Chapter 56 Payment in installments (6)

How much did PEI Munian hate her that every word and sentence hit her in her soft spot? it hurt like hell, but she could not even cry out in pain.

Su Wanwan raised her head slightly, blinked a few times, and suppressed the desire to cry.

PEI Munian kept looking at su Wanwan. Seeing that she was standing there in a daze and did not move for a long time, he sneered again and opened his thin lips. what? You don't want the money?"

Su Wanwan closed her eyes and then slowly opened them. All the emotions in her eyes were hidden by her.

"Yes, of course I want it." Su Wanwan curved her lips and squeezed out a smile. it's rare for you to come back. I naturally have to serve you well.

PEI Munian's expression instantly darkened.

Su Wanwan secretly gritted her teeth and walked to him. Then, she reached out and unbuttoned PEI Munian's shirt, one button at a time.

However, her hands were trembling so badly that she could not unbutton a few buttons even after a long time.

PEI Munian's dark eyes were filled with undisguisable coldness and mockery, as if to say that she could not even unbutton a button and she wanted him to be satisfied?

Her pearly white teeth bit her lower lip hard, almost to the point of bleeding. Su Wanwan seemed to have gone all out. She controlled the trembling of her hands and quickly unbuttoned all the buttons. Then, she took off PEI Munian's shirt.

The man's strong and firm chest was immediately presented in front of her.

Although su Wanwan had intimate contact with PEI Munian three times, the first two times were after she was drunk and unconscious. The second time, she almost closed her eyes the entire time and silently endured it. So this was the first time she looked at a man's naked upper body at such a close distance.

Su Wanwan was stunned for a second and subconsciously looked away. Her cheeks were a little hot uncontrollably.

Her top was easy to take off, but her lower body made su Wanwan pause for a moment. She was a little hesitant. She looked at the belt on PEI Munian's pants and couldn't reach out.

PEI Munian's patience finally ran out when she saw her hesitating.

What he hated the most was her putting on an act in front of him. She was clearly experienced in battle, but she still had to pretend to be pure and innocent. Every time she acted like this, he couldn't help but think of her in the past.

The SU Wan of that year always chased after him, raising that pure and innocent face, saying that she liked him, saying that she fell in love with him at first sight, saying that she wanted to fall in love with him, saying that she wanted to be together with him for a lifetime, but in the end, everything was a lie, all lies!

PEI Munian's hands suddenly clenched tightly, and her voice revealed extreme ruthlessness. su Wan, either you'd better be straightforward, or get out of here immediately. You're making me lose my appetite!

Su Wanwan's hands trembled from PEI Munian's words. She clenched her hands tightly and her sharp nails poked her palms, but she didn't feel it at all. The next second, she let go of her hands and suppressed all the shame and sadness in her heart. She reached out, quickly unbuckled his belt, and unzipped his pants without blinking.

She didn't want to cry, but tears still floated up disobediently and swirled in her eyes. Su Wanwan lowered her head and suppressed her choking sobs. Then she suddenly straightened up and directly kissed PEI Munian's lips with her red lips.

PEI Munian's Black pupils suddenly contracted, and her whole body tensed up.
