As soon as they walked out, the reporters swarmed around them. They pointed their cameras and microphones at them and asked one question after another.

“Young master PEI, Xi Zhiwei, are you two really going to get married this time? Don’t tell me it’s fake news to tease us like last time?”

“Young master PEI, did you really divorce the SU family’s daughter? Did they really have nothing to do with each other anymore? I heard that she asked for ten million Yuan for a divorce after your car accident, when you were still in a critical condition. Is that true?”

“Xi Zhiwei, after you and young master PEI get married, will you leave the entertainment industry and become a young mistress at home, or will you continue to act and shoot commercials? what does your future mother-in-law, Mrs. PEI, think? Will you retire because of your family?”

Mrs. PEI did not expect so many reporters to appear. She almost fell from the crowd and her expression turned ugly. PEI Munian, on the other hand, was wrapped up tightly due to her health and was wearing a pair of big sunglasses, so her expression could not be seen clearly. However, he still considerably protected Xi Zhiwei from being squeezed by the reporters. Xi Zhiwei responded to the reporters with a smile on her face.

When Mrs. PEI saw Xi Zhiwei like this, her eyes flashed with displeasure.

She had always liked Xi Zhiwei. Other than her family background, she met all the requirements and conditions of a daughter-in-law. To the PEI family, family background was not that important. It was like adding flowers to a brocade, but it did not matter if they did not have it.

However, she did not know why, but once she really saw Xi Zhiwei as her daughter-in-law, some of her actions were a little unsightly.

For so many reporters to appear this time, it was without a doubt that Xi Zhiwei had informed them.

Anyway, after what happened in America, ning Jingting was no longer suitable to be the PEI family’s daughter-in-law with her character. Then Xi Zhiwei would be the PEI family’s daughter-in-law. The official engagement party was also confirmed to be held in three days. Did she have to be so anxious to announce it to the world? He didn’t know how to keep a low profile at all.

Butler Xi could tell that Madam PEI was unhappy. He quietly tugged on Xi Zhiwei’s sleeve and reminded her in a low voice, “ Wei Wei, restrain yourself. Madam is unhappy.

Xi Zhiwei glanced at Madam PEI’s expression and didn’t think much of it.

Now that PEI Munian was standing on her side and protecting her, why should she curry favor with Mrs. PEI and care about her feelings? If she had not supported ning Jingting, she would not have wasted so much time on her. She might have been married to PEI Munian by now.

However, she could not really offend Mrs. PEI. Xi Zhiwei could only show her weakness to the group of reporters. please do us a favor and let us off for the time being. Brother Munian has not fully recovered and needs to rest. You're blocking the way, so we can't leave the house. If his injury reappears in three days, are you going to compensate me with a groom?"

With Xi Zhiwei's half-coquettish tone, the reporters naturally had to give her face. After all, she would be the future mistress of the PEI family.

"Then, Xi Zhiwei, answer one last question. Will you open this wedding to the media?"

Xi Zhiwei smiled and held PEI Munian's arm. She looked at him affectionately and said, of course, we hope to receive everyone's blessings. We welcome you to our wedding.
