468 Making love (8)

In order to prevent such a situation from happening, she had specially brought only this one! There was nothing he could do, so he could only make do with it.

PEI Munian looked at the sly glint in su Wanwan's eyes and smiled. if it's just this question, it's very easy.

PEI Munian walked over to the bedside table, picked up the phone, and dialed a number. After she picked up, she gave a few simple instructions.

About five minutes later, there was a knock on the door. PEI Munian opened the door and a service staff pushed in a rack of swimsuits.

PEI Munian stood leaning against the wall, her black eyes glancing sideways at su Wanwan. Her chin pointed at the row of swimsuits and she lazily opened her mouth. choose.

Her Dao was one foot higher, his devil was ten feet higher!

Su Wanwan looked at those swimsuits. The designs were getting older and uglier than the previous one. They were not even as good as the one aunt Wu had chosen for her. Su Wanwan's small face fell and she looked at PEI Munian pitifully. She said coquettishly, "Niannian, can I choose neither?"

PEI Munian did not speak and only looked at her.

Su Wanwan and PEI Munian confronted each other for a few seconds before she declared her defeat. She was disheartened and randomly picked a swimsuit. She turned around and went to the bathroom to change. When she came out, she kept pouting and glared at PEI Munian with incomparable resentment.

However, PEI Munian was very satisfied with her new dress. She had covered everything that should be covered. He took the bathrobe and wrapped it around su Wan's body. He tied the belt and nodded with his chin in his hand. His voice was gentle. mm, you're beautiful now.

Which part of her was beautiful?

"I think it's very ugly!"

A smile formed in PEI Munian's eyes. His hand gently caressed su Wanwan's angry face. His voice became gentler, like flowing water, sliding across su Wan's heart.

"I only need to know how beautiful you are."

Her beauty was exclusive to him. He only wanted to keep it for himself and didn't want anyone else to see it.

It had to be said that PEI Munian was really good with her words. She was clearly filled with anger, but when she heard his words, it was as if a hole had been poked in a balloon that was about to explode, and all her anger disappeared in an instant.

Su Wanwan's eyes curved and she smiled again. She hugged PEI Munian's arm and urged, "let's go to the hot spring quickly."

“Alright,” he said.

PEI Munian was about to change into her swimsuit when his phone suddenly rang. He walked over to the sofa and picked up the phone from the coffee table. Seeing that it was assistant Wu, he said to su Wanwan, “wanwan, wait a moment.”

He walked to the balcony and answered the call.

Su Wanwan could only sit on the sofa and wait for him. She originally thought that PEI Munian would end her speech quickly, but assistant Wu seemed to have some business matters to talk to him about. They chatted for a while but she did not seem to have any intention of hanging up.

su wanwan rolled her hair with her fingers in boredom. she really couldn't wait. she got up and whispered, “niannian, i'll go to the hot spring pool first. come and find me after you're done with the call.”

Without waiting for PEI Munian's reply, she ran out.

Su Wanwan asked the hotel's waiter. Under their guidance, she walked all the way to the hot spring pool. She lifted the curtain and walked in.

There weren't many people who came to the hot spring at this time, only a few people. Su Wanwan chose a quiet corner and soaked her body in it.

When the hot water swept through her body, su Wanwan couldn't help but sigh.

It was so comfortable that she felt a little drowsy. She could vaguely hear footsteps approaching.
