

Deeply 112

Chapter 112 Stay away from my husband (2)

Su Wanwan bit her lower lip with her pearly white teeth. After thinking for a while, she put her phone back. She decided not to call but to go directly to the company to find PEI Munian.

Su Wanwan sat in front of the dressing table, took her makeup and put on a beautiful makeup. Then, she let her hair down and permed the ends of her hair with a hair curl stick. She looked left and right in the mirror and after confirming that it was perfect, she got up and went to the changing room to pick a dress in the color PEI Munian liked.

Su Wanwan picked a Mealtime To Go to the company so that she could conveniently propose to eat together.

The car arrived at PEI's group. Su Wanwan paid for the car, got out of the car, and paused at the door. Then, she took a light breath, raised her head and walked in.

Su Wanwan had come to the PEI family group before. That was three years ago when PEI mu was in University and interned at the PEI family for a period of time. As a dedicated pursuer, she naturally came here to guard, so that even if she didn't come for three years, she was still familiar with the road. Even the front desk lady recognized her.

"Miss su, long time no see." The lady at the front desk greeted her warmly.

Su Wanwan's eyes flashed with a trace of surprise and she smiled: "I didn't expect you to still remember me."

of course I remember. You're the only special person in our president's life.

Su Wanwan naturally knew what this special treatment meant. Back then, every time she came to PEI family corporation, she couldn't go up to PEI Munian without an appointment. The security guards of PEI family corporation were all sharp and had no way to sneak in, so she could only act coquettishly with PEI Munian and ask him to give her a special right.

At that time, her relationship with PEI Munian had already turned from bad to ambiguous. Although he had not agreed to her pursuit, he no longer gave her a cold face and even somewhat acquiesced to their relationship. Of course, su Wanwan had to follow the lead and climb up.

At first, PEI Munian did not agree to it. She stood at the entrance of the company every day and waited for him pitifully from morning to night without eating or drinking. She knew that as long as PEI Munian cared about her, he would not bear to let her suffer. As she had expected, in just two days, his heart softened and he agreed to give her this special treatment.

Su Wanwan's heart moved slightly and she couldn't help but ask: "It used to be special, but what about now?"

"What past and present?" The lady at the front desk said in confusion, "this special treatment has never been canceled. No matter when you come, you don't need to make an appointment. You can go up and look for the president directly.

Never canceled Yingluo

Three years ago, after she found out about that incident, she was angry and said those heartless words to PEI Munian. PEI Munian was so angry that she almost strangled her to death. She even told him not to see her again. He hated her so much, but he didn't cancel this special treatment. Could she still look for him whenever she wanted to?

Did he forget, or was Wanwan actually waiting for her to find him back then?

If the answer was the latter, did that mean that he had not put in his feelings back then?

The small flame of hope in Su Wanwan's heart instantly became like fuel was added to it. The flame suddenly rose high. The corners of her lips curved and the light in her eyes brightened.

Su Wanwan took the elevator and arrived at the top floor. Then, she walked towards the president's office. However, at the door of the office, she ran into Xi Zhiwei.
