

Deeply 34

Chapter 34 Forced to Marry him (4)

Su Wanwan knew her grandfather wouldn't let this matter go so easily, but she didn't expect her grandfather would demand that Pei Munian marry her right off the bat!

When Su Wanwan finally regained her voice after much difficulty, she quickly explained, "Grandpa, it's not like that. That night was just an accident!"

Su Zhenhua was silent for a while. Then his expression turned even more ominous. "Accident? You already slept together, yet you still claim it was an accident?!"

"I..."

Su Wanwan wanted to explain what happened that day but didn't know where to start. As a result, she could only explain that she was drunk and unknowingly fell asleep in Pei Munian's room some way or another. They then slept together by accident.

As she described the series of events, she tried her best to take the blame as much as possible. In that case, grandfather couldn't force Pei Munian to take responsibility for her.

After hearing what she had to say, Su Zhenhua was extremely disappointed. He said angrily, "No matter the reason, the fact remains that both of you slept together. Girls are always at a disadvantage under these circumstances. Now that it's already out in the news and everyone knows, if Pei Munian didn't take responsibility for you, how could you face other people in the future? Which man would marry you?"

"But Grandpa..."

"Enough said. I won't allow something like this to happen. I'll talk to Pei Munian personally."

Talk to Pei Munian?

No way!

The things Pei Munian said to her this morning were still vivid in her mind. He already hates me so much; how could he possibly be willing to marry me? If Grandpa talks to him, he'll just be bringing humiliation upon himself. It's enough that I was humiliated-I can't let Grandpa be humiliated too.

"Do-don't talk to him!"

Su Wanwan grabbed Su Zhenhua's hand abruptly and held it with a death grip out of fear that he would go straight to Pei Munian as soon as she let go. Looking at him, she said pleadingly, "Grandpa, I beg you please don't talk to him and don't get him to marry me because of this incident. Can we just treat it like nothing happened, please?"

Su Zhenhua didn't expect Su Wanwan to utter such defeated words. He was so furious that his breathing quickened and his chest rose and fell rapidly. His voice was filled with rage: "Su Wanwan, do you know what you're saying?"

If this were in the past, Su Wanwan would never have dared to make her grandfather angry, but today, she had to persevere till the end.

Although she knew that even if she didn't let her grandfather go to Pei Munian, it wouldn't change Pei Munian's perception of her as her image in his heart had already hit rock bottom, she still wanted him to know that she would fulfill her promise.

In any case, she had to make Grandpa dispel the idea of looking for Pei Munian.

"Grandpa, I know I disgraced the Su family by doing this. But Grandpa, Pei Munian doesn't love me, and I... don't love him. How could we get married?"

Su Wanwan paused for a moment and her white teeth bit down on her lower lip hard. Then her lips parted again as she continued, "Plus, Pei Munian and I... some unpleasant stuff happened between us in the past. He... hates me very much. He will never marry me. So..."

Before Su Wanwan could finish talking, there was a sudden knock on the door of the study. Thereafter, Nanny Li's voice came through from the other side: "Master, there's a call for you from Mrs. Pei. Do you want me to transfer the call to the study?"

Mrs. Pei? Isn't that... Pei Munian's mother?

Su Wanwan froze for a moment and forgot what she was going to say. She simply stared at Su Zhenhua blankly.

A hint of surprise flashed across Su Zhenhua's eyes, but he reacted quickly and responded, "Okay, transfer it over." Then he picked up the phone on the side table.