PEI family corporation's mid-year Gala

She had been so busy the past year that she had forgotten how much time had passed. It was the New Year's midnight party.

At the mid-year Gala a year ago, PEI Munian announced in front of everyone that she would acquire Su Corporation. It was like a tight slap to her face. She could still remember that scene vividly. Was Wanwan going to announce his marriage to Xi Zhiwei at such an important Gala?

Marriage ah! Su Wanwan's Black eyes looked out of the car window and her eyes slowly became dazed.

Yu Jia was still fighting for justice. Xi Zhiwei is a b * tch. She's done so many bad things and she's still in the limelight now. If she really marries PEI Munian, it'll be really unfair!

As he spoke, Yu Jia couldn't help but criticize PEI Munian again. PEI Munian is really too much. He was so good to you before. I thought he was sincere to you. Although it was Wanwan who hurt him when you ran away from the marriage, he shouldn't have stooped so low as to look at Xi Zhiwei. What kind of look is that!

If she had not found out that her child was miscarried because of Xi Zhiwei, she would at most be sad at this moment. After all, she had chosen this path and had to complete it even if she had to hold back her tears. However, Qianqian's child died because of Xi Zhiwei and Xiao Zeze was almost hurt because of Xi Zhiwei. She, Qianqian, had misunderstood PEI Munian for so long and hated him for so long because of her.

She wanted PEI Munian to be happy, but she did not want to see Xi Zhiwei happy!

For so long, Xi Zhiwei had provoked her and found fault with her, but she had been too lazy to argue with her because she did not want to waste her time on unnecessary people. However, she did not expect her to be so insatiable and vicious.

After the SU family fell from grace, she had restrained her temper a lot. She would try to tolerate whatever she could, but she could not tolerate this matter.

Xi Zhiwei had killed her child, so she could forget about living happily ever after! Although she couldn't make her pay with her life, she had to make her pay a heavy price!

"I won't let her have her way!"

Su Wanwan suddenly opened her mouth. Her voice was very low, but it was extremely determined, with a murderous aura.

Yu Jia was shocked by her words. Then, she clapped hard. yes, don't let Xi Zhiwei get what she wants. We can't let her continue to be so smug! Wanwan, I support you!"

After the applause, Yu Jia asked again, "Wanwan, do you have any plans?" "Do you need my help? I'll definitely do it!"

Su Wanwan thought for a while and said, "Xi Zhiwei did so many things. Isn't it because she wants to clear all the obstacles and marry PEI Munian?" Then the best way to fight back is to make her unable to marry!"

that's right, that's right. Whatever she wants, she'll just have to take it away. Anger her to death!

Yu Jia became excited as he spoke. what are you going to do that night? " Was she going to cause a scene at the party and expose Xi Zhiwei's ugly true face so that she would be too embarrassed to face anyone? If they messed up the party, they wouldn't be able to announce their marriage! This is a good idea!"

"Ahem."

Her ideal was full but reality was cruel. Even though it was a good idea to expose Xi Zhiwei's true colors, she had only made her own assumptions about Wanwan. She had no evidence. Who would believe her one-sided story?

Moreover, PEI Munian probably didn't have any feelings for her Wanwan anymore. If she were to cause a scene, he would probably get someone to throw her out.
