

Deeply 487

487 Suspicion (7)

Su Wanwan had always been curious about whether she had family and friends, but every time she asked this, PEI Munian's answer was very vague, or she used other things to divert her attention, so she still hadn't figured it out.

But it turned out that Yingluo had a family.

The call was from nanny li, who said that it was an old servant in her family. She called her because her grandfather was seriously ill and asked her to go home immediately.

She clearly had no memories of nanny li and her grandfather, but when she heard nanny Li's voice, she felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity. When she mentioned her grandfather's serious illness, she also unconsciously started to worry.

Su Wanwan had never experienced such a feeling before. It made her feel that what nanny Li said was true.

Su Wanwan was excited to find her family, but she was more worried about the condition of this grandfather who had lost his memory. Her hand unconsciously tightened her grip on the phone and said, " okay, I'll go back now. Tell me the address, and I'll Ask Auntie Wu to send me there.

Although nanny li already knew from the old man that su Wanwan had forgotten the fact of the past, she still couldn't help but feel sad when she heard her ask for her home address.

Nanny li swallowed her saliva and suppressed the sobs in her voice. She told her the address and deliberately lowered her voice. She added, " by the way, miss, if you can come back alone, then you can come back alone. Don't let young master PEI know.

Su Wanwan was holding a pen and writing an address. When she heard nanny Li's words, she furrowed her eyebrows and asked in confusion, " why? "

She would not hide anything from PEI Munian now. Moreover, he did not allow her to go out. If she wanted to go home to see her grandfather, she would definitely have to report to him first.

miss, I'm not too sure about the details. This is what master ordered. Perhaps he has something important to tell you and it's not convenient for outsiders to be here.

An outsider?

Su Wanwan was keenly aware of these two words and her eyebrows furrowed even tighter.

She was married to PEI Munian. They were husband and wife. How could they be outsiders?

Su Wanwan subconsciously asked, " nanny li, aren't niannian and I already married? " Why did you call him an outsider?"

"Ah? Miss, haven't you already signed a divorce agreement with young master PEI?"

Divorce!

Su Wanwan knew the word " marriage " and naturally also knew the word " divorce. that was the destruction of the marital relationship and there was no feelings between the two people, so they would divorce.

But her relationship with niannian had always been very good, how could she have agreed to a divorce?

It seemed that there were many things that were not what she thought. Every time she thought that she knew enough, old things from the past would always appear.

And the most shocking thing was the divorce.

Su Wanwan's face changed instantly and her voice couldn't help but tremble. li, nanny li, what nonsense are you talking about? niannian and I are fine. How could we divorce? " this ... I might have made a mistake. I've only heard you mention it once, but the old master did ask you to come back alone.

Su Wanwan's tightly knitted eyebrows didn't relax because of nanny Li's words. Instead, they became even heavier.

Although she wouldn't doubt niannian's relationship with her just because of nanny Li's words, she was really curious about her past.

After a moment of silence, she finally made up her mind and said, " okay, I'll go back alone.