

Deeply 401

401 Give me back my life (1)

PEI Munian staggered a few steps from su Wanwan's push before she barely managed to stand up.

Su Wanwan's words, word by word, entered his ears. His heart felt like it was being ruthlessly pricked by fine, dense needles. It hurt so much that his face turned slightly pale.

He didn't feel pain for su Wanwan's words, but he felt pain for su Wanwan's pain at this moment.

However, no matter how much pain he was in, he did not regret his choice at that time. He gave her a chance to do it all over again, and his choice was still to not want the child, only her!

PEI Munian lowered her eyes and took a deep breath. She said word by word, "Wanwan, I don't regret it.

Don't regret

That's right, how could he regret it? Her child was gone, and he had completely gotten rid of all future troubles. He didn't even have the time to start now, so how could he be repenting or afraid? She was really daydreaming.

Su Wanwan suddenly laughed. At first, her voice was very soft. Then, her laughter slowly became louder. In the end, it was almost a sharp laugh. then what are you doing here now? To laugh at me? Or are you waiting to see when I die?"

Su Wanwan laughed and two lines of tears flowed out. She raised her hand and wiped them away. Her black eyes were still staring at him, as if she was going to stare through him. don't worry, you will get what you want soon. I can't bear to leave my baby alone. It's too lonely. I will go and accompany him. I will go and accompany him now.

Su Wanwan said to herself and suddenly looked left and right. She saw a fruit knife on the other side of the table, next to the fruit plate. A hint of determination flashed in her eyes. As soon as her feet landed on the ground, she pounced over there.

PEI Munian realized what she was going to do and kicked the table away before she could. Then, he stretched out his long arm and wrapped it around su Wanwan's waist. He took her into his arms and pressed her firmly in front of him. His voice sounded above her head, carrying a thick anger, "su Wan, are you still going crazy?"

He was shocked and afraid. He had done so many things to let her live on and not to let her seek her own death.

Now that the child was gone, she should take care of herself. Only when her body recovered could she undergo brain surgery and remove the blood clot in her head.

Su Wanwan struggled in PEI Munian's arms. Her body was obviously weak, but at this moment, her strength was amazing. PEI Munian could only hold her even more tightly.

"Su Wanwan, you just want a child. We, ran ran, will have children in the future!"

There will be children in the future, Yingluo.

These few words slowly entered su Wanwan's ears. Her struggling movement paused for a moment, then, she struggled even more. PEI Munian was merciless and she actually broke free. However, at this moment, she also didn't have much strength. She took two steps back and fell on the bed, gasping for breath.

As she panted, she couldn't help but laugh out loud, as if what he said was the biggest joke in the world.

PEI Munian also knew that su Wanwan wouldn't believe his sudden words, but he still tried to continue, "Wanwan, there's a blood clot in your head. Your condition is very serious, so you must have an operation. This child can't be kept in the first place. Now that he's gone, it might be a good thing. If you want a child, we'll have as many children as you want after you've recovered from the surgery, okay?"
