air at breakneck speed; Alex's eyes widened at the sight of the incoming fast sword, he increased his Time Acceleration ability by pouring more mana into his body, he succeeded in stopping the sword, he immediately counterattacked by firing dozen of bullets at Incursio from point-blank range.

Normally, she should have been incapable of dodging the incoming bullets; however, she accelerated time around her and moved her sword.

Just a casual swing, yet she was able to slice apart the incoming bullets.

This outcome did not disconcert Alex; from the moment he learned that the girl could use Time like him, he had expected this situation; as such, he elaborated another plan. The first attack was to distract her as he prepared his other attacks. Alex threw twelve knives at Incursio; the latter snorted before deflecting the incoming knives; she had just finished her third knife when her body was suddenly pulled, and she found herself in Alex's place.

Incursio didn't have the time to be shocked about this unusual ability when an invisible bullet tried to pierce through her chest; the phantom bullet was aimed straight at her heart, white light burst out from her body to instantly form a shield around her body that blocked the phantom bullet, then came Alex's real attack.

[Time Stop]

Alex secretly whispered, without knowing why Incursio's small body tensed up, and she knew what this meant; something dangerous was about to happen, she had to make a few preparations, this thought hadn't properly germinated before her body temporarily froze.

Incursio's pupils dilated before she became frozen in time, and at the exact same moment, Alex appeared before her and punched her toward the ground.

Bam!

Her petite body was bent in K shape as it collided against the ground. Alex didn't even look before unleashing Crimson Bullet at her; facing this kind of enemy going all out seemed to be the best solution.

BANG! Kaboom!

A crimson cloud rose to the sky, Sakuya and Lilith scrambled away like frightened ducks; they didn't wish to be caught in this terrible crimson storm that destroyed hundreds of trees and created a large crater on the ground.

Alex, who should be overjoyed after successfully catching Incursio off guard and managed to injure her, felt no joy; on the contrary, he felt a chill running down his spine, his sixth sense tingled, he tried to accelerate away; however, he was not faster.

Everything was happening at speed impossible to describe, with an exploding circle reaching Alex's back instantaneously; something was smashed in his back.

BOOOOM

And Alex was, in turn, punched to the ground.

A world-ending blast occurred, turning into a gigantic mushroom cloud as Alex violently crashed against the ground and vomited blood. Simultaneously, black flames swirling with golden lightning rippled outwards as shockwaves forced Incursio to retreat hastily, her figure blurred to reappear a hundred meters away to manage to escape Sakuya's deadly Dimensional Slash.

"Tch! We shall call it a draw. Until next time we meet dear Alexander, the Eighth, I'm Incursio, by the way." Incursio smiled; her smile was bloody because of the blood inside her mouth; she had suffered a bit of damage in that attack, and there was another factor that pushed her to decide to retreat. Zero's sister disappeared after giving Alex one last stare, into he had just come out of the crater and spit blood out of his mouth.

"Next time, we shall decide a winner," Alex shouted back; he had the impression that the disappearing Incursio nodded her head at his declaration.

Lilith and Sakuya sighed in relief as Incursio was finally gone, they should be able to rest and completely heal; however, soon their expressions changed, they panicked after seeing Alex kneeled and coughed blood thrice, they rushed toward him, disregarding their tired bodies, however before they could come closer Alex stopped them and said.

"Don't worry, it's nothing; it's just some bad blood. Let's move out and talk after finding somewhere safe."

The girls nodded after staring at each other, accompanied by Alex; the three left.

Unbeknownst to them, a huge eyeball momentarily appeared in the sky stared at them, more specifically at Lilith before vanishing.
