

Deeply 607

607 I'm wooing you (7)

"Aiyaya." Assistant Wu sighed softly. Knowing that she could not hide it, she could only tell the truth. boss PEI said that he will come over when the results are out.

Su Wanwan understood. Maybe assistant Wu's words were implicit. His original words should be, when the results are out and it's confirmed that it's his child, he will come over.

Su Wanwan bit her lower lip with her pearly white teeth. Her hand unconsciously tightened the strap of her backpack and she tried to squeeze out a smile. it doesn't matter. Then let's go and check.

Assistant Wu looked at her bitter smile and opened his mouth, wanting to remind her of something. However, the big BOSS's cold face flashed in his mind, and he held back.

Forget it, he'd better mind his own business. It's what it should be!

The examination process was very simple. After extracting Ozawa's hair and saliva, the next thing to do was to wait for news. Because it was an urgent procedure, the results would only be known in two days.

Although Yu Jia patted her chest and told her that she had already mediated, and when the results came out, Xiao Zeze and PEI Munian's DNA comparison would definitely be a 99.9% match, but there was no need to be afraid of just in case, only ten thousand. These two days, su Wan had been living in anxiety, until she received PEI Munian's call again.

This time, it was PEI Munian who personally called her. When she heard his voice, su Wanwan was a little surprised and couldn't react in time. PEI Munian said something on the other end, but she didn't hear anything.

Perhaps it was because she had not said anything, PEI Munian's tone deepened and her voice was cold. did you hear me? "

Su Wanwan blinked and suddenly came back to her senses. ah? What did you just say? Can you say it again?"

PEI Munian was silent for a moment before she opened her mouth coldly again. let's meet at noon tomorrow and talk about the child's custody. You can decide on the location.

Let's talk about the child's custody, Hanhan.

These few words slowly entered her ears. Su Wan took a slight breath. It seemed that the fake DNA report that urged Yu Jia to make really deceived PEI Munian.

Although she was a little glad, she was also a little uneasy and a little unreal.

She actually managed to deceive him just like that, Yingluo.

A trace of guilt rose from the bottom of su Wanwan's heart. With his reaction when he found out about her second pregnancy, she could see that he should like children, but she used children to deceive him Yingluo. If he knew that Xiao Zeze wasn't his child in the future, he would definitely be very angry and very disappointed, right?

Su Wanwan's Red lips wriggled. She had an impulse to reveal all her lies. PEI Munian, actually Wanwan.

In fact, little Zeze is not our child.

It was a very simple sentence, but when the words reached his mouth, he couldn't say them.

If Xiao Zeze was not around, he would definitely divorce her. Even though Xiao Zeze was his child, he only wanted to talk about the child's custody, not their marriage.

If she were to tell him now that the child was not his, they might be discussing divorce. Then she could only watch as he and Xi Zhiwei got married!

No, no, I can't say it now. I can't say it now.

Since she had already taken the first step, she could only walk down this dark path. No matter what, she had to stabilize her marriage with PEI Munian first. As for Xiao Zeze, this was not his child. At most, she could have another one and return it to him.
