Her weakness and uneasiness were no longer excuses for her to rely on PEI Munian. He had already become someone else's support.

The moment she heard Xi Zhiwei's voice, she felt that she was both laughable and sad. She was silent for a few seconds. Without saying anything, she hung up the phone.

PEI Munian had Xi Zhiwei, and Xi Zhiwei had a child. They would be a family of three in the future. She and her child were nothing to PEI Munian. Perhaps Qianqian hated her, or perhaps she hated her child as well. If he knew that she was pregnant with his child, he probably would not want it and would not allow her to want it.

In the beginning, she didn't want this child. She didn't want this child to be born without a father, without a complete family, and unable to enjoy the most ordinary happiness like ordinary children.

However, although Yingluo was rational, when she woke up from the dream, and the child's miserable complaints rang in her ears over and over again, she felt as if her heart was being cut by a knife. How could she have the courage to abandon the child?

She subconsciously placed her hopes on PEI Munian, hoping that he would tell her what she should do. This was the worst decision she had ever made. Fortunately, this decision of Wanwan's didn't lead to a big mistake.

After that, she struggled and hesitated for two days. Love was really a special thing. In just two short days, she felt as if the child had taken root in her body, and they were firmly connected. The thought of not wanting him grew fainter and fainter. In the end, she could not even say that she did not want him anymore.

She might not have the confidence to give this child happiness, but she would try her best to give him all the good things in the world so that he would be happy and grow up happily.

Anyway, she didn't have the ability to love another person. She could give all her love to her child. It was enough for them to live together.

However, in order for her to live well with this child in the future, in order for him to stay by her side, the first thing she had to do was to completely break off her marriage with PEI Munian. Only then would the child belong to her alone.

As for PEI Munian, in order to take revenge on her, she had been dragging on and unwilling to divorce her. In the past, she could have been fine with it since it was just a title. But now, she had to be fast and accurate and cut everything off!

After Yu Jia came back, he brought back the certificate of six weeks of pregnancy for su Wanwan and she handed it to her.

Su Wanwan took the list and looked at it carefully. Her gaze was fixed on the two words "six weeks." Her eyes narrowed, and then she rushed to Yu Jia and sincerely said thank you again.

Yu Jia sighed softly. am I not good at making friends? ”

Su Wanwan put away the list and smiled. Yu Jia, I still have something to do now, so I have to go. I'll treat you to a meal later, and we'll keep in touch on the phone.

“Alright, go ahead if you have something urgent to attend to. But since you've decided to keep this child, you must pay attention to rest and not tire yourself out. if there's any problem, give me a call immediately, ” Yu Jiaxi reminded her as usual.

“I know, I'm leaving.” Su Wanwan got up and left.

After su Wanwan left for a few minutes, Yu Jia remembered that she hadn't told su Wanwan that she had a headache and needed a checkup. Yu Jia patted her head and quickly chased after her.
