

Deeply 251

251 I just like him (1)

Even if PEI Munian didn't believe her, su Wanwan still explained it seriously. Whether he believed her or not, that was his business. She just wanted him to know that even if she had nothing in front of him, she wouldn't be so shameless again and again.

if I had known that mom would make such arrangements, I wouldn't have come.

Su Wanwan bit her lip and slowly said, word by word, "today's matter, just pretend it didn't happen. I'll go first.

Su Wanwan got up from the sofa and quickly walked to the door of the room. However, when she wanted to open the door and go out, the door couldn't be opened.

She frowned and twisted the door lock. She pulled hard, but the door seemed to be locked and did not move.

Su Wanwan's eyes flashed with doubt. What's wrong with the door?

Su Wanwan spoke so firmly as if she really didn't participate in today's matter and everything was his mother's idea. She even left as she pleased. PEI Munian was stunned by her actions. Unfortunately, she revealed her true colors so quickly.

PEI Munian looked at su Wanwan, who was standing at the door of the room without moving, and her lips twitched sarcastically. what? You can't bear to leave again?"

Su Wanwan's words were always so pleasant to hear and she always acted in front of him. The sad thing was that the act she acted in front of him was always broken with a poke, making it difficult for him to believe her.

Su Wanwan listened to the mocking voice coming from behind her and her heart trembled slightly. She knew that she and PEI Munian had come to this point. She should not be moved by any of his words and feel hurt. It was just that it was easy to say, but it was difficult to do. After all, Huahua loved him and loved him for so many years.

It might only take a second to love a person, but it would take a very long time to forget the person you loved. It might even take forever. You might not be able to completely erase the traces of him in your heart.

However, even if she could not forget, she would not let him know a single thing. She would not give him the chance to laugh at her sincerity again.

"The door can't be opened. It seems to be locked from the outside."

Su Wanwan tried to explain as calmly as possible. Then, she reached out and knocked on the door hard. As she knocked, she shouted outside, "is anyone there?" Is anyone there? Can you help me open the door?"

It's locked?

PEI Munian looked at su Wanwan's nonchalant attitude and only felt that it was ridiculous. No wonder she could leave so righteously just now. She must have known about this long ago. She knew that the door had been locked by his mother from the outside and she couldn't leave even if she wanted to. That's why she was acting like this in front of him.

Sometimes, he really wanted to peel open her heart and see what kind of heart she had. How could she be so scheming and cunning? she was always weaving lies and pretending to be innocent. He had clearly seen her true colors!

The more PEI Munian thought about it, the angrier she got. She strode forward with her long legs and walked behind su Wanwan. She grabbed su Wanwan's arm and forcefully turned her body around. Her black eyes were full of gloom, her lips curled coldly, and her voice was full of impatience. su Wan, stop acting. Whether it's in front of me or my parents, I'm telling you, no matter what you do, it's useless!

No matter what she did, it was useless.

That's right, no matter what she did, he had never believed her. In his eyes, she had never been innocent and had always been scheming.
