512 Announcing their marriage to the world (8)

The gentleness in PEI Munian's eyes rose bit by bit. It was as if she was the only person he could see in this world. He raised the microphone and said, "I owe my wife one thing. On such a happy day, I want to fulfill my promise to her! I hope everyone can bear witness to this!"

Wife?

The general office knew that PEI Munian was not married yet, so why would she suddenly have a wife? Could it be Xi Zhiwei, who had exposed her relationship before? Were they already secretly married?

PEI Munian's words were like a bomb, instantly igniting the entire venue. All the reporters' eyes lit up as they stared at him on the stage. The photographers quickly focused their cameras on PEI Munian, anticipating his next move.

Su Wanwan was stunned when she heard PEI Munian's words.

She never thought that niannian would publicly announce the fact that he had a wife under such circumstances. No wonder he insisted on taking her to America. Was this the proof he had told her before?

After PEI Munian finished speaking, he took a few steps forward and then with a handsome jump, he directly jumped off the high platform. He then strode with his long legs and walked to su Wanwan step by step.

All the cameras were following his figure, and everyone's eyes were following his movement.

Su Wanwan thought that it was over after he announced it from above, but he actually walked down and walked to her. Su Wanwan sat there in a daze, as if she had lost all her reaction.

PEI Munian smiled at su Wanwan. He put his hand in his pocket and took out a jewelry box. He opened it and there was a dazzling diamond ring inside. Then, he took a step back, bent his knee, and slowly knelt down.

PEI Munian raised the diamond ring and looked at su Wanwan affectionately with her black eyes. Her voice was charming and it slowly entered su Wanwan's ears.

Wanwan, are you willing to marry me? "

In an instant, all the gazes that were gathered on PEI Munian moved to su Wanwan, the delicate and beautiful woman who was sitting there.

Some sharp-eyed reporters had already recognized that it was su Wanwan, the daughter of su family enterprise.

Everyone thought that PEI Munian's wife would be Xi Zhiwei, but they didn't expect such a big reversal. If it was any other woman, they might not be able to cause such a stir, but this woman was su Wanwan!

The PEI family group's acquisition a few months ago was a big deal, and the target was the SU family group. No matter how one looked at it, the two seemed to be enemies. Who would have thought that they had already been secretly involved? Then, was that acquisition just a little fun between the couple?

The reporters couldn't help but go crazy. They left their seats and rushed forward, afraid to miss this super breaking news.

Su Wanwan was completely dumbfounded. Her mind was blank. PEI Munian actually proposed to her in front of the whole world?

She had lost her memories and did not know if PEI Munian had proposed to her before. If she had, she would have regretted not being able to remember such a beautiful scene. She did not expect PEI Munian to fulfill her dream just like that.

Su Wanwan's hand suddenly covered her mouth. She was too surprised, too shocked, and too happy.

Su Wanwan didn't react for a long time, but PEI Munian wasn't in a hurry. She only shook the ring in her hand and said, "Wanwan, you don't agree? If you don't agree, I'm going to take care of Yingluo."
