

Deeply 1089

1089 Karma will come (11)

After a pause, ning Jingting looked at su Wanwan, smiled at her, and continued: sister Wanwan is also my Savior. No matter what, I can't return kindness with ingratitude.

Su Wanwan was also ning Jingting's Savior? So, she wasn't a love rival at all. She was just trying to divert her attention so that she wouldn't stare at su Wanwan anymore?

At that moment, Xi Zhiwei finally understood what was going on.

From the beginning to the end, PEI Munian never gave up on su Wanwan and never believed a word she said to Mrs. PEI. She just played along. Since they drove su Wanwan away, he simply kept su Wanwan away from conspiracies and hurt and focused their attention on ning Jingting.

Everyone thought that ning Jingting really had feelings for him and wanted to marry him. In fact, she was just a shield for su Wanwan.

After all, ning Jingting was different from su Wanwan. The ning family was rich and powerful, and Madam PEI liked her. She couldn't really do anything to hurt her. She could only play some tricks behind her back to make her retreat.

She, on the other hand, was so deeply trapped in the situation that she thought she had everything under control. In the end, she was just a flag in PEI Munian's hands.

Xi Zhiwei blinked. Her eyes turned red and they quickly became wet.

Everything she had done was for PEI Munian's sake. How could he use her feelings like this?

Perhaps it was because Mrs. PEI's face had been too affected, her face turned pale and her body swayed a few times. If not for father PEI's support, she would not have been able to stand steadily.

She had watched Xi Zhiwei grow up. She had doted on Xi Zhiwei since she was young and Wei Wei had treated her as half a daughter. Even though Xi Zhiwei's recent actions had made her unhappy, she still liked her in her heart. Therefore, she was extremely happy to see Xi Zhiwei getting engaged to mu Nian.

Even if she saw the video that su Wanwan played just now, she was still willing to believe her in her heart, but she didn't expect that reality would give her such a big slap in the face.

Because she trusted him, it hurt a lot.

Butler Xi was also a servant who had always been by her side. She treated her like her own sister. Back then, Xi Zhiqian had saved mu Nian's life and she had always remembered it in her heart. Thus, she had treated her family very well. In the end, not only were they not grateful, but they even plotted against her together.

She used her love and care for them to achieve what they wanted by any means.

Mrs. PEI was so angry that her chest heaved up and down violently. She walked in front of Xi Zhiwei in a few steps. Her eyes were fierce and her tone was extremely sinister. Xi Zhiwei, what else do you have to say? "I've been so good to you, and you actually did such a thing?"

no, aunty, it's not like that. Ning Jingting framed me. She deliberately provoked me. And brother mu Nian. Brother mu Nian made me do it. I just love him too much, so I was muddleheaded and teased me.

However, before she could finish her words, Madam PEI had already ruthlessly slapped her across the face and interrupted her.

Seeing her unrepentant look, Mrs. PEI was even more furious. you were muddled about the incident in the United States. What about the child from before? You had another man's child, and you dare to come to me and say that it's Munian's child and ask me to make the decision for you? You're simply a coward."

"Disgusting!"

Madam PEI gritted her teeth as she said these words. Anger and heartache surged in her.
