218 A surprise (8)

The moment su Wanwan hugged PEI Munian, his body stiffened a little, but it disappeared in a flash.

Su Wanwan's soft voice came from the outstretched hand. It was low and soft, " why are you standing here? "

PEI Munian's Black eyes looked into the distance. The lights in L city were bright at night, matching the stars in the sky. It was extremely beautiful, but his eyes were not focused and his voice was very faint. I came out to get some fresh air and think about something.

Thinking about things?

"What are you thinking about?" Su Wanwan's small head poked out from behind PEI Munian and looked at his side profile.

PEI Munian's lips curled up and he didn't answer. The red wine in his hand was placed on the table. He raised his hand and pulled su Wan's arm away. He turned around and then his black eyes suddenly focused.

Su Wanwan stood there prettily. Her skin was snow-white, like cream, and the dress on her body was dark wine red. Under the light, su Wanwan was even more dazzling, making people unconsciously take a step forward and kiss her.

PEI Munian's throat tightened, and her breathing became a little hurried.

Su Wanwan's cheeks turned red from PEI Munian's stare, her heart beat faster, and her toes curled up.

After all, this was the first time she had done something like this. No matter how much courage she mustered, under PEI Munian's burning gaze, her face turned red a second time and she could not hold on any longer.

If it was in the past, PEI Munian would have come over to kiss her. However, today, she did not know if he was frightened by her action, but he just stood there and did not move.

Su Wanwan was originally just nervous and apprehensive, but now she was a little embarrassed and helpless.

Could it be that this Wanwan had lost her charm to PEI Munian in just a few days? She was standing in front of him so vividly, and he was just looking at her and not doing anything?

Was he really frightened by her?

Su Wanwan's long eyelashes blinked and her pearly white teeth bit her lower lip. Awkwardness was embarrassing, shyness was also shyness. She had already done this, she couldn't just retreat like this, right?

since he didn't respond, she had no choice but to take the initiative!

Su Wanwan's hands, which were hanging on both sides of her body, clenched and then released. She took a step forward, stood on her tiptoes, put her hands around PEI Munian's neck, and kissed PEI Munian's lips with her red lips.

Su Wanwan's lips were warm and soft. When she kissed him, her soft body was pressed against his chest. The faint fragrance on her body drilled into PEI Munian's nose. In an instant, PEI Munian's last remaining rationality was completely destroyed.

The light in his eyes darkened, and he couldn't help but raise his hand to hug the woman's slender waist in front of him. His thin lips opened and he turned the guest into the host and kissed her back.

PEI Munian's kiss was no longer as gentle as before. Instead, it was more aggressive. Her tongue pried open her teeth and entered her mouth, invading her mouth like a storm.

Su Wanwan was a little surprised by his kiss. He hadn't kissed her so roughly and murderously for a long time. Since they made up, his kisses had always been very gentle.

Because su Wanwan was a little distracted, PEI Munian accidentally bit her tongue. Su Wanwan cried out in pain.

This voice was like a large plate of cold water that was poured directly on PEI Munian's head. It was so cold that he suddenly woke up.

He suddenly realized what he was doing, and his whole body trembled.
