

Deeply 1013

1013 Niannian is missing (5)

When her eyes regained a little clarity, she subconsciously reached for her phone. After she unlocked the screen, she didn't see any messages or calls from assistant Wu. Her wildly beating heart calmed down a little.

No news was good news.

However, she was really panicking. She felt that the dream tapir was foretelling something.

Su Wanwan turned her face. She thought that she only slept for a short time. She didn't expect that the sky was already bright. She looked back at her phone again and it was almost eight o'clock.

Su Wanwan suddenly sat up from the bed, lifted the quilt and got out of bed. She walked into the bathroom, quickly washed up, changed her clothes, and immediately left the room and went downstairs.

Nanny li was preparing breakfast. When she heard the sound of someone going downstairs, she quickly came out of the kitchen and saw su Wanwan. "Miss, you're awake? I'm almost done preparing breakfast. You can eat it later."

"I'm not eating anymore. I'm going to the hospital now!"

but young master Ziwei isn't up yet. Aren't you going to wait for him? "

Su Wanwan hesitated for a second and said, " I'll go first. I'm a little flustered. Help me tell brother Ziwei.

Without waiting for nanny Li's reply, she quickly walked out the door.

Nanny li looked at her back view and couldn't help but sigh. When she had heard from young master Ziwei that young master PEI had been in a car accident yesterday, she couldn't help but sigh.

It wasn't easy for young master PEI and young miss to live a happy and comfortable life. Why did the heavens want to play such a prank on them again? if young master PEI couldn't make it, what would their young miss do?

Su Wanwan knew that she was emotionally unstable, so she didn't dare to drive by herself. She took her phone app and called a taxi. The car arrived very quickly and headed to the hospital.

On the way, su Wanwan called assistant Wu, but no one picked up. She panicked even more and felt that something had happened.

When she arrived at the hospital, su Wanwan casually took out a hundred Yuan from her wallet and stuffed it into the driver's hand. She pushed the door open, got out of the car, and quickly rushed into the hospital.

She walked towards the intensive care unit. However, when she walked to the intensive care unit from yesterday, there was no one inside. She looked at the empty Ward in a daze and opened her eyes slightly.

Where did PEI Munian go? Why wasn't he in the ward? It can't be Yingluo

The hands hanging on both sides of her body suddenly clenched. Su Wan's face turned white in a flash. She was stunned for a second, then like a headless fly, she searched room by room in the intensive care unit area, but she couldn't find her anywhere.

Seeing her like this, a nurse couldn't help but step forward and ask, "miss, who are you looking for?"

"PEI Munian, where did PEI Munian go? Where's the one who was in the intensive care unit?" Su Wanwan's hand unconsciously grabbed the nurse's hand, so much so that it hurt.

The nurse yelped in pain and forcefully pulled her hand back. She took a light breath and said, miss, don't be so agitated. If you're asking about Mr. PEI who was in the VIP intensive care unit, his parents had already transferred him to another hospital at seven o'clock this morning.

"Transfer to another hospital?" Su Wanwan was stunned. then where did he go? "

"I'm not sure about that."

Hospital transfer

It was a transfer, not a death. Su Wanwan's hanging heart relaxed slightly. It was just that in PEI Munian's situation, father and mother PEI still insisted on transferring him away. Wasn't it so that she wouldn't be able to see him in the future?
