

Death Guns 711

Chapter 711 - Unsealing 2

Data are data; upon seeing Alex's ability to cancel any magic, Cecilia was shocked this kind of ability was too hard to deal with; must she use her trump card? It was only a last resort trump card; she didn't want to use it.

Meanwhile, the wolf king clenched his fists; he felt bitter inside. He was a Demi-God level existence; Alex had yet to step into that realm properly, yet he possessed such ability.

Such a rule-breaking power, why would a human possess it?

The wolf King snarled at Alex, revealing his canines; his reptilian eyes also grew violent.

He was just quasi demigod; he was not a proper Demigod yet. Against this fake, I can't possibly lose. Thought the werewolf before stomping his foot on the ground.

Bam

This stomp didn't destroy the ground; instead, the earth rippled like a gelatinous cake, then something wiggled behind the wolf King.

"Bone beasts!"

Dark mist appeared behind the wolf king and awned several bone beasts that looked very sturdy.

Roar! roar! roar!

The beasts growled and howled like beasts that won't accept their deaths.

"Get him!"

"Awoo!"

The bone beasts rushed towards Alex with their sharp bony claws and paws.

Alex appeared calm. He could erase them from existence in a second.

The wolf king had thought it would be hard for Alex to win with his puny unusual weapon capable of shooting projectiles.

The Beast King assumed Wu Yan would have a hard time adjusting to external power. But, Wu Yan had the Eternal Arms Mastery.

Alex chuckled before vanishing; he had stepped into the void.

From within the void came eyes that chilled the Wolf King to the core. His hair stood at the end.

"Meteor Bullet!"

Many bullets came from the void like black lasers; the black lasers were fired from an omnidirectional angle.

"Crap!"

The Wolf King never expected this kind of attack; he was almost caught off guard. However, he reacted quickly, and his eyes shone with a green light, and he disappeared from his standing spot.

Dozens of black lasers crash into where he is standing.

The bone beasts weren't as lucky.

Pew pew pew

Roar

And the beasts were reduced to nothing in a mere second.

Swirl!

A dirt-yellow magical force burst out from the ground not far away.

Alex looked at the vortex of magical power; the Wolf King was standing in the middle of it; he was flashing with static electricity; his rumbling appearance can strike fear into anyone.

The mana vortex was at least 12 meters wide. This savage power was something a normal monster couldn't have.

The Wolf King savage aura made Alex take on a severe look.

The wolf king was generating this by using his mana. It appears his mana pool was almost greater than Alex's mana. Suppose not jr couldn't produce something this big. The wolf king got ready to use a powerful spell.

The vortex created a strong suction force. The ground got pulled apart as crevices opened up that were as wide as an adult's arm. The surrounding space shook, and finally, it started crumbling.

Alex allowed the suction to work on him, he stared at the vortex, and he was about to make a move when,

Roar!!

A beast image clad in his dirt-yellow mana burst out from the magic vortex; the beast image traveled so fast it was like it teleported to Alex; he couldn't let him use that dangerous ability capable of canceling his magic again.

"Golden Hour Five Seconds Time Stop!"

The Wolf King froze, Alex bypassed him and appeared before the frozen Cecilia; just as he was about to crush his head, he noticed an abnormality.

He felt a chill run down his back. He didn't know exactly why either, but all of his fine hairs were standing on end. He immediately escaped through the void; just as he left, there was a blinding light that exploded from Cecilia's body; it especially tyrannical; if he were still there when the light got unleashed, he would have suffered a grievous injury if he didn't die.

While returning to where he came from, Alex fired fifteen bullets, targeting the monsters Maria and the others were fighting against; he didn't kill them but made them unable to move.

Time resumed after the five seconds, Maria and the others attacked the injured beasts; they knew it was Alex's doing.

Meanwhile, the Wolf King was shocked that his attack was dodged. He didn't remember that time had stopped; before he could dodge Alex's leg moved like a whip toward his head, he rapidly summoned a bone sword to defend.

Bang!

A loud explosion rang in the air as the Wolf King was swatted away by Alex's kick. He flipped in the air and nearly lost his footing when he landed. The bone sword in his hand was still buzzing from the impact, and his arm was numb! He nearly vomited blood.

The wolf king was furious; he conjured half of his mana before howling.

"Thousand beasts!"

Roar! Roar! Roar!

Thousand of beasts were spawned from the dark mist which appeared behind the wolf king; he was also preparing to attack Alex together with his beasts.

However, what happened next shocked him; Alex's figure was like a tilting doll as he swayed to the left and right while swinging his knife and shooting bullets. His skills were clean and precise. There were no unnecessary movements.

One by one, those beasts were being erased, even Cecilia watching from the side was shocked by this display, the Alex inside the data they had collected paled in comparison, this one was too dangerous if previously she was still hesitating, this time she had no more hesitation, even if it meant that she would lose everything and would be forced to start over, she didn't mind, everything is for the goddess.

"Where are you looking?"

Suddenly, a chilling voice reached Cecilia's ears; she felt goosebumps rising all over her body; Maria's voice was too cold; she immediately crossed her arms and generated wind around her to help her defend against Maria's attack.

Unfortunately, the ice empress had been angered.

"Ice Empress Mode: Absolute Zero."

Maria's voice was like that of a Grim Reaper. Everything froze, turning into ice while Maria's punch landed on Cecilia's nose.

Crunch!

An explosion followed a crunching sound.

Cecilia was sent flying, spiraling across the air like twirling ballerinas.. Ignoring Luna and the others' shocked expressions, she disappeared.

Chapter 712 - Unsealing 3

Maria disappeared and reappeared before Cecilia; the latter eyes widened in horror, Maria was too strong, stronger than she had expected.

However, Cecilia was still an elite; after all, she gathered wind around to form a small wind ball but instead of throwing it toward Maria had almost closed in, she made the wind ball explode in front of her.

Boom!

A small explosion was produced, Maria didn't stop her expression remained cold as she tried to pass through the aftermath of the wind ball, meanwhile borrowing the rebound of the explosion Cecilia propelled her body back, far beyond Maria's reach.

She landed on the other side where many werewolves stood; they immediately shielded Cecilia. Upon seeing this, Maria frowned and immediately canceled the Ice Empress Mode; now that Cecilia had escaped beyond this wolf's wall, it wouldn't be easy to take her by surprise again.

Cursing Cecilia's cleverness, Maria charged toward the werewolves; before she could kill half of them, Lilith would have joined her together they could take Cecilia down.

Meanwhile, Alex was fighting against the Wolf King. His kick sent the werewolf flying; using this opportunity, another werewolf tried to sneak attack on Alex; he thought he could strike Alex using his blindspot but was unaware that with his Divine Sense active, he had no blindspot to speak of, he deliberately let his enemy think like that.

Alex spun at the last moment and sent a punch forward.

The werewolf was shocked before his shock turned into a sneer; how dare a frail human think he could compete with him in terms of physics; however, in the next instant, his expression froze when the two punches clashed.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

A jarring sound of bones cracking echoed out.

The others turned towards the sound instinctively, and their expressions changed.

The werewolf's palm had already disappeared, turning into meat sludge that hung off his wrist.

His entire arm was contorted into a weird shape, with his bones protruding out of his flesh as it hung limply. With the meat hanging on his bones, it was a terrifying sight!

Even the wolf king was shocked by this sight; finally, he understood why he was hurt so much after getting kicked.

Before the werewolf could utter a cry, his head was blasted open, turning into a bloody mist.

"Roarr!"

The Wolf King roared, he produced a shockwave in Alex's direction. He didn't give Alex the time to attack as he appeared behind him and unleashed a mighty punch; an attack was coming from the front while another was from the back.

Alex was unfazed, two guns appeared in his hands, and he fired.

From the original gun, an ice bullet was shot, freezing the shockwave, while a normal was shot from the second gun created through Xerox.

Having seen what the other gun did to the shockwave, the wolf king retreated his punch, not wanting to suffer the same fate as the shockwave.

Alex smirked when he saw this; he immediately accel-ed before the Wolf King.

"Golden Hour Prime Time!"

Time was frozen, the retreating wolf king was frozen, his eyes widened in shock.

Crack!

Because he was using it on a Demi-God while not being one, his ability was showing signs of canceling.

Just as the Wolf King regained control of his body, he saw the black gun and froze; fear overtook him.

"Golden Hour Bullet Time: Time Annihilation Bullet."

Alex used this opportunity to unleash his strongest time attack,

"Shit!"

The wolf king swore; all the hairs on his back stood on the end. He knew he couldn't make it, so he caught a nearby werewolf and shoved him before the incoming bullet, however to his horror, the bullet penetrated through the werewolf's stomach, turning him into dust before arriving before him, he had no time to dodge.

BANG!

"Ahh!" The wolf king wailed of pain.

"Void Bullet!"

2000 mana was consumed to create this bullet; no sound was emitted when Alex fired this bullet; the only thing the others saw was the wolf king's head disappearing.

A Demi-God died just like that. The others were shocked, speechless by how the fight had just ended.

Crack!

Alex suddenly felt something breaking within him; the moment the wolf king died, he had leveled up.

Only two-level gained after killing a demigod, Alex was not depressed because of this; on the contrary, he was smiling; finally, he had stepped into the Demigod realm, the road had been long, but he still reached it.

Cecilia's expression sank when her strongest supporter had just died; she sighed and escaped further into the temple; she secretly took out an old scroll.

Alex sensed something; his eyes narrowed in Cecilia's direction; he was about to step across the void when suddenly everything stopped around him. Time stopped; there was no light, only the sound of his heartbeat, which kept accelerating.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump! Ba-dump! Ba-dump!

"Not again!" Alex mumbled with difficulty, although he wished to acquire the thing calling him, the timing was bad; at least that thing should have waited until he killed Cecilia, a threat like that needed to be removed; if not, there would be no end to trouble she could cause.

However, now that that thing came out again, he would postpone his plans for later.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump! Ba-dump!

Time resumed, finally, the others noticed the abnormality; Cecilia was shocked as she sensed.

Suddenly, the old temple began shaking as though an earthquake was happening.

BOOM!

A blinding light occupied everyone's sight.

『Alex quickly add all your BP into your Def stat if you wish to survive.』 Nyx's voice rang out inside Alex's head; he has still blinded while his heartbeat wildly.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump!

Alex didn't question Nyx; he immediately did as instructed and was shocked by what happened.

Crimson light covered his body; his vision was restored; what shocked Alex the most was his current state.

Alex recovered his MP, his stamina; his HP increased drastically while the biggest change remained, the Asura near his High Human race.

He didn't have the time to ask Nyx what this meant when his heartbeat accelerated; he started bleeding,

Ba-----dump! Ba-----dump! Ba-----dump!

A black chain appeared before everyone; the moment this chain appeared, the sky above the temple rumbled violently, black lightning fell from the sky, blasting holes in the temple.

The black lightning continued and was about to touch the black chain when it simply vanished.

Everyone was shocked by this scene; it was a scene they could never forget; everyone present knew this chain was not ordinary.

One of the werewolves not too stepped forward; his eyes were filled with greed as he tried to touch the black chain when suddenly black light was shot out from the black chain, and the werewolf was reduced to dust in an instant.

Everyone except Alex felt chill down their spines; Alex's lips were curled slightly, showing a faint smirk.. Finally, it appeared, it was what had been calling him since he arrived in Exodus.

Chapter 713 - Unsealing 4

The moment the black chain appeared, everything changed; the sky rumbled, lightning bolts descended, trying to incinerate the chain but failed.

One of the werewolves tried to snatch the chain but got incinerated instantly.

The remaining survivors felt chill down their spines; even though they were greedy, they cherished their life more than anything.

The old temple kept shaking; in another dimension, someone made a tear in the space, and from this tear, this person was able to see what was happening inside the temple.

The moment this person saw the black chain, a look of fear flashed through his reptilian eyes, but it disappeared soon as it came. He chuckled.

"Kekekeke! Finally, the fated one has come."

"Fated my ass, let's hope he didn't die before; he is just a chess piece." Another voice echoed beside the man who spoke first, but he chuckled.

"We are all chess pieces, but there's a difference; he is more valuable than you and me if not, that thing wouldn't have chosen him." the man explained before focusing his eyes on Alex inside the temple; suddenly, his eyes widened in horror when he sensed a pair of cold eyes locked onto him, it was a kind of primal fear he had never felt, a fear that told him that he could if he made a mistake, he was not the only one, the other man beside him sensed the same thing.

Naturally, they knew what this meant; whoever this person was, this person didn't want them to watch Alex any further.

"Haiy! Let's leave; we are not welcome anymore."

The man with reptilian eyes declared before closing the tear in the space he made to spy on Alex.

"Ok, let's go spare in that realm again; this time, I will win." the other man suggested.

"Sure." The man with reptilian eyes responded before adding.

"Sorry, for your daughter."

"Don't be, I have already disowned her; besides, we are all chess pieces, it doesn't matter. We all die one day, it's a matter of whether your death worth, dying for the grand scheme of things can be considered as dying a worthy death." the other man whose features couldn't be seen responded, even though he was trying to act calm, he couldn't hide the sadness deep within his voice, no matter what it was his daughter that died.

"I see." Those words were the only thing the man with the reptilian eyes could say; the two stepped across space and disappeared to the same realm Alex first encountered them; they decided to spare to kill their boredom, this time it was for their entrainment, not because someone asked them to do it.

Meanwhile, Alex had no idea that he was being watched by the two strongest existences he encountered in that unusual realm; he didn't know that because of Nyx, they stopped spying on him; he was too focused on the black chain before him to notice any external forces.

Suddenly Alex took a step forward, shocking everyone present.

"Alex, stop!"

His comrades tried to stop him, but he didn't stop, one step, two steps, three steps, he kept walking toward the black chain, the girls were sent flying when they tried to get close to him.

Seeing this situation, Cecilia was secretly overjoyed; she sneaked close to them when a cold voice reached her ear again.

"Where do you think you are going?"

It was Maria's voice, Cecilia's soul almost left her body she didn't notice Maria appearing behind her, she was not to be blamed after all Maria was among those that were sent flying earlier; Cecilia had no idea when and how she noticed her sneaking closer to Luna and appeared to stop her.

Suddenly, Alex spoke to them as he grabbed the black chain.

"I'm going to test something."

The moment Alex touched the black chain, it was like he had touched a living thing that squirmed before exploding.

Boom!

The single chain turned into countless tiny black chains that climbed up Alex's right arm like hundreds of tiny snakes.

The others turned pale upon seeing this scene, but Alex remained silent.

The black chains emitted terrible heat and, at the same time, a chilling sensation capable of freezing one soul; Alex was in immense pain but still showed no emotion on his face.

Soon the black chains covered Alex's arm like a tattoo, then they moved toward his face and soon covered his face; before he got totally covered, Alex spoke to his friends.

"I'll be back!"

BOOM!

A blinding light occupied everyone's sight, and when they recovered their sight, Alex was gone.

The old temple became silent before fight broke out soon.

Meanwhile, Alex appeared in a desolate land; this land was extremely ancient, reeking blood; it was as if an apocalyptic war happened here, there were no corpses, no bones, but the scent of blood filled the air.

Just as Alex was about to open his mouth to ask where he was, he disappeared from the desolate land, no to be exact, it was as if time got reversed, Alex saw the desolate land turning into a beautiful city, an ancient city made for gods not mortal, giant creatures were flying in the sky while on the ground giant humans could be seen, suddenly there was a terrible explosion and the city of god became desolate devoid of any living beings.

The scene changed to another one where a group faced thousands of giant monsters covered in black miasma.

This group was extremely small; their faces were blurred, but Alex was sure that it was the survivors of the city of god; for an unknown reason, he felt a sense of familiarity with one of them, it was a woman.

However, he couldn't see her face; her feminine body didn't escape Alex's eyes; she was dressed in crimson dress, crimson hair, a vast wheel was behind her.

Suddenly Alex's body trembled as he recalled a scene from a dungeon; somehow, this woman resembled the woman in the coffin.

"No way!" Alex blurted, unable to contain his surprise.. His surprise didn't end there; a man was close to the woman in crimson, and around this man's wrist was a black chain; Alex's jaw almost hit the ground when he saw this scene.

Chapter 714 - Unsealing 5

Alex didn't expect to see the black chain around the man's wrist. He became curious about the identity of the people inside this group; he wanted to know more about this group; he was sure that many of his questions would be answered if he were to learn about them. It was unfortunate that his wish couldn't be granted.

Before he knew it, the scene changed to another one; he was now standing in the void where only darkness was; however, because he was familiar with the void, Alex didn't panic.

Suddenly, Alex got an idea; he decided to try it.

'Sil, Silveria?' There was no response.

'Nyx?' Still no response; Alex couldn't feel his connection with the girls, nor did they respond when he called them. He began to panic, the reason why previously he stayed calm even in those absurd situations was that he knew those two were together with him, he could count on their assistance if things were to go awry, but now he couldn't feel their presences, his connection with them seemed to have been cut off leaving Alex defenseless.

Just as Alex's face was changing color, there was a change in the void, rainbow light appeared, and from this rainbow light Alex saw a man back, he was dressed in a spotless white dress, his hair was white as his clothes reached his back.

This man had his back facing Alex; the moment Alex saw this man, he immediately kneeled; it was not because he was forced; it was because the man before was an existence that made you bow on your own with just his presence, his was being almost nothing could go against, after all, he was the supreme.

"Young man, for you, what is strength?" The man with his back facing Alex asked him; he was shocked such a powerful man had a gentle voice.

Before Alex could respond to the man's question, the man continued.

"To me, strength is responsibility."

It was a simple answer, but the meaning behind this was far greater and meant many things.

For some reason, Alex didn't share the same view as the man before him, and he did something normally he wouldn't have done.

Chuck!e!

Alex chuckled; the man was not offended; he waited for Alex to speak his mind, and finally, Alex told him his answer.

"For me, strength is to do what I want."

Silence permeated the void before the man said.

"I see, an answer befitting you. No wonder they all chose you."

"What-" Before Alex could ask what the man meant, he was sent away; before he left, he heard the man's words.

"I hope you will not fail."

"Don't worry, I won't because I'll take your place I'll be the one who stands at the top," Alex shouted with all his might. He was extremely versed that he kneeled; he knew this man was stronger, stronger than anything he had ever seen, not even Nyx, the strongest being in Alex's heart was this powerful, the man was so powerful that even the universe seemed to have acknowledged him, Alex was sure it was what it means to be supreme, it was the end of the road, the man was where he wanted to arrive, so naturally he must let him know that he was coming for him, coming to take his place.

The man who was leaving stopped before smiling; his smile made the void shine in a myriad of colors.

"Sure if I'm still me!"

His response didn't reach Alex as he was already gone by the time he said those words.

Meanwhile, Alex, who disappeared, arrived in black space, everywhere was black except the ground, the ground was red like blood, a river made of blood and in the middle of this blood river was an altar, on this altar was a small black chain floating above the altar.

"I must go there," Alex mumbled with a sigh.

Suddenly, the blood river trembled, and figures emerged from the river one by one.

"Those are souls, huh!"

Thousands of those souls covered the river trying to block Alex's advance; their expressions were sinister as though they could not wait to swallow Alex whole; those thousands of souls emitted bone-crushing pressure but compared to the man in white pressure who seemed natural, this was nothing, Alex sneered before entering the river, the moment he did he his skin turned red as though he had stepped into lava, but he gritted his teeth to endure and took a second step forward, it was then,

"Rawr!"

"Rawr!!!"

Thousands of souls pounced on him, Alex was fearless as he extended his two arms, two silver guns appeared, she was back, and with her, those souls never stand a chance against him, soon the sound of gunshots rang out, and massacre happened, those souls only had numbers but not the strength, Alex killed them all, each time he did he would feel heavy, his eyes turning bloodshot, he wished for slaughter. Finally, he understood that those souls upon their death could get converted into killing intent added to his own; it was because his killing intent became heavy that he felt the need to slaughter.

At the moment, Alex was covered in bloody armor; if anyone were to see the current him, they would be frightened; he resembled a fiend, not human.

Alex bit his lips before placing the silver gun against his chest and firing without hesitation.

"Erase!"

BANG!

The silver bullet penetrated his chest and exploded on his heart; Alex felt like someone had put a miniature sun inside his chest; his mouth fell open, and he vomited a mouthful of blood, but the heavy killing intent around his body decreased almost entirely.

Alex heaved a sigh of relief and finally arrived before the altar; lifting his right hand, he grabbed the black chain.

Siiiiii!

Alex's hand was charred black in an instant, his blood began to boil, but the chain showed no resistance, almost as if it had seen its long lost kin.

Suddenly, the tip of the black chain penetrated Alex's hand through one of his veins before disappearing into his arm; Alex opened his mouth and roared.

"Roarrrrrr!"

The blood river vanished under Alex's terrific roar; Alex was drenched in sweat, a chain like a tattoo appeared around his right arm, reaching his armpit; this tattoo looked sinister yet at the same time beautiful.

A piece of information appeared inside Alex's mind the moment the chain became one with him, but he had no time to enjoy this as in the outside world, the situation had changed.

Alex stepped across the void and left.

After many years the black chain was back again after being unsealed.

Chapter 715 - Her Trump Cards

While Alex was undergoing a test somewhere, the situation inside the old temple had changed drastically; together with Leon and others, Maria's group managed to kill most of Cecilia's supporters. The fight was about to come to an end, yet Lilith had the feeling that something was amiss; she had a bad feeling about something, she was not the only one; Artemia, Kuina, and Eri also felt the same.

Suddenly, their eyes zeroed on Cecilia, who stood at the back with her clothes drenched in sweat and blood as she had been forced to escape repeatedly by Maria's attacks. Still, even so, there was no sign of panic on her face as if everything was within her calculations, it was made the others wary of her, undoubtedly this woman possessed unknown means that could ensure the completion of her mission, she was dangerous, compared to the werewolves, she was the most dangerous of all, they must take care of her.

Just as the three were about to make moves, they noticed Luna was nowhere to be seen, and to their surprise, she appeared behind Cecilia, gasping for breath; none of those present knew how she did that.

Cecilia felt goosebumps rising all over her body as alarm bells rang in her heart. She understood that she was in danger, immediately she poured mana into her armor, the clothes she was wearing shone brightly, strengthening her defense. At the same time, she added another layer of defense, a wind armor above the original armor, even so the goosebumps she felt kept increasing.

"Instant Strengthening X3: Divine Punch!"

Crack!

Luna's punch was so powerful that it broke space showing the endless void on the other side.

BANG! Boom!

Her punch landed on Cecilia's back like a missile; she was flung into like a broken kite colliding against many werewolves who became injured in turn.

"Gah!"

Puff!

Cecilia's mouth fell open, and she vomited a mouthful of blood; she felt like her organs were being crushed; fortunately, she had deployed another second wind armor at the last minute; if not, she would have suffered more than this, her eyes turned cold before light exploded from her body blinding everyone's sights, using this opportunity to escape to somewhere safer, consumed a healing potion before taking out the old parchment again, her trump card, she would use it and capture that bitch that almost killed her just now.

"No good, stop her!" Both Artemia and Lilith shouted simultaneously as they could feel immense danger coming from the old parchment.

Unfortunately, their warning was a step too late; by the time others could pounce on Cecilia, she had already crushed the old parchment; immediately, a powerful aura burst from the destroyed parchment and enveloped Cecilia's body.

BOOM!

The temple's rooftop got immediately erased because of the powerful aura coming from Cecilia's body; her eyes were tightly shut before she opened them; they shone with divine light.

The might of this light was so powerful that the nearby werewolves were incinerated instantly. At the same time, Leon, Gracier, Eris, Eris, Kuina, and Leonardo were slapped against the wall, fainting on the spot. Maria, Artemia, and Lilith were much better, but they were bleeding from their seven orifices, the current Cecilia; none of them could fight him.

Luna froze; her body was shivering; she felt like an invisible shackle was holding her in a place she couldn't move, not even lift a finger.

"She is borrowing the Holy Pope's power," Artemia shouted, and Lilith nodded before the two exchanged a look; they immediately understood each other's intention. Just as one of them was about to unleash her past strength, they froze temporarily.

Puff!

Cecilia's hand pierced through Maria's chest; she lifted her body before tossing it to the side like garbage; the girls froze before lightning exploded from Artemia's body; unfortunately, Cecilia's face was calm as she slashed upward, the lightning was cleanly cut into two.

Swoosh! Bang! Bang!

Cecilia disappeared once more; both Artemia and Lilith flew before their bodies clashed against the wall breaking many pillars in the process; their bodies lay weakly on the ground. However, the two still didn't suffer without counterattacking, a spear made from energy, their combined energy pierced through Cecilia's stomach leaving a gaping hole there but unfortunately at the moment she possessed an insane regenerative ability, the wound was slowly closing, the current Cecilia didn't look like Cecilia any longer, it was as if someone else was controlling her body. She took a step forward and arrived before the frozen.

"Finally, we got you." This voice sounds like Cecilia's voice, yet at the same time not; it was like an old man's voice. Before Luna could say anything, something penetrated her chest; however, she felt nothing confused. Luna glared at Cecilia and uttered those words slowly for her to listen or the thing controlling her body.

"You will soon wish you wouldn't have done that."

But the only response Luna got was a faint smirk.

Suddenly, space was ripped apart, and Alex walked from the void; his eyes were cold as he scanned the temple before his eyes stopped on Cecilia; silence hung between them before Alex smiled.

He vanished, and at the same time he heard a sound of fingers snapping, immediately a portal appeared behind Luna, Alex immediately aborted his initial plan, faster than anything he unleashed erase to cancel the portal as he knew where this portal led to, unfortunately, Cecilia seemed to have anticipated this she disappeared and reappeared before Luna sacrificing one of her arms to stop erase, her left arm was completely gone. Still, Luna was pushed into the portal and started leaving.

Furious Alex unleashed golden hour, but to his surprise, with her remaining arm, Cecilia crushed and hourglass, somehow Alex's ability got canceled. He was surprised, but he knew he must do something or his girl would be taken.

However, just as he was about to unleash another of his abilities, his domain, Cecilia beat him and activated his domain; the surrounding was turned pure white before she said.

"Judgement Sword!"

The thing controlling Cecilia was truly vicious; her remaining arm was ripped apart and transformed into a white light sword that appeared before Alex in an instant; she was sure that he would be injured because it was a move coming from a demigod existence even though it was borrowed strength.

BOOM!

There was an explosion, Cecilia was overjoyed, but soon her expression froze because Alex was perfectly fine; a shield made of a chain appeared before Alex; it was the black chain.

Cecilia frowned.

Alex's right hand moved.

A light movement that seemed he was shaking off some water from his hand but the movement of that hand, to precise the movement of that finger, was nothing but light.

The moment Alex's finger moved within the smoke.

Boooooooooom!

A tremendous sound created by an explosion rang through the area.

A force that shouldn't be associated with the movement of one's finger.

Whoosh!

Cecilia's eyes widened because something flew through the smoke.

Toward Cecilia, the speed and force behind it were unlike anything she (he) had ever seen.

All the hairs on Cecilia's body rose.

Instinctively she created a light barrier to defend against this thing. It was a reinforced light shield created using demigod strength.

Logically it should have been able to defend against this thing, but for an unknown reason, she was feeling immense threat.

But Cecilia suppressed her instincts and mumbled something. Another shield appeared; she didn't feel ashamed, not even for a second.

'No, I must dodge!' She was still uncertain, so she decided to dodge it; unfortunately, she was a step too late.

Finally, she understood that it was not something she could block; it was the black chain.

Puff! Puff!

Before the tip of the black chain, the two reinforced shields were like paper; the chain easily penetrated through them and arrived before Cecilia's chest and pierced through her chest; she froze the moment the chain penetrated through her chest.

"What?"

All her strength was greedily getting devoured; even the strength she borrowed was getting devoured; the strangest thing was that she couldn't do anything, as if the black chain had locked her body in place.

A trail of blood appeared at the edge of her lips. A black blood, her body had turned pale, but she was still smiling, she looked at Alex with ridicule, she knew she would die, she would lose levels but once back in Mysthia she would recover everything and would rise in rank, she had won.

"You lost! Teleport!"

Cecilia mumbled before using the last bit of strength to send Luna outside of Exodus, where the others from the church would be waiting.

However, Alex's following words shocked Cecilia.

"It is that so?" His expression was frighteningly calm; it was not like Luna just vanished before his eyes; Cecilia was confused; she had no idea that at the same time the black chain pierced through her it traveled until it pierced Luna's chest, the latter body trembled before she revealed a smile, she understood what Alex wished to convey and had faith in him, it was no wonder Alex was so calm.

Maria and the others who assisted at this scene couldn't help but be shocked; they understood that after seeing he could not save her, he decided to use the situation to his advantage.

Suddenly, Cecilia's eyes widened in horror as Alex summoned the black gun and aimed at her; his eyes were still calm.

"The end."

Bang!

A black bullet pierced through Cecilia's head; she died instantly, leaving the universe forever.

"Don't worry, others will follow you soon.." Alex declared his voice was frighteningly calm.

Chapter 716 - Going Back

Silence descended on the old temple; a generation genius died like that.

The moment the others saw Alex aiming the silver gun at Cecilia, they understood that she was good as dead, she would be forever gone, she could only herself to blame. In this universe, there are some people one should better not provoke for fear of dying.

Leon and the others were doing their best to get up when they heard Alex's voice.

"Do you have a death wish?"

Alex's tone was sinister and murderous!

A black chain flew out from his right hand and pierced through the air at dreadful speed.

Psh!

"Ahhhhhh!"

Leonardo howled and fell on the ground; the black chain had pierced through his thigh, his armor could not even protect him; it was as if the black chain ignored it and directly penetrated through his flesh, making him feel endless pain, he had never felt so much pain before, it was not only physical pain, but it reached his soul as well.

Leonardo had the feeling that if Alex could, his soul would have been tormented for eternity; just by imagining the amount of pain this would bring, Leonardo felt chill run down his spine. He was curious about the origin of this sinister chain, but at the moment, he was not in the mood because Alex was glaring at him with those emotionless eyes, which scared him more than anything; no one knows what the current Alex was capable of doing as he was unpredictable.

Finally, the others understood that Leonardo was trying to use what happened as an opportunity to escape, but Alex caught him. Like Leonardo, they were also curious about the black chain around Alex's wrist.

"Did I say you could leave?" Alex asked with an expressionless face.

Leonardo's face darkened, and he shouted.

"Fuck! If I want to leave, nobody can stop me!"

"Purgato-"

"Erase!"

Bang!

A silver bullet penetrated through Leonardo's chest, stopping him from using the purgatory mode when his body was lifted and got thrashed against the ground.

Bam!

"Gah!"

Leonardo's mouth fell open, and blood flowed out; Alex appeared before him and lifted him by the neck; he grabbed his neck so tightly that Leonardo felt like choking; the others frowned, not understanding why Alex became so violent.

Alex ignored the weird stares he was getting and locked eyes with Leonardo; time seemed to have stopped for the two; it was unknown why but at the moment, from the onlookers' point of view, the two seemed to be in their world talking.

Suddenly, the situation changed; lightning gathered in one of Leonardo's legs before it exploded. Because of his proximity with Alex, he was engulfed in a lightning explosion while Leonardo's body flew out of the lightning explosion, escaping from the temple; he floated in the air for a moment before disappearing his last words were.

"Alex, I'll get my revenge soon."

Alex said nothing; he was completely unscathed because a black chain extended to form a shield before him; it was this shield that took the lightning explosion head on.

"What the hell?" Leon exclaimed, unable to comprehend what just happened; looking at the others beside him, most of them were confused as well. Only Maria, Artemia, and Kuina seemed to understand something; finally, Leon remembered something and chuckled.

'What great actors!' He thought but said nothing.

"I think you all must have recovered by now; let's leave. We will talk later. It's time to go back to our world." Alex, after his gaze, swept on everyone and noticed that most of their wounds had healed.

After helping them, the group left and returned to Dragone's City because most of the people, most of the big shots inside the city, were still under Kuina's control; the group easily entered the city as for the death of their king and prince none of them was aware of it because most of the survivors died, those that survived left the area afraid of another calamity coming, no they were afraid that another hydra would come down to avenge the one that died.

In the blink of an eye, three days had passed.

Morning, daybreak.

A ray of sunlight broke through the window and landed on a handsome face.

His black hair fell casually like a waterfall and swayed gently by itself. Alex's eyes snapped open, his green and blue eyes shone brightly, he stood up and strode toward the window, sunlight shone on his face making him appear more handsome. He was calm, but under this calmness was a raging tornado ready to be unleashed at any moment. He didn't lose his rationality upon Luna's kidnapping; the group had considered many situations. Naturally, situation like what happened was considered as well. It was why none of them panicked as they knew everything wasn't lost yet, people from the Holy Crux empire may think they have one, but it wouldn't be easy, the group was prepared, and as Luna had said, they made a terrible mistake, they shouldn't have done that.

Suddenly, there was the sound of someone knocking on the door.

"Enter!" Alex said without looking back, after becoming a Demi-God, his already sharp senses became sharper, his Divine Sense became sharper as well, it was always activated; naturally, he knew the identity of person knocking.

The door was pushed open, and someone entered; she immediately got her knee and greeted Alex.

"Master, I'm back. I managed to bring Lady Sakuya."

"Welcome, prepare; we will depart soon. It seems that you didn't manage to encounter the rest of the team." Alex said with a sigh; it was a shame that Noire didn't manage to encounter Drei and the others, but at least she brought Sakuya back; the group was now ready to leave.

Noire bowed before leaving; immediately after she left, Sakuya appeared; her footsteps were light. If it weren't for his Divine Sense, Alex wouldn't have noticed her.

'Good! She became a lot stronger.'

"I'm back, honey; I miss you w don't worry; we will help you rescue Luna." Sakuya declared as she hugged Alex; he spun and embraced her, he missed her a lot.

"Don't worry, everything is under control." Alex declared, and Sakuya nodded; after cuddling for a while, they left for the grand hall where the others were waiting for them to depart.

"Let's leave." The moment he entered, Alex declared before stopping and adding.

"Don't worry, you will know more about my new weapon once we go back."

The others smiled, eager to go back.

Chapter 717 - Eternal Chain

Few hours before Alex's and others' arrival.

Holy Crux empire, the capital, in one of the secret rooms of the Holy Pope.

The pope could be seen kneeling before an altar; this altar shone in golden light like a holy flame.

"Goddess, Cecilia succeeded," The Pope announced, his voice was full of excitement as he said those words.

"Oh? That's good. That girl is sure capable; she didn't waste the God's scroll, it's the only thing that could work in that world." A woman's voice came from the golden light.

The Pope nodded eyes full of reverence; only the mighty goddess could possess something like that, a scroll capable of containing some of his power, it was like a short duration link that could let him lend fifty percent of his strength to the scroll holder, but the aftereffect was that the person who used the scroll would lose almost all their levels.

"It's a pity that such fine piece died, but we will create another one after I have gained a body."

The goddess's voice sounded again; the pope nodded; he was unaffected that his daughter died; it doesn't matter; what mattered was that she at least succeeded in completing the task given to her. If Cecilia were alive and heard the goddess's heartless words, maybe she would have died of a heart attack; she gave everything for this goddess, and yet she was nothing but a chess piece.

"Where is she?" The goddess questioned, the excitement in her voice couldn't be hidden; finally she would get a body, two hundred years had passed since that calamity, she was but a mere speck of her former self, but it was enough to trick few humans, establish an empire, everything was for the sake of finding the right vessel, with this perfect vessel she could ascend back and get everything that had been snatched from her, she would make every one of them pay.

"She is in heaven's chamber. It will take some time before she is ready to welcome your glorious self." The pope explained.

"Good! Good! You shall stand in my right as my champion once I'm back." The goddess promised, and the Pope became thrilled. Becoming the goddess's champion was more than he could ask for; upon hearing the goddess's promise, the pope was sure than ever that he had taken the right decision; they must not fall, not now that they were closer to completing the goddess's wish.

"Goddess, don't worry, although that young man is strong, he can't do anything, not even with the help of his little team." The Pope declared proudly, he had faced Alex through Cecilia's body, so naturally, he knew how strong he was, some details were blurred, but the pope was sure that Alex couldn't beat him.

The goddess stayed silent upon hearing her subordinate's declaration, for some unknown reason, she was unable to divine Alex's fate, every time she tried, she would end up injured; therefore, she stopped, this young man was dangerous, they must be cautious of him, at least until she descended into her perfect vessel.

"You must be prudent; he is dangerous." She warned.

"Don't worry goddess, we have set up many formations in the tower; even if he managed to sneak in, he is doomed to die."

Finally, the goddess heaved a sigh of relief but soon became worried again; Luna's kidnapping was bound to attract some attention, especially those three.

As if he could read the golden light's thought, the pope reassured.

"Armstrong and Freya disappeared a few weeks ago into a dungeon when they chased the chaos organization members. As for Elseria, she was busy quelling the small skirmishes that happened all around the world together with the other empires; she would not move for a while. Before Alex and others warn them, we will have finished."

"I see!" The goddess was pleased, everything was going according to the plan, just a few more days and she would get a body; as for this Chaos organization, she was not afraid, the only thing that made her afraid of the sleeping dragon in the depth of that dungeon but before he wakes up she would be stronger and will win.

"Fufufu! Soon I'll be back." The goddess mumbled while thinking that Alex and the others would arrive in a few days because there were still a few days before they left Exodus. Unfortunately, she was wrong.

Five hours later, Alex's group was back to Mysthia; almost half of year had passed since they left, not many things had changed, because they didn't want to let the world learn of their arrival yet, they traveled discretely. With their current strength, not many could detect them if they did not want to.

The group arrived at Alex's mansion just as the sun was about to set. After entering, they took a bath and were about to gather to discuss what to do next.

Alex sat on his bed, lost in thoughts.

[[Stop making me wait. I want to see that weapon of yours.]]

Suddenly, Silveria's voice rang out inside his head, jolting him awake.

Finally, Alex decided to check his status and learn more about his new weapon.

"Wow! It's called Eternal Chain.." Alex mumbled with a dull voice; the moment the girls (Silveria and Nyx) heard the name of Alex's new gift, they were shocked.

Chapter 718 - New Abilities

Silveria and Nyx were shocked upon hearing the name of Alex's second Gift; after all, this weapon was one of the ancient weapons, born from the chaos, it followed the supreme beings, it was to say it is a weapon of the supreme beings. Naturally, the two were shocked to see Alex becoming the owner of such a weapon. A weapon like this was nothing but ordinary; it is a really powerful weapon.

『Master, you are sure loved.』 Silveria said with a look of envy on her face, this is one of the original weapons of the primordial era. Silveria explained Eternal Chain's origin to Alex; his eyes shone upon hearing that he got such a great weapon. It doesn't matter if this was a part of someone's plot; the Eternal Chain was now his; he would use it as he saw fit.

『You unconsciously one of the Eternal chain's ability on Cecilia, didn't you?』 Silveria asked upon remembering something.

Alex nodded, indeed as Silveria said he unconsciously used devour on Cecilia back then. Still, when he let the Eternal Chain pierce Luna's chest, leaving something there, he knew what he was doing; despite the distance back then, he was able to convey his thoughts into Luna's brain before she left, making her less afraid.

『I see, no wonder you seemed to calm down.』 Silveria nodded after hearing Alex's explanation, a lot of things make sense now, but she couldn't help but warn Alex to be careful about the devour ability for fear of him turning into a bloodthirsty demon.

'Don't worry; I know what to do.' Alex replied before looking at his status; besides his original race, another one was added, Asura, and at the same time, he got a new ability called Asura's Might.

Just for the sake of trying, Alex closed his eyes and opened them again; his new status was right before his eyes, shining more brightly than usual.

[Asura: In the very beginning, the universe wasn't distinctly separated into heaven and earth but rather took the form of primal chaos. Many powerful races were born from the primal chaos race; the Asura was one of them. An Asura is mighty, arrogantly looking down on the world, an Asura never bows, and Asura slaughtered when needed.]

Alex's gamble paid off unexpectedly; he got information on his new race he believed he had acquired probably because of his contract with that crimson-haired woman from the coffin back then; that woman was probably one of the last existing Asura, maybe she was the original, member of the supreme beings.

If his assumption was true, then it was somewhat ironic, such a woman must have been mighty back in her heydays, but she ended up in that state; this made Alex question what people think of supreme beings, even the supreme beings born from the primal chaos weren't omnipotent as people thought. He wanted to stand at a height where nothing could threaten him and his loved ones, whether this goal of his was realistic or not, it was yet to be seen, what is sure was this road would not be an easy one, he might fail halfway through the road, but still, he wouldn't hesitate and try to reach this seemingly unrealistic goal of his.

Alex quickly shook his head to focus on his current problem; he would think about those problems when there; for now, it was better to understand how powerful he had become; to do this, he must first understand his abilities.

Moving onto his next ability, Alex checked his devour ability.

[Devour: One of the core Abilities of the Eternal Chain. Unable the caster to devour his enemy mana, strength, and abilities. The caster will recover his stamina upon using it.

Additional ability: Capable of planting a Devour seed that would blossom after a period of time in a target's body.

Only detectable by the caster, time limit: One Month]

"As expected," Alex mumbled upon seeing the additional ability of the devour's skill. It was this same ability he used on Luna. Eternal Chain's appearance could not be more timely; he would help him greatly in the future when he would go on a rampage; those from the Holy Crux empire had no idea of what would happen to them soon.

〔The Eternal Chain lives up to its name.〕 Silveria commented, and Alex nodded, moving on to the next ability that caught his attention; he saw the current description.

[Asura's Might: Endless stamina, temporary increase of mana.

Combined with Asura's Form, it will turn into something extraordinary.

Additional ability: Asura's roar: An Asura's roar is mighty as divine dragon roar, capable of subduing monsters.]

Alex's eyes shone in dazzling light upon seeing Asura's Might additional ability; if put to use, something awesome might come out, just by imagining what he would be able to do put a smile on Alex's lips, an extremely evil smile.

Suddenly, Alex remembered something; now that he got an additional race besides his original one, he should try the Asura's Form again. He was ready to test out.. Taking a deep breath, Alex declared slowly.

Chapter 719 - Unreachable

Taking a deep breath, Alex slowly muttered.

"Asura's Form!"

Boom!

A powerful aura burst out from Alex's body, sending the room into a frenzy, except for the bed where he was sitting; everything else inside the bedroom had been turned to dust.

Meanwhile, Alex grew taller; he was now standing two meters tall (), his black hair had turned crimson, his left eye crimson as well only his right eye remained ice blue. Alex could feel boundless strength coursing through his body; he felt invincible, clenching his fists, they emitted cracking sounds, just with his physics alone he could crush Grand Master and low-level Saint.

He knew he could maintain this state only for a few minutes, but it was more than enough to cause massacre when facing low-level enemies.

Suddenly Alex had an idea; he decided to check his status in the Asura's Form; he was shocked by what he saw.

As expected, his status went up, the increase in stats was drastic, with 4000 points in the attack's stat. One minute had passed, and his mana decreased by 200 points, meaning he could maintain the Asura's Form for 6 minutes. This duration would have increased if he had used mana's body to boost his mana temporarily; it was worth trying.

Alex suddenly punched the air before him.

BANG!

His punch was so powerful that it felt like a bullet had cut through the air; this feeling of strength was exhilarating. In this form, his senses were sharper; he could detect the slightest movement in the air; he was sure that without relying on his Divine Sense, he would be able to locate any enemy within twenty feet easily.

His lips were curled slightly, showing a faint smirk. He wanted to test his skills, and to do this; sparring matches would be welcomed.

Outside his room, one of the maids was passing by when suddenly she froze; she felt a chill run down her back. She didn't know exactly why either, but all of her fine hairs were standing on end. For a rank 8 to feel something like this, there must be a powerful expert outside, hurriedly the maid left the area to inform one of her mistresses about what just happened.

Maria and the others laughed when they heard the maid's words; they immediately understood that it must be Alex had released his strength, and the maid passing by got affected.

"Don't worry, there's no enemy nearby; it was your master," Maria informed, and the maid nodded, but inwardly she was shocked, to think their always smiling and gentle master could emit such a scary aura, she felt chill just by remembering what she felt a moment ago. She excused herself and left.

"I want to fight him to see how strong he became, most importantly I want to see for how many minutes I can last." Kuina harbored no thought of winning; she knew her capabilities the best, she had never won when they were almost equal in level, so naturally, it was not now that the difference had widened that she would have a chance of winning.

Leon smiled, showing his canines; among those present, he was the one that wanted to spar with Alex the most; his chance of winning was almost zero, but his blood was boiling just at the thought of fighting a strong opponent, his rival. He would catch up to him soon; he was almost closer to the next Rank, Rank 14; most of those present were closer to that level as well.

"Gracier, call your brother; we will begin the meeting." Maria urged Alexandra to call Alex, like the others she also wants to spar against Alex, they would use this opportunity to gauge their levels before the rescue mission.

Shortly Gracier, who left, came back with Alex; after greeting the others, they ate their breakfast before moving into the meeting hall.

"What is the plan, Alex?"

Leon was the one to ask; the others stayed silent; they wanted to know the answer as well.

Instead of answering Alex asked Maria a question.

"Maria, have you contacted your master yet?"

Maria nodded, but her expression was gloom.

"I tried." It was the first thing she did upon their return, but she could not contact Freya; no matter how many times she tried, she was unable to connect with her master's communication stone.

"I see," Alex said before his eyes landed on Sera, the latter immediately understood what he wanted to ask, and she shrugged her shoulders; the same thing happened to her too; she was unable to contact her former master.

"That's odd!" Alex frowned; the situation was odd; for Elseria and Armstrong to be unreachable, something must have happened.

Suddenly, Alex remembered something and his eyes shone, he searched through his item box and brought out a shining purple stone, the moment the others saw this stone they eyes shone in turn because they knew what this stone was for, it's a special communication stone capable of working everywhere, it is an extremely rare stone.

"I will use this purple stone to contact Elseria."

Alex declared before injecting mana into the purple stone.

Chapter 720 - I Promise

"I will use this purple stone to contact Elseria."

Alex declared before injecting mana into the purple stone. The moment Alex's mana entered the purple stone, it glowed in dark purple light, and suddenly a small window appeared above the stone; it looked like a holographic image.

Everyone present paid attention to the scene coming from the other of the holographic image; inside what seemed to be a room in shamble stood an extremely beautiful woman dressed in all black. Naturally, this beautiful woman was Elseria.

"Oh? How rare for you to contact me using this purple stone Alex. It seems that you're back. How were your days inside Exodus." Elseria asked without turning back; her gaze was still locked in the room beyond her current location.

"I'm fine, but something happened," Alex said, observing Elseria's reaction, and as expected, she frowned upon hearing his words.

"Huh? What happened? Wait, I feel the other presences but not Luna, don't tell me that she got kidnapped the moment you arrived?"

Somehow Elseria was able to sense Maria and others' presence even from where she was; Leon and the others were shocked secretly how strong this woman must be to be able to do that?

"You are Luna got kidnapped but not when we arrived; it was before we even leave Exodus; for some unknown reason, Cecilia managed to send her into Mysthia after using a scroll and temporarily advancing into the Demigod realm." Alex briefly explained what happened; Elseria was shocked, so shocked that she turned around, forgetting to conceal the wound on her left hand, no wonder she didn't turn around since the beginning.

"What did you just say? It's impossible; I wonder how that old geezer got his hands on something so powerful, probably that goddess or whatever fooling them gave him that." Elseria was still an empress even with her disguise of the Adventurer guild's master; she quickly deducts what happened thanks to little information acquired by one of her spies.

"Ah!" Finally, she came to her sense and chuckled after seeing that Alex and the others saw her injury.

"What happened? Why are injured? And where are Armstrong and Freya?" Alex fired questions at Elseria, who stayed silent but eventually decided to tell the group what happened.

"Few days ago one of our men caught sight of group sneaking in one of the principalities to cause a scene, following this group our men ended up getting killed, Armstrong not too far went to investigate it was then he found that the first group was under the Chaos organization Numbers' order. He decided to follow this group, it was a rare chance but who would have thought that he would get discovered, among the five Numbers out, there was one extremely powerful, he almost killed Armstrong, he lost an arm against the man, this number goes by the codename Zero."

Leon and the others stayed silent, but they were secretly alarmed; only Alex, Lilith, and Sakuya exchanged looks, seeing the shock through each other eyes; that frail-looking man was this powerful? Alex felt a chill run down his spine when he remembered the smile Zero sent him as he was leaving. Being targeted by those siblings sure put a lot of pressure on his shoulders, but nevertheless, he would never be their stepping stone; it would only be the other way around.

Elseria observed each one expression; upon seeing the three expressions, she concluded that they knew this man, she continued.

"Armstrong managed to inform us, and Freya was first to join him before I do. Together we chased the five Numbers into a dungeon, we killed four, and Zero almost lost his life; he lost his two arms but still managed to land a blow on Freya and me; Freya was more injured than me, but it was not severe."

"Master!" Maria mumbled, her cold face softening; she was concerned about her master's health but knowing that Elseria wouldn't lie about how Freya was, she felt relief; she could only hope that the situation didn't change for the worst later.

"Armstrong is recuperating while I'm standing guard here; Zero fled into the depth of the dungeon, and don't worry, we will kill him after the others recuperate. He has nowhere to go; I have set a formation around the dungeon; nobody could leave if I don't give the approval."

Alex and the others sighed in relief upon hearing Elseria's confident words. Alex, Artemia, and Lilith knew that Zero was still alive because Elseria was still keeping her real identity secret; if she were to unleash her full strength, reverting to her identity as the empress of the elves, not many could face her even when her strength was limited to peak demigod level. Zero might be exceptionally talented, but so was the monster known as Typhania; she was a real monster versed in spirit arts but possessed a powerful Gift.

"Alex, I can see that you became demigod; on behalf of the others, I congratulate you, but you must know that you must not act recklessly, just obediently wait until we return we will see how that fucker will explain why he kidnapped our student and before you say anything like how long it will take for us to come back? Will Luna still be Luna by then? I can promise you that we will return in five days a week, at last, so please don't act recklessly. Can you promise me that?"

Everyone present held their breath waiting for Alex to respond; however, they all wished to rescue Luna, they knew their current strength was limited, the other party had an empire backing him with many preparations, charging recklessly would be tantamount to suicide, only by being accompanied of strong people such as Elseria or Freya will they carry a lot of weight. The Pope would not dare to offend any of them once they are back.

Finally, Alex, who said nothing after Elseria asked him to make a promise, opened his eyes; they were frighteningly calm without any fluctuation, as he declared.

"I promise."
