

Deeply 221

221 When the dream is shattered (1)

Su Wanwan was naturally very happy that PEI Munian valued her and Grandpa so much. She tiptoed, put her arms around PEI Munian's neck, kissed him on the cheek, and smiled. okay, I'll tell Grandpa.

PEI Munian ruffled her hair and said gently, "Go to sleep. I'm going to the office."

"I'll send you downstairs."

"No need,"

PEI Munian smiled and strode out of the bedroom.

Su Wanwan looked at PEI Munian's back as she left. Her heart was filled with happiness. It was as if her whole person was soaked in honey. She subconsciously stood on her toes and spun a few rounds. Then, she lay back on the bed.

After laughing for a while, she sat up again.

Grandpa had always hoped that she could hold a wedding with PEI Munian. Tonight, he would publicly announce her identity and the wedding. Grandpa would definitely be very happy to know about it.

In the future, she and PEI Munian would be able to live happily ever after, and her grandfather would no longer force her to do things she did not want to do with the benefits of the SU family's enterprise. Her future was suddenly filled with sunshine, and she was indeed the happiest person in the world.

Su Wanwan reached out to the bedside table, took her phone, and called Su Zhenhua.

Su Zhenhua received su Wanwan's call and was a little surprised when he heard the good news. Although he had learned from PEI Munian that she would announce her marriage soon, he didn't expect that he would announce it today.

As expected, PEI Munian was still quite concerned about Wanwan. His observation back then was indeed right.

From the first time he met with the gong family, he had noticed that there was something wrong between PEI Munian and su Wanwan. Later, su Wanwan got up and went to the bathroom, and PEI Munian followed her. He also found an excuse to go out.

Inadvertently, he saw PEI Munian and su Wanwan entangled in the corridor and also heard their conversation.

PEI Munian's every word was ruthless, but perhaps the bystander could see it clearly. He didn't think that PEI Munian really hated su Wan. Instead, he felt that in his eyes, there was clearly hatred, but it seemed that there were other feelings.

However, there was one thing he couldn't understand at that time. When did Wanwan get to know PEI Munian? from the looks of it, there seemed to be some past between them.

After returning home, Su Zhenhua sent someone to check if su Wanwan and PEI Munian had any interactions before. Sure enough, he found something.

That year, su Wanwan and PEI Munian went to the same university and su Wanwan crazily pursued PEI Munian. In the end, PEI Munian didn't agree to her, but no one found out. It was just that three years ago, PEI Munian and su Wanwan were quite close for a period of time and urged him to enter and leave the SU family.

However, all of this couldn't make Su Zhenhua certain of PEI Munian's feelings for su Wanwan. Until that banquet, when he observed PEI Munian's every move in the dark. When PEI Munian saw su Wanwan talking to another man, he deliberately drove her out, had a dispute with su Wanwan, and finally drank angrily. He saw everything clearly.

Therefore, he decided to bet on this.

Betting on whether PEI Munian cared about su Wanwan or not, betting on whether his granddaughter could successfully marry into the PEI family.

And then, he won the bet. He had won all the way until now, and tonight would be his biggest victory.

Su Zhenhua smirked, his eyes full of pride. The moment PEI Munian announced her marriage tonight, he wanted to let everyone know immediately.

Su Zhenhua picked up his phone and called a reporter.
