

Deeply 157

Chapter 157 I want to live well with you (27)

PEI Munian's Black eyes stared at her, and his eyes became colder and colder. He suddenly reached out and grabbed su Wanwan's wrist, pulling her away without any explanation.

The strength of PEI Munian's hand was great and she didn't pity him at all. Su Wanwan frowned in pain but didn't care about the pain. She only said in a panic: "PEI Munian, where are you taking me?"

PEI Munian pulled her along and walked towards the main entrance.

Su Wanwan's heart skipped a beat. Was he really driving her away? No, if she was chased away by him, everything would be for naught.

Su Wanwan struggled with all her might, but PEI Munian's hand was like an iron chain restraining her wrist. She had no strength to break free at all and was dragged out of the door by PEI Munian. Then, he shook off her hand and said coldly, "leave immediately."

Although she had expected this, PEI Munian ruthlessly wanted to drive her away. Su Wan's heart still felt a little uncomfortable for a moment.

However, she quickly suppressed her sadness and smiled. PEI Munian, don't be like this. I've been married to you for so long. I should come and visit dad and mom.

Dad, mom.

When PEI Munian heard su Wanwan shout these two words, she only felt an unusual irony. She had been married to him for so long and had never thought of coming to see his parents. How did she know to come and see his parents now?

She couldn't handle him, so she was going to go around him to please his parents?

It wasn't enough for her to make use of his feelings, and now she wanted to plot against his parents?

PEI Munian's face was frighteningly dark. It was as if a storm was brewing in his eyes. He glared at su Wanwan and gritted his teeth. this isn't a place you should be. Go, leave now. Don't come here again!

".....?"

He had previously warned her not to go to the company, but now he had ordered her not to come to the old house.

If he had always hated her and hated her, it would be reasonable for him to say such things. However, his attitude towards her had clearly softened, and yet he had become like this. She really couldn't understand it, and she really wanted to know why.

Su Wanwan's face was slightly pale. She gritted her teeth and clenched her hands hard, forcing herself not to care about his words. She still forced a smile. I'm not leaving. This is my home too. I'll go back to my own home, can't I? "

PEI Munian seemed to have lost her patience. He rushed to the chauffeur who was waiting at the side and said, "Send young Madam back."

After saying that, he turned around and walked back into the house.

How could su Wanwan be willing to go back like this? before the driver came over, she rushed to PEI Munian's back, opened her arms, and hugged PEI Munian tightly. PEI Munian, don't chase me away. I don't want to go.

Don't want to? Of course, she didn't want to do that. The only thing she wanted to do was to achieve her goal with him and his parents.

"Su Wanwan, what you think and what you don't think has nothing to do with me!" PEI Munian pried her hand away mercilessly.

Su Wanwan hugged him again and blurted out, "how is it none of your business? I've done so many things because I want to live a good life with you."

These were originally words that su Wanwan hid in her heart. She didn't know why, but she actually said it all out at once. She couldn't help but be slightly startled.

PEI Munian did not expect her to say something like this. His eyes narrowed and he was a little stunned.

Su Wanwan said that she did these things because she wanted to have a good time with him?