Chapter 52 Payment in installments (2)

Not coming back?

It was only the second day of their wedding and he was not coming back?

However, he didn't want this marriage in the first place, so why would he care?

Su Wanwan lowered her eyes and hid the imperceptible disappointment in her eyes. She curved her lips and said, "Then let's start eating."

However, for the next three days, the fourth day, the fifth day, and even half a month after that, PEI Munian did not return at all. A few days ago, he would still call her every day to inform her of the situation, but after that, he did not even call her once.

At first, su Wanwan still felt a little uncomfortable in her heart, but gradually, she felt that this was good. If he didn't come home, she didn't have to worry about accidentally saying the wrong thing and angering him. She also didn't have to be so careful, trembling in fear, and even more didn't have to see his disgust and hatred for her.

However, staying alone in this big and empty house, it was easy for her to let her thoughts run wild. The more she thought about it, the sadder she would feel. She might as well go back to the company to work.

Previously, because of their marriage, her grandfather had asked her to rest for a month and cultivate her relationship with PEI Munian. Unfortunately, she could not even see PEI Munian in person.

Su Wanwan thought about it and decided to call her grandfather and tell him that she wanted to go back to the company to work.

Su Wanwan picked up her phone and was about to dial when her phone suddenly rang. She looked at the caller ID and it happened to be her grandfather.

Su Wanwan quickly answered the call, put the phone to her ear, and said softly, "Grandpa, I was just about to call you. How have you been?"

Su Zhenhua wasn't in the mood to chat with su Wanwan. He didn't answer her question but went straight to the point. Wanwan, when will the second investment fund be transferred over? "

Su Wanwan was confused by Su Zhenhua's sudden words and her mind was in a daze. Grandpa, what second sum of money? "

"You don't know about this?" Su Zhenhua was a little surprised, but he explained to her simply, " we had initially agreed with Mrs. PEI that after you and PEI Munian got married, the PEI family would send us the investment funds in one go. However, mu Nian's assistant called later to say that there are some problems on their side and they can't transfer so much money in one go, so they'll send it over in installments.

After a pause, Su Zhenhua continued, " they sent a portion of the money over, but you know that this amount of money can only last for a short time. If the second sum of money doesn't come, the company won't be able to survive.

Wanwan, can you ask mu Nian when she'll transfer the second sum of money? "

That day, after PEI Munian left in a Huff, su Wanwan was indeed worried that he would be dissatisfied with her performance and not transfer the money to the SU group. However, when she called Secretary su the next day, Secretary su said that the PEI group had already transferred the money over. She thought that everything was fine, so she didn't ask further. She didn't expect PEI Munian to actually pay in installments.

In that case, he was still not satisfied with her. Now that he hadn't transferred the second sum of money, could it be that he was unwilling to give Hanhan the rest?

Su Wanwan's hand clenched her phone tightly. Her thoughts were a little chaotic and she didn't speak for a while.

On the other end of the line, Su Zhenhua seemed to have sensed something. His voice was questioning and reproachful. Wanwan, did you make Munian unhappy again? " That's why he didn't send the funds?"
