405 Give me back my life (5)

Su Wanwan still had a reaction to him. This point made PEI Munian's heart more or less calm.

He didn't let su Wanwan avoid it. The tip of his tongue forced open her teeth and passed the water over. Su Wanwan couldn't break free and was forced to drink a mouthful of water. She swallowed it unconsciously, struggled with both hands, and pushed PEI Munian away.

She didn't say a word. She opened her eyes and glared at him. She had become thinner, and her chin was sharper. There was no flesh on her face, making her eyes bigger. However, there was no life in them, like a Pearl stained with dust, gray and misty.

PEI Munian suppressed the pain in her heart and looked at her. She said coldly, "if you don't want me to continue feeding you this way, then you can drink and eat by yourself. Otherwise, I don't mind doing it for you.

Su Wanwan really didn't feel anything from the outside world now. She didn't feel hungry, didn't feel sleepy, and didn't feel anything. It was quiet, and only PEI Munian was enticed.

As soon as he appeared, her world began to stir again. The pain of losing her child rushed towards her like a tidal wave, disrupting her calm and driving her anger.

Su Wanwan's chest heaved up and down involuntarily, and her eyes turned red little by little. Her voice was hoarse as she roared at him, "get lost, Yingluo, get lost!

She didn't want to see him. She was in so much pain when she saw him, and she couldn't control herself!

PEI Munian's expression didn't change. He took the food on the table, carried the plate, and placed it in front of su Wanwan. He glanced at her and said, "eat the food, and then eat on time, sleep, recuperate, and undergo the operation. If you survive, I can no longer appear in front of you.

When he said the last sentence, PEI Munian's voice suddenly turned hoarse. His hands clenched tightly, but in the end, he still finished his sentence word by word.

He didn't dare to ask for anything more now, as long as she was willing to live, willing to live well.

"Ha." Su Wanwan sneered, "yes, only if I survive can you continue to take revenge on me and continue to torture me. But PEI Munian, don't even think about getting your wish this time. I've said it before, if my child is gone, I won't live alone!

PEI Munian slowly closed her eyes. After a while, he opened them again. His eyes were cold and his lips curled up, but there was no smile in them. His voice was cold and terrifying. since you know that I won't let you die so that I can continue to take revenge on you and torture you, do you think I will let you die so easily before I get tired of you?"

PEI Munian suddenly bent down and pinched su Wan's chin with his fingers, forcing her to raise her head. His cold eyes looked into her black eyes and he said word by word, "if you die, I will make your su family, your SU group, disappear with you!

The light in su Wanwan's eyes froze and she panicked for a moment. However, the next second disappeared in a flash. She curved her lips and slowly laughed. PEI Munian, do you think Yueyue can still threaten me? If I die, I won't know anything, so why would I care about this? At most, when I see my parents, I'll say sorry to them. They love me so much, they won't blame me for it. "

PEI Munian, I won't do the surgery. I want the blood clot to stay in my brain!
