455 Our past (5)

After breakfast, PEI Munian took a napkin and wiped the corners of su Wanwan's lips. She leaned over and kissed her, then pulled her up. As they walked out, she said, "Wanwan, I'm going to the office. You stay at home and rest well. Cooperate with your rehabilitation exercises, okay?" "I'll call Cha Qin back."

Su Wanwan hated it the most when PEI Munian was going to the company. She reached out and grabbed the corner of PEI Munian's shirt, shaking her head. don't go, stay with me!

PEI Munian patted su Wanwan's head. be good. I'll come back to accompany you after work, okay?"

PEI Munian bent down again and planted a kiss on su Wanwan's cheek. Her tone was also filled with reluctance. Wanwan, I don't want to go to work either, but I have to earn money to support the family. Otherwise, I won't have the money to let you buy things online.

When su Wanwan heard this, her eyes widened and she immediately let go of PEI Munian's clothes. then you go to work. I want money. I want to buy, buy, buy!

".....?"

PEI Munian originally wanted to coax su Wanwan to let him go to work. In the end, she was so quick to let him go. His heart suddenly felt unbalanced. He reached out and wrapped his arms around su Wanwan's waist, bringing her to his side. His black eyes were deep and resentful. Wanwan, do you love money or me now?"

Su Wanwan's eyebrows furrowed.

PEI Munian looked at su Wanwan's appearance and the gloominess in her heart suddenly blocked her chest. She actually thought about how Wanwan was willing to be eaten for him yesterday, but today, she actually hesitated for the sake of money.

PEI Munian's heart felt stifled. She added unwillingly, "Wanwan, without me, you won't have any money.

Su Wanwan understood and nodded without hesitation. I love you!

Loving niannian was equivalent to being rich!

She didn't know the right time and reacted so quickly when she didn't know the right time. PEI Munian was so angry that she couldn't vent her anger and could only bite su Wanwan's lips.

He said he was biting, but he couldn't bear to use force.

After he finished kissing her, su Wanwan automatically hugged his neck and kissed him back. The crisp sound instantly soothed PEI Munian's gloominess. He raised his hand and touched her cheek, saying softly, "call me if you need anything. I'll take you out when you're well, okay?"

Su Wanwan's eyes suddenly brightened. She was bored in the hospital before and now she was bored in the villa. She had long been bored to death and always hoped to go out and play. She nodded her head hard. I will be good!

Lin Xiaoxuan had been standing there the whole time, witnessing everything in front of her.

All along, she had sympathy and pity for su Wanwan. Seeing that she had such a gentle, considerate and affectionate husband like PEI Munian, she was even more envious.

But now, she looked at su Wan who didn't know what was good for her. She looked at su Wan who didn't understand PEI Munian's love at all and wantonly squandered his love. She was so happy but didn't know how to care. She couldn't help but have a trace of hatred for su Wanwan.

He hated su Wanwan for not cherishing him from the past until now.

After PEI Munian left, Lin Xiaoxuan accompanied su Wanwan for a walk. After they finished eating, they returned to the living room. Su Wanwan was curled up on the sofa as usual and listened to Lin Xiaoxuan reading to her.

Lin Xiaoxuan was reading a beautiful love story today. Su Wanwan was entranced by it. After she finished reading, Lin Xiaoxuan closed the book and pretended to say inadvertently, " miss su, you don't have to be envious. Your relationship with Mr. PEI is even better than what is written in this book. I'm very curious. What were you like in the past? have you always been this loving?"
