

Deeply 209

209 She was really lying to him (9)

Su Wanwan hesitated again and again but still returned to the SU residence.

No matter how angry she was, it couldn't overcome her concern for him. But this time, she wouldn't be soft-hearted and compromise easily. After all, Hanhan couldn't only think for Grandpa for the rest of her life. She should also think for the people she loved.

Su Wanwan entered the door and nanny li was coming out of the kitchen with a glass of water. When she saw su Wanwan, she quickly came forward. miss, you're back? "

Su Wanwan nodded lightly and asked, "has the doctor arrived?"

I'm here, I'm here. I'm looking at it now. I'm going down to get you a glass of water.

Su Wanwan hummed, changed into slippers, and slowly walked upstairs.

Nanny li followed behind her, slightly surprised. Su Wan had always been concerned about the old man's health. Every time she heard that he was unwell, she would rush back in a hurry for fear of being a step too slow. Today, she was very calm.

However, she thought about how her master's face had been gloomy for the past two days. He had a bad temper and would get angry at any time, so she roughly knew what was going on.

The two of them must have quarreled.

This second miss of hers looked gentle and modest, but some things touched her bottom line. She also had a temper.

She had been in the SU family for so many years, so she naturally understood her master's temper. He was self-righteous and would not allow anyone to disobey his orders. In the past year, he had made miss do many things that she was unwilling to do and did not care much about her feelings. This time, perhaps he had done something overboard.

She pitied the second miss, but they were family after all. There were only two people left in this family who relied on each other for survival. She couldn't be like the eldest miss and ruin their relationship, right?

Nanny li thought for a while and still spoke up for her master. miss, I don't know what's going on between you and master, but master has been very unhappy these two days. He must have fainted because he was extremely angry. You know that he's not in good health. The doctor has been telling him to take good care of himself. Miss, you should at least give in to him.

Nanny li was an old servant in the family, so she dared to say this.

Su Wanwan naturally knew that nanny li was doing this for their own good, but there were some things that she didn't understand at all and she didn't know how to tell her.

Su Wanwan pursed her lips and replied lightly, " nanny Li, I know my limits.

Nanny li sighed softly and stopped talking.

After the doctor's examination, he still said the same thing. After all, he was old and had a strong heart and blood. If he was not careful, he could easily get dizzy and faint, so he could only rest well.

After the doctor finished explaining these precautions, he added, " miss su, the old master is still too worried. If possible, I suggest that he retires as soon as possible, puts down his work, and enjoys a peaceful life.

The doctor didn't avoid Su Zhenhua, but Su Zhenhua snorted when he heard this. if your children and grandchildren don't live up to expectations, how can they enjoy a peaceful life? "

Su Wanwan lowered her eyes and agreed to the doctor's words. Then, she asked nanny li to send the doctor away.

The bedroom quieted down. Su Wanwan stood in the same place for a few seconds, slowly walked to the bed, sat down, and gently said, "Grandpa, are you feeling better?"

Su Wanwan took the initiative to speak. Su Zhenhua seemed to have a way out and his expression eased a little. I'm fine. It's nanny li who made a big fuss and insisted on bringing you back. You should go back to the company. You have to be here when I'm not here.

Su Zhenhua's words were equivalent to letting go of the words he said in anger that day. A trace of warmth floated in su Wanwan's heart. since I'm back, I'll accompany you.
