

Deeply 1094

1094 Retribution will come (16)

The law now required witnesses and material evidence to convict someone. Even if there was a witness, they couldn't do anything to her without material evidence!

Xi Zhiwei pursed her lips, took a deep breath, and continued, "I believe that there is justice in this world. If there is evidence that I deliberately killed someone, then take it out. Who doesn't know how to speak the truth? Then, can I also say that brother mu Nian, you were driving su Wanwan's car in the car accident before, so she also wanted to kill you on purpose?"

PEI Munian let go of her wrist and dusted her hands, as if she was enjoying Xi Zhiwei's final struggle. of course, we won't say empty words.

He snapped his fingers and assistant Wu walked up from behind. She raised the iPad in front of everyone and a silent image appeared on the screen. It was the surveillance camera at Xi Zhiwei's apartment. The time was clearly marked on the screen. Three days ago, her car was still parked in front of her apartment. An hour before her former manager came to drive away, a person wrapped up tightly walked up to the car and opened the front cover.

Because the car was blocked by the front cover, the surveillance camera did not capture her destroying the car. However, even though she was wrapped up tightly, the surveillance camera still captured half of her face. It could be seen clearly that it was Xi Zhiwei. So, this was enough evidence to call the police.

Once the car inspection report came out and proved that the brakes had been deliberately broken, this video, coupled with the previous manager's statement, Xi Zhiwei would definitely be charged with intentional homicide.

How did this happen? She had clearly avoided the surveillance cameras on purpose, so how did they still capture her? Impossible! Xi Zhiwei's Black eyes widened as she stared at the recording on the iPad. She shook her head in disbelief.

The surveillance cameras in front of her apartment would not have captured the position where her car was parked, unless Wanwan had installed a new one at that place. In that case, did PEI Munian get someone to install Wanwan there?

How could he know that she would destroy the car?

Xi Zhiwei could not help but shake her head in disbelief.

The corners of PEI Munian's lips curled up. Her voice was low and lazy, but her eyes were deep. this time, you're not going to say that this video was edited again, are you? Do we need to send the scan for testing?"

Xi Zhiwei looked at PEI Munian in horror and suddenly realized that Huahua did not understand him at all. They had grown up together and he had always been good to her. She had lost her innocence for him because of her brother's kindness to her. He had always been tolerant and patient with her, thinking that he would at most give her a warning. She did not expect him to do so many things quietly, and every single one of them could destroy her completely.

PEI Munian laughed and turned her black eyes to the big screen again. you can tell me what she asked you to do now. It will be the most powerful evidence in the court of law in the future.

The man nodded and stared at Xi Zhiwei with a dark look in his eyes.

Just as he finished speaking, a few plainclothes police officers walked in and stopped in front of Xi Zhiwei. After showing her identification, they said, "Miss Xi Zhiwei, we suspect that you are related to the two intentional murder cases. We are now officially arresting you."

It wasn't that he didn't want to get his retribution for doing bad things, but that the time wasn't right yet, and there would be retribution!
