Chapter 53 Payment in installments (3)

Su Zhenhua questioned and reproached her without asking for the reason. It wasn't that su Wanwan didn't feel wronged!

Before her parents passed away, she was also pampered and raised by her parents. After the SU family fell from grace, she learned to control her temper, to bow and scrape, to compromise, and to bow her head when she was under someone else's roof.

For the SU group and the SU family, she did not hesitate to sacrifice her marriage. She did not hesitate to let the person she loved misunderstand that she was unscrupulous, sinister, and despicable. She even humbly tried to please PEI Munian. However, her grandfather did not say a word of concern for her. He was only worried that she had made PEI Munian unhappy again.

Su Wanwan's lips gently wriggled, wanting to say something, but the words the doctor said to her before involuntarily flashed in her mind. The grievances in her heart instantly disappeared.

She was the one who wanted to get married, and she had chosen her own path. What grievances did she have to complain about?

Su Wanwan closed her eyes and adjusted her emotions. Then, she pretended to be relaxed and replied, "Grandpa, it's nothing. Mu Nian and I are very good. He's probably been busy these few days, so he forgot about it. I'll tell him when he comes back tonight."

Su Wanwan's words made Su Zhenhua's heart calm down. He smiled and said admiringly, "very good, Wanwan. Grandpa will wait for your good news!"

Su Wanwan's mouth had a trace of bitterness, and she swallowed hard.

After hanging up the phone, su Wan belatedly remembered that she forgot to tell her grandfather that she had to go back to the company to work. However, Wanwan didn't have the mood to go back to work at the moment. She had to settle the matter of the investment funds first.

However, what was she going to do with the payment?

If it wasn't necessary, su Wanwan didn't want to call PEI Munian. After all, she knew her own limits. PEI Munian wouldn't want to pick up her call. So for the past half a month, he didn't go home and she didn't dare to call him. But now, she had no choice but to call. Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to talk to him about the payment.

Su Wanwan dawdled. After making countless mental preparations, she picked up her phone, found his number, and dialed it with trembling fingers.

The beeping sound rang in her ear. Su Wanwan's heart beat faster and faster with the sound.

After that, it rang for a while, but no one picked up. Su Wanwan's eyes dimmed a little. Just when she thought that PEI Munian wouldn't pick up her call, the phone suddenly connected. The next second, the man's deep and pleasant voice came over, "what's the matter?"

His tone was as cold as ever, without any warmth.

Su Wanwan felt her heart skip a beat and even held her breath unconsciously. She had prepared a stomach full of words but didn't know how to open her mouth.

She didn't speak for a long time. PEI Munian seemed to be impatient and her tone became a little bad. su Wan, are you mute? ”

Su Wanwan's heart skipped a beat. She was frightened by his words and swallowed the words that were at the tip of her tongue.

With PEI Munian's current level of dissatisfaction with her, if she were to directly mention the payment, she would probably be rejected immediately and be scolded with harsh words. Hence, she could only be tactful.

Su Wanwan thought for a while, organized her words, then cleared her voice and spoke in a soft voice, ” PEI, PEI Munian, are you coming home tonight? ”
