

Deeply 126

Chapter 126 A brief moment of sweetness 8

Su Wanwan's eyebrows furrowed tightly. She whispered to Su Zhenhua, "Grandpa, this isn't very good.

It was already wrong for them to reveal their marriage without permission. Now, they had to use it so brazenly. She really didn't want to do that.

Today, du Mingwei had been giving Su Zhenhua a hard time. Su Zhenhua was already full of anger. Su Wanwan didn't cooperate with him, so his face was almost ugly to the extreme. He lowered his voice but couldn't hide his anger, "I told you to hit me, so you hit me! Why? Do you still want people to laugh at our su family?"

"Grandpa, Grandpa, Grandpa."

Su Zhenhua didn't even let su Wanwan say anything more and said in a cold voice, "if you acknowledge me as your grandfather, you should call this number now. Otherwise, I'll be so angry that I'll die!

How strong grandpa's self-esteem was, how much he protected the SU family's and her own face, su Wanwan was very clear in her heart. If she really let him lose face in front of du Mingwei today, she didn't know how angry he would be.

His body was not in good condition and he could not take it.

However, Yueyue didn't want to use her marriage with PEI Munian to gain any benefits!

Su Wanwan was still in a dilemma, but Su Zhenhua didn't give her any chance to explain. He picked up the phone she had left on the table, found PEI Munian's number, and dialed it.

Su Wanwan wanted to stop him, but it was too late. She watched as Su Zhenhua stuffed the phone back into her hand and urged her, "talk properly.

Su Wanwan listened to the beeping sound from the phone. Her heart felt like it was being pressed by a heavy mountain, so heavy that she almost couldn't breathe.

She knew that there were times when one had to resort to extreme means when discussing business, but her grandfather's actions were a little too unscrupulous.

However, Yueyue was still her grandfather, so she had to protect him and the SU family.

Su Wanwan's hands clenched a little. She pursed her lips and waited for PEI Munian to answer the call.

The phone rang for a while, but no one picked up. Su Wan secretly thought that if PEI Munian was busy and didn't pick up the call, perhaps it was good. She wouldn't need to be so uneasy.

However, just when su Wanwan thought that the phone would hang up automatically, the other side suddenly picked up. PEI Munian's elegant and pleasant voice came over, "Hello.

Su Wanwan's heart jerked, almost in her throat. Her voice unconsciously trembled, "PEI, PEI Munian, it's me.

"Yes, what's wrong? Are we in A city yet?"

Hearing PEI Munian's gentle voice, su Wanwan suppressed the panic in her heart and forced herself to calm down. She squeezed out a smile and said in a soft voice, "We're here."

MMM, it's good that you've arrived safely. Are you resting at the hotel now? " no, I'm meeting a client. I just drank a little too much and came out for some fresh air. I thought of you, so I gave you a call.

PEI Munian was silent for a few seconds on the other end of the phone. Then, she chuckled softly. miss me? "

PEI Munian lowered her voice, revealing a tinge of numbness, as if she was talking next to su Wanwan's ear. Her ears couldn't help but turn slightly red.

She was actually just making up an excuse, Yingluo.

However, she didn't refute him and admitted it. yes, I missed you.

PEI Munian's laughter seemed to be even more cheerful. He laughed for a while, then slowly opened his mouth and said, "wifey, I missed you too.