Chapter 136 I want to live a good life with you (6)

Didn't PEI Munian give her special rights to enter directly? He was still like this a week ago, so why was he not doing it now?

"I, can't I be special?" Su Wanwan furrowed her eyebrows, her eyes full of surprise and doubt.

"Yes, it could have been." The lady at the front desk replied, " but a few days ago, the president suddenly gave an order to strictly control the company's visitors. They must make an appointment according to the normal procedures before they can enter the company, no matter who Wanwan is.

In other words, her special status was canceled.

A few days ago?

Su Wanwan's beautiful eyebrows furrowed even more tightly. During this week of her business trip, she clearly felt that there was something wrong with PEI Munian. She still comforted herself, but now Xuxu's heart really had no confidence at all.

Because she didn't know if this matter was only for the company or for her.

However, she and PEI Munian were clearly fine. Why did they suddenly become like this?

She had to find PEI Munian and ask her what was going on!

However, she was stopped and couldn't force her way in. She could only say to the front desk lady, " since that's the case, I'll make an appointment. Can you call PEI Munian for me now and ask if she has time to see me? "

"Of course, please wait a moment. I'll make the call for you now."

The phone in the secretary's office rang. Assistant Wu picked it up. After hearing what was said on the other side, she instantly felt terrible.

He had just spoken to young Madam Xuxu on the phone a second ago, so why was she at the office the next second? Wouldn't his lies be exposed if he was stopped by the front desk?

Assistant Wu's face fell. It was really hard to be a good person now!

But if the young Madam came to the company, maybe the big BOSS would be willing to see her? Maybe after young Madam coaxed them gently, nothing would happen between the two of them?

Thinking of this, assistant Wu's spirit was lifted again and she said to the phone, " I'll go and ask now."

Assistant Wu put down the phone, picked up another phone, and pressed the internal line.

The phone rang twice, and PEI Munian's usual low and cold voice came from the other end. what's the matter? "

Assistant Wu coughed lightly and said, " boss PEI, that young Madam Wanwan is here. She's downstairs at the company now. Take a look at Wanwan.

"He's gone!"

After saying those two words, the call was hung up.

Assistant Wu was stunned for a few seconds before she reacted. She couldn't help but sigh. He had really tried his best, Huahua.

While she was waiting, the automatic rotating door at the door turned a little. Someone walked in slowly in high heels, and the heels knocked on the smooth marble floor, making a crisp sound.

Su Wanwan subconsciously looked over and her eyes narrowed.

This Xi Zhiwei, why was she here again? PEI Munian had slapped her last time and she did not run away?

Su Wanwan couldn't help but ask the front desk lady in a low voice, " does Xi Zhiwei come to the company often? "

The front desk lady's hand paused for a moment, and she replied in a low voice, " yes, almost every day.

Come here every day?

Su Wanwan glanced at Xi Zhiwei and her eyes flickered. It seemed that she had underestimated Xi Zhiwei. PEI Munian treated her like that in public, but she still persevered and came to find PEI Munian.

Why? Did she want to imitate her actions three years ago, pestering PEI Munian until she finally caught up with him?
