Chapter 184 I need to prepare for the wedding vi

Assistant Wu could not react in time and stood there in a daze. He only came back to his senses a few seconds later. His eyes were filled with confusion. boss PEI, do you have anything to do in the next three months? ”

PEI Munian got up and walked to the French windows. Looking at the bright sunlight outside the window, the corners of his lips curled up slightly. His voice was gentle and had an undetectable smile. I want to prepare for the wedding.

Wedding:

Assistant Wu blinked and almost thought she had heard wrong. you, you’re preparing for the wedding? ”

When PEI Munian and su Wanwan got married, the only condition was that they didn’t hold a wedding and they couldn’t announce their marriage. He thought that they would keep their marriage a secret. Unexpectedly, they had to hold a wedding in just a few months.

It seems that this time, the big BOSS and su Wan are finally going to have a positive result.

As expected, the big BOSS could never escape from the young Madam’s grasp! Assistant Wu could not help but smile as she gave her sincere blessings. boss PEI, congratulations.

“Thank you,” he said. PEI Munian responded, the smile on her lips deepening. After a pause, he continued, ” let’s move the afternoon meeting forward. I have to go back to the old residence in the afternoon.

“Alright, I’ll make the arrangements.”

When su Wanwan woke up, PEI Munian was no longer by her side. She recalled her crazy and bold actions last night and couldn’t help but blush. She turned over and rolled to the side where PEI Munian was sleeping. There seemed to be some of his breath on the pillow and blanket. Su Wanwan buried her head in the pillow. Her heart was full of happiness and sweetness.

She lazed around in bed for a while before getting up to wash up.

She had not returned to the company much recently. She was basically meeting guests outside, but there was a regular shareholders ‘meeting today, so she had to attend.

Since the company had PEI’s group’s capital injection, the two investment projects slowly went on track and the company’s situation was basically stable. This shareholders ‘meeting was finally held in a harmonious manner. The shareholders were very satisfied and their attitude towards Su Zhenhua and su Wanwan naturally became kind.

Su Zhenhua was in a good mood. He was smiling throughout the entire meeting, and even after it ended, he was still smiling.

Su Wanwan looked at Su Zhenhua's appearance and gently heaved a sigh of relief. The company was on the right track, Grandpa had regained other people's respect, and her relationship with PEI Munian was also improving step by step. All the bad luck that had entangled her before seemed to have disappeared. The God of luck could finally take care of her for once.

Wanwan, come to my office.

Su Zhenhua's voice pulled su Wanwan back from her daze. She looked at Su Zhenhua and nodded. I understand, Grandpa.

Su Zhenhua walked out of the meeting room first, followed by Secretary su. Su Wanwan looked at Su Zhenhua's back and her eyebrows slowly furrowed.

She had not returned to the company a few days ago to avoid her grandfather. However, she knew that she could hide for a while, but not forever. Some things had to be faced eventually.

For example, Yingluo's wedding.

Fortunately, the company's situation had taken a turn for the better. She thought that if she talked to her grandfather properly, he might not force her to hold PEI Munian's wedding.

Su Wanwan tidied up the documents on the conference table, held them in her arms, got up, walked out of the conference room, and then walked towards the chairman's office.

Su Zhenhua was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window when she pushed the office door open. He was looking at the scenery outside.
