After Lin Xiaoxuan said this, she couldn't help but smile. She patted her head lightly and said, "look at what I'm saying. Miss su, you have no memory of the past now. Why would I ask you such a question?"

"But even if I don't ask, I know that miss su and Mr. PEI's relationship is so good now, so it must have been very good in the past. Don't you agree, miss su?"

Since su Wanwan woke up from the operation, her brain had been in a slow recovery state. The situation was still very good. She was gradually able to accept the information transmitted from the outside world and could also gradually recover the abilities she once had, such as recognizing words, understanding, arithmetic, etc. The only thing she didn't recover at all was her memory.

There were many things that she knew how to do before she even started learning because she knew how to do them in the past. However, her mind was blank when it came to what she used to be like, as if she had never had a past.

During this time, su Wanwan had been too comfortable and too happy. In her world, there was only PEI Munian in her mind, so she didn't have the mood to think about other things. And now, Lin Xiaoxuan's casual words suddenly set off a huge wave in her calm heart.

What was she like in the past? What was the relationship between her and PEI Munian like in the past?

Listening to Lin Xiaoxuan read this love story, the male and female protagonists met from the beginning, fought with wisdom and courage, attracted to each other, and developed feelings for each other. In the end, they confessed affectionately, went through some twists and turns and tests, then got married, and were happy together.

Then, was she and niannian like them? How did they know each other? How did they get together? Who liked who first, who chased who first? Questions like these kept popping up in her mind.

Because her memory was blank, she was even more curious and wanted to know.

Su Wanwan hugged a pillow and furrowed her eyebrows. She seemed to be thinking about something and didn't speak.

Lin Xiaoxuan's Black eyes swept over su Wanwan's beautiful face without a trace, and a strange light quickly flashed in the bottom of her eyes. She didn't disturb her and let her think like this.

Even if she couldn't think of anything now, she knew that people without memories were very persistent about their own memories. Once the seed of doubt was planted in her heart, it would become an obsession, and she would try hard to find her own memories.

During this period of time, she saw that the relationship between PEI Munian and su Wanwan was too good, so good that it made her envious and jealous. The better they were, the more she felt strange. Why didn't any news of such a loving couple leak out before? she couldn't help but search for information about them. In the end, she found out that the past between PEI Munian and su Wanwan didn't seem to be what she saw in front of her eyes.

PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei had a scandal, but su Wanwan had a scandal with another man, the young master of the gong family. And this young master of the gong family was PEI Munian's cousin.

After reading these scandals, her heart couldn't calm down for a long time and she couldn't sleep the whole night. Even if both sides were involved in scandals, but from what she saw during this period of time, PEI Munian was deeply in love with su Wanwan, and su Wanwan had hooked up with other men before. In her opinion, su Wanwan didn't deserve PEI Munian to be so good to her.
